Peter Engelstad, secretary and treasurer of the Valhall Federal Farm Loan association, and F. T. Satre, a director of that organization, both farmers residing near Thief River Falls, returned Saturday from St. Paul where they attended a conference of officials of similar associations in the state. Fully 300 officers of 178 associations in Minnesota were in attendance. The meeting was called by the Federal Land bank and was in the nature of a school of instruction as well as conference, the sessions being presided over by E. G. Quamme, president of the Federal Land bank.

"With not a foreclosure on a Minnesota farm mortgage pending on the books of the Federal Land bank despite a total of $32,0000,000 extended in such mortgages, the agricultural situation in the state can be regarded only as sound and promising for the future," H. K. Jennings, secretary of the bank, said at the conference.

With 7,535 loans outstanding in the state, there are not 50 delinquencies on the books; these run from 30 to 60 days, and are merely temporary and not worth mentioning," Mr. Jennings said. "If a farmer will follow balanced farming with skill he will have no difficulty in retiring his mortgaged indebtedness under our plan. We won't loan to a straight grain cropping farmer, but we have the utmost confidence in the farmer who carries on a balanced program."

"Things look better today than they did a year ago. I don't see any reason why they will not look still better a year from now."

Taxpayers Assisted By Income Tax Expert Here. Mar. 15 Last Day to File

Questions regarding the 1923 income tax return blanks were answered by E. J. Masterson, income tax expert of the internal revenue department, who was in this city three days last week to aid taxpayers of this community. A large number of persons availed themselves of the opportunity to get expert assistance in making out returns.

With only nine days remaining in which to file income tax returns, taxpayers are warned against delay in forwarding their returns to Collectors of Internal Revenue. Some taxpayers are holding back hoping to take full advantage of the proposed reductions, and especially of the 25 per cent reduction on income for the year 1923. However, the tax on income for the year 1923 is being collected under the Revenue Act of 1921, which is still in effect, and which provides heavy penalties for failure or "willful refusal" to file a return and pay at least one-fourth of the tax on or before March 15, 1924. The Revenue Act of 1924, containing this and other proposed reductions, is now before Congress and there is little likelihood of its enactment prior to the closing day of the filing period.

The proposed 25 per cent reduction in the tax on income for the year 1923 is retroactive to January 1, 1923. Enactment of the pending legislation means, in the case of taxpayers who pay on the installment plan, a revision of their accounts in the offices of the collectors by crediting the accounts with one fourth of the amount of the tax declared to be due on the return. In those cases where the tax is paid in full at the time of filing the returns, the 25 per cent excess will be refunded promptly without the requirement of filing a claim.

Appartment Damaged $1500 Fire Dept. Gets Two Calls

Damage, estimated at about $1500, was caused in the First National bank building apartments occupied by Dr. T. M. Kolberg, Sunday noon, when fire of uncertain origin broke out destroying furniture and fixtures. The prompt action of the fire department in responding to the call confined the fire to the apartments in which it started.

The fire department was called out Friday also, a chimney fire in the home of Mrs. Caroline Barlow having started in the afternoon and burning until about 11:30, when the department was notified and put it out. No damage, beyond water and dirt resulted.

Banquet Honoring Lampert Given at Evelyn. Left For Minneapolis to Join Uncle

The Hotel Evelyn was the scene of an elaborate banquet Monday evening when a group of about 40 local men entertained in compliment to L. A. Lampert, who left Tuesday evening for St. Paul to enter into the lumber business with his uncle, Jake Lampert. Dinner was served at seven o'clock, followed by a number of toasts and speeches. J. S. Arneson was toastmaster and filled the bill in his usual snappy manner. After the dinner those present engaged in cards, spending the evening hours at their favorite games. Mr. Lampert was presented with a leather bag by those who took part in the event.

Mr. Lampert came to this city six years ago and was engaged in the banking business for three years and for a while served on the state bank examiner staff. He was also with the Federal Land bank for a while. Recently he was with the Lyle culvert company. He goes to St. Paul to be engaged in the lumber business of his uncle, the Lampert Lumber company, which has yards in southern Minnesota, with headquarters in St. Paul.

Mr. Lampert was a active member of the Elks lodge and a live citizen, taking an active part in civic affairs of the community. He was at one time treasurer of the Pennington county fair association and took an active part in Commercial club affairs.

Mrs. Lampert will leave for St. Paul to take up residence there the latter part of the month.

Former T. R. F. Publisher in Bemidji Expands Business

As the result of a sale consumated last week, a majority of the stock of the Bemidji Pioneer Publishing company was purchased by H. Z. Mitchell and W. F. Marcus, owners of the Bemidji Sentinel Publishing company, and as soon as possible a working agreement between the two corporations will be arrived at.

Bemidji will now have a strong weekly and a strong daily paper. The Bemidji Weekly Pioneer will be kept intact for the present but will probably later be consolidated with the Sentinel weekly.

Mr. Mitchell for a short time published the News-Press in this city until in 1918 when that paper was purchased by R. H. Ross of The Times and Mr. Mitchell moved to Bemidji.

COUNTY SCHOOLS TO GET $6,728.40

March Apportionment is Shared by 3,204 Pupils—$6.50 Each For Year

Pennington county's share of the March school apportionment, made public this week by the state department of education, is $6,728.40, the lowest amount for several years, according to county officials. The distribution is on the basis of $2.10 per pupil, with a total credit of 3,204 for the county. The October apportionment last year totalled $14,097.60, at a rate of $4.40 per pupil for the same number of pupils. In 1922 the total March apportionment was $8,208, only 2040 pupils being credited, on the basis of $2.70 per pupil.

More than 400,000 pupils of the public schools of the state will share benefits of the semi-annual apportionment of the school fund totalling $1,031,650.20 certified for payment this week by J. M. McConnell, commissioner of education. Distribution is based on the school enrollment for 1923. The per capita rate per pupil of $2.10, added to a distribution of $4.40 for each pupil last October will make a total distribution of $6.50 a pupil for the present school year.

The number of pupils qualifying for apportionment is 11,545 more than in 1922, and 40,206 more than in 1921.

This money is obtained from interest on the permanent school fund and the one mill state school tax. Money for the apportionment will be available to the school districts when the county treasurer makes his March tax settlement.

Judge Grindeland Renders District Court Decisions

Decisions in the following civil cases in district court have been rendered by Judge Andrew Grindeland since the close of the February session, according to information secured from Clerk of Court Adolf Eklund:

Albert S. Lieberman vs. Arthur P. Fox, plaintiff given judgment against defendant for the sum of $154, the amount of a check in question, with interest from Feb. 1923, and costs assessed against defendant Fox.

Farmers State Bank of Goodridge vs. Oliver Tommerdahl and Goodridge State bank, garnishee, and Citizens State bank of Thief River Falls, intervenor, the court found that the intervenors is entitled to judgment against the garnishee, the Goodridge State bank, for the sum of $211.79 and against the plaintiff for costs.

Stephen Singer vs. Farmers State bank of Goodridge, court holds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment against defendant for $92.50, interest and costs. The suit concerned a sale of mortgaged property.

In the matter of the estate of Peter A. Ekstrom the appeal from the probate court denying C. L. Hansen to correct and modify the final decree in estate was upheld by the district court.

Prof. E. M. Broen Here

Prof. E. M. Broen of the Bible school of the "Broder-Samfund" at Grand Forks is conducting meetings at the Scandinavian Evangelical church here during the entire week. Sessions are held each afternoon at 2:30 and evening at 7:30. The afternoon meetings are a series of bible lectures while the evening program is a sermon. Sunday evening will terminate the series.

Notice of Election

The annual town meeting and election for Town of North will be held on Tuesday, March 11, 1924, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., at the Sons of Norway Club Rooms, Thief River Falls, Minn., for the purpose of electing officers and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting.

STOMACH SUFFERERS PRAISE STO-LI-GAL

St. Paul, Minn.—Many St. Paul people state that they are experiencing quick relief from stomach troubles through a preparation known as Sto-li-gal. P. F. Bewer, 823 Shomas st., manager of the Eagle Laundry, was experiencing terrible pains in the stomach and back, had a gassy, sour stomach and constipation. He states that the use of Sto-li-gal has given him complete relief. He says he could actually feel it working through his system and that its action was like magic. He is now freed from the pains and constipation, has a wonderful appetite and sleeps wonderfully well. Rev. Thomas A. Brinton, 1151 N. Chatsworth st.; Mrs. Ella Stiff, 998 McLean ave.; W. P. Driscoll, 1942 Selby ave.; E. M. Kelly, 961 Hudson ave.; Mrs. J. A. Schwartz, 1488 W. Minnehaha st., and hundreds of others report quick and permanent relief. Sto-li-gal is sold by druggists everywhere. Demand it of your druggist. If he cannot supply you send $1.00 for full combination treatment or 10c for trial treatment sent postage paid by Digestive Chemical Co., 800 University ave., St. Paul, Minn. Sto-li-gal is highly recommended for the relief of gassy, sour stomach, pains in stomach and back, indigestion, dyspepsia, shortage of breath, yellow jaundice, chronic appendicitis, gall stones and chronic constipation. It is sold in Thief River Falls by Dr. H. B. Newell and Roy Lambert's Drug Store.

WELFARE BOARD OF COUNTY IS RE-APPOINTED FOR YEAR

State Board of Control Announces Members in Charge of Child Welfare Work

The child welfare legislation of 1917 authorizes the State Board of Control, on request of the county board of commissioners, to appoint a Child Welfare board in each county in the state. Seventy-two counties of the state now have organized Child Welfare boards. For the calendar year of 1924, the Board of Control has re-appointed as members of the Child Welfare board in Pennington county: Mrs. J. M. Bishop, Thief River Falls; Mrs. L. G. Larsen, Thief River Falls; Peter C. Wold, Kratka; Ole R. Sande, county superintendent of schools, ex-officio, Thief River Falls; J. S. Roy, member of county board, ex-officio, St. Hilaire.

The members of this board serve without compensation and are charged with performance of such duties as may be required of them by the State Board of Control. It is the duty of the State Board of Control to promote the enforcement of all laws for the protection of defective, illegitimate, dependent, neglected, and delinquent children, to co-operate to this end with juvenile courts and all reputable child-helping and child-placing agencies of a public or private character, and to take the initiative in all matters involving the interests of such children where adequate provision therefor has not already been made.

The magnitude of the work under this law is shown by the reports of the Children's Bureau for the five and one-half years ending June 30, 1923. Cases relating to the welfare of children, acted upon by the Children's Bureau and the Child Welfare boards, were as follows:

Investigations of homes for temporary placement of children	1721
Investigations of homes for adoption	2128
Cases of unmarried mothers	6413
Feeble-minded, committed to the State Board of Control	1543
Miscellaneous cases of neglect, delinquency, etc.	3175

In addition to this work, the Board inspected and certified:

Maternity hospitals	198
Child-caring institutions	24
Child-caring agencies	90
Boarding homes	219

The Child Welfare Board of each county acts as the agent of the State Board of Control in carrying on this work. It co-operates with the county board of commissioners, the county attorney, and the juvenile and district courts in a program of social welfare which each community owes towards its helpless and unfortunate.

"IN SPRING A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY TURNS," FEB. WAS BALMY BUT IN SPITE OF ALL

Records from the clerk of court's office here would indicate that Dan Cupid is sleeping on the job. Only six marriage licenses have been issued in Pennington county during the months of January and February, three of which were issued during the leap year month. Only one license was issued on Leap Year Day. Last year for the first two months 17 licenses were issued. However, we cannot yet hold Leap Year responsible until further inactivity in the matrimonial field proves the case. The last Leap year, 1920, 126 licenses for marriage were issued by the clerk of court. The previous Leap year, 1916, had 120 to its credit. The only other year in the history of the county which could compare with these two years was 1915 with 123 applicants to wedlock.

Local Youth Faces Serious Charge by St. Hilaire Girl

Charge was made in municipal court Tuesday by Miss Alice Koldahl of Eveleth, formerly of St. Hilaire, against Amos Pederson of this city for a statuary offense. Theodore Quale appeared for the complaint as the state's attorney and H. O. Chommie for the defendant. Pederson was bound over to the next term of district court under a $500 bond, which was furnished.

Local Creamery Opens Publicity Campaign in The Times

A series of 52 articles dealing with the history of dairying and discussions of dairy problems will be published in The Times thru the efforts of the Thief River Falls Co-operative Creamery association, these articles being prepared by A. J. McGuire, general manager of the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries' association, according to an announcement appearing elsewhere in this issue.

This service should prove of value and interest to every reader of The Times who is engaged in dairying or in any way interested in the industry, its past history and growth and the solving of existing problems. Watch for these articles each week.

MASONS HERE FROM 10 TOWNS TONIGHT

Third Degree Work To Be Conducted by Local Order of Masons in This City

The local Masonic lodge will be hosts to delegates from lodges thruout the entire section of the state this evening when they gather at the Masonic temple here in a business meeting and to confer the third degree to members. Five candidates for the degree work are expected.

At the business session the matter of the time and place to hold a picnic this summer for Masons and their families for the whole valley will be taken up. Delegates and representatives from the Masonic orders of Baudette, Warroad, Roseau, Hallock, Argyle, Stephen, Warren, Crookston, East Grand Forks and Red Lake Falls will be present. After the business meeting and degree work, a social hour will be enjoyed by the Masons.

Rev. Lundquist Leaves City To Become Pastor at Oglene

Rev. C. S. Lundquist, who has made his headquarters in this city the past two years as field missionary in the Northern Red River Valley for the Swedish Mission church, left last Thursday for Oglene, this state, where he has accepted a call as pastor of a congregation. He was accompanied by his wife and child.

On Monday evening of last week a farewell reception was tendered the departing missionary at the parsonage of Rev. O. J. Lundell, of the Swedish Mission church, attended by about 40 members of the local congregation. Short talks were given by Rev. Lundell, A. W. Brodin and Chas. Gustafson, Rev. Lundell presenting the honor guest with a sum of money as a token of esteem from those present, all expressing regret that Rev. Lundquist leaves the city and field. The recipient of the gift responded with a few remarks, stating that he had greatly enjoyed his work in this section. A poem written for the occasion was read by Gust Anderson, and a number of selections were given by a ladies quartette. Following the program refreshments were served by the ladies present.

Rev. Lundquist is a graduate of the Moody Bible institute of Chicago. During his stay here the family resided at 236 Tindolph avenue.

Many Have Appendicitis Don't Know It

Much so-called stomach trouble is really chronic appendicitis. This can often be relieved by simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adlerika. Most medicines act only on lower bowel but Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, and removes all gasses and poisons. Brings out matter you never thought was in your system. Excellent for obstinate constipation. F. J. Stebbins, druggist.

To You!

Lucky is the man who can say "I don't even know that I have a stomach." In him that organ is working so perfectly that he isn't even aware of its existence.

Pain and distress of any sort are merely Nature's way of warning you that something is wrong. You may disregard those warnings for a time; or you may deaden them with drugs; but nature is no respecter of persons, and in the end you will pay the penalty.

Far better to heed the first signals of danger; find out the CAUSE of your trouble, and have that cause adjusted. The cause is in the spine, an obstruction of the flow of vital current over the nerves, an obstruction brought about by the pressure of hard bony substance against delicate nerve substance.

Let us examine your spine and tell you why you are having those distressing symptoms—Nature's warnings. Consultation and spinal analysis free—our way of convincing you that Chiropractic is Truly the better way to health.

Two Petty Cases Dismissed In Municipal Court Tuesday

Two cases were brot up in municipal court Tuesday, both were dismissed by Judge N. W. Tarrant. Mrs. James Piperew charged Elmer Roll with retaining possession of a ring, valued at $50, and breaking a Victrola, repair said to have cost $6.10. The charge was denied by the defendant, and the case dismissed from the municipal court as bearing insufficient evidence to warrant conviction.

Herbert Urshitz, residing east of this city, was charged with the theft of property valued at $60, said to have taken place Oct. 22nd, the charge being made by Peder Sabo. County attorney Quale recommended the dismissal of the case on the grounds of insufficient evidence to warrant conviction.

M'INTOSH DEFEATS ARGYLE IN FINAL GAME OF BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT HERE LAST WEEK

RECEIPTS AT GAMES TOTAL OVER $1,000

T. R. F. Team Defeated by Fosston in Hard Fought Game. Lead During First Half

The McIntosh high school basketball team, by defeating the Argyle representatives in the finals of the tournament held in Thief River Falls last Thursday and Friday by a score of 15 to 13, captured the championship of the First Minnesota District. The game which was a hotly contested one, closed what was declared to be the most successful basketball tournament ever held in this district, altho it was held in this city for the first time in history.

Record crowds attended all the games, Thursday afternoon and evening and Friday forenoon and evening, large delegations from towns in the district such as Argyle, Warren, McIntosh, Crookston, East Grand Forks and other points, being in attendance. It is said that about 200 Argyle fans came to this city for the tournament, and about 100 Warrenites added to the crowds. Altho bleachers had been constructed on all sides in the large auditorium, there was hardly standing room anywhere, it being estimated that about 1,000 persons witnessed the finals on Friday evening and nearly as many the other contests. The gross receipts totaled more than $1,000 which clearly indicates the interest and spirit with which Thief River Falls citizens responded. It is said that at no time has the tournament games been so well patronized as in this city last week.

The eight teams in the district having the highest standing competed for honors in the tournament, practically every one of the seven games played being a hard fought battle until the final whistle. The scores were close except in the East Grand Forks-Roseau game in which the latter was swamped 29 to 8.

Macks Win First Game

As a result of the drawings by the district committee McIntosh clashed with the Warren quint in the opening game of the tourney Thursday afternoon, in which the former, final champs of the district, were victorious by a score of 25 to 14. McIntosh, the quint doped to enter the finals, was forced to content itself at times to holding the Warrenites within bounds, the latter putting up a strong fight to stay in the running. The winners presented a well organized passing game and a strong defense, while Warren's offense lacked power to score with any degree of success, many long shots being attempted and missed. On the Warren quint Tullar, forward, and L. Larson, guard, played a good game, while Hill, running guard on the winning team showed excellent work, Torgrimson, forward, also making many shots by pivoting around opponents.

Roseau Swamped

In the second contest of the afternoon East Grand Forks won a decisive victory over Roseau by a score of 29 to 8. The overwhelming defeat was a surprise to many as Roseau had entered the tournament with a good record, being second only to Fosston. The East Grand Forks quint had no trouble in winning, the northerners being lost on the large floor and displayed practically no offense and a weak defense. It was declared the slowest game of the tournament. The winners played a successful passing game, working the ball under the basket, but the only reason why the score was not larger was because the East Siders missed many baskets.

Argyle Defeats Ada

In the first game Thursday evening Argyle entered the tournament by defeating the Ada five by a score of 18 to 14, a close contest thruout. The Ada quint played an erratic game, attempting many long shots and failing to work the ball down the floor. Argyle was rather slow in getting started but with her fighting spirit and determination to win overcame Ada by ability to connect up with the basket. It is said that Ada did not show its usual form in the game. Bedard of the Argyle five played a hard game and was the high scorer for the winners.

Locals Lose To Fosston

In the last contest staged Thursday night Fosston, favored to win the dis-

Rev. Madson of Bod, Iowa To Speak at Trinity Sun.

Rev. M. A. Madson of Bod, Iowa, will address the Young Peoples society of the Trinity Lutheran church tonight and will hold divine services in that church Sunday. He arrived this morning and will be a guest at the I. T. Simley home during his stay. Rev. Madson is a classmate of Prof. Simley from Luther college. He is said to be an excellent speaker and it is expected that many will attend the Young Peoples' meeting this evening and the services next Sunday.

The Trinity church was filled to capacity at both the evening and morning services last Sunday, when the sermon was preached by Rev. T. O. Svare of Sherwood, N. D. He is a brilliant speaker and a person who is able to instill inspiration into his hearers. Rev. T. E. Sweger, the local pastor, who has resigned from the charge here, was also present and told of his work with the budget fund of the church in the Rocky Mountain district.

City Schools Will Have No Spring Vacation This Year

The schools of Thief River Falls will have no spring vacation this year according to a decision by the city school instructors and the board of education. The matter was put to a vote among the teachers and the result showed 23 opposed to the vacation, 19 in favor of it and nine indifferent. The board of education, at its meeting Monday evening, decided that there should be no recess at Easter as previously. Good Friday will be observed as a legal holiday.

MANY MATTERS ARE TAKEN UP BY CITY ALDERMEN TUESDAY

Taxi License Asked; Piers Under Filter Plant Completed; Office Hours For Clerk

When city clerk, P. G. Peterson, read the roll call Tuesday night all aldermen were present and much business was transacted before adjournment at 10:15.

Following the reading of the minutes and their approval a dance license was granted to the American Legion for a dance at the auditorium next Monday night, St. Patrick's day. August Carlson appeared before the council asking that a taxi license of $25 for busses carrying five people and $50 for those carrying ten passengers be passed by the council. The matter was laid on the table awaiting further requests or objections from other taxi men of the city.

A request was received from Ralph D. Thomas, expert engineer, who was here last summer making a survey of the river and the power possibilities, asking that the city remit to him the amount of his bill for the work, viz: $2,504.22 which had been temporarily passed by the old council. The matter was referred to the city attorney until the next meeting.

Martin Evenson advised the council that he had completed the task of placing seven concrete piers under the filtration plant so that it would not continue sinking and cracking, the work being done along the lines as set forth in The Times recently.

The sewer lifts on Horace avenue and Bridge street have often given trouble due to freezing and the aldermen in charge of this part of the city's affairs advised the council that they had taken the proper precautions to avoid any trouble along this line, installing pumps to care for such an emergency.

Hereafter regular office hours from 8 a. m., till noon and from 1 to 6 p. m., are to be in force at the auditorium in the city clerk's office and also for guidance of the men in the electrical department. The clerk and assistant will so arrange their hours that each one will be on duty eight hours while the men in the electrical department will be on duty nine hours each.

Other matters requiring attention of the council were those of the monthly reports, the granting of milk and soft drink licenses, receipt of a personal injury suit, and consideration of an additional unit at the power plant, all of which are fully covered elsewhere in this issue of The Times.

$2,000 INJURY SUIT FILED AGAINST CITY

Mrs. Julia Ballinger Makes Claim For Injuries in Fall On Slippery Sidewalk

A personal injury suit has been filed against the city in the sum of $2,000 by Mrs. Julia Ballanger for injuries sustained by her as a result of slipping on a sidewalk on the south side of Zeh street, near the Model Steam laundry on Feb. 16 last.

The notice was filed with the city clerk on the last day of February and came before the council at its regular meeting Tuesday night, being referred to the city attorney for proper attention.

The notice states that the sidewalk at that time had been covered with snow and ice and that the fall resulted in breaking the bones of her right ankle and crippling her for life, for which Mrs. Ballanger seeks compensation.

To Give Lecture Here

Two free public lectures will be given at the auditorium Sunday, Mar. 16, at 3 and 7:30 p. m., by G. G. Nybeck, one of the ablest speakers of the International Bible Students association, Minneapolis. The following questions will be discussed: "What is the Soul," "What is Hell?" "If a person dies unsaved in this life, is there hope of salvation beyond the grave?"

Brick Wall Constructed on West Front of Penney Store

Alteration of a portion of the west front of the Evenson building on the corner of Main avenue and Third street now occupied by the J. C. Penney company store, was begun last week and workmen are busy building up a brick wall to replace four sections of window space north from the west entrance. The change will provide considerable more room for shelving purposes and leaves ample space for display windows.

Saturday Is Last Day to File Income Tax Returns

The period for filing income-tax returns for the calendar year 1923 ends at midnight Saturday, March 15. Heavy penalties are provided by the revenue act for persons who fail or "willfully refuse" to make a return or pay the tax on time.

For failure to make a return a taxpayer becomes liable to a penalty of $1,000, and a further penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of the tax, unless a later return is filed and it is satisfactorily shown that the delinquency was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

For willful refusal to make a return or pay the tax on time a taxpayer becomes liable to a penalty of $10,000 or one year's imprisonment, or both, together with the cost of prosecution, and an added penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of the tax.

If in an income-tax return attempt is made to evade or defeat the tax, the offender is liable to imprisonment not exceeding one year and to a fine of not more than $10,000 and costs, and, in addition, 50 per cent of the total tax evaded. If the understatement is due to negligence but without attempt to defraud, there is added 5 per cent of the total amount of the deficiency plus interest at the rate of 1 per cent a month until paid.

North Township Elects

Township and village elections were held thruout the state Tuesday. The following were elected in North township: Jorgen Eide, supervisor, three years; M. H. Ballingrud, clerk; Waldie Christensen, treasurer; W. A. Quist, justice of peace; Christ Rustad, constable. Ninety-four votes were cast.

PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX ADDS $64,205 TO COUNTY COFFERS

Many Pay 1923 Tax on Last Day Before Penalty of 10 Per Cent Takes Effect

Personal property tax money for 1923, in the amount of $64,205.81 was collected during February by the county treasurer's office, according to figures submitted by Treasurer John Gullingsrud. He states that the greater share of this total was paid into the coffers of the county during the last few days in which payments could be made without the extra ten per cent penalty, which took effect March 1, the extra day in February being the final day. A total of about $80,000 was deposited by the treasurer on the last day for payment, a considerable amount coming in by mail.

Treasurer Gullingsrud states that the number of and amount of payments average up well with former years, although there still remains a number of taxpayers who have not yet settled their obligations to the county. He also says that the taxpayers in the country districts are paying up better than in the city.

An effort is being made by the recently organized $10,000,000 Agricultural Credit corporation to carry out a plan of loaning money direct to farmers to pay off delinquent taxes. Assistance of bankers in county seats, county commissioners, auditors and treasurers will be secured by the corporation.

Farmers who have not paid taxes upon which penalties already have attached are to be supplied money for their payment at 6 per cent, in cases where repayment within a reasonable period is assured. The corporation's facilities and finances, of course, are limited, but it seeks to extend its work throughout the district, which comprises four states, Minnesota, Montana, North and South Dakota.

In many cases, interest ranging from 12 per cent to more than 25 per cent, where penalties have attached, would be terminated by payments and farmers would pay only 6 per cent.

Payment of these taxes would enable counties to reduce their debts, and the benefits would be passed along to teachers and other county employees, to merchants and even to wholesalers.

In some cases where schools are closed they would be reopened by payments of taxes.

Tax payments would reopen natural channels, which in some cases have been "frozen," extending its effects into all lines of commerce and industry, it is pointed out.

Rev. Sweger to Resume Work As Pastor Here April First

Rev. T. E. Sweger, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, who has been engaged in the work of raising the budget for the United Lutheran church in the Rocky Mountain district spent the week end with his family in this city. He will be thru with the work by the latter part of the month, until he resumes it again in July, and will spend the intervening three months in this city as pastor of the church.

The Rev. Sweger states that he likes the work very much. Since assuming duties a few weeks ago he has traveled nearly 8,000 miles, carrying on the work in the interest of the budget. He was called to Minneapolis the latter part of last week from the West to make a report of the activities and spent Saturday and Sunday in this city, leaving Monday afternoon for the coast. Up to this time his work has been confined to the Rocky Mountain district but he begins work in the coast district on his return. He was a guest of relatives at Moscow, Idaho, for a few days on his last trip.

During Rev. Sweger's absence the local church has been served by visiting pastors.

A leap year and an election both in 1924 is almost too much.

INCORPORATION OF COMMERCIAL CLUB IS VOTED

New Constitution Adopted at Regular Noon Luncheon Thursday, Last Week

NO CHANGE IN NATURE OF CLUB'S ACTIVITIES

Set of Twelve Directors Are Nominated at Meeting Today and Members Sign Up

The Thief River Falls Commercial club, at its regular noon luncheon Thursday, adopted the new constitution and by-laws under which it will be governed when incorporation is completed. The Commercial club has not operated as a corporate body in the past several years of its activity and the matter of incorporation is a timely procedure as the club's activities have reached the proportions where the work of the organization might be seriously handicapped by not taking these measures.

The new code of by-laws does not materially change the nature of the club but offers a few improvements. Under the new arrangements the board of directors will consist of 12 members instead of five as heretofore. However, the president of the club, the vice president and second vice president will be elected by and within the board of directors. The treasurer will be appointed by the board either within the board or among members not incuded in the board.

A secretary or manager will be employed by the club. Regular meetings will be held every Thursday noon. Five per cent of the members in good standing will constitute a quorum. The board of directors will be elected by presenting a list of all the members to each member who will vote for 24 members. The six members receiving the highest ballot will be elected to serve for a period of two years and the six receiving next highest ballot will serve on the board for a period on one year. After the first year only 12 members will be voted for and the six receiving the highest ballot will replace the six retiring members of the board. Special meetings may be called by the board of directors by notifying all members seven days in advance and stating the purpose of the special meeting. The president may call a meeting of the board of directors at any time with three hours notice. Any meetings at which the by-laws are to be changed or amended must be given notice of to each member seven days in advance.

The membership fees will remain as before; $12 for city business men, $6 for traveling men and $3 for farmers. No member, not in good standing, will be permitted to vote.

The new directors are being nominated at the regular noon luncheon today. An effort will be made to sign up members for the coming year as soon as possible, with a view of securing a membership of more than 100 paid up members.

GRADE HIGH SCHOOL TOURNEY TO BE HELD HERE NEXT WEEK

Sixteen Graded Schools of This District Will Meet in Basketball Tournament Here

The graded high schools of District No. 1 will hold their annual basketball tournament in Thief River Falls on Friday and Saturday, March 21 and 22.

There are sixteen graded high schools in this district and they have an organization very similar to that of the regular high schools, contending for athletic honors in much the same way. The towns that are expected to compete for the graded high school district championship are: Badger, Erskine, Fisher, Greenbush, Lancaster, Mentor, Middle River, Newfolden, Strandquist, Twin Valley, and Waubun.

Supt. John Nystul of Middle River is chairman of the committee in charge of the tournament and has practically completed all arrangements. The city council has granted free use of the auditorium for two days as they did for the district tournament last week.

There will undoubtedly be a large attendance at the games as this will be the last opportunity for fans to see any basketball this season.

BUSINESS OF PARK HOTEL TRANSFERED

Carl Hilliard Takes Charge of Park Hotel When Prestebak Leaves For Iron Range

A deal was closed last week whereby the business of the Park Hotel, for some years operated by Richard Prestebak, was transferred to Carl Hilliard. The Park Hotel, one of this city's oldest hotels, has been operated by Richard Prestebak for several years. Mr. Hillard assumed charge Monday last week.

According to present plans the business will be carried on in the usual manner. Mr. Hilliard has been employed in this city for several years, having been engaged in the barber business recently. Mr. Prestebak left last week for Hibbing, near which city he will be employed during the ensuing summer months.

U. C. T. Hold Annual Election Of Officers at Meeting Sat.

The local order of the U. C. T. held its annual election and installation of officers at the Masonic hall Saturday evening, when the following officers were elected and placed in office: H. L. Larsen, Senior councilor; A. H. Dorn, junior councilor; Ferdie A. Brown, past councilor; E. M. Bonnes, secretary-treasurer; C. Herbert Jung, conductor; F. Edward Hunt, page, and Milton Lund, sentinel. The executive committee men for a period of two years are E. O. Mogensen and M. C. Paulson. The delegate to the Grand convention at Albert Lea was selected and is Ferdie A. Brown, with Julien Provencher as alternate.

The U. C. T. lodge in this city is one of the livest lodges of the city. It now has a membership of 94, 60 of whom are residents of this city. Refreshments were served at a late hour by Julien Provencher. Many addresses by members of the lodge were made and the usual optimistic spirit of the U. C. T. lodge meeting prevailed.

Purchases Alfalfa Seed Here

I. M. Myrbo, cashier of the State Bank of Viking, was in this city Monday and purchased 2000 pounds of Pennington county home grown afalfa seed to be sown near Viking. The seed was purchased from the Tessum company and was put up in 30 and 60 pound bags for distribution among the farmers in that community. Each bag was accompanied by a certificate of origin.

St. Hilaire Victorious

St. Hilaire high school basket ball team defeated Mentor high at the latter place Friday night in a close contest, 23 to 21.

STATE GAME REFUGE ESTABLISHED ALONG THIEF RIVER NORTH

Game on Tract Two Miles Wide North From City Will Be Protected in Future

The establishment of an additional state game refuge in Pennington county has been practically assured, and, while the tract to be set aside is not very large it is worthy of mention.

The boundary lines as mapped out, commence at the northern boundary of the city, north two and one-half miles to the Marshall county line, comprising a tract of land two miles wide along the Thief river. This embraces approximately 3200 acres, less some 22½ acres in the southwest corner of the southwest section 22, adjoining the Thief river.

This particular section has always afforded, on account of its close proximity to Thief River Falls, an ideal place for small boys as well as older nimrods to constantly hunt game in season, as likewise rabbits, squirrel and the like, with the result that they are becoming very scarce and some step was necessary to put an end to the practice. The usual "No Hunting Allowed" sign apparently seems to be uneffective unless the owner happens to be present to see to its enforcement.

When the matter was taken up with the farmers and land owners in that district, it met with instant favor. The State Game Commission require the endorsement of all land owners in the proposed area in order to grant the petition for a game refuge without a public hearing. Emil Griebstein, farming just north of the city, made a personal solicitation of every owner obtaining the necessary signatures, with the result that the matter is now being favorably acted upon by the commission and this tract will soon be formally established as a State Refuge. Appropriate signs will be furnished by the state commissioner, which will be placed at conspicuous points to designate the boundary lines.

This is the only game refuge in the northern portion of our county. The townships of Rocksbury and Smiley, located south and southeast of the city, have been established as State Game Refuges for several years, and with splendid success.

Much has been done in recent years along this line of work and sportsmen should as the big majority of them are, be back of the movement and encourage it in every locality where possible, as well as assist in the enforcing of state and county game laws, it is pointed out.

The conservation of wild animal and bird life is a vital issue in Minnesota today. The drainage of various shallow lakes and swamp areas have caused them to be abandoned by ducks and geese for breeding and feeding grounds, with the result that the annual migratory flight of waterfowl in the fall has changed it's course, so that in this locality particularly, duck hunting "ain't what it used to be," as any hunter will testify. Incidentally, too, the tracts so drained are invariably unfit for anything but what nature originally intended them for—homes for our feathered friends.

The number of deer are decreasing annually throughout the state at an alarming rate, but a closed season, now in force, will be effective in checking this—temporarily at least.

The immigration of settlers into new, undeveloped districts has its effect in slowly but surely driving game to seek new quarters wherein they may live and propogate their young without fear of molestation, or, cease to be. Then, too, prairie, forest fires and disease take their annual toll so that it is not the hunter alone they have to contend with. From this it can be readily seen that unless provision is made for their protection, wild game life in Minnesota will take the same route as the American bison and soon be but a topic of conversation and reading matter for the coming generation.

For this reason, everyone, not alone our sportsmen, should identify themselves in a small way with this interesting work to the end that wild bird and animal life will ever find a permanent home in this great state.

W. W. Prichard, Jr., to Head Elks Lodge For Coming Year

The annual election of officers of the B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 1308 was held Friday evening at the club rooms. The officers as elected are W. W. Prichard, Jr., exalted ruler; O. C. Paulson, esteemed leading knight; Roy H. Brown, esteemed loyal knight; L. M. Rayson, esteemed lecturing knight; F. F. Protz, tyler; E. F. Dolan, secretary; F. H. Herrick, treasurer; W. H. Bon Durant, trustee; G. W. Connell, delegate to the Grand Lodge and E. F. Dolan, delegate to the state association meeting. The installation ceremonies will be held April 4th.

The Elks lodge ranks among the foremost organizations of Thief River Falls. For the coming year much relief and charity work has been planned. When a movement of worthy nature has needed support the Elks have at all times given as much assistance as was possible and has at times helped materially with various civic affairs.

COOLIDGE ENDORSED AT STATE GATHERING OF G.O.P. DELEGATES

Mrs. J. M. Bishop is Only Pennington Delegate in Attendance at St. Paul Convention

Pennington county republicans were represented at the state convention held in St. Paul last Saturday by one woman delegate, Mrs. J. M. Bishop being the only delegate named from this county to attend. The other delegates chosen at the county convention last week were: J. S. Arneson, E. O. Green, B. F. Umland, O. G. Paulson and Nick Bundhund. A number of delegates to the district convention here Friday went to St. Paul Friday night, the Ninth district being well represented.

Charles H. March of Litchfield, state manager of the Coolidge campaign, was unanimously chosen the first delegate at large as "the convention candidate."

The six other delegates at large are Charles N. Orr, St. Paul; Fred A. Dickey, Minneapolis; Mrs. P. L. Devoist, Duluth; A. O. Moreaux, Luverne; J. J. Rachac, Faribault, and J. H. Mark, Wadena.

C. M. Berg, McIntosh banker, was named alternate delegate to the national convention in Cleveland.

A. J. Rockne, Goodhue county, chairman of the convention, was authorized to name the state's twelve presidential electors, and he announced this would be done later, "after conferences with the recognized party leaders."

Resolutions adopted by the convention covered only five "planks," as follows:

Indorsement of President Coolidge and instruction to delegates.

Approval of measures for service men, including "adjusted compensation."

Indorsement of the McNary-Haugen bill, for relief of farming conditions.

Declaration for measures to curb mob rule and lynchings.

Election of members of the legislature on the party ballot.

In the absence of the regular delegates from this county Miss Effie Hamery, now with the rural credits bureau in St. Paul, until recently of this city, was selected to represent Pennington county at the convention.

The convention was a decided success in every respect, says Mrs. Bishop.

There was considerable talk regarding the candidacy of Ole Sageng of Ottertail county for the United States senate. No endorsements of candidates were made at the convention, however.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS TO MEET SATURDAY

Will Discuss Plans For Association Sale Next Fall at Gathering in City

Holstein breeders of the section tributary to Thief River Falls are urged to attend a meeting of the Pennington County Holstein Breeders' association to be held in the Commercial club rooms in this city Saturday, March 15, at 2:30 p. m., according to announcement by M. T. McFarland, secretary of the association.

The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss plans for the annual sale this coming fall and make arrangements for publicity and advertising of Pennington county Holstein herds during the summer months, prior to the sale. The matter of show herds will also be taken up.

Much interest in the raising of purebred stock is shown by Pennington county dairymen, which is clearly evidenced by the number of splendid herds which are found on farms in this community. Everyone in the community who is owner of a purebred Holstein sire should make it a point to attend the meeting Saturday to help boost the dairy industry and make it more profitable.

Hans Anton, one of the leading dairymen of this section, is president of the association.

Goodridge Will Celebrate Market Day Sat. March 15

A market day celebration has been scheduled to be held in Goodridge Saturday this week, merchants of that village having arranged to offer a number of genuine bargains for the occasion, making it particularly worth while for people of the eastern section of Pennington county to attend.

Programs of a specially interesting nature have been arranged.

WATSON-FIELD DELEGATES OF NINTH DISTRICT

National Convention Delegates Chosen at Gathering of Republicans Here

MRS. J. M. BISHOP OF THIS CITY ELECTED ALTERNATE

Convention Endorses Coolidge; McNary-Haugen Bill; Change in Esch-Cummins Act

The Ninth district Republican convention held in this city last Friday was well attended by delegates from all over this part of the state, there being nearly a full delegation from each of the thirteen counties comprising the district. When the convention was called to order at 11:30 following the arrival of the noon train from the south Wm. L. Petersen of Lancaster was made temporary chairman and Mrs. A. D. White of Frazee temporary secretary, succeeding C. Marden of Moorhead and Mrs. Emma J. Harwood of Roosevelt.

The chairman announced shortly the membership of the three committees of the convention, viz., Credentials, Permanent Organization and Resolutions, as follows:

Credentials: Becker county, M. P. Hanson; Pennington, F. F. Haynes; Marshall, N. A. Holen; Roseau, J. P. Grothe; Ottertail, Philip R. Monson.

Permanent Organization: Polk county, Martin Widsten; Clay, A. M. Hopeman; Kittson, P. A. Bjorang; Norman, Fred Larson; Becker, E. O. Sletvold.

Resolutions: Red Lake county, V. M. Higginbotham; Mahnomen, Dr. T. F. Rodwell; Polk, S. A. Sievertson; Marshall, Mrs. Wm. R. Merdink; Clay, F. H. Peterson.

The temporary organization was made permanent on recommendation of the committee, and the chair then added Mrs. J. M. Bishop as vice chairman with the approval of the delegates.

Nominations were then in order for delegates to the national convention at Cleveland and Dr. N. M. Watson of Red Lake Falls, J. S. Arneson of this city and Nate F. Field of Fergus Falls were placed in nomination. Of the 110 votes cast by the delegations Mr. Field received 98, Dr. Watson 68 and Mr. Arneson 54, the two first being declared the delegates, having received the highest number of votes.

J. S. Arneson of this city was then suggested as an alternate but he withdrew in favor of Mrs. J. M. Bishop, stating that he believed the convention should honor the women of the district as much as possible. Mrs. Emma J. Harwood of Roosevelt was also nominated and there being no other names offered they were declared the duly elected alternates.

The district was entitled to one presidential elector and P. N. Reese of McIntosh, Geo. W. Burrows of Wilkin and J. S. Arneson of this city were placed in nomination, Mr. Arneson, withdrawing before a ballot was taken. Mr. Reese secured 69 votes to 41 for Mr. Burrows and the former was declared the elector.

The resolutions committee were a busy body and accomplished a lot during the time they were in session, sensing the attitude of the delegates present and also of the state convention which met the following day at St. Paul. The resolutions favored a strict enforcement of the various laws now on the statutes; expressed sorrow over the deaths of President Warren G. Harding and Senator Knute Nelson; voiced its faith in Calvin Coolidge as president and favored his nomination at the national convention; commended the policy of strict economy in all departments of the government resulting in the reduction of the national debt; endorsed the efforts being made to relieve the stricken rural districts of the northwest thru emergency measures like the McNary-Haugen and similar bills pending before congress; stood for the enactment of adjusted compensation for the ex-service men in a fair and equitable manner; favored the choice of Col. C. H. March as delegate at large to the national convention; thanked the citizens of Thief River Falls for their hospitality during the stay of the delegates in this city; was heartily in accord with the idea of President Harding for the conscription of national wealth and industries in time of war as well as that of men; and believed that section ten of the Esch-Cummins law should be repealed.

The convention closed with a rising vote of thanks to the retiring officers.

The Pennington county delegates to the convention were: Mrs. J. M. Bishop, Mrs. Gaston Ward, Theo. Quale, H. S. Dahlen; Jorgen Eide and F. F. Haynes.

Agnes Ayres in "The Heart Raider" at Princess Theatre

One of the many gorgeous scenes in the Paramount picture, "The Heart Raider," starring Agnes Ayres, which will be on view at the Princess theatre next Friday and Saturday, is a magnificent charity pageant with Miss Ayres as the center of attraction. To the star, in the role of Muriel Gray, this social function means a chance to make good her boast that she would make John Dennis, a wealthy bachelor and woman hater, take her in his arms.

This is far easier said than done, as Muriel discovers.

But Muriel is not to be so easily discouraged. The picture shows in a novel and interesting manner how Muriel raids the heart of this indifferent chap, and ultimately brings him to his knees before her. There is an excellent supporting cast, including Mahlon Hamilton in the leading man's role, Charles Ruggles, Frazer Coulter, Marie Burke and Charles Riegal. The picture is said to be quite worth while.

SOCIETY NOTES

Kilen-Thompson

On Saturday, March 8, at 2 p. m. at the Telemarken church, Kratka, occurred the marriage of Lena O. Kilen to Gilbert C. Thompson, both of Kratka, Rev. E. O. Sabo officiating. The bridal couple was attended by Alfred Kilen and Miss Stella Thompson. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the immediate family at the Joe Kilen home.

Larson Is Host to Employees

Carl B. Larson, proprietor of the Larson Furniture company, entertained his employees and their wives at six-thirty o'clock dinner at his home Monday evening. After the dinner the evening hours were spent in a social way. The invited guests included the Messrs. and Mesdames J. C. Holte, Axel Ander and Stewart Aga.

Maccabees Have Party

The ladies of the Maccabee order may decide to hold its regular meetings at the Sons of Norway hall instead of in the I. O. O. F. quarters as heretofore, as a result of action taken at the meeting Monday night. The question was not definitely decided but was referred to a committee which will report at the next meeting when a decision will be made. The local lodge now has about 120 members and larger quarters are deemed necessary.

Following the business session on Monday members of the lodge and a number of invited guests participated in a social dance in the form of a hard time party, a very enjoyable time being reported by all present. A fine program of dance music was furnished by Earl Erickson at the piano. During the course of the evening a splendid lunch was served by a committee.

M. E. Ladies Aid

The M. E. Ladies Aid will be entertained in the church parlors Wednesday, March 19, by the Mesdames John Cronkhite, J. W. Hendry, C. J. Conklin, J. A. Wassgren. The following menu will be served at a charge of 15 cents: Scalloped potatoes, pickles, meat sandwiches, doughnuts, and coffee.

For Miss Verona Urdahl

An account of one of the prettiest of birthday parties was inadvertently omitted from last week's issue of The Times. February the 29th is the birthday of little Vernona Urdahl, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelder Urdahl, and in commemoration thereof, Mrs. Urdahl entertained a group of Verona's friends at her home that afternoon, the second time which she has been able to celebrate her birthday in the eight years of her life. The hours were spent at games and various diversions of appeal to the children. At five o'clock an elaborate lunch was served, a feature of which was a birthday cake surmounted by eight candles, signifying her age. Many gifts were presented to the guest of honor. Mrs. Urdahl was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Rambeck. The invited guests included the Misses Lucille Larson, Evelyn Gullingsrud, Laurie Streeter, Audrey Anderson, Ardith Ostrom, Gretchen Simley, Agnes Simley, Elaine Rambeck, Marie Wollen, Mary Warner, Edith Carlson, Delores Carlson and Luverne Rambeck and Raymond Rambeck and Dennis Urdahl.

Northfield Y. P. S. Meet

The Northfield Young Peoples society will meet at the Northfield school house Sunday afternoon, March 23. A program, refreshments and a good time await all who attend.

Fancy Dress Party

The last session of the Girls' Community club took the form of a fancy dress party. Many of the girls present were dressed beautifully and elaborately in costumes representing various ages and styles while some were attired in the garb of "mere man." After the business session dancing and games formed the diversion of the evening and refreshments were served. From the outset the party was a gay one and from the standpoint of a good time, was distinct success. The hall was decorated in St. Patrick favors and in many of the costumes, the Irish green predominated. Miss Lillian Arnold favored the club with a reading, which was a story from Irish folk lore.

Fellowship Supper Friday

A men's fellowship supper will be given at the Presbyterian church Friday evening for the purpose of organizing the men of the church into a brotherhood. Dinner will be served at 6:30. After the meal the organization meeting will be held with Morlan Bishop presiding. Talks by Dr. L. R. Twete, F. E. Hunt, Albert Johnson, E. O. Mogensen and a few others have been arranged for. A program of a solo by Elra Porter and a reading by Dorothy Swedenburg will be given.

Mrs. McClelland Entertains

Mrs. J. H. McClelland entertained a number of her friends at her home Saturday afternoon. The hours were pleasantly spent at needle work and in a social way. At five o'clock a lunch was served by the hostess. The invited guests included the Mesdames Charles Nason, L. M. Rayson, John Cronkhite, L. M. Hoggen, Nate Harris, C. A. Joslin, L. G. Cook and W. W. Prichard, Jr.

Music Contest To Terminate

The last of the series of the sixteen numbers of the music memory contest, which has been conducted by Mrs. G. Halvorson in the Women's club, will be given Monday afternoon at the regular meeting of the club. This will terminate the contest which has been carried on the past few months. The winner of the contest will be awarded a prize by the president and secretary. Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Jr., will be the hostess of the social hour. The conclusion of this contest will occupy the full time of the meeting and consequently no other additional program numbers have been arranged for. The club wishes particularly that this meeting be attended by all members.

Celebrates 80th Birthday

Mrs. A. O. Rolstad celebrated her 80th birthday Tuesday, March 11, at her home in Wyandotte township, a number of ladies helping her commemorate the anniversary. The guests presented the aged lady with a number of fine presents and in the course of the hours which were spent in a social way, lunch was served. Those who took part in the event were the Mesdames Peter Thune, Ole Thune, Adrian Anderson, Ole Odegaard, James Evenson, Edwin Evenson, Sam Hanson, Martin Helgeson, Ole Helgeson, O. E. Wilson, Ansine Olson and Marie Olson.

Garborg Lodge Elects

The new Sons of Norway lodge at Erskine, named the Garborg lodge, selected Thos. Vollom, manager of the Garden Valley telephone company there, as president, and Thos. Berge, a merchant of that town, as secretary. The lodge opened with a large membership and much enthusiasm and no doubt will soon be one of the foremost Sons of Norway lodges in the district. Bernhard Knudsen, president of Snorre Lodge of this city, assisted in the initiation of members and the installation of officers.

St. John's Lutheran Ladies Aid

Mrs. Otto Bessler will entertain the Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church Wednesday afternoon in the church basement.

Dorcas Meets Wednesday

The Dorcas Society of the Trinity Lutheran church will meet in the church parlors next Wednesday evening, March 19, entertained by Miss Ansof Dahlen.

Elks To Entertain

The local order of the B. P. O. E. will entertain for members, their wives and special friends at a St. Patrick's dancing party at the club rooms Monday evening. The hall will be decorated for the occasion and refreshments served at midnight.

St. Patrick's Dance

The Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion will sponsor a public dance at the auditorium Monday evening. A six piece orchestra has been secured for the occasion, and the event will no doubt be one of the most enjoyable of St. Patrick's day events.

For Miss Ness

Miss Betsy Ness was the guest of honor Monday evening when a number of the members of the Zion Lutheran Young Peoples society gathered at the home of Miss Ness' aunt, Mrs. B. Berg, and tendered her a farewell surprise. The young people gathered at the Berg home at 8:30 and the evening hours were spent at games and in a social way. Miss Ness was presented with a gift and a purse of money as a token of esteem. She has been the secretary of the society the past two years. Miss Ness leaves today for Grand Forks, N. D., to take a three year course in nursing at the Deaconess hospital there.

Mrs. Bishop In St. Paul

Mrs. J. M. Bishop returned Tuesday morning from St. Paul where she was a delegate from this county to the Republican state convention held Saturday. She visited with Miss Effie Hamery and at the J. H. Hay home, former residents of Thief River Falls, and other friends. While in St. Paul Mrs. Bishop, who is regional chairman of welfare boards in this section, met with representatives of the children's bureau Monday.

4 High School Students Take Part in Citizenship Program

Addresses by four members of the Senior class of the Lincoln high school and by Mrs. Levins of Crookston, district president of the W. C. T. U., were features of the meeting of the W. C. T. U. held at the home of Mrs. T. E. Sweger Tuesday, March 4. The meeting took the form of a citizenship program under the leadership of Mrs. Theo. Quale.

The subjects "Our Country", by Hazel Krause; "Our Flag", by May Ballangrud; "Our Government", by John Sether and "Citizenship", by Melvin Engelstad proved of great interest to all present and the students are to be complimented for the fine manner in which they carried out the program. Miss Eleanor Keyes, a member of the high school faculty cooperated with students in preparing the speeches. Mrs. Levins gave a talk on Law Observance in her usual pleasing and effective manner.

Jackie Coogan as Prince In "Long Live the King"

The long heralded Metro production, "Long Live the King", starring Jackie Coogan, will come to the Princess theatre next Sunday and Monday. Particular interest is attached to this latest film of the young star as it is his first production under the $1,000,000 contract which was given him recently in addition to a half million dollar bonus by Metro Pictures Corporation.

"Long Live the King" was only recently completed at Hollywood and its engagement at the Princess theatre is among the early dates allotted to a few houses throughout the country. From various sources the information was current that a huge sum of money was being spent in the making of this film and recent reports definitely fix the sum of $600,000. Of this huge amount nearly two-thirds was spent on the construction of the magnificent sets which furnish the atmosphere of "Long Live the King" and which surround Jackie with regal splendor.

As is known to millions of readers, "Long Live the King" was adapted for Jackie from Mary Roberts Rinehart's novel of the same name. The plot is set in the mythical Balkan kingdom of Lavonia and hinges around the escapades of the little Crown Prince (played by Jackie), who is beset by a band of terrorists who threaten to seize the government.

Mrs. Emil Olson

Mrs. Emil Olson died at her home at 1122 Bridge street east Thursday, March 6, after a lingering illness of cancer.

Mrs. Olson was born in 1880 at High Forest, 12 miles from Rochester, Minn. Forty years ago she moved to Grafton, N. D., where Mr. and Mrs. Olson resided until their arrival in this city, 17 years ago. During the first few years of residence here Mr. Olson was employed at the saw mill, then in operation here, and the past five years has been employed at the local Soo shops. The past four years Mrs. Olson has suffered from cancer.

To mourn her passing she leaves her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Jacob Carlson of Minneapolis; a son, Christoffer, of Utah; three sisters, Mrs. Levi Ganya of Hoople, N. D., Mrs. Theodore Erickson and Mrs. Hans Hanson of Grafton, N. D., and two brothers, Charles and William Beiter of Grafton, N. D.

Funeral services were held from the Hicks undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon and interment made in Greenwood cemetery. Rev. J. J. Jacobsen officiated at the obsequies.

Walter Marven Pearson

Walter Marvin Pearson, 14 years and 5 months, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Pearson, of Thief River Falls, died at Hallock Wednesday morning last week at 10 o'clock, after an illness of six months duration due to an attack of appendicitis. His condition was considered very serious several days previous to his death and his father was summoned from South Dakota, where he was temporarily employed, and together with Mrs. Pearson, was at Walter's bedside when he passed away.

Funeral services were conducted from the Union church at Bronson last Sunday and the remains laid to rest in the Bronson cemetery, Rev. P. Overlid officiating.

Very Necessary for Growing Youngsters

EVERY mother wants her children to be rugged and sturdy. Give them plenty of Karo, because Karo contains a very large percentage of Dextrose. As your doctor can tell you, Dextrose is one of the most important of all food elements.

For growing children there is no greater energy food than Karo. It is pure, wholesome and unusually economical. Not only low in price, but Karo can be used in so many ways: for cooking and table, for stewing dried fruits, for all candy making. And of course, Karo makes cakes, biscuits and bread taste better.

Let your grocer be your Children's Health Doctor—ask him for either Blue Label or Red Label Karo—both of equal nutrition.

FREE—A booklet about Dextrose every mother should read. Explains why children thrive on Dextrose. Sent free with beautifully illustrated 64 page Cook Book. Write Corn Products Sales Company, 827 Lumber Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

Get this Beautiful Aluminum Syrup Pitcher
Worth $1.00 for 40c and 5 Karo Labels
Buy 5 cans of Karo from your grocer, send labels to address above with 40c and you will receive the Syrup Pitcher by parcel post.

Russell Attends Meeting of Telephone Men at St. Cloud

G. A. Russell, manager of the N. W. Bell Telephone company here, spent last week in the twin cities and St. Cloud, where he met with a committee of telephone men. In keeping with the vigorous campaign carried on by the telephone company for the prevention of accidents this committee's purpose was to draw up a new safety code and to discuss ways and means of "Safety First."

The committee which was composed of M. E. Hanson of Marshall, J. L. McDonald of Brainard, Geo. Stanley of St. Cloud, and G. A. Russell of Thief River Falls, met in St. Cloud Monday morning and reviewed suggestions and correspondence from men in the field on this subject. About 175 cases of accidents were reviewed and discussed as to their cause and result, and the fact was established that carelessness and the lack of physical control was the cause of the greater number of these cases.

The committee drew up a new safety code which deviated from the usual fixed rule set up of such codes and embodies more general and educational qualities. Forsight, caution and the ability to do a job with a natural grace were the outstanding features of this code.

The telephone company has for some years been fighting accidents. The application of First Aid is taught to all employees and First Aid boxes are carried in cars and in offices. A fine co-operation between the management and the employees of the telephone company is resulting in a decrease in accidents each year.

THE TOURNAMENT

That the district basketball tournament held in Thief River Falls last week was a successful one is agreed to by everyone. Visiting players, coaches and fans unanimously proclaimed that it was one of the best conducted affairs of its kind they had ever attended and complimented local citizens in high terms upon the splendid treatment given the visitors during their stay.

This city can be justly proud of the showing made and it is certain that in the selection of future tournaments Thief River Falls will be favored by those who took part in the tourney here last week. The people of this city last Thursday and Friday displayed real and true sportsmanship in every detail.

Numerous letters have been received by Superintendent L. T. Smiley and others in charge of the event, speaking highly of the results of the tournament, the following being one from M. C. Hayes, superintendent of the East Grand Forks schools and chairman of the district athletic committee:

> "I cannot help but write to congratulate you on the splendid results which your people showed at the district tournament last week. Never have I seen such a fine spirit of co-operation in any community.
>
> "I have attended many tournaments in my day but this was the most successful in everyway that I have ever had the privilege to attend.
>
> "I am inclined to think that Thief River Falls could not have made the tournament more successful and I congratulate you."

WE HAVE THEM

"We know one farmer in this vicinity who is not talking hard times. There is a reason for his contentment and feeling of good will toward all men—his cream check last month, evidence of the increase of the farmers business in this village, would appreciate having an income of $150 a month.—Princeton Union."

What about the Pennington county dairymen who has an income of more than $400 per month and the many who receive monthly checks ranging from $100 and up. And the number of "big check" getters is steadily increasing.

The "oiling up" of the political machinery does not seem to make things run more smoothly. At least it has retarded the activities of the national law making body.

If everyone would boost for his home community as strenuously as he does for some favorite organization he belongs to, what a place we could make it.

The political campaign is getting under way early so that the parties will have plenty of seasoned timber for their platforms.

Children are the most valuable crop anybody can raise, but very often they don't get as much attention as the corn and wheat.

Many plans are being offered to help the farmer, but nobody has offered to go out and help feed the hogs.

The only advantage of a scrub cow is that it doesn't take so long to milk her.

There may be better places to live, but we haven't seen them yet.

"Moonshine"

Editor Times:

What about discussing the "Moonshine problem? It has already reached a stage that threatens our very homes and life itself and it should concern each and all of us that believe in having government regulations established that will seek to protect our homes, and people and human rights. Perhaps something can be accomplished. Let us all unite for better world conditions, better citizenship and for higher ideals in life, or in other words, get us a good citizen, live up to the constitution of the United States of America

As a question. Will the present methods of prohibition law enforcement be the means of bring about the desired results—a dry country?

If we are to judge from the results so far obtained thru the prohibition law enforcement, we are inclined to believe not. The prohibition law in its present form is wrong to our way of thinking in that it starts out where it really should finish up. To us it appears like a cure prescribed without giving any thought to the course of the real ailment. When a person is sick and a doctor is called, the first thing the doctor does is to try and find out the cause of the trouble; he feels of the patient's pulse, he times his heart, he tests his blood pressure and makes an examination that continues until he is able to locate the effective parts, the seat of the whole trouble and then prescribes a cure. In no other way could a right treatment be applied.

The craze for drink be it "moonshine" or anything else is a disease and not only a disease but a death grip upon life itself, and as long as that craving exists within the system of a human being there can be no prohibition law made severe enough to stop that desire or craving. Consequently, a drink craving person must be diseased to the extent of that craving and must in the same manner do as a food hungry person would do—satisfy the craving. It has reached that stage that it has become a part of human nature to those in such condition. That is the one and the main reason why "moonshine" is made and drank and exists to the extent that it does today, regardless of right and justice, and all law enforcement.

We are often horrified in reading about accounts given of opium and morphine crazed people but don't stop to think or realize that "moonshine" "snuff" and "cigarettes" and all of those evils are but a branch of the same tree and made in the same manner to create the same results, only in a more modest way.

Our lives are too dear to us to only be sacrificed just to satisfy the greed of those "human vultures" that create this traffic as a feast for the sake of the almighty dollar only.

Something must be done. Silence means consent. Speak up and let us try to put our community on the civilized part of the world map.

MINN. STATE BANKS SHOW INCREASE IN DEPOSITS FOR '23

Increase of More than $11,000,000 in Bank Deposits, According to Viegel

Bank deposits in the state banks of Minnesota have increased $11,398,114.59 in the last year, and savings deposits increased more than $9,000,000, according to a tabulation of replies to the state bank call as of December 31, last, just completed by A. J. Veigel, state superintendent of banks. The cash reserve of the institutions under state supervision has nearly doubled the amount required by law, the superintendent explained.

"The tabulation as of December 31, last, has just been completed and shows that the state banks are more than holding their own." Mr. Veigel said. "The total deposits in 1,092 state banks and nine savings banks and 25 trust companies on that date were $423,698,832.76 as compared with $422,300,718.17 on December 29, 1922, an increase of more than $11,000,000 in deposits during the last year.

"On the date of the call the cash reserve on hand was about $49,000,000 and the amount required by law was about $26,000,000, showing that the state banks had on hand nearly double the reserve required by law."

The total resources of all the state banks at the time of the call, the statement shows, was $521,120,811.39 which is an increase of about $17,000 compared with the previous year.

Husband Killed in Mine

Mrs. Alice Haug and daughter Lorraine of Crosby, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Ruth Skalferud and two sons of Minneapolis, spent some time in this city Tuesday on their way to Greenbush for an indefinite stay at the home of their parents. Mrs. Haug's husband, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Haug of Greenbush, was killed in the Crosby mine accident. The body was not recovered up to Tuesday but Mrs. Haug stated that Crosby mine authorities expect the body to be found by the latter part of the week, when it will be shipped to Greenbush for the funeral services and interment. Mrs. Skalferud spent the past two weeks with Mrs. Haug at Crosby. Mr. Haug was a resident of Greenbush practically all his life, having moved from there to Crosby one and a half years ago.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

ROSEWOOD

The regular meeting of the Rosewood Farmers club was held at the hall last Friday evening with good attendance. There was no business session this time but an impromptu program, consisting of the following numbers: "America" by the audience. Paper, by Percy Hanson. Vocal Solo by Miss Delma Dola. Reading by Miss Delma Oski. Song: "Battle Hymn of the Republic," by audience. There was no committees appointed but it is understood the next meeting will be held as usual on Friday evening, March 21. The evening was merrily spent at dancing and socially.

The annual sale of fancy and home articles under auspices of the Swedish Mission church will be held next Saturday evening. Funds gathered will be used exclusively for the home mission and volunteer contributions towards this work will be received at the entrance with gratitude. Lunch will be for sale at 25 cents a plate for adults, and the public is cordially invited.

Necktie Social at the Rosewood hall next Friday evening, arranged by Teacher Miss Edith Patten at Rosebank. Funds will be used for the school work. Neckties and lunch for two will be brought by the ladies.

Ben Bloom, who has been farming in this locality during the last years disposed of his personal belongings at a sale last Wednesday, and will leave sometime next week for Estherville, Iowa, from whence he came. We understand he will resume farming at that place.

Mrs. Frank Dolezal and children, Mary, John, Beatrice and Cila, of Chester, Montana, arrived here on Friday morning for an extended visit with her son, Frank Dolezal and family. Mrs. Dolezal arrived here from Olivia, where she has spent the last month, being called there by the death of both her father and mother.

Jacob Rigg, state bank examiner of this district, visited Rosewood last Wednesday to examine the standing of the Farmers State bank as required by law.

All the personal property of the late Peder Sorenson estate will be disposed off at public auction next Wednesday. Mr. Abe Stroble of Angus is administrator of the estate, and was together with Mrs. Stroble here one day last week to look after things. We also understand that Mrs. Bella Sorenson will sell out her belongings in a similar way on Wednesday, March 19.

The Rindal Ladies Aid was entertained by Mesdames Anderson and Paulson last Wednesday. Rev. Halvorson from Minneapolis was present and spoke at the home. The next meeting will be entertained by Mrs. Julia Axelson at her home on April 1.

The New Solum town board met to go over the year's business at the Farmers State Bank last Tuesday, the general election took place Tuesday at the District No. 34 school building.

Emil Mellem who has been employed at the Westby brothers farm south of Baudette this winter cutting pulp wood arrived home on Saturday for a visit with his home folks.

Alec Hellquist went to Thief River Falls on Friday evening to be a guest among friends until Saturday.

Mrs. Julia Axelson became suddenly ill last Saturday in a relapse of her former illness and a doctor was summoned from Thief River Falls to give her attention.

H. R. Nubson, general agent of the Raleigh Products company, from Greenbush, was in this vicinity last Friday visiting with his friends.

Ole Jarshaw has been in the employ of Gust Opseth this week cutting saw logs for the latter's saw mill.

Swedish services at the Rosewood Mission church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Rev. Werner Drotts, pastor.

Bronson Defeats Lancaster

The Lancaster and Bronson basket ball teams met on the Bronson floor Saturday evening in one of the fastest and cleanest games ever witnessed in that section, the Bronson team winning by a 15 to 14 score. Lancaster was three points in the lead with three minutes to play when two sensational baskets were caged from the center of the floor by Geo. Sele, Bronson forward.

Only two fouls were called by Referee Axel Lindquist of Lancaster, one being charged against each team, Geo. Sele caging Bronson's free throw while Lawrence McIvor for Lancaster failed.

Polarine
THE PERFECT MOTOR OIL

Minimizes Carbon Deposit

Every motorist knows and dreads the ravages of carbon. He knows that it fouls plugs, causes knocking and racks the engine with pre-ignition.

60% of Mid West motorists have learned by experience that Polarine minimizes carbon deposits.

One motorist writes: "I have been using Polarine exclusively and my engine is not corroded with carbon deposit and residue."

Another says: "Since using Polarine, we have reduced our repair bills materially, and on examining our motors from time to time find only a very little carbon."

Dozens of other letters speak in the same strain.

The reason is clear. Dyke (a leading automotive authority) says, "To reduce carbon to a minimum, the lubricating oil must be of high quality and of correct body for the piston design and the lubricating system of your engine."

Polarine is scientifically correct. It maintains its body and will not break down at working temperatures. In creating it, petroleum chemists co-operated with engine designers. Every mechanical as well as every chemical factor was considered. The result is summed up in the chart at the left.

Follow this chart and have perfect, scientific lubrication—minimum carbon deposit—and lowest repair bills.

Use Polarine. Change your motor oil every 500 miles and refill with the correct grade of fresh Polarine. You will add power and life to your motor.

"Congratulations upon the successful way in which Thief River Falls conducted the tournament." This is an excerpt from a letter received from the superintendent of one of the competing schools and shows the same spirit that was exhibited by all of them. Undoubtedly Thief River did make a success of the tournament for all the comments have been most friendly and highly complimentary.

The most outstanding feature of the tournament was the splendid sportsmanship displayed by the audiences during the entire set of games. There was no partiality shown, as each team received an equal amount of cheering and at no time was any one player picked out and made an object of ridicule. There was no "cracking" of the referee's decisions and this together with the above mentioned things helped to create the right feeling. We are proud of Thief River's conduct and if this has anything to do with the securing of future tournaments, Thief River will surely receive extra consideration.

Another noteworthy feature was the fact that though the weather was against a large attendance, the auditorium was filled at every game. Even after Thief River was defeated in the preliminaries the crowds continued to grow in size and the last night there was neither standing nor sitting room long before the games commenced.

We are certain that every team, whether beaten or victorious, went away with a better opinion of Thief River Falls and with the desire to return here to play in future tournaments.

Inter-class Games

The inter-class basketball games will not be played until sometime near the last of March or the first of April. The class teams have been practicing once a week since the basketball season started and some very fine material has been developed in these practices. According to reports, all the teams are evenly matched so there should be very strong rivalry for the class championship. No letter men will be allowed to play but as this merely excludes the five men on the first team, all the remaining men on the squad will take part in the games.

Declamation and Oratory Contest Held in Warren

The district declamatory contest has been invited to be held in Warren during the week commencing on March 17. So far as Thief River Falls is concerned, the invitation has been accepted and it is generally expected that other schools will also accept Warren's offer. Bemidji, East Grand Forks, Lancaster, and Warren will be represented in the girls' contest, while Bemidji, Crookston, Argyle and Thief River Falls will be represented in the boys' contest. Melvin Engelstad will represent the local high school in oratory.

W. C. T. U. to Award Prizes For Essays on Temperance

The W. C. T. U. announces that cash prizes will be awarded to pupils of the grades, high school and normal training department for the best essays on Temperance, as has been the custom of this organization for many years. C. L. Hansen of the First National bank of this city, has donated the funds for these prizes. Conditions and rules of the contest will be carried on in much the same manner as in previous years.

BOB VS. NON-BOB

We have some students in our school
Who do despise bobbed hair,
But we who are the bobbettes
For that should need to care.

Concerning cause for boldness
Their statement does not hold,
The slam they tried to give us,
Indeed, was very bold.

Perhaps mine shall be bolder
But I do wish to say,
"Tis jealousy, mere jealousy,
That prompts them in their way."

'Twas not the braids and lengthy hair
Of ancient men which proven
To be the cause of heathy hair
And stop the baldness move.

It was the rushing and fresh air
Which remedied the trouble
When "non-bob" claim results from "bob",
But "bobbed" increases double.

Perhaps that now-a-days we do
Get baldness much the faster
Than people did in olden days,
If so, Oh! What disaster!

At present times however,
We seem to think it queer,
When people start around outside,
No covering on their hair.

So we have lost the benefit
The ancients used to share,
We nearly always wear a hat
Men 'specially, must one wear.

You who my statement seem to doubt
Just try it out and see,
To your delight you'll find 'tis true
Your hair will thicker be.

It is so advantageous
When windy days occur,
For all the bobbed-hair women
When no hat they prefer.

The wind, the hairpins will not toss
Out of their proper reach,
Nor tangle up their tresses long
And cause a curse and screech!

Thanks, thanks, be to the founder
Of the pretty "Bobbette" style
I'd rather have my hair clipped short,
Than tossing half a mile.

STATE BASKETBALL TOURNEY WILL BE HELD MARCH 19-21

All Arrangements Completed for Tournament to be Held at Kenwood Armory, Mpls.

Supt. Utne of Alexandria, secretary-treasurer of the Minnesota State high school association, announces that arrangements have been made for the State High School Basketball Tournament, which will be held at the Kenwood Armory in Minneapolis Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 19, 20 and 21.

Arnold C. Oss, the well known Minnesota athlete who served very successfully as manager of the tournament last year, will be in charge of this year's tournament also. John Getchell, who is a reporter for the Minnesota Daily Star, will be in charge of newspaper publicity preceding the tournament.

For the first time in the history of the association it has succeeded in securing from the Western Passenger association a reduction in fare to the state tournament. The rate will be a fare and a half for the round trip on the identification certificate plan. These certificates may be used by any legal resident of a school district which is a member of the Minnesota State High School Athletic association. They may be secured from the secretary. It is to be hoped that all out-of-town people attending the tournament will make use of these certificates for unless they are used fairly extensively, it is very doubtful that they will be able to secure reduction in rates for future tournaments.

Each of the sixteen schools participating in the state tournament must be represented by ten men, eight of these to be eligible players, the ninth the coach, and the tenth the superintendent or a member of the faculty, appointed by him as faculty manager of athletics.

The necessary railroad fares of these ten men will be refunded by the Board of Control on the basis of a fare and a half for the round trip. They are to stay at the Curtis Hotel and their necessary hotel expenses will be paid beginning with luncheon on Wednesday noon and ending with the banquet Friday evening. Where, because of railroad connections, it is necessary for a team to leave home on Tuesday, March 18, the board of control will pay for lodging Tuesday night and breakfast Wednesday morning.

At a meeting of the Board of Control on February 23 the various districts were paired by lot for the opening of games on Wednesday as follows:

Hour	Districts
1:00	1 and 10
2:00	4 and 5
3:00	14 and 3
4:00	16 and 7
5:00	11 and 9
7:30	2 and 8
8:30	13 and 15
9:30	12 and 6

As above indicated there will be five games Wednesday afternoon and three games Wednesday afternoon and three in the evening. On Thursday the second round of four games will be played, also in two sessions, two games in the forenoon, and two in the afternoon. The two semi-final games will be played Thursday evening. The losing teams will play a preliminary game Friday evening to determine third and fourth places. This will be followed by the final championship game.

The price of admission for each of the six sessions will be as follows: .50 high school students (where tickets are bought in advance at the school) .75 general admission. $1.00 reserved seats (for three evening sessions only.)

Those who plan to attend the tournament should write to Supt. Utne for as many railroad identification certificates as desired.

The Times, $2 a year. Worth more.

58 Students Achieve Honor Roll This Term

The honor roll for the six weeks' period ending Feb. 29, is the longest one that has been announced for any period of this school year. This time 58 students have achieved the distinction of being classed as honor students as compared with 44 on the previous list. There are 14 Juniors on the roll; 13 Freshmen, 12 post graduates; 10 Seniors and 9 Sophomores. The Juniors are still leading the other classes with respect to the number on the honor roll, but a comparison of percentages of each class on the roll shows the post-graduates to be in the lead with 80 per cent. In the Lincoln building the Seniors have the highest percentage, 16.1 per cent of their class being on the honor roll. The Juniors have 14.8 per cent; the Freshmen, 10.3 per cent; and the Sophomores, 8.6 per cent. The complete list of honor students follows:

Seniors — Thomas Belland, Elsie Blair, Ruby Conklin, Hulda Grenlin, Hettie Knudtsen, Esther Lunsetter, Sarah Martinson, Margaret Melgaard, Harriet Morgan, Mildred Peterson.

Juniors—Lylian Arnold, Katherine Barzen, Bernice Erickson, Rose Flynn, Rebecca Halverson, Maxine Johnson, Jessie Joyce, Agnes Koglin, Thomas Melgaard, Mildred Renmem, Emmett Shanahan, Anny Wedul, Winifred Wengeler, Buell Will.

Sophomores — Ruby Aaseby, Eva Ayres, Theressa Fuller, Gladys Kjos, Lois Nicholson, Simon Nokken, Paul Olstad, Millicent Eweger, Elsie Vorseth.

Freshmen — Ardis Ayres, Helen Erickson, Alpha Gausen, Helen Griebstein, Goldie Gunderson, Pearl Hagen, Bernice Hoppa, Evangeline Ness, Marion Reynolds, Dorothy Shirley, Gertrude Steenerson, Louise Veven, Stanley Disher.

Gasoline vs. Ice Cream Soda

IN recent years, the price of gasoline has been discussed, widely and at length. It has been the subject of legislative discussions and investigations. It has served in some instances as a political vehicle for aspiring candidates.

Because gasoline plays such an intimate part in all our lives the theme has been a popular one.

Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is America's leading refiner of gasoline and, therefore, is keenly interested in all phases of such discussions.

For the benefit of those who would have the subject illuminated, this Company will present, in the next few weeks, some side-lights on this question.

The average tank wagon price of gasoline in the ten Middle Western States served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is approximately equal to the price of an ice cream soda—which comparison we make merely as an example.

The ice cream soda satisfies a passing desire—it is pleasant—it is nourishing.

A gallon of gasoline renders a vital service—it will take your car a dozen or a score of miles on an errand of business, pleasure, or mercy.

It will bring the doctor to administer to the sick—it will propel a fire engine to save property—it will harvest grain—and in innumerable instances does gasoline render an essential service.

Gasoline is a vital cog in the wheel of industrial progress.

Gasoline is the cheapest commodity in the world—in proportion to the service it renders.

To make this service available to all; to enable every one of the thirty million people of the Middle West to get gasoline when and where he wants it, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has built up, and maintains, a system of distribution so comprehensive that its gasoline may be had every few blocks in the city and every few miles in the country.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) counts its system of distribution a major achievement, because its benefits accrue to the man who buys two gallons of gasoline as well as the man who needs a thousand gallons.

REINER

What will undoubtedly be the last debate of the season will be held at the District No. 48 school house Friday evening, March 14. A lighter topic has been chosen for discussion at the concluding meet, namely, "Resolved, that men are more gossipy than women." The speakers on the affirmative are Johnnie Coan, Alice Coan, Olga Sigerud, Bert Gerling and Oliver Tommerdahl; the negative team is composed of Gus McEnelly, Olga Grimley, Oscar Stenvik, Sena Tangen and Chas. Asp.

A number of boys visited at the Sigerud home Sunday.

The Reiner farmer who started getting his drag out about March fourth hasn't been seen much in public since the last snow. Somehow we can't blame him for feeling kind of sheepish. The weatherman may forget the date sometimes, but spring seldom comes ahead of time in eastern Pennington. Meanwhile the winter wheat and rye has a comfortable blanket.

We haven't noticed that the local young women are taking much advantage of the extra day in February. Perchance they are waiting for some balmy day in spring to "pop the question."

SANDERS

Mrs. Christ Anderson of Grand Forks has been visiting at the Wm. Yonke home for a few days last week. Mrs. Anderson is the sister of Mrs. Yonke.

Get Rid of That Backache!
Thief River Falls People Point the Way.

The constant aching of a bad back,
The weariness, the tired feeling;
Headaches, dizziness, nervousness,
Distressing urinary disorders—
Are often signs of failing kidneys
And too serious to be neglected.
Get rid of these troubles!
Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.
Hosts of people recommend Doan's.
This is a Thief River Falls case.
You can verify it.

Mrs. Joe Becker, 309 St. Paul Ave., says: "I had awful headaches and pains in my back and neck. At times I suffered from shortness of breath and my kidneys acted irregularly, too. I was nervous and became discouraged. I used Doan's Pills and got relief from the attack."

THREE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Becker added: "Doan's Pills have always given me fine results."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mrs. Becker had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Notice of Mortgage Foreclosure Sale

Default having been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage made and executed by Edward Vasstrand, unmarried, Mortgagor, to W. B. Torgerson of Red Lake County, Minnesota, Mortgagee, which mortgage is bearing date the 2nd day of December, 1918, and which mortgage with the power of sale therein contained, was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Pennington, State of Minnesota on the 7th day of December, 1918, at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 57 of Mortgages on page 231 thereof, which said mortgage together with the debt thereby secured thereafter was duly assigned by said W. B. Torgerson, mortgagee to the Bank of Cambridge, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed, dated March 27th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 28th day of March, 1919 at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 80, and which mortgage with the debt secured thereby again thereafter was assigned by the said Bank of Cambridge, assignee, to A. J. Onsgard, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed and dated May 17th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 19th day of May, 1919 at 8 o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 98 thereof.

And, Whereas said default consists in the failure of the said mortgagor to pay the sum of One Thousand Dollars with accrued interest and the further sum of Three Hundred Twenty-eight and 88-100 in taxes which have necessarily been paid by said assignee, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of this notice the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars, said taxes included, and that no action or proceeding at law or otherwise having been instituted to recover the debt by said mortgage secured or any part thereof.

Now, Therefore, Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage above described will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit:

The South East Quarter (SE¼) of Section No. Thirty (30) in Township No. One Hundred Fifty-two (152) North, of Range No. Thirty-nine (39) West of the 5th P. M., in Minnesota, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) Acres according to U. S. Government survey thereof, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Pennington County, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Thief River Falls, in said County and State, on Saturday, the 19th day of April, 1924, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at public vendue to pay said debt of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars with interest from the date hereof together with an attorney's fee of fifty Dollars as stipulated in and by said mortgage, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of said sale as provided by law.

Dated March 1st, 1924.

Gummer Seeks Rehearing

A petition for rehearing of the appeal in the Gummer case will be filed with the state supreme court, it was announced Friday by Attorneys W. H. Barnett and Seth Richardson, counsel for the prisoner. Mr. Richardson said the petition is being filed on the grounds that "the opinion incorrectly states the facts and incorrectly applies the law."

Judgment Sale on Foreclosure of Mechanic's Lien.

By virtue of a judgment duly entered and docketed in District Court in and for the County of Pennington, and State of Minnesota, on the 14th day February, 1924, in an action to foreclose a mechanic's lien wherein Carl M. Carlson was plaintiff and Margaret C. Meehan, Bridget Martha Connoly, Margaret Connoly, May Sweeney and Norah I. Meehan were defendants and wherein it was adjudged and decreed:

That the amount due the plaintiff Carl M. Carlson from the defendants Margaret C. Meehan, Bridget Martha Connoly, Margaret Connoly and May Sweeney is the sum of Two Thousand Four Hundred Thirty-four and 3-100 Dollars, $2434.03, with interest thereon at the rate of six (6) per cent per annum from August 28, 1923, amounting to $67.70, and $75.00 attorney's fees, together with plaintiff's costs and disbursements taxed at $21.25, making a total of $2597.98.

That all of said sum is due for labor performed and material furnished in and about the repair of the two story Concrete Block Building located on Lots Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14) and Fifteen (15) in Block Fifty-eight (58) of the Original Townsite of the City of Thief River Falls, County of Pennington and State of Minnesota, and adjudging and decreeing said premises and the interest of the defendants therein to be subject to the lien of Carl M. Carlson, subject to the mortgage lien of Norah I. Meehan in the sum of $2700.00 against the interest of Margaret C. Meehan, in said above described premises.

And wherein it was further adjudged and decreed that said premises be sold in one parcel to satisfy said judgment, including attorney's fees, costs and disbursements.

NOW, THEREFORE, Notice is hereby given that I, as Sheriff of Pennington County, Minnesota, will sell at Public Auction in one parcel to the highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Thief River Falls, in said Pennington County, State of Minnesota, on Saturday, the 5th day of April, 1924, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, the hereinbefore described premises, viz:

Lots Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14) and Fifteen (15) in Block Fifty-eight (58) of the Original Townsite of the City of Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the Register of Deeds for said County, to satisfy said judgment, attorney's fees, costs and disbursements, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Notice of Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

WHEREAS, default has been made in the conditions of a certain Indenture of Mortgage, made, executed and delivered by Lewis Aaseby and Clara Aaseby, his wife, of Pennington County, Minnesota, as mortgagors, to the Citizens State Bank of Thief River Falls, a Minnesota corporation, as mortgagee, upon and covering the following described real property, lying and being in the County of Pennington, and State of Minnesota, to-wit:

The North Half of the Northeast Quarter (N½ of NE¼) of Section Nineteen (19) and the West Half of the Northwest Quarter (W½ of NW¼) of Section Twenty (20) in Township One Hundred Fifty-four (154) North, of Range Forty-four (44) West of the Fifth Principal Meridian, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) acres, more or less, according to the Government survey thereof, which said mortgage bears date the Fourteenth (14th) day of April, A. D. 1917, and was filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for said County of Pennington, in the State of Minnesota, on the Sixteenth (16th) day of May, A. D. 1917, at 8:00 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 12 of Mortgages, on Page 390, which said mortgage was thereafter duly assigned by said mortgagee to the The Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company, a Minnesota corporation, by assignment dated the Twenty-fifth (25th) day of July, A. D. 1917, and filed for record in said Register of Deeds office on the Third (3rd) day of August, A. D. 1917, at 8:00 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 56 of Mortgages, on Page 417, and

WHEREAS, said default consists in the failure of said Mortgagors to pay an installment of interest due April Fourteenth (14th), 1923, and

WHEREAS, by reason of the default made as aforesaid The Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company, as authorized by said mortgage and the notes thereby secured, has declared and does hereby declare the whole of the principal sum secured by said mortgage together with accrued interest thereon to be immediately due and payable, and

WHEREAS, there is claimed to be due upon said Mortgage and the notes thereby secured at the date of this notice the sum of Two Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty-seven and 18-100 ($2,757.18) Dollars, being Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars principal, Two Hundred Fifty-seven and 18-100 ($257.18) Dollars interest, and no action or proceedings at law or otherwise, has been instituted to recover the same or any part thereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that in and pursuant to the power of sale said mortgage contains, and the statute in such cases made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed and the real property therein described will be sold by the Sheriff of said County of Pennington, in the State of Minnesota, or by his Deputy, at public auction to the highest bidder therefor for cash, at the East front door of the Pennington County, Minnesota, Court House, in the City of Thief River Falls, and in said County of Pennington, on Saturday, the 5th day of April, A. D. 1924, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to pay the amount which will then be due upon said mortgage, and the costs and expenses of this foreclosure, including an Attorney's fee of Seventy-five ($75.00) Dollars, as stipulated in said mortgage to be paid in case of foreclosure thereof.

ANOTHER ORDINANCE IN EFFORT TO CURB THE SALE OF LIQUOR

Chommie to Draw Up City Ordinance Against Violators of Prohibition Laws

Believing that the city of Thief River Falls is entitled to a larger share of the fines collected from violators of the liquor laws and that the city authorities will have better jurisdiction over soft drink places, H. O. Chommie, city attorney, Tuesday evening asked the council for permission to draw up an ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the city.

This request was granted and when the act becomes a law the police will have a right to enter soft drink places without a search warrant if there is a strong indication of law violation, and if liquor is found and the accused convicted the city will get the fine and costs. The state, however, may still arrest the violator on the same charge and bring him into court on the same charge, and the federal government may still follow suit and do the same thing, thus a violator will be liable to three arrests and the consequence that may follow.

The request of W. B. Lacey for a soft drink license at 102 LaBree Ave. N., the former James Farr place, was again before the council Tuesday night, this time bearing the O. K. of the proper committee which had made due investigation of the applicant and premises and reported they found the inner partitions removed and a free view from the street now obtainable. The application received four votes favorable to one negative and one blank.

A. H. Bakke, manager of the Alfred Rasmussen soft drink parlors, also had re-applied for a license but when the city attorney called the attention of the council to the fact that the application really was in the name of Rasmussen and that he had been recently convicted of violation of the laws, the applicant withdrew the application and the matter was dropped for the time being at least. Mr. Bakke stated to the council he only intended to run the place till the release of Mr. Rasmusson who would again take charge of the restaurant.

Will Move to Minneapolis

L. J. Fahey leaves this week for Minneapolis after spending a few days with his family here. During the past month he has been receiving medical attention in the cities and as soon as he is able to dispose of his home here he will also move his family to Minneapolis, where he expects to be employed. Mr. Fahey, who has been employed by the Soo railroad on the local division as trainman, has been a resident of Thief River Falls the past ten years.

Home For Vacation Period

Local girls attending the State Teachers college at Moorhead arrived in this city Friday evening to spend a week at their respective parental homes. The usual week of vacation at Easter will not be given this year but instead a vacation is being enjoyed by the students at this time. The reason for the change is the lateness of Easter this year. Those from this city attending the college at Moorhead are the Misses Julia Brudvick, Alpha Bishop, Elsie Granum, Vivian Gabrielson, Ethel Conklin, residing east of this city, and Gena Gunderson, residing in Rocksbury township. The latter two are taking their first year's work this year while the others will graduate this spring.

COACH THUNE PICKS ALL-DISTRICT TEAM

Math Barzen, Guard on Local Quint, Selected as Member of First District Team

L. A. "Lars" Thune, coach of the Thief River Falls basketball team, former star on the South Dakota state college quint, has selected the following for all-district mythical teams in the First Minnesota district, which held its tournament in this city Thursday and Friday, last week:

First Team

D. Mark, Fosston, forward.
Sturdig, McIntosh, forward.
Lowe, McIntosh, center.
Barzen, Thief River Falls, guard.
Green, Argyle, guard.

Second Team

Herrick, East Grand Forks, forward.
Marchildon, East Grand Forks, forward.
Nelson, Argyle, center.
Larson, Warren, guard.
Hill, McIntosh, guard.

Concerning the selection, Coach Thune says:

"In selecting an all-district team I have attempted to pick a combination of individuals from the eight teams represented in the tournament who have performed in such a manner that has caused them to stand out over the others in ability. In the majority of games the teams did not exhibit any exceptional basketball, most of them using long shots rather than a passing game.

D. Mark is a rangy player with a good eye for the basket. He plays the floor well and follows up his shots. His floor play and shooting ability are exceptional.

Sturdig was the most impressive floor man at the tournament. He has a good pivot and is a clever dribbler with a good eye for both long and short shots.

Both Lowe of McIntosh and Nelson of Argyle are exceptional high school centers; however, Lowe played the more consistently. Besides being rangy he has a good jump and handles himself well. His long shooting as well as his clever follow-up shots featured the tournament.

Barzen has the ability to analyze plays, pick his opponent and go up after the ball off the backboard. Although not an exceptional shot his speed, with his ability to pivot and pass, would make him an ideal floor guard.

Green is a big athlete who has the ability to break up plays. His work in taking the ball off the backboard and intercepting passes stood out during the tournament."

City Aldermen Decide to Carry Small Amount of Insurance On Light Plant

Tuesday night the various departments filed their monthly reports with the city council and much interesting data is contained therein.

The report of the city dairy inspector brings to light the fact that three cows in inspected herds had been condemned on account of tuberculosis and sent to St. Paul where they were killed under supervision of the state board of health. This action safeguards a large number of residents of this city from danger of contracting this dread disease.

The report also brings to light that the nine large distributors of milk in the city are showing a remarkable improvement in sediment tests since the inspection was first started three months ago.

The butterfat test also shows a very good standard being maintained, all of the nine producers being above the required showing of 3.25 per cent. Conklin's test is the highest with 5.22 showing, with F. Copp second at 4.00 and A. Jensen third at 3.98, with only slight differences between the remaining six: V. C. Noper, A. Johnson, M. Timm, A. Myrom, R. Kraemer and the Creamery.

Four milk licenses were ordered granted Tuesday night by the council, these being to O. B. Gunderson, Martin Owen, Emil Olson and T. O. Stageberg.

The council reconsidered its action regarding insurance on the electric light plant and contents taken two weeks ago and deemed it expedient to carry a nominal sum thereon, the matter being left with the building committee, with the suggestion that $5,000 be carried and placed with strictly insurance agents and not with business institutions engaged in other lines of business.

The report of the city clerk showed cash on hand Feb. 1, of $36,097.49 and receipts of $5,462.13 and disbursements of $4,897.63, leaving a balance of $36,661.88 March 1. The report also shows an earning of $5,254.17 in the electric department, there being no earnings showing in the water department as no meter readings were made in February.

The report of the chief of police showed four arrests during February while the municipal court record showed receipts from fees of $22.20 for the month.

Winger on Buying Trip

Olaf Winger, for the past few years employed in the Oen Mercantile company's clothing department and by Albert Lieberman in his men's clothing store, left Sunday for Chicago, Ill., to purchase stock for the clothing store which he will open in this city the first of April. He will conduct a men's furnishings business in the building formerly occupied by the Save-U-Money store.

Sundahl Accepts Position

Bernard Sundahl has assumed duties as salesman in the clothing department of Albert Lieberman's department store. He was formerly connected with the Save-U-Money store here which closed two months ago.

Hansen in Cities

Sen. C. L. Hansen, president of the First National bank of this city, spent Saturday and Monday in Minneapolis and St. Paul attending to business matters. He returned to this city Tuesday noon.

McIntosh Defeats Argyle In Final Game of Basket Ball Tournament Here Last Week

trict championship on the strength of its 1,000 per cent record, defeated the Thief River Falls quint 12 to 23 in the best game of the tournament. The teams battled at a fast pace thruout and it was anyone's game until the last part of the fracas. Thune's quint displayed a short pass game which almost proved disastrous to the big Fosston representatives, the first half ending with the locals leading 9 to 6. Excellent work by Penney and Barzen for the locals featured the first half, but in the second period Fosston opened up with a barrage of shooting from the center of the floor, making all of four long range attempts, and succeeded in overcoming their opponent's lead. Fosston in this game showed the best form in the tournament and looked like certain winners. The locals displayed good work in every department of the game and showed thorough coaching in team work.

The game opened with the locals taking an early lead, Penney connecting up with the hoop by the fine floor work of the team. Three field baskets were made by Penney during the first half, and two free throws in the last period. Barzen's floor work was a feature of the game and entitled him to a place on the all district team. A field basket was caged by Sorenson and free throws by Sether and Barzen. Parenteau with his fast pivoting showed up well. Sovick on the Fosston quint had six field baskets to his credit, all made during the last half.

East Grand Forks Defeated

The opening game of the semi-finals Friday morning was played by East Grand Forks and McIntosh, the East Siders losing a heartbreaking battle which is led in the early stages of the game, the result being 22 to 20. The teams were well matched and the game perhaps the most exciting of the tournament, next to the Thief River Falls-Fosston game. It was a nip and tuck affair thruout, the Macks never leading with more than two points. They seemed bewildered by the short pass playing the East Grand Forks quint exhibited, the first half ending 14 to 11 in the latter's favor. However, McIntosh staged a comeback and overcame the lead and held the opponents scoreless after the middle of the third quarter. The game was featured by the excellent floor work and basket shooting of Marchildon, forward, and Herrick, center, for the losers, with Lowe, center, and Sturdig, forward, the outstanding players for the district champs.

Dope Is Upset

The victory of Argyle over Fosston by a score of 21 to 18 was a complete surprise. Argyle, who before the tournament has not exhibited a particularly commendable brand of basket ball, completely upset the dope when they gave the Fosston aggregation their first defeat of the season. The Fosston team did not play up to standard and did not show up as well as in the game the previous evening, lacking the punch to make a comeback when once behind. The Argyle team with maximum spirit fought brilliantly thruout the contest, Green and Nelson making several spectacular shots which completely baffled the opponents. Fosston possibly displayed their poorest brand of basketball this season; D. Mark was the individual honor man on the quint.

Macks Win In Finals

Argyle, undefeated in the tournament, loomed up as a possible winner in the final game Friday evening, but the final score of 15 to 13 was in favor of McIntosh, which victory gives that team the right to represent this district at the state tournament in Minneapolis March 19, 20 and 21. The same spirit of playing characterized Argyle in the finals, altho the wear of the tournament seemed to have had its effect on the team. The game was exciting but not spectacular from the standpoint of basketball tactics, neither team showing a marked brand of playing. However, McIntosh seemed more seasoned and their playing was slightly better than that of the Argyle quint. For McIntosh Lowe and Sturdig were again the stars, with Hill doing fine defensive work as back guard. Nelson, Argyle center, who had up to this time displayed wonderful playing, lacked punch to come thru with his usual number of points. Bedard was outstanding as the most aggressive man on the losing team, altho his shooting was erratic. Both teams resorted to long shooting rather than team play.

East Grand Forks won the preliminary game from Fosston, played by the two losing teams in the semi-finals, by a score of 12 to 9. The contest was a listless affair.

Coach Orrison of McIntosh has developed a team which the district can no doubt be proud of and that will make a good showing in the state meet, which will be opened by a contest between the champs of this district and a team from District No. 10.

J. W. Smith, principal of the Bemidji high school, and Mr. Yngve of Strandquist, who acted as officials of the tournament, deserve a great deal of praise for the manner in which they handled the games. Never before has Thief River Falls seen a more satisfactory brand of officiating, no decisions being questioned. Fouls were called closely.

A feature of the tournament was the special issue of The High School Progress, edited by high school students and published by The Times preceding the event, which gave complete information regarding each team.

TEACHERS SIGNING UP FOR NEXT TERM

More Than Half of Present Staff Has Already Contracted to Return to City

That Thief River Falls is a good place in which to stay or live is indicated by the fact that more than one-half of the teaching staff of 51 teachers in the city schools have already signed contracts to remain in the system another year. It is also evidence of the fact that the educational machinery headed by Superintendent I. T. Simley meets with the favor of those who taught here during the past year or more.

At a recent meeting of the board of education of District No. 18, the present staff was re-elected and Supt. I. T. Simley authorized to re-engage such teachers as he recommends. So far only six have declined to return to their positions here next year.

Among those who already have signed up for another term are, L. A. "Lars" Thune, athletic coach in the high school and former South Dakota basket ball star, and Morris Bye, principal of the high school. They are both men of the most desirable type and are doing splendid work in promotion of school interests in the city. Coach Thune is recognized as one of the leading basket ball and foot ball coaches in this section and his work here has proven his capability of building up teams which the city and school can be proud of. Altho the local basket ball team did not succeed in becoming the champs of the district the members of the team showed that they have been under expert supervision. It is therefor very encouraging to know that Mr. Thune is returning next year to have charge of athletics, because not only are the chances for a winning team strengthened but his influence on the boys with whom he works is important as well. The principles of true sportsmanship are being thoroughly instilled into the boys whom he has under his tutelege.

As principal of the high school Mr. Bye has won himself a high place in the estimation of students, teachers and parents of the city, and it goes without saying that everyone is pleased to know that he will continue his work here.

COUNCIL CONSIDERS BUYING OF ENGINES

Committee Named to Inspect Power Plants in Other Cities To Get Information

That additional engines must be installed at the power plant is fully realized by the city council and that it may be better informed on the advantages of the various types of engines a committee of two was named Tuesday night to visit several cities in this state and the two Dakotas and inspect power plants similar to that in use here.

H. A. Brumund and Martin Evensonson were named but Mr. Evenson today informed a representative of the Times of his intention to have Chas. Krause substituted for himself, which action has met with the approval of the other aldermen.

Undoubtedly the city could not send two better representatives than the above mentioned men for they are both well versed in their respective duties concerning municipal affairs.

Representatives from four different engine companies have appeared before the council at informal gatherings within the past two weeks espousing their type of engines and the aldermen seek still further information.

Attorney Smith Wins Suit In Claim For War Insurance For Lancaster Service Man

Word was recently received by Attorney G. Howard Smith that a war risk insurance claim of Edwin O. Erickson of Oak Point, near Lancaster, who died some time ago from tuberculosis, has been established and the insurance ordered paid to the dead soldier's father, Louis Erickson.

The former service man had carried a $10,000 life insurance policy with the government but had allowed it to lapse some time before his death, which reason was given by the Veterans Bureau for refusing the claim when first presented. The local attorney, who appealed the claim and fought the case before the department however, was able to establish to the satisfaction of the war risk insurance authorities that Erickson had accumulated enough credits thru his payments on the policy to keep the insurance in force up to the time of his death, and the department finally allowed the claim. The full claim amounts to $56.18 per month from June 17, 1922, to October 16, 1941.

With this decision in his favor Attorney Smith, himself a former service man, has succeeded in proving five such claims for buddies where there was litigation regarding their government insurance. It is said that he has been able to put thru the most cases of this kind of any attorney in the state.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

WHEREAS the Almighty Father of the Universe in His Divine Wisdom has called to the celestial Lodge above

NELS NEWMAN,

a member of Austin Lodge No. 20, I. O. O. F.

And WHEREAS, the said Austin Lodge No. 20 has requested Young Pine Lodge No. 221 to officiate in its stead,

AND WHEREAS, we feel that Oddfellowship in the death of our beloved Brother has sustained a serious loss, but that our loss, though great, is slight in comparison with the loss sustained by the loving wife and family,

NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved, that we, Young Pine Lodge No. 221, thru the undersigned committee extend our heartfelt and sincere sympathy and condolence to the bereaved family, and we commend them to the love and protection of Him who said, "Come unto Me all ye that labour and are heavily laden and I will give ye rest."

Be It Further Resolved, that we transmit a copy of these resolutions to Austin Lodge No. 20, that they be spread upon the minutes of Young Pine Lodge No. 221, and that they be published in the local newspapers.

And Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved family.

Young Pine Lodge No. 221, I. O. O. F.
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.
By BERT F. UMLAND,

To You!

In order for you to have perfect health, every organ in your body must receive its share of NERVE FORCE or VITAL ENERGY from the brain over the spinal nerves. Modern science has offered indisputable proof that sickness is caused by a mechanical interference with the transmission of this NERVE FORCE.

When the engine in your car goes wrong, you know the CAUSE is mechanical, and logically the correction of the trouble must be mechanical. You are not so simple-minded as to expect the application of oil, water or gas will make the engine go right. Mechanical adjustment of the engine is all that is required.

As Chiropractors, we work on the very same principle. We know that the CAUSE of your sickness cannot be removed except by mechanical means, therefore we adjust the spine to remove the nerve pressure. When we have done this, we have accomplished the only thing necessary to restore you to health.

In the removal of the CAUSE of sickness, results are always positive, just as much so as in the mechanical correction of the cause of any mechanical trouble. The law of mechanics is positive—never negative. We will be glad to explain more fully just what Chiropractic will do to relieve you of your particular sickness. Consultation with spinal analysis is free.

VOLUME 14 — Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota. Thursday, March 20, 1924 — Number 7

SOO OFFICIAL ASSERTS FAITH IN PENNINGTON

President C. T. Jaffray Encourages Hearers in Address Here Saturday Evening

AIMS OF NEW RELIEF CORPORATION CITED

Party of Prominent Railway Officials are Guests at Commercial Club Smoker

Members of the Commercial club and other interested citizens heard C. T. Jaffray of Minneapolis, president of the Soo Line and chairman of the executive committee of the $10,000,000 Agricultural Relief Corporation, outline what the corporation intends to accomplish in the near future, in a talk at the auditorium Saturday evening, the gathering being called upon the invitation of H. A. Pratt, local agent for the Soo, and Dr. H. W. Froehlich, president of the Commercial club.

Mr. Jaffray visited Thief River Falls together with other officials of the Soo railway, the party making a tour of North Dakota and Minnesota to make personal inspection of railway properties and to make observations as to the existing conditions in the two states. Friday night was spent in Minot where an elaborate reception was given and on Saturday the party came here on a special train from Kenmare.

The distinguished group besides President Jaffray, included the following Soo Line officials: A. E. Wallace, general manager; F. R. Newman, general traffic manager; G. W. Hawes, general agent; E. A. Whitman, chief engineer; H. S. Funston, land commissioner; H. M. Lewis, general passenger agent; G. W. Laigh, general store keeper; T. A. Foque, general mechanical superintendent; and J. O'Connor, general roadmaster. They returned to Minneapolis on the ten o'clock flyer.

Mr. Jaffray was introduced to the auditorium gathering by Dr. Froehlich, chairman of the meeting, and related the details of organization of the new credit corporation, what has been done so far and what it is aimed to accomplish in the way of relieving the present conditions. He stated that he is confident that the corporation will be of inestimable help in the northwestern states by assisting banking institutions which are having difficulty in operating and aiding closed banks which are worthy of assistance and located in places where they are essential. This will make it possible for the smaller country banks to function normally and restore public confidence.

He also said that it is hoped that the corporation will prove beneficient in extending money to farmers to pay delinquent taxes to reduce increasing penalties, particularly in North Dakota where the penalty is high. He also stated that he is casting about for a plan whereby it will be possible to provide more dairy cattle for the farms of the state.

Mr. Jaffray urged drastic cuts in taxation wherever possible, believing that the expenditure of public funds should be given just as careful attention as the expenditures of a private enterprise, and advocated a plan of "pay as you go." In his speech Mr. Jaffray showed that he is thoroughly acquainted with conditions in this section.

The Soo executive, who had not been in Thief River Falls since 1904 when the line was first established here, complimented the residents of this city and community very highly upon the splendid progress made in that short period. He said it was particularly encouraging to note the way the farmers of this section are entering upon the program of diversified farming, the growth of the dairy industry being astounding. He declared that this section is particularly well adapted for a varied line of farming and that the residents of Pennington county should feel confident of a bright and prosperous future. Mr. Jaffray's talk was listened to intently thruout and was well received.

Following the talk in the auditorium proper the gathering retired to the Commercial club rooms, where a smoker was given in honor of the notable visitors.

Officials of the Soo stated that as soon as business on this division shows indications of improvement warranting greater expenditure, operations at the local shops will be resumed on a normal scale.

REV. SVARE CALLED BY TRINITY CHURCH

Church Trustees Extend Formal Call to Young North Dakota Pastor Monday

The Trinity Lutheran church of this city has extended a formal call to Rev. T. O. Svare, now a pastor at Sherwood, N. D., to come to this city and take up the work here at the expiration of Rev. T. E. Sweger's stay, in June. The call was extended Monday when the trustees and deacons met in the First and Peoples State bank building. Word has not yet been received from Rev. Svare as to whether he will accept the call but it is considered likely that he will.

Rev. Svare delivered two sermons at the Trinity church Sunday, March 9th, and made a very favorable impression. Sherwood is Rev. Svare's first charge and he has been there the past three years. He is a graduate from the Park Region college of Fergus Falls.

Wesley Barry In "Printer's Devil" At Princess Fri.-Sat.

Do you know that the voice of Wesley Barry, beloved screen star youngster, is changing? Yes, it's sad but true; or if you prefer to look at the matter from a different angle, three cheers for the good tidings!

Till now it possessed that thin falsetto voice; but of late it is occasionally punctured by the "loud bassoon" voice of a man. William Beaudine, the director of his latest picture, "The Printer's Devil," which will play at the Princess Theatre Friday and Saturday tell a story about Wesley, that deals with changing voice.

"We were working hard on a scene at the studio," he remarks, "and rushed out to get a smack to eat at a wait-on-yourself restaurant. We both sat down on the revolving stools; I gave my order and Wesley asked for some apple pie.

The waiter turned around to get the stuff, and as he did so, Wesley shouted, 'Say, bring some coffee back with you.' The waiter got peeved, thinking it somebody else, and complained, 'Can't you see I'm waiting on these two gentlemen.' Wesley had given the order for pie in a low tone, and the one for coffee in a girlish voice."

"The Printer's Devil" is a Warner Brothers classic of the screen, specially written for Wesley by Julien Josephson. It is the story of the adventures that befall a young printer's devil in a small country town where he has to chase and hold up a pair of hold-up men, help his boss in a romance, and run away from a girl of his age who has a crush on him.

CUCUMBER ACREAGE MUST BE OBTAINED WITHIN SHORT TIME

Only Half of 200-Acreage Secured. School Children Urged To Get Allotment

Those who wish to secure an acreage for the raising of cucumbers for pickle purposes must do so soon in order to get the A. M. Gedney company to establish a salting station in Thief River Falls, according to announcement by the Commercial club committees in charge of the campaign to secure an acreage of 200 acres to be devoted to cucumbers this year.

So far approximately 100 acres, or one-half the acreage, has been spoken for, and it is important that interested persons see County Agent J. J. McCann or Olaf Neset, chairman of the club committee, as soon as possible if the project is to be carried thru and the remainder of the quota obtained.

The proposition has been put before the students of the high school and grades by Supt. I. T. Simley and it is expected that a number of the boys and girls of the city will take this opportunity of making some extra money during the summer vacation, which is the time when the crop is taken care of and picked. Plots of one-half up to two acres are desired, according to information from the company.

H. E. Mussey, Founder of Times, Celebrates Seventy-fifth Birthday

H. E. Mussey, founder of The Times, now publisher of the Grygla Eagle, celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Tuesday, March 18, with a birthday party to which every one in that neighborhood had been invited. The guests numbered about two hundred. Dan Shaw, M. C. Burns, J. S. Arneson and A. E. Mattson of this city motored to Grygla to congratulate Mr. Mussey and help him celebrate the event. The ladies of the community had prepared an enormous birthday cake which with presented Mr. Mussey by the reading of a poem dedicated in his honor by Mrs. Wilson. J. F. Brown, who presided at the gathering, called on J. S. Arneson and Dan Shaw for talks and they paid glowing tributes to Mr. Mussey who responded in his usual jovial manner. Community singing and some of the old time dancing in which the older folks present showed that they could step all around the younger generation added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Mr. Mussey for many years was one of the pioneer residents of Thief River Falls, having been publisher of the Press, now consolidated with the Times, and associated otherwise in the newspaper game of the early days in this city. Before coming to this city he resided in Warren where he was associated with John P. Mattson, father of the present publishers of the Times, in the publication of the Warren Sheaf and other newspapers of Marshall county. Mr. Mussey learned the printer's trade 67 years ago.

The first rural mail route out of Thief River Falls was established through the efforts of Mr. Mussey and for many years he served efficiently as carrier. He built the first residence on the east side of the river in Thief River Falls. He has always taken an active interest in civic affairs and the upbuilding of the community in which he lives.

FARMER-LABOR LEAGUES JOIN IN FEDERATION

Delegates From County Take Part in Three Conventions of Party During Week

WEFALD ENDORSED AT DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Third Party Convention in St. Paul June 17 Endorsed at St. Cloud Meeting

Pennington county was well represented at the Farmer-Labor convention held last week. P. O. Sorlom, R. M. Johnson and Oscar A. Naplin represented the Nonpartisan league unit here and J. E. Nelson, J. S. Barnett and Andrew Trovaton were delegates from the Working Peoples' Nonpartisan Political league of this city to the Ninth district congressional convention held in Minneapolis on Wednesday of last week and the separate meetings of the two organizations, also in Minneapolis on Thursday. Sorlom, Naplin, Nelson and Trovaton were delegates to the state convention of the Farmer-Labor party in St. Cloud on Friday.

The Marshall county delegates to the convention, chosen at a meeting held in this city, were A. C. McMillan, A. P. Nelson, P. B. Malberg and W. H. Quist.

Congressman Knud Wefald was endorsed for re-election at the meeting of Ninth District Farmer-Laborites called by O. A. Naplin, chairman of the district organization. Plans for the coming campaign were also discussed.

Formation of the Farmer-Labor federation with the farmer and labor organizations joining hands under the same executive body at the sessions of the two leagues Thursday, marked the most important step the Farmer-Labor has made since its origin. At a separate gathering previous to the final merging of the two organizations, the Working Peoples Nonpartisan Political league, unanimously voted to relinquish its identity and become a part of the Farmer-Labor federation, the federation being sponsored by the labor faction.

The Nonpartisan league voted to affiliate with the new federation only after a lengthy fight in which various differences were ironed out. The final balloting showed 84 delegates for the affiliation and 78 opposed. The delegates from this district, favored the federation from the outset.

William Mahoney of St. Paul was chosen chairman of the new federation's organization; Ralph Harmen, a farmer from Dakota county, being selected secretary-treasurer. A state committee was formed, composed of two representatives from each congressional district, Louis Enstrom of Malung, Roseau county delegate and H. E. Pratt of Crookston were named from the Ninth district. There was considerable discussion regarding the matter of representation to the state convention, the delegates from this district proposing a plan which was finally adopted with some changes. The number of delegates to the convention is not to exceed 400, the counties being given representation in proportion to the farmer-labor vote in the preceding election.

Following the separate sessions of the two leagues and after the federation had been formed, a joint session was held Thursday night, at which the matter of indorsing candidates for the various state jobs was considered, but a vote after a stiff fight proved a victory of three to two in favor of those against indorsement, it being deemed most advisable to leave the selection of candidates to be determined in the primaries.

At the St. Cloud state convention Friday, which was attended by about 400 delegates, considerable discussion ensued regarding the call for a national convention of political organizations favorable to the "third party" movement, to be held in St. Paul, June 17, the call being issued the previous Tuesday by a conference of delegates from eight states gathered in St. Paul. The federation finally went on record unanimously favoring the third party convention, the purpose of which, as stated in the call, is to nominate a president and vice president and adopt a national platform.

Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin was most prominently mentioned at the St. Paul conference as the probable choice of the June 17 convention for the presidential nomination.

At the federation meeting in Minneapolis a platform was adopted. Its national policy includes public ownership; "restoration of free speech, free press and peaceable assembly;" abolition of labor injunctions; right of labor to share in management of industry and labor's right to collective bargaining.

The state platform included: Analysis of state government to eliminate superfluous bureaus; divorce state forestry service from politics; increase occupational tax on iron ore industry; constitutional amendment for state ownership and control of waterpower sites and revision of working men's compensation law to provide state instead of private insurance.

The platform also would seek to promote peace among nations; a fair return for farmers on their products and legislative protection against manipulation of prices; state and federal aid for cooperative marketing agencies; uniform grades on grain; reduction of freight rates and development of waterways.

Dr. L. R. Twete left today for Fargo having been called by a message stating that his mother had suffered an attack of stroke, her entire right side being paralyzed. Dr. Twete is making the trip by car and expects to return in a few days.

ONE WANT AD INSERTION IN TIMES PROVES SUFFICIENT TO BRING FLOOD OF REPLYS

That want ads are result-getters is being evidenced every day by those who make use of this agency to sell some property, rent a home or farm, secure help, get a job or the like.

"Please stop my ad in your paper, as my oats is all sold and buyers are still coming," writes Joe Oski, a farmer near Thief River Falls who recently inserted an ad in The Times want column stating that he had oats for sale. After but one insertion he was literally flooded with inquiries and is now firmly convinced that Want Ads afford an inexpensive and most effective means of getting the desired results.

Dr. J. T. Bowers recently inserted a want ad asking for a man to take charge of his Pennington county farm. The following few days he received inquiries and personal calls from enough to occupy a whole township. He says want ads do bring results.

BREEDERS MAKE PLANS FOR 1924 HOLSTEIN SALE

Pennington Ass'n To Award Purebred Calf to Best Club Worker in Holstein Class

ANNUAL SALE TO BE HELD OCTOBER FIRST

Many Matters Taken Up at Enthusiastic Meeting in This City Saturday

The annual meeting of the Pennington County Holstein Breeders association, held at the Commercial club rooms Saturday afternoon was attended by every member of that organization. The officers who served last year, Hans Anton, president and M. T. McFarland, secretary-treasurer, were retained.

Among routine matters brot up at the meeting was that of awarding a prize to the winner of the Holstein class in the Boys' and Girls' club contest at the county fair this fall. On behalf of the association, one member will each year award a pure bred Holstein male calf to the contestant showing the best Holstein. The winner of this animal may sell it at the annual Holstein Breeders association sale in the fall if he choses.

The association selected Wednesday, October 1, as the date of the annual Holstein sale. A decision was also reached to enter at the sale three female animals to each male. About 32 registered Holstein cattle will be offered at the sale according to present indications. The association adopted a plan whereby the president shall appoint an examining committee in the fall to inspect all animals to be entered at the sale, two weeks before the date of the sale. Any Holstein which the committee does not believe to be up to the standard desired will be barred from the sale.

The Pennington County Holstein Breeders association has been organized in this city the past ten years. Members stated that the meeting Saturday was one of the livest and best they have held. Every member is a live wire booster for pure bred cattle and ranks among Pennington county's best farmers.

PRESBYTERIAN MEN ORGANIZING CLUB

Permanent Organization to Promote Fellowship to be Perfected at Meeting Mar. 28

Tentative plans for a men's club in the Presbyterian church were made at a meeting and fellowship supper at the church parlors Friday evening. At this meeting committees were appointed to draw plans for the organization and outline a constitution to be passed on at the next meeting. Also committees for arrangement of subsequent meetings were appointed.

About twenty men participated in the fellowship supper and meeting. The Ladies of the church served the supper. At the organization meeting committees were selected to outline a constitution to be considered at the next meeting, which is to be held Friday, March 28. Committees were also appointed to make arrangements for the meeting. O. R. Sande was elected temporary chairman of the organization to serve until an election of officers is held. The committee to outline a constitution consists of Lester Guss, chairman, F. F. Haynes and Rev. Chas. Gerlinger. The committee of arrangements for the next meeting includes George Wilson, chairman, George Nelson and E. O. Mogensen and the program committee L. R. Johnston, chairman, Bert Umland, Sr., and Dr. C. M. Haug.

The purpose of the club will be to promote fellowship among the members of the church, to assist in the various branches of activity of the church and promote civic welfare.

U. Students Have Vacation

Between 8,000 and 9,000 students at the University of Minnesota will scatter to their homes in every section of the state this week for the spring vacation that begins tomorrow, March 21. More than a dozen Thief River Falls people are students at the university and some of them will spend the recess period at their homes in this city. The spring quarter will commence April 2 and continue until June 17, interrupted only by Good Friday and Memorial Day holidays.

EIGHT GRADED HIGH SCHOOLS IN TOURNAMENT

Secondary High Teams To Compete For Basketball Honors Here Friday and Saturday

MIDDLE RIVER-DONALDSON OPEN SERIES TO-MORROW

Spirited Contests Promised During Two-Day Tourney. Athletic Ass'n Offers Trophy

Thief River Falls will again be the scene of a basket ball tournament the latter part of this week when the graded high schools of district No. 1 clash at the city auditorium for district honors tomorrow and Saturday.

The teams are from the high school departments in the school districts of villages which do not have a separate high school and thereby not included in the recent district high school tournament. The teams are not grade teams as some suppose and a very good brand of basket ball may be expected from them.

The preliminary games open Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Donaldson vs. Middle River and Lancaster vs. Badger, continuing in the evening at 7:30 with St. Hilaire vs. Greenbush and Erskine vs. Strandquist. The semi-finals will be played Saturday forenoon at 10 o'clock. Saturday evening the losers of the semi-finals will meet at 7:30 and the final game for the district championship following this game.

L. "Lars" Thune, coach at the local high school will referee the games and G. B. Hauhn of Newfolden will officiate as umpire.

Coach Thune, and the committee consisting of H. C. Hand, Morris Bye, high school instructors and Math Barzen, guard on the all district team, will select a district team for the graded high schools.

The athletic association of the Lincoln high school is offering a suitable trophy to the winning team of the tournament.

John Nystul of Middle River is chairman of the district committee. Admission charges will be 40 cents for adults and 20 cents for children and grade and high school students.

Altho a Thief River Falls team does not take part in this tournament it is expected that citizens will turn out en masse, as this will be the last opportunity to see basket ball played this season. That there will be a good brand of basketball exhibited is certain, according to basketball fans who have seen some of the teams in action. Among the teams who have met the Thief River Falls high school quint are the Middle River aggregation, which is being coached by Elmer O. Tandberg of this city, and the St. Hilaire team, both of which were defeated on the auditorium floor, the former by the first and the latter by the second team. Much is not known locally as to the strength of the other teams in the running but their records indicate that it will be difficult to predict who will finally wind up as the district champs.

Elmer Tandberg Promoted to Head Middle River Schools

Elmer O. Tandberg, son of Mrs. Julia Tandberg of this city, was named for the position of superintendent of the Middle River schools to succeed Prof. John Nystul, who has resigned. Action was taken by the board of education Wednesday, last week, and although Mr. Tandberg has not officially accepted the offer it is practically certain that he will take over the new position this coming fall. During the past two years he has been connected with the Middle River schools in the capacity of principal of the high school and athletic coach. Mr. Tandberg's election for the superintendency speaks well for his ability and his work in the past.

Mr. Tandberg was a guest at his parental home over the week-end and will arrive in the city tomorrow with his basketball team, which will partake in the tournament for graded high school Friday and Saturday. Middle River meets the Donaldson five in the first contest.

Mrs. Robbecke, Pioneer of City, Dies at Yakima, Wash.

Mrs. Louise Meyers Robbecke, a former resident of this city and the mother of Mrs. G. W. Booren of this city, died Monday, March 17, at Yakima, Wash., after a month's illness from cancer. The remains are being shipped to this city for interment.

She was born in New Ulm March 22, 1862, and resided with her parents there until she was 22 years of age when she married Charles A. Robbecke at Crookston. They operated a bakery at that place for some time and later moved to St. Hilaire where they spent six years in the hotel business. When they left St. Hilaire they came to this city and operated the Ogahmah hotel. Mr. Robbecke died in 1911 and soon after that Mrs. Robbecke sold the property. She was a resident of this city until last September when she left for Washington to spend an indefinite time with her daughters, Mrs. H. A. Anderson and Mrs. Harold Beck.

To mourn her passing she leaves eight children, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Beck of Yakima, Wash.; Mrs. G. W. Booren of this city, Mrs. John H. Hay of Minot, N. D., Mrs. F. J. Lawrence of Fargo, Walter W. of Dubuque, Iowa, Phillip O., of Detroit, Mich., and Maurice E. of Locust, N. J. There are also four brothers living, Charles Meyers of Roseau, Adam of Minneapolis, Fred Meyers of New Ulm and John of St. Peter. Three children are dead.

The remains are being shipped to this city for interment and the funeral services will be held from St. John's Lutheran church Monday and interment made in Greenwood cemetery, Rev. E. H. Kriedt officiating at the obsequies.

COMMERCIAL CLUB NAMES DIRECTORS AT NOON LUNCHEON

Sewell, Highway Superintendent, and Minneapolis Bridge Co. President Here Thurs.

There will be a 25 per cent increase in the amount of maintenance on the highways in this district this season compared to last year, according to W. B. Sewell of Crookston, highway maintenance superintendent of district No. 1, who spoke briefly at the Commercial club luncheon last Thursday. An effort will be made to make the roads of this section much more smooth than they have been in the past.

A few remarks were made by Oliver Mattison of Minneapolis, president of the Minneapolis Bridge company, who spent Thursday in the city attending to business matters.

It was moved that a resolution be drawn up for adoption at the meeting today, commending Grand Forks citizens on their efforts in promoting the establishing of a sugar factory in that city, which it was conceded, will help the growers of this community as well. Representatives from Grand Forks recently met with local men in regard to getting local people interested in buying stock in the Northwestern Sugar Corporation which has been organized and will erect the factory, one half million dollars towards which is to be subscribed by Red River valley residents.

At the regular noon luncheon of the club today the set of 12 directors are selected from 24 names presented by members of the club who have voted during the past week. The six receiving the highest number of votes will hold office for two years while the six next in line will be chosen for one year. The directors will name their officers, according to the new articles of incorporation governing the club.

The matter of securing individual buttons or badges for each member of the club, giving his name and occupation or business, is also being taken up at today's session. Old members are rapidly signing up memberships for the ensuing year and a number of new ones are also being added to the list, an effort being made to obtain 100 paid-up members.

Little James Hilliard, aged 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hilliard residing in township of Excel, five miles north of this city, broke his left leg just above the knee yesterday morning when he fell off a truck. Dr. O. F. Mellby was called and the limb set.

POULTRY ASS'N WILL ELECT AT MEET MARCH 27

Pennington Poultry Breeders To Hold Annual Session at Commercial Club Next Week

POULTRY EXPERT TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS

County Agent McCann Gives Facts Regarding Eggs Most Desireable for Hatching

The Pennington County Poultry association in 1924 plans on the most successful year since it started in the incouraging of a larger number of standard bred poultry being raised in this county. Many breeders who have not raised much poultry heretofore are making strenuous plans for a large flock this season. Valuable birds have been sent for previously but the close of the year will see the annual poultry exhibit here composed practically entirely of local birds.

These points will be taken up at the annual meeting of the association next Thursday, March 27, when W. J. Corwin of the Webb Publishing company, poultry editor for The Farmer, will be present as one of the speakers. The gathering will take place at the Commercial club rooms and is scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Among matters of importance to come before the meeting Thursday is the election of officers and directors for the ensuing year. The association, which numbers about 75 members, is now headed by Olaf Neset as president, Rasmus Oen, vice president, and J. J. McCann, secretary.

Everyone who is interested in poultry raising altho not a member of the association, should make it a point to attend this meeting, it is urged by officials of the association, who are doing their utmost in the promotion of the industry in this community.

This being the time when thoughts turn to the setting hen or the incubator, J. J. McCann, county agent, has submitted the following pointers to readers of The Times, which will surely prove of help in getting the right start.

He says:

"One of the first essentials of successful poultry raising is to get an early start from good large hatching eggs uniform in size weighing at least two ounces each or 24 ounces per dozen. This is the lowest standard weight for hens' eggs and no smaller eggs should be used. Large eggs will hatch large chicks and if a chick is hatched from a small egg it will be very much handicapped. The color of the egg should be as nearly uniform as possible.

"When selecting white eggs, they should be pure white and free from yellow tints, also in setting dark eggs the color may range from light, medium to dark brown, but should have the same shade if possible. The shells should be firm without wrinkles or rough spots and free from cracks or "blind checks." Eggs which are saved for hatching should be perfectly clean and free from stains, gathered often so as to prevent being chilled or soiled in the nest. In saving them until placed in the incubator they should be kept in a dry place with a temperature ranging from 50 to 60 degrees and for the best results should not be older than ten days.

"The hatching quality of the egg depends largely on the feed and care of the fowl previous to the hatching season. The hen should be given a variety of feeds and compelled to exercise. A scratch feed of 1 part corn, 2 parts what and one part of plump oats should be fed sparingly in the morning in deep litter, and all they can eat at night. The egg mash should be composed of equal parts by weight of corn meal, bran, shorts or wheat middlings, and finely ground oats. Green feed must be supplied until the birds can have a grassy yard. Sprouted, or germinated oats, alfalfa and silage have proved very helpful for early greens. Dandelions or sow thistles may be used as soon as obtainable.

"An outside yard, where the birds may sun themselves and exercise, greatly aids the hatchability of the eggs. If the birds are confined the chicks will usually be much weaker."

GOODRIDGE MARKET DAY BIG SUCCESS

Record Crowds Hear Arneson Berve Vollom at Community Event Saturday

The Market Day staged at Goodridge last Saturday was one of the most successful events ever taking place in the eastern Pennington county village. The weather was ideal for an event of this kind and a record crowd was in attendance to take advantage of the bargains offered by the merchants and the free auction sale held in the afternoon. It was a regular celebration and afforded much entertainment to those present, practically the entire community spending the day and evening in Goodridge.

A fine program was given, beginning in the forenoon, sessions also being held in the afternoon. Talks were given by J. S. Arneson of Thief River Falls, Thomas Vollom of Erskine and H. O. Berve of Germantown, all of whom were well received by the large audience, their speeches being both instructive and entertaining. Musical numbers were also given by the Goodridge orchestra including several solos.

Business is a great deal like sleep —the harder you work the easier it comes.

SOCIETY NOTES

For Mrs. Lampert

Mrs. G. W. Connell entertained a group of her friends at her home on Saturday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. L. A. Lampert who leaves in a week or two for St. Paul where she will join her husband in making their future home. The rooms were decorated in St. Patrick favors. Needle work and recounting events of the past years of association were the diversion of the afternoon. At five o'clock refreshments were served. Those present were the Mesdames, L. A. Lampert, guest of honor, E. O. Mogenson, C. M. Haug, Roy Lambert, G. Howard Smith, H. W. Protzeller, W. H. Aakre, W. H. Frederick, Ferdie Brown, Fred Herrick and Lucille Johnson.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Irwin of Angela, Mont., was the scene of a social event of local interest when they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Jan. 16. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin are parents of Mrs. A. G. Gabrielson of this city. Many of their friends and relatives gathered at their home in the afternoon. The table was daintily set with tempting viands and in the center was placed a wedding cake decorated with 50 pink and white candles. They have four children living, Mrs. Gabrielson of this city, Mrs. John McCallum of Humboldt and Milton and Noble at home. They also have five grandchildren. Only the two sons were present at the anniversary event, the daughters being prevented by illness.

Give St. Patrick's Party

The Elks lodge entertained for members, and their wives and special friends at the club rooms Monday evening in the form of a St. Patrick's dancing party. Refreshments were served by a committee at midnight. All who were present report one of the most enjoyable dancing parties of the season.

For Muriel Green

Last Sunday Miss Muriel Charleen Green was guest of honor when her mother, Mrs. E. O. Green entertained about eighteen of her friends to help her celebrate her third birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent at games and music. At 5 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, a feature of which was a huge birthday cake bedecked with three candles, significant of her age. Miss Muriel was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Woodmen Circle Organized

A Woodmen Circle, a ladies' auxiliary of the Woodmen of the World, was organized March 5th. Meetings will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall the first Wednesday evening of each month. At the organization meeting, Mrs. Elizabeth Albeck of St. Paul, state manager of the Circle, was present. Sixteen members were enrolled the first evening. The following officers were elected: Past guardian, Mrs. Elizabeth Keating; guardian, Mrs. Laura E. Naplin; advisor, Miss Lydia Bundy; clerk, Mrs. Lillian Tyrer; banker, Mrs. Alice Olson; attendant, Mrs. Malufa; chaplain, Miss Ethel Pechie; inner circle, Miss Ella Bundy; outer circle, Mrs. Lizzie Pechie; managers, Mrs. Bessie Quist, Mrs. Bertine Swanson and Mrs. Pearl Jacobson. The Woodmen of the World meet the first and third Wednesdays of each month but until the circle gets on a firm basis they will give one meeting night a month to the Circle.

James Walker Weds

Miss Mildred Hiller of Brainard and James Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert G. Walker of this city, were married in Brainard March 5. Mr. Walker spent the greater part of his life in this city, and attended the local schools. He practiced civil engineering here for a number of years and the past three years has superintended the work of the Roark construction company at Brainard. Miss Hiller is a popular and well esteemed young lady of that city. Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for Chicago and New Orleans where they are spending their honeymoon. They will visit in this city the latter part of the month before going to St. Cloud where they will make their future home.

Basket Social

A Basket Social will be held at the Sunshine school, District No. 20, six and one half miles north of Rosewood, of which Miss Helen I. Kaya is instructor, Saturday evening, March 22. A program will be given beginning at 8 o'clock and baskets will be auctioned off later in the evening. A good time is assured to all who attend. Everybody is welcome and the ladies are asked to bring a basket.—Adv.

Girls Community Club Begins Physical Training Exercises

At their midweek meeting Wednesday of last week the Girls' Community club began a series of weekly physical training exercises. Miss Vera Byler assumed the leadership for the evening. Last evening, Miss Clara Bauman, physical training instructor at the local high school, took charge. Plans are being made for such exercises each week. These will take place at the Wednesday meetings only and not at the business meetings on Monday evenings, unless further arrangements are made. Miss Bauman has offered to conduct the training each week.

MOTHERS are just realizing the remarkable energy-producing value of Karo Syrup—and why it is such a wonderful food. It is because Karo contains a very large percentage of Dextrose, the great energy food—and is itself in a form to be most easily digested and absorbed into the system.

You could not live long without Dextrose. The starch and sugar in all the food you eat—bread, vegetables, potatoes—must be changed into Dextrose before your system can use it as an energy food. Give your children plenty of rich nourishing Karo—because it not only supplies the demand for a "sweet" but is real energy food.

WHY NOT CUCUMBERS?

If you can't get sugar beet acreage, why not raise cucumbers? Thief River Falls territory must secure 200 acres to be devoted to the raising of cucumbers for pickling purposes in order to get a salting station established here. Farmers, town folks and school children who are interested should not fail to see County Agent J. J. McCann or Olaf Neset, chairman of a committee appointed by the Commercial club, which is doing much in boosting the project. So far approximately 100 acres or one-half the acreage has been spoken for and it is important that the remainder of the quota be procured in the near future. Judging from experiences of growers in the other localities this industry would add considerably to the income of farmers of this community as well. The opportunity to get a salting station in Thief River Falls should not be passed up.

JOIN NOW

The Thief River Falls Commercial club can point with pride to its accomplishments in the past and plans for 1924 call for even greater and more extensive activities. It behooves every live citizen of this community whether a professional man, farmer, business man or laborer to enter its ranks for the promotion and boosting of every movement and activity which bids to make Thief River Falls and Pennington county bigger and better. Join the Commercial club now!

The crop report for March 1924 by Paul H. Kirk, state statistician, indicates that Minnesota generally has entered decisively into the program of diversified farming, there being a heavy estimated decrease in the amount of wheat production and an increase in corn this year. Pennington county farmers have for some time realized that grain farming exclusively does not pay and are now in the front ranks in dairying, and the raising of alfalfa, corn, sugar beets and other crops which naturally go with the livestock industry.

Why not let your boy or girl have a plot of ground on which to raise cucumbers for pickle purposes this summer? That it is a profitable venture if properly taken care of is a certainty and it will give the youth something to do with an encouraging return at the end of the season. If you are interested see County Agent McCann and help raise the quota of 200 acres necessary to get a salting station in Thief River Falls.

The farmers of Red Lake county will lose the aid of an able and willing servant in the person of Henry Werner, as a result of the voting last week, when the county agent proposition was turned down by a vote of three to one. A county agent can be maintained by a very small per capita cost and it seems that his services to the community is well worth many times the cost to each farmer.

"One thousand acres of sugar beets are going to help the Nobles county farmer a lot in 1924," says the Worthington Globe. With 700 acres of sugar beets, 10,666 acres of alfalfa, 1400 acres of potatoes, 200 acres of cucumbers, scores of purebred dairy herds and flocks of chickens, the prospects for the future in Pennington are especially bright.

Goodridge, the wide awake village in the eastern section of the county, has this year set the pace for putting on a Market Day, a special bargain day and community celebration being held there last Saturday. The event drew crowds from all parts of the community.

The public is still waiting for congress to do something besides spattering oil on the "other party." It looks as tho things ought to be pretty well oiled up by this time so that perhaps when the big machine once gets started it will be able to run smoothly for awhile.

If you are interested in the raising of poultry it behooves you to attend the meeting of the Pennington County Poultry association next Thursday afternoon.

Wonder if McAdoo, who said he was promised a million by Mr. Doheny on certain conditions, will deduct what is now regarded as a certain loss, from his income tax.

Some Democrats have adopted the slogan "McAdoo Will Do." Someone remarked that this reminds him of the old maid in leap year who says, "Any Dude'll Do."

Anyway, plenty of investigations will make it possible for congressmen to keep from going on record on important public questions before the election.

The spring drive of the automobile dealer is on and the poor pedestrian who has not yet fallen victim, has retired to the last dugout.

GOLF IS HERE AGAIN

This is the time when the gardener brings out his hoe and spade and the golfer his brassie and niblick. Local fans are getting an early start this year, some being reported as having tried the links last Sunday and many are planning to go out during the next few days if the weather continues favorable. California has little, if any at all, on Minnesota when it comes to golfing weather, the little white balls being swatted around until Christmas time last fall, leaving but little more than two months for the enthusiasts to rest up for another season. More favorable weather would hardly make the sport seasonal.

It is said that thirteen million golf balls have been placed on the market this year ready for punishing blows of mashie or niblick in the hands of that ever growing army of men and women who have fallen prey to the lure of this out door pastime. That the game is finding followers in Thief River Falls is easily seen when it is considered that the local club already has a membership of about 70, which is steadily increasing.

Ex-service men scored a victory in their fight for a bonus, when the house Tuesday for the third time in four years passed a soldier bonus bill by a vote of 355 to 54. The compensation measure provides for paid up 20-year endowment life insurance polices and cash payments to veterans entitled to not more than $50 in adjusted service credit. It is of interest to note that the various political conventions held here recently endorsed adjusted compensation for soldiers. Congressman Knud Wefald, from this district, voted for the measure, only one Minnesota representative, Newton, casting his vote against. The bill will be taken up by the Senate after that body has made a further study of its provisions.

So far practically nothing has been accomplished by the two lawmaking bodies and altho there is a strong demand for "cleaning up" at Washington, the public is waiting for some constructive legislation instead of continual mud slinging by the two parties. The Coulter relief plan was turned down but the Northwest wants favorable action on some measure that will help the farmers in their present plight.

C. Alexander and Son Buy Monson Soft Drink Place

A deal was closed Monday whereby Chas. Alexander and son, William, become owners of the P. L. Monson soft drink parlor on LaBree avenue, Mr. Alexander making the purchase of the lot and building from the Chas. Brink estate. The new owners announce that they will take over the business the first of April, the business to be along the same line as formerly. Mr. Alexander is one of the old residents of the city and well known to a large circle. The former proprietor has not as yet made definite plans for the future.

Plummer Man Breaks Leg

Joseph Schiefert, aged 21, son of Andrew Schiefert residing 5 miles northeast of Plummer, broke his leg Saturday evening when the horse on which he was riding slipped off the grade, three miles northeast of Plummer. In the fall the young man's left leg was crushed under the horse, the bones between the knee and the ankle being badly splintered. Immediately after the accident Dr. O. F. Mellby was called and on Monday the injured man was taken to the Physicians hospital here, where he will have to remain until the latter part of next week. No permanent injuries were affected.

Cranks Car—Fractures Ankle

Olaus Loyland of Oklee, aged 19, was brought to the Physicians hospital in this city Saturday night to receive medical attention, having broken a bone and dislocated the ankle of his left leg while cranking a car, which moved ahead when the engine was put in motion, passing over the young man's foot. He will have to remain at the hospital until some time next week but will sustain no permanent injury, the attending physician states.

Mrs. Malone Died Today

Mrs. Louise Kane Malone, wife of Stanley J. Malone residing at 619 Markley avenue south, died at her home this morning at 1:25 o'clock following a four-day illness of scarlet fever. She is survived by her husband, three sons, three sisters and two brothers. Funeral arrangements have not been made. A complete obituary will appear in next week's issue of The Times.

Mrs. James Havel Dies Suddenly

Mrs. James Havel died at a local hospital this morning at 3 o'clock from an attack of heart failure. She was taken to the hospital two weeks ago to undergo an operation for a goiter and was well on the way to recovery when she was suddenly attacked by heart failure.

To mourn her passing she leaves her husband, one son and her parents. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

CONTRACTS FOR SPUD GROWERS ARE EFFECTIVE

Acreage Signed in Pennington County Is More Than Enough To Meet Quota

ORGANIZATION WORK PRACTICALLY OVER

Official Registered Membership In County Is 107, Who Have Listed 1386 Acres

Official notice that Pennington county has signed its legal quota in the campaign to organize the new Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange was issued from the St. Paul office of the general state committee last week.

Issuance of this notice will have the effect of making effective all contracts signed in Pennington county, preparatory to incorporation of the Pennington County Potato Growers' association. This, in turn, will be federated with 30 other associations, to be formed in all counties which signed their quotas. The federation will become the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange.

The organization campaign closed on March 1 and, according to an official proclamation issued by the state committee and signed by J. A. Monson of Braham, state chairman, and Edward Barr of St. Paul, secretary, an aggregate of 12,220 members who listed 160,756½ acres were obtained before the time limit set in the contract. This acreage is approximately 40,5000 acres more than was needed in the state.

Pennington county is officially credited with a membership of 107, who listed 1386 acres; 676 more than the legally required 50 per cent of the local commercial acreage.

With organization complete, the next step is to form a county association. This work got under way late last week when Pennington county's representative on the state committee issued a proclamation, for which provision is made in the contract. After the proclamation, growers who have signed the contract will first nominate candidates for five positions on board of directors of the county association. nominations will be followed by a mail election. When the directors have been elected, they will legally incorporate the local association, accept as members all who have signed the contract and then name Pennington county's trustee on the board which will form and govern the state exchange. F. A. Green of Stephen represents this district, the organization for warehousing being divided into districts rather than by counties.

Pennington county will have one county trustee. The contract provides that each county shall have at least one trustee and one in addition for each 600 members or major fraction thereof.

As quickly as the county associations have completed incorporation, the county trustees will meet in St. Paul, where thy will incorporate the state exchange, settle matters of policy as to selling operations, etc., and select the personnel for carrying on the business of the exchange.

All legal steps are being taken under the direction of Aaron Sapiro, nationally known authority on co-operative marketing law. His Chicago office is preparing all the papers for the county associations, as well as the state exchange. A tremendous amount of legal work must receive attention before the county and state associations are fully incorporated. Incorporation will be under the new standard co-operative marketing act, passed by the last legislature.

In addition to Pennington, the following counties in the state have signed the required number of acres or more, and are proceeding, with Pennington, to form local associations: Aitkin, Anoka, Becker, Beltrami, Carlton, Chisago, Cass, Clay, Clearwater, Crow Wing, Dakota, Douglas, Hubbard, Isanti, Itasca, Kanabec, Kittson, Lincoln, Mahnomen, Marshall, Millelacs, Norman, Ottertail, Pine, Polk, Red Lake, Roseau, Washington, Wilkin and Winona. It will be noted that every important potato county is included in this list.

Growers who did not join the movement during the organization period will be permitted to sign up, but of course can not take part in the steps to incorporate.

They Serve You

Your safety, comfort and convenience depends to a very large extent upon that great army of men and women in public service.

Loyal devotion to their important tasks and an eagerness to serve, which is beyond the thought of material reward, are characteristics of those in public service.

It is the spirit of service that keeps them at work at all hours, in all sorts of weather, because they realize that others are depending upon them.

Even when others enjoy relaxation and sleep, those in public service must be at their posts of duty.

Joke Exchange

Why is a debutante like a letter?
Because she has received the stamp of public approval and is ready for the male.

Math. Prof. (hurriedly explaining problems)—"Now, young gentlemen, pay close attention to the board while I run through it again."

As Nero remarked shortly after his death: "This is a hot way to treat an emperor."

Prison life must be a sad thing: even the cells are in tiers.

An optimist is a bird who buys from a Jew, sells to a Scotchman, and expects to make a profit.

Freshie: Wassa matter, Swede?
Senior: Sad news. All the great men are dying.
Freshie: What about it?
Senior: I don't feel so good myself.

Editor: "Where did you get this joke?"
Contributor: "It just ran across my mind."
Editor: "You better elevate the crossing."

John: "She was as white and pure as snow."
Jim: "And then she drifted."

Padre: "You'll ruin your stomach, my good man, drinking that stuff."

"I have a dear in my office."
"Mounted?"
"Yes, on a typewriter stool."
"Here's where I cut in," said the surgeon as he applied the knife to his patient.

GLEE CLUBS WILL PRESENT "GYPSY ROVER" APRIL 14

Cast of Characters Now Chosen and Work Progresses Fast Under Direction of Johnson

The complete cast for the Glee Club operetta, "The Gypsy Rover," has now been chosen and rehearsals will begin in earnest. Friday, April 14, has been selected as the date on which it is to be presented.

The cast of characters follow:

"Meg" ------------ Ariel Kinghorn
"Zara" ------------ Camille Warner
"Marto" ------------ Buell Will
"Sinto" ------------ Clifford Storhella
"Rob" ------------ John Sether
"Lady Constance" ---- Eileen Arneson
"Lord Craven" ---- Melvin Engelstad
"Sir George Martindale" ---------- Frances Ohm
"Nina" ------------ Isabel Richter
"Captain Jerome" ---- Math Barzen
"Sir Toby Lyon" ---- Clifton Connor
"McCorkle" ---------- Richard Zeh
"Lackey" ---------- Ben Gullingsrud

The remainder of the cast is composed of several choruses, which include all the members of the Boys and Girls' Glee Clubs.

The music for the operetta is exceptionally pleasing and the many songs and choruses, added to the clever spoken parts, combine to make a delightful and amusing entertainment.

The Glee Clubs, under the supervision of Maude L. Johnson, have been working very hard for several weeks on the songs and dances and all that remains now are the last finishing touches. Watch for a complete resume of the operetta in next week's issue of the "Progress."

Bye Judges Debate

Principal Morris Bye was one of the judges for a debate held in Middle River last Monday evening. The teams debating were both from that town and the question for debate was: "Resolved, that European Immigration into the United States should be prohibited by law for a period of five years." The negative won by a unanimous decision of three judges, but Mr. Bye reports that both sides put up very good arguments and had fine delivery.

Declamation and Oratory Contest In Warren Thurs.

The district declamation and oratory contest will be held in Warren Thursday, March 20. The winners of the sub-district contests held a few weeks ago will be the contestants. As Melvin Engelstad won first place in the meet held here, he will represent Thief River Falls in oratory.

Six other schools will be represented as follows:

Bemidji—Declamation and oratory.
East Grand Forks—Declamation.
Crookston—Oratory.
Lancaster—Declamation.
Argyle—Oratory.
Warren—Declamation.

The two winners of this contest will represent this district in the state meet which will be held in Minneapolis at an early date.

REV. MADSON TALKS TO STUDENTS FRI

Shoolmate of Supt. Simley Urges Thorough Study of the Classics in Interesting Talk

The students of Lincoln High enjoyed a very interesting talk delivered by Rev. M. A. Madson of Bode, Iowa during the assembly period last Friday. Rev. Madson attended college with Supt. I. T. Simley and was not only a schoolmate but also roommate. Because of this fact, his speech was all the more favorably received by Lincoln High.

In his talk Rev. Madson urged a thorough study of the classics, not only because they are useful in themselves but because they enable one to grasp more firmly the essentials of the other, and perhaps more practical, subjects. He proved to the complete satisfaction of his hearers that Latin, Greek and even Hebrew, are not dead languages. He himself has had several opportunities to use his knowledge of these languages both to his own advantage and to that of foreign unfortunates with whom he has come in contact. As an illustration of the practical value of the classics, he told of a Norwegian judge in Chicago who was able to get the entire Jewish vote of that city simply because he had a speaking knowledge of Hebrew.

He gave a very fitting motto for students to adapt, from an old Latin classic, which translated is, "Study as though you were going to live forever, but live as though you were going to die tomorrow." The double lesson which this imparts is easily discerned.

Rev. Madson concluded by reminding the students that "Experience teaches and even though a person is learned in books, he must not consider himself above those who have learned through hard experience. Here also he made use of his classics in bringing his point home. "Why did the Greeks take Nestor with them to war?" he asked. The answer is that though he was too old to bear arms, he had lived through four generations and had the experience by which they knew they could profit.

He urged the students to cultivate the habit of punctuality, and made the point doubly impressive by ending his talk promptly at four o'clock.

Ground Broken For New "U" of Minn. Stadium

Ground for the University of Minnesota's new athletic stadium was broken with official ceremonies on March 6 and the structure is to be ready for use by Oct. 25, the contractor being liable to pay a penalty of $2 per seat if the date of completion is later.

The contract, calling for construction at a cost of $537,762, has been awarded to the James Leck Company, which began work two days after the contract was signed.

The company has promised to try to have 16,000 seats completed by Oct. 1 so that the first of the home football games next fall can be played in the stadium. That number of seats will just about accommodate the turnouts at the early games of the season, the overwhelming demands coming later with the games for the "Big Ten" championship.

In addition to the cost of the stadium structure proper, the Athletic association will pay approximately $70,000 for construction of the playing field, the locker and dressing rooms, approaches, and other necessary items not included in the central contract. This money comes from the profits of past athletic contests, chiefly those of last fall.

The stadium plans call for a structure capable of seating 50,000 people, and built so that additions to hold another 25,000 may be added in the future when the need arises.

Normal Training Girls Teach In Rural Schools

During the past two weeks the girls of the Normal Training department have been making practical use of their year's learning by teaching in the rural schools. They all report an enjoyable as well as a profitable time.

The names of the girls with the number of the school district in which they taught are: Edna Alexander, district 60; Viola Buringrud, district 11; Thelma Carlson, district 39; Thyra Carlson, district 127; Gladys Elofson, district 2; Hilda Engen, district 53; Myrtle Helgeland, district 38; Ruth Hoppa, district 51; Myrtle Krause, district 147; Esther Larson, district 178; Clara Lund, district 173; Allie Norbeck, district 26; Sophie Solheim, district 30; Myrtle Sollom, district 7, and Ruby Thompson, district 15.

CLUB GIVES DINNER FOR H S. ATHLETES

Commercial Club Shows Good Will Toward School Athletics by Entertaining Letter Men

The Commercial club of this city gave a banquet in their club rooms last Thursday for the Lincoln high basketball and football men. Dr. H. W. Froehlich, president of the Commercial club, officiated as toastmaster.

He first called on Supt. I. T. Simley who spoke on the financial standing of the Athletic association and stated that there was about $400 in the treasury at the present time. Rev. Bernard Weakland next gave a short talk, emphasizing the fact that athletics make real men out of boys. Math Barzen, captain of the football team, was called upon then and he explained the success that next year's team should have because of this year's experience. He also stated that 30 new football outfits have been purchased and will be ready for use when spring football commences. Arthur Penney, who is captain of the basketball quint, spoke about the tournament and how it removed all the ill-feeling that has ever existed between Thief River Falls and other teams of the district. Coach L. A. Thune was the last speaker and he briefly explained the system he has started in athletics and expressed the belief that next year should be a successful one in the line of sports.

The boys and the coach greatly appreciate having the Commercial club show so much interest and good-will toward school athletics.

Five new "bobblettes" appeared in the ranks Monday morning. They are: Ruby Conklin, Pearl Conklin, Gladys Johnson, Sannia Erickson and Beatrice Sandum. Hereafter, the "Progress" will list those who still have long hair as they are a much greater novelty.

Hawley Wins Debate

The Hawley high school debate team, composed of four girls, won the district championship when they defeated the Crookston team of four boys by a unanimous decision of five judges. However, they were defeated in the first inter-district debate by a four to one vote and thus eliminated from the competition for state honors.

Knox School Notes

The pupils of the fifth grade who have completed the fifty Studebaker tests are: Robert Booren, Alyce Lonson, Evelyn Whiting, Lester Haroldson, Eleanor Carlson, Vera Randall, Ruth Johnson, Ruby Swenson and Linnea Backland.

The fifth grade pupils have read 519 books while school has been in session.

Great interest was shown in a debate given in the fifth grade. Verna Weimer acted as chairman of the meeting. The affirmative side was taken by Alice Larson, Dorothy Tyrer, Laura Nelson, Robert Booren, Lester Haroldson and the negative by Alyce Lonson, Evelyn Whiting, Linnea Backlund, Clifford Newland and Forrest Anderson. The judges were the Misses Melby, Gunderson and Tandberg. The pupils taking part deserve a great deal of credit for the way they handled their parts and the judges found it hard to make a decision. The points were well taken on both sides but Alice Larson, in summing up for the affirmative, made her arguments the most forceful. The final decision was two to one in favor of the affirmative.

Mrs. H. Schuster, Julia Brudvick, E. Holmstrom and J. Erickson visited the Knox school last week.

Miss Gunderson's pupils had the pleasure of watching live goldfish last week and made a thorough study of them.

Supt. Simley taught memory gems in all the grade of the Knox last Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Simley is especially interested in this work.

Thune Has Explosion

While preparing hydrogen for his general science class last Thursday, Coach L. A. Thune was treated to an exhibition of fireworks in the form of an explosion. The explosion blew the glass container up to the ceiling and scattered all the surrounding articles about the room. The exact cause is not known but it is supposed that the flame from a burner ignited the hydrogen gas.

Many Pennington County Youths Graduate From The Crookston A. C. This Year

Fifty graduates from thirteen northwestern Minnesota counties will receive diplomas and advanced course certificates from the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, at 7:30 o'clock on Commencement day, Thursday, March 27. Dr. C. A. Prosser, Dunwoody Institute, Minneapolis, will deliver the commencement address and Superintendent C. G. Selvig will present diplomas and award the scholarships. The public is invited to attend the exercises of commencement week beginning Sunday, March 23, when Rev. D. P. Cameron, Detroit, will give the baccalaureate services. On Monday evening the Inter-society declamatory contest, on Wednesday the music recital and on Thursday afternoon the senior class exercises will be held.

The list of graduates includes the following from this locality: Theresa Aakre, Goodridge; Orlie E. Hofdal, Hazel; Bert K. Johnson, Kratka; Arnie Sollem, Thief River Falls; Stella M. Sorenson, Plummer; Jalma E. Ulstrand, Holt; Jesse O. and Selmer Anderson, Erie; and Oliver Howard, Highlanding.

Matilda Kotrba of Erie will take part in an inter-society declamatory contest March 24 and Anna Flekke of Thief River Falls will appear as one of the soloists in the music recital on Wednesday evening given by the students enrolled for special work in music.

8th Grade State Exams in County Held Today and Fri.

State board examination questions in eighth grade subjects were sent out to more than 50 schools of Pennington county by Superintendent Ole R. Sande Friday of last week. All the schools in any county in the state as well as Pennington that have asked for eighth grade questions from their county offices will hold the regular spring examinations on Thursday and Friday, March 20 and 21.

Pupils who fail in these examinations will have a chance to try again in May, when the second state board examinations are given providing the papers are not submitted to the state department. Both the March and May examinations are sent to the state board of education for correction, the former being first checked over by the teacher and county superintendent.

FEW CONTESTS IN TOWN ELECTIONS

Returns of Balloting in Township Elections Last Week Are Coming in Slowly

Elections in the 21 townships and two villages of Pennington county were held Tuesday of last week but were characterized by the absence of any spirited contests. In most instances there was but one candidate for each office and many appear quite reluctant about accepting an office in charge of township or village affairs. Funds were voted for revenue and road and bridge purposes at the township elections which are commonly known as town meetings. The voting is reported as being very light in practically all precincts, little interest being shown.

Few reports of the election results have been received so far by Auditor T. P. Anderson, and those whose duty it is to file these returns are requested to do so at an early date. The Times has succeeded in securing a few returns from various sources.

Perhaps the most spirited contest took place at Goodridge, the citizens of that village showing considerable interest in the selection of officials. G. C. Gulrud was elected president of the council, the other officers chosen being: Geo. Wold, Carl Lindstrom and Carl Eidseth, trustees; M. J. Stephenson, clerk; S. Anderson, treasurer; Jay Payne, assessor; Gilbert Gunderson and Geo. Josephson, justices of peace; M. M. Anderson, constable.

Only a mild interest was shown in the village election at St. Hilaire, there being no opposition on the ticket, according to The Spectator. Only a little over 100 votes were cast, whereas 200 can be mustered out. P. E. Bergh was elected president of the council; H. F. Hanson, councilman for three years; Mike Fricker and E. O. Burkee were returned as recorder and treasurer, respectively.

Following is a list of officers elected in North township: Jorgen Eide, supervisor, three years; M. H. Ballingrud, clerk; Waldie Christensen, treasurer; W. A. Quist, justice of peace; Christ Rustad, constable.

Black River township—Leo Holmes, supervisor; Felix Anderson, clerk; A. G. Hallstrom, treasurer; Chas. Rotzler justice of peace.

River Falls township—A. P. Sandberg, superintendent; Carl Swanson, clerk; Anton Anderson, treasurer; T. J. Sumpter, justice of peace; Charley Sumpter, constable. Joe Hogquist and W. P. Wilson were re-elected to their present offices as supervisors.

Highlanding—E. Sanders, chairman, three years; John T. Nelson, supervisor, two years; Ole O. Sunsdahl, supervisor, one year; H. I. Finstad, clerk; Ole G. Lee, assessor; William Vaughan, treasurer; Alfred Hammarsten and W. H. Crampton, justices of peace, one and two years, respectively; Robert Swanson and Herman Kjos, constables. A tax of $350 was voted.

Holt Township Elects

Holt township elected the following officers Tuesday last week: John Engstrom and A. C. Burtness, supervisors, three and two years, respectively; T. B. Folden, clerk; G. P. Sorter, treasurer; Erick Johnson, justice of peace; Ole Davidson and A. Movig, constable. Elling Waagedahl is chairman of the board and holds over.

What My Neighbor Says

Is of Interest to Thief River Falls Folks.

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Thief River Falls resident.

Who could ask for a better example? C. W. Leach, 213 Knight Ave., S. says: "My back bothered me so much with a dull, steady pain that I was in misery continually. When I got down, it was about all I could do to straighten again. When I stooped suddenly, I got sharp twinges that felt like knife-stabs. My kidneys did not act properly, either. Doan's Pills cured me of the backache and I have had no return of the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mr. Leach had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Notice of Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Default having been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage made and executed by Edward Vaastrand, unmarried, Mortgagor, to W. B. Torgerson of Red Lake County, Minnesota, Mortgagee, which mortgage is bearing date the 2nd day of December, 1918, and which mortgage with the power of sale therein contained, was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Pennington, State of Minnesota on the 7th day of December, 1918, at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 57 of Mortgages on page 234 thereof, which said mortgage together with the debt thereby secured thereafter was duly assigned by said W. B. Torgerson, mortgagee to the Bank of Cambridge, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed, dated March 27th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 28th day of March, 1919 at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 80, and which mortgage with the debt secured thereby again thereafter was assigned by the said Bank of Cambridge, assignee, to A. J. Onsgard, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed and dated May 17th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 19th day of May, 1919 at 8 o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 98 thereof.

And, Whereas said default consists in the failure of the said mortgagor to pay the sum of One Thousand Dollars with accrued interest and the further sum of Three Hundred Twenty-eight and 88-100 in taxes which have necessarily been paid by said assignee, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of this notice the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars, said taxes included, and that no action or proceeding at law or otherwise having been instituted to recover the debt by said mortgage secured or any part thereof.

Now, Therefore, Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage above described will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit:

The South East Quarter (SE¼) of Section No. Thirty (30) in Township No. One Hundred Fifty-two (152) North, of Range No. Thirty-nine (39) West of the 5th P. M., in Minnesota, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) Acres according to U. S. Government survey thereof, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Pennington County, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Thief River Falls, in said County and State, on Saturday, the 19th day of April, 1924, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at public vendue to pay said debt of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars with interest from the date hereof together with an attorney's fee of fifty Dollars as stipulated in and by said mortgage, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of said sale as provided by law.

Dated March 1st, 1924.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE

There is declared to be due at the date hereof Thirty-two Hundred Thirty-eight and 47-100 Dollars ($3,238.47), for principal and interest, One Hundred Seventeen and 66-100 Dollars ($117.66), for taxes paid, in all, Thirty Three Hundred Fifty-six and 13-100 Dollars ($3,356.13), upon a mortgage given by Andrew J. Henning and Anna Henning, his wife to The Minnesota Loan and Trust Company, dated November 15th, 1922, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, in the County of Pennington, and State of Minnesota, November 20th, 1922, at 9 A. M., in Book 74 of Mortgages, on page 335, mortgaging and conveying the following described land, situate in said County, to-wit:

The Northeast Quarter (NE¼) of Section Thirty-five (35), Township One Hundred Fifty-four (154), Range Forty-one (41), according to the United States Government survey thereof, and containing One Hundred Sixty (160) acres of land, more or less, to secure the payment of Three Thousand and no-100 Dollars ($3,000.00) and interest, which mortgage has been duly assigned to Clarence E. Drake, and by him duly re-assigned to The Minnesota Loan and Trust Company, as Trustee under the Will of E. P. Gates, and duly assigned by it to Clarence E. Drake, and by him duly assigned to The Minnesota Loan and Trust Company, which assignments have been duly recorded.

Notice is hereby given, that said mortgage will be foreclosed and said premises will be sold under foreclosure thereof at public auction on the 22nd day of April, 1924, at 10:00 o'clock, A. M., by the sheriff of said County at his main office, in the County Court House in Thief River Falls, in said County, to pay the sum then due on said mortgage, including taxes and interest, if any, then paid and Seventy-five and no-100 Dollars ($75.00), attorney's fees and foreclosure disbursements.

Judgment Sale on Foreclosure of Mechanic's Lien.

By virtue of a judgment duly entered and docketed in District Court, in and for the County of Pennington, and State of Minnesota, on the 14th day February, 1924, in an action to foreclose a mechanic's lien wherein Carl M. Carlson was plaintiff and Margaret C. Meehan, Bridget Martha Connoly, Margaret Connoly, May Sweeney and Norah I. Meehan were defendants and wherein it was adjudged and decreed:

That the amount due the plaintiff Carl M. Carlson from the defendants Margaret C. Meehan, Bridget Martha Connoly, Margaret Connoly and May Sweeney is the sum of Two Thousand Four Hundred Thirty-four and 3-100 Dollars, $2434.03) with interest thereon at the rate of six (6) per cent per annum from August 28, 1923, amounting to $67.70, and $75.00 attorney's fees, together with plaintiff's costs and disbursements taxed at $21.25, making a total of $2597.98.

That all of said sum is due for labor performed and material furnished in and about the repair of the two story Concrete Block Building located on Lots Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14) and Fifteen (15) in Block Fifty-eight (58) of the Original Townsite of the City of Thief River Falls, County of Pennington and State of Minnesota, and adjudging and decreeing said premises and the interest of the defendants therein to be subject to the lien of Carl M. Carlson, subject to the mortgage lien of Norah I. Meehan in the sum of $2700.00 against the interest of Margaret C. Meehan, in said above described premises.

And wherein it was further adjudged and decreed that said premises be sold in one parcel to satisfy said judgment, including attorney's fees, costs and disbursements.

NOW, THEREFORE, Notice is hereby given that I, as Sheriff of Pennington County, Minnesota, will sell at Public Auction in one parcel to the highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Thief River Falls, in said Pennington County, State of Minnesota, on Saturday, the 5th day of April, 1924, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, the hereinbefore described premises, viz:

Lots Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14) and Fifteen (15) in Block Fifty-eight (58) of the Original Townsite of the City of Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the Register of Deeds for said County, to satisfy said judgment, attorney's fees, costs and disbursements, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Dated this 15th day of February, 1924.

OIL STATION BEING BUILT BY PYRAMID CO. ON MAIN AVENUE

Workmen Start Remodelling Building Purchased From Peoples Auto Company

Another large gasoline and oil service station will be added to the city in the course of a few weeks. The Pyramid Oil company, which was organized here last fall, is well on its way with the construction of the station on the site formerly used by the Peoples Auto company, on Main avenue.

The station will be built on much the same plan as that of the White Eagle station. High and low test gasoline and lubricating oils and the grease products of the company will be handled. The new station, being situated on the Jefferson Highway and Bridge street, is one of the best located stations in the city and judging from the amount of enthusiasm last fall when the company organized and the number of local people who have capital invested in the company, Pyramid oil will have a prosperous future.

Only forty feet of the front of the building which was formerly occupied by the Peoples Auto company will be torn down and the rest of the building will be used for a repair shop. Workmen started alteration last week, officials of the company stating that they expect to have the station ready in about a month.

The completion of the Pyramid station will make a total of three high class service stations on the trunk highway thru this city.

St. Hilaire Farmer Sued For Breach of Contract

A civil case was brought up in municipal court Tuesday afternoon when one Helge Johnson brought suit against R. J. McKercher of St. Hilaire for wages said to be lost on account of breach of contract on the part of Mr. McKercher. The complaintant stated that he had been hired for a six months period. On June 1, 1923, after three weeks work, Mr. McKercher discharged him. Mr. McKercher denied having engaged Mr. Johnson for any definite period. The court declared the evidence showed that no definite length of time had been decided on and the case was dismissed.

Reamer Returns From West

E. T. Reamer, who has spent the winter months in California, returned to this city Monday from Sacremento, Cal., where he has bought a ten acre poultry ranch. His plan is to remain in Thief River Falls this summer and then to return to Sacremento in the fall. Mr. Reamer states that he is very much pleased with conditions there and enjoyed his stay there the past months.

LEGION POSTS WILL ADOPT SCOUT TROOP

Committee Appointed to Work Out Plans for Conducting Scout Work in City

The Elmer J. Eklund post of this city will take charge of a Boy Scout troop in the future, it was decided at a meeting of local Legionaires last Thursday night. Definite plans as to whether one of the troops now existing will be adopted or a new one will be organized have not as yet been made, the working out of details being in the hands of a committee composed of Verner Nelson, Guy Lane, Henry McMahon and Ray Kiland.

H. S. Snyder, Dave Robinson and Earl Effinger were selected as a committee to work with H. A. Brumund, manager of the Thief River Theatre company, in making arrangements for the special motion picture "The Whipping Boss", based on the story of the Tabert tragedy, which will be shown here under the auspices of the Legion on May 30.

A number of details in connection with the St. Patrick's dance given at the auditorium Monday night were considered and a committee comprising O. C. Paulson, Guy Lane and Henry Eyde were named to look after arrangements for an Easter dance on the Monday following Easter, April 21.

The report of treasurer Verner Nelson, showed a balance of $119.98 in the coffers of the local post. A total of $56 was netted from the dance conducted at the auditorium during the tournament, to which the Legion invited members of visiting basketball teams and their coaches to attend free of charge.

The Legion club rooms under the First and Peoples State bank will be open and at the disposal of basket ball teams who come to this city tomorrow and Saturday to participate in the graded high school tournament, which courtesy was also accorded visitors to the tournament two weeks ago.

H. S. Snyder, one of the most active of local Legionaires, was chosen as chairman of a publicity committee.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HONORS ATHLETES

High School Basketball and Football Players Banquetted By Business Men of City

Members of the high school football and basket ball teams and their coach, L. A. "Lars" Thune, were honored at the regular noon luncheon of the Commercial club last Thursday, when athletics and the recent basketball tournament were the chief topics of discussion. The Commercial club was in a large degree responsible for the tournament being secured for this city as the organization guaranteed expense money to the extent of $500 in the event that the gate receipts should not prove sufficient. However, no help was required as more than $1000 was taken in, exceeding all expectations.

The high school athletic association has enjoyed an exceptionally prosperous year, according to Superintendent I. T. Simley, who was one of the speakers at the luncheon. According to Mr. Simley the association now has a balance of about $350, with a possibility of getting approximately $200 of the tournament receipts, this event being handled in a manner much to the credit of the association, the school and the city as a whole.

Rev. B. M. Weukand of the St. Bernard Catholic church, was called upon and spoke enthusiastically for the boys who participate in athletics, emphasizing its value as developing strength and courage, instilling honor and habits of correct living. He encouraged citizens to take interest in sports sponsored by the schools and commended the club upon its active spirit in promoting athletics.

Math Barzen, captain of the football team, and Arthur Penney, captain of the basketball team, spoke encouragingly of the prospects for the coming year, praising in high terms the work of Coach Thune during the past year.

Regarding prospects for 1924 football and 1925 basketball Coach Thune says: "Altho the football team will not consist of heavy men indications are favorable. Last fall when the season opened but two had had previous experience on the gridiron, this of course being a handicap, but the end of the season found 30 men in practice. Of these only four, Barzen, Lundell, Gavin and Wengeler, graduate this spring. With six weeks of spring football, which will be started about the middle of April, it is hoped that some new material will be developed strengthening the prospects for a winning team next fall. Two games have been scheduled with Warren this spring.

"Of the veteran basketeers only Barzen and Sether graduate this year. From the material which has been developed the past year Thief River Falls should bid strongly for the district championship in 1925, with such men as Penney, Parenteau, Sorenson, Mulry and Bennes in the lineup. During the past season basketball training has been conducted in the grades as well as in high school, the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th graders being given instruction in the hoop game. Also each class in high school is represented by about 20 boys who practise daily. With this training from the early period of school life it is a certainty that this city will be well represented in future years. This year's team made a credtable showing and with the new plan in operation even better results can be looked for. Training will be given not only to a few select but to the mass of students."

Wilson Store Burglary Gets Reformatory Term for Youth

Russel Hilligoss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hilligoss of St. Hilaire, was sent to the Red Wing reformatory Saturday evening following hearing in juvenile court Saturday. He plead guilty to having broken into the H. Wilson confectionery store at St. Hilaire on March 7th. Fred Chapman and Frank Chapman, the former under age and the latter of age, were also implicated in the affair according to statements made by Hilligoss. Fred Chapman was permitted freedom pending a second hearing on ten days notice. Frank Chapman was brought up in municipal court and, under a $500 bond, was bound over to the district court in June.

MARY PICKFORD HAS CHARM AS GROWN-UP

Keeps The Attractiveness That Endeared Her to Public in Little Girl Roles

The public is going to be amazed and electrified by the new Mary Pickford personality which will be seen in "Rosita", her latest United Artists' production which comes to the Princess Theatre for an engagement Sunday and Monday.

Miss Pickford, as Rosita, reveals to the public a vital something—a hitherto unthought of quality in "America's Sweetheart."

The fact is that Mary Pickford has grown up in "Rosita." While she has always shrunk from this thought, the shrinking was not due to vanity, but to an almost puritanical aversion to revealing a grown woman's feelings and emotions.

It took great courage on the part of Mary Pickford to grow-up on the motion picture screen. Heretofore she has been worshipped chiefly for her portrayals of childhood roles, being the idol of mothers and children, but she never permitted herself to be blinded by the facts in the case. She has realized all along that to continue to be dear to the public, she must keep ahead of herself, as it were. And to keep ahead of herself, she had to grow up.

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN GROCERY STORE

Blaze in Upstairs of Square Deal Meat and Grocery Saturday Does But Little Damage

The effective work of the fire department Saturday afternoon when fire broke out in the building on LaBree avenue, occupied by the Square Deal Meat and Grocery store, prevented what might have been one of the worst of fires in months. The blaze was confined to a few vacant rooms on the second floor. The building is of frame construction and is one of the old structures of the city.

The fire started in a room on the second oor in the front part of the building, apparently from a defective electric light wire. It was discovered by Dr. T. C. Haney when he left the store about 4:30 after having made a small purchase. He noticed smoke coming from the wall on the south side of the building and immediately turned in the alarm. Ray Chapman and family occupy the rear rooms on the second floor and were unaware that there was a fire in the building until a clerk and a few others came up to locate the proximity of the fire.

The fire department was on the scene a very few minutes after the alarm had been turned in and by directing a stream of water between the walls on the location of the flames were able to extinguish them before they gained headway and with practically no water damage to the grocery and dry good stock below.

No insurance was carried on the stock of the store on the first floor as all lines were not complete and many had not yet been placed on the shelves.

Many Women Use Glycerine Mixture

Women appreciate the quick action of simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adlerika. Most medicines act only on lower bowel but Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, and removes all gasses and poisons. Excellent for obstinate constipation and to guard against appendicitis. Chiropractic, the modern health science, has established the fact that man's brain controls the health of every organ in his body. The lungs, heart, spleen, liver, kidneys, stomach, bowels,—in fact, every part of the body is dependent upon the brain activity.

Your body is a perfect network of nerves, leading out from your brain over the spinal cord, and thence to the different tissues and organs throughout your body. These nerves are the electric wires that carry the nerve electricity or NERVE FORCE. Every portion of your anatomy must have its share of this NERVE FORCE in order to be kept healthy.

This is what happens when you are sick,—there is a mechanical pressure on nerves where they leave the spinal cord between the small movable joints of the spine. If it is a nerve supplying the stomach, stomach trouble results. If a nerve leading to the kidneys—kidney trouble is the inevitable result. In other words, the particular part of the body supplied by the pinched nerve becomes diseased because it does not receive its share of the nerve force.

We will be glad to supply you with indisputable proof of what we are able to do for your particular sickness. Consultation is free.

COUNCIL HEARS NEW ORDINANCE AGAINST LIQUOR

Aldermen Consider Many Matters at Session Tuesday Night. Informal Discussions

HIGH SCHOOL GRANTED AUDITORIUM FOUR DAYS

Change in Electric Light and Power Rates Proposed in Amendment to Ordinance

Altho the meeting of the council Tuesday night was a lengthy one little actual business was transacted, yet much was accomplished, as considerable routine matters held the attention of the aldermen until long after ten o'clock.

With all members present and the reading of the minutes out of the way, new matter was immediately taken up and disposed of, following which routine affairs were covered.

Ole Helgeland, a farmer residing a short distance east of the city, asked permission of the council to remove a barn on the rear of the Swedenburg hospital property to his farm, it being necessary to take the building up Knight avenue and east along Eighth street to the Thief river. Chairman Evenson called his attention to an ordinance requiring a house mover's bond and stated he believed the ordinance should be enforced. Alderman Brumund coincided, stating that for two years past he had held the same opinion but could not get co-operation from the old members thereon. The other aldermen took the same position and Mr. Helgeland was granted permission if he would furnish a $1,000 bond and a cash deposit to pay for removing electric light wires.

The free use of the auditorium was granted the high school following a request therefor by Supt. I. T. Simley for four days, viz.: Friday, April 25, for the music department for the play they are to put on; Friday, May 9, for the class play; Sunday, May 18, for the baccalaureate exercises, and Friday, May 23, for the graduation exercises.

A. H. Bakke, who purchased the restaurant formerly conducted by Alfred Rasmusson on Main Avenue north, was granted a soft drink license by the council unanimously, while the license previously issued to O. L. Monson was transferred to Alexander & Son.

A communication from Mayor J. S. Arneson stating that he had re-appointed J. Q. Cronkhite as a member of the Cemetery Commission for another five years, was duly received and his action formally approved.

The first reading of the new ordinance covering intoxicating liquors, following the state and federal statutes, was given close attention by the aldermen. It provides for a minimum fine of $100 or a jail sentence of not less than 90 days.

An amendment to the present ordinance regulating electric light and power rates was proposed last night, increasing the rate to users residing just outside the city limits from 9 cents to 12 cents. The amendment also changes the power rates so that it will be $2 per horse power on all motors up to 3 h. p. and 50 cents additional for each horse power in excess of three horse power, with 15 per cent extra for users outside the city limits, except where there are existing contracts as for example the Sanitorium.

The personal bond of the First & Peoples State bank as a city depository was duly accepted on approval of the city attorney, a minor error having been corrected since the last meeting of the council. It is in the amount of $50,000.

COMMITTEE SELECTS ALL-DISTRICT TEAM

Three Erskine and Two Middle River Basketeers Given Place On First Team

A committee consisting of L. A. Thune, athletic coach of the Thief River Falls high school, H. C. Hand, Morris Bye, instructor and principal of the local high school, and Math Barzen, member of the all district high school quint, have selected the following men for the all-district mythical graded high school basket ball teams, of the first Minnesota district, which held its tournament in this city Friday and Saturday of last week.

First Team
Kramer, Middle River, forward.
Paine, Erskine, forward.
Espeseth, Erskine, center.
Hill, Erskine, guard.
Gullickson, Middle River, guard.

Second Team
Thomson, Lancaster, forward.
Ellingson, Erskine, forward.
Cathilineau, St. Hilaire, center.
Haseth, Greenbush, guard.
Koland, Strandquist, guard.

The following were awarded honorable mention:

Graham, Lancaster; Nordlum, Middle River; Bilden, St. Hilaire; Benson, Erskine; Stennes, Strandquist.

Pennington County Farmer Buys Carload of Phosphate

D. D. Sandry, a live-wire farmer living in the western end of Pennington county, has just finished hauling out a carload of phosphate, which he purchased from Tessum & Company of this city. Mr. Sandry has used phosphate before so knows the value of it. It more than pays for itself the first year besides producing a crop of better quality, according to Mr. Sandry.

Last fall, Mr. Sandry marketed about $2000 worth of sweet clover seed and has another large field which he will cut for seed this year.

He has also purchased enough seed corn for 100 acres of corn, part of which he will plant on his old sweet clover field. This is probably a larger acreage of corn than was grown in the whole county 10 or 15 years ago and goes to show that Northern Minnesota is beginning to produce corn and will soon be classed in the corn belt.

Mr. Sandry is a strong believer in sweet clover, corn, and a system of crop rotation and with the help of phosphate on land that needs it, he will soon have his ground in shape to produce maximum yields.

CITY USES LARGE VOLUME OF WATER ON WASH MONDAY

About 300,000 Gal. Filtered on Mondays—184,000 Gal. Other Days of Week

That Monday is washday in Thief River Falls can be easily determined by perusing the records at the city filtration plant showing the consumation of water each day. During the winter months it is necessary to filter approximately 100,000 gallons or 50 per cent more water on Monday than on other days of the week. The plant is usually operated from two to three hours longer on that day compared to other week days.

Following are the figures for one week, obtained from L. J. Erickson who is in charge of the plant, showing the average number of gallons filtered water necessary to supply the citizens of Thief River Falls, the following being for a week in February: Monday, 294,000; Tuesday, 176,400; Wednesday, 184,400; Thursday, 184,800; Friday, 184,800; Saturday, 184,800. About 15,000 gallons of well water is used each day during the winter months, this water being pumped thru the standpipe into the elevated tank so as to prevent the pipe from freezing, the water from the deep well being considerably warmer than that pumped from the river and passed thru the various tanks in the filtration tanks.

At no time is the water taken direct from the river into the mains of the city, the capacity of the plant being sufficient to meet practically any emergency. By increasing the speed of filtration it is possible to provide filtered water in greater volumes than can be pumped into the tank, making it absolutely unnecessary to pump water direct from the river, as thought by some, even when a maximum volume is used as in the case of fire. For instance, when The Times building was razed by fire last summer, six water hoses were used by the fire department and an unusually great amount of water was used, but even then there was a supply of about 300,000 gallons when the fire fighting stopped.

The capacity of the local plant is given as 200 gallons per minute. When the standpipe tank, reservoir and the filtration plant tanks are filler there is a supply of approximately 600,000 gallons, the tank holding 76,000 gallons and the reservoir 400,000 gallons.

The cost of the plant, which was completed in February, 1923, and has been in operation for one year, is $19,340 for contruction and $15,170 for equipment, according to figures from the city clerk's office. The operating expense is figured as 15 cents for each 1000 gallons, this cost including interest, depreciation and all items entering into the running of the plant.

The plant in this city is giving excellent service, according to those in charge, the water when thoroughly filtered being absolutely purified. Tests have been made by state inspectors and but a small amount of harmless bacteria is reported. This will gradually disappear, according to statements by officials.

Killed in Accident

William Smithers returned to his home here yesterday morning from Princeton where he was called on account of the death of his father, Thomas Smithers. The elder Mr. Smithers was killed in a run-away accident while driving a team on his farm. The funeral services were held Monday and interment was made at Princeton.

POULTRY MEN CONSIDER CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

Members of the Pennington County Poultry association and others interested in the raising of poultry meet in this city this afternoon to consider the organization of a local branch of the Poultry Producers association for the co-operative marketing of poultry and eggs. W. J. Corwin, poultry editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, is in the city today to meet with producers of this section and is the principal speaker at this afternoon's gathering. The Pennington County association will also elect officers for the ensuing year and make plans for future activities.

Mr. Corwin also spoke before the Commercial club at the regular luncheon today, his subject being the co-operative marketing of eggs and poultry.

ERSKINE QUINT VICTORIOUS IN BASKET TOURNEY

Champions of Graded High Schools in District Tourney Here Friday and Saturday

MIDDLE RIVER DEFEATED IN FINALS; SCORE 22-24

Last Games Spirited Contests With Exhibition of Good Brand of Basketball

In one of the most exciting and hotly contested basketball games seen on the local floor this season, the Erskine quint won district honors over Middle River in the graded high school tournament in this city Saturday night. From the first games of the tourney, Middle River and Erskine showed themselves to be strong contenders for the championship. The entire all-district team was selected from these two quints.

Middle River entered the tournament Friday afternoon against Donaldson with a determination to go thru to the finals. With good short passes and the speedy playing of Gullickson, they defeated Donaldson with a score of 19-7. Neither team showed much strength in this game.

Lancaster with a very large team won the second round of the tournament over Badger with considerable opposition. The game was hard fought to the finish and the victory was not determined until the final whistle was blown. The close guarding of both teams featured the game, which ended with a score of 18-11.

St. Hilaire Defeats Greenbush

In the second set of the preliminaries Friday evening, St. Hilaire, by defeating Greenbush with a score of 25-6, looked like possible winners of the tournament. By their ranginess, the St. Hilaire players appeared to be dangerous contenders for the championship. The long shooting of Cathlineau of the St. Hilaire team was the most spectacular of the tournament and Erickson played a very creditable game. Berger of Greenbush played a star game.

Strandquist entered the last round of the preliminaries against Erskine Friday evening very much downhearted by the loss of two of their best players, who were ill at a hospital, but gave their opponents the battle of their life, holding them down until the last few minutes, when Erskine forged ahead and finished with a score of 23-10. Koland and Stennes of the Strandquist five played star games and the floor-work of Espeseth and guarding of Ellingsod of the Erskine team were features of the game.

Middle River Wins.

The semi-finals opened Saturday forenoon with all teams ready for anything that might be used against them in the way of basketball tactics. Middle River and Lancaster played the first game, Middle River playing a strong game and winning with a score of 17-9. Lancaster played a better game than the score would indicate, but failed to connect their many shots with the basket. Gullickson and Kramer again exhibited a good brand of basket ball. Middle River played a strong short pass game and showed greater speed than the first game they played.

Erskine Wins Easily

In the second game of the semi-finals, Erskine had little difficulty in defeating St. Hilaire by a score of 23-7, much to the surprise of those who witnessed St. Hilaire's first game. The Erskine quint played a strong offensive and defensive game and featured long passes. The opposition, however, did not play up to the standard they set for themselves in the preliminaries and showed a lack of passing, Erskine repeatedly intercepting.

Final Game 22-24

The final game for the championship Saturday evening was one of the most exciting games witnessed on the floor this season. Middle River played an exceptionally strong offensive game and had the ball in the territory of their goal equally as much of the time as Erskine. Erskine, however, played the most consistent game of the tournament in that contest and on the strength of it defeated Coach Tandberg's proteges who played more in spurts, by the narrow margin of 24-22. The game was not determined until the final whistle blew and at any time in the last two minutes of play, Middle River might have overcome the final victory had Erskine not played such a close guard game. Kramer of Middle River and Espeseth of the Erskine team starred the contest.

Locals Defeat St. Hilaire

As the Lancaster team, which was to have played St. Hilaire in the preliminary game Saturday evening, wished to leave after the forenoon game, the local high school team took their place in the preliminary contest. The regulars were used at the beginning of the game and a part of the second team worked later. Neither team played up to its standard and the game ended with the score at 18-8 in favor of the local team.

The forenoon and afternoon sessions were not well attended, altho many from schools, represented by a team at the tournament were present. Friday evening's games were well attended and a very large crowd turned out for the final contest Saturday evening.

L. "Lars" Thune, athletic coach of the local high school and G. B. Hauhn of Newfolden officiated as referee and umpire at the tournament games. The athletic association of the local high school awarded a championship banner to the winning team.

Provencher To Cities

Julien Provencher left Tuesday for Minneapolis and St. Paul to spend a few days attending to business matters.

SPRING SEEDING BEGUN BY PENNINGTON FARMERS

Work in a number of fields in this vicinity is reported under way this week. According to information available by The Times the first farmer in Pennington county to seed a considerable acreage of grain was S. C. Stone, whose farm adjoins the city on the southwest, who has planted 50 acres of wheat beginning seeding last Saturday. This is the earliest since the mild winter of 1918. A number of farmers have seeded considerable alfalfa and clover, the county agent says. With a continuation of the present mild weather and with lack of snow or rain, seeding will be quite general thruout this section this week.

Escape from rust is said to be one reason for early seeding of wheat, but it is doubtful if early seeding dates will increase the acreage in this section, a decrease being predicted in view of the fact that farmers of the valley will devote a greater acreage to corn, alfalfa and sweet clover.

OSCAR SPONHEIM IS FIGURE IN HOLD-UP OF LOS NIETOS BANK

Former Thief River Falls Man Cashier of Bank Robbed of $4,000 in Currency

A clipping from the Los Angeles Herald, issue of March 20, was received by The Times this week, giving an account of a robbery of the Bank of Santa Fe Springs at Los Nietos, of which Oscar Sponheim, well known in Thief River Falls and community, is cashier. Mr. Sponheim was formerly cashier of the First and Peoples State bank and a resident of this city until three years ago when he moved with his family to the Pacific coast. He is a brother of William Sponheim, local city mail carrier.

The item from the Los Angeles paper states that two young bandits, believed to be the men who held up a bank at Rivera several weeks ago, entered the Santa Fe Springs bank shortly after noon last Thursday, held up two employes, one of whom was Sponheim, the cashier, and two salesmen and escaped with nearly $4,000 in currency.

The article continues:

"The bandits practically 'cleaned out' the bank, according to the cashier, Oscar Sponheim, who declared the men did not touch $6 in pennies and $10 in dimes, but took all the other money.

"'Do you want us to take a shot at you?' one of the bandits shouted at the persons in the bank when they failed to hurry at the commands hurled at them.

"'Get over and face that wall and stick your hands as high in the air as you can,' the bandit resumed and the four persons, Sponheim, Mrs. Pauline Peters, stenographer; Bill Phelps and H. S. Edgerly, salesmen for the Bankers' Supply Co., quickly complied.

"While one of the bandits held the four under cover of an automatic, the other scooped up the money and the two made their escape in a green touring car.

A photograph of the robbed bank and an inset of Mr. Sponheim also appeared in the clipping sent to The Times.

TRAINED DOG STARS IN FILM OF NORTH

Rin-Tin-Tin, Famous Movie Dog, Is Feature of Picture at Princess Theatre

"Beasts of the North," a screen drama featuring Rintintin, the famous dog, will play at the Princess Theatre Sunday and Monday. It is a drama set in the far north silences with a woman for prize, in which a dog's instincts and intelligence thwart the diabolic cunning of a brute-man.

The picture is reported to be replete with mystery, glamour and adventure, and has won praise of the first order wherever already shown. Rintintin is credited with almost uncanny institution, acting like a true veteran of screendom.

It is a Warner Brothers classic of the screen, directed by Chester M. Franklin. The story deals with Gabriel Dupre, a young French-Canadian trapper, who returns from a far north trip and finds the Hudson Bay trading post in consternation over the disappearance of five men, missing after setting out singly with loads of fur. Gabriel undertakes to make the trip leaving Felice McTavish, his sweetheart, behind, to the tender mercies of Shad Galloway, the tyrranical factor.

Gabriel himself is shot down wounded and left for dead by a band of outlaws. A wolf attacks him in his weakened condition, but is withheld in time by some inner force—the spirit of devotion of his canine forbears, for he turns out to be a dog who had joined with a wolf-pack. The two become friends, and together succeed in running down the gang of crooks, in Galloway's employ. The wolf-dog bears down on Galloway just when Felice is helpless and the camp deserted.

Rev. Larson's Sister Dies

Rev. George Larson was called to Madison, this state, on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. Nels Bjornson. He left Monday morning and met his brothers and sisters at Minneapolis and accompanied them to Madison. Death occured Saturday, supposedly from pneumonia. The funeral services were held there yesterday.

CITY TEACHERS SIGN CONTRACTS FOR NEXT YEAR

Thirty-Seven of 51 Instructors Have Signed Up to Continue Work in Thief River Falls

ONLY SIX H. S. JOBS REMAIN TO BE FILLED

Schools in City Will Open Next Fall With Few Changes. Salaries Same as Before

Thirty-seven instructors in the four grade and one high school of Thief River Falls have already signed contracts to return to this city when the schools open again next fall, according to information from the office of the superintendent, I. T. Simley, yesterday. This leaves vacancies in only 14 positions and some of the present incumbents are still considering remaining, although others are considering positions closer to their parental homes or making plans to attend college or university.

There is but one vacancy in the Central, two in the Knox, three in the Northrop, two in the Washington and six in the Lincoln high school. It is expected, however, that these positions will also be filled in the near future, Supt. Simley being in touch with a number of capable instructors who are anxious to take up work here.

Teachers who are members of the present staff who have signed up for another year so far, including their address, position and salary, are:

Lincoln High School

Morris Bye, Brandon, principal and English, $2,100; Maude L. Johnson, Red Wing, music supervisor, $1,600; Leonard A. Thune, Albert Lea, coach and general science, $1,900; Clara Baumann, LaCrosse, Wis., physical training supervisor, $1,350; Clarence W. Pope, city, industrial training, $1,545; Mildred Thompson, Mahnomen, history, $1,260; Mrs. Blanche Korstad, city, mathematics, $1,395; A. C. Matheson, city, languages, $1,395; Mildred R. Nelson, Waverly, N. D., geometry and physics, $1,350; Lawrence Mickelson, Belgrade, English and debate, $1,395; Minnie S. Leavitt, city, English and librarian, $1,395; Doreen Finnegan, Yankton, S. D., English and bookkeeping, $1,350; Monica Bambrick, Minneapolis, commercial, $1,395. Lester Guss of Rugby, N. D., science instructor, will attend the University of North Dakota the coming year, while other members of the faculty have not as yet announced their plans for the coming term.

Northrop

Emma Tandberg, city, principal and lower intermediate, $1,192.50; Clara Halvorson, Warren, primary, $1,080; Mrs. H. T. Eyde, city, primary, $1170; Carrie E. Trogen, Enfield, primary, $1,260; Lovina Adams, Luverne, lower intermediate, $1,260; Gladys Ryan, St. Vincent, upper intermediate, $1170; Ellen Lura, Mayville, N. D., upper intermediate, $1,170.

Knox

Mrs. E. Lacy, city, principal and lower intermediate, $1,215; Esther Tandberg, city, primary, $1,125; Maurine Frank, Warren, primary, $1,035; Agnes Aaseng, McIntosh, primary, $1,012.50; Margaret Saugen, Newfolden, lower intermediate, $1,035; Sarah Vaughan, city, upper intermediate, $1,125. Agnes Gunderson of Glyndon, first grade teacher, expects to go to school next year.

Washington

Edna Larson, city, principal and upper intermediate, $1,305; Vera Byler, Moorhead, primary, $1,147.50; Carolyn Melby, city, primary, $1,170; Judith Porten, Alvarado, lower intermediate, $1,080; Aneta Dahlquist, Roseau, lower intermediate, $1,057.50.

Central

Lyda Batten, Newfolden, principal and arithmetic, $1,350; Mrs. Ed. Karwand, city, history, $1,170; Anne Tharaldson, city, geography, $1,125; Agnes Sands, Alvarado, history, $1,170; Mrs. Tella Hill, city, English, $1,125; Julia Keefe, Morton, English, $1,080.

Alice Stapleton, normal training instructor, has not been re-engaged as yet, as it is necessary that high school graduates who wish to take the course next year enroll before the close of school, and there must be an enrollment of 16 in order to carry on the department. If 20 or more are enrolled two teachers will be employed.

It is encouraging to note that so many of the present staff will remain in the service here, as the children and students, and the parents as well, have learned to know them as splendid instructors and helpers in the upbuilding of the community. Many of the teachers contribute liberally to the social life of the city. With Supt. Simley at the head and with a staff of such capable teachers, it goes without saying that the school system of Thief River Falls has a bright future.

The high school now has the largest enrollment in history, there being a total of 429 students on the rolls.

Autoists Without Proper License Face Jail April 1

All Minnesota automobiles and trucks must have new 1924 license plates attached by next Tuesday, April 1; otherwise, drivers will face arrest and a penalty of $100 fine or 90 days in jail under the new license law.

Mike Holm, secretary of state, recently issued a warning to the foregoing effect, on the law making it a misdemeanor to operate a motor vehicle after April 1 without the proper license plates.

Police in all parts of the state will be instructed to enforce the law, Mr. Holm said. Payments have been coming in slowly of late, he added, although many are outstanding and the time limit expired more than three weeks ago.

Notable Cast Features "Flaming Barriers" Film

George Melford, famous Paramount producer, won a novel battle with a roaring mountain torrent, while engaged in filming scenes for his newest Paramount production, "Flaming Barriers," which will be the feature at the Princess theatre Friday and Saturday. Mr. Melford selected a spot on the banks of the Stanislaus river in the moutains fifty-three miles from Sonora, in northern California. Some of the most important scenes in the picture were filmed on this location.

The production features Jacqueline Logan, Antonia Moreno and Walter Hiers.

The story deals with small town folk in an entertaining and amusing manner. Jerry Malone, daughter of an impecunious inventor of a fire motor truck, meets and falls in love with Sam Barton, a wealthy golf enthusiast who is sent as an efficiency expert to direct her father's business. In the action there is a tremendous forest fire, an aeroplane dash above the flames, a motor race across a flame-enveloped bridge and many other thrilling incidents. The picture is said to be one of the best productions of the current season.

Morlan Bishop Takes Up Work With Banking Dept.

Morlan H. Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bishop, has accepted a position with the state banking department in the capacity of examiner and has taken up duties in the southeastern section of Minnesota, his present territory, with headquarters at Rochester. Mr. Bishop has during the past year been associated with his father in the banking business here, previous to which he served the banking department in this section of the state. Mr. Bishop is thoroughly familiar with banking and finances in general, his present position being recognition of this, and also his office as chairman of the state finance committee of the American Legion. He will speak at a meeting of Legion commanders and adjutants of posts thruout the state in Minneapolis April 4 and 5.

THE NARCOTIC EVIL

While it is true that the drug habit, which is such a menace in the larger cities of the country, has not fastened its tentacles upon the smaller towns to any alarming extent, yet the situation is one which calls for eternal vigilance on the part of our people

Mrs. Wallace Reid, wife of the famous screen star, has correctly depicted the horrors of the drug in her picture, "Human Wreckage," the details of which deal with the subject in a manner which cannot help but awaken the American people to the dangers involved.

The terrible death of Wallace Reid attracted nation-wide attention, but thousands die in obscurity in unknown places, and it is to these people—the down and out boys and girls—that Mrs. Reid has dedicated her work. In its tense situations this picture points a strong moral and I therefore commend "Human Weckage" to all our people who are interested in the nation-wide crusade against narcotics.

PENNINGTON CO. TO PAY $55,000 FOR 1924 ROADS

State Auditor's Abstract and Report From Sec'y of State Give Highway Totals

ABOUT $33,000 TAX ON 1996 TRUCKS AND CARS

Local Road and Bridge Funds for 1924 in Minnesota Total Close To $20,000,000.

Pennington county's local road funds this year will total more than $55,000. Its car and truck owners will pay about $33,000 of motor vehicle taxes toward trunk highways serving four out of five road users on the average. The trunk highways formerly took 80 per cent of county road funds over the state, however, so county road taxes are now correspondingly less or county roads are being improved the faster.

Local road funds for this year listed on the state auditor's annual tax abstract out last week give these figures for Pennington county:

Road Funds	Amount
State Aid	$ 5,486
County	30,174
City-Village	1,505
Township	18,572
Total	$ 55,737

The funds available will be larger than the above total, however, because state aid apportionments are larger than the amounts paid in except in Hennepin, Ramsey and St. Louis counties. The 1924 allotments are to be made soon.

Pennington county's estimated total of $32,934 toward the state trunk highway fund is based on 1996 motor vehicles this year at an average tax of $16.50, the figure used in the office of the secretary of state. There are 32 miles of trunk highways in this county and they are the heaviest traveled roads.

In spite of the greater use of the state trunk routes, only half as much money is provided for them as for the local roads.

Local road and bridge funds for 1924 purposes in Minnesota total $19,037,042 on the auditor's abstract and are as follows: State aid, $2,000,000; county taxes, $9,631,898; city-village taxes, $1,186,344, and township road taxes, $6,219,300. The total will be increased by local road bond issues in Hennepin, Ramsey and possibly other counties.

State trunk highway funds available this year will approximate $10,000,000. The secretary of state estimates $8,000,000 coming in from the increased number of motor vehicles, and federal aid will aid about $2,000,000. Receipts from county reimbursement bond issues for trunk highway improvements, it is officially announced, probably will not exceed the amount set aside in the sinking fund this year to pay interest and the outstanding bonds when due.

About 15 per cent of the general property taxes in Minnesota are being used for good roads, the official figures show. The funds this year will be smaller than for five years past. The general property taxes are used only on local roads. Automobile owners pay the only direct taxes for trunk highway purposes. It is also the only tax on their machines and less than the tax under the old personal property law, to which a license fee was added.

The state tax abstract discloses that 42 per cent of all general property taxes in Minnesota are paid in Hennepin, Ramsey and St. Louis counties, in which are located Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth. Further, the figures show that about $20,000,000 of the $24,500,000 state increase in assessed valuation this year was in those three counties.

The best available figures indicate that about one-third of the motor vehicle taxes are collected in the three counties named, although none of the trunk highway fund is used in the three large cities.

The three counties will receive in state aid this year $632,817 less than they paid in state aid taxes and that sum will be apportioned to other counties for local road purposes.

OLAF WINGER OPENS NEW CLOTHING STORE

Saturday is Opening Day For Men's Clothing Establishment On LaBree Ave

Olaf Winger, for the past four years engaged in the men's department of Albert Lieberman's store and previously with the Oen Mercantile company, this week announces the opening of his store in the building on LaBree avenue, formerly occupied by the Save-U-Money store.

A complete new stock of men's furnishings and shoes has been laid in and the store will open for business Saturday. Mr. Winger was engaged with the Oen Mercantile company for six years prior to his affiliations with Mr. Lieberman. He was also connected with the Maurice L. Rothchild Palace Clothing house in Minneapolis for a year.

Mr. Winger states that he will establish a policy of quoting the lowest possible prices, consistent with quality merchandise, at all times. Announcement of the opening with several offerings will be found elsewhere in this issue of The Times.

Many Attend Sale

Large crowds have taken advantage of the bargain offerings at Langseth's shoe sale the past week, and the event is a decided success, according to A. M. Langseth. He attributes the splendid results largely to intensive advertising and good values.

SOCIETY NOTES

W.C.T.U. To Hold Special Mothers' Day Session Tues.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the Presbyterian church parlors Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, April 1st, at a special Mothers' Day session. That is an annual event with the W. C. T. U., and the usual large attendance is anticipated. Mothers, whether members of the W. C. T. U. or not, are invited to bring with them their little children for enrollment in the White Ribbon Recruit Band. Everybody is welcome to this session. In the evening the W. C. T. U. will serve a supper, beginning at six o'clock and all persons, whether or not they attend the afternoon session, are welcome.

Double Birthday Party

Mrs. Gilbert Hovo and her sister, Mrs. Lars Erickson, tho not twins, have the same birthday and a group of their friends gathered at the Gilbert Hove home yesterday afternoon in compliment to them. The time was spent in a social way and at the close of the afternoon a sumptious supper was served. Twelve ladies were present.

To Stage Easter Dance

Announcement has been made that the local post of the American Legion will sponsor a public dance at the city auditorium the Monday following Easter Sunday, April 28. Arrangements are already being made to make this one of the most elaborate and enjoyable of public dances of the year and coming at the close of the lenten season, as it does, expectations are that local steppers will turn out en masse for the event.

Surprise Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Rud was the scene of a surprise party on Wednesday evening of last week when a number of their friends gathered at their home and spent the evening. The time was enjoyably spent at dancing and cards and at 12 o'clock a lunch, brought by the self-invited guests, was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. Grundhaus, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Larium and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbertson, the Misses Signa Austad, Selma Stremme, Emma and Helen Wiken, Agnes Kval, Gladys Halvorson, Harriet Johnson and Neva Burtness and the Messrs. Junior B Sharp Club

The Junior G Sharp club met at Mrs. Thelma Erickson's studio Tuesday evening. The feature of the meeting was a contest among members conducted by Mrs. Erickson and Miss Frances Wengeler in making note books and scrap books on great composers. The following pupils took part in the musical program: Janet Mogensen, Dorothy Tyrer and Lillian Rourk, pupils of Mrs. Erickson, and Elva Tharaldson, Irene Neseth, Eleanor Bottelson and Ruth Mattison, pupils of Miss Wengeler. Miss Wengeler, an advanced pupil of Mrs. Erickson, conducts classes for 21 beginners in piano and co-operates with Mrs. Erickson in conducting the Junior B Sharp club, of which her pupils are members. The Senior club meets next Tuesday.

Enjoy Dancing Party

A group of young people enjoyed a dancing party at the American Legion club rooms Friday evening. The event was sposored by Miss Gladys Remmem. The chaperons for the evening were Mrs. Frank Fisher and Miss Monica Bambrick. The hall was decorated in green and white streamers. At midnight refreshments were served. About 60 young people took part in the affair.

Woman's Club Monday

The Woman's club will feature, at their next meeting Monday, March 31, papers and talks of the subjects of "The Home Beautiful." Mrs. T. L. Melgaard has charge of the subject matter and the discussions. Mrs. H. W. Protzeller will be the hostess of the social hour. The social hour begins at 3 o'clock and the business session at 3:30 at the Commercial club rooms as usual.

Celebrates Sixty-Seventh Birthday

Mrs. George Newland, residing at 420 Crocker avenue north, was tendered a birthday surprise on her sixty-seventh birthday anniversary, Saturday, March 22. About 25 guests gathered at the Newland home to make the afternoon a memorable one for Mrs. Newland. Rev. O. J. Lundell delivered an appropriate address for the occasion. The guest of honor was presented with a purse of money as a token of the high esteem in which she is held by her many friends. A lunch was brought by the self-invited guests.

W. C. T. U. Supper-Tuesday

A 25 cent supper will be served at the Presbyterian church Tuesday, April 1st, beginning at six o'clock, by the W. C. T. U. Everybody will be cordially welcomed and a good supper is assured.

Miss Helgeland Entertains

Miss Myrtle Helgeland entertained a number of friends at her home Tuesday evening. The hours were spent at games and in a social way. Fifteen guests were present. A sumptious lunch was served by the hostess at 10:30.

Royal Neighbors Entertain

The Royal Neighbors of America will entertain a number of friends and members at the Masonic hall Wednesday evening at an old time dancing party. Each member may extend invitations to three friends. Refreshments will be served by a committee.

For Mrs. Conklin

Mrs. G. J. Conklin was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when a large group of her friends gathered at her home near the Soo round house in commemoration of her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent at cards and music. At midnight the self-invited guests served a lunch. Mrs. Conklin was presented with a set of table linen as a token of esteem. Those present were the Messrs. and Mesdames G. J. Conklin, A. A. Hagen, Henry Carlson, John Webskowski, Adolph Williamson and Elmer Hensom and Miss Martha Lauft and O. W. Carlson.

For Miss Martha Dostal

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Arneson was the scene of one of the prettiest parties of the season last evening when their daughter, Eileen, entertained a number of young people in honor of Miss Martha Dostal, whose marriage to Harold Arneson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Arneson, was announced this week. The rooms were tastily decorated in a color scheme of yellow and green and the dining table set with favors to match. The evening hours were spent at cards played at six tables. At 11 o'clock a lunch was served by the hostess. The bride-elect was presented with a set of silver, a gift of those present. Miss Dostal and Mr. Arneson will be married at the Arneson home Saturday afternoon. They will make their home city.

Students From Pennington County in Music Recitals

Among those who participated in the music recitals at the Northwest School, Crookston, during commencement week were: Tillie Fort, Erie; Theresa Aakre, Goodridge; Rose Kozojed, Germantown; Elmer Miller, Erie; Arnie Solem, Thief River Falls; Oliver Howard, Highlanding, of Pennington county.

Three recitals were given by students in voice and piano, while the final concert included the glee clubs, choruses and other musical groups. Seventy-four Northwest School students have availed themselves of the musical advantages in voice and piano at the school during the past year, while the glee clubs, choruses and orchestra have offered additional opportunities in music.

U. of M. Students At Home

Among University of Minnesota students of this city who are spending the spring vacation at their parental homes are Miss Lucille Curtis, Jordan Penney, John Hendry and Charles Prichard. They arrived Sunday night.

Takes Part in Play

Oliver Howard of Highlanding, who is attending the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston, took a prominent part in the school play "A Strenuous Life" given recently. It was a three act comedy and was reported as one of the best plays staged at the school.

Card of Thanks

By this means we wish to extend our sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted us in our hour of bereavement and the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, and for the many beautiful floral offerings, and the assistance and comfort given us by the Rev. Geo. Larson.

Funeral Of Mrs. Robbecke Held From Trinity Monday

The funeral services of Mrs. Louise Robbecke, one of Thief River Fall's oldest and most beloved residents, was held from the Trinity Lutheran church Monday afternoon. Rev. E. H. Kriedt, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, conducted the services. The theme was "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled" and the text taken from John, 12, 1-6. Mrs. Robbecke was one of the oldest members of the St. John's church and was one of the founders of the local congregation. Mrs. O. F. Mellby sang a solo with H. O. Chommie at the organ. The church was filled and many stood in the isles, hall and outside. The casket was covered with banks of flowers from her relatives and friends. The pall bearers were the Messrs. M. C. Burns, Robert McGinn, H. A. Brumund, Hans Anton, August Krause and Phil Zeh.

The relatives from out of town who attended the funeral are Adam Neyer of Minneapolis, Charles Neyer of Roseau, brothers of Mrs. Robbecke; Phillip Robbecke, a son, and his wife of Detroit, Mich., and Walter Robbecke of DuBuque, Iowa, a son; Mrs. F. J. Lawrence of Fargo, a sister; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hay of Minot, N. D., son-in-law and daughter. Mrs. Herbert Connor of Hibbing, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Harris of Warren and Mrs. Douglus Farrell of Warren, who are friends of Mrs. Robbecke, were also present.

Mrs. Louise Kane Malone

The funeral services of Mrs. Louise Kane Malone, wife of Stanley J. Malone residing at 619 Markley avenue south, who died at her home Thursday morning, was held Friday afternoon from the Larson Undertaking parlors with Rev. Jno. B. Smith of the M. E. church officiating. Interment was made at Greenwood cemetery. Mrs. Malone died early Thursday morning after a four-day illness of scarlet fever.

She was born in Superior, Wis., May 15, 1887. In April, 1911, she was married to Stanley J. Malone in Duluth. They resided for two years in this city and then five years in Duluth; returning to this city in 1917 and have made their home here since. At the time Mrs. Malone contracted scarlet fever, her three children were just recovering from attacks of the same disease and in caring for them her health had become impaired to the extent that she became an easy victim to the dread fever and death followed very shortly.

Among survivors are her husband, three sons, John, Bertram and Ernest; three sisters, Mrs. Paul Levin of Minneapolis, Miss Loretta Kane of Wisconsin and one married sister residing near the west coast; and two brothers, Robert Kane of Oregon and Edward Kane of Solon Springs, Wis.

Dorothy Grimsrud Dies

Miss Dorothy Grimsrud, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Grimsrud of St. Hilaire, died at Faribault Monday afternoon from a severe attack of rheumatism of the heart. Little Miss Grimsrud who was about 13 years of age, left last fall for Faribault to study at the school for the blind and was very much interested in her work. The atack came without any warning and death was almost immediate. She suffered one such attack at home several years ago. Rev. Grimsrud passed thru this city Monday evening on his way to that city to take the remains to St. Hilaire where the funeral will be held this afternoon. Rev. A. E. Hanson of Stephen will conduct the English funeral services.

Card of Thanks

Tribune and Times Employes Pallbearers at Funeral of Mrs. James Havel Saturday

Mrs. Amanda Storeby Havel, wife of James Havel, former linotype operator at The Times and now with the The Tribune, died Thursday morning at 2:30 from weakening of the heart following an operation for goiter. She was taken to the Physicians three weeks ago and underwent the operation a few days before death. The evening before she died she was apparently improving but by midnight her condition changed and death came in a very short time.

She was born at Clarkfield May 15, 1896, to Mr. and Mrs. Peder A. Storeby. At the age of fifteen she moved to Strandquist with her parents where she resided for a number of years. The past three years Mr. and Mrs. Havel have been residents of this city.

To mourn her passing she leaves her parents, her husband, one son, Melvin, five brothers, Carl of Crookston, Conrad of Wisconsin, Oscar and Alfred of St. Paul, and Harry at home at Strandquist, and one sister, Amelia, of Seattle, Wash. A brother, Emil, died five years ago.

The funeral services were held from the house at 407 Arnold avenue and the Zion Church Saturday afternoon with Rev. George Larson as the officiating pastor. Mrs. Havel was a member of the Trinity Lutheran church of this city but in the absence of a pastor Rev. Larson conducted the funeral services. The pall bearers were members of the Tribune and Times printing and editorial staffs. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Members of The Times staff wish to hereby extend their sincere sympathy to their former co-worker in his hour of bereavement.

St. Hilaire Pioneer Dies At 92 in Valders, Norway

Knute Kolstad of St. Hilaire, recently received word that his father, Andrew Kolstad, one of the early pioneers of Pennington county, passed away at his home in Rogne, Valders, Norway, on Feb. 15, at the age of nearly 93 years according to the St. St. Hilaire Spectator.

Mr. Kolstad was one of the early pioneer citizens of St. Hilaire, coming there in 1882 when he homesteaded a small tract of land which is now part of the village known as Kolstad's addition. His wife, two sons and two daughters died in this country and two sons died in Norway. The only surviving member now is Knute Kolstad, who still resides in St. Hilaire. After 25 years of residence in the village, Mr. Kolstad left in 1907 to spend the rest of his days in his native land.

White Way Question Given Attention By City Council In Session Tuesday Night

A modern white way for Thief River Falls is possible this summer if present plans of the city council are developed, following the learning of the fact that the present posts can be changed over to the locations decided upon when the pavement was laid in 1922.

At that time the wires were laid for an alternating current system and special arrangements made for turning on and off the current at the power house instead of in each block as at present.

It is now claimed that the present standards may be used and all five lights turned on or off at one time in each block, or the cross arms and lower four lights be removed and a different type of top light be installed, thus imitating the newer method of street lighting. This would make the lights all like the one erected over a year ago on the south side of Third street in front of the old Union block.

A full investigation of the plan will be made and if feasible the change will be made without much delay, thereby eliminating the present unsightly and dangerous box coverings at the new outlets.

The council also directed the light committee to see that the guy wires about the city be properly covered and painted so that there would be less danger of people colliding with them in the dark.

Change Of Road Past Cemetery Considered by State

Some two or three years ago it was suggested that the present state highway coming into the city from the south on the east side of the river be changed so as not to cut thru the Greenwood cemetery, but nothing was ever done about it.

Now the state is considering this step if it takes over the permanent upkeep of this piece of highway, and if such action follows undoubtedly a change will be made, the road being so changed as to avoid the present dangerous railroad crossing just north of the cemetery.

It will also probably mean that the road will bring traffic into the city up St. Paul avenue instead of Conley. If this is so then the former street will be properly graded and improved for heavy traffic while the latter will be given only such grading and surfacing as will be required for the lighter amount of traffic which it will bear in the future. The council is awaiting word from the state before taking any definite action looking toward the improvement of the streets in question.

Attends Ford Agent's Meet

M. T. McFarland, local agent for the Ford Motor car, attended the meeting of Ford dealers and sales representatives at Grand Forks Tuesday. The afternoon was occupied with various business matters relative to marketing the Ford cars and in the evening dealers were guests at a banquet at the Frederick hotel. The Ford Motor company has established another sales record by selling one million cars in the last six months.

Price Stabilization Meeting

A meeting to consider price stabilization of far mproducts will be held at Middle River Monday afternoon for the purpose of organizing the eastern section of Marshall county. The western portion was organized recently at a meeting held in Argyle. Among the speakers scheduled to address the Middle River gathering are Mayor J. S. Arneson and G. Halvorson, local attorney.

City Dads Visit Grafton To Inspect Diesel Engine

Information has reached the city council that the city of Grafton, N. D., has a Diesel engine in operation and at the regular meeting of the aldermen Tuesday night it was decided that instead of a committee of two making an extended trip thru North and South Dakota and Minnesota inspecting similar plants that the council as a whole go over to Grafton.

Accordingly the aldermen left for that city early this morning and will return this evening. They believe they will then be in a better position to decide what sort of additional unit should be purchased for the present power plant.

It will be at least a month before bids could be opened and a contract let and four or five months would necessarily follow before the unit could be installed ready for use and by that time an increasing load will be in evidence and the unit an actual necessity.

Pennington Trappers Must Get License From Auditor

Persons desiring trapping licenses should keep in mind that they must obtain same at the office of the county auditor in the county where the applicant resides, according to Auditor T. P. Anderson. Mr. Anderson has just received a letter from the state game and fish department stating that that office is continually in receipt of applications for trapping licenses and calling attention to the above fact.

The Pennington county auditor has issued about 90 licenses permitting trapping since the season opened last October and it is likely that several more will be issued this spring since the open season on muskrats continues until April 30. The season on practically all other fur-bearing animals will be closed the first of April.

FRIENDSHIP

There are men who go through life with the idea that they need no friends—that they are better of without anyone in whom to confide.

They are so engrossed with their business that they take no time to cultivate acquaintances. They do not seek friendships. They walk down the street staring straight ahead or with their eyes on the ground, paying no attention to anyone whom they may pass.

They succeed in their business, not because of their personality, but in spite of it. They do not attract customers, but rather repel them. Their success is due to their close application to their business and their knack of supplying what people want.

But there comes a day in the lives of such men when they realize their folly, when they awaken to the fact that one of the joys of life is the friendship that may be formed and strengthened as time goes on.

When it dawns on this type of men that they have made a great mistake, they turn to those who should have been their friends, for friendship, and find that it is too late.

After they have passed the meridian and begin to slip backward, when they should have rich friendships stored up, they discover there is no place for them in friendship's circle.

The mistake of this kind of a life is so apparent that there is no excuse for it. The man who thinks he does not want friends is all out of tune and he deserves what he gets when he arrives at the point where his mistaken viewpoint in life is realized.

Making friends is easy with some men; with others it is difficult, but he who wants friends need only to be friendly.

Friendly men, like friendly communities, attract friendly men. No place is going to advance very far unless its people have a spirit of friendliness, for without a sympathetic understanding of each other's problems, co-operation and mutual helpfulness is impossible.

Charles R. Hutcheson, alfalfa expert of the Northwest Farmstead, who spent considerable time in Pennington county arousing the people of this community to the realization of the value of alfalfa, is still hot on the trail of the crop which is absolutely certain to bring rich returns to the growers. In many counties of the state where but a small acreage has been grown heretofore, campaigns are being conducted to bring before the farmers the facts regarding this means of making their farming operations more profitable. Farmers who go into the culture of alfalfa are surely on the right track and the program carried out in Pennington county along this line is decidedly commendable and is being adopted in other sections.

It is to be noted that the Montgomery Ward and company distributed several hundred pounds of advertising catalogs in Thief River Falls and vicinity two weeks ago. This tremendous advertising must be counteracted by the home merchant whom the people of the community should give consideration in first of all. Read the ads which appear in this paper every week and be convinced that local merchants have offerings with just as much appeal as those of the mail order houses. It is said that the mail order houses spend ten per cent of their gross sales in advertising. Patronize the home merchant, he helps support the community.

Numerous Thief River Falls citizens are said to have become quite alarmed the other day when the disturbing news of a possible coffee shortage became known. The oil scandal, politics, prohibition and taxation were forced into the background with this possibility looming up in the future. Without the customary supply of this solacing and comforting commodity it is safe to say that many local java consumers would have a gloomy outlook on the world, being deprived of the morning eye-opener and afternoon stimulant. But perhaps the rumor had more to do with the price than with the supply?

During the 4-year period 1918-1921 no less than $856,720 worth of Minnesota farm property went up in smoke, the great bulk—probably 90 per cent—of this being from causes that were strictly or partially preventable, according to figures just published by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. The principal causes of this fire loss were, in order of prominence, lightning, defective chimneys and flues, stoves, furnaces, boilers and their pipes, spontaneous combustion, electricity (misused.) It will be noted that loss from any one of these causes is almost wholly preventable by exercise of reasonable care.

Spring is really here now and we can begin to think about how to make Thief River Falls look spick and span for the summer. There is much that each individual can do in the cleaning up home yards and boulevards and fixing up trees and the like, but satisfactory results cannot be obtained unless there is complete co-operation among the citizens of the city. A clean and neat appearance of the premises thruout the city is an inestimable asset and should not be overlooked.

If the editor were to read all the speeches, statistics, records and various other forms of information from congressmen and other politicians which come to his desk these days, he would almost know enough to run for congress himself.

The fellow who confines his interest in public affairs to election day has no right to complain about the way things are being run.

All too often people who try to leave the impression that they mean what they say never say much.

A number of newspapers thruout the state are adopting the plan of The Times in publishing a page devoted to high school news and activities edited by a high school staff. The High School Progress, edited by high school students with journalistic inclinations is receiving much attention, not only by local citizens, but educators and newspapermen in other sections as well, and considerable publicity has been given the venture. The Tournament Special, published prior to the basketball classic held in the city recently, especially created a great deal of interest. Readers of The Times have the opportunity to keep in close touch with high school life thru the Progress columns and parents particularly should not neglect to read that page every week.

Someone has figured out that there is one telephone for every eight farm houses in this country, but you wouldn't believe it when your tire is flat and you haven't got a spare.

The fellow whose life has few sidings, but is mostly main line track, is the fellow who is going to get there in the end.

We haven't read any comment on income tax reduction by our two well known "cowboys"—John Dee and Henerce.

Cut Out the Scrubs!

One afternoon a neighbor came to call on Mrs. Jones. She found her washing at the tub with aches and pains and groans. "How do you do?" the neighbor asked, "you're surely all tired out." "You speak the truth," said Mrs. Jones, "of that there is no doubt. I scrub and scrub and scrub and scrub and then I'm never done. My hands are sore; my back is lame; I have no time for fun." Just then the door was opened wide and Farmer Jones came in. He threw himself upon the couch, a figure beat and thin. "I cannot make the old farm pay, my cows and pigs are scrubs; I work all day but nothing gain; that's where the harness rubs." The neighbor spoke in measured tones. "Cut out the scrubs in house and barn and then you'll forge ahead." "That's good advice," said Farmer Jones. "Just leave the rest to me. I'll sell out every scrub I own and buy some pedigree." True to his word, an auction sale cleaned out his bunch of scrubs, and all his wife's old washing boards and boilers, stools and tubs. And in their places purebred stock came on the farm to stay, and a washer new of late design appeared that very day. Now Farmer Jones tells every friend who plows and hoes and grubs the best advice he's ever had is this: "Cut Out the Scrubs."—Farm Life.

Poultry Breeders are Urged To Study Flocks with Care

Poultry keepers who study and really know their flocks have a decided advantage over those who take but little interest in what may be called the "personality" of the birds. Knowing the flock becomes particularly important when the time arrives for selecting the best birds for breeding stock. According to N. E. Chapman and Cora Cooke, poultry specialists of the university's agricultural extension service, selecting birds for the breeding pen is a job that cannot be done satisfactory on a single afternoon in February. Rather it is a task that deserves time and attention throughout the fall and winter months.

"The more you become acquainted with the individual members of your flock, the better fitted you will be to select the good breeders," say the specialists. "If your flock was culled in the fall you have removed the poorest of your yearling and 2-year old hens. Probably not all of the remainder will be needed for the breeding pen. The next step is to get acquainted with those you have left. Time spent in the poultry house at this time, observing the actions of the flock is time well spent. Whenever a promising looking hen is observed, mark her in such a way that you can distinguish her from all the others. Celluloid legbands of different colors are used for this purpose."

Birds to Watch

Birds which should be marked for farther observation are, say the specialists:

The busy, happy, friendly hen.

The hen that is seen on the nest frequently.

The fine, standard type bird.

The long, broad, deep-bodied hen.

The hen which is first off the roost in the morning and last on the roost at night.

The hen with a fine, comparatively short head and bright, full eye.

The hen whose legs are straight and strong and whose toenails are well worn.

These birds can then be watched to determine how well they lay and how they measure up to the standard you have set for your flock. A black band should be placed on hens that have been sick, to indicate that they must not under any circumstances be used as breeders.

TELEPHONE GREAT AID IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

In case of emergency, keep cool! Or, if you can't keep cool, just keep as cool as you can and then reach for your telephone if you need help.

The telephone is an invaluable aid in emergencies if properly used. But many persons do not get prompt aid because they do not properly use the telephone. The call should be given to the operator so that it will be understood.

Don't simply shout "Help!" and then hang up the receiver. The right way to give an alarm or to get help is to say, for example: "I want to report a fire." "I want a policeman." "I want an ambulance." Be sure to tell where the help is wanted.

41 FARM CLUBS OF RED RIVER VALLEY VISITED CROOKSTON A. C. LAST SUMMER

The above picture shows the Holt Farmers' Club of Holt, visiting the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston last summer. Practically everyone in the community joined in the event.

More than 2,000 Red River Valley farmers and business men, members of delegations from 41 farm and community clubs, visited the Northwest Experiment Station and School of Agriculture at Crookston last Summer, according to A. H. Larson, of the Northwest School. Kittson and Clay counties were the two most distant counties which sent delegations.

The visitors brought their lunch with them and enjoyed a picnic outing. They were conducted to the experimental plots and to see the livestock and buildings by the station staff.

"These visits," says Mr. Larson, "have done much to get the Valley folks acquainted with their Experiment station and Farm School. It also gave us the chance to find out what the farmers are doing to promote agriculture and better living on the farms in their communities. This getting acquainted should prove helpful to both the Experimental Station workers and the farmers."

The specialists and officials at the Northwest School are active in visiting the different communities of the Red River Valley and taking part in the farm and community club programs. This keeps up a feeling of warmest friendship between the Northwest School of Agriculture and the Red River Valley farmers.—Don P. Shannon, in The Farmer, of St. Paul.

North Dakota Man Commends Progressive Spirit of The Farmers of Pennington Co.

The following letter was received from C. F. Emerson of Jolette, N. D., accompanied by a renewal of The Times subscription:

"Your paper is read with great interest by myself and family. Both from the matter of local news as well as for the programs being carried out by its progressive citizens.

"Thief River Falls does and must reflect in a social and matured way the wide-awake outlook taken by its people. The alfalfa venture certainly is a good one, and the interest taken in farming by the town people must be very heartening to those engaged in agriculture.

"Farmers must cultivate their brains if they are to compete with other social or let me say economic people or interests. It seems as if society will not grant him his due reward for his labors but he must gain them by right of conquest. He must match intellect with intellect and apply in a practical way the methods employed by other allied and successful industries. His individualism seems to be a handicap at this present era. His competitive instincts, the product of his conquest of the frontier must be replaced by a compherensive understanding of the unity of social interests, and the success of his co-operative utilities, such as creameries and pools of different kinds must leave a deep impression of the value of the pull together spirit in industries. Times are changing and farmers, too, must change with them.

"I believe there is something good ahead for the farmers if they can tide these times by. The natural growth of our population is soon going to take up our surplus farm production, and then it will be an easy matter to name the price of his labors, and parallel the returns of agriculture to balance with industry.

"Finally let me say that your good roads, well improved farms, as well as well kept town are a great ad-

Robbed Bank Held Responsible for "Box" Valuables

A bank from which valuables are stolen is responsible to the depositor and a holder of a safety deposit box, the state supreme court held recently in the case of William L. West, against the First State Bank of Mentor. Mr. West had $500 worth of savings stamps in a safety deposit vault in the First State bank when the institution was robbed Sept. 20, 1922.

The savings stamps were missing on the following morning and action was brought in the Polk county district court against the bank for recovery of that amount. A jury granted West $475 and Judge William Watts denied the bank a motion for a new trial, which decision was affirmed by the higher court last week.

Minneapolis Journal Again Offers Prizes in Club Work

More free educational trips and more scholarships for club boys and girls of Minnesota.

The Minneapolis Journal has renewed its offer to dairy calf club members. Regents of the university have approved and accepted the offer. The winner of junior dairy calf club work in every Minnesota county having a dairy calf club enrollment of 25 or more will be given a free trip and entertainment for about a week. In addition, The Journal offers scholarships of $100 each, good at the schools of agriculture at University Farm, Morris and Crookston, or at the agricultural college, one scholarship to be awarded to the boy or girl adjudged the state winner in dairy calf club work in each of the breed classes.

The Pennington county representative awarded the Journal prize, a trip to the Chicago Livestock show, last fall was Gordon Hunt. An active year in club work in this community is looked for, according to County Agent J. J. McCann, and between 25 and 30 youths of the county are expected to compete for high honors in the calf club this season, thus assuring a lively contest.

Paderewski Coming to Gr. Forks

A number of music lovers expect to hear the great Paderewski, master pianist, when he appears in Grand Forks on Tuesday, April 8. This is the first appearance of the genius in this section of the United States since the war, and Grand Forks will be the only place he will be heard in this section of the country. He plays in Duluth on April 4. Paderewski is an outstanding feature in the musical world and local people are already making arrangements to hear him at Grand Rorks.

House Burns to Ground

Fire as a result of a defective chimney completely destroyed a house owned by T. A. Momrak of Thief River Falls located in Red Lake Falls, which was occupied by Dan Charboneau, according to The Gazette last week. Nothing was saved.

Minnesota Ranks High

The University of Minnesota ranks fifth in number of students among all American institutions of higher education and sixth when resident students taking part time work are included. This is the statement in a table compiled from registration statistics of all American colleges and universities by Dr. Raymond Walters of Swarthmore College, which has been published in "School and Society." Minnesota is shown by the report to have 8,331 regular full-time students and 12,322 students of those who are resident but attend only part of the time are included. Institutions that outrank Minnesota in the number of their regular full-time students are the University of California, with 13,276; Columbia University, with 11,530; University of Illinois, with 9,353, and the University of Michigan, with 8,906.

Parent Should Know School Room Problems, Says Teacher

The following communication of interest to every parent and school patron has been received by The Times from "A Teacher":

Many folks have queer ideas about teachers. Perhaps even our readers have them.

Well, anyhow, we teachers are often looked upon as "sticks," and as being "narrow," not to speak of "wet-blankets" and "killjoys." All we have to say about that is that it's a miracle we're not all chronic pessimists. But give us a little encouragement, and watch us snap out of such a state.

Do you know, some folks think a teacher should keep a ringing silence in her schoolroom, and to maintain this condition, should frequently punctuate her commands with a touch of oak or ash. Some folks think children should obey, not learn. Others think a teacher should know the encyclopedia from cover to cover. Then, too, there are those who think a teacher, a good teacher, never needs to work after four o'clock. Oh, my, no! Why, their teacher never did, and they had PERFECT order, too. And, of course a good teacher gets the children through the grades with no effort; she simply needs to pour knowledge into each little mind, and, lo, and behold! out comes a well educated little citizen. The children have nothing to do with learning. It's the teaching that does the trick, of course.

But we are ready to wager a month's salary that the average father or mother would experience a strange revolution of mind could he or she fill a teacher's place two weeks. We believe there would issue such a sigh of relief from his or her bosom on the last Friday evening as would flatten the trees about the building. All preconceived ideas of teaching as a "snap" would forever vanish.

Children come to learn, not only to obey. Because of the former, the latter must be enforced. When you visit school next time (do you ever do that), remember that a busy, rustling, alive group of children is learning, while a quiet, dull, sleepy-looking group is usually only obeying. Cast away your ideas of iron-clad discipline, and study and think more about wide-awake learning. Discipline and teaching go hand in hand, but where a teacher holds up her teaching ideas, and drives them home, she spends less time thinking of rules for discipline.

Be more open-minded, welcome the teacher to your homes, talk over problems and don't think that because she spends an hour or two in her workshop after school that she does it because of a lack of ability to bluff through next day, but because of a wish to carry out a well-planned days work. We have yet to see a workman in any trade who knows all there is to know about it; therefore, we look askance at a teacher who locks up at four o'clock.

Invite the teacher over for supper. She'll like it, and you'll give her new pep by showing interest in her. Don't look upon her as a wrinkled grouch, but as a person full of promise, and presto! she will be.

—A TEACHER.

Back to the Home

In considering the influences that tend to disintegrate the home, joyriding, jazzing and movies are sometimes mentioned, but never the radio.

Radio brings the family together around the fireside and even brings the neighbors together to listen to KDL and PDQ programs.

The moral influence of the radio is to conserve the home and the family life of the nation, with better music, better spoken theater plays and opera.

A premium is placed on better song artists and the better enunciation of the spoken language, which the American people are sometimes careless in using.

WHY YOU SHOULD OWN AN AUTOMOBILE

Man's capital in the business of life is his time. His primary use of his capital is to buy space. From the primordial slime to this very hour, his life has been a matter of movement. Man must incessantly move himself and his goods from place to place. He must buy space with his time. The value of his time is measured in terms of space-units per hour. His capital stock of time is limited to three score years and ten. With this limited capitalization he must ever bargain for more and more space. He is ever trying to increase the working power of his limited capital.

For ages man bought his space with the horse, whose four feet had a greater purchasing power than his two. He bought space with the currents of rivers and with the winds. He bred the horse to go faster and faster, built faster sailing ships, and thus slowly and laboriously added a meager mile to his little store. He discovered steam, and had his first big bargain at the space counter. His stock went soaring. He crowded steam faster and faster, gaining more and more of space, but it was qualified by steel rails and vast expenditures of preliminary effort. His steam machine was master of the man. Man must still go with the machine on the machine's time. Even with the mile-a-minute locomotive, man's greatest movement was still with the horse at eight miles an hour.

Then came the automobile, and the price of space fell. As fast as the steam train, as mobile as the horse, the motor car increased man's capital of time manyfold. Man is master of this machine to use it when and where he will. Man began to move voluntarily with slow feet. He was one of the slowest of the vertebrates. But now he darts about the earth faster than the fastest.

If one be disposed to ponder over the details of life; to go back of the outward, immediate aspect of things, there is much more to an automobile show than an attractive marketing place.

Let any man look down at his two feet that can barely pace a yard at a time and then at those "seven league boots" that step by miles and let him consider how his time has been stretched and his space shrunken.

They are all of them, from skinny flivver to luxurious limousine, the evidence of man's victory over his limited capital of time.

They mark one of his greatest triumphs, the multiplication of his movements.

Which is but another way of saying that the automobile has lengthened his life.

CHILDHOOD FAULTS NEED PROMPT CARE

Irritable Parents May Be Cause in Many Instances, Clinic Directors Says

What faults in a child should make a mother begin to think of prompt correction, or, if they become serious, about consultation with an expert in child guidance? Many faults, unless corrected in the child's early years, may have a lasting and evil influence on its life, according to Dr. Lawson G. Lowry, who has charge of the temporary Child Guidance Clinic at the University of Minnesota.

Dr. Lowry has listed for Minnesota mothers some of the things they should be on guard against in their children. Parents themselves, he points out, are often to blame for faults in a normal child. Causes of nervous irritability in otherwise normal children, include, according to Dr. Lowry, "nervous, irresponsible, capricious, unjust parents or teachers; personal defects in the child such as crossed eyes or abnormal size, making the child feel unpleasantly conspicuous or inferior; poor physical condition, such as anaemia, bad teeth, bad tonsils; dislike or shame for family or home, due to dirt, poverty, drunkenness or immorality."

Manifestations of abnormality which may require the care of specialists such as those of the free children's clinic on the campus include these: Habit motions — mouth twisting, squinting, frowning, picking at small objects; speech defect — stuttering, stammering, mumbling, mispronunciations; bed wetting; constipation and kindred ills when due to stubborness if no other cause is found; convulsive attacks other than epilepsy or St. Vitus dance, hysteria, breath holding; conduct—spoilt child, tantrums, stubborness, domestic tyranny, delinquency; sleep disturbances—night terrors, nightmares, sleep walking; wandering — truancy; headaches — carsickness, capricious appetite, timidity, nail-biting (these may be nervous habits); mental habits—day dreaming, phantasies, excessive make-believe, false notions affecting action; mental grades—mental retardation, feebleness, undue curiosity.

"It should be distinctly understood" Dr Lowry said, "that the psychiatrist thinks of these conditions in terms of impaired mental health only after a searching physical examination has ruled out all possibility of organic or physical causes. Some of the examples given represent faulty adjustment to home or school environments; others are the direct and inevitable results of poor parental control. In perhaps seven cases out of ten the list of causes given first will be found responsible."

But 13 Mistakes in 118,000 Deals of Co-op. Association

To have completed 118,000 sales, envolving more than 650,000 head of livestock worth $11,500,000 with but 13 instances questioned by government agents after a searching investigation is a record of which any business organization may be proud.

This, in brief, was the reply of the Central Co-operative Commission association, in its answer to the charge that the Packer and Stockyards Control act had been violated. The counts range from a $8 difference in charges testing a shipment of cattle to an item of $360.02, given in settlement to a Canby shipping association to clear up a claim arising out of the fact that two cars of animals from different associations at that point became unavoidably mixed when the animals were unloaded at the yards. The aggregate involved was $522.25.

A public hearing was conducted recently at South St. Paul before Judge C. E. Miles, special investigator.

The National Livestock Exchange was represented by J. S. Boyd, its secretary, who cross-examined witnesses called by the Central in an effort to substantiate his assertion that "the Central has caused great damage to the livestock industry of the Northwest."

This statement was made the day after the directors of the association had voted a patronage dividend of $76,000 and had issued a statement in which it was shown that in 1923 it has been able to save northwest livestock producers $195,000 in reduced commission charges.

The hearing gave the Central an opportunity to put into an official record, details of the manner in which it conducts its business. During the four days of testimony taking, the National Livestock Exchange sought to show that the counts against the agency established a practice, while the representatives of co-op contended that such errors were to be expected in transacting a large volume of business.

Alfalfa Seed Must Be Traced to Grimm For Proper Certification

The attention of Times readers who are growing alfalfa is called to the following from the February bulletin of the Northwest Monthly, published by the Crookston Agricultural college:

The agricultural college and experiment stations in Minnesota are co-operating with the state crop movement association in certifying Grimm fields which are of proven origin. Crop improvement associations and grower's organizations in other states are cooperating in like manner to maintain the purity and germination of their seed by well organized systems of field and bin inspection. Purchasers of Grimm seed should insist upon obtaining a certificate of genuineness vouched for by a state agricultural college when buying certified Grimm. Certificates of growers and dealers, altho given in good faith, are not accepted by the Minnesota Crop Improvement association unless the origin of the seed can be traced to the original importation by Wendelin Grimm. Farmers who are getting a start with alfalfa this season and hope to have their crops certified by the association in future years, should investigate carefully the source of seed offered before purchasing. A complete history of the seed sown on each field is necessary and is required for certification.

Minnesota Dairy Cows Are Worth $87,048,000

The number and value of livestock on farms and ranges of Minnesota on Jan. 1, 1924, as estimated by the department of agriculture, are announced as follows:

Milch cows, 1,784,000; value, head, $52; total value, $87,048,000.

Other cattle, 1,276,000; value a head $21.10; total value, $26,924,000.

Horses, 869,010; value a head, $71; total value, $61,699,000.

Mules, 10,000; value a head, $78; total value, $780,000.

Sheep, 428,010; value a head, $8; total value, $3,424,000.

Swine, 3,800,000; value a head, $10.30; total value, $39,140,000.

The number and value of livestock on farms and ranges of Wisconsin are announced as follows:

Horses, 630,000; value a head, $96; total value, $60,480,000.

Mules, 4,000; value a head, $83; total value, $332,000.

Milch cows, 2,217,001; value a head, $58; total value, $128,586,000.

Other cattle, 858,000; value a head, $23.70; total value, $20,335,000.

Sheep, 341,000; value a head, $8.10; total value, $2,785,000.

Swine, 1,673,000; value a head, $9.90; total value, $16,563,000.

LESS WHEAT FARMS FOR COMING YEAR

More Corn and Oats on Minnesota Farms in 1924 Says Kirk in Report

Wheat on Minnesota farms March 1, 1924, was estimated at 2,181,000 bushels less than on March 1, 1923; corn, 10,109,000 bushels more; oats, 3,994,000 bushels more; barley, 3,000 bushels less, according to the report of Paul H. Kirk, Statistician for the Minnesota Cooperative Crop Reporting service.

About 21 per cent of the 1923 wheat crop, or 4,365,000 bushels, was on farms March 1, 1924, compared with 24 per cent, or 6,546,000 bushels, one year ago. While there is not much change in the percentage figures there is much less wheat, due to the decreased acreage and consequent smaller production.

The average value per acre of all farm lands with improvements is placed at $96, compared with $105 for 1923 and $110 for 1922. The average value of all farm lands with improvements is estimated at $68 per acre this year, compared with $75 for 1923 and $81 for 1922.

Seed Corn Shopping Should Be Done Early, is Advice of Haedecke, University Farm

Farmers of Pennington county and Northern Minnesota in general are rapidly realizing that corn can be grown with splendid results in this section, a fact which was clearly brought out at the exhibition of the Minnesota Crop Improvement association in Owatonna recently, when a number of local exhibitors won prizes for their samples of corn.

This year a number of farmers in this community are planning to grow more corn, a considerable number of silos being in use.

Minnesota farmers who must buy part or all of their seed corn for spring planting are urged to lay in a supply at once by A D. Haedecke and other farm crops men at University Farm. Fortunately the state matured a lot of excellent seed, weather conditions being favorable last fall. Other states, some of them adjacent to Minnesota, were not so fortunate and are expected to enter the Minnesota market for good corn stock. If for any reason a Minnesota farmer finds himself short of good seed, he should buy it now; it may cost more later.

Corn varieties recommended for planting by Minnesota Experiment station men in the northwestern section of the state are Northwestern Dent, Early Minnesota No. 13, Minnesota No. 23 (all dent varieties), and Dakota White, Gehu, and Squaw, (flint varieties).

Stockmen Warned Against "Foot and Mouth" Disease

The Minnesota state livestock sanitary board, thru Dr. L. R. Twete, local veterinarian and city milk inspector, has issued a warning to all stockmen in this section relative to the appearance of the Foot and Mouth diseases among cattle. The disease has appeared in three counties in the state of California and a strict precaution is being taken by state and federal authorities to prevent its spread. The board warns that there is always a danger of its being spread and carried long distances. It is therefore very necessary that all coming in contact with livestock to be on the lookout for any sign of the disease and report promptly all suspicious cases.

"If a condition suspicious of the disease, such as vesicles or blisters in the mouth or on the feet develop among cattle, sheep or swine, owners should immediately employ a veterinarian," says the warning from the state department, "or if a veterinarian is not available, the State Livestock Sanitary Board, St. Paul, should be wired, all visitors should be excluded from the farm and no one should visit other farms."

CO-OPERATIVE EGG MARKETING GAINING

More Than 3,000 Farmers in State Have Signed Agreement, Says Organization Mgr.

Co-operative egg and poultry marketing is making rapid progress in Minnesota, according to W. J. Corwin, organization manager, acting under a special state committee named last spring.

In District No. 1, known as the Rice County territory, the sales agency has been functioning since August. In District No. 5—around Owatonna—the necessary volume of business has been placed under contract and the leaders are getting ready to set up their agency. District No. 6—in the vicinity of St. James—enough business has been signed to justify an agency but local leaders are waiting for additional members.

At present, organization work is in progress in the territory adjacent to Redwood Falls, in Lac Qui Parle county and around St. Charles.

The districts around Olivia, Austin, Duluth, the Twin Cities, Bemidji, Wadena and Detroit has been incorporated and arrangements are being made for active membership solicitation.

Thus far, the campaign has been carried on without a cent of organization expense, local leaders having contributed the necessary time. Mr. Corwin, having started the organization work as co-operative marketing specialist in the Extension Division of the Minnesota Agricultural college, is continuing in that capacity as a member of the editorial staff of the St. Paul Farmer.

As quickly as a few more units are organized, it is planned to form a state association, according to J. S. Jones, secretary of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation and chairman of the state egg committee. Mr. Jones is devoting considerable of his time to egg marketing work in the Twin Cities district. Co-operative creamery associations in the Fourteenth district marketing eggs, handled 5,065 cases during the past year.

Club Work is Urged For Boys and Girls of County

Pennington county boys and girls are urged to get into the dairy calf club game in a statement last week from T. A. Erickson, University Farm state club leader. The opportunity will be given many in Thief River Falls and other communities of the county thru the efforts of County Agent J. J. McCann who is in charge of club work here. An impetus in this activity was given the youths of the city and surrounding country by L. A. Wenstadt, speaker at the I. H. C. short course recently and it is expected that the enrollment in the various junior clubs this coming year will be greater than ever before. A. J. Kittleson, district club leader, was in the city recently and spoke on boys' and girls' club work at a special luncheon of the Commercial club.

Even now, five months after the event, people refer to and praise the dairy calf show staged by club boys and girls at the last Minnesota state fair. One hundred thirty-nine calves from 135 farms in 58 counties furnished an object lesson not to be forgotten of the growth of an industry which is making Minnesota famous.

Still more impressive were the boy and girl exhibits with a background of 1,510 calf club members in 124 clubs in 59 counties of Minnesota. According to their own reports, the calves and heifers owned by these club members were worth $182,227. Of the members 761 had stock of the Holstein breed, 540 had Guernseys, 142 preferred the fawn-like Jersey, while a few exhibited the Ayrshire and Brown Swiss. These figures are from the annual report of the state club leader.

Olmstead county, with 51 members, had the largest dairy calf club in the state. Olmstead county led in Holstein, Cass county in Guernseys, Stearns county in Jerseys, and Wright county in Brown Swiss. The calves showed their high quality by winning two first and several near firsts in the open classes at the fair.

"The purpose of boys' and girls' dairy calf clubs," says Mr. Erickson, "is to teach young folks how to develop the best possible dairy cow by proper feeding and care of the high grade or purebreed calf. Another object is to have club members demonstrate to others what they themselves have accomplished.

Considerable Building In Neighborhood of St. Hilaire

The St. Hilaire Spectator reports a regular building boom in that community, the following appearing in a recent issue.

The local yard of the St. Hilaire Retail Lumber company presents a busy appearance lately. Ole Larson is hauling out lumber for a modern dairy stock barn. Rick Melin is going to put up a new barn. August Dahlin is hauling material for a new residence. It is reported also that K. O. Gigstad and Fred Soderberg will put up barns on their farms the coming spring. There will likely be more activity in building lines in the vicinity the comng season then there has been for many years past.

CLUB SECRETARIES ADOPT MEASURES TO CURB 'HAT PASSERS'

Public Urged to be Cautious Regarding Outside Solicitations For Funds

Policies to be followed regarding the solicitation of funds were discussed and adopted at the annual meeting of civic, commercial and community club secretaries held in St. Paul Feb. 7 and 8. The conference was attended by Dr. H. W. Froehlich, president of the Commercial club of this city, who was selected by the club to represent that organization. About 60 delegates participated in the meetings.

Action was taken to eliminate the "hat passers" and the outside promoters, that will keep out of the state illigitimate propaganda and protect business men from outside solicitation.

The report of a committee on the formulation of a public solicitation policy strongly emphasized advertising in established regular publication to be sold on its merits as advertising and that approval of solicitation for advertising in souvenir or special programs or donations under that guise, should not be given. It was pointed out that merchants throughout the state spend large sums of money for special advertising such as souvenirs and the like for which they receive absolutely no return, which could be spent to a good advantage thru the columns of the local newspaper, the merchants' regular agency for effective advertising.

The report states that "charitable and philanthropic work and projects of a distinctly public nature, only are within the field of the club's formal approval, religious and sectarian organizations and projects, benefit entertainments and bazaars, are not within its field of formal approval. Standards for approval are given as an active or responsible governing body, holding regular meetings or other satisfactory form of administrative control and having a ligitimate purpose with no duplication of the work by other organizations; that there be no solicitors on commission, ethical methods of publicity, agreement to co-operate with other agencies in the community, complete annual audited accounts, itemized and classified annual budget estimates.

The committee discourages benefit entertainers where professionals come to the club and secure the use of the name of the club, for which they pay a percentage of the receipts.

Other suggestions to merchants and citizens in general are: Don't give cash at the door or make check payable to solicitor; don't rely entirely on credentials or lists of subscribers, some lists lie; don't stamp or sign a subscription list or lend your name to anything without first learning the facts; don't believe what the solicitor says just because he makes a good impression, and don't contribute just to get rid of the persistent solicitor.

The problems of smaller city commercial organizations were also discussed at the meeting. Articles of incorporation, printed elsewhere in this issue and which are being proposed for the local Commercial club for adoption, were recommended by the club representatives as particularly workable and suitable for organizations of this kind. The new articles of incorporation to replace the old constitutions under which many clubs are at present functioning, but at a disadvantage, are said to be a great improvement and a large number of organizations are making a change.

Geo. W. Dowrie, dean of the college of commerce, University of Minnesota, spoke on "Your Community's Work" and outlined the work a commercial club should do in a community. In response to a number of questionnaires sent out to various club heads the following phases were stressed: Good schools, religious instruction, cleanliness and beautification, development of local resources and industries and when possible bring in outside industries, and developing of the farming interests in the community.

Former T. R. F. Teacher Gets Degree in Eastern College

The following item was received from the Bureau of Educational Service of the Teachers College, New York:

A former teacher in the high school of Thief River Falls, Minn., Miss Mabl Kirk, whose home is at 527 N. 28th Street, Lincoln, Nebraska, was one of the 240 men and women to be recently granted higher degrees by Teachers' College in the city of New York at the end of the winter session of that institution.

The Nebraska woman has been taking advanced courses in elementary education at the New York university and received the degree of Master of Arts upon the completion of her work. She is one of the many Middlewest educators who have come east to teachers colleges to take up advanced work in education. Miss Kirk is an alumnus of the Baptist Academy at Grand Island, the State Normal School at Kearney and the University of Nebraska at Lincoln.

After teaching in the high schools of Arapohoe and Trumbull, Nebraska, she became the county superintendent of schools of Clay county in the same state and held this position for four years. She then left her native state and went to Bozeman, Montana, to take charge of the normal training department in the high schools there. Her last teaching position was at Thief River Falls from where she came to Teachers College to take her higher degree.

The Greater Thing

However humble the place I may hold
Or lowly the trails I have trod,
There's a child who bases his faith on me;
There's a dog who thinks I am God.

Lord, keep me worthy—Lord, keep me clean
And fearless and unbeguiled,
Lest I lose caste in the sight of the dog
And the wide, clear eyes of a child.

Lest there shall come in the years to be
The blight of a withering grief,
And a little dog mourn for a fallen god
And a child for his lost belief.

Angus Farmer Buys Carload of Dairy Cattle in Vicinity

Many grain farmers of the Red River Valley are now realizing the necessity of diversification and the importance of dairy cattle. Everett Evans of Angus, a Polk county farmer, was a caller at The Times office Tuesday, on his return from the Goodridge and Grygla communities where he has purchased a carload of dairy cows and heifers, with a view of going into dairying in addition to his grain farming. The Angus farmer spoke very highly of the herds he saw in this county.

AUTO TAXES LOWER; EXPENSES STAY UP

Drop in Motor Vehicle Tax Average Cuts Highway Income, According to Bulletin

Average automobile owners of Thief River Falls and vicinity will pay less auto taxes this year than in the last two years on preliminary reports from the state motor vehicle registration department which contradict rumors that a big increase would result from new 1924 auto tax rates.

Friday, Feb. 15, was the last day for paying motor vehicle taxes without penalties this year. After that date is added 25 cents a day for 20 days, plus $2 for each month following up to the $15 maximum penalty, according to the new law.

Taxes of $1,126,400 from the first 70,000 registrations this year made an average of $16.23 against $16.14 last year and $18.94 the year before, also more than $17 under the old personal property tax law and $18 agreed under Good Roads Amendment No. 1, official records disclose.

Depreciation allowance at 10 per cent a year in the new rate is reducing taxes on the older car which under the former rates paid more than new models of the same make.

Commenting on the lower auto tax showing, a state highway bulletin this week asserts that continuance of heavy, avoidable expenses for road users must result.

The bulletin points out that in Minnesota the amount paid the state on registration is the only tax on the machine and the only direct tax for trunk highways; therefore, the automobile and truck owners are paying both vehicle operating and the road improvement and maintenance costs.

The transportation or combined cost varies greatly according to road conditions, the bulletin shows. The average of vehicle cost—depreciation, repairs, gasoline consumption, tire wear—is 11 cents a mile on dirt roads, 8½ cents on gravel and 7 cents on paved roads.

Trunk highway revenues may be increased and improvements hastened, Mr. Babcock adds in the bulletin, by establishing a tax on gasoline—also returning a net profit to the average highway user. At two cents a gallon, he explains, the average car owner, at 12 miles a gallon and 4,800 miles, would pay $8 a year and receive nearly $4,000,000 of extra highway improvements annually.

State to Contract Highway Work Soon

Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, recently called for bids on the first 1924 list of improvements on trunk highways in different parts of the state. Proposals will be opened March 25 at the highway department office in St. Paul and contractors located near the projects are urged to figure.

All are county reimbursement bond undertakings, the betterments are estimated to cost $594,000. They include 70 miles of new grading, 5 miles of paving and 8 bridges. The grading measures 1,000,000 cubic yards and the paving 51,000 square yards.

Wonder Shop Ends Career

Maxson's Magasins, for several years a wonder shop in London, which because of its fittings and displays of gowns and furs attracted great numbers of women at all hours during the day, is about to inscribe its last chapter. Joseph Mendleson, a young Pole, now over thirty-six years of age, its founder and keeper, has finally been arrested after a hunt of three years. Some of the magnificent wares he displayed were obtained by fraud, it now appears.

POTATO CAMPAIGN FAR BEYOND QUOTA

Total Membership is More Than 12,170; Acreage Under Contract 160,424

The next time the Minnesota Spud leaves the farm, he'll go protected—by a gigantic co-operative marketing agency.

This figure of speech summarizes the campaign to organize the new Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange.

The organization drive ended Mar. 1, with the state office in possession of 12,170 contracts, covering 160,424 acres. The acreage signed is 40,261 more than the state quota of 120,163 acres, required under the contract before further steps to establish the agency could be taken. Every mail, up to March 10, was bringing in belated contracts. The committee is accepting as members, those whose contracts show they were signed before March 1.

The state agency will being functioning this year with a membership of at least 31 county associations, that number of counties having signed the legal quota of 50 per cent or more of its commercial acreage.

Counties which obtained the legal acreage required follow: Anoka, Aitkin, Becker, Beltrami, Carlton, Chisago, Cass, Clay, Clearwater, Crow Wing, Dakota, Douglas, Hubbard, Isanti, Itasca, Kanabec, Kittson, Lincoln, Mahnomen, Marshall, Mille Lacs, Norman, Ottertail, Pennington, Pine, Polk, Red Lake, Roseau, Washington, Wilkin and Winona.

Offers For New Poor Farm Location To Be Inspected

With the present lease on the poor farm expiring shortly the council realizes that immediate action is necessary if a change is to be made this summer. Accordingly the city council as a whole will late this week inspect several pieces of property with a view of purchase.

Several offers have been made, some within the city limits and others without, and it is with the intention of reaching a decision that the poor committee will be accompanied by the other aldermen.

Some of the property is just a large house and lot while others include some land that can be used for agricultural purposes or for chicken raising.

As soon as a decision is reached a special meeting of the council will be held and a deal closed for the property decided upon so that it may be at once put in shape for accommodating the poor of the city.

Many Aspirants For State Offices in Polk County

Several Polk county men affiliated with the Farmer-Labor political group are expected to name candidates for state offices if their present plans materialize, according to reports.

Juls J. Anderson, editor of the Polk County Leader, Crookston weekly, announced in last week's issue that he plans to file for lieutenant governor on the Farmer-Labor ticket. Thomas Vollom of Erskine, manager of the Garden Valley Telephone company, has been endorsed by a "Vollom for Governor Club" organized at Erskine, and has been urged to file as gubernatorial candidate under the Farmer-Labor banner. Carl Berg, another Erskine progressive, is reported considering entering the race as a candidate for secretary of state, while A. J. Neal of Crookston has been indorsed by the Polk county Farmer-Labor unit for a seat on the railroad and warehouse commission. J. C. Pratt and L. M. Benson, Farmer-Labor members of the state legislature, have been indorsed for re-election.

Tales of the Rails

E. J. Robertson, superintendent of the car department at Shoreham, spent Wednesday of last week in this city attending to business matters.

Conductor and Mrs. J. O. Yotter spent Saturday as guests of friends at Argyle.

Superintendent E. H. Buhlman of Superior spent Wednesday of last week in this city.

Miss Dora Holmes, stenographer in the superintendent's office, spent last Saturday in Minneapolis receiving vocal lesson.

Z. L. Reynolds, accountant in the superintendent's office, until this time a resident of Minneapolis, is moving to this city this week to make Thief River Falls his permanent residence. His family arrived Tuesday evening. They will reside at 302 Red Lake boulevard.

General Agent G. W. Hawes of Minneapolis spent Saturday in this city.

Freight Agent and Mrs. H. A. Pratt of this city spent Saturday in Minneapolis as guests of relatives and friends.

Operator and Mrs. E. J. Abbott spent Sunday at Warren with W. B. Fuller who is confined there on account of illness.

Conductor J. H. Hardisty is laying off on account of illness, and is being relieved by Conductor J. S. Barnett.

Distpacher T. J. Rowan spent last week with relatives and friends in Minneapolis, St. Cloud and Crookston.

F. J. Gorman, operator at Alexandria, who was injured in an automobile accident Sunday is being relieved by J. S. Rudy of Detroit.

Superintendent W. A. Barnard and Train Master J. C. Toms spent Tuesday in Minneapolis attending to business matters.

Average Is Lower

An average rate of $16.46, penalties included to date, on motor vehicle registrations under the new 1924 Minnesota tax rates, is indicated on the latest report from the office of Mike Holm, secretary of state. This is lower than the general average under the old law and also under the earlier personal property tax.

The motor vehicle tax average under the old personal property law in 1920 was more than $17. The $1.50 reduction this year from the $18 average agreed under Good Roads Amendment No. 1 will mean little to the car owner, it is pointed out, but will cost the use of $750,000 of highway improvements.

Car Turns Turtle

Automobile mishaps are again becoming the order of the day. The following from last week's issue of the Red Lake Falls Gazette concerns persons known in this community:

"An automobile being driven by G. W. Hooper of St. Hilaire turned completely over at the corner east of the Enright farm, seven miles north of Red Lake Falls, Tuesday morning. Mr. Hooper accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Coral Patterson and Mrs. Dobson were enroute to Fargo From St. Hilaire and did not notice the turn until too late to make the corner in safety. The occupants of the car all crawled from underneath the overturned automobile and none of them bore a single scratch as evidence of the wreck. The car suffered a broken windshield, top and a badly bent front axle.

Notice of Mortgage Foreclosure Sale

Default having been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage made and executed by Edward Vaastrand, unmarried, Mortgagor, to W. B. Torgerson of Red Lake County, Minnesota, Mortgagee, which mortgage is bearing date the 2nd day of December, 1918, and which mortgage with the power of sale therein contained, was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Pennington, State of Minnesota on the 7th day of December, 1918, at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 57 of Mortgages, on page 234 thereof, which said mortgage together with the debt thereby secured thereafter was duly assigned by said W. B. Torgerson, mortgagee to the Bank of Cambridge, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed, dated March 27th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 28th day of March, 1919 at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 80; and which mortgage with the debt secured thereby again thereafter was assigned by the said Bank of Cambridge, assignee, to A. J. Onsgard, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed and dated May 17th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 19th day of May, 1919 at 8 o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 93 thereof.

And, Whereas said default consists in the failure of the said mortgagor to pay the sum of One Thousand Dollars with accrued interest and the further sum of Three Hundred Twenty-eight and 88-100 in taxes which have necessarily been paid by said assignee, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of this notice the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars, said taxes included, and that no action or proceeding at law or otherwise having been instituted to recover the debt by said mortgage secured or any part thereof.

Now, Therefore, Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage above described will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit:

The South East Quarter (SE¼) of Section No. Thirty (30) in Township No. One Hundred Fifty-two (152) North, of Range No. Thirty-nine (39) West of the 5th P. M., in Minnesota, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) Acres according to U. S. Government survey thereof, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Pennington County, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Thief River Falls, in said County and State, on Saturday, the 19th day of April, 1924, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at public vendue to pay said debt of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars with interest from the date hereof together with an attorney's fee of fifty Dollars as stipulated in and by said mortgage, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of said sale as provided by law.

Dated March 1st, 1924.

Judgment Sale on Foreclosure of Mechanic's Lien.

By virtue of a judgment duly entered and docketed in District Court in and for the County of Pennington, and State of Minnesota, on the 14th day February, 1924, in an action to foreclose a mechanic's lien wherein Carl M. Carlson was plaintiff and Margaret C. Meehan, Bridget Martha Connoly, Margaret Connoly, May Sweeney and Norah I. Meehan were defendants and wherein it was adjudged and decreed:

That the amount due the plaintiff, Carl M. Carlson from the defendants Margaret C. Meehan, Bridget Martha Connoly, Margaret Connoly and May Sweeney is the sum of Two Thousand Four Hundred Thirty-four and 3-100 Dollars, $2434.03) with interest thereon at the rate of six (6) per cent per annum, from August 28, 1923, amounting to $67.70; and $75.00 attorney's fees, together with plaintiff's costs and disbursements taxed at $21.25, making a total of $2597.98.

That all of said sum is due for labor performed and material furnished in and about the repair of the two story Concrete Block Building located on Lots Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14) and Fifteen (15) in Block Fifty-eight (58) of the Original Townsite of the City of Thief River Falls, County of Pennington and State of Minnesota, and adjudging and decreeing said premises and the interest of the defendants therein to be subject to the lien of Carl M. Carlson, subject to the mortgage lien of Norah I. Meehan in the sum of $2700.00 against the interest of Margaret C. Meehan, in said above described premises.

And wherein it was further adjudged and decreed that said premises be sold in one parcel to satisfy said judgment, including attorney's fees, costs and disbursements.

NOW, THEREFORE, Notice is hereby given that I, as Sheriff of Pennington County, Minnesota, will sell at Public Auction in one parcel to the highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Thief River Falls, in said Pennington County, State of Minnesota, on Saturday, the 5th day of April, 1924, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, the hereinbefore described premises, viz:

Lots Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14) and Fifteen (15) in Block Fifty-eight (58) of the Original Townsite of the City of Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the Register of Deeds for said County, to satisfy said judgment, attorney's fees, costs and disbursements, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Dated this 15th day of February, 1924.

The Southwest Quarter (SW¼) of Section Four (4) in Township One Hundred Fifty-three (153) North, of Range Forty-two (42) West of the Fifth Principal Meridian, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) acres, more or less, according to the Government survey thereof, which said mortgage bears date the First (1st) day of May, A. D. 1920, and was filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for said County of Pennington, in the State of Minnesota, on the Twenty-fifth (25th) day of May, A. D. 1920, at 2:15 o'clock P. M., and was duly recorded in Book 12 of Mortgages, on Page 568, which said mortgage was thereafter duly assigned by said mortgagee to the The Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company, a Minnesota corporation, by assignment dated the Twenty-ninth (29th) day of July, A. D. 1921, and filed for record in said Register of Deeds office on the Fifth (5th) day of August, A. D. 1921, at 8:00 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 63 of Mortgages, on Page 318, and

WHEREAS, said default consists in the failure of said Mortgagor to pay an installment of interest due May First (1st), 1923, and failure to pay taxes, and

WHEREAS, by reason of the default made as aforesaid The Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company, as authorized by said mortgage and the notes thereby secured, has declared and does hereby declare the whole of the principal sum secured by said mortgage together with accrued interest thereon to be immediately due and payable, and

WHEREAS, there is claimed to be due upon said Mortgage and the notes thereby secured at the date of this notice the sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred Fifty and 29-100 ($3,550.29) Dollars, being Three Thousand Two Hundred ($3,200.00) Dollars principal and Three Hundred Fifty and 29-100 ($350.29) Dollars interest, and no action or proceedings at law or otherwise, has been instituted to recover the same or any part thereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that in and pursuant to the power of sale said mortgage contains, and the statute in such cases made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed and the real property therein described will be sold by the Sheriff of said County of Pennington, in the State of Minnesota, or by his Deputy, at public auction to the highest bidder therefor for cash, at the East front door of the Pennington County, Minnesota, Court House, in the City of Thief River Falls, and in said County of Pennington, on Saturday, the 5th day of April, A. D. 1924, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to pay the amount which will then be due upon said mortgage, including taxes, if any, and the costs and expenses of this foreclosure, including an Attorney's fee of Seventy-five ($75.00) Dollars, as stipulated in said mortgage to be paid in case of foreclosure thereof.

NATIONAL BANK OF CROOKSTON CLOSES DOORS LAST WEEK

Frozen Assets Given as Reason; Hope For Reopening. Rosewood Bank Also Closed

Like a bolt out of clear sky came the announcement last Saturday that the Merchants National Bank closed that morning. The bank is now in the hands of the comptroller of currency with National Bank Examiner E. W. Goodheart in charge. Frozen assets are given as the reason for the closing and altho no definite statement has been secured as yet, hope is held out that a reorganization of the bank can be perfected and the institution again opened in the near future. A complete inventory of the bank's financial condition is now being taken.

The Merchants National bank is one of Crookston's oldest institutions and one of the biggest banks of Northwestern Minnesota. A. D. Stephens, who is connected with several state banks in this section, is president of the closed bank.

According to the last published statement of the bank total deposits were listed at $1,460,096.38. The resources of the institution were placed at $1,715,000. The bank is capitalized at $75,000 and had a $52,000 reserve fund.

Inability to collect overdue and outstanding notes brought about the suspension. A large amount of notes of business men and farmers all over the Northwest, it was declared, given as collateral for loans, are past due and the national bank examiner has refused to pass them as assets. Instead it was insisted that until these collateral notes could be realized on or the loans for which they are held as collateral are paid in a sufficient amount to put the bank in good financial condition the bank would be unable to open its doors.

There was one other way suggested today through which the bank could again open on a solid financial basis, that is by the investment of additional capital secured by this slow paper to tide it over.

Farmers State Bank of Rosewood, with a capital of $10,000 and deposits aggregating $22,000, and the Securities State Bank of Twin Valley, which had a capital of $20,000 and deposits aggregating $250,000, connected with the Crookston bank, also closed Monday.

The Cass County Bank of Cass Lake, with a capital of $25,000 and $54,000 in deposits, was closed Saturday.

Henry Clark, Noted Reader, Will Present "The Fool" at Presbyterian Church Soon

Announcement is made this week that Henry Clark, nationally known reader and entertainer, will appear in Thief River Falls at some date between April 7 and 12, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies' society, according to Mrs. J. M. Bishop, president of the society.

Mr. Clark will read the complete play, "The Fool," one of the leading modern productions by Channing Pollock, which is now being played with much success at the Metropolitan theatre in Minneapolis and in other cities of the country. The play is particularly appropriate as it deals with present day problems and conditions.

In securing Mr. Clark local citizens will be given an opportunity to hear one of the most entertaining and talented readers of the country. He was heard here once before in Peter B. Kyne's "Go-Getter" and those who heard him then or who have heard him at some other time are unanimous in giving him high praise. Local people also heard him at the Winter Shows at Crookston.

The Presbyterian society is making an effort to secure real worth while entertainment and will open a series of such with Mr. Clark's reading, which will be given at the church, the definite date to be announced later.

You will find bargains and valuable suggestions in the Classified Ad columns. Read them carefully every week.

Self Denial Week Observed By Salvation Army Friends

Friends of the Salvation army in Thief River Falls are aiding in the work of spreading Christianity throughout the world by observing the week of March 23 as Self-Denial Week.

During this period all Salvationists will deny themselves some necessities of life, devoting the cash equivalent to the Army fund for home and heathen missions. Once observed only by Army officers Self-Denial Week has in recent years found much favor with others who are interested in missionary work. This year hundreds of men, women and children throughout the Northern Division are preparing to deny themselves something of daily use to provide funds for expansion of the Army's missionary efforts during the coming year. Often these denials taken the form of contribution of a week's salary.

That portion of the Self-Denial fund used in heathen missionary work constitutes the only monies raised in the United States which are sent abroad and is entirely separate from the home service or local maintenance funds.

GLEE CLUBS STAGE UNUSUAL OPERETTA

"The Gypsy Rover" Ranks High Among Operettas for Entertaining Qualities

"The Gypsy Rover," the operetta which will be presented at the city auditorium Friday evening, April 5th by the High School Girls' and Boys' Glee club, under the dinrection of Miss Maude L. Johnson, will be one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season fro mpresent indications. The plot is a finely woven romance of English nobility and Gypsy life. The clever situations, the humorous lines and the pleasing and unusually beautiful song parts and dances, enacted by a well selected cast, in one of the best of operetta productions, are a triumph in amatuer dramtties. The plot of the presentation is briefly outlined in the High School Progress and the cast of characters given.

Men of Presbyterian Church Will Meet Friday Evening to form Permanent Organization

Tomorrow evening at a supper at the Presbyterian church parlors the men of the church will be officially organized and a permanent organization formed. The committees as announced in last week's issue of The Times, which were appointed at a similar supper and meeting two weeks ago, have been on their toes and functioning in their respective capacities and the meeting tomorrow evening will taste of pepper from the outset.

Members of the committee on entertainment have wisely considered the great amount of business and the time necessary for organizing and consequently arranged for a short program. But they have also planned a program that will be as snappy as it is short. Information as to the exact nature of the entertainment has been withheld so those who attend may consider themselves in order for a surprise.

The other committees, that on outlining a constitution to be passed on at the meeting and that on extending invitations, have also done everything possible to permit the time at the meeting to be taken up in constructive organization and to eliminate as much routine as possible.

All men who are members of the Presbyterian church are eligible to the club. The purpose of the club is to promote a spirit of fellowship among the members of the church and to create an organized sphere of endeavor for co-operation in church and social activities.

McIntosh Wins Opening Game of State Tourney; Two Harbors State Champs

McIntosh high school basketball team, winners in the district tournament held in Thief River Falls recently, won from the Morton quint by a score of 19 to 16, in the opening game of the state tournament in Minneapolis Wednesday, last week. The representatives from this district made a good showing but were defeated in the second series by Two Harbors, the state champions.

In the second series the winners, besides Two Harbors, were St. Cloud, Moorhead and South Minneapolis. Two Harbors defeated St. Cloud 23 to 15, and the Moorhead quint, coached by a brother of Coach Thune of the local high school staff, was eliminated by the Minneapolis team.

The finals resulted in a victory for Two Harbors over the Minneapolis South High team by a 21 to 12 score, this being the second year in succession that an iron range entry carried off the state high school basketball championship.

Young Men's Club Plans Extensive Athletic Program

The regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's club was held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Tuesday evening. Among business reports made was that of the Athletic committee. Arrangements are being made for spring track, baseball and also a number of indoor sports. The athletic committee is also going over the equipment left by the Y. M. C. A. for their use and that side of the program is being pushed forward for spring and summer activities. A number of outdoor events are in the process of organization, including cross country hikes and camping trips. The program was conducted by Clifton Connor. The address of the evening was given by Rev. Charles Gerlinger.

SWEGER TO RESUME DUTIES AT TRINITY

Pastor Will Take Charge of Church Activities Again Until First of June

The Rev. T. E. Sweger, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, who for the past two months has been engaged in the work of raising the budget for the Lutheran Church of America in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast districts, will return to this city next week and resume his duties as pastor here until the date on which his resignation takes effect, the first part of June.

Rev. Sweger stated, on his last trip to his home in this city, that he liked his new work very much. Just where Rev. Sweger and his family will make their home has not been definitely decided. That the congregation has missed its pastor during his absence is needless to say, altho the committee has been very fortunate in securing pastors to take charge of the services most of the Sundays, the midweek activities have suffered by his absence. There will be no divine services at the Trinity church Sunday but the following Sunday, April 6th, Rev. Sweger will deliver the sermons.

A call has been extended to Rev. T. O. Svare, now a pastor of the Lutheran church at Sherwood, N. D., to become pastor of the Trinity church here succeeding Rev. Sweger. So far no word has been received from the Rev. Svare as to acceptance or rejection of the call.

The Rev. Arthur J. Tolo, pastor of the Bethlehem church in Minneapolis, delivered two very well received sermons at the Trinity church Sunday, speaking in the English language in the forenoon and the Norwegian in the evening. The Rev. Tolo is personally known to several Thief River Falls residents and in nearby districts. While in the city he was a guest at the L. H. Larson home.

Werenskjold Gives Delightful Program at S. of N. Hall

A real treat was given those who attended the lecture and entertainment given in the Sons of Norway halt by Frithjof Werenskjold, well known Scandinavian lecturer and writer, last Sunday afternoon. In his lecture he emphasized the value of learning the Scandinavian languages as a practical help in various ways and the influence the Sons of Norway lodge and similar organizations can have if only made use of. The speaker asserted that parents of foreign descent who fail to teach their children their native tongue commit an injustice toward them by such negligence. Mr. Werenskjold is a speaker of unusual ability and the audience listened intently to every word he said. He spoke in the Norwegian language and thruout his talk was peppered with unique, humorous expressions.

After the lecture Mr. Werenskjold gave a few dramatic sketches, characterizing various nationalities, and customs and manners peculiar to them. Intensity of expression, sincerity of voice and an unerring and thoro knowledge of the characters drawn places him high among dramatic readers. Thru his close relationships with people of almost every nationality and his natural powers of observation, he has absorbed an unusually accurate interpretation of human nature, and the characteristics akin to each.

Mr. Werenskjold, who resides in Seattle, Wash., has traveled extensively, having been a sailor for some time in his early days, and later made several trips to practically every country in the world. He is a keen observer of conditions and world problems. He is now on his way to Chicago, Boston and other Eastern points where he will appear during the course of the summer. He expects to give a program in this city again some time next fall and it is hoped that at that time there will be a larger audience than last Sunday.

Local Legionaires To Hold Important Meeting Tonight

The Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion will meet at the legion club rooms this evening for a general business session. One of the items which will be taken up is a continuation of the recent membership drive, which was conducted on a basis of re-enrolling former members rather than bringing in ex-service men who had not previously been members of the Eklund post.

Another matter which is being drawn to the attention of Legionaires and those interested in the Legion is the state meeting of commanders and adjutants to be held at the Curtis hotel in Minneapolis April 4-5. The meeting is an annual assemblage of the above named Legion officers. Morlan Bishop, prominent member of the local post, will speak on finances at this meeting. Jack Murray of St. Cloud, also well known to local legionaires, will speak at this session relative to the state convention of the Legion which is being held at that city this year.

Agent and Nurse Offices Voted Out in Red Lake Co.

By a vote of better than three to one, the voters of Red Lake county expressed their opinion against the continuation of county support for a county agricultural agent, and by a vote of better than 6 to 1 they voted against a county nurse.

With all precincts voting except those in the City of Red Lake Falls, the complete returns show 731 votes against the county agent and 191 in favor. There were 786 votes against a nurse and 119 in favor. Neither proposition carried a single precinct though in Lambert there were 33 in favor of an agent and 42 against and 19 for a nurse and 47 against. There was no real campaign made for either project outside of a few circular letters sent out.

Although the vote is not legally binding upon the county commissioners, the members of the board have agreed to abide by the decision of the voters.

The present appropriation for the agent expires April 1, and County Agent Henry Werner, former teacher of agriculture in the Thief River Falls high school, will remain until that time.

Prof. A. H. Yoder of Extension Division Will Address Parent-Teachers Meeting

Professor A. H. Yoder, director of the extension division of the University of North Dakota, will speak to the Parent-Teachers association on Monday, April 7th. Prof. Yoder is an officer of the Parent-Teachers association of North Dakota, and is very active and interested in the work of the association. Before coming to the University of North Dakota, he was superintendent of the city schools of Tacoma, Wash., and was instrumental in securing for the schools the present outdoor stadium with a seating capacity for two thousand persons.

The Parent-Teachers association feels very fortunate in securing Prof. Yoder to address the April meeting, and it is hoped that Thief River Falls citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear him. Not only the members may attend the Parent-Teachers meeting, but every one has a cordial invitation to attend and enjoy the programs.

A report of the membership drive will be given at the meeting and the committee announced that will have charge of the May meeting.

The executive board of the association urges that all members consider themselves a committee of one to secure new members and turn in the names to their respective captains before April 7.

Street Commissioner Will Use Motor Truck This Year

The work of the street commissioner has been increasing steadily for years until now it requires his attention to such an extent that the council believe that money can be saved by having him use a motor truck to haul about his crews and the material they use.

Accordingly they authorized the purchase of a machine and undoubtedly it will be put to immediate use and greater efficiency result in the street department this coming season.

Already dragging of the streets has been started and an effort will be made to maintain them in a high grade this season.

Times Theatre Party Enjoyed By Many Boys and Girls Sat.

Three hundred and thirty-one boys and girls were guests of The Times at the matinee showing of Wesley Barry in "The Printer's Devil" last Saturday at the Princess theatre, 331 coupons appearin last week's issue of The Times having been clipped out and used at tickets. The picture portrayed in an interesting story the experiences of a young man in a newspaper office and was greatl yenjoyed by both young and old who saw it, the boys and girls being particularly interested in the doings of the hero, Wesley Barry.

The Cause of Rheumatism

It is due to nerve pressure at the spine. There are many preparations on the market used to alleviate this disease. People use them — possibly getting some relief—but the rheumatism sticks to them. It will until its cause is removed. No medicine can reach and remove its cause. I can prove by several affidavits that Chiropractic adjustments will often completely overcome even the most obstinate and severe forms of rheumatism.

LOCAL CLUB PLANS NINE-HOLE COURSE

Committees For Ensuing Season's Golf Activities Named At Special Meeting

The Thief River Falls golf club is already bending to the call of the niblick and brassie. At a special meeting of the board of directors of the club Wednesday evening, March 12, plans were laid for a nine hole course to be ready for use by the middle of the summer. The past season only four holes were extensively used until fall when six were ready. Three additional holes, making it a regulation nine-hole course, will be added this season.

Committees were also appointed to care for the summer's activities and are as follows: Grounds committee, W. A. Barnard, chairman, W. W. Prichard, Jr., J. E. Barzen, H. O. Chommie, and Roy Lambert; membership committee, J. W. Hendry, chairman, N. H. Holzknecht, A. M. Langseth, Andrew Anderson, Stanton Dahlen and E. F. Dolan; tournament committee, J. E. Barzen, chairman, D. P. Gamble, H. Holzknecht, G. A. Mostue and F. E. Hunt; ladies entertainment committee, Maude L. Johnson, chairman, Mrs. Nels Christianson, Mrs. P. W. Mabey, Miss Irma Johnson and Geo. A. Mostue; ladies membership committee, Mrs. N. K. Harris, chairman, Mrs. F. E. Hunt, Mrs. H. M. Olson, Miss Irma Johnson and Miss Dora Holmes.

The committees are already beginning to function. The grounds committee is making arrangements for seeding the links, a mixture of redtop and bluegrass seed being used. The membership fees will remain the same as last year, which is $22 for men, $11 for ladies and $11 and $5.50 for non-resident men and women, respectively. This is the yearly membership fee, above and in addition to the stock which members hold in the club.

The links now comprise 35 acres of ground north of the roundhouse on the banks of Thief river and each year it is being improved and enlarged, until in time it will be one of the best links in this part of the state. It already compares favorably with many links in this part of the state. The club now has 70 members.

Short Course at Crookston Ag. School Beginning Mon.

The Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, reports a large enrollment for the Junior Short Course for the week of March 31 and April 4. Between 100 and 200 are expected. The Juniors will be between the ages of 12 and 18 and will live at the school. The instruction during the week will deal with boys' and girls' club work and club projects. There will also be instruction in other interesting subjects with enough recreation to make the week pleasant, interesting and worthwhile. A number of educational excursions have been planned, while the evening programs will consist of community singing, illustrated lectures and movies. This community will be represented gy several boys and girls as will the entire county. Boys' and girls' club work is becoming of increasing importance in this county and a few days spent at the Agricultural School will mean a great deal to all who can attend.

W. J. Brown To Quit Wheat Growers; Will Return Here

William J. Brown, of Thief River Falls, president of the American Wheat Growers Associated, Inc., last week disclosed plans to form zone selling agencies in Minneapolis, Kansas City and on the Pacific coast. The plan has been approved by the officials of the state associations, and is expected to result in greater efficiency and economy, Mr. Brown said.

Mr. Brown announces that the plan probably will be approved formally in time to handle the 1924 crop. In such case the Minneapolis sales agency with its branch at Duluth will only represent the state producers' associations in the spring wheat territory.

Mr. Brown, when in this city recently, stated that he will sever his official connection with the Wheat Growers on May 1 and will return to Thief River Falls to devote all his time to the practice of law.

Card Playing On Sundays Given Airing by Council

Shall the playing of cards in pool rooms and soft drink parlors on Sundays be stopped, or will it be permitted to continue?

That is the question which was up for discussion informally Tuesday night before the city council, Chairman Martin Evenson having stated that complaint had been made to him of this practise.

Mayor J. S. Arneson was present and said that his attention had not been called to this matter by any citizen formally and he therefore was not in a position to say what would be done until he had investigated the matter.

The various aldermen believed that it was up to some taxpayer who objected to the present practise to file a formal complaint with the proper authorities before any action should be taken and the question was dropped.

Railways Aid Junior Club Workers to Attend Short Course. 2 Girls Selected

Three great railroad systems, the Soo Line, Great Northern and Northern Pacific are co-operating with the agricultural extension service of the university in providing funds to pay the fares to and from University Farm of two club members from every county entered by these railway lines, to the Boys' and Girls' Club Week or Short Course at the University Farm, April 14 to 19.

Announcement of the course, which is open to any boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 21, was received by County Agent J. J. McCann from state club leader Erickson last week, with the request to select two club workers who have done outstanding or creditable club work in the past, preferably members who are taking the leadership project.

Misses Julia Malmquist of St. Hilaire and Helen Satre of Thief River Falls, veteran club workers and appointed as club leaders in the county for 1924, have been recommended to be given the free trips from Pennington county, and expect to attend. An unusually fine program has been arranged for the week, both instructive and entertaining.

Unless the attendance surpasses early estimates, all the boys and girls can be housed in the dormitories at University Farm for $1.50 each for the week, and meals can be had there on the cafeteria plan, making a total for the week's stay of about $5 or $6.

Gasoline Prices

A LATE bulletin issued by the Bureau of Mines points out that 1923 established a new high record in gasoline production in the United States, reaching 7,555,945,143 gallons —an increase over 1922 of 21.83%.

The National Petroleum News prints an estimate that the probable requirements during 1924 will be 8,236,617,000 gallons of gasoline.

Unless the 1924 output of gasoline shall more than equal the high record of 1923, the supply will fall short of the demand by at least 780,617,857 gallons.

It is a well-established fact that crude production has declined sharply, California alone shows a falling off from the 1923 high mark of more than 200,000 barrels a day.

Manifestly only those refiners who can extract the greatest yield of gasoline from a given quantity of crude oil are in position to render a major service under existing circumstances.

During the past several years processes have been developed in the laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), by means of which this Company is able to recover a greater yield of gasoline from a given quantity of crude.

The benefits derived from the operation of these processes accrue directly to the advantage of the motoring public, because the increased yield secured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) exerts a marked deterrent influence on the price you pay for a gallon of gasoline.

ROSEWOOD

Rosewood bank Closed

The Farmers State bank of this place suspended business Monday morning, following a conference between Cashier O. S. Hellerud of Rosewood and President A. D. Stephens at Crookston, this following a state ruling on Saturday closing the Merchants National bank of Crookston, of which the local bank is a branch. A state examiner has been called from St. Paul to examine the bank. It is believed the suspension is only temporary and that business will be resumed in a few days. District Examiner Jacob Riggs examined the Farmers State bank about three weeks ago, and everything was found correct, and it is understood that the suspension is a temporary effect following the state's closing of the Crookston bank, and may be straightened out shortly.

Farm Club Meeting

The regular meeting of the Rosewood Farmers club was held at the Rosewood hall last Tuesday evening. There was no program arranged for this meeting, but a brief business session was held. Among other matters it was decided through vote that a limited area be established for the securing of memberships, and that this be defined as follows. As far south as the Jefferson highway, west up to the boundary line between townships of New Solum and Viking, north to the section line between sections 10 and 15, and east up to State road No. 32. Commencing with next meeting, the entrance fee to non-members will be 35 cents while to members the 25 cent charge will continue. Through arrangement with the town officials meetings thruout the summer months will be held on Saturday evenings, and the next meeting will be held on Saturday evening, April 5. A. M. Gulleth will serve as lunch committee for next meeting and Joel E. Shober, as program committee.

O. S. Hellerud motored to Crookston Sunday afternoon.

Erie Child is Recipient of $5 Leap Year Birthday Prize

The five dollar savings account birthday present of the First and Peoples State bank reveals at least one child whose birthday will come only once in four years. Berneta Loraine Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Johnson of Erie, born on the twenty-ninth of February this year, has received a five dollar account and is already a bank depositor and probably one of the youngest depositors in Pennington county.

As an indication of how money will grow if given a chance, with compound interest at 5 per cent this five dollar deposit will have increased to $13.93 when Miss Barneta becomes twenty-one years of age.

Car Turns Turtle

Automobile mishaps are again becoming the order of the day. The following from last week's issue of the Red Lake Falls Gazette concerns persons known in this community:

"An automobile being driven by G. W. Hooper of St. Hilaire turned completely over at the corner east of the Enright farm, seven miles north of Red Lake Falls, Tuesday morning. Mr. Hooper accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Coral Patterson and Mrs. Dobson were enroute to Fargo from St. Hilaire and did not notice the turn until too late to make the corner in safety. The occupants of the car all crawled from underneath the overturned automobile and none of them bore a single scratch as evidence of the wreck. The car suffered a broken windshield, top and a badly bent front axle.

House Burns to Ground

Fire as a result of a defective chimney completely destroyed a house owned by T. A. Momrak of Thief River Falls located in Red Lake Falls, which was occupied by Dan Charboneau, according to The Gazette last week. Nothing was saved.

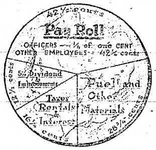
GREAT NORTHERN EXPLAINS HOW ITS DOLLAR IS SPENT



The diagram shows what became of each dollar received by the Great Northern Railway from its patrons in 1923.

The largest item of expenditure was the payroll. The Great Northern has over thirty thousand employees; 42¼ cents out of each dollar received was paid to them; about one quarter of a cent out of each dollar was paid to the officers.

Fuel and other materials cost 28¾ cents; taxes, rentals, and interest amounted to 16¼ cents, and the 5 per cent dividend and improvements accounted for 12½ cents.

Great Northern's operating cost has increased 82 per cent since 1915, while its charge to the public for transportation has increased but 35 per cent. Compared with 1915, the annual return to its owners decreased 28 per cent; the much larger increase in operating cost than in charge for transportation having so reduced net income as to necessitate lowering the dividend from $7 to $5 per share.

POTATO WAREHOUSE

The Great Northern is hauling thousands of carloads of seed potatoes from the Northwest to the South. Seed potatoes move first to the Gulf States and then as the Season advances, to the districts farther north. Nearly three million bushels have been shipped since January first.

Chairman of the Board.

SKIPPING SCHOOL

Spring is coming! Likewise, the number of absentees from school is increasing. This may not indicate anything but from past experience and a little deduction, it is fairly safe to assume that one is the result of the other.

Before the nice weather gets too much of a grip on you, stop and think what the results of skipping will be. In the first place you will get behind in your work for no one can stay out of school and expect to keep up with the rest of the class. Then your marks will be lower for if you get an N. G. permit to class, as you most assuredly will, you will be given zero for the day and each zero brings down the daily average a great deal. As punishment, you will be obliged to make up double the time you missed, in forty minute periods after school. While these little afternoon sessions are very pleasant and agreeable, still, there are more entertaining ways to spend the time between four and six on nice summery afternoons.

The Seniors especially should take care that they do nothing that is liable to hinder their chances of graduating. It is not an unknown occurrence in Lincoln High for a Senior to be kept from graduating because he skipped school too many times the last few weeks.

And when you stop to think of it, just exactly what is gained by staying out of school an afternoon or two? Possibly you have a little fun but think of all you are missing while making up time. It is much easier to stay in school when all your friends are there, too, than to remain after they have left and are out enjoying themselves. Likewise, you are getting behind in your work, lowering your marks, and winning the distrust of your teachers. Is it worth it?

The next time you contemplate taking the "afternoon off", think it over first!

A Boy's Opinion

Many articles have appeared pro and con bobbed hair but all of them have been a woman's likes or dislikes on the subject. Just what does the young man think of bobbed hair? In answer to the question, there is no doubt that nine out of ten would say: "I like it."

Often you hear a man exclaim when he sees a girl with her hair snarled in the approved modern day fashion that he would like to cut off that "rat's nest"; then, how the girl must suffer and struggle with her long tresses when even a man with short hair complains about his.

Even now as my glance leaves the paper, I can see twenty bobbed-haired girls within fifteen feet of my desk, and only five girls with hair "done up," or perhaps I should say, doing it up. The "bobbette" does not need to worry about her hair coming down and long hair does not dangle in her face—a barette holds the bothersome stray hairs neatly in place. The "bobbette always appears at ease and comfortable, which is one of the outstanding advantages of short locks.

I am speaking for the nine and with frankness will say: "There's where we fall." Why? Because bobbed hair usually improves a girl's appearance so that she is much the most attractive. Look at the girls you know and observe which ones are the most popular.

Only this Monday six girls, who on Friday had long tresses, came to school happy—with their hair bobbed. Is it reasonable and sane to suppose that so many are bobbing their hair every day merely because it is a fad? A fad in dress comes in, stays a few months, and is gone again, but bobbed hair has been in three years and is more popular than it ever has been. And how many of the girls who cut off their hair three years ago are tired of it and have long hair again?

No, we cannot believe that it is only a fad, and we of the opposite sex hope that it is in to stay.

DATE DRAWS NEAR FOR PRESENTATION OF "GYPSY ROVER"

Dances, Choruses and Solos In Glee Club Operetta to be Ready April 4

The operetta, "The Gypsy Rover," which is to be given by the Girls' and Boys' Glee clubs on April 4, is progressing rapidly.

"The Gypsy Rover" is in three acts and is built around the character of Rob, later known as Sir Gilbert Howe, of English nobility. Rob is stolen when an infant, by his nurse, Meg, who later becomes the wife of Marto, a Gypsy. Rob grows to manhood among the Gypsies believing Meg and Marto to be his parents.

One day Lady Constance Martendale, while riding with her financee, Lord Craven, becomes lost in the woods. They wander to the Gypsy camp where Constance and Rob meet and fall in love at first sight. Craven objects to Rob's attitude, but in a very funny comedy scene with Marto and Sinfo, he is made to tell Sir George, who later comes in search of Constance, that Rob is a charming fellow. In act two Rob goes to the home of Constance and serenades her. They plan to elope but are overheard by Craven who informs Sir George, and plans are made to capture Rob. This is successfully accomplished and Rob is thrown into prison, but later escapes.

Two years elapse and Rob has come into his estates, his identity having been proven by Meg. He becomes a successful composer, a friend of the Prince, and a social lion. Constance has remained true to her love for Rob and on his return to England, he woos and wins her for his wife. As Rob says, "The good fairies have led me to the beautiful country after all, and our story, Constance, can end in the proper way, 'They lived happily ever after'."

The cast of characters in the order of their appearance is as follows:

Meg—An old gypsy woman—Aerial Kinghorn.

Zara—The belle of the gypsy camp—Camille Warner.

Marto—Meg's husband—Buell Will.

Sinfo—Gypsy lad in love with Zara—Clifford Storholm.

Rob—Afterwards Sir Gilbert Howe, The Gypsy Rover. Lost heir to the Sir Gilbert Howe estates—John Sether.

Lady Constance—Daughter of Sir Geo. Martendale—Eileen Arneson.

Lord Craven — An English fop "Doncha know"—Melvin Engelstad.

Sir Geo. Martendale—An English Country gentleman—Francis Ohm.

Nina—Sir Geo.'s second daughter—Isabel Richter.

Capt. Jerome—Capt. in the English Army—Math Barzen.

Lackey—Butler—Tien Gullingsrud

Sir Toby Lyon—A society butterfly—Clifton Conner.

Francis McCorkle—A song publisher of London—Richard Zeh.

There are also many pretty choruses and dances, among which are the "Gypsy Chorus", the "Moon Dance", "Gypsy Land", and the L. O. V. E. Dance", all of which are composed of boys and girls. The "Bind the Tresses of the Bride" chorus and "They Say Girls Can't Keep Secrets", are choruses made up entirely of girls.

Watch for the ticket sale and get your seat reserved early.

No "dead moments" April 4 at the "Gypsy Rover."

THE END OF A PERFECT DAY

With sagging heads and lagging steps they slowly trudged along the busy street toward their home.

The traffic cop's whistle blew; the north and south bound cars stopped and the east and west bound vehicles hastily crossed the corner. All of a sudden the east bound traffic seemed to stop, and for good reason, because two big, tired dray horses with sagging heads and lagging steps hove into view.

Behind them came an insignificant and delapidated Ford runabout, vigorously honking its reed horn, but to no avail, for the tired dray horses with heads sagging and lagging steps paid not the slightest heed to the disturbance behind them. The Ford moved closer, its horn still in action, and gradually approached the rear appendages of the horse on the left side.

With its fenders in a loose and shriveled condition, radiating noise and rattles at every revolution of the wheels, it finally came so close that the horse, in the process of executing a figure eight with its tail, accidentally became entangled with the license, headlights, etc., of the old machine.

This was heaping insult upon injury and it was enough to try the patience of any tired dray horse with a sagging head and lagging footsteps. With snapping eyes and an energetic rise and fall of his hind foot, he smashed into the front end of the old runabout. There was a tearing, rending noise and then the sound of light metal falling.

All was quiet, the calm before the storm; then with a gurgling, frenzied yell, there issued from the mouth of the driver of the Ford a string of unprintable words belonging to the English language. The driver of the horses, who during this time had been sitting on the back of one of his horses, raised his sagging head and looked at the unfortunate owner of the Ford.

The owner of the Ford threatened to sue him, along with several other things, but the only reply that he received was that he was lucky that the horse did not use both feet.

The horses with sagging heads and lagging steps moved on; the traffic cop's whistle blew, and the north and south bound traffic started to move while the east and west bound stood still.

Juniors Order Class Rings and Set Custom

The Junior class established a new precedent for Lincoln High by getting their class rings this year. Although this is a common practice in most of the larger schools and colleges, none of the Lincoln classes have done it before.

The order is being made through Stebbins jewelry store and as about 35 students have already registered their orders, Mr. Stebbins expects to send for them this week. The ring is of gold with a black onyx setting on which the name of the school and the year of graduation is lettered in white gold. A number of students have ordered rings with fancy shanks bearing the year.

The entire Junior class was in favor of getting the rings this year because it will relieve them of that much worry next year and will give them a longer time in which to enjoy their rings. It is a very sensible precedent to establish and will probably be followed by the succeeding classes.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT SOPHOMORES 3 TO 2

Freshies Upset Dope in First of the Inter-class Games Taking Place This Week

In the first game of the series of class games which are being held this week in the high school gymnasium, the Freshmen defeated the Sophomores 3 to 2.

The Freshies started the scoring in the first quarter when Froseth made a free throw. There was no more scoring the first half which ended 1 to 0 in favor of the Freshmen. At the beginning of the second half, the entire second team of the Sophomores was put in. Froseth again started the scoring for the Freshmen when he sank a field goal. The Sophomore seconds seemed to be going better but were unable to connect with the basket until Mostue caged two pretty free throws. The first team was again put in for the Sophomores in the fourth quarter but they did not succeed in making a single point.

The Freshmen's teamwork was much superior to that of the Sophomores which accounts for the unexpected result of the game.

The line-up: Freshmen—Benson, f; Froseth, f; Baker, c; Bessler, g.; Elefson, g. Sophomores—Zeh, f.; Bjorkman, f.; Kolden, c.; Langevin, g.; Gullingsrud, g.;

Substitutions: Soph. — Helgeland for Zeh, Mostue for Bjorkman, Anderson for Kolden, Kiland for Langevin, Booren for Gullingsrud. Fresh.—Morgan for Benson.

Field goals: Froseth, 1.
Free throws: Froseth, 1. Mostue, 2.

A Conversation

As Pat was feeling "bum" all over, he thought by calling the village doctor he might get his money's worth for once. The doctor's name was Mike and although he had had no schooling, the village considered him quite good.

"What have you got, Pat, a cough?" asked the doctor as he entered the sick man's shack.

"Oh, probably," answered Pat.

"Let me give you something for it."

"You can have it for nothing as far as I am concerned, Doc. But please tell me how my breathing is."

"Oh a little boyish," returned the doctor. "It comes in short pants, but never mind that as I have a sure cure for it."

"Are you going to cut out my appendix?"

"Yes, but that's only a side issue."

"Doctor, have I rheumatism?"

"Yes, I believe you have been having some trouble in the joints."

"I realize that. Just last night I was thrown out of one."

"I think it advisable for you to make a trip west for your lungs."

"What part are they in?"

When the doctor was about to depart Pat asked, "Did you give me a thorough examination?"

"Yes, sir, even your hat was felt."

"Well, how about my diet?"

"Be very careful about your diet and avoid anything that is starchy."

"At that rate then I can't even wear a stiff shirt."

The doctor finally lost his patience and left before Pat could ask any more questions.

MELVIN ENGELSTAD WINS DIST. HONORS AT WARREN CONTEST

Lincoln Representative Wins 1st in Oratory and Lancaster 1st in Declamation

Thief River Falls again wins district honors when Melvin Engelstad was awarded first place in the oratorical contest held in Warren last Thursday. Pearl Holmquist of Lancaster won first place in the declamation contest. The other contestants were the winners of the sub-district meets held the first part of this month at Bemidji, Crookston and Argyle.

The oratorical contest was held first with the speakers appearing in the following order:

Argyle	"Vision of War"
Crookston	"The Unknown Heroism"
Thief River Falls	"Vision of War"
Bemidji	"Sparticus to the Gladiators"

Declamatory:

Lancaster	"Mercedes"
East Grand Forks	"The Lie"
Bemidji	"The Mallet's Masterpiece"
Warren	"Engineer Connor's Son"

Melvin, giving "A Vision of War", was awarded first place by a unanimous decision of three judges and Pearl Holmquist received first by a two to one vote. They will now have the honor of representing this district in the state contest which is to be held at Minneapolis early in April.

This is the second time in the history of Lincoln high that Thief River Falls has won the district oratorical contest and has competed at Minneapolis for state honors.

48 Cash Prizes Offered For Best Health Posters

You art students—present, past or prospective—here is an opportunity that comes directly home to each of you.

The American Medical Association, publishers of the new health magazine HYGEIA, is conducting a nation-wide contest among high school pupils for health posters. The purpose of these posters is to put across health lessons in a striking manner. Experience has shown that high school students can portray health ideas in a way that makes the observer stop, think and act.

To the winners are offered not only a long list of cash prices, but also distinction and honor of which any student may be proud. The jury of award is composed of eminent men—Dr. Hugh S. Cumming, Surgeon General of the U. S. Public Health Service; Mr. John T. McCutcheon, Cartoon Artist of the Chicago Tribune and President Wm. B. Owen, Chicago Normal College, Ex-President National Education Association. The best poster submitted will draw a cash prize of $100; second best, $60; third, $40; fourth, $20; [illegible] awards. In addition, fifty posters will be given honorable mention by the jury.

Of interest to the student body as a whole is the fact that the high school submitting the best group of posters will receive an award of $75.

Winning posters with names of designers will be reproduced in the magazine HYGEIA and in other ways. It is also planned to exhibit the posters at the Annual Convention of the American Medical Association to be held in June at the Chicago Municipal Pier. Thousands of physicians from all over the United States will attend this convention.

Every student having any ability as an artist is urged to enter this contest. Health is a subject of such universal interest that ideas are not difficult to find. Consult your parents, your physician, your student friend and you may soon have the "makings" of a winning poster.

HYGEIA is rendering special help to students by offering to send free a copy of the March issue, in which appears an article "How to Plan a Poster." This is full of practical suggestions.

"Spring Fever" has once again made its appearance in Lincoln High. Among those absent last Friday afternoon were: Mike Parenteau, Allan Sorenson, Lawrence Mulry, Leigh Anderson, John Sether, Tommy Scanlan and Dutch Zeh.

Do not miss the "Moon Dance."

INTER-CLASS GAMES COMMENCE TUESDAY

Six Preliminary Games and Finals to be Played in Gym to Determine Class Champs

The inter-class basketball games, which commenced Tuesday, will continue until Wednesday of next week when the finals will be played.

There will be six preliminary games as each team plays every other one, and the two teams ending the series with the highest percentages will play in the finals for the school championship. The winning class will then be presented with a fitting pennant to denote its supremacy.

There is great rivalry between the classes this year as all the teams are very evenly matched and have equally good chances of winning. The "Freshies" and "Sophs" are rather favored as winners because their best men have been on the school squad but not on the first team, and hence will be allowed to play.

The games will take place every afternoon at four-thirty in the high school gymnasium and the small admission fee of five cents will be charged. Each class is expected to turn out one hundred per cent strong and cheer its team on to victory and the class championship.

The schedule of games will be found elsewhere on this page.

Vet Hospital At St. Cloud To Be Ready Next August; Capacity of 400 Patients

Work on the 12 buildings for the new neuro-psychiatric hospital of the U. S. Veterans Bureau at St. Cloud, has gone steadily forward since the corner stone was laid on September 5, 1923. It is expected to be ready for occupancy by mid-summer.

The hospital is built to accommodate 275 patients but the capacity can easily be increased to 400 whenever necessary.

All the buildings are of uniform construction. They have concrete foundations and brick walls. The outer layer is a heavy face brick, trimmed with stone. The roofs are slate, and all window sashes are steel. The interior walls are of smooth plaster and tile. The operating rooms have marble walls and tile floors. The construction is fire proof throughout.

The entire plant will have the most modern equipment obtainable. There will be a main operating room, a smaller operating room, an ear, eyes, nose and throat operating room, a dental clinic, chemical and pathological laboratories. The equipment will include hydro-theapy and electro-therapy devices, several x-ray machines, and an electro-analytic device. There will be a morgue and autopsy room.

The material equipment will include a complete refrigeration plant and cold storage vaults, a disinfecting room and two steam sterilizers. There will be a separate power plant with four boilers having a capacity of 1,600 horsepower. The hospital will have its own water supply with pumping station, filtration and chlorine purification plant. There will be a complete fire protection system with hose outlets in every building. The water plant will have a capacity of 100,000 gallons a day. Sewerage will be treated chemically and sterilized.

The hospital is intended for the most modern treatment of mentally nervous cases. As such it will contain isolation wards for badly disturbed cases.

The opening of this new and modern hospital will be a great boon to the ex-service men in the Tenth District of the Veterans Bureau, comprising the states of Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana.

SAY IT WITH SONG

Barney Google, famous sportsman and vice president of the Yes We Have No Banana Fruit Co., strode out upon the spacious four by six deck of his yacht; "The Annabel Lee," and loudly demanded the presence of his first and second mates, Mr. Gallager and Mr. Shean.

When Mr. Google had completely strangled himself calling these worthys and singing, "How Dry I'm Not"—and looked it, Mr. Abraham Diamond Shean, second mate, followed, wailing, "Should a Laddie Kiss a Lassie When He's Full of Rye?" As soon as they recovered sufficiently, they gave their superior the official salute of the Universal Order of Campbell Soup Hounds. He responded by asking the gentlemen if they had been associating with any vile Scotch lately. Whereupon Mr. Shean answered, "No, it's only 'Gin-Gin-Ginger Ale,' which we got from J. Archibald Jiggs, the first engineer."

"Well, boys," said Mr. Google, "we can set sail any time now as It Aint A Gonna Rain No More but Where Do We Go From Here?"

Gallager suggested Rex Beach, Alaska, and Shean suggested either Mae Marsh, Florida, or Dublin, Norway. After disagreeing awhile, they sent for Archie Jiggs to settle the argument. Chester B. Gump, bell-hop for the floating domicile, was dispatched to get him. He was discovered on the shady side of the official chow factory engaged in a game of dotted celluloids with the ebony cook, Sunshine, who was betting a paste diamond against a counterfeit dollar.

When he appeared before the aforementioned gentleman, he said, "Let Us Put Out To Sea but don't go home boys because when I Tell My Wife I'm King She Crowns Me With The Frying Pan."

OFFICIALS GIVE DATA REGARDING POWER QUESTION

Grand Forks Votes Municipal Plant; Hear Electric Power Figures From T. R. F.

LETTER FROM MAYOR ARNESON IN HERALD

M. V. Evenson, Council President, Takes Exception to Arneson's Statements

Approval of the $110,000 municipal bond issue recommended by the city commission for the installation of a city owned electric plant, was voiced by the citizens of Grand Forks in the election last Tuesday, more than two to one voting in favor of the city plant in a record vote.

In the discussions of power plants in other cities considerable reference and comparisons were made regarding the situation in Thief River Falls, where power is derived from a leased water power plant and a city owned Diesel engine plant. Representatives of both factions were in the city at various times to gather information and it seems that conflicting statements have been made by local city officials concerning the costs of producing power thru the two sources and other phases of the situation.

As the city council is at this time considering the purchase of an additional unit to the present oil engine plant here it is of special interest to the citizens of Thief River Falls to get information as to the question whether it is advisable to enlarge the present oil engine plant, depend on the present system or purchase and make improvements on the dam.

The following letter to the citizens of Grand Forks from Mayor J. S. Arneson of this city occupied about half a page in the Grand Forks Herald, issue of March 29, under the heading, "The truth about Thief River Falls":

"It has come to me that considerable has been said in your city in connection with your approaching election regarding the municipal electric plant at Thief River Falls. I am making the following statement—not to influence your voters one way or another but merely so they may have the true facts regarding our experience here.

"In 1911 this city installed two Diesel oil burning engines of 225 Horse Power each. While we still have these engines it should be understood that we have not used them all or nearly half of the time during these 13 years. Our city was so fortunate as to obtain a lease on a water power at the city's door. Roughly speaking our figures show that from 1911 to 1922 only about one fourth of our energy came from these engines. The three-fourths came from the water power. During those eleven years we rarely used both engines at once and much of the time both were standing idle—valuable mainly as a standby in case the water power should fail.

"During 1922 and 1923 the weed growth in the river was such as to decrease our water supply materially and we have operated the oil engines much more of the time. I should say that during the entire 13 years these engines have had an actual operating life of less than five years most of which has been during 1922 and 1923.

"In 1921 we obtained 248,150 KWH by oil and 773,288 from water. In 1922 it was about evenly divided and in 1923 we obtained only 330,000 by water and 740,704 by oil. Under the most favorable operating condition during this 13 year period our energy from the oil engines cost us 2.5 cents per KWH. Most of the years it cost us better than 4.5 cents.

"We have charged depreciation on our oil engine equipment at 5 per cent per year because this equipment has been in use less than half the time. This 5 per cent applies to the most favorable operating year when our costs got down to the minimum of 2.5 cents. It probably would be necessary to increase this percentage materially were the engines to be used as much as they were that year.

"I understand that Grand Forks now is getting its street lighting current at 2.5 cents and its water pumping current at 2 cents. The superintendent of our plant informs me that no oil engine installation possible could beat this rate or even equal it. Having stated the foregoing facts I leave it to the citizens of Grand Forks to form their own judgment.

"My understanding is that the rates to private consumers in Grand Forks are somewhat higher than those prevailing in Thief River Falls. It is quite possible that this may be due to the fact that much of our energy is obtained from water power which comes to us, as before mentioned, under a very advantageous lease which unfortunately is soon to expire."

Following the publishing of Mayor Arneson's letter in The Herald, Martin V. Evenson, president of the city council, was invited to address a mass meeting at Grand Forks Monday evening regarding the situation in this city. Mr. Evenson spoke before a large audience at the auditorium, the gist of his talk being contained in the following letter to a member of the Grand Forks city commission, published in Monday morning's issue of The Herald, in which exception is taken to a number of Mr. Arneson's statements:

"To the Citizens of Grand Forks:

"I have been requested by some of your citizens to give some explanation to an article appearing in the Grand Forks Herald of March 29, 1924, with the head-lines 'The Truth About Thief River Falls,' which was published over the signature of J. S. Arneson, as mayor of Thief River Falls. This statement is misleading in different respects, and tries to convey the idea that statements given heretofore by city officials here have not been the truth. Mr. Arneson is a new man here and consequently is not as familiar with the different phases of city affairs as he might have been, but he might have posted himself on these matters if he wanted to go to that trouble.

"It will be impossible to go into detail on facts and figures all through; but I will give you some figures which will talk for themselves.

"On January 1, 1915, we had to the credit of the Light Fund $27,000, and on March 1, 1924, we had a credit to the Light Fund of $105,000. There is a bond issue of $53,000 against the plant. The Light Department owns property to its credit, building and real estate $18,000; engines and equipment, $10,700; water-power equipment, $8,000; poles and light lines, $47,000; ornamental lights, $9,300. This is the price paid for it, out of the Electric Light Fund.

"Besides this, the Light Department has had no credit for all street lighting, pumping water for waterworks, running filtering plant, etc.

"Now, as to the cost of producing current with the oil engines, for January and February, 1924—those two months gave the engines a fair chance to show what they could do. This is figuring fuel oil, lubricating oil and engineers. For January we produced with engines 90,830 K. W. at a cost of 1 1-3c per K. W. For February we produced 80,700 K. W. at a fraction less than 1 1-3c per K. W. The city is now negotiating for another oil engine of about 500 horse power in addition to what we have got to supply power for industries that are coming in here.

"I have been a resident of Thief River Falls for thirty-five years, and have been connected with city affairs more or less since this hamlet was organized as a village.

"I respectfully submit these facts and figures and guarantee them to be correct."

In addition he also cited the following figures as the cost of operating the Diesel Oil engines during January, this year:

9,483 gal. distillite at 7½c	$701.22
171 gal. lubricating oil at 63c	107.73
Engineer's wages	396.75
Total	$1,205.70

A total of 90,830 K.W.H., was produced by oil engines at a cost of 1 1-3 cents per K.W.H, with the above items included. But 4,746 K.W.H., were produced by the water power, making the cost 37 cents per K.W.H. the rent for the dam being $175 per month.

During February the cost of operating the city plant was practically the same, according to figures presented by Mr. Evenson, and only 323 K.W.H., were derived from the water power at an approximate cost of 54 cents per K.W.H.

LARGE ATTENDANCE URGED FOR PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

Prof. A. H. Yoder of North Dakota University Will Address Gathering Monday Eve

Parents of Thief River Falls are expected to turn out en masse to hear Prof. A. H. Yoder of the University of North Dakota, who will speak at the meeting of the Parent-Teachers association at the high school auditorium next Monday evening, April 7, at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited to hear Mr. Yoder, who will speak along lines of special interest to all persons interested in the welfare and betterment of the schools. As director of the extension division of the University of North Dakota and intimately connected with various lines of educational work, Mr. Yoder will undoubtedly give a very instructive address.

The membership of the association has been very greatly increased during the membership drive, the final report of which will be given at the Monday meeting, and the committee of the losers who will have charge of the May meeting will also be announced.

As a special stimulant to secure a large crowd to hear Prof. Yoder, the executive board of the association offer a prize of a suitable picture to be given to the grade school whose pupils have the largest number of parents in attendance at the Monday meeting. If parents have pupils in two schools, they will be counted for both. Parents are requested to encourage their children's interest by attending the meeting.

A violin duet will be given by Justus Larson and Gordon Overland and a vocal solo by Elra Porter.

The Parent-Teachers association is doing a great deal to bring about maximum efficiency in the schools of the city, and much credit for the success of its work is undoubtedly due the wide awake set of officers.

BREDESON HOME IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Total Loss of House and Belongings in Blaze Caused by Defective Chimney

The home of Alfred Bredeson, local grocer, at 321 Seventh street west was totally destroyed Monday morning by fire said to have been caused by a defective chimney. Loss is estimated at $3000 to $4000 which is covered by insurance.

Mrs. Bredeson was at work in the kitchen about 9:30 Monday morning when she noticed flames in the ceiling. It was some time before the fire department received the alarm and with the strong winds of that day, the house was practically burned to the ground in a short time. All household goods were consumed by the flames which made such rapid progress that nothing could be saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Bredeson have taken up residence at 424 Knight avenue pending further arrangements. No definite plans have been made as yet, but Mr. Bredeson may rebuild on the same lot.

Hall Hardware Stock Is Purchased by H. M. Rhodes of Economy Grocery Store

The hardware stock of the Hall Bros. company located at 315 Horace avenue north, according to announcements made this week, has been taken over by H. M. Rhodes, proprietor of the Economy Grocery store in the same building and both lines will be carried by Mr. Rhodes. The Hall Brothers company will continue their implement and fuel business with headquarters at the same location.

Mr. Rhodes began the Economy Grocery business on LaBree avenue across from the Brumund hotel last fall and moved into the Hall Bros. building during the winter. The store will be known as the Economy Store and Mr. Rhodes intends to carry out a policy of cash and carry that will enable him to give his customers a good quality of merchandise at low prices.

Hall Bros. have been in the hardware business in this city the past four years. However, with only the implement and fuel departments on their hands they will be better able to serve their patronage.

Thomas Lonson, son of the late Mrs. Anna Lonson, left Friday after having spent two weeks in this city on account of Mrs. Lonson's illness.

ORGANIZE CO-OP. FOR MARKETING POULTRY-EGGS

Representatives From Thief River Falls District Meet Here To Consider Plans

CORWIN STATE ORGANIZER POINTS OUT ADVANTAGES

Committee Named to Conduct Organization Work Prior to Another Meeting Soon

Representative poultry producers of this section, particularly Pennington county, at a meeting in the Commercial club rooms here last Thursday afternoon, carefully went over the Minnesota plan for co-operative marketing of eggs and poultry and endorsed it unanimously, believing it to be an important step in the promotion of poultry production in the community. Plans are to form a local association with Thief River Falls as a shipping point, it being the belief that this city is the most centrally located and has the best transportation facilities in this district.

W. J. Corwin, associate editor of the St. Paul Farmer and who is serving as organization manager of the poultry marketing campaign in Minnesota, was present and explained in detail how producers are organizing in other parts of the state. So far organization work has been practically completed in 23 districts, most of them in the southern part of the state, four or five of which have already started selling. Reports are that in many instances the price received by the producer thru the co-operative association was from 10 to 15 per cent higher than when sold to dealers, according to Mr. Corwin.

The committee which met in Thief River Falls last week covered the territory from Kittson, Roseau and Red Lake counties besides Pennington. They were unanimous in their endorsement of the plan and are arranging to call a meeting of township delegates in the near future to actually determine whether the Thief River Valley district shall be organized to get more out of their eggs, poultry, turkeys, etc. All present agreed that what the creameries had done for the dairy business should be done for the poultry business of this district. Especially so when it can all be started for much less than it would cost to build one co-operative creamery.

Mr. Corwin emphasized the necessity of not starting operations until a good large volume of eggs and poultry are signed up. Pennington county alone has enough poultry and eggs for a minimum volume, but the larger the volume the less the over head expenses will be. Eventually fattening and dressing plants will be established in each district or at some convenient location where two or three districts can use the same plant, it was pointed out.

The local associations unite to form the Minnesota Egg and Poultry Producers' Exchange, which will look after uniform grading, standardization, selling, storing and orderly and efficient distribution for all member associations.

The producer agrees to pay a $3.00 membership fee and sell all his surplus, except what he uses or sells for hatching, for breeding stock or sales direct to a consumer, thru his own association. This will open up a real outlet for the splendid quality of fall turkeys and poultry and for eggs produced here at any time in the year. Everyone who thoroly understands the proposition agrees it will mean a little more cash directly back to the producer and eventually a better reputation and demand for superior size and quality.

The following were chosen on an organization committee: Olaf Neset, president; Harry L. Schuster, secretary; E. L. Piper, Wylie; Arnold Dalberg, Newfolden; Mrs. Breitsprecher, St. Hilaire; Geo. Gusa, Middle River; Willis Warring, Steiner; T. J. Sumptor, Hazel; Fred Dola and J. E. Thompson, Rosewood; E. Rime, Goodridge; Dan Dowacter, Red Lake Falls; Olaf Neset and C. D. Gustafson, Thief River Falls, and Oscar Wilson, Plummer. These men will canvass their respective communities to ascertain what can be done in the way of securing a membership in the proposed association and creating interest so as to get a large turnout at another meeting which will be held in the near future. About 50 attended the meeting Thursday.

Announcement will be made next week as to the time and place for the meeting of township delegates. This will be strictly a producer's association as only producers can be members and only members can sell thru the association.

Young Men's Club to Hold Important Meeting Tuesday

The regular business meeting of the Young Men's Club to be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms next Tuesday evening is one of the utmost importance and every member is requested to be present. It is expected that a number of the members of the Y. M. C. A. board will be present to discuss plans for the coming season's activities.

Celebrates 12th Anniversary

Announcement of the 12th anniversary sale at A. S. Lieberman's department store is made in this week's issue of The Times and contains a number of special offers, beginning next Saturday, in commemoration of the time when Mr. Lieberman started business operations in Thief River Falls. It behooves the buying public to read the ads in The Times to take advantage of special bargains offered by local merchants. Mr. Lieberman invites his customers to get a "slice of the birthday cake."

Pennington Co. Assessors To Meet Here April 27th

The regular annual meeting of the assessors of Pennington county for the purpose of receiving instructions and advice before taking up their duties for this year, will be held in Thief River Falls at the county auditor's office April 27, according to announcement from the Minnesota Tax commission.

All assessors of the county who can possibly arrange to do so, are urged to attend this meeting, for a representative of the Minnesota Tax commission will be present and carefully outline the proper methods of assessing the various kinds of personal property in accordance with the requirements governing such matters.

This representative of the tax commission will also endeavor to answer all questions submitted by assessors pertaining to their duties, and if there is any phase of the work which is not clear to an assessor, that will be the most opportune time to have the matter cleared up.

RAIDS BRING 6 TO COURT; FOUR PAY $100 FINES

Four Plead Guilty to Handling "Moon" and Two Bound Over to Dist. Court

SHERIFF O. IHLE FINDS STILL ON STARK FARM

Activities of Officials Bring to Light Several Sources of Moonshine

Four men plead guilty to keeping a nuisance and drew fines of $100 each and two were bound over to the June term of district court during the past week as a result of three raids by Sheriff O. L. Ihle, all being charged with violations of the liquor laws. Those who were assessed fines are Lawrence "Butch" Wilson of St. Hilaire, $100; Axel Stark and Edwin Stark of the town of Sanders, $100 each and V. L. Hicks, 902 Horace avenue, $100.

Following complaints from various sources, Sheriff Ihle secured a warrant for the search of the Wilson butcher shop at St. Hilaire Friday, and drove to that town in the afternoon. He entered the shop and while making the search, he said, a car drove up to the front of the building and the driver got out and entered the shop. Sheriff Ihle stated that he spoke to Wilson in a manner that made him suspicious and on going out to the car found a parcel which the driver, Edwin Stark, refused to open. On opening it, the sheriff found it contained two quarts of "moonshine," which Stark then admitted he was delivering to Wilson. On inquiry by the sheriff, Stark explained that the stuff was being made by his brother, Axel Stark, at the farm of their father, G. Stark of Sanders.

Finds Still

Ihle then arrested Wilson, whom he instructed to appear at municipal court in this city the following morning, and Stark, taking the latter with him proceeded to the Stark farm. He found a still apparatus and a pint of liquor there, but Axel Stark, whom was supposed to have made it, was not at home. However, the sheriff left instructions for him to appear in municipal court Saturday morning and and took Edwin to this city and placed him in the city jail over night.

Enter Pleas of Guilty

Saturday morning Wilson and Axel Stark appeared as requested for hearings in municipal court and each entered pleas of guilty to keeping a nuisance. The Stark brothers admitted having made the stuff for Wilson. Judge Tarrant pronounced fines of $100 each, which were paid this week. Edwin Stark and the car he drove on Friday were held until Wednesday, when the two fines for the Stark brothers were paid by Axel Stark. Wilson paid his fine Tuesday.

Searches Hick's Home

Monday morning Sheriff Ihle secured a warrant for the search of the home of V. L. Hicks at 902 Horace avenue. He found nearly a pint of moonshine. Mr. Hicks was not at home, however, but the sheriff left instructions for him to appear in municipal court Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, which he did. He also entered a plea of guilty to maintaining a nuisance and a fine of $100 was imposed which he is trying to raise.

Garage Searched

Monday forenoon Ihle secured a warrant for the search of the Rasmusson garage building. He sent a man ahead of him, who entered the basement of the garage building, where it is said he found several men. When Ihle entered he made a brief search of the place and found three quarts of "moon." He placed A. H. Bakke and John Johnson, who are supposed to have had charge of the place, under arrest for illegal possession of liquor and ordered them to appear in municipal court in the afternoon. They appeared at the appointed time and entered pleas of "not guilty." The court bound them over to the district court. Bonds were set at $500 each, which were furnished.

17 Applicants for 2 Rural Routes Out from Goodridge

No less than 17 persons took the examinations for rural carriers on the two new mail routes out from Goodridge which were started this week. The examination was conducted in this city last Saturday by Thos. Chittick of the local post office staff. Appointments are expected to be made within 30 days and until then the routes will be served by temporary carriers sworn in by the postmaster there.

NEW DIRECTORS OF COMMERCIAL CLUB SELECTED

Board of 12 Directors Named to Be in Charge of Affairs During Ensuing Year

DR. FROEHLICH REMAINS PRES. McCANN IS SEC'Y

Membership Now 80 with Prospects of Getting a Total of 100 in Near Future

Selection of a board of directors of twelve members for the Thief River Falls Commercial club, in accordance with the new articles of incorporation and by-laws adopted by the club recently, was completed last week and those named announced at the regular noon luncheon Thursday. The group chosen to have charge of the club's affairs includes: E. M. Bennes, Daniel Shaw, Dr. O. F. Mellby, Albert Lonson, Nels Christianson and Roy Lambert, elected for a term of one year; Dr. H. W. Froehlich, Math Barzen, Sr., J. J. McCann, Supt. I. T. Simley, H. A. Brumund and F. H. Herrick, for a term of two years.

Following the regular meeting last Thursday the board of directors held an organization meeting and chose as its president Dr. Froehlich, recently re-elected president of the organization under the old constitution. Dr. Froehlich was the unanimous choice of the club then and his selection by the directors meets meets with the hearty approval of the entire membership, as he has been untiring in his efforts to promote the interests of the organization.

Postmaster Daniel Shaw, was chosen first vice-president; Roy Lambert, second vice president; and Albert Lonson, treasurer, for the coming year. County Agent J. J. McCann, who has served the club as secretary the past three years in a most efficient and satisfactory manner, was again engaged to continue his work in the interest of the club. With these men at the helm the club can look forward to an active season.

Under the new organization which is now complete and has begun functioning, the board of directors will compose an executive committee which can work more efficiently and expedite matters much more quickly than by the previous committee system. Regular meetings of the executive board will be held every Thursday following the weekly noon luncheon. Absence from two consecutive meetings without a ligitimate excuse is considered as a resignation from the board.

At present the Commercial club has about 80 paid up members, the largest membership for some time. Several new ones have entered the ranks in the past few weeks and it is expected that the 100 mark will be reached.

Appointments for the various committees were considered at the director's meeting last Thursday but will not be definite until after the meeting today. There are nine committees of from three to five members, covering the activities of the organization.

Three Become Citizens at Hearing in City Thursday

American citizenship was given three petitioners who were examined at the court house in this city last Thursday forenoon, the special session of district court being presided over by Judge Andrew Grindeland of Warren. The aliens were examined by Examiner R. A. Carlson of St. Paul, this being the first time in years that the examination has not been conducted by R. K. Doe of Duluth. This district has been detached from the Duluth district and has been included in the St. Paul district.

Those granted their final citizenship papers were: Oscar Anderson, Hans Oscar Prestby and Ole John Ness, all of Thief River Falls and all natives of Norway. It was the smallest number of applicants for some time, according to Clerk of Court Adolf Eklund. A similar hearing is scheduled for July 31 if there are any candidates, filings for which must be made prior to May 1, 90 days before the hearing.

Are You Going to Paris? Here is Some Good Advice

Paris taxi drivers are the best friends and the most dangerous enemies in the world, says Maurice Cannon, who is cast in such a role in Pola Negri's new starring picture, "Shadows of Paris," a Herbert Brenon production for Paramount. Coming to the Princess Theatre Sunday and Monday.

"Just as London policemen are noted for their courtesy to strangers, the Parisian taxi drivers are known for their strong friendships and their indifference to those who offend them. I have made many friends in their ranks and learned much about Paris through their agency, which I could otherwise never have discovered. If you are going to Paris, I advise you to make friends with one of them. He will look after you like a brother, and tell you stories of the city more enthralling than anything you ever read in fiction."

Two Harbors Wins

Two Harbors, Minn. high school defeted Jackson, Mich. 24 to 25 at the national basketball tournament in Chicago yesterday. Fargo defeated Lexington, Ky., 32 to 21.

The building on Main avenue between first and second streets south, formerly occupied by the Great Northern railroad company as passenger and freight depot, is being torn down this week by Oscar Swenson, who will use the material for building a barn on his farm west of this city.

Welfare Board Meets with District Representative

An unusually busy session of the Child Welfare board of this county was held at the court house Monday, when board members met with Miss Elisa Castenbyck, district representative of the state children's bureau. A large number of cases are being handled by the welfare board and the work requires considerable attention, several meetings being held from time to time.

Present plans are to hold a regional conference in the interest of child welfare work at Crookston some time in May, according to announcement by Mrs. J. M. Bishop, regional chairman. This district comprises Pennington, Polk, Red Lake, Marshall and Norman counties.

Members of the Pennington county board are: Mrs. J. M. Bishop, Mrs. L. G. Larsen, Peter Wold, Ole R. Sande and J. S. Roy.

POULTRY BREEDERS RE-ELECT OFFICERS AT MEETING THURS

Olaf Neset Remains President of Pennington County Poultry Association

Olaf Neset, local jeweler, was again chosen to head the Pennington County Poultry association at the annual election meeting held at the Commercial club rooms last Thursday afternoon following the gathering of poultry men from the Thief River Falls district to consider the organization of a co-operative egg and poultry marketing association. The meeting was well attended and much interest was shown.

The other officers re-elected to serve during the ensuing year are: C. M. Bouen, vice president; J. J. McCann, secretary, and Harry L. Schuster, treasurer. The board of directors which is composed of seven members besides the regular officers, will be named by the president of the association in the near future.

No definite plans for the coming year's activities were considered at the meeting, which was brief, the preceding meeting of poultry men taking up the greater part of the afternoon. Arrangements for the annual poultry show and fair exhibit will be made at a later date. President Neset states that the poultry exhibits by association members at the Pennington county fair this fall will exceed any previous showing, both in number and quality.

Approximately 75 poultry fanciers in the county are members of the association, and much is being done to create a greater interest in the raising of poultry in general and the culture of good, standard breeds. With the active and capable set of officials at the head and an enthusastic membership the association's future looks decidedly bright.

PIONEER RESIDENT PASSES AWAY SUN.

Mrs. Anna Lonson Dies at Her Home After Brief Illness At Age of 77

Mrs. Anna Torson Lonson, for the last 32 years a resident of this city, died at her home at 404 Conley avenue south Sunday, March 30, after a two months illness of gall stones. Mrs. Lonson was one of Thief River Fall's earliest settlers, coming from Red Lake Falls 32 years ago, with her husband, who died here 30 years ago.

Mrs. Lonson was born at Sell, Gulbrandsdalen, Norway, December 28, 1846. Fifty-five years ago she came to this country and lived for 19 years at Stevens Point, Wis., moving from that place to Red Lake Falls where she resided for four years. Thirty-two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lonson came to this city to make their home among the earliest settlers. Mrs. Lonson has enjoyed comparatively good health and, only two months ago did she become seriously ill. All of her sons and daughters were with her at the time of death except one son, Thomas, of Michigan City, Ind., who spent two weeks with her but returned to his home last week.

To mourn her passing she leaves three sons, Gilbert and Albert Lonson of this city and Thomas Lonson of Michigan City, Ind., and four daughters, Mrs. Ben Erickson and Mrs. A. K. Aasen of this city, Mrs. A. Mercer of Lethbridge, Alta., and Mrs. G. McLean of Hansboro, N. D. Two sons, Louis and Robert, and one daughter, Pauline, are dead.

The funeral services were held from the Trinity Lutheran church, of which she was a member, yesterday. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. T. E. Sweger, Rev. E. H. Kriedt, pastor of the St. Johns' Lutheran church, conducted the funeral services. Six grandsons, Alvin and Robert Erickson, Lloyd and George Lonson, Earl Effinger and Aankon Grindahl were pall bearers. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Woodwork Shop Damaged By Flames Early This Morning

Fire, thot to have originated in the furnace room, broke out in the Northern Woodwork building this morning at about one o'clock, destroying partitions in the basement and burning thru the first floor. Machinery and material was damaged to a considerable extent, according to E. O. Iverson. All manufacture has been interrupted and repair will be begun immediately. No estimate of loss has been made. The alarm was turned in a few minutes after the fire started, by a girl who happened to pass by.

NEW BUILDING TO BE ERECTED BY PRODUCE CO.

Peterson-Biddick Co. Lets Contract for Fine 40x80 ft. Structure Near Soo Depot

ONE STORY BRICK BUILDING WITH BASEMENT

Construction to Start Soon and Building To Be Completed in 60 Days

Another large, modern fireproof building will be added to Thief River Falls' business houses this summer when the new quarters of the Peterson-Biddick company have been completed. The contract for the erection of a 40 foot by 80 foot building on the site on the Soo line right-of-way just south of the Oen warehouse, on which the company holds a long time lease, was awarded to C. M. Carlson, local contractor, Saturday and building will begin as soon as weather conditions will permit. The contract calls for completion in sixty days after construction begins.

The new building, a brick faced tile structure, will be a one story building but with an en extra large full basement for storage and handling and grading of various commodities. The roof will be of a trussed construction so that there will be no supporting posts or timbers to interfere with equipment giving an unobstructed floor space of 3200 square feet on the main floor, where the offices will also be located. The building will be so constructed that in the event that the company wishes to add another story at some later date, the roof may be raised and the wall built to the required height.

Entrances will be provided at the west to the offices, on the south to the store rooms and on the east for loading and unloading produce on cars. The basement will furnish storage room for about 25 carloads of potatoes besides other produce. The main floor will be devoted to poultry and eggs and a line of seed corn and chicken feeds and grass seeds which the company is introducing.

The Peterson-Biddick company has been located in this city for nine years and has enjoyed a large volume of business, handling a great share of the eggs produced in this section of the state and also doing a large poultry and potato business. The company was first formed at Wadena, where the head office is now located. Eight years ago they started operations at Crookston and are now opening up a branch at Jamestown. George Biddick, who has charge of the local branch, has been a resident of this city and is known as a man of his supervision, the company is rendering a good service to the surrounding agricultural community.

The building which they are now occupying will be in use thruout the summer months but as soon as the new structure is completed it will be occupied by the egg and poultry departments.

Mason's Tender Smoker To H. C. Johnson Saturday Eve

H. C. Johnson, who left Tuesday evening for Minneapolis where he may be engaged in business, was the guest of honor Saturday evening when the Masonic lodge, of which Mr. Johnson has been a member for many years, entertained at a smoker at the Masonic lodge rooms. The hours were spent in a social way, toasts and speeches featuring the evening. F. F. Haynes was toastmaster. At midnight refreshments were served by a committee.

Mr. Johnson has been a resident of this city for the past six years, having had charge of the Nortz Lumber company, now the Ireland Lumber company, until last September when S. M. Disher took charge. Mr. Johnson and family came to this city from East Grand Forks where he was connected with the St. Hilaire Lumber company for a few years and prior to that made his home at Signal, N. D. Mrs. Johnson, who has spent the past several months with her father, A. H. Steedling, at Northwood, Iowa, was here a few days last week to attend to matters connected with moving and left again Monday for Iowa. Her father is seriously ill and is not expected to live for more than a very short time.

Former Pastors in City

Rt. Rev. I. T. Aastad of Detroit, president of the Northern Minnesota District of the United Lutheran Church of America, and Rev. A. N. Skogerboe, pastor of the Lutheran church at Erskine and chairman of the home mission committee for this district, spent Friday night in this city on their way to Greenbush where they met with members of the Lutheran church there Saturday to attempt to organize the several congregations to call a pastor. The congregations in and around Greenbush are of sufficient size, think the Rev. Austad and Rev. Skogerboe, to support a pastor and an effort is being made to get them organized. Both of the Reverends Austad and Skogerboe were formerly pastors in this city, the former pastor of what was the Lutheran Synod and the latter pastor of the church known as the Hauge Lutheran church. They expect to return by way of Karlstad.

"Mah Jong" New Shine Parlor

James Paronteau announces this week that he will open a shoe shining parlor in the building formerly occupied by the Bradley barber shop on LaBree avenue, the place to be called "Mah Jong." He is fixing up the interior of the building this week and will be ready at the stand Saturday morning.

Co-operation and Confidence

Closing of a number of banks in the Northwest has caused many to look skeptically at the banks in operation without knowing the true condition of the institutions. There are individuals who seem to delight in spreading unfavorable reports regarding certain institutions, sometimes maliciously and often just carelessly, and by their thoughtlessness injure the entire community, and aggravate the evils from which they try to escape. This is a time when it is necessary for all of us to exercise good business judgment and cultivate a spirit of helpfulness and co-operation.

Thief River Falls can pride itself in having banking institutions which can make a most sound and creditable showing even in this period of depression.

For instance, the statement of the First National bank of this city appearing in this issue of The Times indicates a financial condition which is a credit to any institution in the country, and of which Thief River Falls and community may feel justly proud. To have an institution showing such strength at this time should tend to give the people of this community a feeling of security and confidence.

The second of a series of articles giving the history of dairying in Minnesota, written specially for the Thief River Falls Co-operative creamery by A. J. McGuire, general manager of the state association of creameries, appears elsewhere in this week's issue of The Times. It contains information of interest to every dairyman in particular and should be read by everyone as the articles are written with a view of making clear the problems of dairying and its importance to the welfare of the farmer and the community as a whole.

Citizens of Thief River Falls play golf while they're shoveling snow in Minneapolis, and other more southern points.

Is everyone ready for spring "clean-up week?"

Congregation Tenders Birthday Surprise to Rev. Larson

The regular quarterly business meeting of the Zion Lutheran church fell on Monday evening, the fiftieth birthday anniversary of Rev. George Larson, pastor of the church, and the congregation took the opportunity of showing their esteem for their pastor. When the meeting was nearly over large numbers of the members of the congregation began coming in and the church parlors were soon filled to capacity. Before the Rev. Larson could comprehend the situation, he was showered with birthday greetings. John Dahl acted as spokesman for the congregation. Many toasts and speeches were made by members, including Mr. Dahl, T. O. Stageberg, Hans Peterson and Anton Stene. A sumptuous supper had been prepared including a huge birthday cake, and after all had partaken of the meal, the Rev. Larson was presented with a purse of money. The event was a complete surprise to Rev. Larson and a pleasant one and it will long be remembered by him as one of the best showing of gratitude a congregation could offer.

Dostal-Arneson Nuptials At Mayor Arneson's Home Sat.

A wedding of much interest took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Mayor and Mrs. J. S. Arneson at 219 Main avenue south, when Miss Martha Dostal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dostal, and their son, Harold Martin, were quietly married in the presence of a few relatives.

The nuptial ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Charles Gerlinger of the Presbyterian church with Miss Rose Dostal, a sister of the bride, and Philip Larson, a cousin of the groom, attending the bridal couple. Miss Eileen and Henry Arneson, sister and brother of the groom, played the Lohengren wedding march on the piano and violin. The bride was beautifully attired in a costume of blue canton crepe and carried a bouquet of ophelia roses and sweet peas and the bridesmaid was dressed in a brown canton crepe dress, carrying a bouquet of sweet peas.

Miss Dostal, attended the local schools and has made her home with her parents who have been residents of this city for many years, until her marriage. The past year she has been employed as cashier for the Thief River theatre company, which position she still holds.

Mr. Arneson came to this city three years ago with his parents from St. Paul. He attended the schools of that city to the third year of high school, when he went to the Shattuck Military academy at Faribault to complete his course. Since coming to this city he has been a member of The Tribune staff, which paper is published by his father. The young couple will make their home in the Halvorson apartments on LaBree avenue south.

A reception was given for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arneson by Mayor and Mrs. Arneson at their home following the ceremony. The rooms were beautifully decorated in a color scheme of pink. Roses and candles adorned the large dining table. The reception dinner was served at 6:30. The evening hours were spent in music and in a social way. The relatives present included the groom's brothers and sisters, Mrs. Levia Arneson, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Larson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Dostal and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sophus Olson and Frank Vorlicky.

The Times joins friends in extending best wishes to the young couple.

On Trip to Coast

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lund and daughters, Evelyn and Harriet, left yesterday on an extended trip to points along the Pacific coast, expecting to be gone for at least a month. They went from here to the twin cities where they go on to Kansas City and then to California. In California they will visit with Mr. Lund's parents at Santa Barbara, and also with his two brothers. Mr. Lund is an engineer on the Soo Line.

What Growing Children Need

EVERY mother knows that a growing family needs much nourishing food. Boys and girls need energy for their school-work and their play. Every member of the family must be kept in the best of condition.

One of the greatest of all energy-producing foods is Karo. One reason is that it contains a large proportion of Dextrose, the great energy food.

Also, Karo is one of the most economical of all foods. Not only does it cost so little but it can be used for so many purposes. Karo takes the place of high priced preserves.

You can use it for sweetening in all kinds of cooking, baking, and for stewing prunes and dried fruits.

Ask your grocer for Blue Label Karo or Red Label Karo—both equal in nutrition.

W C. T. U. Is Sponsoring Annual Essay Contest

The local chapter of the W. C. T. U. is holding an essay contest for the benefit of all high school students who wish to compete. The subjects for the essays will be as follows.

"How increasing the use of machinery makes total abstinence necessary."

"Smoking and High School Scholarship."

The minimum number of words will be seven hundred and the maximum, one thousand. The essays are to be graded three-fourths on subject matter and one-fourth on style and grammar, and all must be given to Miss Leavitt by May 2, 1924.

The prizes to be awarded are:

Best in the high school, $5; second best in the high school, $2; best in Freshmen class, $2; second best in Freshmen class, $1.

A generous amount of material has been furnished by the W. C. T. U. It has been placed in Room 1, and Miss Minnie Leavitt has systematically arranged this material so as to make it as easy as possible for the students to do their reference work.

These contests have proved to be very successful in previous years, and it is expected that many will enter the contest this year.

Northrop Notes

Last Thursday the Central teachers visited the Northrop school.

George Biedermann won in the third grade spell-down on Friday, thus making nine points for the Blues against seven for the Reds.

Alfred Reynolds entered the sixth grade this week.

Friday morning a discussion on the question, "Of the three rivals, Spain, England and France, which seems to have had the best right to the New World?" was given in Miss Lura's room. Spain was supported by Lawrence Helgeland and Evelyn Carlson; France, by Wilson Dokken and Gladys Bowers; England, by Wendell Sether and Jerome Hillard. The claims were well presented and the decision was in favor of France. Miss Tandberg, Miss Adams and Miss Ryan acted as judges.

GETTING "AHEAD OF THE BUNCH"

"The brightest students begin their courses in Spring," declares F. L. Watkins, Pres., Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D. "They show they're bright by starting when classes are smaller, advancement quicker. They finish at the season when office help is most needed."

"GYPSY ROVER" IS POSTPONED UNTIL NEXT WEEK APR. 11

Illness of Maude L. Johnson, director, Forces Postponement But Rehearsals Continue

"The Gypsy Rover," Glee Club Operetta, which was dated for April 4, has been postponed until April 11 due to the illness of Miss Maude L. Johnson, who is directing the play.

Rehearsals of the cast are being held at the auditorium under the leadership of Lawrence Mickelson, while the chorus rehearsals are under the direction of Miss Clara Baumann.

This postponement should give the cast more time to perfect themselves and therefore make the operetta that much better when it does take place.

SENIOR HONOR ROLL ANNOUNCED FRIDAY

Margaret Melgaard Named Valedictorian of '24 Class and Esther Lunsetter, Salutatorian

A special assembly was called last Friday afternoon for the purpose of announcing the Seniors who attained the class honor roll. The six students in the class, receiving the highest average for their first three and one-half years' work, were entitled to a place on the honor roll.

Margaret Melgaard was named Valedictorian of the class of '24, having 46 honor points or an average of A for her entire high school course. Mildred Griffin had the second highest number of honor points, 45½, but due to the fact that she completed her course the first semester and will probably not be present at the graduation exercises, Esther Lunsetter was chosen as Salutatorian, being third with a total of 39 points. The remainder of the honor roll was as follows: Ruby Conklin, 32½; Helen Radnieck, 31; and Mildred Peterson, 30. Elsie Blair was given honorable mention for having 29½ honor points, or just one-half point less than the last of the honor students.

As may be seen, no boys attained the honor roll, but special mention was made of Joseph Gavin who stood first among the boys with 24 honor points to his credit.

The reason for only six being named as honor students is due to the fact that the Senior class is unusually small, composed of 61 students, and the honor roll is comprised of the highest ten percent.

Personals

The Sophomore domestic science class served cookies and coffee, March 28, at four o'clock. The purpose of this was to raise money to purchase some useful articles for the department.

Mr. Matheson has given the French I class the words for two French songs. These are the "Marseillaise" and "Les Rameaux." These songs were sung a few times in order to get the melody, and also to learn the pronunciation. If enough interest is shown, the class will have one period to spend in singing and hearing French songs.

For the last three weeks the cooking II classes have been busy serving four times a week to the members of the faculty. They expect to continue this for one week more.

The miracle of all miracles has happened! Elanor Werstlein has been converted and has joined the ranks of the bobbettes.

Seniors Meet And Decide Important Class Matters

Several questions of importance were taken up at the Senior class meeting which was held last Friday after school.

It was decided by a majority vote of the class that the Seniors will wear caps and gowns at the graduation exercises this year, in accordance with the custom adopted by the class of '23.

A discussion on the choice of a class play followed. It was moved and seconded that a committee composed of Principal Bye, class advisor, Miss Mildred Thompson, class chaperone, and the two dramatic teachers, Miss Simon and Lawrence Mickelson be delegated to choose a class play and the cast of characters. The vote was unanimous.

A committee of students was elected to select several samples of class announcements and calling cards and submit these later to a vote of the class. This committee consists of Hariet Morgan, Evaline Thompson and Olga Lokken.

The Seniors are also planning to give a skit at the Princess theatre entitled "Taking Father's Place." Mr. Bye and Miss Thompson are choosing the characters and the play will be given in two or three weeks.

INTER-CLASS GAMES DRAWING TO AN END

Juniors and Seniors Finish The Preliminary Games with Highest Class Percentages

The class games which have been taking place in the high school gymnasium last week and this week are drawing to a close. All the preliminaries have been played and the semi-finals and finals will be played Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The teams have been very evenly matched and all the games have been characterized by low scores and close playing.

Junior-Senior, 6-8

In the second clash of the Inter-class tournament last Wednesday, the Juniors met the Seniors. The Junior team was favored to win because of the numerous Juniors who were on the high school squad, two of whom were on the first seven. The game started with a rush but it was not until the second quarter that a score was made, Bennes caging a free throw for the Juniors. Shortly after Gavin connected with the basket, making two points for the Seniors, and thus the half ended. The fight was resumed in a few minutes and Mulry scored for the Juniors. The remainder of the game showed that the Seniors had by far the best team-work and had they been able to make a small percent of their shots the score would have been much larger. As it was, the Seniors counted six points in the last period and the Juniors, three, the game ending 8 to 6.

Freshmen-Juniors, 6-10

Knowing that they must win this game to get in the final championship series, the Juniors went into the game with the fighting spirit so necessary for victory. Mulry and Holzknecht played the best game for the Juniors and Froseth and Baker starred for the Freshmen. The Junior team played an exceptionally fine game, bringing the ball down the floor, time after time, but missing many of their shots. In order to become real contenders for the title, the Juniors must greatly improve their shooting both from the field and the foul line. The Freshmen displayed fight, nerve, ability, and some excellent passing, but due to their inexperience, they are not thought to have much chance for the championship.

FROWLER CONTRACT AWARDED TO TIMES

1924 Annual is Expected to be Ready for Distribution by the Second Week in May

The 1924 "Prowler" staff drew up its printing contract with the Thief River Falls Times last Tuesday, after several weeks of corresponding and quoting with competing companies.

Before making an agreement of this kind, it is necessary to know that the contracting company is reliable and that the work required of the contractor will receive his most careful attention. Among the companies whose bids were considered are: The Benton Review Shop of Fowler, Indiana, Cole, Mickham, and Co., of Minneapolis, The Tribune of Thief River Falls, and The Times Company, who submitted the most favorable terms and received the contract. The Times did the printing for the 1923 "Prowler" and as the result was entirely satisfactory, the staff feels assured that this year's annual will likewise receive the utmost consideration.

There is a great deal more work connected with the building of an annual than the average individual realizes but the staff has been working so diligently for several weeks on panels, headings, drawings, and serious and comic material that the final product will undoubtedly be one of the best ever published by this school.

The Bureau of Engraving in Minneapolis was given the engraving contract early last fall and is, at the present time, completing the last of its work. With this work all here, the "dummy annual" will be made up and The Times will start the printing. Without any difficulties and delays, the 1924 "Prowler" will be off the press and ready for distribution by the second week in May.

Practice To Commence For Spring Football

From the present outlook, spring football will take the place of track or baseball in Lincoln High this year. Two games have already been scheduled with the Warren high school.

Although Lincoln High has had some spring football in the past, it will be a comparatively new venture. It is played in order to get some idea of who will be candidates next fall, when the regular season opens.

Practice will begin as soon as weather conditions permit. Coach Thune will take care of the line, while H. C. Hand, a well known college half-back, will coach the backfield. With these two men as coaches, Lincoln is certain to have a good team.

Out of the entire last year's squad only four will be graduated, leaving plenty of good material.

Thirty new outfits will be ordered next fall in order to give all candidates for the team a good chance.

Pearl Weeks on Radio Program

Radio fans who were on "the wire" Thursday evening, March 27, no doubt heard the concert given by WCAL, the radio broadcasting station of St. Olaf college, at Northfield, Minn.

One of the numbers on the program was a piano solo by Miss Pearl Weeks of this city. Miss Weeks was graduated from Lincoln high school last spring with the high honor of valedictorian. She is now a freshman at St. Olaf College.

Students Must Apply Now For Nor. Training Course

All students wishing to enter the Normal Training department next fall are advised to see either Supt. I. T. Simley or Miss Alice Stapleton, head of the department, immediately. It is necessary that applications be made at once because at least fifteen must be enrolled before any plans can be made for the department. If twenty or more enroll two instructors will be engaged.

High school graduates should realize the opportunity this course offers and take advantage of it. A person receiving a certificate from the Normal Training department, together with eight months of teaching in a rural school, will be given a full years credit at any state normal school.

Do not hesitate but make your application now!

Lectures on Telephone

On Monday and Tuesday of last week the general science classes were given lectures on the "Telephone." G. A. Russell, manager of the telephone company of this city, explained the complete workings of the telephone from the time the receiver is taken down until one is connected with the party at the other end of the line. The entire mechanism of the plant was also explained.

The students found this not only interesting but also very instructive.

GOODRIDGE

COMMUNITY GATHERING HONORS A. C. TVEDT

The village of Goodridge gave a party for one of its old builders and promoters, Mr. A. C. Tvedt last Saturday evening at the school building. Mr. Tvedt was presented with a rocking chair and a purse of money to which all the residents of the village had contributed in appreciation of his work in the establishment and beautifying of the village park. A program consisting of community singing, solos, and short talks by Olaf Ramstad and Daniel Shaw of Thief River Falls was carried out, after which a lunch was served and an hour of social visitation was enjoyed. Mr. Ramstad, who has known Mr. Tvedt from the early pioneer days when both were residents of Norman county, paid a tribute to his sterling character and public spirit. Before coming to Goodridge in 1914 when the electric railroad was built and the village of Goodridge was established, Mr. Tvedt served for many years as county treasurer of Norman county. In well chosen words Mr. Tvedt expressed his thanks to the people of the community for the honor bestowed upon him and for the gifts.

Mrs. John Markuson and daughter, Christina, were shoppers in Goodridge Saturday.

Mrs. Gunder Erickson returned from Thief River Falls Friday.

Why it's easy to keep Barreled Sunlight clean

BARRELED Sunlight is a white paint which produces a surface so smooth that dust or dirt—smudges or finger-marks — cannot "sink in." It can be kept clean as easily as white tile. A damp cloth will always wash it spotless.

Ideal for bathroom and kitchen walls and for woodwork everywhere. Costs less than enamel, requires fewer coats and is guaranteed to remain white longer.

Barreled Sunlight is easy to apply. It flows freely without a brushmark. Is readily tinted. Sold in cans from half-pint to five gallon size.

Mothers!
Give the children WRIGLEY'S after every meal

A prominent physician says:
"It is surprising how free from decay the teeth can be kept by using gum after each meal."

You know how hard it is to get the children to clean their teeth. By giving them WRIGLEY'S you not only reward them for cleaning their teeth, but the reward is actually the means of performing this important service!

WRIGLEY'S aids digestion too, and acts as an antiseptic wash for the mouth and throat. Several flavors—all of WRIGLEY quality.

Let Your Back Yard Provide Fresh Vegetables All Summer

START as early as the ground will permit with radishes and lettuce. Then plant some peas and beans. Eight or ten days later plant some more radishes and lettuce so they will be coming along while you enjoy the first lot. Next, sow beets, carrots, turnips, onions, followed by the vine crops—squash, cucumber, melons. And don't forget early, medium and late varieties of delicious Sweet Corn. By a little planning you can have fresh vegetables all through the summer—and enough to cold pack some for winter.

When you select your seeds, the smallest item of expense, guard your gardening efforts by choosing a branded line known to be reliable. Northrup, King & Co.'s Seeds have satisfied professional and amateur gardeners for 39 years. It is easy to select them from the Sterling Seed Boxes.

Surprise Party for Mrs. G. Nakken

About thirty ladies met at the home of Mrs. Gust Nakken last Wednesday afternoon in a surprise farewell party, for Mrs. Nakken who will leave the beginning of next month with her family for Hibbing where they will make their future home. The afternoon was delightfully spent socially. A beautiful silver set of knives and forks was given in remembrance and a dainty brought-along lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Johnson from Grand Forks motored here one day last week to visit at the Mrs. Julia Axelson home.

John Remmem drove to Norden last Friday where he remained until Saturday as a guest with Nels Nora.

State Inspector of Banks Jacob Riggs of Ada has spent all last week at this place, to examine the standing and papers of The Farmers State bank which suspended business last Monday. The bank will remain closed and in charge of a state appointed man for the time being at least, as the heavy withdrawal of money caused by the closing of the mother bank, The Merchants National Bank of Crookston, leaves insufficient funds here to legally conduct business. No blame is attributed to this bank for closing, as it was on a very strong financial footing, and there would have been no need of closing had it not unfortunately been affiliated with the Crookston institution.

An immigrant car for the George Klennert family from Crookston arrived on Saturday and was accompanied by Mr. Klennert. Mr. Gilbert Haugen whose farm the Klennerts will operate, arrived on Friday evening, and will remain here in the future. Farming operations will commence at once and a new residence will be erected this spring.

Mrs. Julia Axelson left last Thursday for Wannaska where she will remain until Sunday as a guest with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Jacobson and her sister, Mrs. O. H. Olson.

Emil Hellquist went to Warren on Monday morning for a day's business trip.

Mrs. Barney Peterson and baby of Thief River Falls visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Thoreson for a few days this week.

Steiner Johnson came home Wednesday evening from a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives in North Dakota and left the following day for Fosston where he will visit with his brother, John Johnson.

Mrs. Carl Stromberg from Dakota Junction spent Wednesday here to attend the surprise party for her sister, Mrs. Gust Nakken.

Ingrid Nordhagen spent a few days the first of the week visiting with Mrs. Johanne Nyhus at Thief River Falls.

Miss Helga Sorby of Fosston is visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson. Miss Sorby is a neice of Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Severt Benson and two sons of Thief River Falls motored here last Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Furan.

Thomas Jackson, a progressive political speaker from Newfolden, who spoke at one of our Farm club meetings last winter, will appear here again next Friday evening, April 4, at the Rosewood hall, and will lecture on subjects pertaining to his party.

The regular Farm club meeting will be held at the Rosewood hall next Saturday evening, April 5. Mayor Arneson from Thief River Falls will be present and will speak on the alfalfa subject. Eileen and Henry Arneson will furnish violin and piano music for the program.

Gust Nakken left last Saturday for Hibbing where he will investigate future possibilities. He may also go to Duluth, before his family leaves to join him.

About twenty guests were pleasantly entertained at a whist and dancing party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sagmoen last Saturday evening. A very merry evening was spent and terminated with the serving of lunch.

Mrs. Carl Nelson arrived on Sunday from Wannaska and will remain for a few days as a guest with her sister, Mrs. Julia Axelson. She also attended the monthly Rindal ladies aid at the latter's home on Tuesday.

Carl Ranum spent a few days of last week visiting with his brother in Roseau and with other friends.

Default having been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage made and executed by Edward Vasstrand, unmarried, Mortgagor, to W. B. Torgerson of Red Lake County, Minnesota, Mortgagee, which mortgage is bearing date the 2nd day of December, 1918, and which mortgage with the power of sale therein contained, was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Pennington, State of Minnesota on the 7th day of December, 1918, at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 57 of Mortgages on page 234 thereof, which said mortgage together with the debt thereby secured thereafter was duly assigned by said W. B. Torgerson, mortgagee to the Bank of Cambridge, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed, dated March 27th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 28th day of March, 1919 at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 80, and which mortgage with the debt secured thereby again thereafter was assigned by the said Bank of Cambridge, assignee, to A. J. Onsgard, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed and dated May 17th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 19th day of May, 1919 at 8 o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 93 thereof.

And, Whereas said default consists in the failure of the said mortgagor to pay the sum of One Thousand Dollars with accrued interest and the further sum of Three Hundred Twenty-eight and 88-100 in taxes which have necessarily been paid by said assignee, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of this notice the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars, said taxes included, and that no action or proceeding at law or otherwise having been instituted to recover the debt by said mortgage secured or any part thereof.

Now, Therefore, Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage above described will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit:

The South East Quarter (SE¼) of Section No. Thirty (30) in Township No. One Hundred Fifty-two (152) North, of Range No. Thirty-nine (39) West of the 5th P. M., in Minnesota, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) Acres according to U. S. Government survey thereof, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Pennington County, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Thief River Falls, in said County and State, on Saturday, the 19th day of April, 1924, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at public vendue to pay said debt of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars with interest from the date hereof together with an attorney's fee of fifty Dollars as stipulated in and by said mortgage, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of said sale as provided by law.

Dated March 1st, 1924.

The Tail Wags the Dog

THE MOTORIST buys gasoline at frequent intervals and pays cash for it, because the unit of purchase is small.

For this reason the price of gasoline is ever-present in his mind.

But, in fairness, the price of gasoline should be considered in relation to other fixed charges incident to the operation of his automobile.

Petroleum Age, in its issue of February 1, 1924, states that "reliable figures obtained in the study of the operation cost of automobiles in oil field service between July, 1922, and July, 1923, shows that the average cost per mile for cars ranging in price from $400.00 to $1,400.00 each was 10c. During that period approximately 22c per gallon was paid for gasoline."

Computing the average mileage at 15 miles per gallon it is shown that out of a mileage cost of 10c gasoline represented less than 1½c. In other words the 1½c wags the 8½c, and the 1½c covers the hazard of drilling and bringing the crude oil above ground—its transportation to the refinery—storage—refining—maintenance of the refineries—transporting of gasoline—bulk storage depots—delivery system, including tank wagons and service stations—cost of labor—and a fair and reasonable profit.

If the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and others engaged in the petroleum industry had not expended millions in experiment and research, which has resulted in taking from crude petroleum scores of other products, the present low price of gasoline could not be maintained. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana), because of its advanced work in refining petroleum, has been able to recover these other products without in any way affecting the quality of the gasoline.

In this way the operations of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) accrue to the advantage of the consumer in keeping the price of gasoline down to a point where the man of modest means can enjoy the pleasures of motoring without bearing a burdensome charge for fuel to propel his car.

Gasoline, in relation to the service it renders, is one of the cheapest commodities yet discovered.

THIEF RIVER FALLS BIDDING FOR STATE LEGION CONVENTION

Commercial Club Promises Support in Effort to Get 1925 Gathering Here

An invitation to Minnesota Legionaires to hold the annual 1925 state convention in Thief River Falls will be extended by Commander Oscar Smith and Adjutant Ole R. Sande of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion who left yesterday for Minneapolis to attend the conference of commanders and adjutants of posts thruout the state, which is held Friday and Saturday. Representatives of about 700 posts will convene at the Curtis hotel, where a series of important and interesting sessions will take place. All the district commanders are scheduled to speak, among them being Anton Yngve of Middle River, commander of the Ninth district. Addresses will also be given by the commanders of the Iowa and Wisconsin departments, and of the special discussions on department activities in the state is a talk on "Dollars and Sense" by Morlan Bishop of this city, chairman of the state finance committee.

At the regular noon luncheon last Thursday the Commercial club of the city officially went on record as favoring the movement of the local legion post to secure the 1925 state convention for Thief River Falls, and in a motion made by John Bratrud, former mayor, unanimously pledged its support in the event that the convention is landed. Commander Oscar Smith appeared before the club in behalf of the Eklund post stating that between 5,000 and 6,000 delegates may be expected to attend the state convention, which includes both the legion posts and auxiliaries, and that the united support of every person in the city is necessary in order to handle the affair should the invitation from Thief River Falls be accepted. The convention is of three days duration and that it would mean much to the city goes without saying.

History of Dairying in Minnesota

THE FIRST FARMERS

In the spring of 1820—104 years ago, Jean Baptiste, Faribault, brought cows from Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin, to Fort Snelling, making the journey by land. Fort Snelling was established in 1819, the year previous. This is the first historical record we have of cows being brot to Minnesota. They were brot not for farmers, but for soldiers.

In 1827 a number of Swiss families came from the Selkirk Colony in Canada, near what is now Winnipeg. They were permitted by Col. Snelling to settle on the Fort Reservation. An early historian, writing of this event states: "They opened farms, erected dwellings, and having brought cows with them, soon became prosperous and comfortable farmers."

We wish especially to call your attention to this statement of that early Historian—"They braught cows with them and soon became prosperous and comfortable farmers."

That same statement could be made with regard to some settlers in every section of Minnesota, and it is as true today as it was in the early years. Where farmers have cows and care for them intelligently, they soon become prosperous and comfortable.

These Swiss families from Canada were evidently the first community of farmers in Minnesota, and perhaps the first dairymen.

In our next issue we shall relate the experience of one of the first dairymen to come to the Red River Valley.

CORWIN DISCUSSES CO-OP. POULTRY-EGG MARKETING AT CLUB

Urges Formation of Local Ass'n to Handle County's Production of 40 Carloads

"Co-operative marketing of eggs and poultry will do for the producers what the co-operative creameries have done for the dairyman," was a statement by W. J. Corwin, associate editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, and organization manager of the poultry marketing campaign, who was the principal speaker at the Commercial club luncheon last Thursday.

The speaker emphasized the necessity of a co-operative organization of farmers and poultry producers in general for marketing purposes so as to get a greater return for poultry and eggs produced here. The plan of organizing the various communities and districts into local associations which will comprise the Minnesota Egg and Poultry Producers' Exchange was explained, the details of which are given in an article regarding the organization of an association in this district, appearing elsewhere in this issue.

Pennington county produced approximately 40 carloads of poultry and eggs last year, according to conservative estimates, Corwin stated, and indications are that this phase of the farming industry will be increased to a considerable extent in the future. An increase of 10 to 15 per cent in price over that now realized, brought about by the formation of a state selling agency employing expert salesmen in the same manner as the co-operative butter sales agency, would mean additional dollars to this community, the speaker maintained. Progress along this line in other sections of the state was cited, 23 districts already being organized or in the process of being formed.

A feature of the luncheon was a dish and a quart-can of Del Monte peaches for each one present, donated by the Thief River Grocery company.

Club Plans Food Sale

The Woman's Club, at their regular business meeting Monday afternoon, planned a food sale which will be held at the Oen Mercantile store Saturday, April 12th. The committee in charge of the sale is composed of the Mesdames J. Provencher, chairman; F. J. Stebbins, W. J. LaBree, L. Biederman and Ila Reynolds.

The meeting Monday was very well attended and the topic, "The Home Beautiful," which was conducted by Mrs. T. L. Melgaard, proved to be a very interesting and instructive one. The club was favored with two piano solos by Miss Lucille Hermanson, which were very well received.

Inspect Grafton Power Plant

Martin Evenson, president of the city council, H. A. Brumund and Oscar Rambeck, also members of the council body, made a trip to Grafton, N. D., last Thursday to inspect a 300 horse power Diesel engine of the Fairbanks-Morse make used by the flour mill at that place. The committee was not thoroughly satisfied with the workings of the plant, according to statements to a Times reporter. The aldermen will visit various plants in order to be in a better position to decide what kind of additional unit should be purchased for the present power plant.

Mabey Attends Funeral of Father, Civil War Veteran

Pearl W. Mabey, local attorney, returned Friday morning from Lake City, this state, where he was called by the death of his father, Joseph W. Mabey, who passed away March 22 as a result of heart disease from which he had been ailing for some time. Mr. Mabey, who was 78 years of age at the time of death, was a Civil war veteran and had been a resident of Wabasha county since 1887, having been identified with the business interests of the community as a merchant and livestock buyer. Mr. and Mrs. Mabey celebrated their golden wedding in 1915, Mrs. Mabey passing away in 1921. Deceased is survived by three sons and three daughters.

GREAT NOVEL WILL BE SEEN ON SCREEN

Picturization of "The Man Next Door" Deals With Wyoming Ranch Life

"The Man Next Door," by Emerson Hough, author of "The Covered Wagon," "North of 36," "54—40 or Fight," and "The Mississippi Bubble," will be shown at the Princess Theatre next Friday and Saturday.

This is one of the most famous of the long list of novels of American life by this popular writer. It deals with life on a great ranch in Wyoming, and tells the story of a motherless girl who is reared by hard-fisted cow punchers.

Bonnie Bell Wright is the daughter of the richest cattleman in the state, and the girl is petted and pampered but never spoiled by her indulgent father and Curly, the foreman of the Circle Arrow ranch. When the girl is sixteen, Old Man Wright sends her to a finishing school in the East, and upon her return the old cattleman believes that Bonnie Bell must have the luxuries of an eastern metropolis.

There Bonnie Bell learns that riches do not guarantee friendships, and it is the struggle of this girl to find happiness that makes "The Man Next Door" one of the most human comedy dramas offered on the screen.

The production is headed by David Torrence, Frank Sheridan, James Morrison and Alice Calhoun. David Torrence plays the old cattleman and Alice Calhoun his daughter, Bonnie Bell.

Why You Should Own An Automobile

Man's capital in the business of life is his time. His primary use of his capital is to buy space. From the primordial slime to this very hour, his life has been a matter of movement. Man must incessantly move himself and his goods from place to place. He must buy space with his time. The value of his time is measured in terms of space—miles per hour. His capital stock of time is limited to three score years and ten. With this limited capitalization he must ever bargain for more and more space. He is ever trying to increase the working power of his limited capital.

For ages man bought his space with the horse, whose four feet had a greater purchasing power than his two. He bought space with the currents of rivers and with the winds. He bred the horse to go faster and faster, built faster sailing ships, and thus slowly and laboriously added a meager mite to his little store. He discovered steam, and had his first big bargain at the space counter. His stock went soaring. He crowded steam faster and faster, gaining more and more of space, but it was qualified by rigid rails and vast expenditures of preliminary effort. His steam machine was master of the man. Man must still go with the machine on the machine's time. Even with the mile-a-minute locomotive, man's greatest movement was still with the horse at eight miles an hour.

Then came the automobile, and the price of space fell. As fast as the steam train, as mobile as the horse, the motor car increased man's capital of time manyfold. Man is master of this machine to use it when and where he will. Man began to move voluntarily with slow feet. He was one of the slowest of the vertebrata. But now he darts about the earth faster than the fastest.

If one be disposed to ponder over the details of life; to go back of the outward, immediate aspect of things, there is much more to an automobile show than an attractive marketing place.

Let any man look down at his two feet that can barely pace a yard at a time and then at these "seven league boots" that step by miles and let him consider how his time has been stretched and his space shrunken.

They are all of them, from skimpy flivver to luxurious limousine, the evidence of man's victory over his limited capital of time. They mark one of his greatest triumphs, the multiplication of his movements.

Which is but another way of saying that the automobile has lengthened his life.

VOLUME 14 Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota, Thursday, April 10, 1924 Number 10

MRS. HERRON IS AWARDED $7,500 BY HIGH COURT

State Supreme Court Holds Contractors Responsible For Death of Wm. Herron

CHOMMIE SECURES REVERSAL OF DECISION

Insurance Company Must Pay Claim Turned Down by State Industrial Commission

Mrs. Augusta Herron, widow of the late William Herron who died as a result of injuries received June 19, 1922, while hauling tile in the city, has been awarded a claim of $7,500 under the workman's compensation act, the state supreme court reversing the order of the industrial commission rendered April 2 last year, which was appealed from by Mrs. Herron, the final decision being pronounced by Chief Justice Samuel B. Wilson last Friday. The supreme court opinion was received here by Attorney H. O. Chommie, who represented Mrs. Herron in the case before the industrial commission and argued the matter before the supreme court on March 15. This is a signal victory for Mr. Chommie and speaks well for his ability in handling matters of this nature, having been successful in establishing a number of claims in the past.

Three Hearings

Herron at the time of the accident hauled tile for Coolsaet Brothers, a firm which contracted with the city to construct sewers, together with Alphonso Fontaine, each using his own team. Following the death of her husband Mrs. Herron brought a claim for the full amount under the compensation act.

The case was first tried before Referee Chas. S. Allbright who awarded the petitioner compensation in the amount of $7,500, the order for payment of this sum by the Maryland Casualty company, insurers, being issued in January, 1923. The insurance company appealed from this decision to the state industrial commission. A hearing was held before the commission, which reversed the referee's order awarding the compensation, this decision being rendered on April 2, 1923. The plaintiff, Mrs. Herron, then appealed to the state supreme court, securing a reversal of the commission's decision. Payment of the claim was resisted by the company on the ground that Herron, a teamster, was employed by a sub-contractor, Fontaine. The supreme court, however, holds that Herron was an employee of Coolsaet Brothers and his widow entitled to the award under the compensation law.

Weekly Allowances

In addition to the award of $7,500, which will be paid in weekly allowances, the court also holds: "The appellant herein is allowed $100 as attorney's fees incident to the proceeding in this court, which will be included in the judgment for an addition to the usual costs and disbursements taxed therein."

Mr. Herron at the time of his death was 70 years of age and had been a resident of Thief River Falls for 23 years.

UNCOLLECTED P. P. TAX LESS IN 1923 THAN YEAR BEFORE

Only 229 Delinquents this Year While 280 in 1923. A Favorable Indication

On April 5 this year there were only 229 delinquent personal property tax payers for 1923 assessments in Pennington county, compared to 280 at that time in 1923, according to figures submitted to The Times this week by John Gullingsrud, county treasurer. The list of delinquents has been turned over to the clerk of court, Adolf Eklund, who in turn places them in the hands of Sheriff Ole L. Ihle for collection.

The total unpaid personal property tax for 1923 last Saturday is given as $5,672.44, while last year the unpaid 1922 tax amounted to $7,361.50, or $1,678.96 more, according to the report.

The decrease in the number of delinquent taxpayers is encouraging and denotes that conditions must be changing for the better. "I see no other reason for the difference," said Treasurer Gullingsrud to a Times reporter yesterday.

Knox Pupils To Present Musical Program Apr. 25

The pupils of the first six grades of the knox school of Thief River Falls are arranging for a musical program to be given at the city auditorium on Friday evening, April 25.

With the splendid co-operation shown by all the teachers and the interest already shown by the pupils, the entertainment will no doubt draw a capacity house, as a large number of families are directly interested in the success of the program, which will consist of songs, dances, drills, a playlet and a musical operetta. A feautre of the program will be the first appearance of the second and third grade orchestra.

Work on T.R.F.-St. Hilaire Road to Start Soon. Surveyors in Charge Arrive Here

E. S. Rankin of Mahnomen, civil engineer, and N. Bolstad, rodman, have established headquarters here while taking charge of the construction on the Thief River Falls-St. Hilaire road, known as project 32-24, on which work will be started by Contractor A. T. Crown of this city as soon as the weather permits. Mr. Crown expects to employ three crews and work will be pushed as rapidly as possible, insuring a speedy completion of this stretch of the Jefferson Highway which has been in poor condition during the past couple of years.

Surveying for the new road, which will eliminate railroad crossings between this city and St. Hilaire, was completed last fall. The project is made possible thru the county reimbursement bond plan and is under the direction of the state highway department.

POWER PROBLEM IS AGAIN CONSIDERED BY CITY ALDERMEN

Representatives of Midland Co., Discuss Power Proposition At Session Tuesday

The question of bringing high power wires into this city for the purpose of supplying additional light and power was again brought to the attention of the city council at its Tuesday meeting by Mr. Schreiter of Red Lake Falls, who on several occasions has tried to have the city take over the local dam. Mr. Schreiter stated that the owners had been approached by certain interests who were at present negotiating for the dam with a view of securing additional power in this section. He introduced L. M. Bartlett and M. R. White of Minneapolis.

Mr. Bartlett stated that they were representing the Midland Power company of Bemidji and Cass Lake, which supplied not only these two places but intermediary points, and had already taken in certain territory this side of Bemidji, running a lne as far as Terrebone, and that they intended this summer to come north with it to Oklee and Plummer. It would then be an easy matter to come on up to Hazel and Thief River Falls.

From here a line would run south to St. Hilaire and connect with the one from Red Lake Falls, thus insuring this city against all probable loss of power in case of some unforseen accident to their plants. This would give them power facilities at Grand Forks, Crookston, Red Lake Falls, Thief River Falls, Bemidji and Cass Lake, the lines forming a complete loop.

Mr. White stated that the company would be glad to furnish electricity at a rate which would prove profitable to the city, and the two gentlemen believed that Thief River Falls would be able to show a profit of not less than $40,000 annually if the city should take all of its electricity from their company.

It would probably take two years before the entire water rights here would be developed if the Midland company came into this city, the company maintaining the present equipment during the meantime and caring for the peak load thru outside current. He stated that a high line service, plus water power, should make a good proposition for any city.

Alderman H. A. Brumund stated that other high power representatives had been before the council in the past four years but that none had ever brought in a definite offer of what they would furnish rates at. The council, he stated, was only too glad to have figures submitted so they could be guided as to what action they would take.

Supt. of Water and Light Ole Legvold stated that at times 100 extra kilowatts would be needed during the winter months next winter, especially from 5 m. till 9 p. m.

H. W. Protzeller stated that he believed the council should ask for figures on power in units of 10,000 k.w. hours up to 200,000, and also a rate on a still greater amount. This the outsiders agreed to furnish and they left the meeting with the intention of returning at the next regular meeting, April 22, with a definite proposition. It would take, they stated, from 90 to 100 days to bring in high service if they were awarded a contract, but that would be sufficient time for the heavy load next fall and winter.

The aldermen thought that even with a proposition from an outside company for electricity that they should not overlook the possibility of this not being an accomplished fact and that the present power supply should be further augmented by additional unit at the power house. Accordingly the city clerk was authorized to advertise for bid on a 300 or 500 horse power engine, with direct current generator attached, said bids to be for delivery and complete erection thereof. It is hoped to have this additional unit installed by Nov. 1 at the latest.

The aldermen making the trip to Grafton, N. D., two weeks ago were not favorably impressed with the type of engine shown them at that place and prefer to see other installations before changing from the type now in use here.

Rev. Sweger Returns To Resume Work in This City

Rev. T. E. Sweger, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church of this city, who has been working on the budget fund of the Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast districts the past two months, returned to this city last Thursday to resume his duties as pastor until June, when he takes up the work in the west permanently.

While the congregation has been fortunate enough to get pastors to conduct divine services all but two Sundays, it has felt the absence of its pastor in more ways than one and are glad to have him with them again.

CO-OP. POULTRY ASS'N. MEETING IN CITY TODAY

Producers of Thief River Valley to Sell Eggs and Poultry Co-operatively

AIM TO SECURE MEMBERSHIP OF 1,000 IN DIST.

Greater Returns Promised Producers Who Sign Contract. T. R. F. Headquarters

Poultry and egg producers of Pennington, Red Lake, Marshall, Kittson and Roseau counties meet at the Commercial club rooms in this city this afternoon to sign membership agreements in the Thief River Falls Poultry Producers association, formed two weeks ago when a representative committee of producers met here to launch a co-operative marketing association. W. J. Corwin, associate editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, who is serving as organization manager of the poultry marketing campaign in Minnesota, spoke before the poultry men at the first gathering March 29 when a tentative organization with Olaf Neset as chairman and H. L. Schuster, as secretary, was formed, and is also in the city today to help the committee getting the enterprise started and explaining the details of the new district association, as well as the proposed state association, which will be perfected as soon as a sufficient number of districts are organized.

The district association is organized under the Minnesota state law, the co-operative marketing act of 1923, the producer agreeing to pay a $3.00 membership fee and to sell all his surplus poultry and eggs, except what he uses or sells for hatching, for breeding stocks or sales direct to a consumer, thru his own association. Contracts cover a period of five years.

To Get 1000 Members

The Thief River Valley association will not start operating until a membership of 1000 has been obtained so as to assure a large volume of business. Delegations from the various parts of the district sign up today and will return to their respective communities to secure members among their neighbors. The local association expects to handle about 32 carloads of eggs and poultry during the year.

Thief River Falls has been selected as the most centrally located point for a buying and shipping station in the district. It is planned to establish sub-stations in the following other towns in the valley: East—Mavie, Goodridge and Grygla; north—Holt, Middle River, Strathcona, Greenbush, Badger and Roseau; northwest—Newfolden, Strandquist, Karlstad, Bronson and Halma; west—Viking and Newfolden; south—Hazel, Plummer,

TRINITY CHOIR TO RENDER CANTATA

Dr. Vistaunet to Present Grand Cantata by 30 Local People Good-Friday Evening

Thief River Falls residents will have the privilege of hearing the grand cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by the Trinity church choir and other vocal artists of the city Good Friday evening. About thirty local people will partake in the event, under the direction of Dr. P. L. Vistaunet in one of the most beautiful cantatas of solo, chorus and piano. The place has not yet been definitely decided on. It was originally to have been held in the Trinity church but for the benefit of all who care for music, it may be given in the city auditorium. "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Dubysbois, is also written for orchestration and both are well received wherever they are presented. Further announcements will appear in the next issue of The Times.

County Calls For Bids On Road Work East of Hazel; To Complete Gravel Loop

Plans for the construction and completion of state road No. 1, east of Hazel, have been approved by the highway department and received at the office of the county engineer, Bert F. Umland, and a notice for bids for this project appear in this issue of The Times.

The project involves the construction of four miles of present high ditch grade. The reshaping of an additional four miles of that road which is contemplated, will mean the completion of a gravel surfaced road from Thief River Falls to Highlanding, either by the north or south route.

Money available for road purposes in the county total approximately $50,000, of which $30,000 is the regular county levy and the remaining $20,000 state aid. About 35 per cent of the road money is figured for maintenance and a portion will be used to retire road bonds. Last year about $80,000 was spent for roads in the county, but a retrenchment in expenditures was deemed advisable this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Provencher and daughter, Josephine, returned to this city Thursday from Minneapolis, where Mr. Provencher has been employed at the West Hotel the past year. He will now have charge as chef at the Hotel Evelyn, operated by his father, J. Provencher. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Provencher will be glad to know that they will again take up residence in this city.

"Building For Eternity" is Topic of Series of Sermons

"Building for Eternity" is the subject of a series of sermons to be delivered by Rev. E. H. Kreidt at the St. John's Lutheran church every evening except Saturday during Holy Week, April 14th to April 20th. The subject will be treated in six stages, "The Plan," "The Builders," "Counting the Cost," "The House Beautiful," "The Cornerstone," and "The Assurance of Success." The sessions will begin promptly at eight o'clock as announced elsewhere in this issue.

Being conducted during the week before Easter, as they are, makes the meetings the more timely and will no doubt be attended by large numbers from all congregations. The sermons show the process of preparing for the next world, for Eternity; how closely it resembles that of building a material construction; how a definite plan must always be the motive for doing; the selection of the field of endeavor; the price that must necessarily be paid for the effort and the final object realized.

SOO MAY HAVE NIGHT TRAINS THROUGH CITY

Duluth to Winnipeg Train Service Through Here Is Strongly Recommended

MEETING AT DULUTH FAVORS PROPOSITION

New Service Would Afford Night Train With First Class Accommodations

Inauguration of night train service between Duluth and Winnipeg thru Thief River Falls and Bemidji by the Soo railway is now a strong possibility, according to the following article appearing in the Bemidji Pioneer last week:

"At a meeting in Duluth March 28 attended by members of the Duluth Chamber of Commerce and Soo line officials, it was recommended strongly that a through train connecting with the Chicago service at Duluth and connecting with the Canadian Pacific service at Winnipeg, making a continental train service from Chicago to Vancouver be established via Bemidji.

"If established this would likely be a night train and would be of great benefit to all travelers east and west of Bemidji as well as through passengers. The project was highly recommended and if it can be secured, the service will be tried out for four months beginning June 1, according to J. J. Pearce, Bemidji passenger agent for the Soo Line and Northern Pacific.

Prospects Favorable

"No definite arrangements have been made as yet, but the outlook is very good for the establishment of this service, Mr. Pearce reports.

"This service would consist of an all-steel train, the best the Soo Line can put on, with sleeping car service and operated entirely as an extra train, in addition to the service already given by this road, which at the present time operates no night train between Duluth and Thief River Falls. The new service would be from Duluth to Winnipeg by way of Bemidji and Thief River Falls."

W. A. Barnard, superintendent of the local division of the Soo line with offices in this city, stated to a Times representative in an interview this week that he had no information in regard to the matter, no announcement having been received by officials here.

Aldermen Approve Purchase of O. Knutson Property For Use as Poor Farm in T. R. F.

The Ole Knutson property, consisting of six lots, a two story house and small barn, on the southwest corner of First and Rinney, was purchased by the city council Tuesday night for a city poor farm, on recommendation of the poor committee, which had made careful examination of various sites offered since it became public the first of the year that such a step was in contemplation. The consideration price was $3,000 and is considered a reasonable one.

The choice Tuesday night was between the above mentioned property and the S. M. Poston farm just north of town on Main avenue, the Dennis Connelly farm just outside the city limits a short distance, and the Ole Isaacson property on Fefevre avenue just southeast of the round house, prices on which ran from a minimum of $2,000 to $4,500. The various members of the council had previously inspected the places mentioned so all were acquainted with the proposition when it came to purchase.

Mayor J. S. Arneson spoke in favor of a slightly larger tract of land and outside of the limits so that as the city grew and also the number of inmates that the place could be made self supporting. He was supported in this idea by Daniel Shaw but the aldermen thought otherwise.

The poor committee thru its chairman, T. Fossum, stated that at present there are only four city inmates and two from the town of North. Two of these city inmates expect to leave shortly and the other two are too old and feeble to do any manual farming. Accordingly, the small garden tract in connection with the house and lot will be all that can be cared for, and should provide quite a little garden truck for summer and winter use.

Carload of Cars Arrive

A second carload of Chevrolet motor cars were shipped to this city this week by Kohn and Fiterman, arriving Monday.

SPLENDID SIRE ADDED TO LOCAL GUERNSEY HERDS

Pennington Dairymen Purchase Yearling From Noted Brookmead Farm in Pa.

IMPORTANT STEP IN DAIRY DEVELOPMENT

"Brookmead's Pennington" Comes From Best Purebred Guernseys in Country

Pennington county dairymen have not only gained a well earned reputation for having a high grade of blooded stock but are continuing to introduce the best blood of the country into their herds. A group of Guernsey farmers, H. C. Woolson, Stuart McLeod, Osmund Urdahl and son Noble Urdahl received a one year old Guernsey sire from the famous Brookmead Farm at Devon, near Philadelphia, Pa., Friday. With dairying as one of the prime factors of development in this section, this is undoubtedly one of the biggest things done in a progressive way for the advancement of the better livestock movement.

From Prominent Herd

The young animal, Brookmead's Pennington, is a son of Langwater Master Fred, a son of Langwater Warrior, known as the greatest Guernsey sire living. The young sire's dam is Brookmeads Deannie, now on test and making a big record. She is a sister of Langwater Steadfast, a sire who two years ago sold for $25,000 and whose daughter holds the world's butterfat production record. The seven nearest dams of Brookmead's Pennington are all in the 700 pound butterfat production class which is evidence of the strength of the strain.

Eliminating Scrubs

The animal was bought on a four share plan, one share being the prize awarded to Noble Urdahl by The Tribune in their recent better sire campaign. He will make one of the best herd sires in the state if he proves to be characteristic of the strain from which he comes, and the owners may well pride themselves on the selection. Practice has proven that under the best of conditions the scrub cow is limited to a maximum production that scarcely pays for her upkeep, to say nothing of a profit to the farmer.

The Guernsey, as a breed, has also proved itself to be one of the most profitable for this section. Many of the best herds of the county are Guernsey herds and records show that feeding and care considered, the Guernsey is a close competitor to any breed tried here.

The animal was shipped here by express, arriving in this city Friday, and was taken to the Woolson farm in Silverton township.

MANY PARENTS HEAR PROF YODER MONDAY

Interesting Lecture by N. Dak. Educator at Meeting of Parent-Teachers Association

It would be a great thing if every boy of adolescent age could spend a year or two on the farm as a part of his education, declared Prof. A. H. Yoder, of the University of North Dakota, who spoke before the Parent-Teachers association meeting Monday evening at the high school auditorium. The boy in the city is deprived of the natural training that the country boy receives as the result of having to do things on his own initiative and responsibility, he said. Prof. Yoder explained that the Parent-Teachers organization was the largest in history. Its purpose is to stand behind the public schools in their work of educating the youth of the land and also to make the town a good place for boys and girls to grow up in. One of the first things to think about for the welfare of the child is to see that he has a good body which can be secured only through judicious exercise, plain food and right living. A strong mind is as necessary as a strong body and mental training acquired in the public schools is an important factor in its development. Prof. Yoder illustrated his talk with a good many interesting stories which very effectively brought out the points he desired to impress upon his audience.

A framed picture entitled "Song of the Lark" was awarded to the school having the best representation of parents at the meeting and was won by the Central school.

Musical numbers consisting of vocal duets by the Misses Isabel Richter and Liv Vistaunet and violin duets by Gordon Overland and Justus Larson were very well received.

This meeting brought to a close the membership campaign and the division represented by Mrs. E. J. Richards was announced the winner, having added 66 new members. The losing division headed by Mrs. E. O. Mogensen, added 35 new members, will have complete charge of the program and entertainment for the next meeting which will be held the first part of May.

Banks Reopening

The first bank to be reopened thru assistance of funds advanced by the Agricultural Credit Corporation was the State Bank of Wales, N. D., which resumed business March. The Harriet State Bank, Lake Harriet, Minneapolis, also reopened that day under auspices condition, the stock now being held by residents of the district. Early reopening of the Merchants National Bank at Crookston is predicted.

Henry Clark To Read "The Fool" at the Presbyterian Church Tuesday, April 22

Tuesday, April 22, is the date on which Henry Clark, nationally known reader and entertainer, will appear in Thief River Falls under the auspices of the ladies' organization of the Presbyterian church, announces Mrs. J. M. Bishop, president of the society.

Mr. Clark will give a reading of a complete play, "The Fool" by Channing Pollock, a production which is scored as one of the very best. It is particularly interesting as it deals with present day problems. The reading will be given at the Presbyterian church and it is expected that it will be filled to capacity.

Elks Install Officers

The local order of the B. P. O. E. held its annual installation of officers at the club rooms Friday. W. W. Prichard, Jr., succeeds G. W. Connell as exalted ruler.

MANY MATTERS ARE TAKEN UP BY CITY ALDERMEN TUESDAY

Longest Session Since Organization of New Council. Lasts Until 1 O'clock

The longest session of the new city council was held Tuesday night when all members were present and adjournment not being taken till nearly one o'clock Wednesday morning, there having been an exceptionally large amount of business arising for careful consideration at the first meeting for April, showing that the aldermen are desirous of serving their constituents to the best of their ability.

The matter of additional power units and outside power will also be found to have been carefully considered by the aldermen, all of whom were present, and which is written up completely elsewhere in this issue. Monthly reports came in for careful scrutiny and these are deemed of such importance that they are elaborated upon to quite an extent in another article.

Two requests each for milk licenses, dance permits, and building permits, were received and duly granted after proper approval had been given by the proper authorities. S. C. Schuster and Hans Sahl were granted permission to sell milk; the Peterson-Biddick Co., and J. O. Yotter were granted building permits, the former for their new produce warehouse at an estimated cost of $8,000 and the latter for remodeling a barn into a garage for $300; and the Eklund Post of the American Legion for an Easter dance, Monday night, April 21, in the auditorium, and Phil Zeh for eight dances per month for a period of six months.

Several residents in the neighborhood of the city incinerator filed a complaint with the council and asking for its removal on the grounds that it is unhealthy and unsanitary. Before taking any action thereon the council will carefully investigate the claims made and may decide to repair the present plant.

A dog catcher was again provided for, John Meyers being named for this position for this year, and all owners of dogs better beware the official whose duty it is to collect the required fee.

Prices to be charged for the use of the auditorium in the future were tentatively submitted to the council by the building committee, to whom they were referred back for further correction. Twenty dollars a night for home talent plays was suggested by the committee, while outsiders would have to pay $30, unless it was a stock company or some other organization taking the auditorium for six nights in a week when the rate would be only $20 a night. This, however, would not include a license fee provided for in the city ordinance for transient merchants. The American Legion would also be granted a rate for not more than six dances in a year at a rental of $12.50 per night. Rates for churches and political organizations will also be worked out before the next meeting of the council.

An ordinance to amend the present one relating to light and power rates, especially as regards users living outside the city limits was given its first reading. The ordinance follows the lines as given in The Times two weeks ago following the regular council meeting, in which the outsiders pay 15 per cent extra.

It was nearly one o'clock when adjournment was taken following the adoption of a resolution allowing the customary monthly grist of bills.

It is expected that Mayor J. S. Arneson will on Saturday issue an order to the police department regarding the playing of cards in the various pool halls and soft drink places on Sundays hereafter, as was sensed from remarks he made before the council at its regular meeting Tuesday night.

The mayor stated that he had conferred with the various proprietors of the establishments where cards were being played and that he had met with hearty response generally from these men, who like himself wished to do the proper thing. It was pointed out that there was no wilfull attempt at law violation, but that the patrons of these places had been in the habit of frequenting the rooms to pass away the time in a pleasant manner.

Rather than see the card playing stopped althogether during the entire week as was intimated in some sources the mayor thought it best to cut it out at least from one o'clock Sunday afternoons till supper time, and if there was still a bad feeling in the matter then it might be best to abandon the privilege all day Sundays.

Representative citizens and some of the aldermen agreed with the mayor believing that with the present stringency of the times that it would be unwise to place a hardship on the businesses interested.

COUNTY BOARD HOLDS SPRING MEETING WED

Taxes on Five Church Parsonages in City for 1923 Cancelled by Commissioners

STATE ROAD THROUGH DEER PARK DESIGNATED

Road Maintenance Work Outlined and Plans Considered for Enlarging Court House

Pennington county's board of commissioners held a busy session in County Auditor T. P. Anderson's office in the court house Wednesday of last week with all members present.

The application of the Methodist, Trinity Lutheran, St. John's Lutheran, Presbyterian and St. Bernard's Catholic congregations of the city for cancellation of the 1923 taxes on parsonages maintained by the churches, were considered and approved by the commissioners.

On January 19, 1924 the Minnesota supreme court, in the case of State of Minnesota vs. Church of Incarnation of Minneapolis, rendered an opinion holding that under the constitution as amended in 1906, a parsonage owned and maintained by a church organization as a residence free of charge, is exempt from taxation.

Designate State Road

On petition of Deer Park residents the county board designated as state road 12 miles beginning at the northeast corner of section 23 in Mayfield township, thru Deer Park township due east to the northeast corner of section 20 in Hickory township and thence three miles south to the county line, to connect up with the Trail road. The matter must be approved by the state highway department before it becomes established.

Balance $120,461

Pennington county had on deposit in banks of the county on Feb. 29, a balance of $120,461.19, according to the verification of current tax collections for the period from Nov. 1 to Feb. 29 by the board of audit, which was approved. The county treasurer was charged with a total tax levy for 1923 of $498,317.56. Taxes collected were given as $58,872.63 and taxes abated $854.47, making a total credit of $59,727.10 during the period. The total receipts of the treasurer in that time according to the report, were $338,095.16, of which $101,507.03 was derived from tax collections, $4,097.60 in school apportionment, $4,833.40 in state road aid and $32,083.50 in state aid for schools. The total disbursements were $217,638.97. The balance tax uncollected March 1 was given as $438,590.46, the greater share of which will be paid in the June settlement, only the personal property tax being collected in March.

Approve Maintenance Program

The road maintenance program submitted by Bert F. Umland, county highway engineer, was approved and the engineer instructed to proceed in carrying out the proposed plans. The program calls for the employment of six full-time road patrolmen and eight part-time men. Those who will devote their entire time in maintaining state aid roads of the county are: John Hegreness, No. 2; Iver Solheim,

GREAT SIRE ADDED TO GUERNSEY HERD BY LOCAL BREEDER

F. B. Conklin Purchases Grandson of National Grand Champion to Strengthen Herd

F. B. Conklin, prominent dairyman near Thief River Falls, has again made a big addition to his herd of Guernseys in securing "Itasca Cherub's Dot," a son of Dot Cherub, who is a son of Lady Smith's Cherub, three times national grand champion and out of Pearl's Dot, world's second cow in production in class A A, from the A. L. Sheldon farm at Grand Rapids. The animal's dam is also the daughter of a young cow on test and making a big record in class D D. Dot Cherub, Sheldon's herd sire, is also at the Conklin farm for a short time.

With the outsanding herd of Guernseys which Mr. Conklin now has and the addition of a herd sire of the quality of "Itasca Cherub's Dot" he will have a herd of cattle that far exceeds any of his earlier expectations.

The best record made by a cow in class E was made by Lady Bruce of Clovercrest in a test closing in the early part of 1923 when she was only three years old and produced 712 pounds of butterfat in one year. She was purchased at a dispersal sale here from the herd of L. Jensen of Clearbrook at $240 but has proven herself worth many times that sum to her present owner. She is now on test in class C. She had made 650 pounds of butterfat by the first of April with 60 days to complete the test. Last month her butterfat production was 67 pounds. Pearl's Dot formerly held the record in Class E.

Another cow, "Ciba Pearl," is now on official test and is expected to exceed the 600 pound mark.

O. H. Nelson, proprietor of the grocery store on Sixth street, who broke his leg six weeks ago, left the Physicians hospital Monday, having been confined there since the time of the accident. He is improving nicely and is now walking around with the aid of crutches, but will be laid up for three four weeks more, according to the attending physician.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Woman's Club To Observe "Garden Week" at Meeting

The next regular meeting of the Woman's club will be held Monday afternoon, April 14, at 3 o'clock, in the Commercial club rooms. Garden Week will be observed at this meeting, a committee composed of Mrs. E. E. Zeh and Mrs. L. G. Larsen in charge. Mrs. Anna Kretzschmar is hostess for the social hour. A vocal solo will be given by Mrs. F. L. Christenson and an instrumental selection by Miss Elsie Vorseth.

The public is again reminded of the food sale under the auspices of the club which will take place at the Empire Farm Lands office on Main avenue, Saturday, April 12. Members of the Girls' Community club will make candy for this sale.

70th Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Augusta Brown, a resident of this city the past 32 years, celebrated her 70th birthday anniversary at her home at 211 Conley avenue south on Friday when she was hostess to a large number of relatives and friends. Dinner was served at six o'clock and a hugh birthday cake decorated with candles featured the meal. The evening hours were spent in a social way. Mrs. Brown was presented with many gifts. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Langseth and family; Mrs. Herbert Fuller and children; Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Myhrum and children; Mrs. Nils Anton and son, Mrs. Amelia Kuehne and Miss Laura Brown.

Hussey-Johnson

Miss Martha P. Hussey and Phyll E. Johnson of Winnipeg, citizens of this country, were married at the municipal court rooms Monday.

Rebekah Meeting

A regular meeting of the Lyon Rebekah lodge No. 69 will be held on Thursday evening. New members will be initiated and lunch served during the course of the evening. All members are urged to attend.

For Mrs. Bergstrom

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wassgren was the scene of a party in compliment to Mrs. John Bergstorm of Federal Dam, formerly of this city, Friday when Mrs. Wassgren entertained a number of friends. The evening hours were spent at progressive whist, played at three tables. At 11:30 a lunch was served by the hostess. Twelve guests were present. Mrs. Bergstrom was accompanied to this city by her three children, Lloyd, Milton and Whilma.

Kaushagen-Williams

Miss Lena Kaushagen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kaushagen residing five miles east of this city, and Henry Williams were married at the Swedish Lutheran parsonage Saturday, March 29. The Rev. Albin A. Larson performed the ceremony in the presence of Miss Margaret Kaushagen, a sister of the bride, and Clarence Williams, a brother of the groom.

The parents of the bride gave a reception at their home for the young couple and a large number of relatives and friends were present. The newlyweds will make their home on a farm 7 miles northeast of this city.

Woman's Club Food Sale

The Food Sale which is being held by the Woman's club this week as announced last week will be held at the office of the Empire Farms Co., Saturday afternoon beginning at one o'clock. Food and candy will be sold and in addition lunches will be served all afternoon.

Easter Apron Sale

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will hold an "Easter Apron Sale" Tuesday, April 15, at the church parlors. The sale will start shortly after noon and continue until evening. Seventy-five aprons will be on display to choose from. In addition to the aprons, lunch, Easter eggs and home made candy will be on sale. It is expected there will be keen competition for the aprons and no doubt many will gather early.

Attend Paderewski Concert

The Misses Mildred Engen and Elfrida Knudsen and Dreng Bjornaraa and Harold Nelson of the Times staff motored to Grand Forks Tuesday to attend the Paderewski concert which was held at the city auditorium there in connection with the three day music festival which is being held by the Federation of Music Clubs of North Dakota Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The great master carried the entire evening's program, which was attended by a large and appreciative audience.

Mayor and Mrs. Arneson are Honored on Silver Wedding Anniversary Last Evening

The Sons of Norway hall was the scene of one of the most enjoyable and prettily appointed social events of the season last evening when Mayor and Mrs. J. S. Arneson were honor guests at a reception sponsored by the Snorre lodge in commemoration of their 25th wedding anniversary in the form of a surprise. About 300 citizens of Thief River Falls were gathered to honor the popular couple.

Supt. I. T. Simley as master of ceremonies called upon Rev. Chas. Gerlinger and Rev. T. E. Sweger, both of whom extended congratulations and good wishes to the honored pair, speaking in high terms of the work of the mayor since his coming to this city and expressed the esteem in which he and his bride are held by their many friends. A complete set of sterling silver was fittingly presented the honored guests by Dr. O. F. Mellby, to which Mr. Arneson responded in his characteristic manner. Brief toasts were given by Theo. Quale, Geo. Wilson, Bernhard Knudsen, president of the Sons of Norway lodge, H. S. Dahlen and Dr. H. W. Froehlich. A vocal solo was given by Mrs. O. F. Mellby with H. O. Chommie at the piano and a violin solo by Henry Arneson, accompanied by his sister, Eileen.

Following the program a splendid lunch was served and a social time enjoyed.

Present at the affair last evening were the mother of the bride and also the mother of the groom.

Legion Auxiliary Meet

The Legion Auxiliary will hold a regular business meeting at the club rooms Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

ELKS OF CITY HEAR NATIONAL OFFICIALS OF ORDER THURSDAY

Delegation of 30 Go To Crookston to Hear Grand Exalted Ruler McFarland

Seven hundred jolly Elks of the Red River Valley last Thursday night heard Grand Exalted Ruler James G. McFarland of Watertown, S. D., give one of the most inspiring addresses ever delivered in this section at the annual round-up of Lodge No. 342 in Crookston. A party of thirty members of the antlered tribe from this city and a number of other members of the Thief River Falls lodge from surrounding towns motored to Crookston to hear the highest officer of Elkdom. They are all unanimous in their expressions of highest praise for the royal treatment by the Crookston lodge and vote it one of the most enjoyable events of their life.

Commencing with an elk meat banquet at 6:30, followed by the initiation of 12 new Elks, the round-up was brought to a successful close by a vaudeville program, which followed the address by Grand Exalted Ruler McFarland.

Mr. McFarland's address was characterized as one of the finest ever delivered in the Crookston lodge rooms. Following his tribute to the local order, Mr. McFarland told of his visits to scores of lodges thruout the country and the splendid growth of the order. True Americanism was never needed more than now, he declared, for not even during the trying days of the war were there as many forces working to tear down the structure of democratic government.

PRESBYTERIAN MEN FORM ORGANIZATION

Constitution Adopted and Officers Elected at Supper at Church Parlors Friday

The men of the Presbyterian church Friday, March 28, organized what is to be known as the "Men's Club of the Presbyterian Church." The purpose of this club is to promote fellowship among the men, to provide avenues of service to the church and community. This group of men has been meeting once a month during this winter and there has been much discussion of the proposed organization.

The club adopted the constitution submitted by the committee of which Lester Guss was chairman. The officers elected are: President, O. R. Sande; vice president, L. R. Johnston; secretary, George M. Wilson; treasurer, F. F. Haynes. Further chairmen will be appointed to head up the committees on public meeting, Bible study, community service, missionary service, and other branches, such as boy's work.

Bible study is taken care of by the Men's Bible class which meets at 9:45 Sunday morning of which Bert Umland, Sr., was elected president and Geo. M. Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

Boy's work is done under the Boy Scout organization with Dr. H. W. Froehlich, L. R. Roberts and G. M. Wilson as troop committee. Mr. Gerlinger is acting as scoutmaster. The charter has recently been granted this troop by National headquarters and will be known as Troop 3 of the Boy Scouts of Thief River Falls. The troop is planning a summer camp immediately at the close of the public schools.

The Men's club will hold one more meeting this spring, the last Friday in April, at which there will be a fellowship supper and discussions on questions vital to the interests of the men.

The Club has offered to serve a banquet to the mothers and daughters of the congregation some time during May.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Thief River Falls, Minnesota

A regular meeting of the City Council was called to order by M. V. Evenson, President, at eight o'clock P. M., Tuesday, March 25th, 1924.

Roll Call: All members present.

Minutes of the meeting of March 11th were read and approved as read.

Alderman Brumund introduced a motion that permission be granted to Ole Helgeland to move the frame building situate on Lots 1 and 2 of Block 22 of the Original Townsite, through the streets of the city to his farm east of town, on condition that a bond in the amount of $1,000.00 be furnished according to the provisions of Ordinance No. 31 and, that an additional cash deposit of $50.00 be made to defray any expense on the part of the city in connection with the moving; the unexpended amount of same to be refunded. The motion was seconded by Alderman Porter and duly carried.

Superintendent Sholey of the Schools appeared before the council with regard to securing dates for school exercises. Motion was made by Paulson, seconded by Rambeck and duly carried that the schools be given the use of the auditorium without charge for the following dates: April 4th, High School Operetta; May 9th, Senior Class Play; May 18th, Graduation Exercises; May 23rd, Commencement Exercises.

Motion was made by Brumund, seconded by Fossum that the application of Chas Alexander for transfer of Refreshment License from O. L. Munson to Alexander and Son be granted. Carried.

Motion was made by Fossum, seconded by Rambeck, and duly carried that the Mayor's appointment of John Q. Cronkhite as a member of the Cemetery Commission to succeed himself, term to expire on Jan. 1st, 1929, be approved.

Motion was made by Porter, seconded by Paulson, that a refreshment license as defined by Ordinance No. 168, be granted to A. H. Bakke, place of business being at No. 314 Main Avenue North. Roll Call on motion: Aldermen voting in favor of license: Fossum, Porter, Brumund, Rambeck, Evenson, Paulson, against license: None. Motion declared carried.

Alderman Porter introduced an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Prohibit the manufacture, sale or disposition, or the transportation of, or the keeping or having in possession for sale or disposition or transportation, or the solicitating, receiving or taking any order for intoxicating liquor, except for certain purposes and to regulate the manufacture, sale, disposition, transportation, possession and use of intoxicating liquor for such purposes and to provide for the enforcement of such prohibition; to define terms and prescribe penalties for violation" and moved that the proposed ordinance be given its first reading. The motion was seconded by Alderman Brumund and the proposed ordinance was duly read and filed.

Moved by Rambeck, seconded by Brumund, that the Depository Bond of the First and Peoples State Bank be accepted. Carried.

The Committee on Electric Light and Waterworks recommended a change in the rates to be charged for electric light service and power service and a change in the minimum rates to be charged for power. A motion was introduced by Alderman Brumund, seconded by Alderman Fossum, and duly carried that the recommendation be approved and that the city attorney be instructed to draw up an ordinance amending the existing ordinance for the next regular meeting.

Moved by Brumund seconded by Paulson, that the matter of guy wires of electric light poles be referred to the Committee on Electric Light and Waterworks. carried.

On motion the council adjourned.

Whose Advice Are You Going to Take?

Choosing a motor oil is a matter of following advice. Unless you are technically trained and have complete laboratory facilities, you cannot safely choose for yourself, because lubrication is as technical as is medicine or law.

You cannot see the quality in oil. Only the petroleum chemist can say which oil is right. There is one right oil for your car. How are you going to know? By following the advice of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) highly trained experts. Thousands of motorists in the Middle West have done this and are using These motorists are convinced that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) knows how to make a good motor oil and experience has proved that their confidence is well-grounded.

Buying lubrication from the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is like buying expert legal talent or medical advice. You are buying the best scientific knowledge of its kind.

Even refiners use Polarine — one of them writes he finds it cheapest and best. He says, "and I formerly refined petroleum for seven years; I know good gasoline and good oil."

Polarine will keep your engine in first-class condition — give longer life to your motor—more mileage from your gas—reduce carbon deposit and repair bills.

Polarine retains its body under varying working conditions and distributes freely to all moving parts. It assures easy starting and flexible engine control.

Follow the chart at the left. It is scientific. It assures you the right oil for maximum efficiency from your particular car.

Who Pays for Our Blunders?

A blunder seemingly slight, may have serious consequences. For instance, the omission of a comma in a tariff bill once cost the United States a large revenue. A compositor on a New York daily once made a little blunder which proved expensive for his firm. It was at the time when there were a number of magazines whose subscription price was a dollar a year or ten cents a copy. One of these magazines advertised a special issue in a New York newspaper, and the concluding line of the advertisement was: "Send ten cents for a number." That was cheap enough, but the compositor made it much cheaper, for he set up: "Send ten cents for a year."

Not unnaturally, the readers of that paper decided to take advantage of the wonderful offer. Letters containing the required dime began to pour in. The magazine management was in a perplexity; but finally, on the advice of its lawyer, it asked the paper to pay the difference between the subscription price of one dollar and the ten cents received, and in the end the paper did it.

Blunders are costly things, and in the long run some one always has to pay for them.

Help!

Oh, I say, Ella,
Do come help a fella.
Gotta write up some stuff
For the L. H. S. Progress
Do most anything for it, I would.
If I—if I only could.
"It's easy," said Mr. Bye
So I thought I'd try,
But to my desperation,
I find no inspiration.
First, I tried one thing, then another,
Still I seemed to get no further.
I tried to write a poem,
No, too much for my noble dome.
Thought I'd write something clever,
Oh!—Worse than ever.
Disappointed now I was
Which didn't help the cause.
Mr. Bye said, "Might get on the staff"
I think of it myself and laugh.
Anyway I can rest,
'Cause I've done my level best.

STATE DECLAMATORY MEET WILL BE HELD IN MPLS. APRIL 17

Melvin Engelstad, Winner of District Oratory Contest, Will Represent Lincoln High

The annual state oratorical and declamatory contests will be held at Minneapolis, in the auditorium of the McPhail School of Music on Thursday, April 17. The oratorical contest will be held at four o'clock in the afternoon and the declamatory contest in the evening.

At the district contest in Warren last month, Melvin Engelstad, Lincoln High's representative and winner of the sub-district meet, was awarded first place by a unanimous decision of the judges. Pearl Holmquist of Lancaster, winner among the girls in the sub-district contest, was also given first place in the district contest. This gave Miss Holmquist and Mr. Engelstad the honor of representing this district in the state contest at Minneapolis next week.

This is the second time in the history of Lincoln High that it has been represented at the state contest and Miss Miriam, the local declamatory coach, is deserving of much praise for her excellent instruction.

Ten districts will compete at Minneapolis for the three state prizes offered to the winners of both contests. The first prize is a silver loving cup for the school the winning student represents and a full three-year dramatic course for the winner at the McPhail School of Music. The second prize is a one-year course at the same school and for the third prize, ten free lessons are given.

The Senior class skit, "Taking Father's Place," is being rehearsed every afternoon and is expected to be presented within the next two weeks. The full cast has been chosen and is under the direction of Miss Mildred Thompson, class chaperone. The play consists of only one act and will be put on at the Princess Theatre with the regular movie, serving as a vaudeville entertainment. This skit is in no way connected with the annual Senior class play, which is being chosen now and will be presented in May, but is being put on for the purpose of enlarging the "Prowler" fund.

The contest of the Shorthand I class, which was started about three weeks ago, is proving very successful. Two leaders were elected by the class, Maxine Johnson and Harriet Morgan, who chose the pupils for their respective sides. A written lesson is given every day, and the marks averaged. The losing side of this contest has to give the winners a weiner roast or something of a similar nature. The contest is an incentive to work, as no one likes to bring down the average of his side.

Three-Fourths Lincoln Girls Are "Bobbettes"

Due to all the furor that the bobbed hair craze has created in Lincoln High, the "Progress" decided to take a census of the girl students and find out the exact number of "Bobs" and "Non-Bobs". There is little doubt but that the "Bobs" have it and by a large majority in each class.

The following figures show how the classes are divided:

	"Bobs"	"Non-Bobs"
Freshmen	60	18
Sophomores	40	18
Juniors	47	15
Seniors	36	9

The grand total for the entire school shows that 183 prefer bobbed hair to 60 in favor of long tresses. In other words, three-fourths of the girls in Lincoln High are "bobbettes" and only one-fourth are not.

At the present rate of increase, there will not be any girls with long hair by the end of this semester.

JUNIORS PREPARE FOR J-S BANQUET

Banquet is Expected to be Given Soon After Easter in Sons of Norway Hall or Aud.

The Juniors have now commenced preparations for the biggest social event of the school year, the Junior-Senior banquet. Though no definite time or place has yet been decided on, it is expected to be held the first or second week after Easter in either the Sons of Norway hall or the city auditorium.

Lylian Arnold and Emmet Shanahan were elected by the class to act with Miss Keyes, class advisor, and Hilda Ness, class president, in choosing the chairmen of the various committees. The committee chairmen selected are as follows: Decoration, Thomas Melgaard; program, Maxine Johnson; reception and invitation, Lucille Roark and Maurice Holzknecht; refreshment, Katherine Barzen; and finance, Robert Halvorson. Each chairman is privileged to select the other members of his own committee.

At a meeting last week the class voted on the colors most suitable for decorating, and green and white were chosen as the two which would blend the best with the Senior colors, gold and white. At present the committee in charge is obtaining samples of place-cards, nut-baskets, and favors in these shades, in order that they may work out a clever scheme of decoration.

The Juniors gave the play, "Daddy-Long-Legs," early this year and several candy sales in order to enlarge their banquet fund, and the class treasury is now in such excellent condition that they will undoubtedly put on one of the finest banquets ever given for the Seniors.

The Girl Scouts held a candy sale in the lower hall of Lincoln High, Tuesday, April 1.

Civics Classes Hold Mock Conventions Fri.

The fourth and eighth period civics classes each held a mock convention, similar to the national one which will be held in June for the purpose of making presidential nominations, in room 204 last Friday. Due to the short amount of time allowed, the entire procedure was rendered as brief as possible.

Melvin Engelstad was chairman of the fourth period meeting and opened the convention with a short formal speech. At his request, Ethel Erickson, who was acting as the platform committee, read the stand of the party on the political issues. The secretary, Hylda Peterson, then called the roll of the states which were each represented by a student, and several nominating speeches were made. Math Barzen nominated Senator LaFollette, Progressive of Wisconsin; Mae Ballingrud, McAdoo, Democrat; Bert Umland, Robert Lansing, Democrat; Hazel Krause, Calvin Coolidge, Republican, and Margaret Melgaard, Charles Evans Hughes, Republican. The nominating speeches were very good but Bert Umland's was probably the most typical of a convention, little being said in many words. Due to this fact, his candidate, Robert Lansing, received the highest number of votes when a roll call vote was taken.

The same method of procedure was carried on the eighth period with Harriet Morgan acting as chairman, Joseph Gavin representing the platform committee, and Gladys Kolden taking the roll. Lawrence Bjorkman made the nominating speech for LaFollette; Cleon Bottelson, for Hiram Johnson; Orrin Storholm, for William McAdoo; and Clifford Storholm, for Calvin Coolidge. The votes cast for the various candidates were as follows: McAdoo, 324; Underwood, 147; LaFollette, 309; Coolidge, 302 and Johnson, 106.

The purpose of these mock conventions was to make more clear to the students how the real national conventions are conducted and Miss Eleanor Keyes, civic instructor, considered it would be of special interest at the present because of the fact that this is a convention year.

Ruth Kiland, of the class of '20, visited her Alma Mater last Wednesday.

Thelma Christenson, of Minneapolis, formerly a student of Lincoln High, visited school Friday afternoon. Thelma, too, has shorn her tresses.

Lloyd Bennes was seen to wear a girl's wrist watch Friday afternoon. The exact owner is not known, but there are rumors.

O. Hegland, Mayfield Farmer, Passes at Age of 73 Years

Olav Hegland, aged 73, for the past 12 years a resident of Mayfield township, Pennington county, died at his home last Thursday following a lingering illness from complications of the stomach and general debility. He had been failing the last year and had been confined to his bed since Christmas.

Mr. Hegland was born in Satesdal, Norway, where he was married and came to the United States 22 years ago, first settling on a farm near Fosston, where the family resided for ten years. Twelve years ago he moved to Pennington county, the family having lived on the farm 12 miles east of Hazel since. He enjoyed good health until a year ago.

Besides his widow, the deceased is survived by 11 children, all but one of whom were present at the funeral. The eldest daughter, Mrs. Gunder Rystad, who also lived in Mayfield township for a time, returned with her husband to Satesdal, Norway, about ten years ago. The other children are: Mrs. Hans Hanson of Thompson, N. D.; Mrs. M. E. Swanson of Crookston, Mrs. Arthur Baird of Eric, Ole, Emma, Bessie, Ella, Anna, Knut and Albert, at home. A brother, Sigurd Hegland, resides near Fosston.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Mayfield Lutheran church, Rev. Sivert Leirfallom of Wanke officiating.

Grade School Tournament Being Played This Week

The Grade school tournament is being held this week in the high school gymnasium. Following is the schedule of the games:

April 7, 4:15—7th and 8th Central.
April 8, 4:15—Washington vs. Knox 5:00 P. M.—Northrop vs. 7th Central.
April 9, 4:15 P. M. — Washington vs. 7th Central; 5:00 P. M.—Northrop vs. Knox.
April 10, 4:15 P. M.—Knox vs. 7th Central; 5:00 P. M.—Washington vs. Northrop.
April 11, 4:15 P. M.—8th grade vs. Freshies of H. S.

The first game on Monday evening resulted in a victory for the eighth grade. They had a decided advantage over the seventh graders in size and hence defeated them fairly easily. In the Tuesday games, the Knox beat the Washington and the seventh grade downed the Northrop.

The tournament is arousing a great deal of interest in the grades and there is keen rivalry for the school championship.

SENIORS WIN CLASS BASKETBALL TITLE

Low Scores and Well-Matched Teams are Main Feature in Inter-Class Tournament.

The Senior basketball quint won the Lincoln High class championship title by defeating the Junior team 13 to 10 in the finals Monday. In recognition of their supremacy, the class will receive an appropriate pennant.

This was undoubtedly the fastest of the entire series of games and as neither team was superior to the other in any department of play, the result was never certain. The Seniors made the first point but were soon tied and from that time on the lead changed from one side to the other. The half ended with the Juniors leading 8 to 6 but the Seniors caught up on free throws, passed them, and prevented them from making more than one basket the last half. The exceptionally good guarding of both teams featured the entire game. Mulry, Holznecht, and Bennes were the individual stars for the losers while Gavin and Storholm starred for the Seniors.

Brief accounts of the preceding games in the class series follow:

Sophomore-Senior, 10-7

The Seniors, fresh from their victory over the Juniors, entered the game against the Sophomores, Friday, March 28, in high spirits. However, this did not last long for the Sophomores took an early lead which they maintained throughout the first three quarters. The Seniors overcame this lead by one point but soon fell behind again, and though they fought desperately to regain it, were defeated 10 to 7. Zeh was the main point-getter for the Sophomores and O. Storholm for the Seniors.

Freshmen-Seniors, 5-8

Although the Freshmen were defeated by the Seniors, they again proved their worth Monday by holding the more experienced Senior team to the low score of 8 to 5. The game was one of the roughest of the series and was featured by exceptionally close guarding on the part of both teams. The Freshmen put up a fine game and it was only through lack of experience that they lost.

On Tuesday, April 1, in the last of the preliminary games, the Juniors defeated the Sophomores 6 to 5 in the fastest game of the series. Although the Sophomores had been given the edge on the Juniors, the dope was upset when the Juniors excelled them in everything except speed. The shooting of both teams was very poor and, according to the number of shots attempted, the score should have been much higher.

Freshmen-Senior, 19-2

On Wednesday, the first two semi-final games were played, the Seniors defeating the Freshies, 19 to 2 in the first game. The game was expected to be close but contrary to all prophecies, it proved to be a complete walk-away for the Seniors. This was due largely to the excellent work of the two Senior guards, Lundell and Gavin. In addition to his guarding, Gavin scored more times than any other man on the floor.

Sophomore-Junior, 10-8

In the second game Wednesday, the Sophomores defeated the Juniors 10 to 8, but neither team ever had a decided advantage over the other as was shown by the way the lead kept changing hands. Walter Larson, starring for the Sophomores, cinched the game for them when he made a field basket and a free throw in the last four minutes of play. Both teams played excellent team-work and showed the results of hard practice.

Junior-Senior, 10-7

The Juniors entered the game against the Seniors Thursday with a determination to win at all costs. As in many of the other class games, the playing was very close and each team secured the lead several times. The Juniors finally won, though the Seniors fought hard, and they were assured of a place in the finals. Inability to make baskets was the noticeable weakness of both teams.

Senior-Sophomore, 14-3

In the last game of the semi-finals, the Sophomores were decisively beaten by the Seniors 14 to 3. The Sophomores fought gamely until the final whistle but it was evident from the start that they were not playing up to their usual form. The loss of this game eliminated the Sophomores from the tournament and left the Juniors and Seniors to play in the finals.

The series of inter-class games has been valuable in that it has brought to light many very good basketball men who will undoubtedly make next year's squad.

Notice of Mortgage Foreclosure Sale

Default having been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage made and executed by Edward Vasstrand, unmarried, Mortgagor, to W. B. Torgerson of Red Lake County, Minnesota, Mortgagee, which mortgage is bearing date the 2nd day of December, 1918, and which mortgage with the power of sale therein contained, was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Pennington, State of Minnesota on the 7th day of December, 1918, at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 57 of Mortgages on page 234 thereof, which said mortgage together with the debt thereby secured thereafter was duly assigned by said W. B. Torgerson, mortgagee to the Bank of Cambridge, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed, dated March 27th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 28th day of March, 1919 at eight o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 80, and which mortgage with the debt secured thereby again thereafter was assigned by the said Bank of Cambridge, assignee, to A. J. Onsgard, assignee, by an assignment in writing, duly executed and dated May 17th, 1919, and recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 19th day of May, 1919 at 8 o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 98 thereof.

And, Whereas said default consists in the failure of the said mortgagor to pay the sum of One Thousand Dollars with accrued interest and the further sum of Three Hundred Twenty-eight and 88-100 in taxes which have necessarily been paid by said assignee, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of this notice the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars, said taxes included, and that no action or proceeding at law or otherwise having been instituted to recover the debt by said mortgage secured or any part thereof.

Now, Therefore, Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage above described will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit:

The South East Quarter (SE¼) of Section No. Thirty (30) in Township No. One Hundred Fifty-two (152) North, of Range No. Thirty-nine (39) West of the 5th P. M., in Minnesota, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) Acres according to U. S. Government survey thereof, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Pennington County, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Thief River Falls, in said County and State, on Saturday, the 19th day of April, 1924, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at public vendue to pay said debt of One Thousand Five Hundred Seven and 28-100 Dollars with interest from the date hereof together with an attorney's fee of fifty Dollars as stipulated in and by said mortgage, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of said sale as provided by law.

Dated March 1st, 1924.

Cows are in Demand

Very satisfactory results are reported from the auction sale of John S. Johnson of Kratka township Tuesday, March 25. Stephen Singer, who was clerk of the sale, was a caller at The Times office Monday and stated that about four-fifths of the total proceeds was paid for in cash. Cows were sold at favorable prices, one topping the list at $85, while others ranged from $68 and up. Another sale with Singer as clerk and Louis Kongelf as auctioneer was held Wednesday on the Oscar Torkelson farm, also in Kratka township.

The construction of the new building for the Peterson-Biddick Produce company may begin next week, according to C. M. Carlson, local contractor who was awarded the contract. The frost is the only obstacle now and by next week, he stated, excavation may begin.

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This Thief River Falls Woman Who Tells Her Experience.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Thief River Falls case is one of many:

Mrs. Chas. Alexander, 216 Conley Ave., says: "I had an attack of kidney complaint. My kidneys didn't act as they should and I felt miserable all over. Severe pains across my back kept me from doing my work. My head swam with dizziness and I was afraid to walk across the room. Doan's Pills, from Bottleson's Drug Store, rid me of the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mrs. Alexander had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Gasoline Prices Are Low

OF ALL you can buy for the price of a pot of coffee or the washing of four or five collars, the biggest value is a gallon of gasoline made by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

This gallon of gasoline, obtainable everywhere, gives you power for your automobile. It saves you inconvenience—lost time—and often from ill health.

It carries you from 8 to 22 miles, depending upon the road and your engine. It meets, swiftly, an emergency call in time of need. It gives you tangible, fundamental satisfaction, all for the expenditure of a few cents.

Automobilists, absorbed with their own affairs, sometimes fail to realize that gasoline is cheap; that the costs of finding, refining and distributing crude oil are enormous.

Authorities agree that the prospector and wildcatter on "probable" acreage has 1 chance in 400—while the company with a thoroughly organized geological department has but 1 chance in 20 of finding oil.

Leases on proved ground cost as much as $10,000 an acre. The average cost of drilling, today, is more than $25,000 a well.

Millions must be invested in pipe lines and tank cars to transport the crude oil. Add to this the cost of refineries—the investment in steel storage tanks to insure a dependable supply of raw materials and finished products regardless of season—the intricate machinery of transportation and delivery—gasoline service stations at convenient spots in the city and along the highway, and you will appreciate that the price of gasoline is low.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in its effort to render a vital service has been a determining factor in bringing you a gallon of gasoline at an exceedingly low price.

Only extreme efficiency in management and thorough knowledge of the oil business, backed by adequate capital, can bridge the gap between the oil well, a thousand miles away and the gas tank on your car.

These the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has supplied, placing an essential commodity at your instant command for a price which, compared to that of other commodities, is negligible when you consider the high value of the service rendered by gasoline.

GYPSY ROVER READY FOR PRESENTATION THIS FRIDAY EVE

Exceptional Play-acting Ability is Being Shown by Characters in Glee Club Operetta

Everything is now ready for the presentation of the Glee Club Operetta, "The Gypsy Rover." Final rehearsals have been taking place all this week in the auditorium and the last finishing touches are complete. Due to the illness of Maude L. Johnson, director, rehearsals were discontinued last week and the date postponed but Miss Johnson is well again and the play should go off without a hitch Friday evening.

Some very fine play-acting ability has been developed among the cast of characters and according to all reports, both the speaking and singing will equal or excell any other operetta that has been staged here. One of the best as well as the most humorous characters is Melvin Engelstad in the part of the Honorable Sir Archibald Craven who is "not afraid but only careful, doncha know?" Marto and Sinfo, two gypsy robbers, played by Buell Will and Clifford Storholm, are also very good and will draw many appreciative laughs from the audience. John Sether as "Rob" and Eileen Arneson as "Constance" take the leading parts like professionals and during the course of the play sing many beautiful solos and duets. The entire cast is admirably well chosen and special mention could be made of the manner in which each character has taken hold of his part. However, it is up to every one to come and judge for himself as to their excellence.

Tickets are being sold by the members of the cast and others and may be reserved at Lambert's Drug Store before the play. Reserved seats are 50 cents and the remainder 35 cents. A special matinee will be given for the school children Friday afternoon at three o'clock.

Engelstad Returns

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Engelstad and children returned from Blackduck on Friday to take up work on the farm of his father, Peter Engelstad, for the summer months. He has been employed on a dairy farm owned by the Northern Cedar company at Blackduck the past year.

Please notify us in advance before you move

EVEN if a telephone is already in the house, considerable work is always required to establish service. A pair of wires leading to the central office may have to be assigned, switchboard and other connections made and all records changed.

It is therefore desirable that we be notified as far in advance of moving as possible.

Even when notified in advance, the rush of orders sometimes makes it impossible for us to provide service promptly, especially around the first of the month.

When asking us to establish service at your new location; always give your name and telephone number, the street address or apartment number to which you are moving, and the date you want telephone service.

C. Halvorson Sells Fixtures to Wangenstein. Will Move to Minneapolis in Early Summer

A. A. Wangenstein and Son will be the proprietors of the jewelry store in the building now occupied by Chris Halvorson, on or about May 1st as a result of a deal that was made on Thursday when the Messrs. Wangenstein purchased the fixtures in Mr. Halvorson's jewelry store. Mr. Halvorson intends to leave for Minneapolis in the early summer and may open a jewelry and watch repair shop there.

The elder Mr. Wangenstein has been engaged in the jewelry and watch repair business in this city the greater part of the time for the last 21 years. When he first opened a shop here he purchased the building which he will now move into. In 1910 he sold the property and since has conducted watch repairing departments in several of the drug stores in this city. Four years ago he began business in the building on Third street where he is now located and since then, his son, Bart, has been associated with him.

FARMER-LABORITES OF 65TH DISTRICT ENDORSE S. LOVAAS

Dist. Convention Favors Naplin for Supreme Court Position; Vollum For Governor

O. A. Naplin, Thief River Falls attorney and former state senator, was endorsed as a candidate for associate justice of the supreme court at the Farmer-Labor convention of the 65th district held at Plummer Tuesday, March 25. The convention was attended by about 60 delegates from Pennington, Red Lake and Clearwater counties the following representing the Farmer-Labor party from this county. A. Trovaton, O. A. Naplin, W. H. Quist, of Thief River Falls and Eli Peterson and Isaac Wilson of Wyandotte township.

The convention unanimously adopted a resolution favoring the candidacy of Thomas Vollum of Erskine for governor. Mr. Vollum has been active in the Farmer-Labor movement from its inception as he was in the Nonpartisan league which preceded it. He is manager of the Garden Valley Telephone company, a rural line in eastern Polk county.

Sam Lovaas of Garnes township, Red Lake county, was chosen by the convention as the candidate for representative from the 65th district and is expected to file for that office within the necessary time limit. Mr. Lovaas is a well known and highly respected farmer east of Plummer. Walter E. which he has held three terms. Plans Day of Bagley was endorsed for reelection to the office of representative for the coming campaign were also discussed.

Carl Gulrud is now taking care of a service station at Detroit, this state, taking up his new duties last week.

OTIS J. TEAL, LOCAL WAR VETERAN DIES AS RESULT OF GAS

Took Part in Battles at Soissons and Marne. At Veterans Hospital Past 4 Mo.

Otis Jackson Teal, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Teal residing at 215 Duluth avenue south, died at the U. S. Aberdeen veterans' hospital at St. Paul Wednesday, April 2nd, from heart trouble resulting from the effects of being gassed during the world war. The remains were shipped to this city and funeral services held Sunday from the home and the Presbyterian church with an escort from the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion.

Otis Teal was born in Grand Forks Nov. 17, 1887. He spent a few years there and also at Euclid, coming to this city with Dr. and Mrs. Teal 19 years ago. He attended the local high school in the Washington building. On April 2nd, 1917, three days before war was declared by the United States, he enlisted in the 9th infantry at Spokane, Wash. In early 1918 he was in the battle of the Marne, one of the most hotly contested battles of the war. July 18-22, 1918, he was in the battle of Soissons, where he was wounded and gassed. He was then taken back to this country and Nov. 5, 1919, was given his discharge papers at Camp Dodge, Iowa. Since then he has received two years of agricultural school training at Fargo and the last winter was taken ill as a result of the gas from which he suffered during the war, and the past four months has been at the Aberdeen hospital. In October, 1921, he was married to Miss Cora Frosythe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frosythe of Mentor. Last spring he bought a farm near Thorhult and spent last summer there.

Among relatives to mourn his passing he leaves his wife, a daughter, Doris, his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Teal; two sisters, Mrs. J. C. Olson and Mrs. Hubert Jacobson of this city and two brothers, Albert, operator on the Great Northern railroad at Noyes and Charles, who is studying electrical engineering at Washington, D. C., also a veteran of the recent war.

The funeral was conducted from the house and the Presbyterian church Sunday, Rev. Gerlinger officiating. A group of members of the local post of the American Legion formed a military escort and at Greenwood cemetery paid a last tribute to his memory with the military salute.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral services are Mr. and Mrs. J. Frosythe, of Mentor, parents of Mrs. Otis Teal; Mr. and Mrs. George Rose, parents of Mrs. C. W. Teal; Mr. and Mrs. Wellie Rose of Euclid, uncle and aunt of Otis; Mr. and Mrs. William Teal of Euclid, cousins; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Teal of Fisher, cousins; Mrs. Robert Teal of Mentor, an aunt; Mrs. C. E. Murney of Euclid, an aunt; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Teal of Mentor, uncle and aunt; Misses Maude and Nora and William and Earl Frosythe of Mentor, sisters and brothers of Mrs. Otis Teal; Mrs. Gilbert Synoden of Holt, sister of Mrs. Otis Teal; Mr. and Mrs. John Benoit of Mentor, George Frosythe, Miss Maude Adams, Harold Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Dennison of Mentor, cousins of Mrs. Otis Teal; Dr. and Mrs. Chapin of Euclid; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Steuhr of Euclid; and Dewey Parkins of Mentor. They all motored here on Sunday and returned that evening. Albert Teal of Noyes, brother of the deceased, also came here for the funeral and returned by train Monday morning.

May Enlarge Court House

Three office rooms and a vault room will be provided in the basement of the court house this summer if satisfactory bids are received by the county board for excavation under the old section of building making space for the additional rooms. Plans for this repairing and enlargement of the basement to extend under the entire structure were submitted by engineer Umland to the commissioners at the meeting Tuesday and were approved, the construction to take place this summer, providing the cost is not too great. The estimated cost is given as $2100. Auditor Anderson was instructed to call for bids on construction, which appear in this issue of The Times.

The regular grist of bills were allowed, and a number of routine matters took up the remainder of the session which lasted thruout the day.

Screen Version Shows Why "Alice Adams" Was Judged Best Novel of 1922

"Alice Adams," which has been accepted everywhere as Booth Tarkington's masterpiece among a collection of remarkable works and which won the Pulitzer prize for the best piece of fiction written during 1922, will be the feature attraction at the Princess theatre Friday and Saturday with Florence Vidor starred in the title role.

The locale of "Alice Adams" is a small city of the Middle West, where the social position of a family depends largely upon how large a bank balance the head of the family possesses. But a family is like a business—to be successful it must be well regulated—and the Adams family was not.

Virgil Adams, for twenty-five years, had plugged away at the same job that paid a small salary. Mrs. Adams for twenty-five years, had nagged at him and tried to make him see that it was his duty to his children to be a success. On the patient shoulders of Alice fell the thankless and difficult task of keeping peace in the family. Alice's life was none too happy, so out of her active imagination she built a dream future for herself of riches, palatial homes and ardent lovers.

Eggs Carefully Graded

It is planned to collect the eggs by truck and to grade and standardize them at the central station. It is pointed out that by the new plan of co-operative selling the producer gets full value for his eggs according to the grade. Those interested in the movement agree that what the co-operative creameries have done for the dairy business should be done for the poultry business.

Pennington county produces a surplus of about 20 carloads of poultry and eggs each year, it is estimated, the surplus for the district being figured at about 40 carloads. That this output will soon be doubled, is a certainty, according to present indications.

EGG RAISERS MEET HERE TO PLAN MARKET

Seventy Poultry Producers from 21 Towns in Thief River Valley Discuss Plans

ORGANIZATION WORK PROGRESSING NICELY

Association to Begin Operating When Minimum of 1,000 Signers Has Been Secured

About 70 poultry producers, representing 21 towns and communities in Pennington, Roseau, Red Lake, eastern Kittson, part of Polk and western Beltrami counties, attended a meeting held at the Commercial club rooms in this city last Thursday afternoon, for the purpose of signing up and further discussing organization plans for the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry Marketing association, which has been in the process of development for the past three weeks. The Thief River Valley unit, which will have headquarters at Thief River Falls, will be known as District No. 24, this being the 24th district in the state to organize for co-operative marketing of poultry and eggs.

Corwin Speaks

W. J. Corwin, associate poultry editor of The Farmer of St. Paul and marketing units in Minnesota, was organizer of co-operative poultry present at the meeting and explained the contracts and other phases of the work, including instructions in soliciting members. Mr. Corwin has taken an active part in getting the association here started in a campaign to secure a sufficient number of local units to combine into a state exchange and the plans that he outlined at a meeting two weeks previously have been closely followed by those in charge of organization work. Olaf Neset, chairman of the local district association, presided. Harry L. Schuster is secretary.

At the meeting last week the representatives from each town or locality grouped themselves together and selected a chairman, who was then given contracts and other literature on the proposition for organization work in each particular community. A certain quota of signers was determined for each town, the chairmen being advised to call a meeting of the producers in their respective localities for the purpose of signing up the necessary number.

Membership Drive on

A minimum membership of 1000 was decided upon by the producers gathered here Thursday, and it is the belief of those connected with the organization work that the required number of signers can be obtained in a short time. From now on the work will be rushed and when the local chairmen and their assistants have done what they can there will be a day set for a general membership drive thruout the entire district.

The reason that marketing will not be started until a minimum membership of 1000 is secured is because it is intended that the association shall be large enough to be able to ship poultry products in carload lots and market a quality of products which will command premium prices.

PLAY PROGRAM IN RURAL SCHOOLS OF COUNTY COMPLETED

Each Section in County to Have Play Days During Months of April and May

Plans have now been completed for the 1924 Play Program for the rural schools of this county, according to announcement by Supt. O. R. Sande. The plans this year are different from what they were last year. Instead of placing the emphasis on individual athletes as has formerly been done, groups of children or schools are this year to be used as units in conducting the events and in awarding prizes. Instead of trying to select individual winners in the different events the aim will be to select a winning team.

"The big idea in our plans is to follow the principle of maximum participation-athletics for all," says Mr. Sande. "Each child is to be given an opportunity to contribute his effort which is always his best for the glory of his school. It is thought that in this way the games and athletic events will not be monopolized by the star athletes in the different schools."

Detailed instructions for organizing and conducting sectional play days throughout the county during April and May have been sent to all rural teachers. The county is divided into seventeen sections, each containing from two to nine schools. One teacher in each section has been designated as the sectional leader and it is her duty to take the lead in organizing and conducting the play day. The work of making the local arrangements for the play day, such as, deciding the date, selecting the school where the meeting is to be held and providing the necessary equipment is left to be done by the teachers of the section under the supervision of the sectional leader.

Reports to the county superintendent from sectional leaders indicate that the local arrangements have already been made in eight of the seventeen sections.

Nelson To St. Paul

H. E. Nelson left last Wednesday evening for St. Paul where he will attend the semi-annual convention of J. C. Penney company managers at the St. Paul hotel, April 17-18. He will also make a tour of other cities on his summer buying trip, expecting to be gone two weeks.

ON AGAIN—OFF AGAIN!

The weather man was off his base today and perhaps just for variety, after the first heavy spring rain accompanied by a thunderstorm Tuesday night, gave a slight flurry of snow—just enough to cover the ground, but sufficient to realize the awful thing he did a short time ago to more southern points, when traffic was in many places suspended by a fall of three-four feet of the white covering. It is hoped that this is the expiring kick of winter. Spring work in the fields here has been given a setback by the rain and snow and little seeding has been done as yet.

LEGION COMMANDERS ENTHUSIASTIC OVER '25 CONVENTION BID

Com. Smith and Adj. Sande Gather Favorable Sentiment at State Conference

"Prospects for getting the 1925 state convention of the American Legion to Thief River Falls are favorable," state Commander Oscar Smith and Adjutant O. R. Sande of the local post, on their return from the meeting of post commanders, adjutants, district chiefs, state officers and other Minnesota Legionaires in Minneapolis April 4 and 5. "Judging from the sentiment expressed by the many post chiefs to whom we presented the proposition of gathering in this city next year, it seems that we stand a good chance in landing the convention because the majority of them are enthusiastic about convening in the northern part of the state, particularly in Thief River Falls," the Eklund post representatives assert. No definite action in the matter will be taken until at the state convention in St. Cloud this summer.

"Renew your memberships and then enlist your buddies in the work of the Legion" was the keynote of many talks urging an intensive membership drive thruout the state. About 200 represented the 20,000 Legionaires of Minnesota, and the conference was voted one of the best ever held.

Among the important reports to be made by department officers was one by Morlan Bishop of the Thief River Falls post, who is chairman of the state finance committee. It was well received and indicated a good condition of the organization thruout. Mr. Bishop is now connected with the banking department in the southern part of the state.

In the absence of "Tony" Yngve of Middle River, commander of the Ninth district, the report of this district was given by Adj. Sande of the Eklund post, district adjutant. The report shows a paid up membership in the district of 2,065, which, altho it is nearly 600 below the enrollment last year, is the second best showing made by any district in Minnesota, the Sixth having the best record.

The Elmer J. Eklund post now has a membership of 100, four more than in 1923, and the local officers are resolved to make the local unit the most outstanding in Minnesota. Messrs. Smith and Sande returned Wednesday of last week, making the trip by car.

County Supt. Sande Attends Short Course for Schoolmen

Ole R. Sande, county superintendent of schools, left Monday night for Minneapolis to attend the annual conference and short course for county superintendents of the state, conducted under the auspices of the state department of education. The conference opened Tuesday and closes today, Mr. Sande expecting to return tomorrow.

JEFFERSON HIGHWAY CHANGES DISCUSSED

State Directors Will Investigate Proposed Change of Route Through Warren

Daniel Shaw returned yesterday morning from Little Falls where he attended a state meeting of the Jefferson Highway association to consider matters of importance such as routing and remarking of the highway which passes thru Thief River Falls.

W. F. Powell represented Warren in asking the association to change the present routing of the Jefferson road which passes thru Middle River and other points due north from Thief River Falls, to be changed so as to pass thru Warren, it being pointed out that a large part of the traffic passes thru the Marshall county seat anyway and that the change would merely make the highway official. It would leave this city on state highway No. 33 and go out from Warren on No. 6 thru Argyle and Stephen on state maintained roads, the old trail, it is said, being almost impassable at times.

However, the association will follow the rules of its constitution which provides for a certain method of procedure which is that two state directors and the general manager make an inspection tour of the part of the route in question and select the route deemed most satisfactory.

A great deal of enthusiasm was manifested at the meeting which was well attended, says Mr. Shaw, who is one of the three state directors.

Last Friday a delegation from the Thief River Falls Commercial club, Chairman L. R. Johnston of the highway committee, F. J. Stebbins, Dr. O. F. Mellby and F. H. Herrick motored to Warren to meet with a delegation from that city to discuss the proposed change.

DAM REPAIRS ESTIMATED AT $85,000 COST

Figures for New Power House and Improvements from Mpls. Engineering Concern

SURVEY OF PROPERTY MADE BY JACOBSON CO.

City Council Busy Working Out Satisfactory Solution to Power Question

Another proposition has been submitted to the city council for the solution of the electric power problem, in which it is proposed to fix up the dam, including the construction of a coffer dam, change of the flume and other parts, construct a new power house and install three 200 h. p. units at the approximate cost of $85,000. This estimate was made by the Jacobson Engineering company of Minneapolis, the figures being based on the improvements and changes in the dam property proposed by the council in the event that it is purchased by the city.

Engineer's Letter

The following communication dated April 5, accompanied by blue print diagrams of the plan as put forth in the letter, was received by the City Water and Light commission:

"In accordance with the writer's recent conversation with Mr. Legvold and one of the other members of the commission we are sending you herewith our suggested layout for the improvement of the water power in your city.

"We are suggesting that the proposed power house be located on the west side of the river. The location worked out nicely as the width of the flume is just right to take care of three units. You will also note that we have shown a line of sheet piling above the old dam. This can be placed in such a manner as to stop the leaks at the present time, and may be used for a coffer dam when you wish to extend the concrete dam to the East bank at a later date. This method will keep the initial cost down and at the same time will put the dam in good condition for some time to come.

"We have estimated the cost of making the above improvements including three 200 H. P. units at about $85,000.

"We understand that you have thought some of purchasing this power as it stands and making the improvements. If you are not interested in purchasing the site and making the improvements, we are wondering if you would be interested in purchasing current at say 2½ per K. W.?

"We will appreciate a reply from you with reference to the above, and if you are interested, we will be glad to make another trip to Thief River Falls and go into the matter in more detail."

Council Hears Proposition

The matter was given some consideration at the council meeting last week but no action was taken, and so far no reply has been made to the communication. It is expected, however, that the proposition will be given another airing at the meeting of the aldermen next Tuesday night.

Mr. Jacobson, of the above named engineering company, was in the city about two weeks ago to secure data regarding the present dam and the proposed and necessary improvements should the city decide to buy it, the estimate being made following this visit.

The present power house is equipped with two 100 K. W. or 150 H. P. generators connected to the turbines by shafts and gears, the proposed change calling for three 200 H. P. units of the umbrella type, that is, connected directly, thus avoiding the great loss of power thru friction which is now reducing the efficiency of the plant to a great extent.

The dam, which is owned by Kretchmar and Schreiter, was leased by the city 24 years ago, the lease expiring next year.

Calls For Engine Bids

As was noted in last week's issue of The Times the city clerk has been authorized to advertise for bids on a 300 or 500 horse power oil engine as an additional unit at the auxiliary plant owned by the city, with direct current generator attached, said bids to be for delivery and complete erection thereof.

A great deal of attention is being given the power question by the aldermen and it is hoped that some decision will be made soon, satisfactorily solving the present problem. Various views are held by the citizens, some favoring the purchase of the dam and improving it, while others maintain that the city should enlarge the oil engine plant so that it would be able to supply the entire load of electricity for the city.

Premiere of New Film On Board "Leviathan"

The most novel premiere of a photoplay in the annals of motion picture presentation was that held on board the Steamship Leviathan, when the United States Shipping Board started it on its maiden trip across the Atlantic. The picture was "Little Old New York," Cosmopolitan's new photodrama, starring Marion Davies. The picture which was adapted to the screen by Luther Reed from Rida Johnson Young's popular stage play of the same name and directed by Sidney Olcott, received a reception which vied in enthusiasm with that accorded to the new queen of the American Merchant Marine as it slipped from its dock and started on its first transatlantic trip as an American operated vessel. "Little Old New York" has been booked by Manager Brumund as the attraction at the Princess and Lyceum theatres for two days, beginning Sunday.

Three Pennington Youths Attend University Short Course. Awarded Free Trip

Three Pennington county junior club workers left Monday for University Farm, St. Paul, to attend the annual Junior short course conducted by the agricultural department of the University of Minnesota, which opened that day and continues thru Saturday. They are Julia Malmquist, local club leader, Halvor Rynestad and Harvey Sundt, both members of the dairy calf club, who were given free trips to the twin cities by the Soo and Great Northern railroads. Selection of the club workers to be awarded the free trip was made by County Agent J. J. McCann, who is in charge of this activity in the county.

GUERNSEY SALE TO BE HELD IN T. R. F. JUNE 12

R. R. Valley Breeders' Ass'n Selects This City For 5th Annual Dispersal Sale

ABOUT 70 ANIMALS WILL BE CONSIGNED

Pennington County Gaining Distinction as Center For Purebred Guernseys

Thursday, June 12th, is the date for the fifth annual consignment sale of Guernsey cattle selected by the committee on arrangements and sales committee of the Red River Valley Guernsey Breeders association at a special meeting held at the Brumund hotel Wednesday evening last week. The sales pavilion at the local fair grounds was selected for the place of the sale in preference to that of Crookston.

Stuart McLeod of Goodridge, president of the association, Harry C. Woolson and Peter Engelstad, comprising the sales committee, met with Leonard Housko of Halstad, secretary, to select the date and place. Sixty to seventy-five high grade animals will be offered for sale at public auction on that date. About 10 purebred sires and 10 registered cows and heifers will be offered and the remainder will be grade animals of the best stock in the valley. A committee will make an inspection tour of the herds prior to the sale and only the most desirable and well bred stock will be entered. All animals will be subjected to tuberculin tests as required by the association.

56 Head Sold Last Year

Last year, June 6th, 56 head were sold at the Guernsey Breeders sale here for the total sum of nearly $6,000. Eight pure bred animals brot an average of $216 each and $305 was the top price paid at the sale.

The Guernsey breeders' sale last year brot large numbers of breeders from all parts of the northwest, about 500 people being present. Thief River Falls and Pennington county are already becoming known as sources for high grade stock that can be relied on to be as represented. These sales have done much for the development of better stock locally and are events of great importance to the community.

With these live boosters in charge of club affairs this year an active and enterprising season can easily be predicted.

"Nowhere in the state, and perhaps not in many other states, are the men of the city comprising the Commercial club taking such an active part in promoting the interests of the rural community and farmers as are the members of the Thief River Falls Commercial club," W. E. Morris of St. Paul, district county agent leader, said. to a Times representative last week. "The efforts put forth by the club in this city in maintaining a county agent here is substantial proof of this fact.

UNITED ACTION IN BEAUTIFYING CITY IS URGED

City Clean Up Campaign Discussed by Prof McCall at Commercial Club Luncheon

EVERY CITIZEN MUST FEEL RESPONSIBILITY

Calls Attention to Planting of Native Trees and Advocates City Plan

Impetus was given the clean up and paint up campaign in Thief River Falls inaugurated by the Commercial club to be launched during the first part of May, by Professor T. M. McCall, horticulturist at the Northwest School of Agriculture, who addressed the club on the subject of city beautification at the regular noon luncheon Thursday.

"Thief River Falls is to be congratulated upon the progressive stand taken in the Clean-Up campaign and on its constructive program of city beautification," Mr. McCall said.

"Clean up campaigns are necessary in every city every year for when cleaning up the town is left to individual initiative the work is never done timely and the vacant lots, or No Man's Land as they should be called, are left for "George" to take care of.

Work Up Enthusiasm

"Thief River Falls is attacking the problem in the right way in starting the campaign through its Commercial club and other civic organizations. Publicity about unsightly and unhealthful conditions in a city has the same effect as sunshine in disinfecting germ covered areas. Civic organizations, the public schools, boy scouts and other organizations behind a clean up campaign can generate enthusiasm that will put it over, for without enthusiasm nothing more will be done than what the law requires. With enthusiasm behind a clean up campaign no one will be satisfied to stop with the cleaning of the premises but all will want to go on and brighten up the buildings with paint and dress up the grounds with flowers, shrubs and trees.

A City Plan

"Cleanliness and tidiness are the first essentials in city beautification but for lasting effects there must be a co-ordination of effort on the part of all property owners and the city so that pleasing and lasting general effects can be obtained. This for its ultimate consumation requires a city plan. A city plan provides for the proper laying out of streets in the business and residential sections, with the systematic planting of street trees, the laying out of parks and recreational centers, city zoning and provisions for street railway transit and railroad transportation. While city planning in small cities may seem an unnecessary expense yet there is no question but what a few dollars spent on a city plan will bring on greater return than any other municipal investment.

"Even without a city plan there is nothing to prevent the cities passing ordinances governing the planting of street trees, regulating the distances apart, species and management.

Plant Native Trees

"A city plan is not necessary for the individual property owner to beautify his place, for with but little forethought and often times with but little professional assistance, permanent planting plans can be drawn up at little expense. The expense of planting shrubs and trees on a lawn need not be great for with the wealth of native material that abounds in the woods marvelous effects can be secured. The native high-bush cranberry, the Juneberry, Snowberry, dowood, chokecherry, hawthornes and other native trees furnish all of the material needed for a good start in lawn planting."

Mr. McCall is a splendid speaker and presented the subject so clearly and forcibly that his address will without a doubt show material results in the campaign to be conducted in this city.

Red Lake Falls Men Here

The club was also addressed by Fred L. Farley of Red Lake Falls who urged co-operation between the towns of the Red River Valley in bringing this section to the front and securing a place as one of the most important parts of the state. Mr. Farley was accompanied by Sam Hunt and V. M. Higginbotham, also of the Red Lake Falls Commercial club, to which members of the local club were extended an invitation to attend the regular noon luncheons held every Monday.

Judge Orders Removal of Culvert in Highlanding

Christopher Vad, Carl A. Kjos, Ole O. Haner, John T. Homme and Andrew T. Nelson, plaintiffs in a case against the township of Highlanding, involving the removal of a culvert thru a grade along the land of the plaintiffs which caused damage by flood water, tried at the February term of district court, were given a judgment against the plaintiff by decision of Judge Andrew Grindeland. The decision was filed with Clerk of Court Adolf Eklund, April 7 and calls for the removal of the culvert and payment of costs and disbursements by the defendant. A stay of 30 days was granted by the judge.

Parbst in Washington

William Parbst and family who left for the Pacific coast last summer are now in Longview, Wash., according to information received last week by friends in the city. They spent the winter months in southern California, mostly in Los Angeles, coming to Washington a short time ago. Mr. Parbst states that he expects to locate at Longview, with which the family is very pleased.

EASTER OBSERVANCES

Churches in Thief River Falls have as usual arranged special services for the Easter holidays, announcements of which appear in this issue. Easter Sunday this year comes on April 20, next Sunday, which is the latest date recorded for many years.

There is no regular Easter vacation in the schools this year, but Good Friday will be observed. The banks of the city will not be open and all other businesses which may be closed without any serious inconvenience to the proprietors and patrons are asked by Mayor J. S. Arneson in a proclomation to join in a general observance of Good Friday by remaining closed after 12 o'clock noon.

GRAND CANTATA TO BE GIVEN AT TRINITY FRIDAY EVE

"Seven Last Words of Christ" is Impressive Production by 25 Voices

An event of interest to all music lovers of the city is the lenten cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Theodore Dubois, of soli, chorus and piano, which will be given at the Trinity Lutheran church tomorrow, Good Friday, evening at 7:45. The production is being given by the Trinity church choir, assisted by other local talent, 25 persons taking part.

The cantata is under the able direction of Dr. P. L. Vistaunet and promises to be one of the most pleasing presentations of its kind in the city, particularly as a part of the special Easter observances, and it is expected that members of all the other churches in the city will attend as well as the Trinity congregation.

Following is a list of those who take part in the rendition of the cantata: First soprano, Mrs. O. F. Mellby, Mrs. C. A. Barth, Mrs. J. N. Nesse, Misses Edna Larson, Ann Tharaldson and Dora Holmes; second soprano, Mrs. H. O. Loken, Misses Thora Hanson, Julia Herlickson, Gladys Kolden, Millicent Sweger and Liv Vistaunet; tenor, Dr. J. N. Nesse, B. Dan Bjorkman, Carl Angell, S. R. Dahlen and C. M. Buoen; bass, Dr. O. F. Mellby, E. M. Bennes, G. Halvorson, C. C. Gulrud, L. H. Larson and Ed. Iverson.

The solo voices include Mrs. O. F. Mellby, soprano, Dr. Nesse, tenor, and Dr. Vistaunet, baritone. The accompaniment is furnished by H. O. Chommie at the piano.

"The Seven Last Words of Christ," which is outstanding among cantatas and is said to lead all other productions of its kind, includes:

Introduction, "All Ye People" ———— Soprano Solo
First Word, "Father Forgive Them" Baritone and Tenor Solos with Chorus
Second Word, "Today Shalt Thou Be" Duet, Tenor and Baritone; with Chorus.
Third Word, "Woman, Behold Thy son"—Soprano, Tenor and Baritone solos with chorus.
Fourth Word, "My God, My God, Why Has Thou Forsaken Me?"—Baritone Solo.
Fifth Word, "I Thirst"—Tenor and Baritone Solos and Chorus.
Sixth Word, "Father, Into Thy Hands I Commend My Sprit"—Tenor Solo with Chorus.
Seventh Word, "It Is Finished!" Soprano, Tenor and Baritone Solos, With Chorus.
Prayer, "Thee We Adore, O Christ," ———— Chorus

It is said that this composition leads all others of its kind in superb musical qualities, and is a masterpiece of grandeur.

There will be no admission charged at the door but a free will offering will be taken.

RALSTON HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

Furniture Consumed and Interior of House Gutted by Flames at 5 This Morning

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ralston at 121 St. Paul avenue south was practically destroyed early this morning by fire, thot to have been caused by an overheated stove pipe. Shortly before five o'clock Mr. Ralston, a local barber, was awakened by smoke. The fire had gained such headway that he was unable to get to his own telephone, and after arousing the children, who were sleeping on the second floor, he turned in the alarm from a neighbor's home.

There was no time to save any furniture or clothing, save an armful of the children's clothes. Insurance will cover most of the loss.

Card Playing Taboo On Sundays Except from 1 to 6 p. m.

An order prohibiting card playing in the various pool halls and soft drink places of the city on Sundays except between the hours of 1 and 6 in the afternoon, has been issued by Mayor J. S. Arneson, the new regulation taking effect last Sunday. This agreement was reached after the Mayor had conferred with a number of proprietors who deemed it satisfactory. This is in accord with the wishes of a large number of citizens, some of whom are in favor of stopping card playing in those places during the entire Sabbath, according to sentiments brought out in the session of the city council last week.

The News Boys will give you the latest Friday, April 25.

FARMERS ABLE TO SECURE AID TO PAY TAXES

Agricultural Credit Body to Assist by Lightening Tax Penalty Burden

APPLICATIONS TO BE MADE TO CO. AUDITOR

Farmers Delinquent in Taxes May Save 6 Per Cent Where Certificate is Bought

Pennington county farmers who have become delinquent in the payment of their taxes and now face the payment of a 12 per cent penalty because of a tax certificate having been issued, in many cases can secure a 6 per cent yearly relief if proper application is made thru the county auditor, T. P. Anderson.

This relief will be handled as a result of the recent organization of the Agricultural Credit Corporation designed to assist the farmers of the Northwest by lightening their tax penalty burden and thus making more money available for the municipalities.

Will Buy Certificates

According to information received by Auditor Anderson, the conditions imposed by the association are as follows:

Credit relief will be extended only to actual farmers, occupying and operating their own farms either in possession of deed or purchase contract obligating them to pay taxes. No loans are made direct to farmers to pay either delinquent or current taxes, if owned by the county, and carried a reasonable length of time at 6 per cent interest.

The association is not buying certificates owned by mortgagees or investors as it is desired that the money goes directly into the community to be benefitted.

Auditor Receives Blanks

The county auditor has been notified that blanks will be sent to his office or to local banks upon request, and those desiring to take advantage of this aid should make their application with him. The application must be recommended by the county auditor and a banker named by the association. Final rejection or acceptance rests with the corporation's officers in Minneapolis. C. T. Jaffray, president of the Soo line, is a director of the corporation.

Auditor Anderson states that the delinquent tax in Pennington county totals about $90,000, and that farmers of the county would be fortunate if they are able to secure about $50,000 from the corporation for this purpose. The farmer under this plan saves 6 per cent each year as the burdensome penalty imposed by law is 12 per cent while the relief organization agrees to carry them for 6 per cent. It is hoped that immediate applications will be made to the county auditor so that the money can be received by the county and the benefit result immediately to those applying.

MANY PRESENT DAY PROBLEMS TREATED IN PLAY "THE FOOL"

Dr. Henry Clark, Noted Reader, To Appear in Presbyterian Church Tuesday Eve.

"The Fool," by Channing Pollock, which will be presented in a lecture-recital at the Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening, April 22, at 8 o'clock, by Dr. Henry Clark of Chicago, popular lyceum and chautauqua lecturer and reader, is said to be one of the leading plays of the day and is being received with a great deal of appreciation wherever it is presented, either in action or as a reading.

It is an interesting, purposeful drama in which the old truths are reiterated with an air of saying something new, the clear interpretation given it by Mr. Clark said to lend a particular appeal. It is great as a protest against materialism and as a challenge to spiritual thinking and living.

Prior to presentation of "The Fool" in Minneapolis, a critic stated in the Minneapolis Journal: "We saw this play in New York last season and thought it an interesting obvious drama with the various subjects-capital and labor, brotherly love, the marriage relation, social hypocrisy and sex bound together with the central figure of the young minister who asks 'What would happen if anyone tried to live like Christ?' Through three acts we watch his endeavors that leave him at the end misunderstood by many but triumphant. Thru it all we sympathize with him when he loses his position as pastor of a fashionable church because he is too outspoken in his views, is dismissed from his post as an employee of a mining company because he demands fair terms for the miners, is distrusted by the refuges he benefits in 'Overcoat Hall' on the Bowery and is attacked by a mob led by a former miner who accuses him of immoral relations with his wife, sends back the woman he loves to her husband and finally is found, cheerful and rejoicing in his one-room study, his only companion the little crippled girl whose restoration to health is the third act miracle.

Mr. Clark's appearance in Thief River Falls is secured thru the efforts of the ladies' organization of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. L. R. Roberts being a series of high class entertainments. The reader of "The Fool" is so well known to Thief River Falls people that a large attendance is assured.

HOLY-WEEK SERVICES ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

Monday evening Pastor Kreidt preached to an appreciative audience on "The Plan of Building For Eternity." Stressing the need of building one's life well for earth, he showed the far greater importance of building well for life after death. "There is not a nation under the sun which has not some idea of a future life. Man hopes for a blessed existence after death. Man has ever sought to attain it by various systems of religion. The only architect, that really shows how to build for eternity is God; He has given man the plan in the Bible. The Bible has proved its divine origin, by withstanding the most bitter attacks during the past 3000 years. It is a reliable plan because it comes from God. It has been tested and tried by thousands. The Christian Martyrs tested their hope on the Bible-plan. The Reformation was based on the Bible. The Bible really teaches how to reach heaven, because it teaches to build on the blood-atonement of Jesus Christ. Taking eternal life as the free gift of the Son of God, man is certain of its possession."

Tuesday evening the pastor called attention to the "Wise and Foolish Builders," basing his sermon on Matt. 7,24-27. "To build for eternity one must hear the words of Jesus; one must study the Bible. But that is not all; one must do these words. One must put those eternal truths to practice. The condemnation under the Law of God, and the Gospel-offer of salvation through faith in the Redemption of Jesus Christ must become personal, practical realities. Really living the life of faith is wise building. Such a house stands aganst the storm of death and eternity; it is built on the rock. Hearing the word of Christ, and not doing it, is like building on sand. Such a life cannot stand before God; it has no solid foundation; it is sham and appearance, nothing more. This house falls before the storm of death. This is the foolish builder. Every person that professes Christianity is either a wise or foolish builder; he is either building on the rock or on sand. There are no half-way measures." The pastor closed with an earnest appeal to his audience to make certain of their foundation now; to be wise builders by hearing and doing the words of Jesus: "Repent ye and believe the Gospel."

The doubtful and inclement weather has undoubtedly kept many from hearing these sermons. Nevertheless, the pastor feels satisfied that his efforts are being well repaid. The remaining topics for Thursday, Friday and Sunday evening are: "The House Beautiful," "The Cornerstone" and "The Assurance of Success."

Everyone is cordially invited to hear these plain statements of Bible-truth.

CO-OPERATE

Much is said these days regarding the enforcement of laws. Co-operation between officials and citizens is urged in the following editorial from the Northfield News:

"To a great many reasonable people there isn't much sense to all this controversy about whose duty it is to enforce the law. If there is any one place where co-operation can be effective here is the opportunity. Telling public officials that they alone are responsible, or telling citizens that they must make complaints of violations, savors too much of "passing the buck."

Easter isn't so far away. Indeed, it is so close that we should start now to brush the cobwebs from the heart and the soul, so that we too can in spirit arise with the Lord and Master on Resurrection Day. Instead of a dress parade, this year, let us make of it the religious event that the commemoration of the day really deserves.—Murray County Herald.

It is declared by someone in close touch with the tourist movement that the 1924 tourist crop will exceed in monetary value all of Minnesota's other crops for the year. And the only cultivation such a crops needs is the cultivation of friendliness. Why not make it a good crop in Thief River Falls?

POTATO GROWERS CHOSE DIRECTORS FOR COUNTY ASS'N

—Ballots for Election Sent Out to 107 Exchange Members. Warehouses Assured

Farmers who joined the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange yesterday voted for five men to serve on the local county board of directors, the ballots being sent out to every grower in the county from the central state office. Pennington county is officially credited with 107 members, who listed 1386 acres. Each county will name five persons who will become incorporating directors to set up the county associations.

A nominating committee composed of C. L. Hansen, Rasmus Oen and R. J. McKercher presented the following ten nominees for places on the board of directors for the Pennington county association: Waldie Christensen, Chas. Correll, F. J. Satre, S. E. Hunt and Henry Oen, Thief River Falls; A. E. Hall and R. J. McKercher, St. Hilaire; Carl Beiswinger and O. K. Sevre, Wylie; Elev Aakre, Morgan Vaughan of Goodridge. Members of the association voted for five of the names mentioned or crossed out the entire ballot naming five others, thus giving each one an opportunity to vote for the person he wished. Directors of the association must be actual growers. The directors will elect one trustee to serve on the board which will establish the State Exchange.

When the directors have been chosen a warehouse association will be formed to take charge of the establishing of potato warehouses in Pennington county, according to information from the office of the county agent, J. J. McCann. Good sized warehouses to meet the demands of the growers in the community, will be erected.

FARM NEWS
from C. Gustafson & Son

For the next 30 days, we will trade in Second Hand Cream Separators at reasonable allowance toward the purchase price of NEW McCormick-Deering Primrose Cream Separators. This is your opportunity to get the best Cream Separator made, and get something out of your old Separator. The Primrose skims closer than any other machine. It runs lighter. It runs in Ball Bearings. It runs in oil. It has the McCormick-Deering guarantee and service back of it. You cannot afford to run the old machine that is not getting all of the cream. The Primrose will pay for itself in the cream saved.

We will also trade in second hand Incubators, for New QUEEN INCUBATORS. The Queen leads them all in Incubators and you should own a good one, that will hatch the big hatches, strong healthy chicks that live and grow.

We will also trade in second hand grain drills at this time at fair allowance toward the purchase price of new KENTUCKY or MONITOR GRAIN DRILLS. Besides our Drill prices are placed way below 1924 regular prices, and we have several on hand.

We will also trade in any Standard make of horse-drawn Gang Plows right now at liberal allowance toward the purchase price of any new machinery.

Will trade in any size Boss Harrow for new Boss Harrows to suit size wanted, or on any other new machinery.

Will also trade in Second Hand Mowers at liberal allowance toward the purchase price of any new machinery.

No, we are not going into the Second-hand business, but we are anxious to give our farmers service, and figure we can stretch a point or two, by rebuilding the second-hand machinery taken in and come out without losing on it on re-sales.

We have quite a large stock of second-hand and rebuilt machinery on hand at this time that we can sell at genuine bargain prices. That when you figure you cannot afford to buy new, we can fit you out on good second-hand bargains. Besides we have many bargains in new machinery in such as a New Clover Leaf Manure Spreader, a couple of 6 ft. International Field Cultivators. In Second-hand Machinery we have some Gang Plows, Sulky Plows, Grain Drills, Broad-cast Seeders, which are worth buying, if for nothing else to sow Lime and Fertilizer. Evans Potato Planter, Dowden Potato Diggers, Rebuilt Mowers, Beet Cultivators, Hay Rakes, 20 in. Brush Breaker with Truck, Auto Trailer, a couple of Tractors, Feed Grinders, Feed Cutters, a number of Second-hand and rebuilt Cream Separators, Diabolos, Empires, DeLavals, Lilly and others. Also a couple of second-hand stationary engines.

We also wish to make known that we have just added to our line the well known RED JACKET PUMP. When you buy a Red Jacket Pump, you will always know where to get service on your pump.

Red Crown
The High-Grade Gasoline
for Your Car

When you buy Red Crown Gasoline, you buy service.

We have been refining gasoline for thirty-five years. We have incorporated in Red Crown all those essential elements which experience has taught us are necessary to make an efficient motor fuel.

Red Crown Gasoline is as nearly right chemically, scientifically, physically and mechanically as we know how to make it.

Red Crown will give you as good service from your motor as any gasoline you can buy—no matter what you may pay.

With Red Crown in your tank your car will start easily, summer or winter—get away quickly—accelerate smoothly—develop sustained, rhythmic power, tremendous speed, and maximum mileage.

This we accomplish by uniformity of quality, which we guarantee whether you buy Red Crown in Southern Indiana or Northern Minnesota. The uniformity of Red Crown is of major importance to the tourist. With Red Crown Gasoline in the tank the tourist's motor is friendly, no matter how much of a stranger the driver may be to the people or the land.

RAILROAD MEN OF NORTHWEST GIVEN 5PC WAGE INCREASE

About 150 Men on Winnipeg Division Affected. Soo Payroll Here $37,000 in March

Wage increases of five per cent affecting approximately 500,000 employees of 31 western railroads and subsidiaries have been agreed upon as a result of negotiations between representatives of the roads, the Order of Railroad Conductors and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, the increase taking effect from April 1.

The increase will add to the wages of approximately 150 employes on the Winnipeg division of the Soo Line, most of whom headquarter in Thief River Falls, says Chief Clerk L. M. Rayson, and means considerable gain to trainmen and engine men in this city. It is said that about $50,000,000 will be added annually to the payrolls of the railroads which have agreed to the new contracts. Approximately $2,000,000 will be added to the eight northwest railroads centered in the twin cities.

Passenger trainmen will receive an increase of 24 cents a day; freight trainmen, 30 cents; conductors, 33 cents; brakemen and switchmen, 26 cents.

Soo Line employees in Thief River Falls, numbering about 250, in March received a total of $37,000, according to Agent H. A. Pratt, which is considerably below the normal payroll. Two weeks ago 20 men were added to the force at the local yards, increasing the payroll considerably.

CLUB LUNCHEON TO BE HELD TUESDAY

The Commercial Club will hold its regular Thursday noon luncheon and meeting, Tuesday noon next week, instead of Thursday, and Henry Clark, who gives the reading, "The Fool," at the Presbyterian church that evening, will address the club.

Boy Injured and Truck Damaged In Auto Spill

In turning out for a passing automobile on the road north of Argyle Sunday afternoon, the Northern Baking company truck, driven by Iver Dahl overturned in the ditch, badly injuring his brother, Paul, aged 10, who was thrown partly thru the windshield and incurred a severe cut about three inches deep over the left hip from the broken glass.

First aid was given at Argyle and a car sent from this city to bring them to town, where Paul was placed in the hospital under the care of Dr. J. T. Bowers. The boy is rapidly improving and, barring infection, no serious condition is apt to develop.

The truck was damaged to the extent of a broken wheel and a few minor parts broken. Iver escaped without injury.

The Peoples Co-operative Store will give their second annual dance at the Sons of Norway hall Friday, April 25. Everybody is cordially welcomed.

OPERETTA BY GLEE CLUBS BIG SUCCESS

"The Gypsy Rover" is Most Delightful and Finished Production by H. S. Talent

"The Gypsy Rover," presented last Friday evening by the high school glee clubs, scored an unusual success and has been pronounced the most finished production ever staged by Lincoln High.

The cast was admirably well chosen and each character fitted his part to perfection. John Sether, as "Rob," had an exceptionally pleasing voice and carried off both the singing and speaking parts equally well. "Constance," as played by Eileen Arneson, was worthy of a professional of the highest order. Melvin Engelstad was one of the biggest "hits" of the operetta in the character of the "Right Honorable Sir Archibald Craven," while "Marto" and "Sinfo," otherwise Buell Will and Clifford Storholm, brot forth a storm of laughter and applause in the robber scene. Ariel Kinghorn, "Meg," made a most realistic gypsy woman, and the rich, full tones of her voice are deserving of much praise. Francis Olm was very good in the difficult role of the irate Father, "Sir George Martindale," and Camille Warner made a delightfully vivacious and bewitching gypsy queen. "Nina" and "Captain Jerome," taken by Isabel Richter and Math Barzen, were of the same high calibre that characterized the entire cast.

There were several excellent choruses, the best of which was the "Bind the Tresses of the Bride" dance, composed of fourteen girls in sports costume. The "Moon" chorus, made up of eight girls and eight boys in evening dress, was likewise very attractive. Special mention should also be made of the opening scene in which the bright clothes and flashy jewelry of the gypsy chorus, combined with the soft lighting, produced a most weird and beautiful effect.

One of the factors that contributed largely to the play's success was the costuming of the members of the cast. The powdered wigs and gorgeous costumes of the period of George the Third and the gay silks and velvets of the gypsies added a great deal to the effectiveness of all the scenes.

Too much credit cannot be given Miss Maude L. Johnson, music supervisor, for putting on an operetta of such fine quality, to Lawrence Mickelson for his assistance in directing the cast, and to Miss Clara Baumann who directed the dances.

The money procured through the presentation of "The Gypsy Rover" is to be used for the purpose of buying music and equipment for the musical organizations in school.

Eighth Central Easily Wins Grade Championship

The eighth grade Central, after easily defeating all its opponents, won the grade school basketball tournament which was held in the high school gymnasium last week.

The champions are a big, heavy bunch of fellows and they deserved to win, as no game in which they played was very close or undecided. If they continue in the same manner in which they have now started, a great deal is expected of them when they get into high school athletics.

This is the first time that such a tournament has been held in Thief River Falls and the results are very satisfactory. A greater interest in athletics has been aroused in the grades and better teams in the future are expected as a result.

Some of the outstanding players that were noticed in the games are: Erickson and Jaranson, eighth grade; Zavoral and Leimers, seventh grade; Langevin and Mulry, Washington; Dicken and Lonson, Knox; and Helgeland and Eide, Northrop.

LINCOLN HIGH WINS COMMERCIAL HONORS

Local Representatives Receive 2nd and 3rd Places in Commercial Contest at Crookston

Lincoln High again won honors when it was awarded second and third places in the Shorthand II and Advanced Typewriting contests held in Crookston last Saturday. Gladys Russel received second place in Shorthand II and Maxine Johnson third in Advanced Typewriting, while Crookston carried off all the remaining honors.

Gladys Russel, Maxine Johnson, and Myrtle Erickson were the representatives from the local high school and were accompanied to the contest by Miss Monica Bambrick, commercial instructor, and Principal Morris Bye. Eighteen other towns were supposed to have taken part in the contests but due to the fact that this is such a busy time of the year, some of them did not have time to make adequate preparations for it and consequently did not think it worthwhile to enter their candidates.

Although Thief River Falls did not receive first place, Miss Bambrick is well pleased as the girls had very little time to practice due to operetta rehearsals.

Miss Mildred Thompson, instructor of ancient and modern history, has been taken ill with scarlet fever and will be unable to resume her duties as teacher for at least three weks.

A Wet Day Causes One-Third More Calls

Rainy days often cause one-third more telephone calls. On such days, more people remain indoors and use the telephone.

Likewise, hot days and very cold days mean that many more telephone calls will be made.

Snow storms, also, add to the problem of providing service. At such times it is difficult for the operators to get to work, while at the same time many more telephone calls are made.

And frequently bad storms tear down poles and wires, shutting off telephone service.

Uniformly satisfactory telephone service is our constant aim, but occasionally conditions arise which are temporarily beyond all human control. At such a time we especially appreciate the patience of our patrons until the situation can be met.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS

Prospects Look Promising When About 40 Candidates Report For Practice Monday

Coach L. A. Thune has now given up all other sports and is devoting his time to spring football in preparation for a winning team next fall. The first practice meet was held Monday and such a plentiful supply of candidates turned out that prospects look very promising.

Only five letter men will be lost through graduation, Math Barzen, John Sether, Joseph Gavin, Wendell Lundell, and Thomas Belland, and though their absence will be felt, with such a large squad to choose from, it ought to be comparatively easy to fill their positions. About twenty men from last year's squad and almost twenty entirely new prospects reported on Monday.

The first few days of practice will be devoted to line charging, passing catching, punting, and falling on the ball. Later, when the candidates are in better condition, they will have dummy practice, tackling, blocking, and scrimmage.

Two games have been scheduled for this spring with Warren, one here and one there. No other definite arrangements for games with other towns have been made, although prospects look promising for a game with Crookston and one with East Grand Forks.

Some of the men reporting for practice and who will be candidates for positions on the team next fall are: Michael Parenteau, Arthur Penney, Arne Berg, Allan Sorenson, Lloyd Bennes, Roy Langevin, Kenneth Streeter, Walter Larson, Richard Zeh, Melvin Peterson, Lawrence Mulry, Orden Ihle, Maurice Holznecht, Robert Hulvorson, Charles Froseth, Ernest Jaranson, Clifford Bjorkman, Earl Bessler, Thomas Melgaard, Reuben Olson, Russel Elefson, Reuben Stenvick, Arnold Kolden, Alfred Coulter, Harry Baker, Earl Benson and Alphie Hance.

GOODRIDGE

Goodridge Man Accidentally Killed While Blasting Rock in Hibbing Mine Last Week

Carl John Josephson of Goodridge, aged 41, died Tuesday, April 8, at the Rood hospital in Hibbing as the result of injuries received while blasting rock in a mine in the Hibbing district. The accident occurred when a fragment of a large rock which he was blasting struck him on the shoulder and crushed it. He was confined in the hospital for six days before he died.

Mr. Josephson was born Feb. 21, 1883, at Hayfield, this state, where he made his home until ten years ago when he came to Goodridge and has resided there since. He was unmarried but is survived by his aged mother, who lives at Blooming Prairie, Minn.; two brothers, Geo. O. and Alfred B., and a sister, Mrs. M. O. Seavy, all of Goodridge; and four other sisters, Mrs. M. O. Michaelson of Minneapolis, Mrs. C. H. Henderson, of Alden, Mrs. C. S. Seavy and Mrs. A. W. Seavy of Blooming Prairie, besides a host of friends.

Funeral services were held Friday from the home of his brother, George Josephson at Goodridge, Rev. George Larson of the Zion Lutheran church here, officiating. The remains were taken to Hayfield where he was laid to rest beside his father, who died some time ago.

Miss Christina Markuson returned home Thursday after spending a few days visiting friends in Thief River Falls.

E. L. Fore attended the Junior-Senior banquet last Friday.

H. M. Hope is now hauling the freight from Goodridge to Grygla for the Grygla Co-operative store. This freight has formerly been hauled by J. E. Maney, but owing to a lower bid H. M. Hope received the contract.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Melby and two children visited at the Oliver Resan home Sunday and returned the same day.

Otis Rongen received a telegram from Ostrander, Minn., Sunday telling of his mother's death.

Lawrence and Evered Seavey left for Hibbing Monday to continue their work in the mines. They were home on account of their uncle's death.

Mr. and Mrs. Josephson and daughters, Marjoria and Betty, Mrs. Seavey and children, Clifton, Lorraine and Robert left Friday evening for Blooming Prairie where they will make their home in the future.

Each Class To Publish One Issue of "Progress"

Beginning with next week's issue of the "Progress," each class will have an opportunity for showing its journalistic ability by editing one number. The Freshmen will put out the paper next week, the Sophomores the week after, then the Juniors, and lastly the Seniors.

This contest between the classes is an annual event and has caused much competition in past years. It is carried on in order to determine who is most fitted for a position on the staff next year and to uncover any hidden journalistic talent.

Each class will elect a complete staff and it will be their duty to hunt up all school news and see that it is written up in a manner that will reflect credit on the class. As none of the present staff members will be permitted to assist on the class staffs, there is no reason why each group will not have an equally good chance for publishing the best paper. The English classes will likewise furnish material so that every person may have an opportunity for contributing to one of the issues regardless of whether or not he is on the staff.

Put on your "think caps," students, and see how much you can do towards making your issue the best and winning a place on next year's "Progress" staff.

Basketball Men Given Banquet By Dr. Penney

The members of the Lincoln High basketball team were guests at a six-thirty dinner given at the Dr. G. A. Penney home last Thursday evening, April 10.

There were no speeches or toasts made as the boys usually worry so much over these that it detracts from their pleasure. The evening was spent in playing cards, talking, and listening in on the radio. The guests were: Coach L. A. Thune, Principal Morris Bye, Dr. Penney, Roy Langevin, John Sether, Math Barzen, Allan Sorenson, Michael Parenteau, Arthur Penney, Lloyd Bennes, and Lawrence Mury.

SENIOR PLAY TO BE "MARY'S MILLIONS"

Cast Being Chosen and Rehearsals to Start Immediately for Presentation of Play May 9

The Senior class play has now been chosen and rehearsals will commence immediately under the direction of Lawrence Mickelson. "Mary's Millions," written by Frederick G. Johnson, was the play selected and will be presented to the public on May 9.

A committee composed of Principal Morris Bye, class advisor, Miss Mildred Thompson, class chaperone, Miss Miriam Simon, declamatory coach, and Lawrence Mickelson, public speaking and debate instructor, chose the play and are now selecting the cast in order that practice may start Thursday. The cast consists of eleven characters, six girls and five boys, and a number of villagers.

There were a number of plays considered but "Mary's Millions" seemed to be the cleverest and the most adaptable for presentation by the Senior class. The lines are unusually witty and the action moves swiftly from start to finish so that there are no dull moments. There are several character parts but all are of the type that can be portrayed easily and well by high school students.

The cast will have to undergo some very intensive training within the next month but with Mr. Mickelson as director, there is little doubt but that a play will be produced that will bring credit to the class.

Watch for the announcement of the cast next week.

Normal Notes

The normal girls have begun to put into practical use their knowledge of hot lunch work. Each afternoon two of the girls take charge of the cooking and serving of one dish. This is a valuable practice and a very enjoyable one for those—whose turn it isn't.

The following normal students have started practice teaching in the seventh and eighth grades: Myrtle Solom, Ruth Hoppe, Esther Larson, Ruby Thompson, Gladys Elofson, Clare Lund, and Edna Alexander.

Seniors To Present Skit "Taking Father's Place"

The exact date for the Senior class skit, entitled "Taking Father's Place" is still uncertain but it will undoubtedly be given in about two weeks. The illness of Miss Mildred Thompson, who has been directing the cast, has caused some delay and will make it necessary to secure another director.

The play is a one-act comedy and is to be presented as a vaudeville entertainment in connection with the regular movie at the Princess theater. It is being put on as a separate venture in order to secure more money for the "Prowler" fund and has no relationship to the annual Senior class play.

Those taking part in the skit are: Hylda Peterson, Hazel Krause, Gladys Kolden, Melvin Engelstad, Clifford Storholm, Orrin Storholm, Vergil Denhart, and Lawrence Bjorkman. A more detailed announcement of the play and the parts taken by the members of the cast will be given later.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Get Back Your Health as Other Thief River Falls Folks Have Done.

Too many people suffer lame, aching backs, distressing kidney disorders and rheumatic aches and pains. Often this is due to faulty kidney action and there's danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Don't let weak kidneys wear you out. Use Doan's Pills before it is too late! Doan's are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Here is one of many Thief River Falls cases.

Mrs. Knute Swanson, 212 Main Ave., S., says: "My back seemed as though it would break in two. It was so sore and stiff that when I moved suddenly, a sharp pain stabbed me. To do my housework was out of the question and I tired easily. I was annoyed by the way my kidneys were acting. Doan's Pills cured me of the attack."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Swanson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale Notice

Whereas default has occurred in the conditions of that certain mortgage made by L. E. Miller and Mathilda Miller, his wife, mortgagors, to Paul A. Dahle, mortgagee, dated the 2nd day of March, 1921, and with a power of sale therein contained, recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Pennington and State of Minnesota on the 2nd day of March, 1921, at 10 o'clock A. M., in Book 51 of Mortgages on page 33, such default consisting in the non-payment of interest due and payable upon said mortgage on March 2, 1924, amounting to the sum of Seven Hundred Twenty Dollars ($720.00), and, whereas, the said mortgagee has declared and does hereby declare the whole sum secured by said mortgage to be due and payable, and, whereas, there is now claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice upon said mortgage the sum of Twelve Thousand Seven Hundred Forty-three and 32-100 Dollars ($12743.32), and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof,

NOW, THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit:

The Southeast quarter of the Southeast quarter (SE¼ SE¼) of Section Nine (9), and the Southwest quarter (SW¼) of Section Ten (10), Township One Hundred Fifty-four (154) North, of Range Forty-three (43) West, of the Fifth Principal Meridian, containing two hundred (200) acres, more or less, according to the United States Government Survey thereof in the County of Pennington and State of Minnesota, which sale will be made by the sheriff of Pennington county, at the front door of the court house, in the city of Thief River Falls, in said county and state, on the 26th day of April, 1924, at 10 o'clock A. M., of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of twelve thousand seven hundred forty-three and 32-100 dollars ($12743.32), and the interest, and taxes, if any, on said premises, and two hundred dollars ($200.00) attorney's fees, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale as provided by law.

Dated March 13th, 1924.

Notice of Mortgage Foreclosure Sale

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of Sixty-six Dollars which became due on the 1st day of April, 1924 upon a certain mortgage duly executed and delivered by Omund T. Vigen and Delphine Vigen, his wife, and Gunder Stromme and Olga Stromme, his wife, mortgagors to W. B. Torgerson, mortgagee, bearing date the 1st day of April, 1919, and with the power of sale therein contained was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Pennington, State of Minnesota on the 2nd day of May, 1919, at 8 o'clock A. M. in Book 57 of Mortgages on page 279 thereof, which mortgage thereafter was duly assigned by the said W. B. Torgerson to the Bank of Cambridge, by an assignment in writing, dated the 5th day of May, 1919 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for Pennington County, Minnesota on the 6th day of May, 1919 at 8 o'clock A. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages on page 4, which mortgage again was assigned by the said Bank of Cambridge to C. K. Onsgard by written assignment dated July 30th, 1919 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pennington County, Minnesota on the 1st day of August, 1919 at 8 o'clock A. M. in Book 63 of Mortgages, on page 112, and which mortgage thereafter was re-assigned by the said C. K. Onsgard to the said Bank of Cambridge by written assignment, dated February 12th, 1924, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for Pennington County, Minnesota on the 26th day of March, 1924 at 8 o'clock A. M. in Volume 75 of Mortgages on page 352 thereof, and whereas pursuant to the terms and conditions of said mortgage by reason of said default the whole principal sum thereof, to-wit: the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1200.00) and interest became at once due and payable and was and is hereby so declared, and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice upon said mortgage the sum of One Thousand Four Hundred Nineteen and 78-100 Dollars ($1419.78).

And whereas, the said power of sale has become operative and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, Notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage above described will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, to-wit: Lots numbered Six (6), Seven (7), Eight (8), and Ten (10) in Section No. Four (4), of Township No. One, Hundred Fifty-two (152) North of Range No. Thirty-nine (39) West of the 5th P. M. in Minnesota, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Pennington County at the front door of the courthouse in the City of Thief River Falls in said County and State on Friday the 16th day of May, 1924 at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at public vendue to pay said debt and interest from the date of this notice to the date of sale, and taxes if any on the premises together with an attorney's fee of Seventy-five Dollars as stipulated in said mortgage and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of sale as provided by law.

Notice of Hearing on Petition for Extension of Time of Payment of Ditch Liens

STATE OF MINNESOTA, County of Pennington.

In the Matter of Judicial Ditch No. 18, having its source at The Southeast Corner of Section 23, Township 154, Range 41 in the County of Pennington. Thence running in a Northerly and Westerly direction and having its outlet at Branch B of Marshall County Ditch No. 20 in the County of Marshall, State of Minnesota, and established by the order of District Court, dated the 29th day of July, 1910:

Notice is Hereby Given, That a petition has been filed in my office and is there open for inspection, representing, among other things, that many of the owners of land assessed for the construction of the ditch above described and entitled have defaulted in the payment of installments of principal and interest of the lien on their lands therefor as shown by the ditch lien record thereof on file in my office and open to inspection; that many of such owners are unable to pay such installments now due and to become due; that it is for the best interests of all persons interested in said matter and is necessary to protect the credit of, and prevent loss to, the County of Pennington, State of Minnesota, that the time of payment of installments of principal and interest, and of the portions thereof, remaining unpaid, be extended; and praying that the times of payment of installments of principal and of portions thereof, due and payable in the years 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926 and 1927, be extended for Five years respectively from the time each of such installments are now due and payable as appears from said lien record thereof on file in my office:

That Therefore said petition will be heard by the County Board of said County of Pennington, on the 5th day of May, 1924, at one o'clock P. M., at the Commissioners Room in the Pennington County Court House, in the City of Thief River Falls, in said County and State; that the purpose of said hearing will be to determine whether or not said petition shall be granted; and that at said time and place all persons interested in said matter will be heard, both for and against, the granting of said petition.

Dated April 7th, 1924.

T. P. ANDERSON,
County Auditor, Pennington County, Minnesota.

D. 1922, and duly recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on the 1st day of March, A. D. 1924, at 1 o'clock P. M., in Book 63 of Mortgages, on page 529, and that default has been made in the conditions of said mortgage, on account of which default the whole of the sum secured by said mortgage has become and is declared to be now due and payable.

That the amount now due and claimed to be due on said mortgage is the sum of Four Thousand, Four Hundred Sixty-four and 72-100ths Dollars ($4464.72) and that said Walter Rasmussen is now the owner and holder of said mortgage, and the debt secured thereby, and no action at law or otherwise has been instituted to recover said debt or any part thereof.

The premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage deed are situated within said Pennington County, Minnesota, and are known and described in said mortgage deed as follows:

Lots Seven (7) and Eight (8) of Section Twenty-nine (29), and the North East Quarter of the North East Quarter (NE¼ NE¼) of Section Thirty-one (31) and the South East Quarter of the North East Quarter (SE¼ NE¼) of Section Thirty-one (31) and the North West Quarter (NW¼) of Section Thirty-two (32) all in Township One Hundred Fifty-three (153) North of Range Forty (40) West of the Fifth Principal Meridian in Minnesota, containing Three Hundred One and 95-100 (301.95) acres, more or less, according to the United States Government Survey thereof.

And, pursuant to the power of sale contained in said mortgage deed, and the statute in such case made and provided, the premises above described will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in the sheriff's main office in the court house in the City of Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota, on Tuesday, the twenty-ninth day of April, A. D. 1924, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, by the Sheriff of said Pennington County, Minnesota, to satisfy the amount due upon said mortgage, and Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) attorney's fees stipulated for in said mortgage, and the costs and charges of notice and sale.

Dated this seventh day of March, A. D. 1924.

Notice of Hearing on Petition for Extension of Time of Payment of Ditch Liens.

State of Minnesota,
County of Pennington.

In the Matter of Judicial Ditch No 12, having its source at the Quarter Post on the south side of Section 30, Township 151, Range 39, in the County of Pennington, thence running in a Westerly direction and having its outlet at Branch 2 of Marshall County Ditch No. 20, in the County of Marshall, State of Minnesota, and established by the order of District Court dated the 29th day of July, 1910:

Notice is Hereby Given; That a petition has been filed in my office and is there open for inspection, representing, among other things, that many of the owners of land assessed for the construction of the ditch above described and entitled have defaulted in the payment of installments of principal and interest of the lien on their lands therefor as shown by the ditch lien record thereof on file in my office and open to inspection; that many of such owners are unable to pay such installments now due and to become due; that it is for the best interests of all persons interested in said matter and is necessary to protect the credit of, and prevent loss to, the County of Pennington, State of Minnesota, that the time of payment of installments of principal and interest, and of the portions thereof, remaining unpaid, be extended; and praying that the times of payment of installments of principal and of portions thereof, due and payable in the years 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926 and 1927, be extended for Five years respectively from the time each of such installments are now due and payable as appears from said lien record thereof on file in my office:

That Therefore said Petition will be heard by the County Board of said County of Pennington, on the 5th day of May, 1924, at one o'clock P. M., at the Commissioners Room in the Pennington County Court House, in the City of Thief River Falls, in said County and State; that the purpose of said hearing will be to determine whether or not said petition shall be granted; and that at said time and place all persons interested in said matter will be heard, both for and against, the granting of said petition.

Dated April 7th, 1924.

As Others See Us

IN ITS issue of March 5, the Gazette, of Hutchinson, Kansas, says:

"THE BRIGHT SIDE

The Standard Oil Company gets into print often but never on account of trouble with its employes. Arthur Brisbane says the company is the best managed business organization in the world.

The entire oil business has been singularly free from labor troubles which have beset many of the other major industries. Reasons for this can be found in the fact of the rapid growth of the industry, the payment of relatively high wages and the shifting of producing and refining centers.

The oil companies, however, have not been content to allow harmony to rest entirely with conditions. Efforts have been made, in the Standard and other companies, to obtain the greatest harmony possible among the workers. The Standard of Indiana was a pioneer in fostering a policy granting employes, through their elected representatives, a voice in settlement of all questions affecting their welfare, as to wages, hours of labor and working conditions.

How the plan is working is expressed by Colonel Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors, who says:

'The greatest thing needed in American industry today is a better understanding between employes and management. The day of intolerant and drastic methods by either the leaders of capital or labor is past. Each needs the other, and the policy of establishing good-will, peace and understanding have been established between the management and employes of our company.

'For five years we have worked together in mutual esteem and trust. For the board of directors, I say to you that while the problems presented by the situation in the oil industry today are stupendous, we face them with a greater confidence because we feel that we have back of us the whole-hearted support of every man and woman in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).'

The oil business has its virtues as well as its foibles, if conducted properly."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been relatively free from labor troubles because justice, equity and fairness are fundamental to the organization.

Without loyalty, earnestness and complete harmony in its organization of 27,000 men and women, this Company would be unable to render to the thirty million people of the Middle West, the comprehensive service which they now enjoy and which is so essential to their commercial and domestic life.

ASSESSORS MEET IN THIEF RIVER FALLS WEDNESDAY, APR. 23

Public is Invited to Attend Meeting to be Addressed by Tax Commission Man

Instructions as to the proper method of assessing real estate and listing and assessing the different kinds of personal property in accordance with the laws of the state will be given Pennington county assessors at the meeting to be held at the court house in this city Wednesday, April 23, at 10 a. m., according to announcement by County Auditor T. P. Anderson.

The meeting is sponsored by the Minnesota tax commission, a representative of which will be present to confer with and instruct the assessors as to their duties. Every question relating to the work brought up at the meeting will be fully explained.

The conference will be open to the public and anyone interested in the matters of taxation is invited to be present. Township officers are especially urged to attend.

Supt. I. T. Simley Attending Series of Education Meetings at U. of M. This Week

I. T. Simley, superintendent of the city schools, left Sunday night for Minneapolis to attend the annual Schoolmen's Week and short course for school administrators held at the University of Minnesota April 14 to 19. The various sessions are conducted by the university in conjunction with the educational department. Last year more than 700 superintendents and high school principals attended.

Included in the activities of the week are: The annual dinner of the Knights of the Hickory Stick, high school conferences, annual meeting of the Minnesota Education association and other events. The state athletic board will consider the redivision of the state districts.

Mr. Simley expects to return next Sunday morning.

Adams Presbytery Meeting To Be Held Here in Sept.

Rev. Chas. Gerlinger of the Presbyterian church in this city attended the semi-annual meeting of the Adams Presbytery, of which the local congregation is a part, held at Crookston Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. The conference was attended by about 15 pastors and a number of elders from points thruout the northwestern section of the state, reports of each congregation being made and very satisfactory results of the past year's work noted.

The report of the Thief River Falls congregation shows a membership of 157; enrollment in the Sunday school, 193; Senior Christian Endeavor, 24; Intermediate Christian Endeavor, 17; Men's Club, 30; Men's Bible Class, 14. The Sunday school enrollment increased 23 during the past year. Reports of the various organizations within the church were very gratifying and showed an improvement financially compared to the previous year.

It was decided to hold the September meeting in Thief River Falls.

DIRECTORS OF POTATO CO-OP. ARE SELECTED

Satre, Christensen, Hunt, Beiswenger and Oen Selected As County Leaders

42 GROWERS BALLOT IN WEDNESDAY VOTE

F. T. Satre Named Trustee at Incorporation Meeting Here Yesterday

Pennington county potato growers who are members of the Minnesota State Potato Growers' exchange have chosen F. T. Satre, St. Hilaire, Carl Beiswenger, Kratka, Waldie Christensen, S. E. Hunt and Henry Oen, Thief River Falls, to act as directors of the county association during the coming year. This group met yesterday at the Commercial club rooms to proceed with the organization and incorporated the local unit, which is one of the 31 associations comprising the state exchange. F. T. Satre was named by the directors as trustee representing the Pennington county unit in the formation of the state exchange board of 52 members. F. A. Green of Stephen, representing the state office, met with the directors yesterday to assist in the legal steps connected with incorporation and other matters.

The trustees will meet in St. Paul on April 26, if possible, to form the state exchange and to begin the task of establishing the sales agency.

Half of Members Vote

A total of 42 votes were cast in the election on Wednesday of last week, the balloting taking place at the First National bank in this city. Each of the 107 members of the Pennington county unit was entitled to one ballot and had the privilege of voting for any five members he desired. Those elected are from the group recently nominated by a committee and whose names appeared on the printed ballots sent out from the St. Paul headquarters. The following other nominees on the list received scattering votes: R. J. McKercher, O. K. Savre and A. F. Satre, St. Hilaire; Morgan Vaughan, Goodridge, and Ellev Aakre, Erie.

Since the campaign closed, the membership in the Minnesota exchange has increased 200 to a total of 12,420. More than 160,000 acres are now covered by contracts.

New Contracts Necessary

The state office is taking steps to prepare a new contract which will be used in membership extension work. A new contract is necessary because the one used in the campaign was conditioned on the state committee getting a minimum acreage by a given date. Now that the acreage has been obtained, the new contracts will be an application to join an established institution, including, of course, all the terms and conditions of the original agreement.

Growers will be permitted to sign the new contract up to seeding time.

The extensive warehousing program of the exchange will be handled separately in each county by the county organization.

MANY PASTORS TO CONVENE IN CITY

Missouri Synod Circuit Conference at St. John's Church Three Days Next Week

The Northern Park Region circuit of the Missouri Lutheran Synod will hold its semi-annual conference of pastors in this city at the St. John's church, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week when about 25 pastors from this district will meet to make plans for the coming season and discuss professional matters. Among prominent pastors in attendance will be the Rev. H. Meyer of Lakefield, president of the Minnesota district, and Rev. F. Randt of St. Paul, state chairman of missions. Rev. E. H. Kriedt, local pastor, will preside.

Divine services will be conducted at the church Tuesday evening by Rev. W. C. Clausen of Lake Itasca and Rev. H. Mayer of International Falls, and the public is cordially invited to attend. A song service is also under consideration and may be held Wednesday evening. The purpose is to give a demonstration of how some of the church songs should be sung for the proper interpretation.

Lawrence LaCoe, aged six, son of K. LaCoe, received a painful injury to the second finger of his right hand Saturday when playing with a few other boys the finger was cut in a fodder cutter. The attending physician stated he will not lose the use of his hand but the injury is a severe one.

Tax Judgment Sale Here May 12. Credit Body Has Offered Aid for Relief

County Auditor T. P. Anderson has posted notices of the annual tax judgment sale which will be held at his office in the court house on Monday, May 12, beginning at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. A notice appears in this week's issue of The Times, the official county paper. At this time all lands in Pennington county on which the 1922 taxes are delinquent will be sold.

The list of property which will be sold for delinquent taxes at this time includes 1663 land descriptions, which number is 49 more than for the previous year, according to Auditor Anderson. An effort will be made to secure the aid of the Agricultural Credit Corporation in purchasing tax certificates as outlined in last issue of The Times.

Persons holding title to the lands will have three years from the date of the sale in which to redeem the property by paying the taxes and all additional costs incurred by the sale.

NEW AUDITORIUM RATES APPROVED

East End of Second St. E. Ordered Vacated. White Way is Being Changed

The rates to be charged for the use of the auditorium in the future are provided in an amended ordinance given its reading at the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday night, at which time the figures were recommended by the committee on buildings which has had the matter under consideration for several weeks. The rates as proposed and as adopted are: $20 for one night for local productions; $30 for one night for transients; $20 per night if taken for six consecutive nights; $15 for political meetings, and free for conventions coming to this city.

The ordinance regulating the rates for light and power was given its second reading while the proposed ordinance governing the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor was not touched upon, altho it should have had its second reading two weeks ago and its third and final reading this week.

A report was made showing that a partial installation to equip the poor farm will cost $137.20 but various other items will be needed and so further time was asked by the committee.

The committee on the repair of the incinerator also asked for further time so that they might investigate the methods adopted by other places to avoid the nuisance which prevails here, it being the belief that the odors now issuing can be eliminated.

The easterly end of East Second street was ordered vacated so that the creamery may use this portion of the land for their new creamery whenever they are prepared to erect the building.

A start will be made at once to change over the white way so that it will be one of the best in the state. The standards now in use will be taken down and before being re-erected will have the cross arms removed and an inverted top placed thereon. The new openings in the sidewalks left when the paving was laid will then be used and the lights will present a neat appearance along the curb edge.

J. C. Penney Company Celebrates 22nd Anniversary

Twenty-two years of service to the public was completed by the J. C. Penney company on Saturday, April 12. The company was founded in 1902 at a small mining camp in Wyoming and has grown to the indisputable position of the world's largest chain department store organization.

It was fitting that the company should give recognition to its birthday in some way and decided that the better way was to give another community the advantage and pleasure of economical shopping which this and several hundred other communities have been enjoying.

Hamilton, Missouri, was decided upon to be the home of the new store.

It is interesting to note that J. C. Penney, whose name this great nation-wide institution bears, was born in Hamilton where, after the usual public school training, he secured his first mercantile experience in the same building and the very room where he now is opening store No. 500 in the great chain.

Associated with Mr. Penney in the ownership of the Hamilton store, are fourteen men all of whom were born in this Missourian town and are now connected with the company as stockholders and managers in other places.

The store opening was the occasion of an enthusiastic home-coming and was attended by Mr. Penney, Mr. J. M. McDonald and others of the company.

Announcement is made that nearly one hundred additional stores will be added to this organization during the present year.

Another interesting announcement was made the other dayby Manager H. E. Nelson of the local store, to the effect that recently the company drew its check for over $2,000,000 to the order of a single manufacturer of shoes. This colossal payment indicates something of the quantity of different lines of goods required by this large combination of retail establishments.

District Judge Here Monday

Judge Andrew Grindeland of Warren was in the city Monday to hear the case of the Farmers and Merchants State bank vs Emerson Brantingham Implement company, which appeared on the February calendar of district court but was postponed until at this time. The case involved the cancellation of a deed on the Oscar Stageberg land in Clover Leaf township. The judge has taken the matter under advisement and it is expected that a decision will be rendered in the near future.

RURAL CREDITS LOANS HERE NOW EXCEED MILLION

Total of $1,145,400 Loaned To 219 Pennington County Farmers By State

61 LOANS RECORDED SINCE FEBRUARY 23

Largest Loan is for $15,000 While Average is About $5,000 Records Show

More than a million dollars has now been loaned to Pennington county farmers by the state under the new rural credit act passed by the last Minnesota legislature, according to figures obtained in the office of the register of deeds, Fred Lorentson, who states that new farm mortgages are still containing to come into the office for filing.

Up to Saturday, April 19, rural credit loans in this county aggregated $1,145,400, a total of 219 mortgages having been filed with the register of deeds since the bureau began operations last fall, the first loan being recorded the last part of August.

One Each Day

Since Feb. 23, two months ago, 61 loans totalling $267,700 were recorded, an average of one each day. This average holds true for the entire period since the beginning of the bureau's operations. On Nov. 17 a total of 79 loans aggregating $400,300 had been made in this county, the amount having more than doubled since then.

The loans granted range in amount from $900 on a quarter-section farm to $15,000 on a 3000-acre farm near St. Hilaire, one of the finest in the country. Only one $15,000 loan, which is the maximum allowed under the credits act, is recorded so far, the average being about $5,200. There is one loan for $13,500, two for $13,000, four for $12,000, one for $11,500, ten for $10,000, seventy-two between $5,000 and $10,000 and the remaining 128 being in sums ranging from $900 to $5,000. Most of them are in excess of $2,000.

Only Actual Farmers Aided

Under provisions of the law loans may be made only to actual farmers, 35 years being allowed for repayment by amortization. The borrower must pay 6½ per cent interest in semi-annual payments. Most of the loans are being made to retire previous obligations and the money coming into the community thru the channels of the rural credits act is doing much to relieve the strained financial situation.

GRADE CHILDREN TO PRESENT OPERETTA

Delightful Program To Be Given by Knox Pupils at Auditorium Tomorrow Evening

A delightful entertainment is in store for Thief River Falls people tomorrow, Friday, evening when a program of songs, dances and drills and an operetta, "The Land of Dolls," will be given by the pupils of the Knox school at the city auditorium. The program which is interesting as well as entertaining is under the direction of the Knox teachers, who have practised diligently with the groups of children for some time in preparation for the appearance tomorrow.

Following is the program preceding the operetta:

Group of Songs	First and 2nd Grade
Folk Dance	1st and 2nd Grade
Orchestra	3rd Grade
Motion Song.
Southern Picture.
Swedish Folk Song	3rd Grade
Playlet,	"Crusaders and Germs"
News Boys' Drill	Group of Boys
Japanese Drill	Girls from 5th and 6th Grades

The story of the operetta is in brief as follows: First scene — Two little girls disobey their mother and are cast into a dark room. The Fairy Queen transports them to the "Land of Dolls"; scene two—Doll Land is quite attractive until they create trouble and the dolls, too, inflict a punishment for misconduct. The Fairy Queen re-appears and makes them promise to always cheerfully do as bidden and transports them back home.

Music will be furnished by the high school orchestra which is directed by Maude L. Johnson, music instructor of the city schools, and is a musical organization of which any high school can be proud. The numbers given by the orchestra at the recent presentation of "The Gypsy Rover" by the Glee clubs of the high school were decidedly pleasing, meriting the high praise accorded.

The proceeds of the play will be used for purchasing necessary furnishings for the Knox school and it is hoped that there will be a large turnout. Admission charges are 25 cents for adults and high school students and 15 cents for grade children. The program will commence at 8 o'clock sharp.

Teachers of the Knox school in charge of the program are: Mrs. E. Lacy, Misses Carolyn Melby, Agnes Gunderson, Esther Gunderson, Agnes Aaseng, Margaret Saugen, Sarah Vaughan and Aneta Dahlquist.

Christian Scientist to Lecture

A lecture by Judge Samuel Greene, C. S., of Louisville, Ky., under the auspices of the Christian Science Society, Friday evening, May 2, and 8:15 o'clock, at the church edifice on the corner of LaBree and Bridge St. Judge Greene is a prominent man in the Christian Science organization and is known as a very able lecturer. Everybody is welcomed to attend this meeting. No charge will be made.

Judges of Election Are Named By Councilmen

Judges of election were named for the year Tuesday night by the city council preparatory to the coming primary in June and the registration and election in the fall. Practically all of the former judges were reappointed as is evidenced by the following who were so named:

First ward—Ed Ness, B. Knudsen and Emil Griebstein.

Second ward—Herbert C. Jung, Alfred Bredeson and W. H. Akre.

Third ward—P. J. Keating, Mrs. W. H. Waldorf and Andrew Bottelson.

Fourth ward—C. M. Wilson, Mrs. Schuster and Frank Cernousek.

BUTTER OUTPUT THIS YEAR IS 50 PCT. OVER 1923

Tremendous Increase in Butterfat Receipts at Local Creamery During March

BUTTER SHIPMENTS NEARLY 46,000 LBS.

Twenty-Six Patrons on $100 List. Creamery's Capacity Nearly Reached Now

Butter shipments from the local co-operative creamery during March this year totalled 45,928 pounds compared to 30,650 pounds for the corresponding month in 1923, an increase of 50 per cent, according to figures submitted by Thos. H. Bjerke, secretary. The volume of production during March increased about 40 per cent over the preceding month. Patrons of the creamery received $23,016.05 during March, a substantial sum to be distributed among farmers of the community.

So far this year the increase each month has been from 35 to 50 per cent over the corresponding month last year and with a proportionate increase until the peak of production is reached, it is expected that the butter output will reach the 100,000 pound mark for the month. July last year had a record of 76,000 pounds.

Best Season in History

If the increase in receipts of cream at the Thief River Falls Co-operative creamery continues the rest of the year at the rate it has started this will be by long odds the best season the institution has ever experienced. The record also indicates the rapid growth of the dairy industry in this community. Not only is the list of producers growing at a very satisfactory rate, but the old-timers are shown as having either greatly improved their herds or have added considerably to the number of cows on the farms.

Already the capacity of butter production has practically been reached at the creamery in this city say those in charge, and it will be quite a problem to take care of the entire output of its patrons during the summer months when butterfat production is at its maximum. It becomes apparent that something will have to be done by the association to meet with this tremendous increase, it is pointed out, either by enlarging the present plant or consider building plans which were postponed for the year at the annual meeting last winter.

Many Get Large Checks

Following is a list of big-check getters who received $100 or more during the month of March, according to a list submitted by Secretary Bjerke, one name heading the list being omitted by request:

Hans Anton, $262.56; Fuller and Anton, $250.98; W. Christensen, $242.30; L. O. Williams, $210.70;; C. H. Swanson, $186.44; R. M. Johnson, $168.75; S. F. Hunt, $166.08; Hardisty and Son, $163.90; O. J. Dols, $163.59; Berg Bros., $151.94; K. Ystesund, $146.40; Alf. Hanson, $146.40 Thos. Sanders, $144.95; S. Torgerson, $144.50; C. H. Toomey, $137.85; C. Liden, $121.79; H. Koop, $120.65; C. Hiener, $119.70; J. Kierk, $119.13; Christ Nelson, $108.14; P. Solem, $106.50; Smith Bros, $106.20 M. T. McFarland, $106.20; John Skomedal, $106.35; Oluf Omlid, $101.85; Mrs. Mosbeck, $99.55.

SCOUT EXECUTIVE TO SPEAK FRIDAY

Last Meeting of Presbyterian Men's Club at Church Tomorrow Evening

The final meeting of the Men's club of the Presbyterian church will be held Friday evening in the Presbyterian church when the men will gather for a fellowship supper. The Club will be presided over by its president, O. R. Sande. Reports will be heard from the various committees as follows: Boys' Work, Geo. M. Wilson; Bible Study, Bert Umland, Sr.; Membership and Public Meetings, F. F. Haynes; Missionery, L. R. Roberts; Mothers and Daughters Banquet, J. S. Arneson. There will be a brief program before the business of the evening, a reading by Mrs. Gerlinger and several songs by request.

The feautre of the evening will be an address by C. N. Meserve, Regional Scout Executive for Minnesota, North and South Dakota, who will speak on Scout Work. The committees in charge have planned to invite men interested in scout work to attend this meeting for the purpose of a general interest in Scout work, it being hoped that the men of the city will take an active interest in Scout work.

T. P. Anderson, county auditor, left last evening for the twin cities to attend to various business matters connected with county affairs.

LOCAL FARMERS MAY GET LOANS FOR LIVESTOCK

CO. AGENT McCANN AT FARGO MEETING

Not Over $1000 to One Individual. Rate of Interest on Loans Will Be 6%

County Agent J. J. McCann returned yesterday morning from Fargo where he was in attendance at a conference of county agents of Northern Minnesota and North Dakota, representatives of agricultural colleges of this state, North and South Dakota and Montana, railroad representatives and other agricultural experts from the Northwest, for the purpose of laying plans for the operation of the $1,000,000 livestock loan fund, created by the recently formed $10,000,000 Agricultural Credit corporation. The meeting was well attended and was presided over by M. O. Grangaard, vice president of the corporation and chairman of the tentative plan for aiding farmers in holding their own breeding stock as well as loaning a million to them directly for the purchase of more livestock.

County Agent McCann stated to a Times representative yesterday, that although the press reports are that there will be no restricted area for the proposed loans in the four states, such is nevertheless the case during the experimental stage of the project, it being decided to include only four northwestern Minnesota counties, Pennington, Roseau, Kittson and Mahnomen, besides the state of North Dakota. South Dakota and Montana and counties in this section of Minnesota without a county agent are not included in the area in which farmers may avail themselves of this loan. Mr. McCann stated that a committee composed of himself, a man appointed by the proposed loans in the four states, ity and a third member appointed by the first two, will assist the farmers of this county in getting loans under this plan.

That the plan is merely tentative and primarily for "try out" purposes was asserted by Mr. Grangaard.

"It is merely the basis for thoroughly testing out the demand for farmers in the territory for loans of this character; the practicability of the machinery proposed for making the loans and the efficacy of stimulating diversification through the me-

FACTORY INSTALLS MODERN MACHINERY

Roy Belcher, Local Bridge Contractor, Buys Interest in Thief River Box Factory

Announcements made by the proprietors of the Thief River Falls Box Factory this week would indicate that that organization will soon be one of the best equipped and most efficient organizations of its kind in this section of the country, in view of the fact that some of the most modern methods in box manufacture are being introduced. Roy Belcher, local machinist and contractor, has also become one of the proprietors by purchasing one-third interest in the company with William Korstad and Mr. Belcher.

Machinery including a chopper, planer and edger is being installed this week and with this new equipment the plant will have a decidedly increased production capacity of a higher grade of work and will increase efficiency to eliminate much of the labor and overhead expense. The chopper is a machine used for slicing the boards instead of ripping by saw, thereby eliminating the waste by sawdust, which is great in sawing narrow boards such as used for boxes. This machine cuts boards at the high rate of 80 a minute. The planer and edger will enable the company to manufacture the highest grade of boxes and both are high grade and large capacity machines. The company also plans the installation of an additional dryer.

A steady and ample supply of material has been assured the company by a contract for nearly one thousand cords of bass wood and also much poplar, and in a week the plant will again be running almost to capacity. A constant market for all the factory can produce is evidenced by the large number of orders now waiting to be filled. Many shipments have been made since operations began and circumstances auger well for a live box factory industry in Thief River Falls.

G. A. Russell, manager of the N. W. Bell telephone exchange in this city, returned Monday to resume duties after having spent several days in St. Cloud and Minneapolis attending to matters in connection with the company. He made the trip by car.

Local Eastern Star Lodge To Partake in Ceremonies at Grand Chapter Meeting

Distinct honors have been accorded the Winslow Chapter, No. 182, of the Order of the Eastern Star, the local lodge having been invited by the Grand Chapter to conduct the closing ceremonies at the annual gathering of the Grand Chapter in Minneapolis May 14 and 15. This is the first time in history that the honor of taking an active part in these ceremonies has been conferred on the Thief River Falls Chapter and speaks well for the standing of this lodge. It is not known how many Eastern Star members from this city will attend but it is expected that there will at least be eight or ten.

The Winslow Chapter also has a Grand Chapter officer, namely Mrs. Minnie Mogensen, who is Grand Deputy Matron of this district. H. C. Durrin, until recently of this city, is Grand Worthy Patron, a leading official of the Grand Chapter of the state.

MORE LIVESTOCK TO PENNINGTON URGED AT CLUB GATHERING

Delegate to Jefferson Highway Meeting Gives Report of Proceedings

That Pennington county farmers shoud avail themselves of the opportunity to get loans thru the Agricultural Credit corporation for the purchase of livestock was the opinion expressed at the Commercial club at the regular luncheon Thursday. A motion was passed endorsing the diversification movement and suggesting that stock be bought in the county whenever possible.

The matter came up for discussion when County Agent J. J. McCann, secretary of the club, announced that he had received notice of a meeting of county agents to be held in Fargo Tuesday for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements to use the million dollar loan which has been made available by the recently organized $10,000,000 Credit corporation of Minneapolis for the purchase of livestock on farms in the grain raising area in an attempt to better their economic conditions. Pennington county was among the Minnesota counties incuded in this area under the proposed Coulter bill which was defeated in congress, the corporation planning to operate according to practically the same provisions. The proposed plans of the corporation are explained elsewhere in this issue.

Among those who spoke on the subject last Thursday were Senator C. L. Hansen, Daniel Shaw, Dr. J. T. Bowers and L. C. Simons of St. Paul, who is interested in a number of banks and other institutions of the twin cities and well informed as to conditions thruout the northwest. Mr. Simons was formerly a resident of Red Lake Falls until in 1908 and represented this district in the state legislature.

A report of the annual meeting of the Minnesota Jefferson Highway association in Little Falls on Tuesday, last week, was given by Daniel Shaw, who represented Thief River Falls at the conference. Mr. Shaw stated that the re-routing of the highway north of Thief River Falls was given much consideration, W. F. Powell representing Warren in bidding for the routing thru that city instead of along the Pembina trail as at present. E. P. Modin of Middle River and C. J. Forsberg of Karlstad were also in attendance favoring an eastern route. Other delegates from this section were Dr. N. M. Watson and Fred Farley of Red Lake Falls. The newly elected directors, Daniel Shaw, Thief River Falls; Richard G. Brophy, Owatonna, and E. C. Miller, Staples, deferred the matter of establishing the permanent route until directors Brophy and Miller together with General Manager French of St. Joseph, Missouri, have had an opportunity to personally go over the ground and listen to arguments from both sides, thus being able to make a more just and satisfactory decision.

The matter is creating considerable interest among the towns to the north of Thief River Falls who desire the highway and a spirited fight is apparent.

A resolution was passed at the convention favoring the continuation of the organization and the re-marking of the highway thruout the state, especially from the twin cities north.

The officers and directors were instructed to follow out a policy in making a permanent designation of the route of the Jefferson Highway thru the state which will give priority to trunk highways and that in no case shall a permanent designation be laid out over a road which is not a trunk highway unless by so doing it will provide a shorter route or a road of better construction.

Fire at San. Last Night

Fire broke out in the Oakland Park Sanatorium last night at 11 o'clock when lightning struck a wire near the building and followed in. The fire department was called out but there was little to be done. The fire was confined to a fire-proof room in the basement and no appreciable damage resulted. This is the first instance of fire by lightning in this section to the knowledge of The Times.

To Begin Operations Soon

The Northern Woodwork company, which suffered a fire two weeks ago, will be ready for operation again by the first of the month according to announcement made this week. New belting and pulleys are now being installed. The machinery has been completely overhauled and all boxes rebabited and the plant will soon be in a first class condition. There is still some flooring to be laid and new joists to replace damaged ones.

HIGH LINE IS PROPOSED FOR CITY'S POWER

Representative of Minnesota Electrical Dist. Co. Appears Before City Council

CITY WOULD USE OWN PLANT ALSO

Alternating Current System Suggested. Aldermen Investigate Dam Repairing

The aldermen were all present Tuesday night when City Clerk P. G. Pederson read the roll call and they had a busy session until almost midnight, with a fairly good sprinkling of spectators to start with, but most of whom gradually left as the time went by, but not before they had heard much interesting data on possibilities of additional light and power for the city.

H. H. Henley of the Minnesota Electrical Distributing company of Minneapolis was present and outlined a plan whereby the city could secure additional current to care for its peak load without the installation of another engine at the light and power plant or without purchasing the dam and repairing it.

The plan in brief is to have the city build a line due west from Thief River Falls to a point south of Warren where it would tap the main feed line running north from Crookston to Hallock, supplying current to Argyle, Stephen and Kennedy. The line also cuts across to Lancaster, Newfolden, Greenbush and Middle River. Over the proposed line the city would bring in current when needed and send out current when it had an overabundance thus running the local plant at full capacity.

Tentative Rate 4c. per K. W.

There would be a small monthly charge to cover the cost of a step-up station at Crookston and a tentative rate of 4 cents per k. w. was named by Mr. Henley as the charge to Thief River Falls for such current as used. The returned current would be credited at the same rate, but the company would not take back more current than they sell to the city. However, if it is unable to return as much current as taken it would be credited one-half cent per k. w., this sum to apply against the cost of the high power wire west from the city until such time as the cost thereof would be consumed, which naturally would take a number of years, at which time ownership thereof would pass to the power company. The estimated cost of such a line would be about $35,000 according to Mr. Henley.

While not stating that a line would be built from St. Hilaire north thru this city to Middle River, thus completing a loop and with the cross line westward a figure eight would be formed, which in case of a break in the wire at any one point would insure continuous service to all points thereon, yet it was intimated that this would be the next step in serving the various towns in this part of the state with electricity.

Advises Alternating Current

The present wires carry a voltage of 22,000 but Thief River Falls has only a low voltage and sub-stations would be necessary to transform the current from high to low and vice versa also to care for change from alternating to direct current. Thief River Falls sooner or later will have to change over, according to Mr. Henley, and a service such as he proposes would give this city an opportunity to start on this change.

It was his suggestion that the street lights be placed on the alternating system at once if such current is secured from outside. Then when the residents in the outlying sections, such as around the Soo shops, wanted light they would be given alternating current and gradually the area of the city served with direct current would become smaller and smaller, until at last only a few large consumers in

EASTER CANTATA IS BIG MUSICAL EVENT

"The Seven Last Words of Christ" Given Second Rendition Sunday by Request

Thief River Falls residents were favored with one of the best cantatas ever presented in this city Friday evening at the Trinity church and a second rendition, by request, at the city auditorium Sunday afternoon when the Trinity church choir and a number of other talented people, under the direction of Dr. P. L. Vistaunet, presented "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Dubois, a French composer of international fame.

The accompaniment of H. O. Chommie, local attorney, was one of the features of the presentation. The heavy solo parts of Mrs. O. F. Mellby, Dr. J. N. Nesse and Dr. P. L. Vistaunet were carried in a manner which is a credit to them. Unison, which showed careful and painstaking coaching, was a very noticeable characteristic. The chorus work was exceptional and the parts of the production were such that a beautiful blend of tone and harmonious melody phrases, delivered by well trained voices, made the presentation one that was a distinct credit to those who took part.

The cantata will be presented at Middle River Sunday by request of a number of residents of that place.

The Trinity church Friday evening was filled to capacity long before the presentation was to begin and hundreds were turned away. hTe auditorium was also filled Sunday afternoon.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Ladies of Nearby Community Clubs to be Guests Monday

The Woman's club has extended an invitation to the ladies of the St. Hilaire, Goodridge and Mavie community clubs to attend their next regular meeting at the Commercial club rooms Monday, April 28. Mrs. J. T. Bowers is hostess for the social hour. The club will be favored with a vocal solo by Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Jr., and the club chorus will give several numbers. Discussion of the World's Court will be conducted by the Mesdames Gerlinger, Nicholson and Simley.

Easter Ball Big Success

The Easter ball, staged at the city auditorium Monday evening by the American Legion, was one of the most delightful social affairs of the season. The music, furnished by Snyder's orchestra, was exceptionally good and those who attended pronounce it a distinct success. The money raised will be used in the purchase of a flag staff to be displayed at the state conference at St. Cloud next fall.

Elks to Stage Dance

The local order of the B. P. O. E. will stage another dance at the club rooms Friday evening. This is one of the last of the series, only one more being contemplated for this season.

For Mrs. Hans Nelson

On Friday afternoon a number of friends and relatives of Mrs. Hans Nelson helped her celebrate her 75th birthday anniversary at her home on 515 Arnold Ave. south. A social time was enjoyed until five-thirty when a delicious lunch was served. Those present were Mrs. Hans Nelson, honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woolson and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Paulson, Mrs. J. K. Patten and children, Mrs. L. Westlen, Miss Bertha Hastad, Miss Elodie Paulson and O. W. Nelson. Mrs. Nelson was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

For Friends

Miss Lulu Cook entertained a group of her friends at her home at 509 Markley avenue south Sunday at five o'clock dinner. The evening was spent in a social way. The invited guests included the Misses Alma Thune, Inga Oftedahl and Myrtle Krohn and the Messrs. Charles Herron, Norbert Holzknecht, Harold Eide and Phillip Larson.

Mrs. Larsen Entertains

Mrs. L. G. Larsen entertained a number of her friends at her home on Tuesday afternoon. The hours were spent at bridge. Refreshments were served by the hostess at five o'clock.

Mrs. Lonson Entertains

Mrs. Albert Lonson entertained a number of relatives at her home at 218 St. Paul avenue south Wednesday afternoon of last week. The hours were spent at needle work and in a social way. A lunch was served at five o'clock. Those present were: Mrs. Arthur Mercer and Mrs. Harvey McLean of Lethbridge, Sask., Mrs. Ben Erickson and Mrs. E. K. Aasen, sisters of Mr. Lonson and Mrs. Gib Lonson and Mrs. Bertha Lonson.

Co-op. Store Dance

The second annual dance sponsored by the Peoples' Co-operative store of this city will be given Friday night, this week, at the Sons of Norway hall and everybody is cordially invited to attend, according to announcement by those in charge. Both "old-time" and modern music will be provided and a good time is assured.

Attends Conference

I. T. Simley, superintendent of the city schools, returned to this city Sunday morning from Minneapolis where he attended the meeting of the superintendents of the M. E. A., the Minnesota Society for the Study of Education, the University short course and State Athletic association. Among topics taken up at the M. E. A. session were the modification of the curriculum of the financial administration and cost of education. In the latter issue getting the most for every dollar rather than limiting the apportionments. Student accounting and retardation and promotion of students were the two main topics at the Minnesota Society for the Study of Education. At the Athletic association the matter of redistricting the state was taken up, to which Mr. Simley offered much opposition. The exact plan has not yet been announced.

GREAT LECTURER PLEASES IN PLAY

Dr. Henry Clark Delivers Great Message in "The Fool" Given Tuesday Night

"The Fool," given in a lecture-recital by Dr. Henry Clark of Virginia at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, was one of the best and most entertaining presentations of the season and the women's organization of the church is to be commended for securing such a high class program.

Mr. Clark is one of the ablest lecturers in the country and his clear interpretation of the play throut lends a particular appeal. Although given by only one person the play was presented with such vivid word pictures that it seemed to have its full intensity and value, the scenes being put before the audience with such clearness that it seemed as tho the play were acted out by an entire cast. The high lights of the drama were forcibly impressed upon the audience throughout in an appealing manner.

"The Fool" is one of the best plays of the day when interpreted by Mr. Clark could not fail to make the listener desire to be better and do good towards fellowmen. It is a message of service to God and man and that it is possible to live a Christ-like life.

Loyalty to oneself and society was the subject upon which Mr. Clark spoke at the noon luncheon of the Commercial club which was held Tuesday on account of the lecturer's presence in the city. It was one of the most inspiring talks given before the club, the exceptional ability of the speaker being evident by the masterfull manner in which he treated the subject. A lasting impression was undoubtedly made upon everyone who heard him.

LaBree in Football Togs

Gordon LaBree, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. LaBree of this city, who is a student at the University of North Dakota, is prominently mentioned as one of the strong prospects for the football team of the university this spring. While in high school here "Tubby" showed his ability in various forms of athletics and also made a splendid showing during his attendance at St. Thomas college. Last fall he took an active part in a number of games, and proved one of the mainstays in the Flickertail lineup. Spring practice is now being given 39 North Dakota athletes who have been picked out by Coach Davis.

Kratka Youth Dies

A twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Johnson of Kratka township died last Friday following a lingering illness of scarlet fever with complications, having been sickly since in January. The youth is survived by his parents, four sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Bethania Lutheran church, Rev. V. O. Aaker of Goodridge officiating.

Mrs. Lisa Molstad

Mrs. Lisa Molstad, aged 77, of St. Hilaire, passed away on Monday of last week, death being due to infirmities of old age. She had been seriously since in January. Mrs. Molstad was a native of Norway, coming to this country with her family 43 years ago and settled near Buxton, N. D. She resided there until in 1901 when the family moved to Upham, N. D., where Mr. Molstad died about 20 years ago. In 1917 she came to St. Hilaire together with her step son, Chr. Molstad. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. Sundeen of Buxton and Mrs. A. Hagen, who resides in Canada. She is also mourned by a number of step-children, among whom are Mrs. A. Gunstad and Chr. Molstad of St. Hilaire. Funeral services were conducted last Thursday from the Norwegian Lutheran church.

Mrs. Andrew Bjerk

Mrs. Andrew Bjerk, aged 59, passed away Sunday, April 13, at her home in Holt following a sudden illness. She was a native of Norway and came to America in 1884, settling on a homestead in Marshall county with her parents the following year. She lived on her husband's farm in Holt township until in 1919 when they retired from the farm and moved to the village. She is survived by her husband and eight children, all but one son being present at the funeral services held at Holt Wednesday of last week. Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bjerk of St. Hilaire.

Robert Lewis Carlson

Robert Lewis Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carlson, died Monday morning at 2:30 at the Physicians hospital after severe convulsions. It is thought that the convulsions were brought on by stomach trouble. He was born in this city May 10, 1923. To mourn his passing he leaves his parents, a brother, Donald, and a sister, Emma, and his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. James Sculthorp of Loma, N. D.

The funeral services were held yesterday from the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Charles Gerlinger, and interment was made at Green- [illegible]

She will visit for a few days at Alexandria with a sister and from there will go to Chicago where she will make her future home. She has been located at Olivia recently.

Hog is Electrocuted

Chas. Falk, farmer near Bronson, chose a rainy afternoon for butchering his fatted hog, because the weather was not suitable for other work, and with the assistance of a neighbor made the necessary preparations. When everything was ready the men proceeded to the hog house to administer the stunning blow when, to their amazement they found the porker dead near the door. It was found that lightning had struck a barbed wire fence about a quarter of a mile away, followed a wire leading to the hog house, and electrocuted the already doomed animal.

Morris Halvorson of Viking spent Monday in this city attending to business matters.

Mrs. Bertha Jacklin of Roseau arrived Tuesday for an indefinite visit at the home of her son, Fred.

"MACK" WILL STAY ON THE JOB

The selection of County Agent McCann to continue as secretary of the Thief River Falls Commercial club was a wise and sensible move. Not only does Mr. McCann possess all the qualities of a first class secretary, but his relation to the people of the city and county makes him the ideal official.

Mr. McCann's appointment as club secretary in 1922 was primarily made in the interest of economy, it being admittedly longer impossible for the farm bureau to engage his services under the existing plan of financing. The county appropriation for the maintenance of a county agricultural agent was denied and while a large part of the agent's expenses are paid by the state and nation, yet a considerable sum from other sources is necessary in order to keep the office functioning. Altho handicapped by the shortage of funds the past two years, Mr. McCann has accomplished a splendid work in helping the farmers of the county in promoting various enterprises. The salary paid a secretary of the Commercial club is not large but helps to make up the deficiency. He will be retained under the same arrangement as in the past year.

Mr. McCann's re-appointment should be particularly of value in affecting a closer co-operation between the people of the city and country. In the past five years which he has been in Pennington county, his work has been largely devoted to assisting the farmer solving his problems, but he has also been active in movements of more particular interest to the people of Thief River Falls. He has been called upon for special service on many occasions and has always responded willingly and efficiently. It seems as tho whenever there is a question of a secretary for an organization, "Mack" is always the one on whom the duty is conferred.

There is going to be a great deal of work for the commercial club during the coming year and it is well that the organization is headed by a group of wide-awake and progressive officers and directors, and that a person of Mr. McCann's energy will to a large extent have charge of affairs. President Froehlich and others who have been active in making the Thief River Falls club one of the most outstanding community organizations in the state, are deserving of the hearty support of all business men, professional men, laborers and farmers in the community, in an effort to make this city and community bigger and better in every way possible.

PLANT TREES

April 25 has been designated as Arbor and Bird Day in a proclamation issued recently by Governor Preus. On this day it is customary that the schools conduct appropriate exercises. In his proclamation the Governor calls attention to the week of April 21 to 27 which has been designated by President Coolidge as Forest Protection week. Suitable trees for beautifying purposes can be secured from the state forestry department upon request. Country schools should take advantage of this opportunity to obtain trees for beautifying the grounds without any cost except for planting. Now is the time to plan what to do in making the city look more attractive and cleaner than ever before. Help make Thief River Falls one of the beauty spots along the Jefferson Highway.

In the near future citizens of Thief River Falls will be called upon to co-operate in the regular spring clean-up campaign. This is a period when all good citizens should attend to this highly important matter in order that the city may be put in shape for inspection by summer visitors and the public health safeguarded. It makes no difference how careful a household may be during the winter about allowing refuse of one kind or another to accumulate, spring always discloses a number of unsightly back yards and alleys. It should be as much a matter of pride with the householder to see that these are improved as keeping the interior of his home in a clean and wholesome condition. Filth of any kind lying outdoors provides the most favored breeding places for flies and these are a menace to public health and a nuisance on general principles. Clean the premises and swat the fly.

That Pennington county dairymen are firmly convinced as to the value of purebred stock of the highest quality is noticeably evidenced by the fact that two sires from the best Guernsey strains in the country have recently been added to local herds. This does not only mean a great deal to the improvement of the individual herds belonging to the owners of these great sires, but is of inestimable value to the dairy industry in the entire locality. Bringing such high grade animals into the community will mean much to the future of dairying here and will tend to further establish Pennington county as one of the foremost dairy centers and the home of purebred livestock. The new owners of the two sires recently brought here are to be congratulated and commended upon their enterprise.

It is encouraging to note the number of farmer boys and girls from this community who are taking up studies at the Northwest School of Agriculture. The number of graduates from Pennington county is increasing each year and these youths return to their homes to become leaders in the community. A very creditable showing was made by Pennington county students at the school this year.

It is to be noted in the birth and death report for Pennington county for 1923 that in four townships there was not a death recorded during the entire year. Who says Pennington county hasn't a healthful climate?

They are called speed maniacs, but the best term of reproach is six months.

BETTER COUNTY FAIR THAN EVER DIRECTORS' AIM

Hoaglan's Hippodrome Has Been Secured to Furnish Entertainment This Year

FREE ATTRACTIONS AND SHOWS OF HIGH ORDER

Grand Fireworks Display Arranged for Two Nights. Premium List Being Prepared

Pennington County Agricultural Society has lined up one of the largest and best fair programs in the history of the Fair association, according to announcement by Secretary J. J. McCann this week.

Hoaglan's Hippodrome, a ten act performance, has a stupendous aggregation of exciting features. This includes auto polo, horse racing, steeple chase races, running races, chariot and automobile races, as well as bucking Ford and mule stunts. Pony Push-ball, a new and novel feature for many fairs, is introduced by this company. They carry with them 12 people, fourteen horses, four auto polo cars and a full line of equipment for the other races. Three other free attractions are the Lester Bell and Griffin Comedy; Carlson Sisters, and the Chilcott's Novelty. The last named act is one which is especially pleasing to the children. A man and a trained dog perform all known stunts on the platform and in the air. This dog is trained for wire exhibitions and aerial work never before seen in animal acting.

High Class Tent Shows

The Zeiger Shows have been engaged to furnish the tent shows and rides for the fair. This is a new company in Northern Minnesota and only makes the larger fairs. They have many high priced attractions, the best of riding devices, bands and tent shows.

The Thearle-Duffield Fireworks company are again staging the fireworks the first two evenings of the fair. This year they will stage their No. 1 highest priced fireworks program in their catalogue.

Revising Premium List

The premium list is being revised and will be ready for sending out in a very short time. It is expected that the buildings will be filled to capacity with exhibits of all kinds. The livestock men, especially, are much interested and believe that this year's exhibit will be much larger than that of last year.

CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN FIRST PART OF MAY

Commercial Club Appoints Committee to Make Plans for Movement in City

Preliminary plans for the spring "clean up and paint up" campaign in Thief River Falls have been discussed by the Commercial club at a number of recent meetings and a committee appointed to work out a definite program for conducting the campaign in an effective manner. Those appointed to take charge of this phase of civic enterprise sponsored by the club are: Geo. Wilson, chairman, Rev. Chas. Gerlinger and Dr. T. J. Bowers. They will outline the program to be carried out by the co-operation of the various civic organizations of the city and the citizens in general.

Present plans are to conduct the special drive for cleaning up and beautifying the city during the first part of May, this being deemed the most opportune time and until then details will be worked out by the committee selected by the Commercial club. The movement is of a national scope and it is the expression of all of the citizens who have spoken at the club luncheons to do everything in their power to improve the appearance of the city and make Thief River Falls the well-kept and neat city it ought to be. Attention was called to the negligence on the part of many residents of the city in allowing refuse of all kinds to gather in the back yards and other unsightly and often unsanitary practices which are found. In many instances these things are prohibited by city or state regulations and can be stopped by law enforcement, but, as Dr. H. W. Froehlich, president of the club and health officer, said "This can be done effectively only when the general public co-operates in the matter."

TAX REDUCTION IS NOW THE CRY OF THE DAY

Everywhere and by everyone there is a demand for a decrease in public expenditures and no man or woman not advocating a policy of retrenchment would dare go before the voters seeking election to any office in this coming election. In many communities tax reducing leagues and other organizations for the purpose of promoting the movement are being formed and the press throughout the country is taking up the fight for a letup in taxation. A series of articles now appearing in the Minneapolis Journal show how taxation has become a burden of such extent that the citizen is no longer able to bear it and that a reduction is absolutely necessary. The public debt is piling up high and something will have to be done to bring about a more economical expenditure of the public funds. We are a prosperous nation but nevertheless the drain on the public purse may be too great.

Minnesota farmers received approximately $14,000,000 for their eggs and poultry last year, according to reports from N. J. Holmberg, state commissioner of agriculture. There has been a tremendous increase in poultry production in recent years, but still there is no danger of overproduction providing the proper channels of marketing are obtained.

"Growing alfalfa is not only food for thought for our farmers but it would provide excellent food for the dairy cow and other livestock," says the Itasca County Independent.

ASSESSORS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Tax Commission Man Talks to 100 per cent Representation on Taxes and Assessments

Every one of the 24 assessors of Pennington county and 16 from Beltrami, besides town officers and others interested in tax problems, were present at a meeting in the court house yesterday, for the purpose of receiving their assessment books and other supplies and to get instructions from the tax commission in regard to the assessment of property for the current year. The assessors from 16 townships in the northeastern part of Beltrami county attended this meeting, it being more convenient to come to this city than to go to Bemidji, the county seat.

O. J. Simmons, a member of the Minnesota tax commission, addressed the gathering, explaining the assessment laws in detail and answering many questions relating to the powers and duties of assessors. He particularly emphasized the importance of a complete listing and an equitable valuation of all taxable property, as only in this way can the tax burden be fairly apportioned among the people as contemplated by the law. He explained that the omission or under valuation of some classes of property did not reduce taxes. There was just so much money to be raised each year by taxation, and if one man paid less than his share, some other man had to make up the shortage.

On the discharge of his duties, an assessor should have neither friends to reward nor enemies to punish. Every man is entitled to a square deal under the law, and if assessors will use the same yard stick in measuring the value of all taxable property, every man will get what he is entitled to.

Mr. Simmons referred to the growing tax rates throughout the state and said that assessors were frequently blamed for the increase in taxes, but that as a matter of fact, the assessor has nothing to do with making taxes either high or low. He explained that it was not the assessment that determined whether taxes would be high or low, but the amount of money expended for public purposes. If the expenditures of the state and its subdivisions are large, taxes must inevitably be high, for every cent spent in any public activity must come from the pockets of the people in some form of taxation. But the assessors have no control over public expenditures—the thing that determined tax rates—and consequently are not responsible for high tax rates and should not be blamed for them.

He said that average tax rates this year were the highest in the history of the state. While a part of the increase is due to the growing demand for better schools and roads and other public enterprises, a considerable part of the increase must be charged to the higher cost of labor and supplies, for these things affect taxation, just as they affect the cost of production or the cost of living. Another factor entering into the increase in taxes is found in the insistent demand on the part of many people for money for numerous things that a few years ago were regarded as private rather than public enterprises. Every additional function undertaken by any unit of government—state or local—means increase in taxes. If this fact were kept steadily in mind by the people, perhaps the demand for money for almost every conceivable thing would not be so insistent. Only through a lessening of this demand and the strictest possible economy on the part of each unit of government in the administration of public affairs, can we hope for relief from present burdensome taxes.

All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in farming now constitutes a new class and is assessed 10 per cent instead of 33 1-3 per cent of the full value as formerly.

Following are the assessors in the townships and municipalities of Pennington county this year: Bray, E. J. Akerlund; Black River, Albert Anderson; Clover Leaf, J. M. Schei; Deer Park, Ed. Rustau; Goodridge, M. O. Seavy; Hickory, T. T. Kvale; Highlanding, Ole G. Lee; Kratka, Joe Kilen; Mayfield, M. O'Leary; Norden, G. J. Nordhagen; North, G. K. Haavi; Numedal, Oluf Larson; Polk Center, Gust Naplin; River Falls, J. N. Huddleson; Reiner, Christ. O. Tangen; Rocksbury, F. T. Satre; Sanders, Aug. N. K. Anderson; Smiley, Christian Pederson; Silverton, P. A. Peterson; Star, Ole Tharaldson; Wyandotte, Elias Peterson; Village of Goodridge, Jay Payne; Village of St. Hilaire, J. A. Dahl; City of Thief River Falls, N. J. Anderson.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Thief River Falls, Minnesota

A regular meeting of the city council was called to order by M. V. Evenson President, at eight o'clock P. M. Tuesday, April 8th, 1924.

Roll Call: All members present.

Minutes of the meeting of March 25th were read and, with that part of the same referring to change in electric light and power changes being amended so as to read as follows: "The Committee on Electric Light and Waterworks recommended a change in the rate to be charged on Electric light and power service outside of the city limits and change in minimum power service," the same were approved.

The Mayor appeared before the council with regard to the proposition of limiting Sunday card playing at the various establishments in the city, stating that he had conferred with these proprietors in the matter and that a satisfactory disposal of the matter would be made in the course of a few days.

Mr. W. A. Schreiter of Red Lake Falls introduced Mr. Bartlett and Mr. White of a power service distributing corporation who spoke on the proposition of furnishing current to the city from their high line and intimated that they would have some definite proposal to make to the council at their next regular meeting.

Motion was made by Porter, seconded by Brumund, and duly carried that the monthly reports of the City Clerk, City Treasurer, Chief of Police, Municipal Judge and Dairy Inspector, be approved and filed.

Motion was made by Paulson, seconded by Rambeck, that the city clerk be instructed to order 2 2½ gallon chemical tanks and one rain coat for the Fire Department. Carried.

The Petition of F. L. Comstock and others asking that the council take steps to remove the incinerator from its present site was referred to the council at large for investigation.

The Mayor's appointment of John H. Meyers as dog catcher was read and Alderman Brumund moved that the same be approved. The motion was seconded by Alderman Rambeck and duly carried.

Motion was made by Porter, seconded by Paulson, that a permit be granted to Phil J. Zeh to conduct a public dance at his rink for a period of six months at a license fee of $1.00 per dance. Carried.

Moved by Porter, seconded by Rambeck and duly carried that the American Legion be granted a permit to conduct a public dance in the auditorium on April 21st, at a license fee of $1.00.

Motion was made by Alderman Brumund, seconded by Alderman Rambeck, that permit to erect a produce and storage building on the Soo Right of Way at estimated cost of $8,000.00 be granted to the Peterson-Biddick Co., and permission to remodel the building situated on the east of lots 23 and 24, Block 20 of the Original Townsite, be granted to J. O. Yotter.

Moved by Fossum, seconded by Paulson, and carried that license to sell milk be granted to C. C. Schuster and Hans Sahl.

Alderman Fossum, seconded by Alderman Brumund, introduced a resolution authorizing the purchase from Ole A. Knutson for poor farm purposes Lots 11-16 inc. of Block 68 of the Original Townsite at a consideration of $3,000.00; which resolution was duly passed unanimously.

Alderman Porter, introduced a proposed ordinance regulating the rates to be paid by users of light and power outside of city limits and minimum motor charges and moved that the proposed ordinance be given its first reading. The motion was seconded by Alderman Fossum and the ordinance was duly read and filed.

Motion was made by Porter, seconded by Paulson, and carried that the city clerk be instructed to advertise for bids for additional power unit 300 or 500 H. P. 250 volt, with Direct Current Generator, delivered and installed; bids to be opened on May 6th.

On motion the council adjourned.

ROSEWOOD

Agricultural Lecturer Coming

Max Morgan of Fargo, a graduate of the celebrated Ames Agricultural College, and former county agent and Director of the dairying extension of the North Dakota Agricultural college, will be at the Rosewood hall on Tuesday evening, April 29th, at 8:30 and will lecture on dairying and his speech will be illustrated with moving pictures. As this is a time when the entire nation has turned the limelight on dairying and diversified farming, the lecture is ideal and we hope the entire community will turn out to hear this noted speaker.

Friday Club Has Annual Meet

The annual business meeting of The Ladies Friday Afternoon Club met at the home of President Mrs. O. S. Hellerud on Tuesday afternoon, this change being necessary in order not to meet on Good Friday. As officers for the coming year was re-elected Mrs. O. S. Hellerud, president; Mrs. L. L. Furan, vice pres.; and Mrs. Emil Anderson, secy.-treas. As charity and flower committee was elected Mesdames D. N. Petterson and Chas. Schenbel. The next meeting will be entertained by Mrs. Peter Mellem at her home on the Third Friday afternoon in May.

Farmers Club Suspends During Summer

The last meeting of the Rosewood Farmers Club for this season was held at the Rosewood hall on Saturday evening, and if activities re-open in the fall, it will be under a different system. Much disagreement has been prevailing this spring owing to that the social diversions brought a very undesirable gathering of outsiders, and that the home people owing to this refrained from coming, and the officers decided to cancel the meeting until a new plan could be worked out, more satisfactorily for everybody.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Petterson and children and Miss Clara Rebeau motored to Radium on Sunday visiting at the Rebau home.

G. E. and Martin Aas from Norden visited at the Furan home Sunday.

Severt Bensons from Thief River Falls Sundayed with the B. Sagmoen folks.

Chimney Fire at Furan's Tuesday

A chimney fire, in the high wind on Tuesday evening, ignited a bunch of papers piled near the chimney in the garret of the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Furan, and for a while took on quite a threatening attitude. The Furan's just before retiring noticed a crackling in the wall near the chimney and on investigating found that paper, old wearing apparel and other stored supplies in the garret were ablaze. The first was evidently caused by a defect in the chimney. Luckily the residence cistern was partly filled with water and with united efforts of a number of young men the fire was extinguished after much labor. Not much of value was destroyed by the fire, but considerable clothing furniture and wall covering was damaged by water. The loss was adquately covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bloom was called to Devils Lake, N. D., last Wednesday through a telegram stating that their son Axel Bloom who is employed at the rip track at that place was seriously ill.

Ewen Swenson will leave tomorrow for Warren in a conference with the directors of the Marshall County Fire Insurance Co.

PENNINGTON COUNTY SATISFIES MEXICAN

Large Number of Sugar Beet Workers for This Section Will Arrive Soon

Mexican laborers who worked on Pennington farms taking care of sugar beets last summer are anxious to return. A young man who was employed in this community in 1923 was this year placed by the company on a farm near St. Paul but he refused to stay, demanding that he be transferred to the Thief River Falls territory. He knows that Pennington county farmers will give him the best possible treatment and finds conditions very satisfactory.

A large number of others who were here last year are anxious to come back, some of them having already arrived. By the first part of May it is expected that about 200 Mexicans, including the women and children, will have come to this locality, most of them having been here previously. With experience in caring for beets it is expected that this year's results will be of the best. In the past a number of the laborers have been inexperienced and as a result the farmers have suffered a decrease in production which in some cases amounted to quite heavy losses. The beet farmers here are now making preparations for the housing of their laborers.

The reason for Mexican labor is that the nature of a great share of the work connected with beet raising is such that the ordinary American laborer will not engage in it. However, the little dark-skinned, wiry fellow from across the Rio Grande is very adept for the work and seems to like it. Each workingman can take care of about ten acres during the season and is usually assisted by the other members of the family if he is a family man.

The total beet acreage in the territory surrounding Thief River Falls is approximately 750 acres, seeding of which will begin the latter part of this month or the first part of May. Seed is purchased from the Minnesota Sugar company which has contracts for the acreage here. Recently a carload of 16-percent phosphate, a fertilizer particularly adapted for beet culture, was distributed among about 25 farmers of the community, this also being bought from the sugar company to be paid for when the crop is sold.

The largest single beet field in this locality this season will be that of C. J. Barrett, south of the city, who has contracted for 50 acres. Rasmus Oen has signed up for 70 acres on his three farms south of Thief River Falls.

Bull Has Taste For Iron

The valuable Holstein sire, owned by Wm. Schaper of Red Lake county died recently on account of fondness for metallic diet.

The animal had been sick for several days but the cause could not be determined.

A post-mortem operation disclosed three six-penny nails, a piece of wire and a chain link pin in the stomach.

The bull was a registered purebred and Mr. Schaber suffers a considerable loss.

Interesting Reports are Submitted to City Dads

The second monthly report of the dairy inspector, Dr. L. R. Twete, was filed with the council April 8th and was eagerly scanned for results. The aldermen all said they were greatly impressed with the same and had heard several people state they were glad to learn just what kind of cream and milk was being sold in this city. The report showed that F. B. Conklin again headed the list as to buttefat percentage, his score being 4.51 as compared to 3.25, the requirement of the state board of health. Copp & Son were next with 3.92 and the others follow: Barzen & Kreamer, 3.83; A. Jensen, 3.81; A. Myrom, 3.80; V. C. Noper, 3.61; the Creamery, 3.60; Albert Johnson, 3.52; and Ed. Timm, 3.50. One hundred and fifty one cows comprise six of the herds furnishing this milk and they are all in healthy condition and sanitary conditions are steadily improving at all dealers' places.

Another interesting report filed on Tuesday night was that of the Prichard company, covering weighings made for fuel on the city scales for the month of March, the first month since the scales were made city scales and the public had a place to get city weights. The report showed that only 97 loads had been weighed, and that part of these were those of the Prichard company itself, which does not apparently substantiate the claims made by various labor organizations that people thought they were not getting fair weights from all dealers, and could not, except on a city scale. If there is no marked improvement during the next eight months of the existing contract it will probably end the contract.

The regular monthly report of City Clerk P. G. Pederson showed receipts during March of $5,163.26.

Disbursements for the month totaled $8,905.44, leaving $32,894.81 on hand April 1 as compared to $36,636.99 on March 1. The earnings in the light fund were $4,826.70.

The report of Judge N. W. Tarrant for March showed court fees of $33.25 while the report of the Chief of police, A. D. Ralston, showed three arrests, two for vagrancy and one for drunkenness.

Newfolden Man in Politics

A Newfolden man, Thomas Jackson, is vice president of the Peoples' Progressive party, the organization that is making a bid as the third great national political party and should the movement gather headway he is scheduled to play an important part in national issues. Mr. Jackson was formerly superintendent of the schools at Newfolden and his wife is now a teacher near there.

Jews Observe Passover

Passover, the feast of unleavened bread, has been observed by Jews of the city the past week, beginning last Friday and continuing thru tomorrow. During Passover week all Jewish families do without leavened bread in any form, using instead a flat, wafer-shaped bread, called matzos. This is the first reminder of the hasty exodus of their fathers from the land of oppression, Egypt.

FRESHMAN ISSUE

"As a workman does, so shall he be" This publication, in addition to being our first literary venture, gives us, the Freshmen, an opportunity to "spread ourselves" or to contradict the tradition which says that we are "green", and we have put no small amount of effort to the wheel in bringing about the aforesaid contradiction. We, the entire class of nineteen twenty-seven, hereby put this forth as an example of our acquirements in the gaining of knowledge and hope that it will meet with approval and that no or at least few allowances for who we are or are not will be necessary. This edition gives us a chance to meet and counter the jeers and hoots and the taunts of the upper classmen though we can not go far in this, being hemmed in by custom. Besides, and more important than this, however, there is the fact that it represents our best effort in a field entirely new to us. A field that, when properly agitated, holds great power for the user or writer. What this is worth at par we do not know. Realizing this we can but put forth the material which makes up our composition. Apt men are metal and they themselves are the blacksmiths. The strength of the piece depends on the quality of metal in it. This quality is the same in all at the start but it may be made better or worse in the forge. We freshmen have not been tried by fire, the intensity of which depends on the path that we take. Let this piece be indicative of our choice of the latter.

Honesty

In all stories of Abraham Lincoln we find his unflinching and unceasing honesty to be his greatest virtue. Our high school was named after this man. When it was christened it was with the idea that we, as a school, should live up to what the name stands for. A few here seem to disregard this fact. Books, pencils, class preparations, or anything that can be borrowed without the owner's knowledge are disappearing every day. This dishonesty often inconveniences the person from whom these things are taken and more than that, it reflects upon the honor of the school. We, as the student body of Lincoln High, ask for stricter obedience to the ideals that we are supposed to follow.

"MARY'S MILLIONS" CAST NOW SELECTED

Senior Class Play, Directed By Lawrence Mickelson, in Auditorium May 9

The cast has now been chosen for the Senior class play, "Mary's Millions," which is to be given in the auditorium on May 9th. Rehearsals are being conducted every evening under the direction of Lawrence Mickelson.

The characters selected by a committee of Principal Bye, Lawrence Mickelson, Miss Mildred Thompson, and Miss Miriam Simon were:

Jack Henderson	Math Barzen
Jimmie Barnes	John Sether
Ezra Stoneham	Lawrence Bjorkman
Abija Boggs	Orrin Storholm
Count Victor De Selles	Melvin Engelstad
Eudora	Harriet Morgan
Mrs. Jane Stoneham	Hazel Krause
Mrs. Amanda Mudge	Elsie Blair
Countess Lola De Selles	Liv Vistaunet
Betty Barlowe	Hyida Peterson
Mary Manners	Margaret Melgaard

The cast is undoubtedly a very good one and this, together with the clever lines of the play, should insure the greatest success for this year's Senior class play.

Essay Contest Regarding Military Training Camp

In connection with a Citizens' Training Camp for boys a national prize essay contest is being staged to boost the attendance of such a camp. The contest is open to all young women from thirteen to nineteen years of age, and the subject is "Why A Young Man I Know Should Attend A Citizens' Military Training Camp." Both national and state prizes are being offered by the St. Paul Chapter of the Women's Overseas League. There are twenty-two state prizes ranging from two to fifty dollars. From the winning states three national winners will be chosen and to each will be given a round trip ticket to Washington, D. C., a liberal allowance for travel, hotel accommodations, and an additional prize of valuable silver or jewelry, to be presented by Mr. Coolidge. The contest closes at 12 o'clock midnight Monday, May 5, 1924.

For further information apply to the county and branch chairmen of the Military Training Camp association.

Poem

"I have to live with myself and so
I want to be fit for myself to know.
I want to be able as the days go by
Always to look myself straight in the eye.
I don't want to stand with the setting sun.
And hate myself for the things I've done.
I don't want to keep on my chest shelf
A lot of secrets about myself,
And fool myself as I come and go
Into thinking no one else will know
The kind of a person I really am.
I don't want to dress myself in sham.
I have to live with myself and so
I want to be fit for myself to know."

J.-S. BANQUET TO BE GIVEN ON MAY 3

Junior Class Chooses Sons of Norway Hall in Which to Give Annual Banquet

The Junior banquet committees have been working diligently and find that it will be possible to have everything in readiness for the Junior-Senior Banquet by Saturday evening, May 3.

The Sons of Norway Hall has been secured for the occasion and the Evelyn Hotel will serve the dinner. The program has not yet been entirely completed but from present indications it promises to be a very good one.

Because it is necessary for the Juniors to know the exact number planning to be present, they wish to have the Juniors, Seniors and faculty sign up the week before the event. This is necessary as it is important for the refreshment committee to know how many covers will have to be laid.

The Juniors are doing their best, and are certain that the Junior-Senior Banquet of 1924 will be a long-remembered one.

Personals

The following members of the faculty spent the week end out of town: Miss Simon, Mr. Mickelson, Mr. Thune and Miss Finnegan.

Melvina Rupprecht, Marian Wilson, Ruffis Barackman and Pearl Weeks visited school last week.

Herbert Keene, former student of Lincoln High has been elected captain of the 1925 basketball team at Edison High School, Minneapolis.

Myrtle Gunderson and Thora Homme have returned to school after a long illness.

Miss Leavitt entertained her library assistants at a dinner served in the domestic science room by the cooking class last Tuesday.

Miss Avis Akre is substituting for Miss Mildred Thompson, who is at present ill with scarlet fever.

Goldie Gunderson was absent from school on Thursday for the first time this year.

Myrtel Johnson was called home suddenly Friday afternoon on account of the death of her brother.

The following freshmen were home for Easter vacation: Leona Buckolz, Leah Skibicki, Alice Brorby, Clona Williams, Emma Skomedal, Ethel Sandberg, Leonard Knodle, Lars Barstad, Selma Kleppe, Irma Iverson and Evelyn Ward.

Each student of the girls physical training classes, under the direction of Miss Clara Baumann, is having a chance to lead the class and is marked according to how she is able to conduct it. This mark will be placed on the certificate received at the end of this term.

Freshmen Make Splendid Showing in Athletics

When the Freshmen class entered high school last fall, they had very little in the way of athletics except size and a willingness to learn. Very few of them had had any previous experience in any branch of athletics. That this handicap is being speedily overcome has been shown by the progress they have made during the past year.

When football commenced last fall, more and bigger Freshmen came out for practice than any other Freshmen class in the history of the high school. Although none of them made the team, which was hardly expected due to their lack of necessary experience, they made the other candidates work hard to maintain their positions towards the end of the season. Due to proper handling and coaching, their knowledge of football has been greatly increased.

When basketball season began, they showed the same fine spirit. About thirty thirty men reported for every practise during the year. Their previous experience in basketball was about the same as football, none having had any real coaching or playing. In the inter-class tournament, the Freshmen had the biggest team on the floor and they defeated the Sophomores in their first game, which rather upset the dope as the Sophomores had a team made up almost entirely of squad members. In all the tournament games the freshies held their opponents to very low scores and made an excellent showing in every department of play. Of the thirty candidates for the team, the men that played in the tournament were: Charles Froseth, Captain, Earl Bessler, Russell Elofson, Harry Baker, Marvin Benson and David Morgan.

When spring football started this month, it was noticed that a large percentage of candidates were Freshmen. They are all working hard and several will undoubtedly secure positions left open by the graduating Seniors.

As a whole, this year's Freshmen class has done more in athletics than any other Freshman class that has preceded it. They have an exceptionally large bunch of men and all of them are interested in athletics. With these prospects ahead of them, they will probably make more of a name for themselves while they are in high school than any class so far. A great deal is expected of them and from present indications, they will fulfill all expectations.

Junior: "I hear your classmate, Margaret Melgaard is graduating with great honors."

Senior: "Yes, there are so many letters on her diploma it looks like a radio broadcasting station."

Junior—What side of a horse has the most hair on?

Freshman—Don't know.

Junior—Dumb one, the outside of course.

I'm just a little freshie boy,
Ain't got much to say.
I wander in the fields and woods,
And play around all day.

I go to Lincoln High School,
A place that's full of pep.
And if your English you don't get,
Miss Leavitt makes you step.

—E. H. '27

I saw a rooster

She's always on time and never is late.
E stands for Elton our Algebra shark
Who whistles like a chicken and sings like a lark.
F stands for Fern so full of joy
Who always is looking for some new boy.
G stands for Gladys and Goldie too
Both sit together with nothing to do.
H stands for Helen the brightest of all
Who's kinda big and yet sorta small.
I stands for Irene so bashful and shy
But a red-headed boy has caught her eye.
J stands for John with a great imagination
He thinks he's at Thief River Falls when he's at the Steiner station
K stands for Kenneth a freckled-faced lad
Who is ever so happy and yet so sad.
L stands for Louise our cutest A student
A gay young lass and yet quite prudent.
M stands for Marian and also Marie
They always manage to be busier than bees.
N stands for Evangeline Ness a gay little lass
She needn't worry but what she will pass.

SCHOOLS OF COUNTY GET NEARLY $20,000

City Schools Receive $14,398 in First Supplemental State Aid Check

Pennington county this year is benefited to the extent of $19,540.04 as its share of supplemental state aid to high, graded and rural schools for the school year ending July 31, 1923, this amount being received by County Treasurer John Gullingsrud on April 2. Owing to the insufficent appropriation available and under the provision of the appropriation act, this aid is pro rated at 53 per cent. All other state aid for schools this year has been paid in full, the March apportionment for Pennington county being in the amount of $6,728.40, which was received March 28.

If the total supplemental aid were paid district No. 18, Thief River Falls, would receive a total of $27,156, which pro rated at 53 per cent amounts to $14,392.68.

Other districts which share in this aid and the amount each receives are as follows:

Eight, Goodridge, $1,331.36; 102, St. Hilaire, $1,749.00; 4, $6.36; 9, $239.56; 10, $15.37; 13, $33.39; 14, $266.06; 30, $65.72; 37, $62.01; 42, $18.55; 48, $65.72; 51, $96.99; 57, $285.67; 59, $407.04; 65, $61.48; 67, $269.24; 70Jt, $173.84.

Minnesota Butter is Named "Land-O'-Lakes" in Contest

"Land-O'-Lakes" is the name chosen for Minnesota butter handled by the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association, this being suggested by Mrs. E. B. Foss, Hopkins, Minn., for which she received a prize of $500 cash in the contest conducted by the association. Among the 30 prize winners who received $5.00 each is Carrie Ansgaard of Thief River Falls. Much interest was shown in the contest, several thousand names being submitted.

Butter produced at the Thief River Falls creamery is sold thru the state sales agency under the new name "Land-O'-Lakes."

Moving City Light Posts; One Globe Instead of Five

Work on a modern white way for Thief River Falls was started last week by the city light department under the direction of Supt. Ole Legvold, the change from the present system involving the moving of the light posts to the locations decided upon when the pavement was laid in 1922 and taking off the cross arms and lower four lights leaving one light at the top, a more efficient method of street lighting. It is hoped to install a powerful light as soon as possible.

At the time the pavement was laid the wires were laid for an alternating current system and special arrangements made for turning the current on and off at the power house instead of at each block as at present. Moving the standards will eliminate the unsightly and dangerous box coverings at the new outlets.

The new light globes are of the 200 watt type and are said to give a brilliant light, the first one to be installed being at the corner by the Standard Oil service station.

It is said that the new lights require much less upkeep than the old five-globe type.

As the work is being done without any addition to the present light department force, it will take considerable time to change the entire system of 74 light posts in the city. The standards will be repainted green

Speeder Spills

John Davidson, section foreman on the Great Northern here, was knocked unconscious and received bruises about the face, arms and legs, Tuesday, last week when the speeder which he was riding, together with two other men, jumped the track. A push car was being towed and the men were on their way to St. Hilaire. Davidson was thrown into the ditch and the machine on him. He was unconscious for some time. A farmer was summoned to take him to the Physicians hospital, where he is rapidly recovering. No permanent injuries are expected to result, according to Dr. H. W. Froehlich, attending physician.

Dr. O. F. Mellby left Monday evening for St. Paul to attend the state board of health meeting Tuesday and Wednesday. He is also visiting with his brother, C. A. Mellby at Northfield, a professor at St. Olaf college.

FOUR TOWNSHIPS HAVE NO DEATHS

Vital Statistics Show 155 More Births Than Deaths in County During 1923

The stork beat out the grim reaper more than two to one in Pennington county during the year 1923, according to the report received recently by Clerk of Court Adolf Eklund from the state board of health. The record shows 283 births and 128 deaths.

In Thief River Falls there were 137 births recorded to 75 deaths. Smiley township makes the best showing with 13 births and only two deaths, while Star is credited with 9 births and no deaths. The proportion of deaths in Rocksbury is accounted for by the fact that the Oakland Park Sanatorium is located there. Only Black River township reported no births while four townships, Bray, Reiner, Star and Silverton, had no deaths during the year.

Following is the record of each township:

Large Cream Checks

An item in the Grand Forks Herald last week states that what is believed to be the largest cream check to be paid for the month of January has been received by W. Leaders and Sons of Ottertail village, near Fergus Falls. The check, which was in the amount of $822.13, is said to be the largest paid for one month in northern Minnesota.

The largest cream check ever paid out by the Thief River Falls Co-operative creamery for one month's production was one in the sum of $548.99 for May, 1922, to Peter Engelstad, one of the leading pioneer dairymen of this community, according to information from the secretary's office.

Prices, Not Credit, Is Demanded By Farmers

Better prices, not more credit is the demand made by four out of five farmers voting in the Farm Bureau's state-wide poll on the McNary-Haugen bill, according to word from the St. Paul headquarters of the Federation.

Early this week, the vote stood 1355 for the plan and 12 against it.

With singular unanimity, farmers are supporting the measure. The scattering votes came either from former farmers or from persons who accompanied their ballots with an explanation of a pet theory which they urged as a substitute.

Examination To Be Given Again

The Civil Service Commission invites special attention to the fact that in an examination held recently in Thief River Falls, Minn., and other cities throughout the United States for assistant observer in meterorology, Weather Bureau, applicants were not secured in the number desired, and that this examination will be held again on June 18.

Persons interested in this or other examinations should apply to the secretary of the United States Civil Service Board at the local post office for detailed information and application blanks.

G. N. Track Removed

The railway track across LaBree avenue just below Bridge street at the end of the pavement, which was formerly used by the Great Northern in crossing the old bridge to the saw mill, was removed this week and the raised dump leveled down by the section cerw. The old crossing made an appreciable raise and was a nuisance to traffic and its removal is a welcome improvement.

FARMERS SHIP MANY TURKEYS LAST FALL

Express Company Handles Large Volume of Shipments During Nov. and Dec.

A total of 85,360 pounds of turkeys was shipped from the local American Railway Express station during last November and December, according to figures compiled by Oscar C. Paulson, agent. This amount was comprised practically entirely of small shipments from 85 to 1200 pounds and came from farmers in the immediate vicinity of Thief River Falls, giving one an idea of the turkey output of this community. Shipments in November totalled 37,965, the remainder being sent in December.

At an average net price of 31½ cents per pound the shipments during the two last months of 1923 netted the farmers of this vicinity a total of nearly $27,000 for approximately 7,750 birds. This does not include two car lots of about 16,000 and 25,000 each during the same period.

During the shipping season last fall the express company also transferred from the Wheat Line and Duluth local to the Minneapolis flyer an average of 55,000 pounds a night. The heaviest transfer was on a Saturday night when five cars of about 185,000 pounds were sent from this station.

As for poultry Mr. Paulson states that an average of 45 coops of 150 pounds each were transferred here during November and December last.

These figures indicate that Pennington county farmers are realizing the value of the poultry industry as a profitable side-line of farming.

Strandquist Men Propose Jefferson Highway Route

O. M. Oistad and Elmer Huseth of Strandquist were in the city last Monday to confer with local persons regarding the proposed re-routing of the Jefferson Highway north from Thief River Falls. The Strandquist men propose that the highway be routed as follows: North on highway from Thief River Falls thru Holt and four miles beyond that village, thence west thru Newfolden within one mile from Ellerth, thence north to Strandquist until the state road east of Karlstad is intersected, which is then followed to Karlstad. This makes a route of about 50 miles in length with only three turns, the entire stretch said to be graveled and in good condition.

Considerable interest in the matter has been aroused in many of the towns north of Thief River Falls and a strong effort will be made to establish the highway thru the central part of Marshall county.

Breaks Leg

William Koepp, residing three miles south of Middle River, suffered a serious fracture of his left leg Sunday morning when a cow kicked him when he was doing the morning milking. The leg was completely fractured so that it will be many weeks before the leg will be strong enough for use.

IT HAS LASTED

Thief River Falls People Must Believe Such Convincing Testimony as Mr. Krogstad's.

No one in Thief River Falls who suffers backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this twice-told story of a Thief River Falls resident. It is confirmed testimony, telling of lasting benefit from Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. It's evidence that no man or woman in Thief River Falls can doubt.

E. L. Krogstad, railroad brakeman, 523 State Ave., N. says: "Every morning I woke up with a terrible pain through my kidneys and my back became weak and lame. It hurt me to stoop or bend and my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Pills fixed me up in good shape."

THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Krogstad added: "The cure I received by using Doan's Pills has been permanent."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mr. Krogstad had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY BOARD, PENNINGTON COUNTY, MINNESOTA

Thief River Falls, Minnesota,
April 16th, 1924.

The County Board for Pennington County met in special Session in the City of Thief River Falls, at one o'clock P. M.

Meeting was called to order by the Chairman Commissioner Hanson. Members present Hanson, McGinn, Larson, Roy and Olson. Members absent none.

The following resolution was offered by Commissioner McGinn who moved its adoption duly seconded by Commissioner Roy.

Resolved that whereas, owing to the depleted condition of the County Road and Bridge Fund, there will be little work for the Highway Engineer of this county during the coming season.

Now, Therefore, be it resolved that we request the State Highway Department to place B. F. Umland in charge of the construction work on State Highway now under construction between St. Hilaire and Thief River Falls, and that a committee of one member of this board be appointed by the chair to go to St. Paul to interview the proper official of the Highway Department requesting this change.

All members present voted for the resolution, it was so duly approved.

On motion duly carried Commissioner McGinn was appointed as a committee of one to go to St. Paul and confer with the Officials of the State Highway Department.

There being no further business the County Board adjourned sine-die.

A. W. HANSON, Chairman.

Attest: T. P. ANDERSON,
County Auditor.

Red Crown
The High-Grade Gasoline
Gives Better Carburetion

Thirty-seven nationally known automobile factories buy Red Crown Gasoline in tank car lots for testing purposes.

These manufacturers use Red Crown because it has made good—because after comparison it has been found to deliver more mileage, more power, less carbon, easier starting, greater flexibility, quicker pick-up, and smoother acceleration.

It is practically certain that your car was tested and proved with Red Crown before it left the factory and that its entire carburetion system is adjusted to Red Crown Gasoline.

These are weighty arguments why you should use Red Crown, but there is a more forceful reason in the unqualified guarantee of uniformity which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) gives you with every gallon of Red Crown you buy.

Fill up with Red Crown anywhere and everywhere and you will get more mileage, better mileage, and better carburetion.

CREDIT BUREAU IS DISCUSSED BY T. O. OFSTHUN SECRETARY

Addresses Commercial Club While on Tour Inspecting Loans in Northern Minn.

A feature of last Tuesday's Commercial club luncheon was a talk by T. O. Ofsthun, secretary of the Minnesota Rural Credit bureau, in which he gave many interesting and illuminating facts regarding the organization and workings of the bureau. He called attention to a number of features of the rural credit system which are not as they should be and changes of which will be sought in the next session of the legislature. Mr. Ofsthun stated that more than 16 million dollars has been loaned to Minnesota farmers by the credit bureau since it started operation last July, a considerable portion coming to this section. The vast amount of work and delays in obtaining funds made it impossible for the bureau to rush thru all the loans as rapidly as desired, according to the secretary, who also stated that it is useless for clients and others to shower the board with letters and requests urging action upon particular loans, as they must all wait their turn and pressure brought to bear upon the appraiser or bureau members will be of no benefit. Each loan is considered upon its own merits and taken care of in order of receipt.

"I have absolute faith in this section of the state," said Mr. Ofsthun, "and altho some people are of the opinion that loans made here are excessive, I am certain that such is not the case if people co-operate and work in unison. The state loans will prove a great help to this entire section."

Mr. Ofsthun was introduced by J. S. Arneson, local appraiser of the bureau.

The bureau official spent several days in the county the past week to make an inspection of loans in this territory but due to the impassable condition of the roads he could not complete his tour but will return on May 10 to further confer with applicants regarding their loans. He expressed himself as very favorably impressed with this territory. From here he went to Warren and points north of that city on the Great Northern. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ofsthun.

Before making any changes, it's always well to be certain that they are improvements.

the business district would have to be taken care of with direct current. Thus the cost of changing over from direct to alternating curren would not become a hardship on the city.

Special Council Meeting

No definite number of years was discussed with Mr. Henley for such a contract but it was decided to go more into detail in the matter at a special meeting of the council next Tuesday night at which time Mr. Henley will again be present and have perhaps a more concrete plan to lay before the aldermen.

In the meantime the council is further investigating the feasability of repairing the dam as suggested by the Jacobson company as outlined in The Times a week ago. The aldermen met with Mr. Jacobson again since Tuesday night and went over the situation at the site of the dam and they are becoming quite enlightened as to the plausibility of such a step. Mr. Jacobson had a large number of blue prints of various installations his company had placed, together with photos thereof, and also a sketch of what could be done here at the estimated cost of about $85,000, which sum is considered reasonable.

Receiving Bids on Engines

Two weeks from last Tuesday the council will open bids on the additional unit at the power station and then the council will be ready to take some definite step toward protecting the city against a possible period of darkness in case anything should go wrong with the present combination of engine and hydraulic generation of power, especially next fall when the heavy load comes on.

LEGION TO LAUNCH MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Drive to Open Wih Meeting of All Service Men, Parade with Band and Mess Feed

The membership drive, planned some time ago by the Eklund Post of the American Legion, will be officially opened Wednesday evening, when the post will stage a rally of all ex-service men in the county, whether Legion members or not, a parade with the Legion band and a mess feed.

The post now has over a hundred members and it is expected that another hundred will be added during the next few weeks. An invitation has been extended to all ex-service men and a general massmeeting will be held at the Legion club rooms for them and the members. The local post plans one of the most intensive drives it has ever staged.

SOO LINE EMPLOYS MAN TO ENCOURAGE DIVERSIFICATION

Investigates Conditions in Effort To Place Livestock Along Wheat Line

Announcement was made by W. A. Barnard, superintendent of the local division of the Soo Line, at the Commercial club luncheon last Thursday that the Soo Line has started a project whereby farmers along the line between Thief River Falls and Kenmare, N. D., will be assisted in the purchase of livestock, particularly in the communities where there is practically no livestock or dairy cows at the present time.

R. L. Aney, formerly county agent at Crosby, N. D., and agricultural instructor in the high school there, has been engaged by President Jaffray of the Soo Line to take charge of placing livestock in this territory among farmers who are desirous of enlarging their herd or changing from strict grain farming to divesified farming.

Together with Supt. Barnard, Mr. Aney recently went thru the territory to get acquainted and familiarize himself with local conditions and needs. It is found that a large number of dairy cows and other livestock could easily be introduced into the territory along this line and would tend to relieve the existing conditions. This movement on the part of the Soo Line is along the same lines as the diversification program of the Credit Corporation of Minneapolis of which Mr. Jaffray is a director but is entirely separate.

An effort is now being made to get in touch with farmers who wish to purchase livestock and also those who have good animals to dispose of thru this agency.

TEACHERS' LEAGUE OUTLINES PROGRAM

Instructors of County's Rural Schools Hold Annual Meeting to Discuss Problems

Thirty rural school instructors of the county were in attendance at the annual meeting of the Teachers' Progressive League of Pennington county which was held at the Legion Club rooms in this city last Saturday. This was a good showing considering the fact that the weather was unfavorable and a number of the 70 teachers in the county have completed their terms. However, many of them are residents of the county and remain here at the close of the term, which also makes it more convenient to conduct the Play Day programs during late spring. Among those present were Miss Alice Stapleton, instructor in the Normal department of the high school, and her students.

The reports of the secretary and the chairman of each Reading Circle were read and approved.

The plans for future activities of the league were discussed under the following heads: County Play Day, County Graduation, American Education Week and Declamation. Supt O. R. Sande was called on for a talk and he enlarged upon each of the above.

The first two of these activities were carried out last spring with great success and also aroused a great deal of enthusiasm and interest. The parents as well as pupils and teachers are very much in favor of having one this spring. The sectional play days which leads to the County play day are very different from those of last year in that they place the honor of winning on a group rather than the individual. Therefore the interest and competition between the schools on the County Play Day should be very lively. The date has not yet been decided upon for the County Play Day.

The plan for carrying out the program for American Education Week in the fall was discussed but nothing was definitely decided, the work being left for discussion in the Reading Circle Sections.

Declamation was the new phase of work suggested by Mr. Sande to the teachers for thought and consideration until the opening of schools next fall.

After the business meeting the following program was given: Reading, "For the Love of Mary Allen," Dorothy Swedenburg; short address, Rev. Chas. Gerlinger; vocal solo, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," Miss Hilda Esko.

Following the program a delicious lunch was served by Bertha Hastad, Myrtle Myrin, Clara Sorenson and Mrs. Battenfeldt.

Officers of the league are: Bertha Husted, president; Clara Sorenson, secretary; Rose Oski, treasurer; Laura Kron, chairman of recreation committee.

TIMES ADS "GO-GETTERS"

Editor of the Times:

Allow me to congratulate you on the promptness your want ads are in bringing results.

In your last issue I advertised for my trailer and tank which disappeared last December, offering $30 reward. I placed the ad on Wednesday evening and the trailer and tank was returned Thursday night some time and I got my paper Friday morning.

So you see your ads are sure "go-getters."

Everything was O. K. but the lid to the tank was missing. Maybe you can get that back for me if it is not too much bother.—V. C. Noper.

Many Licenses Granted By Council Tues. Night

Tuesday night's meeting of the city council saw quite an array of varied requests for licenses and permits and they all met with favorable response on the part of the aldermen.

There were three who wanted pool room and billiard hall licenses, viz: Harry Fry, Jas. Cosgrove and William Sheedy.

Ed Lee sought a plumber's license while the Lyceum and Princess theaters sought renewals as moving picture houses.

The People's Co-operative store needed a public dance permit to hold their annual ball Friday night, Apr. 25.

Only one building permit showed up, altho others were looked for. E. P. Burstad was granted permission to remodel a house on the east side at a cost of $1,200.

The present sign of the Standard Oil Co. at the corner of Main and Second will be replaced by a more attractive one if the company complies with certain formalities regarding its erection.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS IN CITY TO ATTEND WEED BURNER TRIAL

Burner Invented by Protzeller Receives Trial Before Officials Today

A number of Northern Pacific, Great Northern, Canadian Pacific and Soo Line railway officials are in the city today to witness a demonstration of the weed burning machine, invented by H. W. Protzeller of this city and being perfected and manufactured by the Gardner Railway Weed Burner Manufacturing company located in this city. The trial trip is being made on the Electric line this noon.

The machine is mounted on railway trucks and the power for operation is derived from a Fordson motor. Two large tanks furnish kerosene fuel fed to two tubes extending to a width of 11 feet which burn the weeds on the right of way. The machine is a one man machine. Hitherto, weed burners have required a crew of ten men or more and used a double process of first killing and then burning the weeds. The machine will make 3 to 6 miles per hour.

Among those attending the demonstration are: C. W. Gardner, president of the Gardner Railway Weed Burner company; General Mechanical Superintendent Allen of the Northern Pacific; General Road Master Olson of the Northern Pacific; General Road Master Carney of the Great Northern; Superintendent Smart of the Great Northern; General Road Master O'Connor of the Soo Line and Assistant Vice President Reed of the Canadian Pacific. Next Tuesday another demonstration will be held according to present plans and officials from many other roads are expected to be present.

dium of the loans proposed," Mr. Grangaard declared.

Under the plan proposed the committee has made the following suggestions:

Community loan committee of three or five members each be organized to assist both the farmers and the corporation in carrying out the plan of operation.

Either owners or tenants shall be eligible for a loan.

Loans be made only for the purchase of high grade or purebred breeding stock.

That not more than $1,000 shall be loaned to any individual borrower.

That the rate of interest shall be seven per cent each year, six per cent representing interest on the loan and one per cent to be used to provide a fund to be used for providing expert assistance to the community purchasing representatives and settlement for the stock purchased.

Farmers to agree among themselves as to the community purchasing agent.

No attempt shall be made to arbitrarily dictate regarding breeding types or class of livestock which they may purchase.

That the corporation shall accept applications for loan upon female breeding stock, either cattle, sheep or hogs, born after January one, 1924, where the applicant can show the necessity for the selling of such young stock to pay indebtedness.

WAR ON SPEEDERS OPENS; 3 PAY FINES

Judge Declares Speed Regulations Must Be Observed by Local Auto Drivers

Automobile speeders of Thief River Falls and vicinity were given their first jolt this season when three offenders were nabbed by Patrolman Krogstad in this city, brought before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court, where they pleaded guilty and paid fines of $12 each, assessments being for the first offense.

Those who pleaded guilty to speeding and paid fines last Monday were Gust Holmen and Charles Dostal, and P. Tommerdahl, who was charged with violating the speed regulations on April 8. A trial was set for the latter but he decided to plead guilty to the charge and pay the fine.

Judge Tarrant asserts that no mercy will be given speed demons, brot into his court, and warns local motorists to take heed. He has established a regular assessment of a $12.50 fine for the first offense, $25 for the second and a straight 90-day jail sentence for the third violation of the speed laws. Local officials declare they are on the watchout for speeders and those who are determined to "step on the gas" too lively will have to say "Good morning Judge" and "Goodbye $12.50" in the same breath.

Jury Disagrees in Case Against Alleged Trouble Makers from St. Hilaire

Sigurd Engh, Hilmer Nelson and Walfred Walbeck of St. Hilaire appeared in municipal court before Judge N. W. Tarrant Thursday, last week, to answer to charges of abusive language to provoke assault brought against them by Ole Mathson, Hazel merchant. Sheriff Ole L. Ihle served the summons the preceding Tuesday and the defendants appeared in court here the following day represented by Attorney Boughton from Red Lake Falls, who called for a jury trial, which took place Thursday and took up practically the entire afternoon. Many St. Hilaire and Hazel residents were present at the trial.

Mr. Mathson claimed that the three men had created a disturbance and used abusive and obscene language in his place of business where he was serving lunch following a dance Saturday night, April 12. Mathson, who is a cripple and unable to walk, declared they appeared to be drunk and that he refused to sell them pop when they called for it. The defendants, however, asserted that they conducted themselves properly while at Hazel. County Attorney Theo. Quale conducted the trial for the state. Seventeen witnesses were called upon at the hearing.

After considerable deliberation the jury still disagreed, nine being in favor of the acquittal of the young men and three for conviction. Being unable to secure a unanimous decision by the jury the case was dismissed for the time being but another hearing may be called, altho it is expected that the matter may be dropped.

Field Man Visits Growers

David Wigand of Crookston, district agriculturist for the Minnesota Sugar company which has contracted for the beet acreage in this locality, arrived in the city yesterday to visit growers in the community together with County Agent J. J. McCann, advising them as to the planting and culture of beets and the housing of the Mexican laborers. Mr. Wigand states that conditions look favorable.

SOO WILL PUT ON NEW TRAIN THROUGH CITY

New Night Train Service From Duluth to Winnipeg Will Be Started First of June

SLEEPER TO CONNECT WITH WINNIPEG FLYER

Duluth Has Made Strong Effort to Secure Night Train To Improve Service

Transcontinental train service from Duluth to the Pacific coast via Thief River Falls, with a through sleeper daily from Duluth to Winnipeg, starting June 1, was definitely announced last week by H. M. Lewis of Minneapolis, general passenger agent of the Soo Line, following a conference of road officials with executives of the Duluth Chamber of Commerce, according to reports in the Duluth papers last week.

According to information received here the new night train will leave Duluth at 6:45 p. m., arriving at Winnipeg at 8:15 a. m., connecting at the Canadian city with through train service into Western Canada, the Canadian Rockies and the Pacific coast. At Thief River Falls the Duluth sleepers will connect with the twin city flyer to Winnipeg, which is scheduled to leave at 2:40 a. m. Thief River Falls will be one of the terminal points on the run for the train crew.

Eastbound, the new train will leave Winnipeg at 4:45 p. m. daily, Thief River Falls at 10:15 p. m., arriving in Duluth at 7 a. m.

Special Excursions Rates

Special summer excursions rates on the new night train will be afforded fishermen, hunters and excursionists going to Bemidji, Cass Lake and lakes in the north country, it was stated at the Duluth conference by Mr. Lewis, the schedule becoming effective when the service is inaugurated on June 1. The train will reach Cass Lake at 11:15 and Bemidji at 11:45 p. m. The return train will leave Bemidji at midnight.

Announcement of the new transcontinental train service that will make connections with all Eastern trains, affording tourists an opportunity to visit in Duluth en route to the coast, comes after a six-year campaign on the part of the Chamber of Commerce and Duluth business institutions. The movement for a night train to Thief River Falls that will connect with the Winnipeg trains began in 1917, but activities on the part of the chamber were discontinued during the war.

The present day train between Duluth and Thief River Falls will be continued, local officials state. This train leaves Duluth at 10:30 a. m. and arrives in this city at 8 p. m. The eastbound leaves Thief River Falls at 7 a. m.

The new night train thru Thief River Falls to Winnipeg will connect with all the boat lines and will afford the summer tourists going west thru service to the coast, Mr. Lewis said. In addition the train will make direct connections with the fast nonstop Soo train from the twin cities for passengers from the Middle West and the South en route to Western Canada, Lake Louise and coast points.

A non-stop train is now operated on the Soo Line between Minneapolis and Duluth.

LOCAL LEGION POST INVITES EXSERVICE MEN TO BIG RALLY

Membership Drive to Open With Gathering of County's Veterans Next Thursday

Owing to the inclement weather and unfavorable road conditions the meeting of the Eklund post of the American legion scheduled to be held in the club rooms in this city last evening to officially open an intensive drive for membership, has been postponed until the next regular meeting date, next Thursday evening, May 8. The meeting will be in the form of a rally with a big parade thru the city headed by the Legion band, followed by a "mess feed," business session and social time at the club rooms, a cordial invitation to attend having been extended to every ex-service man in the county.

The local post, which now has a membership of 100 and is "over the top" as compared to last year's list, is now inaugurating one of the most intensive drives for more members ever staged, according to Commander Oscar Smith, who states that an effort will be made to sign up about 100 buddies in the county in the coming campaign. Good sized delegations are expected from St. Hilaire, Goodridge and the rural communities of the county.

Special interest is taken in this membership drive with the possibility of getting the 1925 state convention to Thief River Falls looming in sight. "We want every ex-service man in Pennington county in the ranks of the Elmer J. Eklund post before this drive closes," says Commander Smith.

One hundred and fourteen Minnesota Legion posts of the 500-odd organizations in the state have gone "over the top" of their 1923 memberships, according to latest reports from headquarter office.

Cantata Presentation Canceled

The presentation of the cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by the Trinity Church choir and other musically talented people of this city at Middle River Sunday afternoon was cancelled on account of the roads.

Today is Automobile Day At Commercial Club Noon Lunch

Today is Automobile day at the Commercial club and the business hour after the luncheon will be spent in discussing various matters of interest to automobile owners. All auto club members are invited to attend the luncheon, whether members of the Commercial club or not. The 1924 membership cards and the new radiator emblems will be distributed to all those who renew their membership in the club. The Pennington County club now has 104 members and is known as one of the largest and best clubs in the state.

Corn Tests 100% Germination

A. A. Shoopman, who is operating a farm south of Thief River Falls, has White Dent seed corn which tests 100 per cent germination. This is considered a remarkable showing considering the general early frost last fall. As a result of the high germination test and advertising in the Want Ad columns of The Times, Mr. Shoopman reports a strong demand for his seed.

LOCAL DELEGATION OF CLUB WOMEN TO ATTEND DIST. MEET

Music Chorus of T. R. F. Club to Compete in Song Contest at Moorhead Gathering

The Woman's club in Thief River Falls will be well represented at the annual Ninth district meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs which will be held at Moorhead Tuesday and Wednesday, May 6 and 7, according to present plans. The delegation will consist of the music chorus, four delegates and a number of other members who will be in attendance at the sessions.

The music chorus of ten members under the direction of Mrs. Halvorson will compete with choruses from Fergus Falls, Crookston, Moorhead and Detroit in a singing contest Wednesday evening for the cup presented by the Crookston Current Events club two years ago. At the last district meeting the cup was won by the Fergus Falls chorus. For a cup to be given by J. E. Rounds, president of the Federation, groups from Warren, Hallock, Stephen, Mahnomen and Beltrami will sing, according to announcements. The local chorus gave some of the numbers prepared for the contest at the regular meeting last Monday. Among the features of the song program at the district meeting will be the choral work of the combined choruses.

Members of the Thief River Falls chorus are: The Mesdames W. W. Prichard, Jr., O. F. Mellby, C. A. Nason, W. R. French, Doris Halvorson Pope, Lucille Johnson, F. P. Christenson, G. W. Booren, J. N. Nesse and Miss Thora Hanson. The piano accompaniment is furnished by Mrs. N. K. Harris. The group is composed of talented vocalists who will undoubtedly make a strong bid for the district honors in the contest.

Mrs. P. W. Mabey, president of the local club, Mrs. G. W. Booren, Mrs. Gaston Ward and Mrs. A. M. Heggen are the regular club delegates to the Moorhead meeting. Others besides the chorus members and delegates who expect to attend are Mrs. H. W. Froehlich, Mrs. R. Arnold, Mrs. I. T. Simley and Mrs. L. G. Larsen. Mrs. Lucille Johnson and three members of the chorus expect to motor to Moorhead Saturday, while the others will leave Monday afternoon.

Telephone Manager Vollum Is Visitor in T. R. Falls

Thomas Vollum of Erskine, manager of the Garden Valley Telephone company, was a brief caller in Thief River Falls Tuesday on his return from points north of this city where he was called to make inspection of a number of telephone lines as a member of the state board to clear up some trouble arising from interference by the electric high line.

The Garden Valley company is at present considering taking over the Red Lake and Eastern Marshall Farmers Telephone company with about 200 subscribers and an approximate value of $8,000, the board of directors to take action in the near future. The Grygla Co-operative Telephone company is also considering merging with the Erskine company, according to Mr. Vollum, which would increase the company by about 250 subscribers. The Garden Valley company is the fourth largest in the state and has approximately 4,000 subscribers.

Mr. Vollum while visiting at The Times office stated that he was not quite certain as to whether or not he would file for a state office, altho he has received a great deal of encouragement to try for the governorship or some other position on the Farmer-Labor ticket. May 7 is the last day for filing for state offices and Mr. Vollum expects to make a decision this week. He has many friends in this section who would like to see him enter the race.

WHY NOT A BASEBALL TEAM

Who is going to "throw the first Ball" in Thief River Falls? Youthful fans have already started to limber up by unofficial tossing of the horsehide in the alleys or where space is available. There has been some talk among interested persons with reference to organizing a team to represent this city the coming season, but so far nothing definite has been brought out. A number of towns in this section are now making preparations for the season. Why not "start the ball rolling" in Thief River Falls?

OATS LEADING CROP OF 1923 IN PENNINGTON CO.

Farms in Thief River Falls Community are Larger Than Average For State

RENTERS OCCUPY 222 OF 1,064 FARMS HERE

State Farm Census For 1923 Contains Interesting Data Regarding County's Status

Farms in Pennington, Marshall and Red Lake counties are considerably larger than the average farms of the state, according to the Minnesota State Farm census for 1923 issued by the department of agriculture. This census shows that the average size of Minnesota farms is 164.7 acres while the average for Pennington county is 216, Marshall, 253, and Red Lake, 190 acres.

Pennington county comprises 230,689 acres divided into 1,064 farms, of which 842 are operated by owners and 222 by renters, according to the 1923 figures. Marshall county with an acreage of 622,482 has 2,459 farms, 1906 operated by owners and 553 by renters; while Red Lake county with 170,765 acres has 870 farms, 690 operated by owners and 180 by renters. In the entire state 125,446 farms are operated by owners and 46,531 by renters.

The greatest acreage in Pennington and Red Lake counties in 1923 was devoted to oats while in Marshall spring wheat held the lead by a considerable margin with oats second.

The following figures show the number of acres seeded to various crops the past year in these three counties:

Pennington County

Corn, 7,559; oats, 27,028; barley 5,304; rye, 20,987; winter wheat, 382; spring wheat, 5,847; buckwheat, 4,133; potatoes, 3,176; flax, 6,347; alfalfa, 1,561; timothy and clovers, 21,003.

Marshall County

Corn, 15,995; oats, 68,328; barley, 43,314; rye, 57,562; winter wheat, 2,843; spring wheat, 84,089; buckwheat, 1,958; potatoes, 5,568; flax, 21,141; alfalfa, 3,215; clover and timothy, 28,462.

Red Lake County

Corn, 6,997; oats, 25,620; barley, 5,089; Rye, 14,136; winter wheat, 705; spring wheat, 7,269; buckwheat, 3,517; potatoes, 2,071; flax, 3,642; alfalfa, 958; clover and timothy, 15,365.

The alfalfa acreage in Pennington county increased to nearly 5,000 acres last year, according to figures obtained from questionaires sent out to farmers last winter by the county agent during the alfalfa campaign.

There were 69 silos in this county when the census was taken last year but County Agent J. J. McCann states that this number has now reached between 90 and 100, many having been constructed last fall. Marshall county had 180 silos and Red Lake 46. The statistics report 30,386 silos on the 171,977 farms in the state. Only 173 tractors are in use on Pennington county farms, 679 in Marshall and 51 in Red Lake.

Much Pasture

A considerable share of the land is used for pasture, in Pennington county, 9865 acres plow land and 41,419 acres of other land being used for that purpose. A total of 1,644 acres was cleared and broken during the year. There are 8270 acres in farm woodlot. Nearly 20,000 acres were cut for wild hay, the report shows, and 980 acres were devoted to sugar beets, 81 acres to field beans and 52 acres to other root corps. Marshall county had only 317 acres of sugar beets and Red Lake 198. This year practically the entire acreage was allotted to Pennington county farmers. More than 20,000 acres of sugar beets were grown in Minnesota last year.

It is also interesting to note that last year 3,216 sheep were sheared in this county, 7,623 in Marshall and 1,544 in Red Lake. This is a large number compared to the other counties of the state.

A general summary for the state shows that in 1923 there were 620 less farms than in 1922. This is partly accounted for by land near the larger cities, which has been diverted into suburban property.

Fewer Horses

The number of horses on farms January 1, 1924, shows a slight decrease compared with January, 1923. The number on hand at the beginning of this year was 869,000, while last year it was estimated at 887,000. This decrease is due to the invasion of the automobile and farm tractor and the subsequent low price of horses.

Milk cows at the beginning of this year are greater in number than last year. Milch cows have been steadily gaining in Minnesota each year as their economic value becomes better known. The total farm value of milk cows is estimated at $87,048,000. Sheep show a slight increase while hogs are said to remain about the same. Indications, however, are that there will be a decrease in the number of hogs this year owing to the low prices existing for a while.

Wangenstein and Son Move to New Location on LaBree Bve.

A. A. Wangenstein and son will move their jewelry business into the building on Labree avenue now occupied by Chris Halvorson this week, according to announcements made yesterday. Mr. Halvorsen has sold the fixtures to Wangenstein and Son and will move his stock to Minneapolis about the first of June. Mr. Wangenstein has been in the watch repairing and jewelry business for many years and has gained a large number of patrons and anticipates a larger business than ever in the new location.

FARMERS MAY APPLY FOR LOANS FROM CREDIT BODY TO PAY DELINQUENT TAX

Application blanks for farmers of this county who wish to secure aid from the Agricultural Credit corporation for the payment of delinquent taxes, as outlined in a recent issue of The Times, have been received by T. P. Anderson, county auditor, and those wishing to avail themselves of these loans should inquire at his office as soon as possible. The corporation will assist the county by extending credit for the purchase of tax certificates against which there is a 12 per cent penalty. Application blanks are also sent to the banks.

MEN'S CLUB HOLDS LAST MEETING OF SERIES LAST FRI.

Boys' Work Discussed at Presbyterian Church Gathering. Elks to Aid Boy Scouts

The seventh of a series of meetings of the Men's club of the Presbyterian church was held at the church Friday evening. A supper was served by the ladies of the church and a fine program given and the regular business meeting conducted. The topic of discussion for the evening was the boys' work activities of the church and city. Prof. A. H. Larson of the N. W. Agricultural college at Crookston was present and gave an address on boys' work.

After the supper, which was a most enjoyable and successful one, Mrs. A. P. Robinson gave a vocal solo and Mrs. Charles Gerlinger favored the assemblage with a reading, "The East and West," by Kipling. Bert F. Umland made a report of the bible study committee, F. F. Haynes gave the report for the membership committee and Geo. M. Wilson that of the boys' work committee.

Harold Arneson gave a talk on his experiences as a scout and various talks were made relative to conducting boy scout work. The Elks lodge has made an offer of supplying funds to the extent of $600 for boy scout work in the city, to be used for uniforms and employing a scout master. There are three scout troops organized here now and if a leader can be secured the work will be carried on extensively during the summer months.

This was the last meeting of the club to be held this season. The next gathering will take place some time in September. President O. R. Sande was in charge of the session.

INTERESTING PROGRAM IS ARRANGED FOR P.-T. MEETING

Last Meeting of Parent-Teachers Ass'n This Spring at High School Monday

The last meeting of the Parent-Teachers association this spring will be held at the high school auditorium Monday evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock. A program of talent from each of the schools has been arranged by the losing team of the recent membership drive. William Munch, of Crookston, game warden for this section, will give an address on the "Value of Birds."

Inasmuch as this it the last meeting of the season it will no doubt be attended by a record crowd. The association has been one of the most active organizations of the city during the past year and much has been accomplished toward establishing a closer relationship between the parent and the teacher.

COUNTY DEMOCRATS TO CONVENE SOON

Eight Delegates Will Be Chosen to Attend State Convention in St. Paul May 31

Pennington county Democrats are entitled to eight delegates to the state convention in St. Paul on May 31, according to announcement this week. Each county has three delegates at large and one delegate for each 150 votes, with the Cox vote of 1920 taken as a basis. Even tho the county sends a short delegation a single delegate from a county will be entitled to cast its full apportionment under the state law.

Under the democratic plan there are no separate district conventions, but the delegates from each district will caucus at the time of the state convention.

Under the call the delegates to county conventions will be elected May 23, either by precinct caucuses or by mass meetings as the county committees may determine.

No announcement has been made as yet regarding a convention here.

The state convention will elect four delegates at large and 20 district delegates to the New York convention, also an equal number of alternates, and will nominate 12 presidential electors.

Other counties in this section of the state will be represented as follows: Beltrami, 7; Lake of the Woods, 7; Clearwater, 5; Kittson, 7; Mahnomen, 4; Marshall, 9; Ottertail, 15; Norman, 6; Polk, 17; Red Lake, 7; Roseau, 6.

Barbers Establish Hours

Local barbers have agreed on a new schedule for the summer months. Beginning May 1st the shops will be open until 8 o'clock Wednesday evenings and until 10 o'clock Saturday evenings. All other days they will close at six o'clock.

MANY LUTHERAN PASTORS GATHER IN CONFERENCE

North Park Region Ministers Hold Interesting Sessions at St. John's Church

25 PASTORS FROM 60 CONGREGATIONS HERE

Mission Director Reports Splendid Progress in Northern Minn. Sessions Close Today

North Park Region Conference of Lutheran ministers comprising twenty-five ministers of northern Minnesota, who represent some sixty congregations, held its spring sessions in St. John's Ev. Lutheran church, the Rev. Emil Kreidt, pastor, from Tuesday and closing this afternoon. The conference is connected with one of the largest independent Lutheran church bodies in the United States, viz: the Synod of Missouri, Ohio, and other states. A great deal of interest has been manifested thruout the meetings.

The conference was opened with a devotional service on Tuesday morning followed by a business session at which the Rev. Martin Hauser of Warren was elected president of the conference and the Rev. Henry Lutz of Goodridge secretary.

The morning hours were devoted to the discussion of doctrinal matters while in the afternoon questions involving pastoral practice were considered.

Many Pastors Speak

Following is the program for the morning sessions: "Interpretation of Galations 3" by Rev. E. Frenk. "Mr. Wyneken, our Pioneer Missionary" by Rev. M. Brammer. "Discussing a Practical Question Before a Young People's Society" by Rev. E. Schuett. "Evolution" by Rev. Fedetke. "The Origin of the Sacrificial Idea" by Rev. O. Peterson. "The Holy Ghost" by Rev. H. Lutz. "The Christian Church" by Rev. M. Heine. "The Forgiveness of Sins" by Rev. Claussen. "The Resurrection of The Body" by Rev. P. Seltz. "Life Everlasting" by Professor Fisher.

Public preaching services were held on Tuesday evening in the church auditorium. The Rt. Rev. M. Hauser spoke on the "Divinity of a Minister's Call". The members of the conference communed in this service. The Rev. Herman Mayer of International Falls preached the confessional sermon.

On Wednesday evening a social gathering was held in the church parlors. Preliminary to this a special song service was held in the church auditorium. The Rev. Richard Siebert of Cass Lake and the Rev. Schwanfelder of Fisher delivered addresses on Lutheran Hymnology.

Mission Director Honor Guest

The guest of honor at the conference was the Rt. Rev. Frederick Randt of St. Paul, mission director of the Minnesota District of the Lutheran church. He reported at length on the splendid progress of Lutheran missions in Northern Minnesota and on the plans of the mission board for further expansion.

Entire District Represented

County Auditor Has Busy Trip To Several Points

T. P. Anderson, county auditor, returned Monday from the twin cities and other points in southern Minnesota on an extended trip of a few days. In St. Paul he attended to various matters in connection with his office and visited with his son, Glenn, in Minneapolis.

Mr. Anderson accompanied Elinor Johnson, the six-year-old daughter of the late Andrew Johnson, who died in 1922, to Owatonna where she entered the School for Dependent children. During the past one and a half years she has been a patient at the Walker sanatorium but is now said to be entirely well.

The auditor also visited at his former home at Mona, Iowa, where he has several relatives. He reports that the crop outlook was very promising in the southern part of the state and northern Iowa.

While in Minneapolis he attended the dedication exercises of of the Oslo Lodge No. 2 of the Sons of Norway, which opened a splendid home last Sunday, the principal speaker at which was Grand Lodge President Gilbert of Willmar.

Odd Fellows Commemorate Order's 105th Anniversary

Odd Fellows, members of the Thief River Canton No. 10, Young Pine Subordinate No. 221, and Riverside Encampment No. 22, and members of the Lyon Rebekah lodge of this city, joined last Sunday in celebrating the 105th anniversary of American Odd Fellowship, by attending services in the Methodist church upon invitation from the pastor, Rev. J. B. Smith, who is an I. O. O. F. member.

April 26, 1819, saw the beginning of the American Order of Odd Fellows, when Washington lodge No. 1, was established in Baltimore.

Christian Scientist Will Lecture Tomorrow Evening

As announced last week a lecture on Christian Science will be delivered under the auspices of the local Christian Science society tomorrow, Friday, evening at 8:15 o'clock at the church edifice on the corner of LaBree avenue and First street. Judge Samuel Greene, C. S., of Louisville, Ky., member of the board of lectureship of The Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Mass., will discuss "Christian Science: The Religion of Joy." He is known as one of the most able lecturers in the organization and a large number are expected to attend his lecture here, which is free of charge, the general public being invited.

Industrial Work on Display

The annual display of articles made in the general industrial department of the high school, supervised by Clarence Pope, will be exhibited in The Tribune windows Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The exhibits consist of pieces of woodwork made in the shop and drawings from the mechanical drawing division.

BARZEN SELECTED MEMBER OF GROUP TO PASS ON LOANS

Committee of Three Will Assist Farmers to Make Loans for Purchase of Livestock

Math Barzen, Sr., has been named by the Commercial club to represent the commercial interests of the community on a local committee to assist farmers in Pennington county in making loans thru the Agricultural Credit corporation for the purchase of livestock. This county was one of the four Northwestern Minnesota counties employing county agents which will be eligible to receive immediate aid from the $1,000,000 livestock fund created by the corporation, according to the plans formulated at a meeting of county agents, farmers, business men and agricultural experts of the northwest in conference at Fargo last week, a complete account of which was given in last week's issue of The Times.

Together with Mr. Barzen on the committee is County Agent J. J. McCann, who attended the Fargo meeting and has been appointed by the corporation. These two men will select a third member of the committee and they will then proceed to investigate applications for loans, make local purchases and inspect the farms of the applicants to ascertain whether or not housing and feeding facilities are such that the animals purchased thru the corporation's loan fund will be properly taken care of. It is expected that the third member of the committee will be named the first of the week.

Already a dozen applications for loans have been made by Pennington county farmers, says Mr. McCann, who states that indications are that a considerable number will avail themselves of this opportunity to add good stock to their herds. The corporation's diversification program in the grain areas of the Northwest is along the same lines as the proposed Coulter bill which was defeated in congress.

Included in the plans of the local committee will be the purchase of stock by means of loans thru the corporation at the annual Guernsey consignment sale in Thief River Falls June 12, when a large number of purebreds and high class grades will be disposed of, according to announcement yesterday by Mr. McCann.

Persons interested in making applications for loans thru the credit body should inquire of the committee members or thru their banker.

State Acts to Keep Out Foot-Mouth Pest

Dr. L. R. Twete, local veterinarian and city milk inspector, has been notified that stringent regulations to prevent the spread of Foot and Mouth disease from California to Minnesota has prompted the Minnesota Livestock Sanitary Board to prohibit shipments of California livestock, dressed carcasses, hay, straw, or similar forage into this state. The disease has now appeared in 16 counties in California. The Minnesota board has also adopted strict rules and regulations regarding the shipment of trees, shrubs, vines, plants, fruits, vegetables, milk, cream, cheese, and other products from California into Minnesota. Livestock from California destined for other states may not pass through Minnesota during continuance of the quarantine unless accompanied by a federal certificate of health and shipped in sealed cars.

Not a Member of Committee

As a result of misinformation it was stated in a recent issue that Fred Herrick of the Thief River Grocery company was a member of the committee appointed from the Commercial club to attend a meeting at Warren regarding the proposed re-routing of the Jefferson Highway, the fact of the matter being that he was simply invited by members of the committee to make the trip.

TOURISTS DARE SPRING AIR

Birds may be a sign of summer but the tourists are beating them to it. Last week tourists camped at the tourist park in Thief River Falls for the first time this season and this week several other parties have availed themselves of the park, known to local residents as Lovers Lane. Thief River Falls, according to tourists, has one of the best kept and most attractive tourist parks in the state. The naturally sheltered position with the large shade trees and the river at hand makes it a very desirable place for the weary tourist.

PEAT FUEL IS BRIQUETTED BY DEHYDRATION

Bagley Men Propose to Make Fuel from Peat Without Addition of Other Elements

OPERATE EXPERIMENT STATION AT DULUTH

Vast Area of Peat in North Minnesota May Mean Enormous Fuel Production

Three representatives of the Peat Fuel Dehydration company of Bagley visited Thief River Falls Wednesday evening of last week and conferred with the industrial committee of the Commercial club in reference to installing a peat fuel producing plant in this vicinity. The men who represented the plant are Otto Sorenson, Gilbert Tollefson and D. O. Wickenburg.

Considerable interest in the manufacture of peat fuel has been manifested by residents of this city and vicinity in the past. Several propositions have been presented at various times but so far the plans have not given sufficient promise of success to warrant going into the venture. About a year ago a certain concern proposed to establish a peat fuel factory in this city, providing local capital could be interested. After some consideration by local business men the matter was dropped, there being some doubt as to the possibilities of the project.

New Process Used

The proposition outlined by the Bagley men called for the installation of a dehydration or drying plant and a briquetting plant at the cost of $50,000. The dehydrator is built much like a silo. The peat is carried into the dehydrator, which is stationed on the peat field, on conveyors and ground to a powder, heated to a temperature of about 300 degrees fahrenheit and elevated into the silo-like dehydrator and expelled at a temperature of 125 degrees. From the dehydrator it is taken directly to the briquetter and compressed into briquettes, samples of which the delegation had with them.

The industrial committee of the Commercial club is awaiting further proof that the process is a success. The company represented claim to have an experiment station at Duluth, to which they will take a committee from the local club for a demonstration. They also claim to have sold one of the plants to Bemidji for erection in the near future, according to those present at the meeting Wednesday evening. According to the claims of the Peat Fuel Dehydration company this fuel can be produced at a price that will enable marketing for a lower figure than coal and insure a larger margin of profit. The fuel is the equal of coal and some claim it superior in ways because of the absence of the sulphur coal contains.

Vast Resources

It has been estimated that there are over six billion tons of peat fuel in Minnesota, according to the United States Geological survey of 1922. Among the Minnesota peat areas are: Beltrami county with 1,290,200 acres with 1,818,880,000 tons of dried peat fuel available, Clearwater with 128,000 acres and 128,000,000 tons, Koochiching with 1,000,000 acres and 1,400,000,000 tons and Roseau with 250,000 acres and 250,000,000 tons, Marshall with 50,000 acres and 50,000,000 tons and Pennington with 10,000 acres and 10,000,000 tons.

S. E. HUNT NAMED TO HEAD POTATO UNIT IN PENNINGTON CO

Directors of Co-op. Marketing Ass'n Incorporate and Elect Officers Last Week

Directors of the Pennington County Potato Growers' Co-operative Marketing association, elected by members of the proposed state potato exchange two weeks ago, met at the Commercial club rooms Wednesday of last week to complete the details incident to the incorporation of the local unit and named officers for the association.

S. E. Hunt, residing near Thief River Falls, was chosen president of the board which will be in charge of the Pennington county association, while Carl Beiswenger, Kratka, was elected vice president, and Henry Oen, Thief River Falls, secretary-treasurer. Waldie Christensen, Thief River Falls, Oen and Hunt compose the executive committee, while F. T. Satre, the fifth member of the board, was named as trustee to represent this association in the state exchange, as stated in last week's issue of The Times. Mr. Satre attended a meeting of the 52 trustees throughout the state at St. Paul last Saturday, at which time the state exchange was completed and incorporated.

F. A. Green of Stephen, representing the state office, assisted the directors last week in completing the organization of the local association, and in a statement to a Times representative declared that he is certain that the project will be a huge success. New contracts to comply with the association's constitution and by-laws were adopted and other details attended to. The county directors will hold regular meetings once a month.

With these capable and level headed men in charge of the co-operative potato marketing organization in the county it is a certainty that this unit is well taken care of and gives promise of success.

Anything that is based on the sound plan of the greatest good for the greatest number is bound to succeed.

Male Quartet Gives Fine Program at Legion Hall At Girls' Club Meeting

The members of the Thief River Falls Woman's club were guests at the Legion hall last evening when the Ambassador Male Quartet from the extension division of the University of Minnesota gave a fine program of vocal numbers under the auspices of the Girls' Community club, who were hostesses for the evening. The program was composed of a large number of high class selections and were well received by a large and appreciative audience. The members of the quartet are talented men and delivered the numbers very creditably. After the program the club served refreshments. The Girls Community club is to be complimented on the fine manner in which they entertained the members of the Woman's club. Those who were present pronounce it a most enjoyable evening.

For Mrs. Davidson

Mrs. Jack Davidson was pleasantly surprised last evening at her home when a number of friends gathered to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. The hours were spent in playing progressive whist at four tables, high honors being won by Mrs. Frank Fisher and the "booby" prize by Albert Erickson. Lunch was served by the self-invited guests. Mrs. Davidson was presented with a card table as a token of esteem from the friends present. Those taking part in the event were: Mr. and Mrs. Severt Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. George Larson, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Carlson, Mesdames L. J. Cerny, R. G. Cook, Chas. Alexander, C. R. Whiting, Frank Fisher; Misses Alla Pokela and Hazel Davidson, Jack Davidson, Jess and Art Davidson.

Celebrates 100th Birthday

Mrs. Louis Vevea returned to her home in this city Monday morning from Harvey, N. D., where she spent several days with her grandfather, Zakarias Heggen, who celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary Wednesday, April 23. The Wellsburg Lutheran congregation of Harvey gave a birthday party in his honor at the church parlors attended by about 25 relatives, over 100 people being present. Mr. Heggen has been a resident of Harvey for 25 years and a resident of this country for 40 years, coming from Trondhjem, Norway, at 60 years of age. Mr. Heggen is enjoying remarkably good health for so old a man and is one of the very few centenarians in the country. Mrs. Vevea was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vevea, the former her son, in St. Paul, and also her daughter, Marie, both of whom are employed there.

Legion Auxiliary Meet

A regular business meeting of the Legion Auxiliary will be held at the Legion hall Tuesday evening. Much business will be brot before this meeting and all members are requested to be present.

Swenson-Lind

Miss Hannah Swenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Swenson of St. Hilaire, and Albert W. Lind, of Sanders township, were married at the Zion Lutheran church parsonage yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. George Larson tied the nuptial knot in the presence of Miss Ella Swenson, sister of the bride, and Bennie Lind, a brother of the groom. The bride wore a dress of copenhagen blue crepe de chine and the brides maid was attired in a brown canton crepe dress.

Will Motor to California

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith and two children arrived Thursday from Bemidji and are guests at the home of the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Smith. They have been operating a farm near Bemidji and are now on their way to Sacremento, Cal., where they expect to make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who are both former residents of this city, will visit here about two weeks before leaving for Sacremento by car. A sister of the former, Mrs. F. D. Richards, resides at that place.

W. C. T. U. Meet Tuesday

The W. C. T. U., will meet at the home of Mrs. P. Eberhardt at 211 Atlantic avenue, Tuesday afternoon, May 6. Refreshments will be served. All those interested in the work are invited to attend the meetings.

Share Honors on Birthday

Mrs. F. H. Herrick and her daughter, Marian, celebrated their birthday anniversaries Friday, April 25, both of which occur on the same day. The rooms were prettily decorated in a color scheme of pink and white and the table tastily appointed with pink roses. Fourteen guests, including friends of Mrs. Herrick and playmates of little Marian were present. A sumptuous lunch was served late in the afternoon, a feature of which was two birthday cakes, each set with the significant number of candles, for Mrs. Herrick and Miss Marian, respectively.

Trinity Y. P. S.

The Trinity Young Peoples society will be entertained at the church parlors next Thursday evening by the Misses Christine Clausen, Thora Hanson and Selma Rustebak. A fine program has been arranged for that date including an address by Rev. E. H. Kriedt, a vocal duet by Miss Dora Holmes and Dr. J. N. Nesse, a violin duet by Gordon Voverland and Justus Larson, and a piano solo by Miss Violet Rhodegaard, "To Spring" by Grieg.

Girls' Club Nominates

At the regular meeting of the Girls Community club Monday evening, the nominating committee made its report and the following have been selected to be voted on at a later meeting: For president, Emily Fossum, now president; Nettie Ove, Anne Tharaldson and M. Helen Montgomery; vice president, Olive Lonson, and Carolyn Mellby to succeed Lyda Batten; secretary, Vera Byler and Agnes Sands to succeed Lovina Adams and treasurer, Thora Hanson, now treasurer, Christine Clausen and Vellerrice Parenteau.

The Girls Community club will send four delegates to the Federation of Woman's clubs convention at Moorhead May 6-7. Those selected to represent the local club are Mrs. L. C. Pope, Miss Thora Hanson, Miss Emily Fossum and Miss Nora Steen.

The club also endorsed Mrs. H. W. Froehlich for district president of the Federation of Woman's clubs which election will be held at Moorhead at the time of the convention. Mrs. George E. Davis of Warren will also be on the ballot.

World Courts Discussed

The Woman's club meeting Monday afternoon was one of the most interesting and instructive held for some time. The topic of World Courts was handled by the Mesdames George Nicholson, I. T. Simley and Charles Gerlinger and they are to be complimented on the manner in which the discussions were conducted. Many interesting and vital methods were brot out and those present declare having profited greatly by the discussions. The meeting was well attended by local members but the inclement weather prevented great outside attendance, Mrs. Thos. H. Smith and Mrs. Brownlee of Mavie being the only two delegates from outside clubs. Special invitations had been extended to the St. Hilaire, Goodridge and Mavie community clubs.

The chorus, which will compete in the contest at the district convention at Moorhead Wednesday, gave some of the numbers which it has prepared for the event, and those in attendance pronounce the renditions worthy accomplishments.

B. Sharp Club Meets

The Sr. Section of the B Sharp club met at Mrs. Thelma Erickson's studio Tuesday evening and the members took part in a music memory contest, consisting of naming pieces on hearing them played, defining terms and relating authors and compositions. A piano duet was played by Mrs. Erickson and Katherine Bakke and a two piano number by Mrs. Erickson and Miss Mildred Engen. Mrs. Erickson served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Birthday Surprise

Mrs. L. J. Cerny was very pleasantly surprised at her home at 418 Markley avenue south Thursday evening by a large number of her friends who gathered to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent at cards. Mrs. Frank Protz won high honors and Mrs. Gilbert Becken received the consolation prize. At midnight a lunch, featured by a birthday cake topped with the significant number of candles, was served by the self-invited guests. Mrs. Cerny was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Those present were the Mesdames J. J. Vorachek, J. Miculetsky, N. Syverson, T. Tharaldson, J. Malafa, C. Johnson, C. L. Peterson, F. Protz, R. G. Cook, S. Brandon, A. Lamae, G. Becken, J. Davidson, J. Kisch, C. Alexander, G. Lonson, L. Tyrer, A. Stene and the Misses Ella and Olga Bundy and Katherine Dudley.

NAVARRE INDESTRUCTIBLE PEARLS

Why We Selected
A. A. Wangenstein & Son to Sell
NAVARRE PEARLS

A CHAIN of steel is no stronger than its weakest link. A national selling organization is judged, and rightly, too, by its local representative. Primarily, we designated this firm as distributors of Navarre Pearls because of its well-known integrity: because of its reputation as a house of fair and square dealing: because it enjoys the confidence of the people.

It is the business of lovely woman to enhance her loveliness—Navarre Pearls add wondrously to her natural charms. It is our business to submit the claims of Navarre Pearls to discriminating women through the most estimable medium: we have done so, we believe, in the selection of this reputable firm as our sole and exclusive representatives.

Navarre Pearls are beautiful, indestructible — and reasonably priced. You are cordially invited to call and view the displays.

Playing House

IT'S like playing house to a mother whose children are robust and healthy. She escapes the greatest worries of parenthood. Her thriving youngsters are a joy.

Nourishing, energizing food is largely the secret of a child's ruddy health. And every mother should know the elements in food which create energy and build strength. The food element, Dextrose, for example, is one of Nature's most important gifts. It supplies the "fuel" of the body and puts vitality into the blood and tissue cells.

A large percentage of Dextrose is contained in delicious Karo. It is this that makes Karo such a wonderful food for growing children. Serve them all the Karo they want. Both Blue Label and Red Label Karo are equally valuable in genuine nutritive elements.

Official Paper of Pennington County
Official Paper, City Thief River Falls
Official Paper, School District No. 18

Residents of Karlstad and other towns north of Thief River Falls are very much wrought up over the suggestion to route the Jefferson Highway thru Warren, and Thief River Falls has been severely critized due to the fact that a committee from the commercial club attended a meeting at Warren. Information from national directors of the Jefferson Highway association indicated that it would be necessary to re-route the J-H over Babcock highways in order to hold the tourist traffic, and it appeared to the directors of the club that if the officials did insist on an all-Babcock route the Warren route was the only and most direct route available. The committee appointed did not go to Warren for the purpose of trying to give them the Jefferson as appears to be the impression formed by our friends to the north, but rather to secure Warren's co-operation in case it was found necessary to route the Jefferson over Babcock roads to prevent its being abandoned entirely.

The Commercial club of Thief River Falls stands on record as favoring the north route and the sentiment of not only club members but business men generally is strongly in favor of that route. Road construction completed recently has made available at least three different routes to Karlstad over which the Jefferson could be routed and all of them are said to be standard state highways fully as good or even better than any of the Babcock roads.

The selection of the route is in the hands of A. H. French, general manager of the Jefferson Highway association, and the state directors, and when they have gone over the routes and their selection is made, we predict that one of the north routes will be chosen.

Why not improve the appearance of your home by planting some shrubbery? But a few Thief River Falls homes are surrounded by hedges and it is to be hoped that this spring will see a marked increase along this line of home beautification. Planting shrubbery was pointed out as one of the most important means of making the city as a whole look more attractive, recently by Prof. T. M. McCall, horticulturist at the Northwest School of Agriculture. Last Friday was Arbor Day, tree-planting day, but not a great deal of activity in observance of the day was noticed in the city.

There was a noticeable decrease in attendance at the churches last Sunday compared toa the previdus Sunday compared to the previous Sunbe great if people would attend regularly instead of merely two or three times during the year, as for instance to take part in the spring dress parade. God is liable to forget the person who forgets to go to church except on state occasions.

A new kind of bank statement has appeared in the west carrying the slogan, "we bank on the cow, the sow, the ewe, and the hen." If the farmers join with them on that slogan a prosperous community is assured.—Waseca Journal.

Scandal gathers no moss, because it travels too rapidly.

LIGHT AND POWER MATTER TAKEN UP BY COUNCIL TUES.

Representative of Minn. Electric Distributing Co. Presents Proposal to City

If Thief River Falls should buy the dam and improve it so that there would be a steady water power developed most of the year and at a cost of not to exceed $150,000 the city would be in a position to sell all of the surplus power to outside sources at a sufficient revenue to pay the interest charges on such water power development, leaving only the original cost thereof to be paid off in installments, according to a tentative proposition made the city council at its meeting Tuesday night by H. H. Henley of the Minnesota Electrical Distributing company.

His company would agree to take a million k. w. hours a year and pay the city therefore at the rate of 1 cent per k. w. hour, or a total of $10,000, which would be the interest charges in round numbers on a temporary improvement such as is contemplated. It is estimated by Superintendent of Water and Light Ole Legvold that there are 200 k. w. possible of development for about 10 months in the year, with the present load only 200 at the most. This would leave 100 k. w. for 12 hours and 200 k. w. for another 6 hours when the peak is not on, or a total of 2,400 k. w. per day, and if there should be water enough every day in the year there would be developed nearly a million k. w.

Then again, Mr. Henley pointed out, the city with its present equipment and without making any further investment could furnish enough power to his company from the plant here over the proposed transmission line t pay for all current the city might need when the present equipment is unable to care for the peak load, and the only cost to the city would be that of building the line of 27 miles west from this city to a point near Angus where it would connect with the lines of the Distributing company. This estimated cost is guaranteed not to exceed $35,000, including the erection of a step up station and installation of two large meters, one reading the incoming current and the other the outgoing current.

Then again, the Distributing company would maintain the high power line, and they would also be liable for any damages that might arise from injuries thereon. They in return would have the right to tap this line at a point west of the city where they would connect with their present line at Viking. They agree also not to solicit any business within the city or in the immediate vicinity. This would give the city the opportunity of selling current to the people living just outside the city limits near the round house and also supply the Soo road with light and power for their various buildings, which would amount to quite a sum.

The council next week Tuesday will open bids for an additional unit at the power house and if they should deem it advisable to go ahead and purchase the same then there would be just that much more power that could be developed and would insure a less supply that would have to be taken from the outside, yet with a transmission line there would be no danger of a darkness for several days in case of trouble at the local powr plant. The Distributing company is so fixed that it can supply all the current that the city could possibly use. However, the city would not be bound to buy from this Distributing company if it did not wish to, so the city would not have any club held over its head.

Altho the bids will be opened Tuesday the council will in all probability postpone any action until Thursday night of next week at which time Mr. Henley will be back, and it is probable there will be others present and the council will be able to consider the various phases of the situation carefully before taking any step.

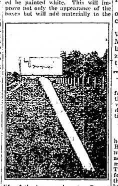
There are three groups with various opinions at present in the city, first those who wish to build a greater electric power plant here, second those who favor buying the dam and improving it, and third those who believe the city should protect itself by buying juice from the outside when it is needed. The aldermen may be relied upon to give all three careful consideration before taking any definite step.

Rural Mail Route Patrons Must Have Proper Boxes is Ruling by The Department

Notices bearing the following information have been sent to all patrons of rural mail routes from the local post office, regarding the matter of proper mail boxes, something which is badly neglected by the majority of people:

"The special attention of Postmasters at offices where rural delivery routes are in operation is invited to the need for improving the appearance of mail boxes on these routes. It is the purpose of the department to improve the general appearance of rural mail boxes throughout the country, so that they may be a credit not only to the Postal Service but to the community thru which the rural delivery route operates.

"It is desirable that the boxes be painted white with the name of family or families receiving the mail in the box painted on both sides of the box in neat black letters, one inch in height, also that the painting be done at least once each year. It is requested also that the posts or supports to which the boxes are attached be painted white. This will improve not only the appearance of the boxes but will add materially to the life of the boxes and posts. Do not paint on your box the number assigned to it. The support should be round, seven-foot fence post, not less than five inches in diameter, set in the ground at an angle of about 45 degrees, as shown in the accompanying reproduction of a model mail box. The post should be two feet in the ground.



"Postmasters at the time of making the regular semi-annual inspection of rural delivery routes at their office, during the months of April and October, are instructed to take particular note of all rural mail boxes which do not appear to have been painted within the past one or two years, if old boxes—or within the past five or six years, if new galvanized boxes—making a memorandum of the names of the box owners; they are furthermore directed to politely request the owner in writing to paint the box and post in accordance with the above instructions and to neatly stencil or paint his name on the sides of the box."

It must be admitted that a great number of mail boxes on routes are not a credit to the appearance of the highways or farms along which they are located and farmers of this community should make it a point to follow the advice of the postmaster in erecting boxes like the one shown elsewhere in this issue, making them uniform, convenient and neat. The postal department is giving excellent service and patrons should take this into consideration and comply with the request at once, putting the support and box in first class condition and according to recommendations as soon as possible.

Two Club Workers Named For The '24 Boys' Camp

Byron Westphal and George Wilson of St. Hilaire, both active club members, have been selected to represent Pennington county at the Farm Boys' camp of the Minnesota state fair this year. County agents and junior club leaders do the appointing, two boys from each county in the state being awarded a membership in the camp for worthy club achievement as shown by club records.

About 150 boys will be in the camp, the list of those chosen having just been given out for publication by T. A. Erickson of University Farm, state leader of boys' and girls' club work. Harold Schei of Warren and Herbert Pagnac of Stephen have been chosen from Marshall county.

Roscoe C. Coffin of Minneapolis, assistant state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and who visited Thief River Falls in connection with boys' work last winter, will again be in charge of the camp. All the transportation and subsistence expenses of the boys will be paid by the state fair management. As partial recompense, the boys will be detailed into companies to assist in handling the traffic and also seating the people in the grand stand. Those sent from Pennington county last year were Lawrence Letness and Virgil Denhart.

Facts Concerning T. R. Valley Co-Op. Poultry Marketing Association

The Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry Marketing Association will mean the same for our turkey, poultry and egg business in this region as our co-operative creameries mean to our dairy business.

Will build up a reputation and demand for our superior quality.

Organized this way we can sell in large volume to places that want our product most and stay away from the places that already have too much.

Will not start selling, however, until around 1000 or more members have joined.

This will be the 24th district in the state to organize. These districts are much like a creamery except that they cover more area to secure the necessary volume and members.

The membership is divided into groups according to localities. Each group elects its own director, the directors elect officers, hire and fire the manager who is usually a man who sees the marketing situation from the farm view point and experienced in the poultry and egg business.

The directors may decide to make payments every month, every week or every two weeks. The expense of getting the products together, grading, package, freight, etc., are spread uniformly over the whole district.

Every member with the same grade and quality will receive the same price.

Each member pays a $3.00 membership fee and agrees to sell his surplus through his own association (except what he uses or sells for incubation, breeding stock or sales direct to a consumer.) Members can drop out at the end of any year and after the second or his $3 fee will carry him the full five years. If he moves away or ceases to be a member, the association must determine his share in the reserve fund and pay it over to him within 30 days.

The association agrees to take the poultry and eggs from each member, provide facilities for handling, assembling, grading, selling and turn over to the member all the products bring less the actual marketing expense and a fraction of a cent in the reserve fund.

In short, the association provides a real sales department for our poultry and egg business—western farmers are netting 3 to 7 cents more than Minnesota farmers after shipping 3000 miles.

The Minnesota plan uses the same methods as the farmers in Washington, Oregon, California, Texas, Alabama, New Jersey, Maryland, and Denmark find so successful. Eventually there will be 50 of these districts in Minnesota federated into a sales organization that will put our turkeys, poultry and eggs on the map as the creamery association is doing for our butter.

Mrs. L. E. Gilhausen left yesterday for Brainard where she was called by the serious illness of her mother. She will remain for an indefinite period, depending upon her mother's condition.

Aged Woman Injured

Mrs. Johanna Hawkins, who makes her home with her son-in-law, Jos. Becker, residing at 309 St. Paul avenue south, suffered severe bruises and according to the attending physician, miraculously escaped fatal injury, on Thursday when she fell four or five feet from a landing on the stairs to the basement floor. She incurred bruises about the head and painful body bruises and will be confined to her bed for some time.

History of Dairying in Minnesota

ARTICLE III

In the early Spring of 1877,—47 years ago, a little group of sturdy Scandinavian farmers (six families) left Fillmore County, in the southern part of the State for the Red River Valley. They located at what is now the Village of Halstad, in Norman County, and were three months in making the trip.

Mr. R. I. Hauge, now living at St. Hilaire, Minnesota, was one of the leaders of this little community of pioneers. He tells of making the trip by ox team and of having 28 head of cattle, which included about a dozen milch cows. This community was probably the beginning of dairying in the Red River Valley. In fact, their dairying commenced when they left Fillmore County, and continued all along the way. Butter made on the route was traded out at stores for provisions, so it may be said that the cows paid the transportation of the party.

The separating of the cream in the making of the butter along the road while on the move certainly required the ingenuity of pioneer people. We can imagine that they camped along streams and that the milk was set in springs of cold water through the night and skimmed the next morning before continuing the journey. We know that very excellent butter can be made from cream raised in this manner and this reminds us that the use of cold water in dairying is still of the greatest importance.

In the early years cold water was used for raising the cream. Now it should be used for cooling the cream. While springs may have been few and far between after the settlers reached the prairie country, there is no farmer today in the Red River Valley but who can have a cream cooling tank on his place which takes the place of a spring. In the making of high quality butter it is necessary to cool the cream immediately after separating.

ROSEWOOD

Building Boom Here

There are three new buildings under construction here this week, the excavation work on the basement for the T. Mellem home which will be moved from its present location south of town to the village has begun and work will be continued under supervision of Gust Opseth, contractor, until completed. Work on the basement for the new 24x24 frame two-story residence for Emil Mellem on his farm adjoining town on the east was also begun by Contractor Benhard Ranum and will be rushed to completion. Benny Ranum is also remodeling his home with an above ground addition and a full 14x24 basement commencing work the last week.

Emil Mellem left this week for Red Lake Falls where he will operate a tractor on the Reierson road contract the coming summer.

Mrs. Christine Bergene left Saturday evening for her home at Crookston following a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Klennert.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gulseth expect to leave the beginning of this week for Baker, Minn., where they will visit with Mr. Gullseth's sister, Mrs. A. H. Halvorson and also with his mother who is residing at that place. The confectionery is in charge of Inga Gullseth and Bertha Remmem, both of Thief River Falls.

Sigvard Holten from Stanton, Minn. is visiting this week at the home of his father, Thom Holten.

Benny Ranum has purchased a new Ford automobile.

Word has been received here that Gust Nakken and family who left recently in their car for Duluth arrived safely at their destination, but encountered several difficulties on their way, in the form of car trouble, bad roads and also had the misfortune of a collision with another car at Hibbing. At Thief River Falls they were also delayed for a day owing to the railway laws necessitating the boxing of all their furniture which was shipped by rail without the proper enclosements. We hope, however, our friends will get along nicely at their new home.

Mr. Beardsley from Crookston, a federal banking man, has been in town several days this week attending to outstanding business matters connected with the Farmers State bank of this place and the Merchants National bank of Crookston, which were recently closed by the banking department.

Miss Lilly Holson from Warren arrived here on Friday evening for an over Sunday visit with her sister, Mrs. Carl Mellem.

We learn that Gilbert Grindeland associated with John Krogstad who will remain here this summer has leased the two Shay quarter sections of land and also the Mrs. Bella Sorenson farm, and has purchased two additional teams of horses and will try their luck at farming on a larger scale the coming season.

The heavy rains the last days has delayed spring work on the prairie land considerably. Wheat seeding is almost completed and oats is started. Corn seeding will be well under way in about a week or so. The winter rye is coming splendidly, alleviating all the doubts this winter that this important crop should be winter killed owing to the cold and lack of snow.

The Rindal Y. P. S. had a splendid meeting at their church last Sunday afternoon. A very interesting program was rendered and lunch was served to a large attendance.

Hay To Give Commencement Address In Many Schools

J. H. Hay, deputy commissioner of agriculture and former superintendent of the Thief River Falls schools, will deliver the commencement address at the graduation exercises of the Middle River high school on Thursday evening, May 29, according to Supt. J. Nystul. Besides the address at Middle River, Mr. Hay will also take part in the commencement exercises at Greenbush, Newfolden and Badger. The former Thief River Falls superintendent is known as one of the most able speakers in the state and is being called to fill speaking engagements to all parts of the state. It is said that Commencement Week is considered as part of his holiday in the department, and that schools securing him for the event are fortunate, goes without saying.

HAZEL

Hazel Farmers to Discuss Poultry Marketing at Club Meeting Saturday, May 3

Poultry marketing will be the chief topic for discussion at a meeting of the Wide Awake farm club at the Hazel hall on Saturday evening, May 3. This club was organized this spring and consists of the two clubs formerly known as the Hazel and Wilson clubs, which united to form a large organization. An active year is planned by those in charge.

Only a few farm clubs of the county have been active of late but is hoped that interest will again be revived in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Odegaard arrived from Blackduck Monday evening.

Knut Rolstad of St. Hilaire was doing carpenter work at O. Odegaard's Monday.

Miss Gunda Engen who is teaching school at Hazel, spent the week end with her parents at Thief River Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Borgie were business callers at Thief River Falls last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Odegaard, Mrs. S. Sigrudson and Mrs. A. Anderson were visitors at the home of M. Helgenson Sunday.

M. Odegaard and O. Odegaard were business callers at Thief River Falls Tuesday.

Lawrence Peterson of St. Hilaire was a visitor at Hazel Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knutson, daughter Arlene and Mayme Anderson were visitors at the home of J. Gilbertson Sunday.

Willy Gilbertson is doing some carpenter work at J. P. Nelson's.

GOODRIDGE

Mrs. E. Iverson and daughter, Myrtle, left for Hibbing Wednesday where they will be employed.

Daniel Payne left on Monday for Bemidji where he will attend the spring session at the teachers' college.

S. of Torgerson meets at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Race.

Fined For Using Fish Traps

Three residents of Excel township, Marshall county, were arrested last Thursday by Game Warden Wm. F. Munch of Crookston and fined $10 and costs of $4.50 each, on a charge of maintaining fish traps in the Thief river. The offenders were Swan Engeland, H. B. Halvorson and Carl Hahner, and all three pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Forsberg at Warren.

Local Musician on Band Tour

Norman Dybvik of Thief River Falls was one of the prominent members of the University of North Dakota band on its annual tour through North Dakota, completed last Friday. Norman is well known in University musical circles as an artist on the xylophone and drums, and was among 26 men selected from the 45 members of the band to make the trip. Concerts were played in five cities.

Sophomore Issue

This is our second venture in newspaper work, and we hope that our past experience will help us in making this number a success. The practice in literary work that we derive from this undertaking is probably the most important, especially for those who intend to take up newspaper work as their life's work. Besides this, it represents our best efforts in a field in which we have not had much experience. We want to make our number a big success and prove to our classmates that we are capable of issuing a creditable paper. To prove this, we have worked hard and have put forth our very best efforts. We hope that they have not been in vain and that our issue will meet with approval.

It is with pleasure we take this opportunity to express our attitude toward the schools. We should be grateful to our parents and the community as a whole for furnishing us with good school buildings and facilities; to the school board for its untiring efforts to give us the very best opportunities, and last, but not least, to our teachers who are inexhaustible in their patience and endeavor to make us grasp the different subjects they have in store for us, but principally for our own personal benefits. May we all take advantage of our grand opportunities. By so doing, we shall be abler and better citizens and a future living testimony of our benefactors.

"Bobs" and "Shingles."

An eminent physician and scientist recently issued a statement to the effect that it would be only a matter of a few years before bald-headed women would be as numerous as men of that description. His statement is based on the fact that bobbed hair necessitates the wearing of hats which fit the head very tightly, preventing proper circulation of the blood, and so causing the hair to become unhealthy and to fall out.

If this prediction proves correct, hair-restorers and tonics will be added to the long list of powders, rouge, lipsticks, and massage creams which now help to fill up the space on top of a woman's dressing table.

It is hard to conceive of anything more pathetic than the sight of a bald-headed mother gently rocking her infant child to sleep, or of the same mother, two years later, admiring the pretty curls of her small daughter.

However, if the present tendency prevails, the so-called gentler sex will not have any hair left to fall out. The latest development is the shingle, which shortens the hair a little more, and has the appearance of a "poor haircut." Of course there is no questioning the established fact that a leaky roof should be shingled.

The next step will probably be the adoption of the well-known "Sheik" style with long sideburns, etc., which is so prevalent now among the men.

And they teach us in Sociology that the amount of insanity is gradually decreasing!

—P. S. '26.

Non-Bobs and Why

Since non-bobs have become so few and far between, it has been decided that a list of these curiosities be published lest they are forgotten altogether. The following is a list of names and what some of them have to say about it:

Miss Leavitt—"I expect to bob my hair but I have not yet set the date. I am waiting for the psychological moment."

Georgia Frissel—"Oh! I almost did, once! But I didn't."

Arthur Penney—"It costs too darn much."

Theresa Fuller—"I fear that if I bob my hair, I might be unattractive."

Katherine Barzen—"Oh, I get rather tired of bobbed hair. Some of them look so—hicky."

Other members with lengthy tresses who have not yet been interviewed are: Miss Herlickson, Miss Johnson, Miss Keyes, Miss Bambrick and Miss Thompson, Mable Johnson, Frances Shanahan, Susie Scholtz, Edith Peterson, Mable Martenson and Edna Hovie.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY TO BE STAGED MAY 9 AT AUDITORIUM

"Mary's Millions" Under Direction of L. Mickelson Promises To Be Big Hit

The Senior class play, "Mary's Millions," which is to be presented in the city auditorium May 9, is progressing rapidly. All the members of the cast have been working hard under the direction of Lawrence Mickelson and the way they have worked into their parts is very gratifying.

The play is one of the famous Denison plays, written by Frederick G. Johnson, and everywhere it has been produced, it has been a decided success. It is a true comedy in every sense of the word with unusually clever lines and laughs from start to finish.

The character parts are very well taken by Harriet Morgan, as "Eudora," a hired girl; Orrin Storholm, as "Boggs," the village constable, hack-driver, and general man-about-town; Lawrence Bjorkman, as "Ezra Stoneham," the meek husband of "Jane Stoneham," or Hazel Krause who rules all with an iron hand; and "Mrs. Mudge," Elsie Blair, who is wedded to her Ouija board. Liv Vistaunet makes a perfect French countess in the part of "Countess Lola de Selles" and Melvin Engelstad as "Count Victor De Selles," brother of "Lola," is equally good. John Sether is "Jimmie Barnes," a young stock and bond salesman from New York, who is very interested in women, and Math Barzen is his friend, "Jack Henderson," who has received a college education but is still very rustic by nature and in his actions. Hylda Peterson makes a very winsome school teacher, "Betty Barlowe," and Margaret Melgaard is "Mary Manners," whose millions are the cause of the play.

Mr. Mickelson reports that is very well satisfied with rehearsals and believes beyond doubt that it will "go over big."

Simley Talks

At the regular Friday afternoon assembly period, Mr. Simley spoke to the students regarding their plans for their next year's program. He laid special emphasis on the fact that, while attending high school, every pupil should plan to secure subjects which would be beneficial in the particular line of work he or she intended to pursue and not take subjects in every field merely because they are easy.

Mr. Simley also spoke a few words in regard to the programs of pupils who are planning to attend some college after graduation. He stated that if a student has in mind some particular college which he intends to enter, he or she should aim to secure the subject required for entrance to that college.

Knox Notes

The pupils and teachers of the Knox building wish to take this space of the Progress to thank all those who so willingly co-operated in aiding and supplying material which was needed for the Knox operetta Friday evening. It was surely appreciated.

The Normal girls have completed third, fourth and fifth grade arithmetic and have started room work in third, fifth and Sixth grade penmanship and history.

Signs of Spring

Everyone is shingling her roof: Those who have shingled their bobbed heads are: Esther Bennes, Margaret Roark, Phyllis Dock, Lyman Arnold, Harriet Morgan, Ruth Mellby, Hylda Peterson, Esther Dybvik, Gladys Dybvik, Elizabeth DeCremer, Millicent Sweger, and Miss Finnegan.

Why it's easy to keep Barreled Sunlight clean

Barreled Sunlight is a white paint which produces a surface so smooth that dust or dirt—smudges or fingermarks—cannot "sink in." It can be kept clean as easily as white tile. A damp cloth will always wash it spotless.

Ideal for bathroom and kitchen walls and for woodwork everywhere. Costs less than enamel, requires fewer coats and is guaranteed to remain white longer.

Barreled Sunlight is easy to apply. It flows freely without a brushmark. Is readily tinted. Sold in cans from half-pint to five gallon size.

Mr. Clark Delivers Fine Speech To Student Body

A special assembly was held last Tuesday, April 22, when Dr. Henry Clark of Virginia spoke to the students of the high school. The subject of Mr. Clark's talk was "Seeing the Elephant," or using one's powers of observation. This talk was one of the most inspiring and worthwhile talks which have been given to the students this year. One of the many helpful and interesting statements that he made was that "knowledge is power and knowledge depends upon observation." He emphasized the necessity of using one's vision and illustrated this necessity with many interesting incidents and fables.

A lasting impression was undoubtedly made upon every student.

JUN.-SEN BANQUET PLANS COMPLETED

Covers to be Laid for 150 Guests —Elaborate Preparations insure Huge Success

The Junior-Senior banquet, which will take place on Saturday, May 3, at the Sons of Norway hall, will undoubtedly be a great success. The club rooms and the dance hall have been obtained for the occasion and both are to be decorated in a color scheme of yellow, green and white.

Mr. Provencher, proprietor of the Evelyn hotel, has complete charge of the dinner which will be served at seven o'clock. Combination place cards, programs and menus have been prepared for 150 guests. Special invitations have been extended to Mr. and Mrs. Mogensen, Mr. and Mrs. Barzen, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Froehlich, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Melgaard, and all the members of the high school faculty.

The toast scheme will be carried out in the form of a picture. In behalf of the Junior class, Lucille Roark will speak on the foundation for the painting or the canvas; Mr. Simley, the painter and the paints; the Senior president, Melvin Engelstad, the finished product; and Mr. Mogensen, the frame. A piano solo by Mildred Engen will complete the dinner program.

The remainder of the evening will be spent in playing cards and dancing.

Central Notes

The student body and faculty of the Junior High School met in a body, last Friday to observe Arbor Day and Forest-fire Prevention Day. The two grades participated and the following very appropriate program was rendered by members of the school:

Song, "Welcome Sweet Springtime," School.

Essay, "Minnesota's Forests," Clarence Sande.

Poem, "The Burned Tree," Lilette Quist.

Song, Junior Glee Club.

Essay, "The Effect of Fire on the Timber Supply," Agnes Cote.

Poem, "The Careless Smoker," Clifford Myrin.

Essay, "Fire and Our Wild Life," Lucy Nason.

Song, Eighth Grade.

Essay, "What Everyone Can Do to Prevent Forest Fires," Morris Oen.

Poem, "What Do We Plant When We Plant a Tree," Alice Erickson.

Song, "America the Beautiful," School.

Talk, "Supt. I. T. Simley.

Central School Song, School.

Maverette Hilson returned Thursday from Minneapolis where she had been visiting Melvina Rupprecht.

Commencement is soon here; the Seniors have been taking measurements for caps and gowns.

Donald McCrum, former student of the Lincoln High School, returned from Michigan where he has been working since Christmas.

Lenora Hermansen, Luella Erickson, and Evaline Thompson returned Monday with their hair bobbed. Katherine Barzen may be the most "sensible" girl in Lincoln High School yet.

Mildren Sullivan, who has been ill the past week returned to school on Monday.

A candy sale was given on Friday by the afternoon cooking class. The money is to be spent for things which are most needed by the Home Economics classes.

The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs are now practicing the songs they are to sing at the commencement program.

Miss Nelson is having classes after school for those who need extra help.

Miss Thompson, who has been ill with scarlet fever the past three weeks will return to school on Monday. Miss Arvis Akre has been her substitute.

The afternoon section of the Cooking II class is going to give a banquet for the faculty Thursday.

The forenoon section of the Cooking II class will give a banquet for the school board. Invitations have been extended to the following: Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Melgaard, Mr. and Mrs. Math Barzen, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mogensen, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Simley, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rayson, and Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Froehlich.

The Senior Octette has been practicing for the commencement program.

More hopes Katherine! Dorothy Shirley bobbed her hair Monday night after school.

"John," asked the teacher, "What was it Sir Walter Raleigh said when he placed his cloak on the muddy road for the beautiful queen to walk on?"

John, the ultra-modern, gazed about the classroom in dismay, and then, taking a long chance, replied: "Step on it, kid!"

Miss Johnson to orchestra—We will now play William Tell Overture.

Henry Arneson—Gee, I just played that.

Lincoln A.—Barber, have you ever cut a crazy man's hair?

Barber—No, but climb in the chair and I'll do my best.

A man's future depends a great deal on what he is doing with the job he has now.

COMMENCEMENT DAY SPEAKER SELECTED

O'Connor of Grand Forks to Deliver Graduation Address; Weakland, Baccalaureate

Commencement exercises will be held on the evening of May 23. Though the entire program has not yet been arranged, several numbers are now known. J. F. T. O'Connor of Grand Forks, who is very well known as a brilliant speaker, has been secured to deliver the main address. The Valedictory will be given by Margaret Melgaard and the salutatory by Esther Lunsetter. The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs and the Senior Octette, under the direction of Miss Maude L. Johnson, will render several musical numbers.

Reverend Bernard Weakland, of St. Bernard's church, has been selected to give the Baccalaureate sermon at the services to be held May 18 in the city auditorium.

A Student's Lament

This is the song of a student
As he sits in the blue card room.
At four-eight; as sure as fate
He comes to meet his doom.

He enters with a haughty air;
And always makes a fuss.
Then he sits down in a squeeky chair,
And slowly musses thus.

"Three long years in high school,
Bluffing thru each class.
Three long years in high school;
I wonder if I'll pass.

Was caught chewing gum this morning,
Got called for throwing erasers this noon.
Forty minutes for cutting classes—
Eighty for humming a tune.

Thus he will sit each evening
Until five o'clock or so,
With never a brain cell working
Until the teacher tells him to go.

Is Chivalry Dead?

Is chivalry decreasing? Are there no gallants left in the world?

How often we have heard these questions asked? Yet it is my opinion that in this period of the twentieth century we do not recognize or appreciate chivalry in the same sense as we used to. Every day deeds are done that are just as important and more worthy as those of Sir Walter Raleigh. But do we put these in history to be read and used as shining examples? No!

Take for example, a little incident that happened last week.

Last Thursday, as the IV period English class was deeply absorbed in the wonderful tale of "The Vision of Sir Launfal" what should fly in thru the open window but a wasp!

Of course the girls (who, in spite of their boyish bobs, are still very feminine at heart,) gave squeals of terror and probably would have swooned had there been any handsome chivalar near by.

Then up rose our modern knight, Richard Zeh, and put his "Vision of Sir Launfal" to the only good he ever got out of it. The poor wasp was so taken by surprise that he had no time to plan his methods of attack, and by the time Richard had used the mighty "Vision" upon him the second time the poor wasp was so completely dazed that he could no more than lie weakly down and die from the shock.

If ever any one deserved credit Richard certainly does; and we of the IV period English class wish to thank him warmly for preventing the harm that might have befallen us.

Is chivalry dead? There is room for argument.

The Gum Chewing Girl

The gum-chewing girl
And the cud-chewing cow
Are somewhat alike,
Yet different somehow.

What's the difference, Oh, yes—
I see it now—
It's the thoughtful look
— On the face of the cow.

Skull: A man once told me I looked like you.

Bones: Where is he? I'd like to knock his block off.

Skull: I killed him.

"Why did they kick that medical student out of college?"

"They caught him trying to remove the appendix from a book he was studying."

The man who attends strictly to his business generally has his hands occupied all the time.

"Taking Father's Place" Will Not Be Presented

The Senior skit, "Taking Father's Place," which was to have been presented during the month of May at the Princess theater, has been definitely called off. Miss Mildred Thompson, who was acting as director, was taken ill and the play was then postponed. Due to her continued illness and the many other events requiring the attention of the Seniors, it seemed best to discontinue practices and abandon the idea of presenting a skit.

Class Yells

Ricker, racker, fire cracker!
Zis, boom, bah!
Sophomores! Sophomores!
Rah! rah! rah!
That's no lie,
That's no bluff
Sophomores! Sophomores!
Red hot stuff!
The loop! The loop!
The leap, the gap!
The Sophomores are coming—
Get off the map!

The Tramp

He came from where he started
He was going where he went
He hadn't had a smell of food
Not even had a scent.

He never even said a word
Until he began to talk
And when he left the kitchen door
He took the garden walk.

I asked him where he came from
And this was 'fore we parted
And he muttered indistinctly
Oh! I came from where I started.

An Englishman in Thief River Falls on buying a magazine from Lincoln Arnold remarked, "I'd have to pay twice as much for this magazine if I were over in England."

"Well, yer honor," replied Lincoln, "Yer can pay me double if it will make yer feel more at home."

"Good morning, little one. Haven't I had the pleasure of meeting you before?"

"It's quite likely; I used to be a nurse in the insane asylum."

Senior—How are you coming in your English?

Sophomore—Fine; I got a C plus, a C, a C minus, and a see me.

Gum Chewing Aids the Teeth

You have the authority of doctors and dentists for this statement. Your own experience will prove it, if you will use WRIGLEY'S after every meal.

The following quotations from a recent work on teeth and health are worth remembering:

"Dentists have found that the exercise of gum chewing brings about a better nutrition of the teeth . . . ."

"The cleansing action of the gum between the teeth helps to keep them free from the particles which lodge in the crevices and cause decay."

The busy man—or woman either—rarely has time to clean the teeth after eating. Yet they should be cleaned, and

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

A regular meeting of the City Council was called to order by M. V. Evenson, President, at eight o'clock P. M. Tuesday, April 22, 1924.

Roll Call: All members present.

Minutes of the meeting of the regular meeting of April 8th were read and approved as read.

Mr. H. H. Henley of the Minnesota Electric Distributing Company appeared before the council with regard to a proposition of furnishing current to the city from their high line and April 29th was set as a date for a meeting to more thoroughly go into the proposition.

Mr. B. Dan Bjorkman appeared before the Board with regard to the repair of the bridge over the mill tail race and the matter was referred to the Committee on Roads, Streets and Bridges. The matter of the sewer lease in that district was referred to the city attorney for investigation.

A communication from the J. G. Robertson Company regarding the payment of the balance due them on installation of filter plant equipment was read and the city clerk was instructed to write the engineer in charge, Mr. L. P. Wolff, as to his submitting the final estimate on the work.

Motion was made by Rambeck, seconded by Paulson, that the following applications for license be granted:

Pool and Billiard, Harry Fry, James Cosgrove, Wm. Sheedy.

Moving Picture Theatre, Thief River Falls Theatre Company, Lyceum and Princess Theatre.

Plumbing, Ed. Lee.

On Roll Call, all members voting in favor of the granting of the licenses, the motion was declared carried.

Motion was made by Alderman Fossum, seconded by Alderman Brumund, that permit to conduct a public dance be granted to the Peoples' Co-operative Store Company on April 25th, at a license fee of $1.00. Carried.

Motion was made by Brumund, seconded by Rambeck and duly carried that the application for building repair permit of E. P. Burstad be granted.

Application for alteration of sign overhanging sidewalk on the corner of Second Street and Main Avenue at the Standard Oil filling station was referred to the Committee on Streets and Walks.

The Committee on Buildings submitted and schedule of rates affecting the use of the Auditorium by the public and on motion made by Alderman Brumund and seconded by Alderman Fossum, the same were approved as follows:

$20.00 per night for home plays and local home dances.

$30.00 per night for traveling shows and out of town organizations.

$20.00 per night for shows when the hall is rented for six consecutive days. This does not include license of any kind.

$15.00 per night for political meetings.

Use of Auditorium for all conventions: free, they to pay for the moving of the seats and cleaning up of the building.

Motion was made by Alderman Paulson, seconded by Alderman Fossum, and duly carried that the appointment of Judges of Election for Primary and General Election be approved as follows:

First Ward: Ed. H. Ness, Bernhard Knudsen, Emil Griebstein.

Second Ward: C. Herbert Jung, Alfred Bredeson, W. M. Akre.

Third Ward: P. J. Keating, Mrs. N. B. Waldorf, Andrew Bottelson.

Fourth Ward: C. M. Wilson, Mrs. Isabelle Schuster, F. J. Cernousek.

Motion was made by Brumund, seconded by Porter, and duly carried that the proposed ordinance regulating the rates to be paid by users of electric light and power within and without the city be given its second reading. The proposed ordinance was read and Section 4 was amended with the provision: "Provided that this Ordinance shall not be construed to repeal or affect the provisions of Ordinance No. 67 and amendments thereto."

Alderman Brumund, seconded by Alderman Rambeck, introduced a resolution authorizing the payment of $1850.00 to Ralph D. Thomas in full payment of his claim for engineering services performed pursuant to contract in connection with the Kretzschmar and Schreiter water power investigation which resolution was passed unanimously.

Alderman Porter, seconded by Alderman Rambeck, introduced a resolution authorizing the payment of semi-monthly schedule of bills against the city which was unanimously passed.

On motion the council adjourned until Tuesday, May 6th, at eight o'clock P. M.

M. V. EVENSON,
President of the Council.

Attest:
P. G. PEDERSON,
City Clerk.

RESOLUTION

Auto Tax Dodgers Are Decreasing In Number

Automobiles without 1924 "tags" are seldom seen now, according to reports from most parts of the state, due to the activities of sheriffs and local police, assisted by field men of the Minnesota highway department, says a highway bulletin this week. Local officials state that few in this vicinity have not yet secured the required license tag.

A system of checking cars and trucks through 1923 registrations is enabling the officials to trace many machines on which taxes are delinquent, it was announced, and owners of them are facing early prosecutions. The prediction was made that this year department registration records will cover virtually every motor vehicle in the state and 100 per cent enforcement of the tax law will then be assured.

Newspaper warnings is given as one of the main reasons for the effective clean up against tax slackers.

At University Senior Prom.

Thief Riverites who attended the senior promenade at the North Dakota University, Grand Forks, one of the leading social events of the year, were Leland Schuster, Ernest Zeh and Norman Dybvik. More than 100 couples participated in the dance which was held in the university armory, decorated to represent a medieval castle. Mr. Schuster is a member of the Senior class at the university.

Rural Schools Close

In addition to the list published in The Times of April 17, the following rural school instructors in this county completed their respective school terms on the dates given: Emma M. Whalen of Plummer, district 124, April 4; Agnes K. Capital's Service To The Consumer

Says James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor, "No matter who owns the capital, capital works for everybody. The oil companies own the gasoline, but they have to tote it to the roadside where everyone can get it. Equal division is the goal that capitalism constantly approaches. No man wants all the gasoline. He wants six gallons at a time with a service station every few miles. Capitalism performs this service for him. Under 'capitalism', so-called, wealth is more equally divided than under any other system ever known."

The so-called "capitalists" who control the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are 46,016 stockholders, the majority of them small investors who earned and saved the money to buy stock.

This capital, because it is brought together in a large aggregate, is able to serve the community more effectively than if it were divided up and parceled out into 46,016 separate holdings.

In 1923 this capital brought millions of barrels of crude petroleum from the oil fields, so that during 1924 the 4½ million automobiles of the Middle West may be supplied with gasoline and oils.

This capital has erected large, modern, scientifically equipped refineries, in which to apply the most efficient cracking processes, so that the maximum amount of gasoline may be produced from the crude oil.

This capital has built up a distribution system, with storage depots and service stations at strategic points, throughout the Middle West. By means of this enormous and complete distribution system, petroleum products are delivered to the ultimate consumer with the utmost economy, and the motorist who needs but one gallon at a time receives as efficient service as the manufacturer who buys thousands of gallons.

Without capital the oil would stay in the ground, or at best would serve but a few people adjacent to the oil fields.

By serving the thirty million people of the Middle West with petroleum products, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) makes it possible for you, wherever you may live, to enjoy the benefits of the petroleum wealth of the United States. Without the employment of the capital of the stockholders of this Company this would not be possible.

Under efficient management of a highly experienced Board of Directors, the capital of the 46,016 stockholders of this Company is working night and day for the service of the community.

MUCH INTEREST IN SECTION PLAY DAYS THROUGHOUT CO.

Pupils in Three Rural Sections Compete in Many Events Directed by Teachers

To date three Sectional Play Days have been held in different rural schools of the county. Considerable interest is manifested in this work, not only by teachers and pupils but also by parents and other patrons of the various sections.

The first Play Day was held at the Elwell School or District No. 28, in Monday, April 21 with districts 15, 28, 30, 21, 42 and 53 participating. At this meet first place was awarded to District No. 30, where Mabel Shefveland is the teacher. The total score for this school was 20. District No. 53 was second with a score of 11, and District No. 29 was placed third with a score of 9. The events consisted of volly ball, dashes and broad jumping. The volly ball was played in a series of elimination games leaving District No. 30 as the champion. The 50 yd. dash, conducted as a team contest was won by District No. 53 with District No. 31 and 15 following in second and third places, respectively. In the jumping contest District No. 30 took the lead with an average jump of 5 feet and 9 inches. District 29 won second with an average jump of 5 feet 5 7-8 inches and District 53 was placed third with a record of 5 feet 3½ inches. In the 25 yd. dash for pupils below the third grade, Gladys Hanson came first; Thelma Rynestad, second, and Martin Hanson, third.

The second Play Day was held at the school house in District No. 37, one-half mile west from Highlanding, on Thursday, April 24. Districts No. 37, 38, 47 and 68 participated in the events at this meet. District No. 68, where Miss Esko is the teacher, carried off first honors with a score of 20, second place going to District No. 38 with 15 points and third to District No. 37 with a score of 12. The scores in each event were not available at the county superintendent's office at this time.

Section 12 consisting of districts 5, 14, 56 and 65 held their Play Day in District No. 14 on Friday, April 26. The heavy rain that fell during the night proved a handicap to the players at this meet but things went very well in spite of difficulties. District No. 56 won first with a total score of 26, No. 14 won second with 19 points, and No. 5 third with a score of 17.

Supt. O. R. Sande attended all of these meetings and was accompanied at the last two by A. H. Larson from the N. W. School of Agriculture at Crookston. Mr. Larson proved very helpful by conducting the community singing. He also gave short talks urging pupils to stay in school to finish at least the eighth grade and then, if possible, to go through either high school or to take the course offered at the Northwest school.

Each one of these play days was a success and a credit to the teachers who organized and conducted the various events on their program.

"When we remember that we are pioneers in this kind of work," Supt. Sande said, "we have reason to feel pleased with what has been done so far, and feel hopeful for some splendid development in the future."

SUGAR BEET SEED DISTRIBUTED 100 MEXICANS COMING

Allotment of 11,000 Pounds Sugar Beet Seed Apportioned Among 40 Farmers

A shipment of 11,000 pounds of sugar beet seed was distributed among growers of this community by the Minnesota Sugar company last Friday. The seed was apportioned among 20 farmers in the vicinity of Thief River Falls and an equal number from the Newfolden community. About 750 acres of beets have been signed up with the Chaska company by farmers of this county.

Planting of sugar beets will commence in a few days, says County Agen J. J. McCann, who is assisting the growers of this locality.

Mexican workers to be employed by local growers are expected to arrive in Thief River Falls the latter part of this week or the first of next week. About 100 laborers, or a total number of 200 including the women and children, will make their stay here during the summer months, most of them coming from San Antonio, Texas, and Chicago. Mr. McCann states that approximately 25 per cent of the group were located in this territory last year.

Rev. and Mrs. T. E. Sweger and little son left Tuesday for Moorhead and Fargo, expecting to return today or tomorrow. The Sweger family may take up residence in Moorhead when Rev. Sweger takes up his work with the budget division of the United Lutheran church, his resignation from the local Trinity church taking effect June 1.

PROGRAM BY KNOX GRADE PUPILS IS WELL PRESENTED

Operetta, Group songs and Drills Score Hit With Large Audience Friday

One of the most enjoyable entertainments presented here this year was the program and play given by pupils of the Knox grade school last Friday night at the city auditorium. A large crowd attended and all were unanimous in stating that the little youngsters performed in a splendid manner, showing thorough training by the teachers who were in charge and a careful selection of characters for the parts of the play and special numbers. Pupils from the first to the sixth grade participated and merit high praise for their singing and acting.

The group songs, drills and playlets preceding the operetta "The Land of Dolls" were well executed and brought much applause, the Swedish folk dance, the Newsboys' drill and the Japanese drill proving particularly pleasing. The rythmic harmony in all the actions of the groups and the attractive costuming in keeping with the presentation, added materially to the effectiveness of the performance.

The operetta was well presented in every detail and was pronounced as a beautiful performance. The costumes also featured this part of the program and the comical parts played by some of the clever youngsters delighted the audience. Deligent practice was evidenced in the song numbers which were decidedly pleasing.

Music furnished by the High school orchestra, under the able direction of Miss Maude L. Johnson, added immensely to the evening's program, the audience being favored with several selections played in a splendid manner. An organization of this kind is a decided credit to the local schools and the efforts of Miss Johnson are greatly appreciated, particularly in the absence of a band in the city.

The proceeds of the play will be used to purchase furnishings for the Knox school.

Earl DeVeling, Rural Mail Carrier, Passes After Long Suffering from Cancer Fri.

Earl F. DeVeling, a resident of Thief River Falls since 1906, and rural carrier on route No. 3 the past four years, passed away at his home at 923 State avenue north last Friday morning after a lingering suffering from cancer. Mr. DeVeling, who was 38 years of age at the time of his death, had been failing for some time since being in a train wreck in 1913, his condition growing more serious the last three years.

Mr. DeVeling was born Oct. 24, 1885, at Colfax, Wis., but spent the greater part of his youth at Kankakee, Ill., where his parents resided for some time. He came to this city in 1906 and was for some time chef at the Evelyn hotel and also what is now the Brumund hotel. In 1911 he entered the employ of the Soo railway and while brakeman on the Wheat line had both legs broken and was badly burned in a wreck in 1913. He was confined in a hospital for 15 weeks following the accident but did not regain his former strength and condition. He was again employed by the Soo railway for a period of about three years, when he became carrier on rural mail route three out of this city. At the time the Bejou theatre was operated here Mr. DeVeling appeared in song numbers at various occasions.

During the past couple of years Mr. DeVeling sought various treatments, but without avail. In February, 1923, he went to Chicago to consult a specialist and last October he motored to Florida with hopes that the climate would improve his condition. He returned the first part of March and was confined to his bed shortly after his return. He passed away peacefully and quietly.

In 1908 Mr. DeVeling was united in marriage to Hilda Berggren of this city, by whom he is survived, besides two daughters, Mary and Fern, 10 and 15 years of age. He is also survived by his father at Fort Myers, Fla., and a brother, Rolland, at Tarpon, Fla. A sister, Mrs. T. M. Pearl, resides in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Presbyterian church of which he was a member, Rev. Chas. Gerlinger officiating at the obsequies. Interment was made in the Greenwood cemetery. The following members of the post office staff were pall bearers: T. S. Brokke and T. H. Chittick, clerks, Fred Protz and Ed. Jaranson, city carriers, Albert and Edwin Swanson, rural carriers. Among out of town people who attended the funeral were A. Waltinson of Deer River and Mr. and Mrs. J. Halvorson of Plummer, relatives of Mrs. DeVeling.

Deceased was held in high esteem by his associates and many friends and his passing is deeply regretted. The sympathy of a host of friends is extended to the bereaved family.

Penney Store Manager Returns

H. E. Nelson, manager of the local branch of the J. C. Penney company, was called to his home in this city Monday morning on account of the illness of his wife. Mr. Nelson attended the semi-annual convention of west-central division of J. C. Penney company managers in St. Paul April 18-19, and also spent some time in Chicago attending to the buying of summer and fall stock. He was in St. Paul when he received the message of his wife's illness and was about to leave for St. Louis to do further buying.

Take Music Lessons Here

In many ways Thief River Falls may be considered a center and none the less so when it comes to music. Mrs. Thelma Erickson announces thirteen out-of-town pupils in piano as follows: Miss Mary Johnson, Kratka; Misses Ruth MacDonald, Ardith Halseth, Vivian Thoreson, Goodridge; Misses Esther Sabo, Gwendlyn Smith, Agnes Anenson, Mavie; Augusta Beiswinger, Margaret Geske, St. Hilaire; Laverne Morrisette, Plummer; Miss Vivian Olson, Silverton and Miss Violet Brown and Olaf Anderson of Grygla. Mrs. Doris Halvorson Pope also announces five out-of-town pupils.

TALES OF THE RAILS

A. J. Oden, chief train dispatcher, resumed work here Saturday after having visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Oden at Ogema, Wis.

M. E. Haggerty, operator, returned to Glenwood Sunday to resume regular duties after having been employed here during Mr. Oden's absence. He was relieved by J. S. Rudy.

E. F. Dolan, dispatcher, spent Monday in Minneapolis attending to business matters.

E. J. Abbott, operator, resumed duties Saturday, relieving E. J. Langevin who is enjoying a vacation.

Z. L. Reynolds, accountant at the superintendent's office, spent Friday in Minneapolis on business.

F. C. Busch, section foreman at Ottertail, spent Tuesday in this city attending to business matters.

J. B. Kelly, assistant general road master at Minneapolis, spent Monday in this city on business.

E. B. Dickey, agent at Carlos, spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Morris.

2-TEACHER NORMAL DEPT. PRACTICALLY ASSURED FOR 1925

Twenty Girls from '24 Class Expect to Enroll in Training Dept. Should Apply Now

With 25 applicants for entrance into the normal training department of the Thief River Falls high school for 1924 it is practically a certainty that a two-teacher department will be maintained next term. Only one teacher has been employed in this department the past year, 15 girls completing their training this spring.

Notice has recently been sent out by the department of education to high schools maintaining normal training departments, calling for a minimum enrollment of 24 in order to secure state aid for two teachers. Because of the standardization of these departments and the growing demand for the work it becomes necessary to formulate more stringent regulations for their conduct. There are now about 100 hundred high school training departments in the state and a large number are seeking admission to the list for next year. It is the intention of the state to locate these departments where the demand is greatest and where they will prove of the utmost service to the community. Only two high schools, Fergus Falls and Wabasha, had two-teacher departments this year, South High of Minneapolis having three instructors. Consequently it can be readily seen that a good showing will be made by the local school if such a department can be secured.

The state practically maintains the normal training department, paying the salary of instructors and other items, while the district supplies the room, light and heat, which is only a small cost. It is necessary for the state to carry on the work on a restricted financial basis, making it necessary to limit the number of departments.

There has been little difficulty in securing the required enrollment here, even tho the requirements for entrance have been changed so that the applicant in order to enroll must be a high school graduate with standings of at least 75 per cent in all subjects. The candidate must be of unquestioned moral character, in excellent physical condition and must pledge intention or willingness to teach school during the following year. This course, followed by one year of rural teaching, is credited as one year's work at any state teachers' college. For young people of high ideals and right standards who wish to make their own start in a professional or business life this is a splendid opportunity and affords valuable training.

Thus far, 20 of this year's graduating class have signified their intentions of entering the department next fall, as well as five from other schools, all girls. As there is also a limited maximum it is important that application be entered at once to Supt. I. T. Simley or Miss Alice Stapleton, who is in charge of the department and will most likely return next year. This is her third year in the local schools.

This year's seniors who have enrolled are: Elsie Blair, Pearl Conklin, Stella Gulseth, Erma Gunderson, Bertha Holthusen, Gladys Johnson, Hazel Krause, Olga T. Lokken, Emma M. Lanke, Esther Lunsetter, Ragnhild Moen, Tena Nelson, Edyth Novak, Mildred Peterson, Agnes Rolandson, Doris Sandberg, Eleanor Sanders, Lillie Stenseth, C. Evaline Thompson and Eleanor Werstlein.

STOMACH SUFFERING QUICKLY CEASES

Wonderful stories of almost instant relief from stomach suffering have been traced to the sufferers themselves. Otto Wolf, Cold Springs, Minn.; C. W. Lauritz Olson, Aged 73, Dies at Home in City

Lauritz Olson, residing at 615 Dewey avenue, died at his home Monday morning at 9:35 from high blood pressure, thot to be the result of a paralytic stroke suffered six years ago.

Mr. Olson was born Dec. 26, 1851, near Rockford, Ill., where he spent his early childhood. From there he went to Iola, Wis., living there until April 12, 1881, when he was married to Miss Anna Mork. They then moved to Stephen and resided on a farm there until May, 1902, when they came to this city. From 1912 to 1920 they resided on a farm six miles northeast of Goodridge. In 1918 he suffered a severe paralytic stroke and at that time was in bed for three weeks. Since that time he has never been strong and lately has been gradually failing. However, he was up and about until a week ago Sunday when he suddenly became ill and retired to his bed.

To mourn his passing he leaves his wife, two daughters, Stella at home and Mrs. Inez Jensen; two sons, LeRoy of Newburg, N. D., and Morris of Chicago; one sister, Mrs. George Taylor and a brother Charles of Northome and three grand children.

The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the Trinity Lutheran church with Rev. T. E. Sweger officiating at the obsequies. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

THIEF RIVER FALLS TIMES

VOLUME 14 Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota, Thursday, May 8, 1924 Number 14

CLEAN-UP WEEK IN THIS CITY OPENS MONDAY

Mayor Arneson in Official Proclamation Urges Citizens to Clean Up and Beautify

MEETING OF BLOCK CAPTAINS MON. EVE.

Prizes Offered to Leaders in Cleanest Residence Block. Everyone to Co-operate

Citizens of Thief River Falls will next week join in one of the most intensive clean-up and paint-up campaigns ever conducted in this city. The movement, which is national in scope, is being sponsored here by the Commercial club, in conjunction with the Woman's club, the Boy Scouts and other civic organizations, with a general committee composed of Geo. Wilson, Rev. Chas. Gerlinger and Dr. J. T. Bowers from the Commercial club in charge.

The idea was brought up at a club meeting some time ago and was given further attention at the luncheon last Thursday when a resolution was adopted calling upon Mayor J. S. Arneson to issue a proclamation designating the week of May 12 to 17, inclusive, as clean-up week.

The mayor in his proclamation asks that "all citizens join in a general movement to clean up back yards, rake up front yards and paint up old buildings as far as possible." Refuse, garbage, manure and similar materials will be removed from all alleys, streets and private property before inspection day, and every effort will be put forth in making the city cleaner and more beautiful. Thief River Falls has been commended for its attractive appearance in many respects and it is asserted that after the general campaign thruout the city next week a neater municipality will not be found anywhere.

Already considerable activity along the line of raking the lawns, removing rubbish and the like has been going on here, made possible by the early spring, altho somewhat retarded unfavorable weather the past few weeks.

Dealers in paints, cleaning materials and utensils are reporting increased sales at this time, with expectations of greater activity next week.

The committee in charge of the campaign has named a resident of each block in the city to supervise the

DIST GAME WARDEN SPEAKS AT PARENT TEACHERS MEETING

Last Gathering of Term Proves Entertaining Event—Schools Partake in Program

The Parent-Teachers association meeting Monday which was the last meeting this term, was well attended and an exceptionally good program presented. William F. Munch, state game warden for this district, gave an interesting and instructive talk on "The Value of Birds" and also elucidated at length on the shooting ground and game refuge bill, now before congress. Students from the various schools gave a program of dramatizations and music, which was very well received. The numbers and participating pupils appear below.

In reference to the game refuge bill, Mr. Munch explained that the plan calls for the purchase, by the government, of land not particularly adapted to farming or other industries, much of which lies in north and northeastern Minnesota and other states to be used as refuge for game. The Parent-Teachers association adopted a resolution to endorse this bill, and made arrangements for a copy of the resolution to be sent to Congressman Wefald and also Senators Shipstead and Johnson. He also explained the proposed new method of issuing game licenses thru a federal board instead of the present method of the state bureau.

In his talk of birds, Mr. Munch explained their value, particularly song birds, in destroying insects and plant and tree parasites, which, if it were not for the birds, would multiply in numbers that would be startlingly dangerous.

The program by the students was as follows:

Pantomine, "America" by Northrup 6th grade; Piano duet, Gladys Weeks and Lenore Lieberman, Central 8th grade; Dramatization and poem, Washington 3rd grade; Violin duet, Adeline and Robert Votava, Northrup; Debate, resolved that Washington was a greater man than Lincoln, Knox 5th grade, and which was decided by the judges, 2 to 1 in favor of the negative. Music by chorus, Washington 5th grade, and a violin solo, Henry Arneson, Lincoln high school.

The next meeting of the association will be held the first Monday in October. Both parents and teachers agree that the meetings the past winter have been a pleasure and a benefit to their common interest, the education of the children. Splendid programs have been carried out and the meetings have afforded an opportunity for the teachers and the parents to meet on common grounds.

Division Staff Meeting

The regular divisional staff meeting of Soo officials was held at Superintendent W. S. Barnard's office Tuesday and the regular routine business conducted. Twenty-seven officials were in attendance.

Assessors Busy Figuring Property Values for Tax

On May 1 assessors throughout the state started on their annual duty of fixing the taxable value of their property within their respective subdivisions of the state. Personal property is assessed each year, while real estate is assessed every other year, except for such changes as may be necessary to cover new buildings or the loss of the ones previously assessed. This year the real estate will be reassessed.

N. J. Anderson, assessor in the city of Thief River Falls, has been busy the past week, as have also the assessors of the other divisions of the county.

Ireland Co. Makes Changes

Considerable changes in the office of the Ireland Lumber company have been made the past week and a large line of paints and building hardware added.

Heretofore the company has not handled any paints or hardware and by this addition they necessarily place themselves in a better position to serve their patrons.

DELEGATION TO SELECT JH ROUTE TO COME HERE MAY 17

General Manager and Two State Directors Will Inspect Routes and Hear Claims

Information has been received from L. H. Rice, Park Rapids, vice president of the Minnesota Jefferson Highway association, that a delegation composed of General Manager A. H. French of St. Joseph, Mo., and C. E. Miller of Staples and R. G. Brophy of Mankato, state directors, will arrive here May 17 to inspect the various routes proposed for the permanent routing of the Jefferson Highway north from Thief River Falls.

The matter of re-routing was left in the hands of the directors and general manager at a recent meeting of the state association and it is hoped that the permanent route selected by this committee after a careful investigation and travel over the available routes and hearing of the views offered by the various factions, will prove satisfactory and end the controversy which is at present going on concerning the question.

General sentiment in Thief River Falls favors routing thru points north of this city, thus establishing a popular thoroughfare to this city tapping the northern territory which is tributary to Thief River Falls and which provides a great deal of business. It is pointed out by many who are familiar with the situation and road conditions that it is altogether likely that the route selected will run due north from Thief River Falls, although there is some question as to what particular road will be designated.

Warren is making a strong bid for the routing of the highway thru that city but is strenuously opposed by towns in the eastern section of Marshall county. Karlstad has also been particularly strong for an eastern route.

PLAY DAY EVENTS STILL GOING ON

More Rural Schools of County Compete in Various Events at Sectional Play Days

The fourth play day in the rural schools of the county was held in district 35, east of Hazel last Friday. Districts 35 and 60 were represented with well organized teams, while districts 11, 51, 39, 13 and 41, also in the section, did not show up. District 35 won first place in the contests with a score of 35, the other school making 23.

On Monday another play day was conducted at Hazel, districts 12, 125, 133 and 221 being represented. Districts 6, 148 and 154 had no teams competing. District 133 won high honors with a score of 21, Nos. 12 and 125 getting nine each and district 221, eight points. After dinner those present assembled in the school house for a short session of community singing and to hear a talk by Rev. Chas. Gerlinger of this city, who pointed out very clearly some of the things that schooling should and should not do for a person.

"With a little more organization and some more work in acquainting the people in the various districts with the idea of Play Days, these events can be made a power for much good in the communities", says Supt. O. R. Sande.

Arrangements were made for a play day in district 35 yesterday and another was scheduled for section 3 in district 54 today. Other dates scheduled are section No. 11, district 165 on May 9, and section 2 in district 94 on May 29.

Not Enough Acres Here For Pickling Station This Year

Owing to the fact that not a sufficient acreage was secured for the growing of cucumbers in Thief River Falls and surrounding country the establishment of a salting station here will not be made possible this year, according to announcement this week. The Commercial club launched a campaign to get about 200 acres signed up for the growing of cucumbers, this being the minimum area set by the Gedney company which was considering a salting station for this locality. However, only some over 100 acres has been spoken for, making it necessary to drop the matter for this season, altho it is hoped by those in charge and farmers who are interested in the culture of cucumbers that the quota may be reached next year.

MAY 20TH DATE SET FOR CO-OP. POULTRY DRIVE

Producers in County Will Be Asked to Join Valley Co-op. Marketing Association

BUSINESS MEN VOLUNTEER TO ASSIST

Prospects are Bright for Securing Necessary Quota of Membership Agreements

Business men of Thief River Falls will join in a drive Tuesday, May 20, to secure membership agreements in the recently organized Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry Marketing association, a thorough canvass of the vicinity of Thief River Falls to be made at that time. Preparations are being made to put the drive over in grand style in the anticipation of signing up every poultry producer in the county.

Olaf Neset, president of the association, Mayor J. S. Arneson and County Agent J. J. McCann, spoke to members of the Commercial club at the luncheon last Thursday pointing out the importance of the new marketing movement to the producers of the community and its value to Thief River Falls as a central shipping point for eggs and poultry produced in the entire district which embraces about 27 towns and surrounding communities. Mr. Neset states that undoubtedly within a few years the association will establish a fattening plant and other necessary facilities for taking care of the increasing egg and poultry business, necessitating employment of a large crew of men.

It was also pointed out that in order to assure the success of the project it would be necessary to secure the desired membership within a short time so as to make it possible to start operating soon. Members of the club were called upon to assist in the campaign and the following volunteered to spend a day or more signing up memberships: Peter Engelstad, T. P. Anderson, E. O. Mogensen, L. H. Larson, M. V. Evenson, Olaf Neset, F. J. Stebbins, Theo. Quale, W. H. Akre, Dr. O. F. Mellby, E. M. Bennes, J. S. Arneson, H. A. Brumund and A. E. Mattson. These and other men who will take part in the drive will meet at the Commercial club rooms Monday, April 19, to receive instructions as to the workings of the association.

Most producers become members without argument once the co-operative sales plan is explained to them and no difficulty is anticipated in putting Pennington county over the top. Those in charge expect about 500 or more signers in the county. It is estimated that perhaps a total of 1600 members will be obtained in the district. Reports from Rosewood have it that 500 can be secured in that vicinity alone.

Business men in St. Hilaire and Mavie will also take part in the drive. First steps to consolidate co-operative egg and poultry marketing machinery in Minnesota were taken in St. Paul Monday at a meeting held in the headquarters of the Minnesota Farm Bureau federation.

For several months, egg producers of the state have been organizing on the California plan, using a five year contract. As fast as enough contracts are obtained in a given producing area, a district selling agency is established.

The purpose of the meeting Monday was to bring about a federation of those district organizations, so as to effect as much economy as possible in selling operations.

Hagbarth Bue of Northfield, Minn., was elected president.

RED RIVER POWER CO. IMPROVING DAM AT RED LAKE FALLS

Crew of 75 Men Will Work on Dam Improvements at Estimated Cost of $250,000

Erection of temporary buildings at Red Lake Falls for accommodating 75 men and material for improving the water power on Red Lake river at that point was started this week by the Red River Power company, according to reports here. It is expected that it will take about three months to complete the improvements, the estimated cost of which is $250,000. The present head of the power dam will be raised six additional feet, say reports.

It is also reported that the Byllesby interests have had surveyors at Red Lake Falls the past two years, making a survey for a dam at Huot, below Red Lake Falls, with a possible 60-foot head.

Expectations are that in the near future a dam will be developed at Cooks Rapids where the fall in the river is reported to be 15 feet per mile. At that point it would be possible to construct a dam with a head of 40 or 50 feet, it is said.

With the various power interests making plans for further developing of power in the Red Lake River and making extensive improvements, it is very evident that the Red Lake river has great possibilities as a source of power for the generation of electrical energy.

Progressives to Organize

An organization meeting of the Farmer-Labor Federation will be held at municipal court rooms at the auditorium, Friday evening, May 9th at 8 p. m. Progressives are urged to attend.

CLEAN-UP PROCLAMATION

In conformity with the action of the Commercial Club and the various Women's organizations which have been active in the work of beautifying the city, I hereby designate the week of May 12 to 17 inclusive as

CLEAN-UP WEEK

and all citizens are asked to join in a general movement to clean up back yards, rake up front yards and paint up old buildings as far as possible. Thief River Falls stands in the front ranks of clean and attractive cities. Its clean streets and beautiful yards have been widely commented upon as an evidence of thrift and civic pride on the part of our citizens, and I am sure there will be a cheerful disposition on the part of all to make the city more spik and span this year than ever before.

Following clean-up week a tour of inspection will be taken by city officials and representatives of civic organizations, and I trust such inspection will disclose a 100 per cent compliance with the health regulations of the city.

Given under my hand this 5th day of May, 1924.

J. S. ARNESON,
Mayor.

ALFALFA GIVES PROMISE TO BE LEADING CROP

Doubling of Alfalfa Acreage in County is Most Striking Feature of Crop Survey

WHEAT ACREAGE CUT; CORN INCREASING 20%

More Sweet Clover, Oats, Barley and Flax Expected This Year Says County Agent

Farmers of Pennington county are planting only a small acreage of wheat this year, according to information from County Agent J. J. McCann's office, but expect to increase the corn, alfalfa, flax and oats acreages by a considerable percentage. If the weather had been favorable during the latter part of April the area devoted to wheat might have reached the 1923 acreage, which was 5,847 acres, according to the farm census. Some wheat was seeded during the first week in April prior to the snow and rain period—which has delayed seeding operations a great deal, and Mr. McCann estimates that the acreage in this county this year will be about 3,500 acres, wheat seeding being completed last week.

Most of the farmers in this community are fitting their crop plans into their general scheme of diversified stock farming, steering clear of wheat and turning to alfalfa and corn.

Alfalfa is Popular

The most marked change in the farming program of Pennington farmers this year is the tremendous increase in alfalfa acreage, the area to be devoted to this crop being estimated at more than twice that of wheat. Figures obtained from the returned questionaires sent out to farmers in the alfalfa campaign last winter showed a total of nearly 5000 acres in this county at that time, the estimated increase this year being placed at between 4000 and 5000 acres. This is brought about largely thru an intensive campaign for more alfalfa in Pennington county sponsored by the Pennington County Bankers association co-operating with the Commercial club and the county agent's office, 22,000 pounds of certified Grimm seed being shipped here by the bankers' association for distribution among local farmers, besides a large quantity distributed by local dealers and farmers. Quite a large amount of seed was grown locally last year.

It is evident that more and more farmers are coming to realize the importance of alfalfa on the dairy farm.

More Sweet Clover

According to estimates made by the county agent the present sweet clover acreage of about 10,000 acres in the county will be increased to approximately 12,000 acres, altho it is expected that there will be a decrease in the area devoted to the other clovers and timothy, owing to the popularity of alfalfa and sweet clover. Census figures for 1923 credit Pennington with

Large Attendance and Much Interest at Farmer's Club Meeting at Hazel Saturday

An enthusiastic meeting of the Hazel Farmers club was held at the village hall last Saturday night, a large crowd being in attendance to hear discussions of the co-operative egg and poultry marketing plan recently launched in this section. Olaf Neset, president of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry Marketing association, and J. J. McCann, county agent, were the principal speakers, and explained thoroughly the purpose and advantages of the new movement, pointing out that it would mean the same to the poultry industry as the co-operative creameries did to dairying.

A considerable amount of poultry and eggs is produced in the Hazel community, many of the farmers having several hundred chickens. Mrs. Geo. Breitsbecker has about 600 and is getting a neat revenue from this source.

In the neighborhood of 20 producers have already signed up with the association in the Hazel community, many joining the movement immediately at the club meeting.

SEVEN ENGINE BIDS RECEIVED BY COUNCILMEN

Additional Diesel Engine Can Be Installed at Cost of $46,196 For 500 h. p. Type

ONLY THREE BIDS TO BE CONSIDERED

Aldermen Will Meet With High Line Representative at Special Meeting Tonight

Can the city council afford to turn down the bids received for an additional engine at the electric light plant, especially in view of the fact that the bids submitted are considerably under the supposed cost thereof? That is the question that is now before the aldermen after listening to the reading of the seven bids submitted Tuesday night. Before deciding to accept or reject them the aldermen will also carefully consider the purchase of the dam and the offer of high power service from the outside.

With heavy load now required of the present plant and the probably increase thereof shortly due to various causes it was tentatively deemed wise to consider only the installation of a 500 rather than a 300 horsepower engine, especially after the bidders told the aldermen of the saving there can be obtained from operation of the larger unit at nearly its maximum load. One of the seven bids submitted called for only a 300 horsepower engine and that quickly eliminated one, leaving only six others to be considered.

All But 3 Bids Eliminated

After further consideration of these six bids three were also eliminated, leaving only those known to be of the kind best adapted to the present case. These three bids will be further considered during the next week or two, and if any is accepted it will only be such as the aldermen believe will meet the requirements. The purchase of a 500 horsepower engine at this time on the bids submitted will mean an expenditure considerably less than would that of the purchase of the dam, unless the owners thereof are willing also to cut their price the same as did the manufacturers of engines.

Bids Vary

After careful compilation of the various bids it was found that the total cost of a 500 horsepower engine, completely installed and ready to operate, would be anywhere from $46,196 to $55,197. The bids are as follows:

Busch Selzer, St. Louis, $46,196.
Ingersoll Rand, New York, $47,000.
Worthington Pump, Buffalo, $48,738.
McIntosh Seymour, Auburn, $49,800.
Commonwealth Electric, St. Paul, $50,000.
J. G. Robertson, St. Paul, $55,197.

This last bid, however, included a 20,000 gallon storage tank which the other bids did not call for, but which the city may have to install in order to carry a sufficient supply to last thru the winter months when it is not as advantageous to ship crude oil such as the diesel engines burn. The Robertson bid was also on the two cycle style and was therefore not desired. The Fairbanks-Morse bid was only on a 300 horsepower engine. The bids which will receive further consideration are those of the Busch Selzer Co. who installed the original engine 14 years ago, the McIntosh Seymour Co., and the Commonwealth company, this decision being reached at a special meeting yesterday afternoon.

Meeting Tonight

The council will meet again tonight to hear further details of the proposition on outside power at which time H. H. Henley of the Minnesota Electrical Distributing company will be present.

FARM HOME OF S. C. STONE NEAR CITY, DESTROYED BY FIRE

House Completely Consumed by Flames Early Tuesday Night Practically Nothing Saved

The farm home of S. C. Stone, one mile southwest of this city on the Conley farm was completely consumed by flames Thursday night. Fire broke out about 9:30, thot to be the result of a defective chimney, and gained such headway before it was noticed that nothing could be done to save the property. Only a few pieces of furniture were saved.

The local fire department was called out, driving out in cars, but facilities to fight the fire in its advanced stage were not available. Mr. Stone and family are now living in another house on the farm while a larger residence, which stood on the right of way of the proposed St. Hilaire road, is being moved onto the Stone farm for their future home.

The house which burned was covered by insurance but no insurance was carried on the furniture which entailed considerable loss.

Appointed Court Reporter

Harley G. Swenson of Hillsboro, N. D., was sworn in May 1 as court reporter for the 14th judicial district to assist Judge Andrew Grindeland of Warren, according to reports here this week. He succeeds W. O. Braggans who has held both the position as county attorney and court reporter since last fall when he was appointed by the board of county commissioners to fill the unexpired term of County Attorney J. R. Naeseth, who died in office. Mr. Swenson is a graduate of the University of North Dakota.

County Roads Are Being Put in Good Condition

With the passing of winter and the rainy season of spring, the roads of Pennington county are being gradually worked out, smoothed over for summer travel, partly by traffic over them and with the assistance of road maintenance machines located thruout the county. Road leveling is being conducted in all parts of the county now and reports by motorists are that the roads, particularly the state roads, are in splendid condition.

It is said that the roads in this locality are in better condition at this season than in many other sections of the state, except for a time during the latter part of April when heavy rains prevailed.

Roads of the county will be greatly improved by the completion of the state road east of Hazel and the construction of the new route of trunk highway No. 32 between this city and St. Hilaire.

County Engineer Umland is a busy man ridding the community of rough roads and is credited with building some of the finest pieces of road in the state.

POULTRY MARKETING WILL BE DISCUSSED AT FIVE MEETINGS

Neset and McCann Will Address Poultry Producers of District On Co-op. Plan

A series of five meetings will be held in this section next week in the interest of the co-operative poultry and egg marketing association recently organized in the Thief River valley territory, at which farmers will have opportunity to become familiar with the proposed plan and hear the advantages of joining in a co-operative organization so as to get full returns from poultry products.

Following is the schedule of meetings:

Grygla—Monday, May 12
Mavie—Tuesday, May 13
Rosewood—Wednesday, May 14
Silverton—Thursday, May 15
Goodridge—Friday, May 16

Speakers at the gatherings will be Olaf Neset, local jeweler and poultry fancier who was recently selected to head the new Thief River Valley Poultry Marketing association, and County Agent J. J. McCann. They will discuss poultry raising and marketing problems. Membership agreements will also be signed up at these meetings in an effort to get the quota of 1000 members before the association starts operating. Committees in each locality in the entire district of about 27 towns are now busy getting members signed up and report much success.

Accompanying the poultry men will also be J. E. Gillespie, representing the Stillwater penitentiary, who will discuss the working plant and machinery manufactured by the institution, as well as conditions of the state prison.

Poultry producers and others interested in the respective communities should keep the meetings in mind and make it a point to attend. The meetings will all be held in the evenings.

DEMONSTRATION OF BURNER A SUCCESS

Weed Burner to be Manufactured at Foundry Plant When Contracts Are Completed

The weed burner, invented by H. W. Protzeller of this city and made by the Gardner Railway Weeder Co., located in this city, was given a trial on the electric railway tracks Tuesday afternoon and made a very good showing. In spite of high winds and much moisture the burner was considered a success as far as could be determined. Several improvements have been made since the demonstration two weeks ago.

Mr. Protzeller left last evening for Minneapolis to negotiate for contracts for the manufacture of the burner in quantities. Several companies have already promised orders pending approval of the machine on demonstration and the officials present seemed well pleased with it. The machine will be made in this city at the plant formerly occupied by the foundry.

A Fordson motor furnishes the power for operation and one man handles the machine. Formerly weed burners required a full engine crew and burner crew, entailing the employment of about ten men. The new burner will sell for $6,000.

Those who attended the demonstration Tuesday were General Road Master J. O'Connor of the Soo Line; General Road Master Carney of the Northern Pacific and Assistant Vice President Reed of the Canadian Pacific railway companies.

It is expected that manufacture of the burner will begin here soon.

Work of Moving St. Hilaire Telephone Line Began Sat.

The work of moving the telephone line poles on the road between this city and St. Hilaire, where they interfere with the new road which is being built, began Saturday. A crew of ten men, under the supervision of local Manager G. A. Russel, with William Bieging, lineman of St. Cloud, as foreman, have been employed. It is expected that the work will be completed in about two weeks.

There are also revisions being made at the local exchange office. W. R. Pettet, switchboard man of St. Cloud, arrived Tuesday evening and will spend a month at the local exchange reconstructing various mechanisms at the plant.

The longer you own an automobile, the more of a luxury it becomes.

61 SENIORS TO GET DIPLOMAS THIS YEAR

Class of 15 Postgraduates to Receive Teacher's Certificates. Commencement May 23

Final rehearsals have been had and the class of 1924 is now ready to present their class play, "Mary's Millions" at the auditorium tomorrow, Friday, night. The play, which is one of the famous Dennison plays, has been prepared under the able direction of Lawrence Mickelson, high school instructor, and he is authority for the statement that the efforts of this year's graduation class behind the footlights will stand any manner of comparison with those of former years. He is enthusiastic over the talent displayed by the cast in their rehearsals and says that the public will have a real treat tomorrow night.

"Mary's Millions" is a thrilling comedy that has met with splendid success wherever it has been presented. In addition to possessing all the qualifications of a laugh-producing comedy it has enough drama plot to hold the interest of the audience thruout the performance.

Parts Well Taken

The character parts are very well taken by Harriet Morgan, as "Eudora," a hired girl; Orrin Storholm, as "Boggs," the village constable, hack-driver, and general man-about-town; Lawrence Bjorkman, as "Ezra Stoneham," the meek husband of Jane Stoneham," or Hazel Krause who rules all with an iron hand; and "Mrs. Mudge," Elsie Blair, who is wedded to her Ouija board. Liv Vistaunet makes a perfect French countess in the part of "Countess Lola de Selles" and Melvin Engelstad as "Count Victor de Selles," brother of "Lola", is equally good. John Sether is "Jimmie Barnes," a young stock and bond salesman from New York, who is very interested in women, and Math Barzen is his friend, "Jack Henderson," who has received a college education but is still very rustic by nature and in his actions. Hylda Peterson makes a very winsome school teacher, "Betty Barlowe," and Margaret Melgaard is "Mary Manners."

SECRETARY OFSTHUN OF CREDITS BUREAU COMING THIS WEEK

State Loans in Pennington Number 234 for Nearly One and Quarter Million Dollars

T. O. Ofsthun, secretary of the Minnesota Rural Credits bureau, will arrive in Thief River Falls next Saturday to spend about a week in this locality to confer with applicants concerning their loans and inspecting applications which have been turned down by the appraiser or the bureau heads. Mr. Ofsthun visited this community three weeks ago but the impassable condition of the roads prevented him from completing his survey here at the time of his extended tour of the northern part of the state.

Before being appointed to his present position the bureau secretary was cashier of the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul and previous to that time he was cashier of the Fremad Bank at Glenwood, which was his home since boyhood. For many years he served as register of deeds in Pope county.

Rural credit loans in Pennington county last Tuesday had reached a total of $1,105,100, the number of mortgages for state loans filed with Register of Deeds Fred Lorentson being 234. This is an average of about one each day since the bureau started operating last fall.

Two counties in Northeastern Minnesota, Polk and Becker, have drawn a total of almost six million dollars from the Rural Credits bureau in eight months, a tabulation by Secretary Osthun showed Tuesday. The bureau has announced it would stop accepting applications temporarily as soon as the total reaches $55,000,000. The total already is within $4,000,000 of that mark. The bureau will start accepting applications again as soon as those on file have been acted upon. Applications are acted on only in the order of their receipt, according to Mr. Ofsthun in a talk before the Commercial club recently.

Three thousand loans aggregating $17,500,000 have been approved. There are 65 inspectors investigating applications.

The money loaned and the number of applications on which the money was loaned by counties are: Becker, 295 applications, $1,905,300; Blue Earth, 21 applications, $224,560; Freeborn, 26 applications, $295,000; Goodhue, 50 applications, $440,250; Hennepin, 46 applications, $205,000; Martin, 10 applications, $201,500; Mower, 9 applications, $110,500; Olmsted, 5 applications, $63,200; Polk, 468 applications, $3,977,480; Ramsey, 18 applications, $61,300; St. Louis, 24 applications, $71,000; Stearns, 77 applications, $605,775, and Winona, 16 applications, $153,000.

Marshall county is considerably beyond the million dollar mark. Every county has applications on file.

Rev. I. T. Aastad of Detroit, formerly of this city, was the principal speaker at the annual cap and gown day exercises held by Concordia College at Moorhead, Friday.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Girls Community Club To Vote On Continuation Of Activities Thru Summer

Whether or not to contiue activities throughout the summer months will be the chief topic of discussion at the Girls' Community club Thursday, May 12. The club membership is made up of many out-of-town members, most of whom are school instructors, and these are in favor of closing for the summer months, as has always been the custom in the past. However, members who are residents of this city have found the club one of their greatest interests and many are in favor of continuing activities.

No definite program of summer activities has been definitely planned yet because of the uncertainty but a tennis court is being considered. No place has been selected or arranged for but enthusiasm runs high in favor of that sport. A number of excursions are likely to be made by the club in case it remains open.

Membership in the Girls' Community club is now about 69, 25 of these being teachers who make their homes outside of the city during the school vacation. The past two years, particularly, the club has enjoyed a large membership of wide-awake girls who have made the local club one of the best in this section of the state. Many worthy activities have been sponsored by the club.

The club is also a member of the Federation of Women's clubs and on Tuesday and Wednesday, four of its members represented it at the district convention at Moorhead.

Bolden-Johnson

A wedding of much interest to local friends of Alvin Johnson, a graduate from the local high school in the class of 1919, took place at Motley Thursday, May 1st, when Miss Phyllis Audra Bolden, daughter of A. W. Bolden of Motely, and Alvin Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson formerly of this city, were married. Miss Bolden has been engaged as school instructor at Tenstrike, where the Johnson family now reside. Alvin Johnson took an active part in athletics at high school here, playing on the basketball and football teams. He was also a member of the city band and the high school orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Johnson will be at home at Tenstrike after May 30th.

For George Munt

George Munt was the honored guest Monday afternoon when the Mesdames Bertha Munt, A. M. Langseth and P. J. Keating entertained sixteen of his friends at the Keating home in commemoration of his seventh birthday anniversary. At five-thirty a lunch, featured by a birthday cake, was served by the hostesses. Those present were the Misses Margaret Munt, Evangeline, Marcella and Agnes Baker, Karn Langseth, Fern Collins, Ruth and Adeline Erickson, and the Messrs. John and Raymond Munt, Donald Collins, John Langseth, Lowell, Milton and James Nesse and Lawrence Erickson.

Gran-Carroll

Miss Caspara Jean Gran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Gran, and Edward James Carroll, were married at Alexandria Wednesday of last week, at the Catholic parsonage. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, and in the evening they left for Chicago, Ill., where they will make their future home. Mrs. Carroll formerly conducted the Mari Posa beauty parlor in this city. About a year ago she left for Minot, N. D., and has also been a resident of Alexandria since. Mr. Carroll is employed with a railroad company in Chicago.

McDonald-Winton

Miss Henrietta McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. McDonald of Minneapolis, and Charles Joel Winton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Winton, formerly of this city and at one time operators of the saw mill here, were married at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Minneapolis a week ago Saturday evening. The young couple left for the Pacific coast and Honolulu to spend their honeymoon. They will be at home at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, on their return.

Degree of Honor Entertain

The Degree of Honor lodge will entertain at the Sons of Norway lodge this evening in the form of a dancing party, members and friends having been invited to participate in the event. Refreshments will be served at a late hour.

Lady Forresters Entertain

Junior B. Sharp Club Meets

The Junior B. Sharp club met at Mrs. Thelma Erickson's studio Tuesday evening and carried out a May basket party in connection with the regular meeting. Those on the program for the evening were the Misses Geraldine Connell, Eleanor Bottelson, Rose Sheedy, Verna Brandon, and Delores Amundson, with piano numbers and Janeatte Connell gave a reading on the life of Mozart.

For Miss Helen Nordquist

Miss Helen Nordquist, R. N., was the guest of honor last evening when about ten nurses gathered at the home of Miss Esther Stebbins and entertained in the form of a parcel shower. Miss Nordquist took the nurses' training course at the Physicians hospital and also the advanced training at the General hospital in Minneapolis. Miss Nordquist will be married to Harold McCrum in June.

For Mrs. Myrland

Mrs. Esther Myrland, for the past seven months engaged as operator at the local telephone exchange, was the guest of honor Thursday evening when the staff of operators entertained at a shower for her at the Commercial club rooms. The hours were spent at dancing and in social ways. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Myrland expects to take a course in library work in Minneapolis this summer and may take up library work later.

Piano Recital By Pupils Of Mrs. Erickson Well Received

The public piano recital by pupils of Mrs. Thelma Erickson and Miss Frances Wengeler, held at the high school auditorium Wednesday evening of last week, was very well received by a large and appreciative audience and the excellent performance of the pupils presented bespeaks of the thoro instruction they have received.

The little pupils of Miss Wengeler, who is also a pupil of Mrs. Erickson, received as hearty applause from the audience as did the advanced students of Mrs. Erickson. Each of the numbers by the 20 pupils was given with an accuracy of execution that was a credit to both pupils and instructor. Especially noteworthy were the rich tone colorings and the expression and interpretation in the heavier selections.

The two-piano number, Grand Valse Caprice (Engelmann), played by Mrs. Erickson and Miss Mildred Engen, was especially well received by the audience, which responded with long and hearty applause in request for an encore.

The second of the eight recitals by pupils of Mrs. Erickson will be given at the studio, May 26, presenting Elaine Evenson, 12, and Agnes Sandstrom, 11.

Entertain For Cast

Misses Maude L. Johnson and Clara Bauman were hostesses Tuesday evening at the N. K. Harris home when they entertained for principals in the cast of the operetta, "Gypsy Rover," which was presented at the city auditorium recently.

Mrs. Oen Entertains

Mrs. Rasmus Oen entertained a large group of friends at her home on Main avenue Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Gilbert Granum who leaves next week for Tacoma, Wash., to make her future home. The afternoon wast spent in recounting the pleasant associations of the past 23 years of Mr. and Mrs. Granum's residence in this city. An elaborate lunch was served late in the afternoon. Fourteen guests were present.

For Mrs. Gilbert Granum

Mrs. Albert Engen and Mrs. A. J. Oden were joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Engen at 611 LaBree avenue north yesterday afternoon when they entertained a group of about twenty ladies at six o'clock dinner in compliment to Mrs. Gilbert Granum. Mrs. Granum leaves next week for Tacoma, Wash., to join her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Granum have been residents of this city the past 28 years and have made a host of friends who sincerely regret their departure.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Leonard DuChamp entertained a number of little folks at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of her son, Robert, who celebrated his third birthday anniversary. Twelve children were present, and presented many gifts to the honored guest. The afternoon was spent at games and lunch was served at 4:30 o'clock.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE FULLY EXPLAINED BRILLIANT LECTURE

Noted Speaker Interprets Doctrines of Society to Large Audience Friday Night

Judge Samuel W. Greene, C. S. of Louisville, Ky., who delivered a lecture on Christian Science in this city last Friday night under the auspices of the local Christian Science society, made one of the most inspiring and clear presentations of the subject ever given here, according to all those who heard him. He is said to be one of the ablest lecturers in the society and gave a very thorough explanation of the various phases of the Christian Science religion and its doctrines in concise form. The lecture was well attended.

The speaker declared that the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, is one of those world figures, whose words and works are convincing proofs that she saw the joyful vision. Her system of teaching and her expounded theology may not have been in accord with the accepted orthodoxy of her day or even of the present day, but what would have been the fate of other great leaders had they been rated by the world as by their contemporary theologians? What of Jesus or Paul or Luther?

Mrs. Eddy's revelation came to her in an hour of great human need. When all else had failed to bring her health, peace, and joy, she turned to God's word for comfort and for healing. As she studied the words and works of Jesus of Nazareth, there came to her the understanding that Jesus had come to teach the world anew the great lesson of God's ever-presence and omnipotence. She saw how Jesus' work supplemented and made perfect the great vision of God's Allness as it had been interpreted by earlier students, such as Moses, Samuel, Elijah, and Elisha. She saw how Paul had been able to reconcile the revelation of the Christ with the teaching and practice of these earlier prophets and wise men. Then there came the conviction of the practical nature of Jesus' teaching, and how little the religionist of her time were so regarding it. Filled with the joy of the knowledge of the ever present availability of God's power, she turned her thought absolutely to God, and away from all material means, and immediately her healing came.

The Text Book

Perhaps the work of Mrs. Eddy that is more generally known to the world than any other is the Christian Science Text Book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures. This book was her effort to give the vision or revelation to the world so that all who would might know the practical value of an understanding of God as He is revealed in the teachings of Jesus and the prophets and apostles. The study of the Christian Science text book, instead of lessening one's interest in the Bible, increases it. Instead of destroying one's respect for the Bible, it creates a new and genuine love for it. Its spiritual interpretation of the Bible is not a distortion of the text to suit the teachings of Christan Science. It is the discovering and revealing of sacred and useable truths. It is spiritual apprehension even as indicated by Paul in his letter to the Corinthians, "But as it is written, eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him. But God hath revealed them unto us by His Spirit; for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea the deep things of God."

A careful reading of the text book usually opens one's consciousness to a welcome reception of the revealed Truth; and in this improved understanding, he frequently finds himself healed. An interesting instance of this was related to me recently by a British soldier. About thirteen years ago, he was in the South of France seeking health, having been pronounced by physicians as incurably ill of tuberculosis. A friend meeting him one day and noting his condition, gave him a copy of the Christian Science text book, and advised him to read it. As he read, he became interested in its spiritual interpretation of the Bible, enabling him to get a spiritual understanding of God. He had always desired to know God, and this revealed understanding as present in Christian Science gave him great joy and comfort. He continued to read with increasing interest for several weeks until his sojourn in France was concluded, having in the meantime thought but little if any of his physical condition or of the possibility of his healing. When he returned to England and was examined by his physician, to his great surprise, he was pronounced well. He is today the picture of ruddiness and health, and has been on constant duty in the army these thirteen years.

In the study of Christian Science one learns that God is Live, Life, Truth, Soul, Mind, Spirit, Divine Principle. It teaches that these truths concerning what God is must be discerned spiritually before one can demonstrate them in his every day life. This is, of course, exactly as Jesus taught. "God is a Spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in Spirit and in Truth." (Jno. 4:24). This spiritual elucidation of the terms used for God in Christian Science is revealed and made practical to the student in the constant study of the Bible with the text book. A plan of daily Bible study is afforded by a use of the Christian Science Bible lessons. In addition one can profitably read the various other writings of Mrs. Eddy and the Christian Science periodicals, established by her and published in Boston under the direction of The Mother Church government.

Man

One of the most satisfying results of one's spiritual understanding of GOD as taught in Christian Science is the equally important knowledge of what man is. In our generally accepted human concept of man, he had been regarded as material, therefore as temporal, and subject to sickness, sin and death. In the spiritual interpretation of the Bible one learns that man is spiritual and partakes of the spiritual qualities of God, who is Spirit. This teaching, any Bible student will recognize as being based on the first Chapter of Genesis where it is said: "And God said, Let us make man in our image and likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." (Genesis 1:26,27.)

The hostile critic of Christian Science may vehemently protest that one cannot so construe the quoted passage of Genesis, while there remains the so-called material creation of man in the second chapter of Genesis. A complete answer to that one will find in the text book, in the Chapter called Genesis—which is a part of the "Key to the Scriptures." For the purposes of this lecture it can be briefly said that on the undisputed authority of Jesus, God is Spirit. To be logical and sensible in determining what man would resemble if made in God's image it would seem necessary to say he must be like Spirit or spiritual and not material. This teaching is fortified by Paul's apparent effort in his writings to bring to man's understanding his spiritual nature, as is instanced in the following quotations. "For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal." 2 Cor. 4:18. "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." (Rom. 8:1, 2.)

So, Christian Science teaches that creation is not the moulding of forms out of matter, but is the unfolding of spiritual ideas. To consider man as an idea of Mind may seem intangible to the material thinker as compared with flesh and bones. Immediately one turns, however, to the realm of ideas, and considers their reality and permanence, such as eight times five are forty or the square on the hypotenuse of a right triangle equals the sum of the squares on the other two sides, he is better able to appreciate and understand the forever truth that man is a spiritual idea. The text book says, "A spiritual idea has not a single element of error, and this truth removes properly whatever is offensive." (Science and Health 463:12, 13.) This spiritual truth understood is the basis for healing in Christian Science.

The first step in Christian Science healing is to awaken confidence in the patient that God can and does heal. This confidence is aroused usually by one's gaining a new view point of creation or of what man is in his right relation to God.

Jesus said, "God is a spirit," or another translation is, "God is spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth." (John 4:24.) Since God is Spirit, and man according to the first chapter of Genesis is made in His image and likeness, it would seem only logical and reasonable to believe as Christian Science teaches, that man is spiritual, or as it is expressed in the text book, "This creation consists of the unfolding of spiritual ideas, and their identities." (Science and Health 502:28, 2.)

Once a man begins to understand his spiritual being—his God-likeness, he can more hopefully dispute the claims of matter as evidenced in pain, disease or physical imperfection. He can see that healing is largely a process of overcoming false beliefs and becoming imbued with the true knowledge of God's Allness, and of man in His likeness—partaking of the spiritual qualities. He begins to see that his concern need not be with the body and its complaints, but rather that his task is with thoughts.

In speaking of Jesus' healing of the sick, the text book says, "Jesus beheld in Science the perfect man, who appeared to him where sinning mortal man appears to mortals. In this perfect man the Saviour saw God's own likeness, and this correct view of man heal the sick," (Science and Health 476:43-1.)

Healing of Sin and Business

Misinformed or uninformed people have erroneously believed that Christian Science has no concern with salvation from sin. When one grasps the spiritual understanding of man as taught in Christian Science, one will perceive that the most effectual and certain salvation from sin is the destruction of sin and sinful thoughts in one's consciousness. Immediately one beholds his fellow man as spiritual, as reflecting the Godlike, he no longer hates him, cheats him, or wrongs him. At once he loves him because he is Godlike.

In this same thought is likewise offered the solution of so-called business problems, lack, unemployment, dullness, failure, and such like. In the sermon on the Mount, Jesus gave what the world has called the golden rule. "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them." (Matt. 7:12). An abbreviated statement of this rule of conduct has been formulated by a right thinking business man as the rule of "giving" rather than "getting," which is in harmony with another statement of the Master's—"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Christian Science shows the possibility of conducting one's business successfully along this line. The text book says, "Divine Science, rising above physical theories, excludes matter, resolves things into thoughts, and replaces the objects of material sense with spiritual ideas." (Science and Health 123:12-16.) The average workman, clerk or business man has probably never made an effort to so spiritualize his thought concerning business or human activities. The common thought of business has been strife, competition, gain, whereas one to be really successful and joyful in his work must see it from the spiritual view point. Consider, for instance, the steel business resolved into thots. Replace these material objects with spiritual ideas. What is the mental result? Not just steel rails for trains to run over, but safety, endurance, honesty. Not just steel trains but freedom, dominion, overcoming of time and space, love, joy, gladness and satisfaction. Not just steel utensils, but beauty, utility, harmony and safety. Put these thoughts into the minds of steel manufacturers, laborers, or salesmen, and you have revolutionized the business for the individual and for the public. With such thoughts of his business the manufacturer would not be concerned with how much profit he could make, but how much of these wonderful things he could give. The more rails, trains, and automobiles, the more freedom, joy, love, overcoming and dominion. He would thus consider profit only from the standpoint of being enabled to continue producing.

Brage Chorus to Open Season With Program at Grygla Sat.

The Brage Male Chorus, one of the most widely known musical organizations in this section of the state, and considered to be one of the best, will give a program of chorus and solo numbers at Grygla Saturday evening, opening what may be one of their most active seasons. Mrs. O. F. Mellby will accompany them as pianist and will also give one or more solo numbers.

The chorus, under the direction of Dr. P. L. Vistaunet, has been under regular coaching the entire winter and has attained a high standard of chorus work. Dr. Vistaunet deserves much credit for the work he has done in this city. Under his direction the chorus has developed a unity of rendition that would be a credit to any professional chorus. About twelve members will participate in the event Saturday.

Rural Route Patrons Fixing Up Mail Boxes

Much interest in the proper kind of mailboxes on rural routes has been created among patrons of routes out of Thief River Falls by a circular letter sent out by Postmaster Daniel Shaw and the article, accompanied by a reproduction of a model box, appearing in last week's issue of The Times. The letter included the postal department's instructions regarding the painting and care of mail boxes and suggestions for a neat and practical box standard. In erecting the latter it is pointed out that in order that they be alike as to the slant, the angle at which the upper end or the place for the box is cut, is important. Following are the suggestions as to the making of a standard:

"Measure the diameter of the post, then measure an equal distance down one side and then saw across to the top of the post, making the proper angle—45 degrees—when the mailbox is level. Seven foot posts must be placed in the ground two feet where the ground is level; making allowance in cases where the grade is high. The post should not be less than five inches in diameter."

It is to be hoped that the campaign for better and neater mailboxes will result in many changes along the routes where many of the present ones present anything but a neat appearance and are anything but convenient for the carriers.

Make Every Goal

ENERGY, strong muscles and steady nerves not only win the goals in football but all the other goals in life. And children have an excellent start toward making these goals when the foods they are served contain the elements which build and store up bodily energy and strong health.

The food element, Dextrose, which your doctor can tell you gives vigor and stamina to blood cells and tissue, is of utmost importance to growing children. And because Karo—either Blue Label or Red Label—contains such a large percentage of Dextrose, it is a most valuable food for them. They like the delicious tempting flavor, too.

John L. Bamford

John L. Bamford died at the Physicians hospital Thursday morning at 9 o'clock following an operation for a chronic ailment which he has carried for about ten years. He entered the hospital two weeks ago and the operation was the last resort to effect a cure.

Mr. Bamford was born near Chicago, Dec. 29, 1861. He lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bamford, until 1885 when he was married to Miss Mary F. Gruett, who survives him. Mr. and Mrs. Bamford lived there until 1911, when they came to this city and settled on a farm in Agder township, Marshall county, where they resided a few years. The past six years they have been residents of this city, making their home just north of the round house. He was employed by the Soo here until December last when he became seriously ill. Since that time he has been of poor health and two weeks ago his condition became critical.

To mourn his passing he leaves his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Laura Crandall of this city, Mrs. Clarence Francis and Miss Ruth Bamford of Portland, Oregon; three brothers, James A. and Edwin B. of Portland and Charles H. of Hillside, near Portland.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church here Saturday at 1:30 o'clock by Rev. J. B. Smith and the remains shipped to Hillside, Oregon, and buried beside the bodies of his parents. Mrs. Bamford and daughter, Mrs. Crandall, accompanied the remains to Oregon. They will return to this city.

Mrs. Bishop Ill

Mrs. J. M. Bishop has been confined to her bed the past ten days due to an infection in the head, but is now reported to be improving. Her many friends join in hoping for her speedy recovery.

Grades and Mud Yield to—
Red Crown

The test of power comes when you are in a tight place—on a sharp grade or in a sea of mud. Then Red Crown shows its worth and proves its parentage.

When you buy Red Crown you buy more than gasoline—you buy the experience, science and knowledge of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) plus a guarantee of service which holds good until the last drop of Red Crown in your tank is consumed.

Your car starts easier — gets away quicker — it accelerates more smoothly — it develops greater power — greater speed, and greater mileage—with Red Crown in the tank.

You can depend upon Red Crown to give you the utmost of power and mileage at least cost.

You can get Red Crown everywhere in the ten Middle Western states. This efficient service makes carburetor adjustment needless and it is a boon to tourists.

Fill up with Red Crown anywhere and get real power that does not recognize a tight place when you come to it.

MOTHERS' DAY

We are coming again to the observance of Mothers' Day when our thoughts turn more especially to the one whom, of all living human beings, we owe the most—the one whose love is never failing and who never knew too great a sacrifice, when the happiness and welfare of her children are concerned.

Mothers' Day is observed on the second Sunday in May, this year falling on the eleventh, when everyone who wants to do homage to motherhood will wear a bright flower for the mother living; a white flower for the mother dead. The carnation is favored over all flowers.

Mothers' Day was originated by Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia, who founded the Mothers' Day International Association, and the sixty-third congress passed a resolution fixing the second Sunday in May Mothers' Day and making it the duty of the president to proclaim it.

The late President Wilson issued the first Mothers' Day proclamation in 1914. States also have given recognition to the day. In 1913 Nebraska designated Mothers' Day as a state flag day; in the same year Pennsylvania made Mothers' Day a state holiday and since 1912 governors of Texas have annually pardoned deserving inmates of prisons on Mother's Day.

The original idea of Mothers' Day embraced the simultaneous observance in every part of the world of the day as an acknowledgement of the love and reverence all men and women owe to their mothers.

In addition to the wearing of flowers as tribute to their mothers, those whose mothers are living, but from whom they are separated, are urged by the promoters of the observance to visit or write them upon Mothers' Day.

Though we stress the second Sunday in May as Mothers' Day, it really should be every day in the year, for it is a background in every heart. The love felt by a mother for her children and by her children for her are things apart. They are proved by service and sacrifice, not by words. They need no special emphasis.

HONESTY IN TAXES

Everybody pays taxes.

We may not own a bit of land or a house. We may not have a penny in the bank, or even a War Savings Stamp left over from the war.

But we pay taxes just as surely as if we owned town houses, country homes and broad acres of farm land, stocks and bonds, bank accounts, mills, factories or railroads.

We all have to eat or starve to death. If the owner of the property in which the grocer has his store has to pay higher taxes, the grocer has to pay higher rent and we have to pay the grocer higher prices for our food.

We all have to sleep if we want to live. If the person who owns the house where we live has to pay higher taxes, then we have to pay higher rent, of course.

If the railroads have to pay higher taxes, they have to charge higher rates to haul everything we consume, and naturally, the increase is tacked on to the paying end—that's where the ultimate consumer hooks on.

Out of every eight dollars of our national income, one dollar goes for taxes—federal, state and local.

This means that the boy whose expenses are eight dollars a week pays one dollar in taxes in the form of prices made higher by taxation.

The same ratio prevails, regardless of the cost of living, though you may not own a dollar's worth of taxable property.

When it comes to dealing with the question of taxes, we need to be more honest with ourselves.

We need to understand that we can not continue to load on overhead and not have our pocketbooks feel it.

Governments are like individuals. The only way they can economize is to spend less money. As long as people clamor for legislation to cure this or that fancied evil, just so long will taxes continue to be high and in some cases oppressive.

Only thru a lessening of this demand and the strictest possible economy on the part of each unit of government in the administration of public affairs, can we hope for relief from present burdensome taxation.

It was pointed out by a representative of the tax commission who addressed an assembly of assessors here last week, that the bulk of the taxes come from local appropriations and that it is within the power of each municipality and local taxpayers to reduce them. That retrenchment is necessary is evident.

Hibbing is making a strong bid for the 1925 state Legion convention but judging by all appearances the Elmer J. Eklund post is not laying down on the job either. The convention would mean a great deal to this city and it behooves the citizens in general and service men in particular to boost the matter along. A strong backing will go a long ways. Sentiment in favor of Thief River Falls as the 1925 convention city was voiced by a majority of post officials in a recent conference and local officers state that prospects are bright, especially if the membership drive launched this week demonstrates the worthiness of the local post.

Thief River Falls has a dozen churches. What part of the city's population would be attending church services if they were filled to capacity every Sunday?

Local Exchange Manager Explains Phone System

Some time ago G. A. Russell, manager of the local exchange of the N. W. Bell telephone company, demonstrated and explained to a few classes of the Lincoln high school the local exchange system.

Much interest was created among parents and other students and while the company always welcomes those who wish to go thru the exchange to gain a knowledge of the working principles of the telephone, it is inconvenient for many to do so. For this reason a series of three articles dealing with the operation of the switch board, local and toll calls and the company's methods of handling the telephone traffic, one of the nation's most vital industries of the country, will be published in The Times. The telephone may be said to be to the nation what the nerves are to the human body, a means of direct and almost instant communication to all points.

Mr. Russell Explains

Following is the first article of the series, prepared by Manager Russell:

Of all our modern conveniences which we are enjoying in this age, none perhaps is used more, or has a more vital effect on our business and social life than the telephone. Yet, few of us realize what a complicated system of apparatus is behind this little instrument on the wall, and the amount of effort and care required to keep it in operation.

The telephone company is always glad to welcome visitors at its exchange, and The Times reporter recently visited the central office and had the system explained to him.

The vital part of the telephone system is the switchboard, this is the nerve center of the system and is a wonderful piece of electrical apparatus. It contains hundreds of tiny electric lamp signals and thousands of tiny wires. Each subscriber's line terminates on this board, and for every telephone there is a lamp and a jack. When the receiver is removed from the hook of your telephone a current of electricity flows thru your line and lights your lamp on the board. This lamp is the line lamp and signals the operator that you are on the line. Each operator has in front of her a double row of plugs which are associated in pairs; front and back, or calling and answering plug. When a light appears on the board the operator takes any one of the unoccupied answering plugs, and places it in the jack that is associated with the lamp, by opening a key belonging to the set of plugs she is using she cuts her receiver and transmitter on the line, and asks you what number you desire. She then takes the front or calling plug and places it in the jack of the line which you are calling, and rings on the connection, thus communication is established between the two stations.

These lights appear to come on in astonishing numbers, and during busy hours the operators are compelled to work at top speed, using both hands to place and take down these connections. When one watches this work under high pressure of this kind it seems incredible that more errors are not made in these connections. Even after the connections are established they must be supervised and taken down when the conversations are completed. This is determined also by lamp signals. Each cord has a lamp connection on its circuit. When the parties on the connection are talking these lights remain dark, but as soon as the receivers are placed on the hook they are lighted, which signifies that the conversation is completed and the cords can be taken down.

The Long Distance Call

A toll or long distance connection is considerably different than a local connection and requires a great deal more work and equipment. The local operator connects you with the toll operator thru trunk lines, or lines running from the toll to the local board. At the toll board all the long distance lines terminate. Here drops are used for signals instead of lamps. The toll operator picks you up on the trunk line from the local board and gets the details of your call, which she posts on a toll ticket. This ticket shows your name and telephone number, also the name, telephone number and town of the party called. The exact time the ticket is received is also posted, and all calls are handled in the order that they are received. The information on your ticket is then passed to the toll operator at the town or city you are calling, and she completes the connection with the assistance of her local operator. The ticket is then placed in a timeing clock devise called a calculagraph, which registers the exact time of the conversation. These tickets are then rated and marked and used to bill your account after which they are filed.

We haven't noticed so many speeders on the streets of Thief River Falls since Judge Tarrant said "Twelve dollars, please," to three fellows who stepped on the gas too lively a short time ago. It is to be hoped that persons who try to make a race track out of the streets, regardless of who it is, be nabbed in every instance and given the maximum penalty under the law. There is no reason why the practise should be permitted to go on, endangering auto traffic as well as pedestrians.

Speaking for the six-foot and more it might be suggested that the lower branches of trees along certain streets in Thief River Falls be trimmed so as to allow passing under them without having the inconvenience of having the hat or cap removed from its proper resting place and perhaps the painful experience of getting the optics injured. Be sure that you allow plenty of clearance when you trim the trees this spring.

"Pride in one's city is the best prescription for making good citizens. If the children in the schools could but have a definite hand in making their city more beautiful, their good citizenship in later life would be assured. To believe in a city it is necessary to take pride in it, and what makes for pride more quickly than beauty."—Lorado Taft.

If Frank Kiene of Kennedy, who was recently elected president of the new state co-operative potato exchange, is as keen as his name indicates, the spud organization is at least well headed.

It is said that more men are seen downtown at noon lunch now that housecleaning is going on.

The fact that a person makes a lot of noise is not assurance that he is a howling success.

Fire Prevention Program Offered by Insurance Men

Thief River Falls may secure the assistance of the fire inspectors and members of the Minnesota Fire Prevention association in conducting a program of fire prevention next year, according to Geo. B. Gray of Minneapolis, chairman of the association's executive committee, who spoke before the Commercial club at the luncheon last Thursday.

The insurance men in company with Mr. Gray were H. C. Hasford, William Mitchell, N. Allen and J. Kane, all of Minneapolis.

Frederick to Grand Forks.

W. H. Frederick, secretary of the Minnesota Wheat Growers associated with headquarters in Thief River Falls was in Grand Forks Monday conferring with A. J. Scott of the North Dakota association in regard to organization work in the four northwest states, North and South Dakota, Montana and Minnesota.

Bejou Bank Re-opens

With a complete reorganization the Farmers State Bank of Bejou, closed last December, will be open to the public this week. The bank will be owned by a large list of stockholders including at least fifty prominent men of the northern part of Mahnomen and eastern Norman counties. The stock has been resold, the money paid in and the stockholders have met their assessments.

Motorists Securing licenses

There are still a number of autoists who have not as yet secured their 1924 license plates, although officials are continually on the lookout for cars without the necessary tag or which have but one plate. Minnesota motorists Tuesday had paid in $7,532,190 in automobile taxes for 1924, or $213,000 more than for the entire 1923. There are 444,800 cars registered, 9,595 less than in 1923.

Viking Men Want Jefferson Highway Routed Thru There

Various routes are being proposed by interested citizens of the territory, particularly of the towns, north of Thief River Falls, as the most desirable route for the Jefferson Highway, re-routing of which is being considered. A great deal of sentiment has been created in favor of a number of routes and it is predicted that the directors and manager of the highway association, who will decide the matter in the near future, will be presented with more than one proposal for the permanent routing.

A delegation of citizens from Viking visited Thief River Falls last Thursday in the interest of the highway matter and propose the routing of the Jefferson thru that point and on to Karlstad. This route would go due north from this city to Steiner and from there west to Viking, thence straight north until reaching the state highway running west from Newfolden and following that highway to Karlstad. This road is said to be in good condition and adherents of this change claim it to be most plausible.

The various views brought out in the matter will all be heard by the state directors and manager and the decision rendered so as to make the most satisfactory routing for all concerned.

Completing Jail Terms

A. C. Rasmusson of this city, who has been serving a ninety-day jail sentence on a liquor charge, will be released from the Marshall county jail in Warren next Sunday. James Farr, also of this city and who was also given a ninety-day term at the last term of district court here on a charge of violating the liquor laws, will be released Tuesday, May 13, from the same institution.

Winton-Nichols Remodel

The office of the Winton-Nichols Lumber company has been altered this week and in addition, Manager C. Nason announces adding a line of paints. The office has been enlarged and the interior finished to make a most presentable appearance. Entrance directly from the street has also been effected.

Menonites Pass Thru City

A train load of 34 cars of Menonites passed thru this city Friday on their way from points in Manitoba, Can., to Chihuahua, Mexico. They left Canada because of restricted freedom in regard to schools and ways of living. The Menonites do not wish to progress as do peoples of other nationalities imigrating to this continent.

Thirteen cars came from Gretna, Man., 13 from Winkler, Man., and 8 from Plum Coolie, Man. The troup included 200 Menonites, and a railroad official was in charge, transferring the cars from road to road for the various connections and taking care of the fares.

Change Shedule

The Triangle Transportation company announces a change in schedule this week, beginning Monday. The forenoon trip remains the same as before, leaving this city at 8 o'clock, arriving at Crookston at 10 and returning at 12:30. The afternoon bus leaves this city at 2:45 p. m., instead of at 1:30 as formerly, and returns from Crookston at 7 o'clock. A change in fare has also been announced. The thru fare to Crookston was reduced from $2 to $1.75, fares to intermediate points remaining the same.

Area Testing in Red Lake Co.

Area testing for tuberculosis in cattle will be started in Red Lake county the latter part of this month by a crew of 28 veterinarians under the direction of C. E. Cotton, executive secretary of the Minnesota livestock sanitary board. Two state and two federal inspectors will also assist. The crew is now working in Murray county, the third county in the state to be tested. Meeker and Traverse having been completed last fall, Red Lake county is the fourth and will be followed by Kandiyohi county.

Ole J. Fallman

Ole Johnson Fallman of Plummer, 96 years old, passed away Tuesday, April 29, after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held Thursday by Rev. C. M. Grimsrud of St. Hilaire from the Lutheran church north of Plummer. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Carl Mathison, and three sons, E. O. and J. O. Johnson and Martin Jenson.

CLEAN-UP WEEK IN THIS CITY OPENS MONDAY

21,000 acres in timothy and clover hay. With prospects of large increases there is hardly any danger of hay shortage even tho there is more livestock.

Corn Acreage Going Up

That there will be a great deal of corn raised in this locality if the season proves favorable is indicated by prospects of an increase in acreage of perhaps 20 per cent over last year, when 7,556 acres of corn were planted in the county, according to farm census. This year it is likely that between 9,000 and 10,000 acres will be planted, says the county agent.

Minnesota Nos. 13 and 23, Northwestern Dent and Rustlers White are the most common varieties in this section, according to Mr. McCann, who states that these varieties are producing splendid results. Displays at various exhibitions by local growers have proven that corn of the best quality can be grown without difficulty here. Planting will take place during the latter part of this month and many farmers are now making purchases of seed and preparing the land for planting.

To take proper advantage of the corn crop Pennington farmers are building silos at a very encouraging rate. There are at present approximately 90-100 silos in the county with possibilities of more during the ensuing summer. Silo owners are unanimous in their endorsements of the merits of a silo on a dairy farm.

More Flax in 1924

A considerable area of new land has been broken up for the seeding of flax this year, which together with the delayed seeding season for other grains, will mean a decided increase in the flax acreage of the county, which was given as 6,347 in 1923. This year it is estimated that it will reach 8,000 or 9,000 acres. With the absence of spring floods much land along the river banks will be available. A striking increase in flax acreage is general throughout the states of the Ninth Federal Reserve district, according to a report last week.

Active seeding operations were resumed last week after having been halted by heavy rains during the preceding couple of weeks. A large acreage of oats is being planted this year and is likely to lead other crops in this county. It held first place last year with approximately 27,000 acres and it is estimated by the county agent that the oats acreage will be practically the same this year. Barley and buckwheat are also expected to remain about the same this year, with a possible increase due to the delayed seeding season for other crops. However, the increase in alfalfa and corn will tend to cut down the area devoted to the other feed crops.

One hundred and seven farmers of the county have signed up 1380 acres in the Minnesota Co-operative Potato exchange, while the Minnesota Sugar company has contracted for about 750 acres of sugar beets, planting of which has started.

In spite of the belated season crop indications are favorable, says Agent McCann.

STATE POTATO BODY IS READY FOR BUSINESS

Frank Kiene of Kennedy is Elected President of New Co-op. Potato Exchange

F. T. SATRE ATTENDS TRUSTEE GATHERING

Future Looks Bright for Organization to Market Crop From 12,000 Acres

Frank Kiene of Kennedy, Kittson county, largest individual producer in the new Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange, was elected president at the trustees' meeting held April 28 in St. Paul. In the balloting Mr. Kiene received 50 out of the possible 52 votes for a position on the executive board and when that body organized, was made president by a unanimous vote. He has 700 acres signed up in the co-operative potato exchange.

F. T. Satre, trustee for the Pennington county unit, was among those in attendance at the meeting, at which every one of the 52 trustees representing 31 counties, were present.

Walter Oby of Detroit, Becker county, was elected secretary-treasurer, after he had been named a member of the executive board. He received 41 out of a possible 52 votes.

Other members of the board are: H. C. Posschl of Baker, Clay county, first vice president; George H. Newbert of Mora, second vice president, Ben Glantz of Park Rapids, Hubbard county and S. E. Olson of Ada, Norman county.

Wallace Represents Public

Dan A. Wallace, editor of The Farmer, is serving temporarily as a member of the board, having been appointed by N. J. Holmberg, Commissioner of Agriculture, under the new co-operative marketing law. As such Mr. Wallace will represent the public.

S. G. Rubinow, who was manager of the organization campaign, will remain with the board as acting general manager, to keep the movement intact and moving forward until the position is regularly filled.

Immediately after the board had been organized, it set about the task of preparing to market the 1924 crop. It spent three days considering possible candidates for the position of general manager, selling facilities and finance director. These decisions are so important that it was finally decided to give President Kiene and Secretary-Treasurer Oby time in which to make special investigations. The board will be called into session as quickly as this work is complete.

The executive board will handle the details of potato selling for 12,420 growers in the state who have signed up 160,000 acres for five years, being directly responsible to the county directors, named in the recent election.

Gathered at the St. Paul Athletic club the farmer business men heard Aaron Sapiro, California co-operative marketing specialist, tell them that the formation of the association was one of the best economic moves the state ever made.

"Right now you compose a sheer business organization," Mr. Sapiro told the trustees. "You must forget the froth of the membership campaign and face the business facts of the situation. You must consider as a business matter how you are going to receive the potatoes, how and where you are going to store them, how you are going to finance them and where you are going to sell them.

"These are real technical problems, and will demand with the utmost insistence real capable management. Minnesota has been famous for its punk ungraded potatoes. The potatoes were not punk in themselves but only because they were ungraded. This will mean, first you must establish complete grades of potatoes and the establishment of a reputation for graded potatoes. This does not mean, merely screening with the separation into sizes, but a separation as to quality and appearance as well.

"The warehouse problem calls for a decision as to whether it should be localized or whether storage should be scattered in many cities.

"The Minnesota potatoes ought to become under your body famous for their quality and reliability just as Minnesota butter is becoming famous under the present merchandising plan.

Declares Future Bright

"Minnesota used to be the happy hunting ground for the potato consignment man. Here he always could buy potatoes that would help him to break the market. You are supplanting a system of dumping of ungraded potatoes on a market with a system desingned for orderly marketing of graded, reliable potatoes. The future looks bright and the business men who have been good enough sports to put their money into the membership campaign, never knowing whether the campaign was going through, are going to find they have taken an important part in the greatest economic move Minnesota ever has made."

ALFALFA GIVES PROMISE TO BE LEADING CROP

WHAT WOULD YOU DO—

If all the Retail Stores were Swept out of Thief River Falls Tonight?

Move to a certainty. The city would not be a fit place to live in. Your property would be valueless. You would not be able to get the food you need, the clothing, shoes and other necessities you wear, without a great deal of inconvenience.

Necessary Revenue for the Operation of the City would then be removed

Too many people take the retail stores as a matter of course. Think only of the benefit the owners get out of them. None of us fully appreciate the great convenience of GOOD RETAIL STORES, such as we have in this city. The local retail store owner whether he owns the property or rents, contributes much in taxes to make this a better city in which to live. The money derived from taxes goes to pay the expense of local, county, state and federal government expenses. He pays liberally for the expense of police and fire protection of which all of us enjoy the benefits. Thousands of dollars are paid out annually in Thief River Falls by the retail merchants in clerk hire and the clerks are young men and women from the families of Thief River Falls.

Think of these things before you spend your money with out-of-town stores. And seriously think of these things before you give an order for household goods, wearing apparel or any articles of merchandise that can be bought in Thief River Falls; think seriously before you give an order to an out-of-town concern or an agent. The out-of-town MANUFACTURER-RETAILER at the best can save you but a few cents on your purchase, and in many instances you can buy even at a lower price and with better satisfaction, from local retailers.

The Out-of-town Dealers Contribute Nothing to Make Your Home City and to Help pay for the Conveniences you Enjoy

HIS INTEREST IN YOU ENDS WHEN HE GETS YOUR ORDER AND YOUR MONEY

The agents of the out-of-town Manufacturer-Retailers are exerting a most malicious influence in every home community. Smug indifference is responsible for much that is wrong with our city. Be consistent, do not boost your home city one day and the next spend your money to help upbuild another community.

The Out-of-town Manufacturer-Retailer Does Nothing

To help pay the operating expenses of your city, he contributes nothing to our churches, our schools, our hospitals, water system, police and fire departments, our parks, library, and other community institutions.

Prove yourself a Good Citizen, show your gratitude for the good things you have in life by giving the above facts your earnest consideration.

This space is contributed to the men and women who have invested their money in our community and who prove that they are worthy of support of the people of this city.

SPRING FEVER

Spring fever is a disease that usually attacks persons in the spring, especially the ones that attend school. The first symptoms of the fever is a sudden emotion having its source in the head. It usually moves downward and when it reaches the feet, the victim becomes unruly and wanders off to places where he shouldn't be. In cases of boys, their feet stroll off to some quiet nook for fishing, while the girls either stay at home reading a story book out on the lawn or go up town to do some spring shopping. This disease proves to be very contagious and sometimes fatal. It has been found to last so long in some cases that the instructors of the various patients have found it necessary to discontinue their instructions to them.

Lincoln High School has been very fortunate to avoid this plague so far this year due to the long stay of the cold weather. If some cases should be discovered, first aid should be applied to avoid the spread of the disease.

—A. W. '25.

Just think; only three more weeks of school left. In fact, there is only two weeks of leisure, but the hard work will come in the third week when exams began.

School has been very wearisome for some pupils. This is because they have either "flunked" or have gotten through school by the skin of their teeth. In both of these respects a student does not get what he should out of his studies and will suffer for it later in life when earning his own living.

On the other hand those students who have had good marks and have been on the honor roll have something really worth while to show for their hard labor. They not only get the marks but the things that they learn will help them a great deal later in life.

Let us hope that each and every one of the Juniors will make up their minds to buckle down to hard labor, next year, and go through school with high honors.

Our Own Vergil

In an exclusive interview, which a "Progress" reporter was fortunate enough to obtain, Vergil Denhart expressed his views on the relative merits of our present day screen stars.

The interviewer was not at all surprised when Mr. Denhart placed Rodolph Valentino at the head of the list. In his opinion, Mr. Valentino is the ideal American lover, the greatest actor on the screen today.

Vergil, however, may possibly be the least bit prejudiced, a possibility which is quickly granted when we take into consideration the very striking resemblance Vergil bears to Mr. Valentino.

Mr. Denhart also deplored the modern youth's disregard of the importance of his personal appearance. It is his opinion that one should always look his best. The feeling of satisfaction and ease which one derives from being neatly groomed is, he says, ample reward for the effort required. The hair (and the reporter colored when he glanced at his) should receive very careful attention in order to bring out that glossy, silken finish which Rudolph's and Vergil's has. Mr. Denhart became reticent and would volunteer nothing more. He failed to respond to a question asked him in regard to whether he liked or disliked shingled hair—perhaps he did not wish to antagonize the girls.

Mr. Denhart may deny the authenticity of this interview; as to that, the readers may draw their own conclusions.

—P. S. '25.

The Junior Issue

Again the class of 1925 ventures forth into the journalistic world to show the other three classes its capability for editing a "Progress" sheet.

This undertaking is not a new one to the class as a whole, but the present staff are nearly all new in this work.

Since the time we were Freshmen, the class has tried to edit a paper which comes up to the high standards of Lincoln High school. In order to do this the class has thrown all its physical and mental abilities into the work.

There is nothing which tends to raise or lower the reputation of a school or an organization more than its paper. If a paper is not fair, then the producers of the paper are not fair. Consequently this reflects on the organization or school and brings down its reputation.

Therefore the staff is trying its best to put out a fine sheet, and thereby raise the esteem of the school for the Junior class.

—E. S. '25.

Last Friday afternoon one of the Junior girls had the misfortune of falling down a few flights of stairs. After she had reached the bottom somewhat dazed, her companion rushed up to her and asked: "Did you fall?"

The chief topic of conversation of the Junior and Senior girls now is the dress "she" had on, and how it looked, etc.

The impossible has happened! Lawrence Mulry and "Mike" Parenteau were among those dancing at the Junior-Senior banquet.

The girls are continuing to cut their locks. Another victim returned shorn to school this noon—Eleanor Swanson.

The Modern History classes have already finished advanced study and have begun the review for the final examinations.

Miracle of miracles!! Ruth Mellby arrived at the banquet on time. Keep up the good work, Ruth.

Miss Rita Fiterman spent Saturday in Warren, visiting friends.

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN SENIORS ROYALLY

Beautiful Decorations, Fine Music and Entertaining Program Make Banquet Success

On Saturday evening, May 3, the Seniors, Juniors, faculty and school board gathered in the club room of the Sons of Norway hall in readiness for the biggest social event of the season, the Junior-Senior banquet. The lattice work above the fire-place, the green, gold and white twisted ribbons, the crackling fire in the fireplace, innumerable pillows, and above all the pretty light gowns of the fairer sex, made it a colorful and beautiful scene. Thomas Melgaard, toastmaster, then announced that all should march into the dining hall, around the long banquet tables until each came to his respective place which was marked by a combination program and place card. Miss Maude Johnson played the march, and the hunt for places began. After a few words given by the toastmaster, the gathering seated themselves, and after several "ahs" and "ohs" at the long tables, beautifully decorated with vases of jonquils and tulips, candles, programmes and nut baskets, with the silver gleaming on the snowy linen in the candle light, began to consume their fruit cocktail with evident enjoyment. The ceiling of the hall was tastily covered with twisted crepe paper, green, gold and white ribbons, with the stage as a fitting background of lattice work and flowers. The following menu was served by the Evelyn hotel staff:

Fruit Cocktail
Stuffed Olives — Crisp Celery
Buttered June Peas
Chicken Patties a la King
Mashed Potatoes
Head Lettuce with Thousand Island Dressing
Parker House Rolls
Brick Ice Cream — Cake
Coffee

After the last course, the following toasts were given: "The Canvas," Lucille Roark; "The Artist and His Palats," Mr. Simley; "The Finished Product," Melvin Engelstad; "The Frame," Mr. Mogenson.

The guests then returned to the club rooms, and the long hall was prepared for dancing, music being furnished by a three-piece orchestra.

The Juniors had worked hard to give this banquet to the Seniors, and because of the evident enjoyment of their guests, feel more than repaid. The efforts made in their behalf will be long remembered by the Seniors.

Why Go To College?

As the school year draws to a close, the Seniors begin to think of Commencement and with this thought in mind, you can hear them ask each other, "Are you going to college?" This question is a serious one, and is well worth plenty of thought on the part of the undergraduates as well as on the part of the Seniors.

Perhaps you feel it is too expensive a proposition and that you cannot afford it. However, it has been proved by hundreds of young people that any person with a fair amount of ambition and with an average mind can work his way through college. Did you ever stop to think how many of the alumni of Lincoln High School, who are getting a higher education, are entirely or partly earning the money to pay for their college expenses? There are many of them and they are getting along very well and, furthermore, are enjoying life. They will admit it is hard sometimes, but anything worth while, usually involves hard work and in order to be successful, one must be willing to work.

One of the chief things the American college does for its student is to train him for citizenship and public service. The importance of this is very obvious. It is easy to see, that the country having the better trained citizens will be superior to the country in which the citizens are not as well-trained. This statement that the college trains its students for public service and citizenship, is easily proved by the fact that of twenty-six presidents of the United States, seventeen were college men.

Twelve presidents of noted universities declared that one of the chief advantages of the college course is learning to think. This statement would prove then that the usual individual can not think as clearly, as quickly or as efficiently as the college student of the same age and ability. Who will be the future leaders of our country? The best thinkers, of course. It will naturally follow then that the college graduate has better chances to get ahead.

The splendid opportunity for acquaintance with good books is another reason for going to college. All the American colleges have splendid libraries and when located in a large city, have the additional advantages of the cities libraries as well.

In college many lasting life-long friendships are formed, broader views of life are obtained and the foundation for life work is securely grounded. The influence of the professors and the technical training of these schools are bound to be felt in after life.

These wonderful opportunities are within your grasp. With a little effort on your part, you can make use of them. Opportunity knocks at one's door very few times. She is knocking at your door now! Heed her call, and one can safely say you will never be sorry.

LENA TO INGEBORG

Say, Ingaborg, I had the swellest time last Saturday night! You know, Ole Margarine came after me for a banquet in his new second-hand ford. My, but I felt nice to go riding to a banquet. I never was to such a thing before so I didn't know what they were, but I tell you that I wasn't going to take any chances, so I got a new dress. Oh, Ingaborg, it was a dream! Ole said it was a startling one, enough to wake you up, but he just was complimentary; he's such a flatterer, you know, Ingaborg. As soon as I heard that there was going to be a banquet, I went to town and bought some swell calico with red and green dots in it. I tell you, Ingaborg, there wasn't a better dress there. My, but it was a pretty one, all trimmed with some tinsel we had left over from last year's Christmas tree.

I just had to have some new shoes to go with my dress, so I took some old blue kid ones that mama had when she was a young chicken like me, and cut them just like the ones they have in Thief River. It was the first French heels I ever had and didn't I feel well though!

But Ole, I never in my life saw such a swell guy! He sure looked nice in those new pants of his. He wanted to get a whole new suit but he didn't have enough money from pitching hay, so he had to get them in installments. They let him have the pants first, as a favor. Then he had his hair cut the new way they have it done in Thief River—like the girls there have it, you know what I mean—like a barn on the top. Oh Ole, You certainly are my sandy-haired, blue-eyed sheik!!

And what do you think, he even decorated up his car for the banquet; he put little streamers from the wheels, and let me hold a flag out of the side-curtain as we went to the banquet.

And Ingaborg, when we got to where they had the banquet, we went into the room where some girls had on some pretty dresses and they told us to go into a room where we could take off our coats. I didn't want to because I felt so foolish with sleeves clear up to my elbows. But what do you think, Ingaborg? Some of the girls had dresses on that didn't have any sleeves on at all! My, but I am glad that mama wasn't with me, or she would have made me go right straight back to the farm. Such immodest people!! In the language of Thief River, they certainly take the cake. Don't tell mama that I used such vulgar language, will you, Ingaborg?

And what else do you think, Ingaborg, they copied us and had streamers on the lights at the banquet! Pretty soon a lady went and played music just like we have at our barn dances and then everyone started to run around some tables that were all mussed up with crazy stuff, and when they found their name they stood there. And what else do you think, Ingaborg? They knew I was coming and what do you know, I found my name just as plain as day on the table standing up. It said "Miss Lena Concertina!" How's that for being swell? Every one was standing up but I didn't see why they did that so I sat down. They had some funny stuff to eat, that they called cocktail, but it didn't look any more like our rooster than I did. Such funny people! I ate mine with a spoon but Ole started with a fork and ended up with drinking it. Then pretty soon a lady came up and took my dishes away, and when she did, I told her what I thot of her! She certainly acted like a thief. Then they brought us some other stuff, I don't know what it was, but I ate it just to be sociable. I looked on the card what had my name on it, and found out that some funny stuff that looked like cabbage was lettuce with dressing on it, and so I didn't eat it because it didn't have any dressing on it. Maybe they were trying to play one good joke on us. And then, Ingaborg, came what I wanted. It has been the dream of my life to eat yellow icecream, and I did. My but it was good, Ingaborg.

And then Ingaborg, they began to speak and when a man stopped then they laughed, so I did too. Ole was sleeping, so I had to poke him every once in a while so he would get educated. At last they got done talking, so we all went into a room where we talked. It was a change to hear someone else make his mouth go besides what they called the toast-master. I don't see how they could call him the toast-master, because he didn't have any toast on him at all.

And then they all went into a room and began to hop around just like they was crazy. So Ole and I did too, and my but it was fun. And what more do you think, Ingaborg? A man came and asked me to dance, and so I did. It was lots of fun, for I would run on his feet, and then he would dance on mine. And then do you know what, Ingaborg? He stepped so hard on my foot that one of my heels came off. My feet got awful tired from walking that way, so Ole pulled the other one off, too.

Then they played "Home, Sweet Home," and I felt like telling them they didn't know what they were talking about, for they never saw mama and papa fight. But Ole said that meant that we should go home, so we went home in the new second-hand ford.

My, but I had a good time, Ingaborg, and I'm going to ask them to have another one soon, for I never in all my life did have such a good time except, of course, the time me, Ole, you and Obijah went to the fair at Grygla and bought those baloons.

CARE OF TEETH IS URGED BY SCHOOL NURSE CLARA HERM

Children Should be Taught in the Home the Habit of Using the Tooth Brush

Following is an article prepared for readers of The Times by Clara Henderson Herm, nurse in the public schools, and is one of a series published during the past few months:

When a child is seriously ill no sacrifice is too great to the average parent. But to save him day by day by giving proper food and training him to form proper health habits is something the importance of which many parents do not see.

Dental defects of children are frequently neglected. The examination of the pupils in the Thief River Falls schools has shown that many children have had their teeth very well cared for, but by far the larger number have been neglected and it is not infrequent that pupils are absent from school, just because their parents have not taught them the proper care of the teeth and toothache is the natural result of their negligence.

Every child should be on intimate terms with his tooth brush. Moreover, he should be taken to the dentist every six months to have the teeth examined, and the slightest cavity cared for rather than to wait for the warning of the toothache.

"There was an old man with a tooth
That ached till he said 'It's the truth
I neglected them young and now I am stung.
How I wish I had brushed them in youth.'"

Through the generosity of one of the dental cream manufacturers, the children in our schools have received samples of tooth paste. Another company which manufactures tooth brushes has presented each of the grades with a chart on which we shall keep a record of the habits of the pupils in regard to the toothbrush. Those pupils who do not fail to brush their teeth twice daily for five days will receive five gold stars. We urge that the parent co-operate with us in this work. A number of the pupils have no tooth brushes and it is hoped that these children will purchase this most necessary article soon. We consider the "family tooth brush" as being more or less of a joke but it is not as uncommon as one could wish.

Clean teeth are not as likely to decay as neglected teeth. Knowing this it is not consistent for parents to permit children to take candy to school. Overindulgence in sweets may result in lack of appetite at meal times. Give the children a proper amount of sweets but give it after a meal, not between meals. The food that is given to a child is one of the determining factors in regard to the kind of teeth that child shall have. On the other hand the kind of teeth a child has determine to a greater or less degree what benefit he is to receive from the food that is given him. Many cases of indigestion in children can be traced directly to the teeth so badly decayed that they cannot properly masticate their food.

Children are great imitators. The little boy or girl who notices that Daddy and Mother brush their teeth regularly will form the toothbrush habit much more quickly than the boy or girl from the home where the toothbrush is seldom if ever used.

"If you want something to last a hundred years go plant a tree.

"If you want something to last a thousand years go plant a habit in a child."

Start the toothbrush habit, for a habit well taught will no doubt be taught to that child's children, and by them to their children to continue for generations.

Football Men To Play Scrimmage Game Sat.

Since football practice began this spring, much green material has developed into strong candidates for the regular eleven. There are also a number of veterans back this year.

In order to show the student body and the public in general what kind of a team Lincoln will have next fall, the coaches, L. A. Thune and H. C. Hand, have decided on a scrimmage to be held this week. The place and date will be the Fair Grounds on Saturday afternoon. Everyone is urged to attend this contest as the school is trying to create more enthusiasm for football so it may be made as much of a major sport as basketball.

The probable line-ups for the two teams will be:

Benson-Langevin	E	Wengler-Anderson
Arneson-Kolden	T	Berg
Halvorson	G	Elofson
Sorenson	C	Gullingsrud
Olson-Ihle	G	Kinghorn
Froseth	T	Mulry
Booren-Melgaard	E	Davidson-Cloutier
Penney	LH	Larson
Bennes	FB	Holzknecht
Zeh	RH	Paranteau
Bjorkman	QB	Streeter

The game will be divided into ten minute quarters.

English III Classes Debate

Debate work is being taken up in Mr. Bye's section of the English III classes beginning with Tuesday of this week. The class is divided into five sections, each section having one day in which to debate. Each side may pick any question it wishes from a large list that was handed in by different pupils last week. There will be three speakers on each side for the first three days and two speakers on each side the rest of the time. Four minutes is to be given for the constructive speeches and two minutes for the rebuttal. There will be decided by a class vote. This work is something different than the regular work that has been carried on in English and will prove very interesting as well as beneficial.

Teacher: "What is a township?"
Pupil: "A car that goes around town acting as a jitney bus."

Students Enroll This Week For Coming Year

Special assembly was called at 3:40 on Friday, May 2, at which Mr. Bye spoke on the coming final tests and the next year's program for the students.

Mr. Bye used a very fine simile in his speech when he compared the nine months of school with a base-ball game. In a baseball-game it is possible for a losing team to win if they make a good "ninth inning rally" and so it is in the high school. Those pupils who have studied and kept up with their lessons will have no fear of the coming tests, but those who have not been keeping up in their studies can possibly in the two weeks of school before the tests "buckle down" to their studies and make a good "ninth inning rally". Those who have eight honor points in any subject since the second semester will be exempt from that test.

To save much time and worry on the part of the teacher and pupil, every student will enroll this week for the subjects they wish to take next year. A list of the subjects available next year to each class was read and written on the assembly black-boards for further study and consideration. By enrolling this year all the pupils will know just what they are going to take next September and there will be no delay in beginning their studies.

No student will be allowed to carry more than four subjects without first consulting Mr. Bye. If a student has an average of "B" in all subjects during the preceding year, he will be allowed to carry more than four as this will show that he is thoroughly competent to carry more than the average amount.

DEAR HANS

Mine dear Hans,

I take me up mine ink und pen and rite you mit a led pencil. We do not liff vere we liffed before, ve liff vere ve mofed. I'm so offully sorry since ve are separated togedder und vish ve ver closer apart. Ve are hafing more vether up her den ve had last year.

Mine dear aunt Katrinka iss dead. She died off New Monia on New Year's day, fifteen minutes in front of fife. Her breathed all leeked out de doctors gave up hope ven she died. She leaves a family of two boys and three cows. Dey found $2100 sewed up in her mattress, dot vos a lot off money to leaf behindt.

Her sister iss hafing de mumps and she is hafiing a swell time. She iss near death's door. De doctor's tink dey can pull her thru.

Hans Brinkdf vas also sick de odder day. He vent down town mit Ike Coen and took his vatch. Dey got errested and got a lawyer. De lawyer took do case and vent home mit de works.

Min brudder yust graduated from de cow's college. He iss an electrocution engineer and a stenografter. He getta yob in a lifery stable estonografting hay down to de horses. De odder day he took our dog up to the sawmill. De dog, he got in a fite mit a circular saw unt only lasted von reundt. De college wass coldt de odder day, so called up de janitor and made it hot for him. I am making mony fast. Yesterday I deposited $100 and today I wrote myself a check for $100 and deposited it so now haf $200.

I am sending your ofer coat by express. To safe charges I cut off de buttons. You will find dem in de insidt pocket. I can tink of nudding more to rite. Hope dis finds you de same.

Your coussing,

P. S.—If you don't get dis letter rite und I vill send anodder. 2x P. X. I haf yust recefed de fife dollars dat I owe u but hafe closed dere letter unt can't get it in.

She: Is your son home from college?
He: I presume so. I haven't seen my car for a week.

"Did your watch stop when it dropped on the floor?"
"Sure. Did you think it would go through?"

Small Boy: "What's the use of washing my hands before I go to school mother? I'm not one of those who are always raising them."

"What is an egg?" said the professor.
"An egg," said the student, "is a chicken not yet."

The boys are resting easy again, since they found that the use of the silverware at the banquet wasn't such a complicated affair after all.

Mr. Matheson: "Elnora, you may translate the next paragraph."
Elnora: "What shall I translate it into?"

Mothers!

Give the children WRIGLEY'S after every meal

A prominent physician says:

"It is surprising how free from decay the teeth can be kept by using gum after each meal."

You know how hard it is to get the children to clean their teeth. By giving them WRIGLEY'S you not only reward them for cleaning their teeth, but the reward is actually the means of performing this important service!

WRIGLEY'S aids digestion too, and acts as an antiseptic wash for the mouth and throat. Several flavors—all of WRIGLEY quality.

Marshall and Kittson Co's. Employ Public Health Nurse

Miss Sarah Morrison, a graduate from St. Joseph's hospital, St. Paul, arrived last week in Warren to take up duties as public health nurse in Marshall county, commencing upon a program of visiting schools at once. The services of the nurse are secured thru the efforts of the Marshall County Health association and the county Chapter of the Red Cross. Miss Morrison has been engaged in social service work previously and will without a doubt do a great deal to improve health conditions in the community.

Kittson has also secured a county nurse, Miss Irene Walquist arriving together with Miss Morrison to take up work there.

ROSEWOOD

Playday and Closing Day at Rosebank

A very successful eight month term of school was closed at Rosebank last Saturday with an outside picnic on the school grounds, and the following notes of the term may be of interest: Harry and Stanley Ranum have attained perfect attendance for the entire eight month term. The following were neither absent nor tardy during the last month: Alice Blomberg, Welma Engelstad Violet and Berton Furan, Eileen Haugen, Florence Mellem, Harry and Stanley Ranum and Geneva Swenson. Mathilda Schenkoy and Pearl Mellem were visitors at school one day last week. County Superintendent Nels M. Engen accompanied by Mrs. Engen and their daughter, Marguerite, and Thorvald Tunheim, editor of the Warren Sheaf, were with us on play day last Friday. The following pupils were promoted to enter the eight grade at the opening of next term: Olivia Swenson, Alma Blomberg, Gladys Sagmoen, Roy Mellem, Berton Furan and Elmer Blomberg. The Steiner-Rosewood playday was held at Rosebank last Friday and was very entertaining. There were two visiting schools besides Rosebank namely Busy Bee and Steiner, the third, Sunshine, failing to be present. Much interest was shown by the pupils in the various contests, which included races, relay and potato races, running high jump, running broad jump and volley ball. Afterwards a very interesting game of base ball was played, the Rosebank pupils competing against the Busy Bee and Steiner schools. The winners at the sectional contests will take part at the county playday to be held at Warren on June 7th. The Rosebank teacher, Miss Edith Patten, left on Saturday evening for her home at Thief River Falls where she will spend a well earned vacation at her parental home.

The moving picture and slide illustrated lecture of dairying, given at the Rosewood hall last Tuesday evening by Max Morgan, a representative of the Fairmont Creamery company of Fargo-Moorhead, was very interesting and educational and drew a large audience. The lecturing part was almost omitted owing to trouble with the moving picture machine, but all the films were run through and generally described throughout the course. A comical film was also included and furnished much merriment, besides several hundred feet of interior film of the various branches of the Fairmont creamery and the way milk products are handled and turned into the finished product by that concern. This was a very interesting study, and showed in detail the various large machines, churns, packers, coolers, testers, graders, etc. At the close a few dozen slides of the best breeds of dairy cows were shown together with their records and environments and methods of feeding. Also were shown the proper housing of dairy stock and better methods for increasing milk production and the improvements of the herd. The Fairmont Creamery company is maintaining a station at Rosewood in charge of D. N. Peterson.

A three weeks' term of parochial school will open at Rosebank next Monday morning, May 12, with Mrs. Bertha Saugen from Steiner as teacher. Following this school will be another three weeks' term by the same teacher at the Busy Bee school.

Emil Bloom, who has been employed at Duluth and Hibbing for several years, arrived home last week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bloom.

Emil Hellquist and Ted Nelson left on Saturday with their teams for Fosston where they will be in the employ of P. O. Landeen from Warren at road construction work this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson motored to Gully last Sunday where Mrs. Thompson will spend a two weeks' visit among friends and relatives. Mr. Thompson returned the same day.

Swen Swenson and daughters, Olivia and Geneva, and John Sagmoen motored to Newfolden last Sunday, to visit Mr. Swenson's farm.

Miss Julia Axelson who has been employed as waitress at Park hotel in Thief River Falls the last week, arrived home on Monday morning for a day's stay with her mother.

John Sorenson left on Tuesday evening for St. Paul where he will attend to business for a few days and also attend to some affairs connected with his World war service. He will return by Monday.

Assessor Selmer Sorenson spent Tuesday at Warren attending the annual meeting of the county assessors.

The Severt Benson family from Thief River Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Sagmoen from Anita motored here on Sunday evening to visit at the B. P. Sagmoen home.

Rev. Werner Drotts from Viking, accompanied by their daughter, Esther and son David, motored here on Sunday evening to conduct services at the Swedish Mission church.

Geo. C. Streeter from Thief River Falls was in town one day last week attempting to sell silos.

Thorvald Tunheim, the congenial editor of the Warren Sheaf, was here in his car last Friday, looking over the community and village in general and also paying a pleasant visit to the local correspondent.

Former Cashier O. S. Hellerud and G. S. Bacon, state representative of the Farmers State bank, motored to Warren on business last Saturday.

The Union Sunday school which operated here so successfully last summer, re-opened under the same management last Sunday for a summer session which will be held also this year at the Swedish Mission church.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Borgie and family were visitors at the home of Ellen's Sunday.

The Farmers club was held in the Hazel hall Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Odegaard left for North Dakota last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Odegaard were business callers in Thief River Falls Saturday.

Oscar Odegaard who is attending school at St. Hilaire spent the week end with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. O. Odegaard.

The Play Day was held at Hazel school Monday.

Patrons On Route Three Show Esteem of Carrier

To show their appreciation of splendid service rendered by the late Earl DeVeling, for four years carrier on rural route three out of Thief River Falls, patrons on that route are joining in contributing to a fund for assisting his widow in defraying various expenses connected with his death. This is a fine manner in which to show their esteem of a faithful servant, who was always willing to render an accommodation and performed his duties in a most satisfactory way. His many friends on the route regret that no more will they meet him at the mailbox on his daily journey, but wish to indicate their respects by a token of help to his surviving family. They are to be highly commended for this act.

Mrs. Margit Williamson

Mrs. Margit Williamson, aged 78, a resident of the Grygla community since 1900, died at her home Sunday, April 27. Deceased was a native of Satesdalen, Norway, and leaves to mourn her passing seven children.

Meeting in Mayfield Town

J. J. McCann, county agent, and Olaf Neset will speak at a meeting of farmers interested in poultry raising at the school house near the Grunde Austad place in Mayfield township Saturday evening, May 10.

Tallak S. Dahle

Tallak S. Dahle, aged 64, for the past 19 years a resident of Highlanding township, died at his home Tuesday, following a ten day illness of influenza and pneumonia complications. To mourn his passing he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Edwin Syversrud and a stepson, Ben, Kveste, and also a stepmother and three step-brothers, Aslak, Ole and Knute Dahle. The funeral services will be held this afternoon and interment made in Oak Park cemetery in Deer Park township, Rev. S. Leirfallum of Wanke officiating.

Conference at Radium

Radium was selected as the meeting place for the North Park Region Conference of Lutheran ministers October 13 and 14, at the gathering of the conference in this city last week.

Vinje Released

Conrad Vinje returned to this city last week from Breckenridge on completion of a nine months' jail term, two months spent at Warren on a state liquor charge and seven at Breckenridge on a federal charge.

HELP FOR OLD FOLKS

Old Age Should Be Happy—Not a Time of Sickness and Suffering.

Too many people begin to suffer at middle age with constant backache, urinary ills and rheumatic pains and aches. Weak kidneys are usually the cause and, if neglected, there is danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Help your weakened kidneys with a stimulant diuretic before kidney disease gets a firm hold. Use Doan's Pills. Thousands of old folks recommend Doan's. Here is Thief River Falls proof:

John Aase, farmer, says: "A cold settled on my kidneys and caused trouble when I was working. When I stooped, my back was so stiff and lame it was hard for me to get up again. I felt tired before my work was half finished. Doan's Pills, from Newell's Drug Store, cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mr. Aase had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Important Pointers For Corn Growing In Northern Minnesota

Important facts concerning successful corn growing in Northern Minnesota have been summarized as follows by Otto I Bergh, superintendent of the North Central Experimental station at Grand Rapids:

1. A variety acclimated and suited to the local conditions.
2. Seed with strong germination.
3. An abundance of fertility in the soil.
4. Thorough working of the soil in order to increase the temperature by stopping evaporation and admitting the sunshine and air.
5. Plant the corn in May as soon as the seedbed is warm enough to permit germination. This is about 60 to 65 degrees.
6. Do not plant too deep. Not over two inches, but cover well to protect against night frosts.
7. A blind cultivation immediately after the corn is planted and light harrowing, even after it has sprouted, will not only free the field from weeds, but will also help to warm up the soil. Cultivation kills weeds, checks evaporation, conserves moisture and warms and aerates the soil.

"There is probably no crop that responds so markedly to an application of stable manure or a proper commercial fertilizer as does corn," says Mr. Bergh. "An abundance of fertility not only insures a larger crop but hastens the ripening of the corn."

There will be a marked increase in the acreage devoted to corn in Pennington county this year, says County Agent McCann, more and more farmers realizing the value of corn in connection with livestock.

That corn, of the right varieties, can be grown to a good advantage in this section has been proven by a large number of farmers in the vicinity of Thief River Falls who have grown splendid crops.

Telephone For Every 5 Persons

There is a telephone in Minnesota for every five persons, nearly enough residence and business telephones to provide one for each family in the state, there being a total of 443,879 at the close of 1923. Practically all are connected with the Northwestern Bell system, of which the local exchange is a branch. There are approximately 1100 telephones in the city of Thief River Falls, which is considerably above the average for the state.

1924 vs. 1913

IN THE advertising columns of this paper, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has stated repeatedly that the price of gasoline is low, and particularly so by comparison with the price of other products.

To confirm the truth of these statements, your critical attention is directed to the table below compiled from statistics of the United States Bureau of Labor and Department of Commerce, showing the price level of various commodities in January, 1924, as compared with that of 1913—taking the latter year as 100:

Gasoline	97.0
Flour	135.2
Potatoes	140.2
Farm Products	144.0
Milk	155.5
Butter	168.7
House Furnishing Goods	176.0
Building Material	181.0
Sugar	196.3
Cloth and Clothing	200.0

Average for all commodities 151

The average man has come to accept the fluctuation in the prices of milk, butter, sugar, potatoes, and like products, as natural. This acceptance is so well-established and time-honored as to be a prosaic incident.

The buying of gasoline is relatively a new experience.

The economical production of gasoline requires large investments—which are possible only with big institutions of vast capitalization. Because of this, the petroleum industry has come in for criticism that does not fall to the lot of other industries.

The above bulletin proves conclusively that the price of gasoline is low and that the dollar in 1924 will buy more gasoline than it could in 1913. This demonstrates the efficiency of the petroleum industry, in which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is proud of its position as a leader.

This Company has earned its leadership by the every-day practice of fairness, equity and justice to all—consumer, employe and competitor—in such a manner as to have gained the confidence, respect and esteem of the thirty million people of the Middle West.

MANY FARMERS GET LIVESTOCK LOANS; $35,000 AVAILABLE

Application Blanks To Arrive This Week—Local Committee To Pass on All Loans

Plans are going forward for the immediate putting into operation in Pennington county machinery to take advantage of the $1,000,000 livestock loan fund created by the new $10,000,000 Agricultural Credit corporation, according to County Agent J. J. McCann, who attended the recent Fargo conference and was appointed by the corporation committee as a member of a local committee of five to have the matter in charge.

Other members of the Pennington county committee are Math Barzen, representing the Commercial club; Waldie Christensen, Hans Anton and Morgan Vaughan. These men will receive the applications, inspect and pass on them and then send them to the corporation body in charge of the project. They will also act as a purchasing committee in conjunction with a bureau head, an authority on livestock, employed by the corporation to direct the centralized buying. The whole machinery has been put into gear for expedient action, says M. O. Grangaard, director of the livestock branch of the corporation. The farmer will select his own stock, with the approval of the local committee and the bureau's purchasing agent.

The plan of operation calls for purchasing of stock with the fund within the community if possible. An effort will be made to buy a number of animals thru the corporation's funds at the Guernsey consignment sale here June 12 when about 100 purebred and high grade Guernseys will be sold to the highest bidder.

Requests for loans from 17 Pennington county farmers have been received by the local loan committee so far, according to Agent McCann, and more are forthcoming every day. The loan applications range from $300 to $1,000, which is the maximum that can be loaned by any one person. Approximately $35,000 of the corporation's livestock fund is available for this county.

The next step by the committee will be to send out the regular application blanks which are expected to be sent out by the credit corporation this week and when they are passed upon by the loan committee the money will be forthcoming immediately, it is planned.

Local applications for loans are not only for the purchase of dairy cattle but also hogs and sheep.

The rate of interest is 7 per cent per annum, 6 per cent representing interest upon the money loaned and one percent to create a fund to be used in providing experienced assistance to community purchasing representatives in the selection and settlement for stock purchased. It is recommended that loans for cattle be made for a period of four years, repayment to be made on the basis of 10, 20, 30 and 40 per cent at the expiration respectively of the first, second, third and fourth year. The borrower is granted the privilege of other and additional payments upon the principal as may be convenient. In the case of both sheep and hogs it is suggested that loans be made for three years. As security the borrower gives his note to the credit corporation with a lien or chattel mortgage upon the identical livestock purchased and such of the increase as is retained for breeding purposes during the period covered by the loan.

To begin with the corporation will operate its relief loan plan only in counties employing a county agent, although others are also organizing local committees in hopes to secure aid for their farmers.

Brother of E. Aubol Dies At a Crookston Hospital

Guy Aubol, brother of Ed. Aubol, residing south of Thief River Falls, died Monday at a Crookston hospital, a victim of cancer for the past 11 years. He had been confined in a hospital the past several months. Mr. Aubol, who was known to many local people, was for 20 years United States deputy internal revenue collector with headquarters in Crookston. Previous to his becoming a revenue collector he conducted a hardware business in Warren.

Funeral services will be held at his former home at St. Hilaire under the auspices of the Masonic lodge. Ed. Aubol left Tuesday morning for Crookston to make arrangements for his burial.

Mr. Aubol is survived by two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. E. Thompson of Volders, Wis.; Mrs. G. A. Bydal of Minneapolis; C. O. Aubol of Big Lake and Ed. A. Aubol of St. Hilaire. Deceased was born April 29, 1856, in Wisconsin.

D'PARCQ DISPOSES OF BRUMUND HOTEL

Stanley A. Bateman of Crookston Becomes Proprietor of Brumund Hotel Today

Stanley A. Bateman, for 15 years connected with the Crookston Hotel, today becomes proprietor of the Brumund Hotel, succeeding Harry W. DeParcq. Mr. DeParcq has made this change on account of his son, William, whom Mr. and Mrs. DeParcq are taking to Minneapolis for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Bateman arrived in this city Tuesday evening to make preliminary plans for taking over the hotel. Mr. Bateman is well known among the traveling public in this state as an experienced and capable man in this line and is welcomed by the business men of this city. He stated to a Times reporter today that in the course of a short time, he expects to re-decorate the lobby and dining hall and make a few other alterations that will make for the comfort and convenience of guests.

No definite plans for the future have been made by Mr. and Mrs. DeParcq, but they have decided that it is necessary at this time to leave for Minneapolis on account of the condition of their son, William. They have enjoyed a good patronage while in the business here the past three years and have made a host of friends in this city who are regretful to see them leave.

Masons Confer 4 Master Degrees Thursday Night

One of the biggest events of the season among the lodges of this city took place Thursday evening when the Northern Lodge No. 236 of the Masons conferred the Master Mason degree on four members of the local lodge. Ten members of six outside lodges were present and a very large number of local members were present. Those who received the third or Master Mason degree are Frank E. Hunt, Walter T. Serkland, Nohrald G. Lawson and Philip R. Larson.

During the evening, after their degree work, talks were made by many local members and a few visiting Masons, including Geo. W. Christie of Red Lake Falls, publisher of The Gazette; L. P. Bowman, of Ada; P. B. Hilleboe of Red Lake Falls, M. P. Guslin of Brooten, and William J. Brock of Minneapolis. The Warroad lodge was expected to attend in force but due to bad roads west of Warroad, it was impossible to make the trip.

After the speeches the time was spent in a social way and refreshments served by a committee. It was late before the last took their way out of the lodge rooms and all pronounced it a fine get-together.

The out-of-town Masons present were: Geo. W. Christie, H. E. Palmer, J. H. Wagner and P. B. Hilleboe of Red Lake Falls, lodge No. 308; L. P. Bowman of Ada, Norman Lodge No. 154; Anton and O. W. Yngve of Mora, Lodge No. 223; M. P. Guslin of Brooten, Trail Lodge No. 285; William J. Brock of Minneapolis, Joppa Lodge No. 300, and E. Gerschman of Minneapolis, Hennepin Lodge No. 4.

The local Mason lodge has received an invitation to attend a Master Mason degree work meeting at Warroad, which will be held in the near future.

Mrs. H. E. Nelson, who has been ill for some time, is about the same today. Her condition has varied little the last few days and recovery will be slow, according to attending physicians.

County Agent J. J. McCann left last evening by car for Moorhead where he is attending a conference of county agents. He expects to return Saturday.

WELFARE BOARDS OF SIX COUNTIES WILL MEET IN CROOKSTON

Problems of Child Welfare Boards Will Be Taken Up At Conference on May 15

Welfare boards from Pennington, Kittson, Marshall, Polk, Red Lake and Norman counties will meet in Crookston next Thursday, May 15, for a regional conference called by Elsa Castendyck, district representative of the state children's bureau. The local board consists of the following members: Mrs. J. M. Bishop, chairman, Mrs. L. G. Larson, Supt. O. R. Sande, Peter Wold and J. S. Roy.

An extensive program of addresses by authorities on child welfare work and discussions of problems confronting the county boards, has been arranged for the meeting and an attendance of all the board members and others interested in the work is anticipated.

Among those scheduled to take part in the sessions is Mrs. J. M. Bishop of this city, local chairman, but owing to her present illness it is doubtful that she will be able to attend. Mrs. Bishop is known thruout the state as an active child welfare worker.

It is planned to hold the regular May meeting of the local board shortly after the Crookston meeting, when Miss Mildred Thompson, supervisor of the department for the feebleminded, will be present.

CLASS PLAY TO BE PRESENTED FRIDAY NIGHT

whose millions are the cause of the play.

The advance sale of tickets indicates a packed house for the play.

Small Class

Only 61 names appear on the list of regular candidates for graduation from the Lincoln high school this year the smallest class for some time. However, there is a class of 15 post graduates in the normal training department who will be given teacher's certificates. Of the graduating class only 15 are boys. The last three years the graduating classes have consisted of 72 members.

The 1924 class has taken an active part in school affairs and instructors are unanimous in stating that its members have done splendidly during their course. Highest scholastic standing was attained by Margaret Melgaard, who was also editor of The Progress page in The Times the past term and active in other phases of school work. She will deliver the valedictory address, while Esther Lunsetter will give the salutatory, holding second place among the '24 seniors. Others whose names appear on the honor roll are Mildred Griffin, who completed her course at the close of the first semester, Ruby Conklin, Helen Radniecki and Mildred Peterson. Joseph Gavin is given honorable mention for having the highest standing among the boys of the class.

Math Barzen, Thomas Belland, Joseph Gavin, Wendell Lundell and John Sether were members of the '23 football team and will be missed next fall as will also Sether and Barzen on the basketball team. The latter was placed on the all-district team in the conference this year.

Melvin Engelstad, another senior, represented the school and also the district in the state oratorical contest, while the debate team consisted entirely of this year's class, Margaret Melgaard, Hazel Krause and May Ballingrud.

Commencement Week

Commencement week opens with graduation services at the city auditorium Sunday evening, May 18, the sermon to be delivered by Rev. J. B. Smith of the Methodist church. Seniors will attend in a body wearing the caps and gowns which will be used at the graduation exercises.

On Friday, May 23, at 10 a. m. 101 candidates will be graduated from the eighth grade at exercises to be held at the Central school. This is the largest class for some years back. In addition were also about 30 mid-year graduates.

Regular commencement exercises will be held at the auditorium on Friday evening, May 23, when the 61 seniors will be given their diplomas and 15 post graduates their teacher's certificates. The commencement address will be delivered by J. F. T. O'Connor of Grand Forks, a brilliant speaker and well known North Dakota man.

New Railway Started West From Big Falls

It is of interest to people of this section to note that preparations are now being made for the construction of about 50 miles of railroad west and north of Big Falls, work on the project to be started within a short time. This will open up a large territory of fine timber land in Koochiching and Lake of the Woods county, and it is expected that this railroad will eventually touch Baudette and Spooner.

In the past there has been considerable talk about building a railroad thru the territory east from Thief River Falls, north of Red Lake, and the building of this stretch west from Big Falls, altho but a short distance at this time, may mean a good deal in future developments of this new country which are certain to come. If the new railroad is completed to Baudette the distance from Goodridge, the eastern terminal of the Electric line, to some connecting point on the former road would be considerably lessened.

MEXICAN LABORERS COMING NEXT WEEK

Sugar Beet Growers Have Seeded About One-Half of Acreage in This Community

Approximately half of the sugar beet acreage in Pennington county will be planted this week, according to County Agent J. J. McCann, who represents the Minnesota Sugar company in this locality. The ground is reported to be in good condition for seeding and the planting of the entire 750 acres signed up by local growers will be completed within a short time.

A few Mexican field laborers have already arrived, although the greater number, about 200 including the women and children, will arrive the first of next week. Housing facilities for the Mexican workers are excellent in this community says Mr. McCann and Field Man David Wigand of Crookston, who recently made a survey of conditions. The houses are clean and in many instances furnished.

Mexican laborers this year will receive $25 per acre for taking care of beet fields. It is said that a great share of the money earned here by these workers is left with local merchants, as most of them spend practically all they earn during the summer months.

Work on Road Near Red Lake Falls is Started

Construction work on Trunk Highway No. 32, northeast of Red Lake Falls, in Red Lake county, has been commenced by a crew of workmen under Zaiser Bros., sub-contractors, under Reierson & Nohre of Thief River Falls.

The first grading is being done between the city and the Jos. Zins farm. The grading should all be completed by the latter part of June. The finishing touches are being put on the new steel bridge across the Red Lake river by a crew of workmen supervised by Jule Matteson of Minneapolis, foreman for the Minneapolis Bridge Co., which built the structure last fall and winter. The dressing of the concrete and the painting of the steel work will be completed in about two weeks. The new route which will shorten the distance between Red Lake Falls and St. Hilaire by more than a mile, will be opened to the public about the middle of the summer. The new road is about seven miles long, and is built through a country where no road previously existed.

COURT HOUSE TO BE ENLARGED; WORK ON STATE ROAD IS LET

County Board Awards Contract to Middle River Men for Construction on No. 1

Bert Norby, local contractor, was awarded the contract for the excavation, repair and construction of basement under the eastern section of the court house in Thief River Falls for the sum of $3,335 at the meeting of the county board of commissioners at the auditor's office Monday, when three bids on the work were opened. The contract calls for the use of cement partitions instead of timber, for which bids were also made, Mr. Norby's in the amount of $3,150. Work will be started about the middle of June and must be completed by Aug. 15.

The enlargement of the court house basement will provide three additional office rooms and a much needed storage vault room. The ever increasing volumes of records which must be kept indefinitely make greater storage facilities necessary. Bidders besides Mr. Norby were C. M. Carlson and The Prichard Company.

The contract for the converting of four miles of high ditch grade to the standard 24-foot highway on state road No. 1 east of Hazel was awarded to Middle River contractors, Schenkey, Moen and Anderson, whose bid of $7,520.45 was $1,818.18 below the next low bid, which was made by H. P. Lund of this city, the only local bidder among the five received by the commissioners. The other bids were: P. O. J. Landeen, Warren, $9,981.63; A. Solberg, Warren, $10,104.10; T. O. Pahlen, Plummer, $9,770.94. The accepted bid is at 22½ cents per yard, which is considered an unusually reasonable rate. The contract calls for completion Nov. 1.

John Gran has taken charge of the motor repair department at Kohn & Fiterman's. Mr. Gran has been engaged in automotive mechanics for many years and is one of the most able men in his line.

NORSE CENTENNIAL PLANS BEING MADE

Great Gathering in Twin Cities Next Year Will Commemorate Norse Emigration to U.S.

Preparations on a large scale are already being made for the fitting observance of the one hundredth anniversary of the events which mark the beginning of Norse emigration to this continent with a Norse-American Centennial of the United States and Canada to be held at the Minnesota State Fair Grounds on June 7, 8 and 9th, 1925. In connection with the Centennial there will be held a national convention of "Bygdelags."

Advance announcements of the Centennial refers to two important migrations from Norway. The first, "a thousand years ago, when many of the Norse farlords, earls and petty rulers refused to bend the knee to Harold the Fair Haired, who had made himself ruler of all Norway, and sailed away to Iceland with all their wealth and many of their retainers. The second began a hundred years ago when the sloop "Restaurationen" crossed the Atlantic to the land discovered by Leif the Lucky, and started an exodus to the broad, fertile plains of America."

The purpose of the Centennial, it is announced, is to commemorate in an impressive manner, the events which mark the beginnings of Norse emigration to this continent and to pay a fitting tribute to the Norwegian pioneers of America.

The Centennial it is said, will be the greatest celebration ever held by Norsemen in America.

Among those in charge of preparations for this centennial is Olaf Ramstad, member of the finance committee of the executive board. O. D. Ostby was nominated to act on the general committee at a meeting of the board.

VOLUME 14 Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota, Thursday, May 15, 1924 Number 15

MANY SEEKING NOMINATION IN STATE PRIMARY

Minnesota Voters Given Wide Choice at Primaries to be Held June Sixteenth

STATE FILINGS TOTAL 183 UP TO WEDNESDAY

O. A. Naplin, Associate Justice Candidate, Only One From This County on List

Altogether 183 filings for state, legislative, judicial and congressional offices were recorded in the office of Mike Holm, secretary of state, when the time for filing closed Wednesday of last week. Minnesota voters at the primary election June 16 will have plenty of material from which to select a slate for the general election in November.

The 1924 primary will be a record breaker as far as number of candidates is concerned. The Farmer-Labor party has the largest number of office-seekers, the total list of candidates who filed for state offices and United States senator under that banner being just double the Republican entries, 38 to 19.

The Democratic party will have only one contest in the primary and that is not scheduled to amount to much judging by present indications. A complete state ticket was filed Tuesday of last week.

There are three aspirants for the United States senatorship in both the Republican and Farmer-Labor parties.

Chief interest will be centered in the contest for governor, for which there are six Republican candidates, eight Farmer-Laborites and two Democrats.

The lineup for the governorship now is:

Republican—Franklin F. Ellsworth and George E. Leach, Minneapolis; Curtis M. Johnson, Rush City; Theodore Christianson, Dawson; O. P. B. Jacobson, Fergus Falls; Julius A. Schmahl, St. Paul.

Farmer-Labor—W. W. Royster, Glenwood; Dr. W. A. Schaper, Tom Davis and Floyd Olson, Minneapolis; Thomas Vollom, Erskine; Charles A. Lindbergh, Little Falls; Dr. L. A. Fritsche, New Ulm, and Victor E. Lawson, Willmar.

Democrats—Carlos Avery, Hutchinson, and Michael Lambrecht, West St. Paul.

Following are the candidates in the race for the office of lieutenant governor:

Republican—Samuel A. Rask, Blooming Prairie; Lloyd Ahlstrom, Minneapolis; W. I. Nolan, Minneapolis.

Farmer-Labor—Emil E. Holmes, Hopkins; Julius J. Anderson, Crookston; Frank H. Keyes, International Falls; J. S. Christensen, Red Wing.

Democratic—Fred Schilplin, St. Cloud.

Three Republican state officers who are seeking re-election will not have to participate in the primaries because they have no opposition for nomination. They are Mike Holm, secretary of state, formerly of Roseau and father of Mrs. Clarence O. Erickson of this city; Clifford Hilton, attorney general, and Henry Rines, state treasurer. Their opponents on the Democratic ticket are in the same position, but the Farmer-Labor has four candidates for secretary of state, Louis Abrahamson, Minneapolis; Susie W. Stageberg, Red Wing; E. A. Preuss, St. Paul; R. A. Trovatten, Clarkfield; five for state treasurer, namely Carl Berg, Erskine; Henry Leuhrs, Glencoe; William H. Friedell, Rochester; John P. Wagner, St. Cloud; Theodore Walstead, Alexandria; and four for the position of attorney general, Thomas V. Sullivan, St. Paul; Roy C. Smelker, St. Paul; John C. Larson, Minneapolis; S. J. Kroman, Minneapolis. The Democratic candidates are: Ole Halvorson, Minneapolis, secretary of state; H. H. Reindl, Odessa, state treasurer; Robert C. Bell, Detroit, attorney general.

For the United States senatorship Magnus Johnson of Kimball is opposed on the Farmer-Labor ticket by Michael Ferch of Minneapolis. Ole O. Sageng of Dalton, Oscar Hallam of St. Paul and Thomas D. Schall of Minneapolis have filed on the Republican ticket. The Democratic candidate is John J. Farrel of Carver.

Only two candidates have filed for the position of congressman from the Ninth district, namely the present incumbent, Knud Wefald of Hawley on the Farmer-Labor ticket, and F. H. Peterson of Moorhead, Republican.

Those trying for railroad and warehouse commissioner are: Republican—Frank W. Matson, St. Paul; C. M. Bendixen, Morgan; August Bloomquist, Brooklyn Center; R. L. Hughes, Duluth; Farmer-Labor—L. J. Altman, Minneapolis; A. E. Smith, St. Paul; Archie Whaley, Moorhead; F. E. Tillquist, St. Paul; Paul I. D. Ostby, Twin Lakes; O. M. Thomason, Benson, Alex Kanter, Minneapolis; A. T. Teigen, Moorhead.

Candidates for chief justice are Samuel B. Wilson, Mankato; Hugo Hanft, St. Paul; Willard L. Comstock, Mankato; Fred A. Pike, St. Paul; Harold Baker, Renville; H. D. Dickenson, Minneapolis.

The only person from Pennington county to file for a state office is Attorney Oscar A. Naplin of this city, former Farmer-Labor senator from the 65th district, who is out for associate justice of the supreme court. Besides Mr. Naplin the list of candidates for this office include Andrew Holt, Minneapolis; Royal A. Stone, St. Paul; John A. Roeser, St. Cloud; William H. Vanderburgh, Minneapolis; and William A. Anderson, Minneapolis. Naplin and Anderson were endorsed by the Farmer-Labor Federation club of Thief River Falls at a meeting last Friday night.

Few Bidders at Delinquent Tax Sale Here Last Monday

County Auditor T. P. Anderson turned real estate agent Monday when the annual delinquent tax sale took place at the court house. Only a few bids were received and very little business transacted.

Arrangements are being made by a number of farmers to secure loans at six per cent interest from the Agricultural Credit corporation for the payment of delinquent real estate taxes, the corporation extending credit for the purchase of tax certificates against which there is a 12 per cent interest rate. Applications for such loans are made through Auditor Anderson, requests made so far aggregating about $3,000.

At the beginning of the year the delinquent tax in this county totalled approximately $90,000 but since then this sum has been reduced about $25,000, states Mr. Anderson. Land descriptions in the number of 1663 were given in the sale list.

WHEAT GROWERS OF 8 COUNTIES MEET HERE WED.

Annual Meeting of Dist. No. 2 of Minnesota Marketing Ass'n., in This City May 21

WILL NAME DELEGATES TO STATE GATHERING

Tremendous Progress Noted In First Year's Organization of Minnesota Farmers

District No. 2 of the Minnesota Wheat Growers Co-operative Marketing association, consisting of Pennington, Red Lake, Beltrami, Clearwater, Itasca, St. Louis, Lake and Cook counties, will hold its annual meeting at the Commercial club rooms Wednesday, May 21, at one o'clock p. m.

Three delegates will be elected to attend the annual state meeting June 4th, which will also be held in this city. A member will also be nominated for election to the board of directors, at the meeting June 4.

The state is divided into 8 districts, comprising about 1000 members each. Each district will elect three official delegates for the state meeting and will nominate one director to be voted on at that meeting. The board comprises nine directors, one from each of the eight districts and one to be appointed by the state banking department.

The Minnesota Wheat Growers in its first year's organization has shown a rapid and steady growth. At present it has a membership of about 8000 and will handle the 1924 crop. Organization crews are out now and as soon as weather conditions become more favorable a more intensive campaign will be launched.

Brumund Attends Annual Movie Men's Convention

H. A. Brumund, manager of the Thief River Theatre company, left Tuesday night for Minneapolis to attend the executive meeting of the officers of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Minnesota, of which he is an officer, held yesterday to make preparations for the annual convention which takes place today and tomorrow. Various matters in the interest of the movie industry are taken up at this gathering. Mr. Brumund expects to return Saturday or Sunday.

Bottling Machine Installed

A modern automatic bottling machine with a capacity of 30 bottles per minute has been installed at the Thief River Falls Co-operative creamery. This additional equipment greatly increases the efficiency of the creamery which is now operating almost to maximum capacity, due to the tremendous increase in cream production over last year.

The best punishment to administer to a scandal-monger is to forget him.

DEMOCRATIC MEETS SCHEDULED IN MAY

County Convention Called for May 27 to Name 8 Delegates to State Convention

Pennington county Democrats will meet at the municipal court rooms in the city auditorium on Tuesday, May 27, to name eight delegates to the state convention in St. Paul May 31, according to a call issued this week by H. O. Chommie, secretary of the local committee and S. E. Hunt, chairman. No caucus will be held, the delegates to be selected from the county mass meeting.

Under the apportionment adopted for the democratic state convention there will be 1,217 delegates entitled to sit. The Cox vote for 1920 was taken as a basis, and with an allowance of one delegate for each 150 votes, this makes large delegations from the three most populous counties. Each county has three delegates at large, however, and this gives the counties outside the ones containing the large cities 250 delegates not based on the party vote.

There will be 1,217 delegates entitled to sit in the democratic state convention to be held in the Auditorium, St. Paul, Saturday, May 31, at 10 o'clock. The state convention will elect four delegates at large and 20 district delegates to the national democratic convention to be held in New York City, also an equal number of alternates and will nominate twelve presidential electors.

POWER DAM IS OFFERED CITY AT LOW FIGURE

Schreiter Makes Proposition To City Council For Sale of Dam Property

MATTER TO BE FURTHER CONSIDERED MAY 27th

Aldermen Have Three Proposals For Solution of Power Problem in Thief River Falls

The city of Thief River Falls has been given one more opportunity to buy the power dam here, and the price is $40,000, it transpired at the council meeting Tuesday night at which time W. A. Schreiter of Red Lake Falls made the offer. The city would also have to take care of the 1923 taxes but these probably could be refunded thru some legal procedure. The land on which is located the flour mill and elevator, together with the present power house and a small strip on the east side of the river would be conveyed to the city if a deal is made.

Inasmuch as the Northern States Power company is spending a large sum of money in modernizing the dam at Red Lake Falls, and is negotiating for the power rights at St. Hilaire, it is very probable that they would take over the local dam if the city does not act at the next regular meeting of the city council, May 27, as Mr. Schreiter stated that certain interests had approached him regarding buying the site. Anyone viewing the flowage at present certainly will admit that the city would be able to generate a lot of power at a low cost if they owned the dam and the present stage of water could be maintained.

With this definite proposition made to the council Tuesday night the alderman now have three definite proposals for a sufficient supply of electricity at all times. These three are: enlarging the present electric light plant by installing a third engine at a cost of approximately $50,000; buying the dam at a cost of $40,000; and the alternative of building a high power line from near Warren to this city and connecting with the Minnesota Electric Distributing company system. These three plans are all being seriously considered by the aldermen every time they get together, either in regular session or informally, and they hope to be able to reach a decision by the next regular meeting date.

NEW OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN BY WOMAN'S CLUB AT MEET MON.

Mrs. G.W. Booren Succeeds Mrs. P. W. Mabey as President of Organization For Year

The Woman's club met in regular session Monday afternoon in the Commercial club rooms. The regular routine of business was transcasted, the annual reports of secretary and treasurer being read and approved.

Mrs. L. G. Larsen and Mrs. Gaston Ward reported on the distict convention held in Moorhead May 6 and 7, the delegates and visitors from the club reporting a very fine convention and are loud in their praise of the hospitality and reception accorded them by the Moorhead people. Nothing was left undone to make them comfortable.

The annual election of officers took place at this meeting and resulted as follows: Mrs. Geo. W. Booren, president; Mrs. A. M. Heggen, first vice president; Mrs. Ferdie Brown, second vice president; Mrs. Lucille E. Johnson, secretary; Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Jr., treasurer.

The club is congratulating itself upon its new set of officers and the retiring officers bespeak success for the Woman's club the coming year.

Mrs. P. W. Mabey presented the two newly federated clubs at this meeting.

The Music Club—Mrs. Gay Halvorson, president; Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Jr., vice president; Mrs. N. K. Harris, secretary; Mrs. C. A. Nason, treasurer.

The Social Welfare Club—Mrs. N. J. Nesse, president; Mrs. T. L. Melgaard, vice president; Mrs. Julius Provencher, secretary-treasurer.

These two clubs have always functioned as sections of the Woman's club since its organization ten years ago. The three clubs will continue to co-operate with each other in every way possible.

Mrs. Heggen in a very fitting manner presented to the retiring president, Mrs. Mabey, a gold gavel pin. Mrs. Mabey responding thanked the board and members of the club for the splendid co-operation accorded her during the club year.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the hostess of the social hour, Mrs. R. Arnold assisted by Mrs. C. M. Schutt and Mrs. F. Will, served delicious coffee and sandwiches. A large cake decorated with white and green, the club colors, graced the center of the serving table, this being in honor of the club's candidate, Mrs. B. W. Froehlich, and the music chorus, who participated in the contest at the Moorhead convention. After a lively social hour the club adjourned.

CITY IS CLEANED UP AND BEAUTIFIED IN CAMPAIGN

Clean up week in Thief River Falls was started Monday with a general mass meeting of citizens, Boy and Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls and other interested parties at the Commercial club rooms in the evening. Talks were made by Dr. J. T. Bowers, Superintendent O. R. Sande and Morris Bye, high school principal. The meeting was conducted by George Wilson, chairman of the drive.

Dr. Bowers stressed the importance of a clean city from the standpoint of health. The danger of flies from unclean alleys and yards and personal cleanliness was the gist of his address. Mr. Sande stressed the importance of a clean city from a business standpoint and Mr. Bye talked on co-operation between the parents and the schools. Tags were distributed and Tuesday every house in the city was tagged with a "Clean Up, Paint Up, Keep It Up" tag.

Results are already apparent. Many of the blocks which needed an overhauling are getting it and by the end of the week, it is anticipated that a cleaner city than Thief River Falls will be hard to find.

MEMBERSHIP OF E. EKLUND POST TO BE BOOSTED

Intensive Drive Opened at Gathering of Local Legionaires—Two Teams Will Compete

TWETE AND HAUG ARE NAMED TEAM LEADERS

Ninth Dist. Commander Yngve and Com. Gunnarson of Warren Speak Here Thursday

Sixty members of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion attended the meeting last Thursday at which was launched the most intensive membership drive ever conducted in this county. Plans were laid to enroll every ex-service man in the county into the ranks of the local post, the gathering being one of the most enthusiastic meetings held by the post. The Thief River Falls post now has 106 members, five joining last Thursday night.

The post membership was divided into two teams each headed by two leaders, who will compete in a membership contest closing May 22, when the losers will give a "feed" to the winners. One division, assigned to the Goodridge territory, is headed by Dr. L. R. Twete assisted by A. W. Crown, while the other team, which will work in the St. Hilaire territory, is headed by Dr. C. M. Haug and Henry Eyde. It is interesting to know that the leaders of both teams served in the army as lieutenants and still remain in the reserve.

Both new and re-newal memberships will be signed up, although there are very few of the latter left after the first drive some time ago. Local Legionaires expect to go over the top one hundred per cent, both teams being bent on victory.

On Monday a meeting of ex-service men is scheduled to be held in Goodridge for the purpose of stirring up interest in the campaign. Another will be held in St. Hilaire on Tuesday, both to take place at 9 o'clock in the evening. Both gatherings will be addressed by local Legionaires, who will be accompanied by a number of boosters and the Legion band. That the meetings will create interest among former buddies goes without saying.

Among the features of the meeting Thursday were interesting talks given by Anton Yngve of Middle River, ninth district commander, and Dr. C. A. Gunnarson, commander of the Warren post.

The Ninth district commander spoke chiefly regarding the boosting of membership, declaring that a post is not 100 per cent until every service man within working distance of the post has been signed up. He assured his listeners that every post in the Ninth district is working with that object in view.

Interesting information as to what the Warren post is doing was given by Commander Gunnarson, who emphasized the public service of Legion posts. Among accomplishments of the Warren unit was mentioned the planting of 300 trees in the city. Boy scout work has also been started. The speaker urged Legionaires to adopt an active program of civic improvement as a service to the community.

Both talks were greatly enjoyed by those present. Interest was also aroused by Commander Oscar Smith and other members of the local post.

The house committee reported some rules and regulations for the use of the club rooms in the basement of the First and Peoples State bank building. Anyone wishing to secure permission for the use of the quarters must see D. W. Robinson, chairman of the committee.

Following the program and business session a "mess feed" was partaken in and a social hour enjoyed.

Oil Station Nears Completion

The new oil station which is being erected at the corner of Bridge street and Main avenue by the Pyramid Oil company is nearing completion and when finished will be one of the finest in the city. The two pumps will be installed in a few days and when the station opens a full line of oils and greases will be carried. Many local residents are financially interested in the Pyramid and a busy season is anticipated.

Scientists are trying to lengthen life and speed fiends are trying to flatten it.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES NEXT SUNDAY, MAY 18

Sermon to Graduating Class of High School will be Delivered By Rev. E. H. Kreidt

IMPRESSIVE PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR EVENT

Commencement Exercises Will take Place May 23—Sixty-one to Get Diplomas

Graduation services, also known as Baccalaureate services, of the 1924 graduating class of the Thief River Falls high school will be held at the city auditorium next Sunday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. E. H. Kreidt of St. John's Lutheran church. Rev. J. B. Smith of the Methodist church had accepted the invitation to preach the sermon but on account of ill health and upon the advise of his physician deemed it best to give some other clergyman the honor of officiating at this function. Rev. Kreidt is an able speaker and his selection will be met with general approval.

Following is a brief outline of the exercises to be conducted Sunday evening: Prelude, Mrs. Doris Halvorson Pope; Processional; Invocation; Hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy," congregation; Scripture lesson and prayer; Anthem, Woman's Club Chorus; Hymn, "Come, Thou Mighty King," congregation; Sermon, Rev. E. H. Kreidt; Anthem, Woman's Club Chorus; Hymn, "Jesus, Thy Words Alone Impart," congregation; Benediction; Doxology; Postlude, Mrs. Doris Halvorson Pope. The Woman's club chorus is under the direction of Mrs. Gay Halvorson, with Mrs. N. K. Harris as the piano accompanist.

The graduating class of 76 members, 15 of whom are post graduates receiving teachers' certificates this year, will attend the services in a body, wearing their caps and gowns. The post graduates will be distinguished by a white tassel on their caps. The baccalaureate services open the closing exercises of the school year for the senior class and are among the most impressive and important events of commencement week. The auditorium no doubt will be filled to capacity Sunday evening by relatives and friends of the graduates.

Regular graduation exercises will take place at the auditorium Friday, May 23, with J. F. T. O'Connor of Grand Forks as the main speaker. Examinations will be conducted from Monday thru Thursday of next week.

OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY PLANNED BY AM. LEGION POST

Committees Selected to Work Out Customary Program to Pay Tribute to Nation's Dead

Initial plans for the observance of Memorial Day in Thief River Falls by the local post of the American Legion were made at a meeting of the post last Thursday evening, at which time the membership drive was launched and other matters taken up.

Two committees to make arrangements and work out details of the program were named at the meeting. The program committee consists of Dr. A. W. Swedenburg, chairman; G. Howard Smith and L. A. Hermanson, while the graves committee is composed of Oscar C. Paulson, chairman; Dave Robinson and Miles Jackson of St. Hilaire. Goodridge will also be represented on the latter committee.

The program is to take much the same form in general as in previous years, with a parade, program at the auditorium and exercises at the cemeteries, according to the committees.

The Legion committee will meet with representatives of other interested organizations in working out the definite plan of observance.

This City To Be Decorated With Avenue of Flags Soon

Thief River Falls streets in the business sections at least will present avenues of uniform American flags on all special occasions as a result of the canvass made here the past week by a representative of the Shenandoah Flag and Decorating company and Victor Polman of the Elmer J. Eklund Post of the Legion. The matter was endorsed by the local post at the meeting last Thursday.

Business men, including practically every retail and industrial house in the city, have placed orders with the company for the flag staff and flag to be placed next to the curb in front of their respective places of business.

The flag is four feet by six feet in size and is mounted on a staff 12 feet in height, and on all special occasions will be placed in a permanent iron seat in the walk at the curb.

Being put in by nearly every merchant and many residence owners as they are, this will present a most decorative appearance. It is the plan of the company to have the flags installed by Memorial Day.

This provides a less expensive and more convenient means of decorating the city and the uniformity of the decoration presents a most pleasing appearance. The proposition was endorsed by the local post of the American Legion, which received a commission on each flag sold.

Attends Installation

Rev. Chas. Gerlinger, pastor of the Presbyterian church, took part in the installation services for Rev. Austin at Warroad Monday evening.

W. J. Brown Will Return To Thief River Falls In June

A communication was received this week by The Times from Wm. J. Brown, president of the American Wheat Growers Associated, Inc., that he expects to return to Thief River Falls permanently to resume his law practise some time as early as possible in June. As previously stated in The Times it was his intention to sever connections with the American Wheat Growers Associated before this time, but he has found it difficult to break away thus near to the close of the business year and has consented to remain for the purpose of closing up this year's business affairs.

"I still have an abiding faith in my belief that the wheat producers of the country should combine co-operatively to market their product," Mr. Brown states. "Only the fact that I cannot longer afford to neglect my own business, compels me to leave the movement."

FLOYD B. OLSON VISITS CITY IN CAMPAIGN TOUR

Farmer-Labor Candidate For Governor Gives First Political Talk Here Monday

FLAYS CORPORATIONS FOR EXPLOITATIONS

Believes Government Ownership Necessary to Solve Present Economic Problems

Opening the political speaking campaign for the Minnesota primaries in Thief River Falls, Floyd B. Olson, county attorney of Hennepin county and Farmer-Labor candidate for governor, addressed a small gathering at the court rooms of the court house last Monday forenoon. Mr. Olson is the first of the many state candidates seeking party nominations next June to speak here. He is making a whirlwind campaign over the state and is speaking in two or three towns daily. Coming here on short notice and at a time of day when few are able to leave their work, his address was not heard by a very large crowd.

Mr. Olson is a young man and is a splendid speaker, presenting his subject in a very forceful, clear and convincing manner.

In his talk here Mr. Olson declared that no candidate for any state office would be able to do much to relieve present conditions by action merely in this state or this section but that it is necessary to make a change thruout the nation. Government ownership of railroads and other public utilities and resources is the only solution to the problem, according to the Minneapolis attorney, better marketing and prevention of speculation in farm products also being important. He scored corporations which he declared have been given special privileges thru the state and national governments by land grants and the like, and cited what can be done in Minnesota to curb exploiting operations by action from the attorney general or governor.

The gubernatorial candidate was accompanied by Walter E. Quigley, formerly of East Grand Forks, who was campaign manager and law associate of Charles A. Lindbergh. Mr. Olson was given the endorsement of the Lindbergh for Governor committee when illness compelled the withdrawal of Mr. Lindbergh from the race.

Olson has been in the county attorney's office at Minneapolis for more than five years. His popularity was shown in the 1922 election when he polled 91,000 votes for the office, the highest vote given any candidate on any ticket.

Recently he went to Washington and appeared before the interstate commerce commission and protested against a proposed rate of $1.66 a ton on the coal freight rate. He was successful in stopping the raise.

It is expected that within the course of the next several weeks a number of other candidates for the gubernatorial nomination in the Farmer-Labor, Republican and Democratic parties will speak in Thief River Falls.

'SYTTENDE MAI' WILL BE CELEBRATED FRI

Lodges to Commemorate Norwegian Independence Day With Elaborate Program

Members of the Sons and Daughters of Norway lodges in this city and invited friends will celebrate the 110th anniversary of the national independence of Norway with a fitting program in observance of the event at the Sons of Norway hall tomorrow Friday evening.

The main talk will be delivered by John Bratrud and several numbers will be given by the Brage chorus, which has been going thru diligent practice for some time under the leadership of Dr. P. L. Vistaunet. The chorus selections will include such well known Norwegian songs as "Naar Fjordene Blaaner," "Skjonne Mai" and many others, in addition to solo numbers. The musical part of the program promises to be a treat in itself—one of the best given under the auspices of the local lodge.

Following the program a social time with dancing and other social entertainment will be enjoyed, and refreshments served. It is expected that members of the lodges and their friends will turn out en masse to commemorate the national Norwegian day.

HIGHWAY MEN SELECT NORTH ROUTE FOR JH

Officials Here on Inspection Tour Decide in Favor of North Towns

NEW ROUTING MEETS GENERAL APPROVAL

Merits of Road and Loyalty of North Towns to Ass'n. Help Determine Decision

Officials of the Jefferson Highway association who met in Thief River Falls yesterday after inspecting the proposed routing of the trail north from this city and meeting with representatives of the towns interested, decided in favor of the north route thru Holt, Newfolden, Strandquist and Karlstad, which will hereafter be designated as the Jefferson Highway and will be marked as such within a short time.

This action meets with general approval here and the towns along the route as now laid out are highly elated over the result. The attitude taken by the Warren delegation, proposing a western route, and the Middle River group seeking routing thru that point, is commendable, according to the officials, and it is hoped that this decision ends the mix-up.

Highway officials who met here were A. H. French, general manager of the highway, from St. Joseph, Mo.; Dick Brophy of Owatonna and C. E. Miller of Staples, Minnesota directors; L. H. Rice, Park Rapids, chairman of the board, and M. L. McLaren, secretary. They arrived Monday night and although a sleet and snowstorm was in progress the following day the party drove to Karlstad by way of Middle River, thence to Donaldson, returning that evening by way of Warren. Yesterday morning an inspection trip was made over the route through Holt, Newfolden, Strandquist and Karlstad, this being the route selected at the meeting of the directors held at the Evelyn hotel upon their return in the afternoon. The merits of the road and route and the loyalty of the towns along that route to the highway association made it an easy matter for the officials to come to a decision. The designation was made on the condition that the road be kept in first-class condition.

Delegates from practically every town north of Thief River Falls interested in the re-routing were present at the hearing and met with the directors during their stay here.

The new route goes 15 miles due north from Thief River Falls, through Holt, turning west four miles north of that village, thence 12 miles west through Newfolden, nine miles north to Strandquist and from there due north to the state road leading to Karlstad, going west three miles. There are only three turns on the entire route, between this city and Karlstad.

Potato Ass'n Board To Meet Here Next Tuesday

Officers and directors of the Pennington county unit of the Minnesota Potato Growers' exchange will meet in this city next Tuesday, according to announcement from S. E. Hunt, president of the recently elected board. The other members of the board are: Carl Beiswenger, vice president; Henry Oen, secretary-treasurer; Waldie Christensen and F. T. Satre. Mr. Satre is the state trustee representing the Pennington county association and will give a report of the organization meeting held in St. Paul recently.

Mr. Satre stated to a Times representative this week that he is thoroly convinced that the men selected to direct the Minnesota exchange are men of the highest ability and integrity and that the affairs of the marketing organization will be conducted to the best advantage of the growers. "It's a big job," he continued, "but the future looks promising. Numerous problems still remain to be solved but with expert leadership such as has been selected by the exchange trustees success is assured."

Weather Has Effect on Play Day Events; Few Reports In

Weather conditions have had their bad effect on the play day events that were to have been conducted in the rural schools throughout the county this week and as a result few were held. The report from district 25, which included district 2, 219 and 135, was not received late yesterday. The playday at district 73 including districts 194 and 149 was not held. District 178 had a good gathering, May 8, and enjoyed an indoor picnic but as district 166 was not present no events were held. District 154 was included. Rev. Chas. Gerlinger was present and gave a talk. Those present participated in community singing. The playday held at district 165 with district 26 terminated in a victory for district 26 but as yet no definite report has been received.

Robert Swedenburg Ill

Robert John Swedenburg, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Swedenburg, is still in a critical condition, having been confined to his bed in a serious condition for some time.

Koepp Improving

William Koepp of Middle River who suffered a broken leg four weeks ago when a cow kicked him, will leave the Physicians hospital here Saturday. In splicing the limb, it was necessary to screw an iron plate to the bone to hold it in place. The leg will have to be kept in a plaster paris cast for about two months. Unless the iron plate bothers, it will be left there.

SOCIAL ITEMS

For Mrs. Brown

A number of friends of Mrs. W. J. Brown, formerly Miss Theone Walker, staged a miscellaneous parcel surprise shower in her honor Tuesday evening. The guests gathered at the B. G. Walker home, taking Mrs. Brown completely by surprise. The evening was spent in hemming towels for the honored guest and at 10:30 refreshments were served. Mrs. Brown was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. The hostesses were Mrs. Leonard Hanson, Mrs. Harry Schuster, Mrs. Rose Johnson, Miss Nettie Ove and Miss Jeanette Oftedahl and the invited guests included the Mesdames R. J. Newcomb, L. D. Hendry, R. B Sharp Club Reviews

The regular meeting of the senior division of the B Sharp club, conducted by Mrs. Thelma Erickson, took the form of a general review of the work taken up during the past year. Written examinations will be held at their next meeting, May 27.

Seven O'clock Dinner

Mrs. E. H. Holmstrom and Mrs. O. J. Erickson entertained a number of their friends at the home of Mrs. Holmstrom at 236 Kendall avenue north Saturday evening at seven o'clock dinner. After the repast the hours were spent at cards. Mrs. J. A. Wassgren won first place and Mrs. B. Mathewson received the consolation prize. The guests included the Mesdames J. Kielty, Harry Schuster, J. Collins, J. H. McClelland, C. R. Whiting, J. Robinson, C. Barden, D. White, B. Mathewson, J. Wassgren, F. Hoppa and John Hawkins.

To Present Pupils in Recital

Mrs. Cora Holmberg, local violin and piano instructor, will present a number of pupils in piano and violin recitals at the high school auditorium Saturday, May 24, and Wednesday, May 28.

The first recital will include twenty pupils of the advanced classes. A group of the smaller pupils and the advanced violin students quartet will be presented May 28.

Shanley-Leverson

Miss Catherine Shanley and Rudolph Leverson, both of Grygla, were united in marriage at St. Bernard's Catholic parsonage Friday, May 2, Rev. B. M. Weakland officiating. They were attended by Miss Mary Maney and Ed. Shanley, brother of the bride. They left the following Saturday for Gonvick where the groom has been on a large farm for some time.

Mrs. Bothun Attends Convention

Mrs. Martin Bothun left this city Monday evening for Minneapolis to attend the tri-annual convention of the Maccabees of the state, which is being held the 13, 14 and 15. Mrs. Bothun participated in the state pageant which was given on the evening of the 13th.

For Mrs. G. Granum

Mrs. Gilbert Granum, who leaves this week for Tacoma, Wash., with her children to join her husband in making their future home there, was honored by the ladies aid of the Trinity church by a farewell surprise at the church parlors Saturday afternoon. Toasts by Mrs. Bernhard Knudsen and Mrs. Andrew Trovaton were given and Rev. T. E. Sweger, pastor of the Trinity church, gave a talk and made the presentation of a set of silverware and a purse of money in behalf of the Aid. Mrs. Granum has been one of the Ladies Aid's most faithful workers and has made many friends who sincerely regret her departure. A sumptuous lunch was served by the Aid, and a program of a piano solo by Irene Hanson and violin duet by Gordon Overland and Just s Larson, accompanied by Lucile Hermanson given.

Eighty-second Birthday

Mrs. Emma Bacon was the guest of honor Tuesday afternoon, when her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Stitt, with whom she resides, entertained a number of ladies at her home on LaBree avenue north, in commemoration of Mrs. Bacon's 82nd birthday anniversary which occurred Sunday, May 4th. The afternoon was spent in a social way, recounting the pleasant associations of the past twelve years of Mrs. Bacon's residence in this city. Two birthday cakes, bedecked with the significant number of candles, featured the lunch served by the hostess late in the afternoon. Mrs. Bacon was presented with potted rose and petunia plants and other gifts. Fourteen guests were present.

Trinity Y. P. S. to Meet

The Young Peoples society of the Trinity Lutheran church will be entertained at the church parlors next Thursday evening, and the following program will be given: Reading by Dr. J. N. Nesse, piano solo by Miss Mildred Engen; vocal solo by Elra Porter and a violin solo by Henry Arneson.

Farewell Party

Miss Eleanor Scramstad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Scramstad, residing at 601 Markley avenue south, was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when a group of her friends, headed by Miss Emma Hagen and Gladys Bergstrom, gathered at her home and honored her with a farewell party. Miss Scramstad leaves with her mother, this week, for Hibbing where they will make their future home. The evening was spent at games and music and lunch was served at a late hour. Those present included Emma Hagen, Gladys Bergstrom, Helen Langen, Mabel Hagen, Edna Bergstrom, Inez Bergstrom, Erma Anderson, May Syverson, Ida Bergland, Gladys and Alpha Ness, Myrtle Olson and Florence Borgen.

Mr. and Mrs. Erickson Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Erickson were host and hostess at their apartment on Third street last evening when they entertained a group of local school instructors. The hours were spent at cards and dancing and refreshments were served at a late hour. The invited guests included the Misses Maude L. Johnson, Doreen Finnegan, Carolyn Mellby, Doris Richter, and Clara Halvorson and the Messrs. H. C. Hand, Lawrence Mickelson, Morris Dye, Lester Guss and Leonard "Lars" Thune.

For Esther Granum

Miss Esther Granum, daughter of Mrs. Gilbert Granum, was pleasantly surprised at her home at 710 LaBree avenue north Monday evening by a number of her friends, who took that means of bidding her farewell before leaving with her mother and sisters for Tacoma, Wash., to make their future home. The evening was spent at games and the honored guest presented with a gift as a token of their esteem. Those present were the Mesdames Delman LeSage and Gust Crown and the Misses Olive Olson, Esther Larson, Myrtle Helgeland, Mildred Engen, Viola Buringrud, Bertha Urdahl, Hilda Ness, Esther Crown, Clara and Olga Lund, Christine Claussen, Thora Hanson and Myrthle Oen.

Share Honors at Farewell Party

The Misses Bernice and Margaret Granum, who leave this week with their mother for Tacoma, Wash., shared honors Saturday evening when Misses Mildred Tessum and Katherine Bakke were hostesses to a group of schoolmates at the Bakke home at 428 Riverside avenue in the form of a farewell party. The evening was spent at games and music and the honored guests were presented with a gift as a token of esteem and a remembrance of the pleasant associations of the past. Lunch was served at 10:30 by the hostesses. The Misses Ann Tharaldson, Agnes Sande and Lyda Batten attended as chaperones. The guests included the Misses Laura Bowers, Verna Liden, Gladys Weeks, Vivian Anseby, Rosine Dahlen, Thora Sweger, Evelyn Carlson, Margaret Evenson, Lois Oden, Vernice Helgeland, Vernice Shanahan, Violet Rhodegaard, Claudia Landro and Mabel Johnson.

Costume Party

A costume party will be staged by the Daughters of Norway lodge at the Sons of Norway hall next Tuesday evening, May 20. Members and invited lady friends may participate. All who attend are requested to appear in costume.

Community Girls Elect

The Girls Community club held it's annual election Monday evening and Miss Fossum was re-elected president. The report of the convention was also made and the report of the year's activities presented.

Miss Emily Fossum was re-elected president; Miss Carolyn Melby elected vice president, succeeding Miss Lyda Batten; Miss Agnes Sands elected secretary succeeding Miss Lovina Adams and Miss Thora Hanson re-elected treasurer. The advisory board will be announced at the next meeting.

The music report on the convention was made by Mrs. L. C. Pope, assisted by Miss Thora Hanson. Miss Nora Steen gave a report of the reports made by various clubs thruout the district, which were made at the convention. The secretary's report of the year's activities was a very complete one. From reports at the convention, the Thief River Falls Girls' Community club is the largest in the district, having a membership of 82, with Fergus Falls second with a membership of about 50 or 60.

A picnic is planned for Monday evening at the tourist park. The next regular meeting will be held May 26.

Share Honors

Gilbert, Oscar and Ernest Granum shared honors last evening when the Boys' club of the Trinity church entertained in the form of a farewell surprise party in the club rooms in the public library. The evening was spent at games and refreshments served. The Messrs. Granum leave for Tacoma, Wash., tomorrow, with their mother and sisters, to make their future home.

Trinity Church Redecorated

Considerable repair has been made in the Trinity church building the past week, and the interior completely redecorated. The ceiling and walls in the church auditorium have been kalsomined and stenciled and new light chandeliers installed. The church parlors are also being refinished. The Ladies Aid of the church is bearing the expense of refinishing the church auditorium and the Young Peoples Society that of the church parlors.

LOCAL CLUB WOMEN ATTEND CONVENTION

Federated Club Meeting at Moorhead—Chorus Takes Part in Music Contest

Members of the Thief River Falls Woman's club and Girls' Community club, who attended the annual Ninth district convention of federated woman's clubs, declare it one of the most successful and best attended conventions they have attended.

Mrs. P. W. Mabey, president of the Woman's club here, Mrs. G. W. Booren, Mrs. Gaston Ward and Mrs. L. G. Larsen, alternate for Mrs. A. M. Heggen, represented the Woman's club as delegates, and Miss Emily Fossum, president of the Girls' Community club, Mrs. L. C. Pope, Miss Thora Hanson and Miss Nora Steen represented that club. The chorus of the Woman's club, comprising ten voices, and which competed in the music contest, included the following members: Mesdames W. W. Prichard, Jr., O. F. Mellby, C. A. Nason, W. R. French, L. C. Pope, Lucille Johnson, F. P. Christenson, G. W. Booren and J. N. Nesse, and Miss Thora Hanson, directed by Mrs. G. Halvorson, who deserves much credit for the efforts expended in bringing the chorus to a point where it was a strong contender for district honors.

Mrs. R. Arnold gave a reading, "War Brides," at the close of the Tuesday afternoon session which was more than well received. The reading was particularly timely on account of the world court discussions which have been conducted by the various Woman's clubs. Mrs. Arnold gave the reading in a very creditable manner and the Thief River Falls club is fortunate in having among their membership so able a reader.

In the annual election held Wednesday afternoon Mrs. H. W. Froehlich of this city received a very strong ballot, coming within one vote of tying the majority vote with Mrs. G. Davis of Warren, who was elected. The contest rested almost entirely with those two candidates and was one of the closest in years.

The chorus of the local Woman's club, while not winning the cup, was complimented by one of the judges as giving their numbers with greater harmony than any other competing team. Some of the choruses which took part in the contest have been organized for many years while the Thief River Falls club chorus was started only last fall. Their numbers were received with overwhelming applause.

The principal speaker was General President Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Minneapolis, whose presidency does not include only clubs in the United States but all over the world. Her address was "America at Home and Abroad" and was declared to be one of the best of which those present had attended. Mrs. B. G. Rounds, state president, also addressed the convention, besides several other speakers of note.

An event which was greatly enjoyed by the local members was a noon luncheon given for Thief River Falls club members at the high school building Wednesday by Miss Eva Skinner, formerly economics instructor at the Lincoln high school.

All of the delegates, 98 in number, and over one hundred visiting club members, were billeted in private homes. Moorhead receives credit for having treated their visitors more than royally.

Grygla Pioneer Passes

Osten Rue, of Grygla, aged 64, died at his home Sunday, May 4, after a brief illness. Deceased was a native of Telemarken, Norway, and came to this country at an early age, residing near the Red river until 1897 when he came to the Grygla community. He leaves to mourn his death, besides his widow, one son, Thor, and, one daughter, Mrs. Halvor Sollid, two sisters, Mrs. Christ Bolstad of Oklee and Mrs. Ole Grovum, and two brothers, Olaus and Simon. The funeral was held Wednesday of last week at the St. Petri church.

Joins Brage Chorus

R. J. Lund of Holt, cashier of the Marshall County State bank, formerly a member of the St. Olaf choir, began practice with the Brage chorus Monday evening. Mr. Lund, tenor, will make a fine addition to the chorus. He will join the chorus in the program at the Sons of Norway hall tomorrow evening. He will accompany the chorus on their trips to the various towns nearby where it is giving programs and to St. Paul to take part in the song fest the latter part of June.

Supt. O. R. Sande Announces State Board Examinations

Acting on information received from the teachers, O. R. Sande, county superintendent, has made arrangements to give the state board examinations beginning Friday, May 23, at the schools indicated in the schedule given below. The examinations are given at those schools where the teacher indicated on the requisition card that they are wanted. Pupils living in districts where the examinations are not given who wish to write may go to the point to which the schedule shows that they are attached.

Following is a list of the districts in which examinations will be given, name of the examiner and the districts attached:

4—Adelie Wiener; 9—Bertha Christianson, 3, 10, and 67; 12—Gunda Engen, 6, 154, 178 and 221; 15—Lillian Hinck, 60 and 65; 25—Goldie Kellberg, 2 and 130; 26—Milda Shefveland, 165; 28—Sarah Sanders; 30—Agnes Newton; 31—Mabel Jacobson, 41; 34—Mrs. Agnes M. Stucy, 52 and 58-J; 35—Lily Gunstad, 11, 16, 51 and 60; 37—S. G. Tharaldson, 47; 38—Laura Wold, 68; 39—Bessie Hegland, 18 and 83; 42—Mrs. Hulda S. Swanson, 29 and 55; 48—Chas. O. Asp, 57, 70J and 228J; 50—Helga Ose, 59; 53—Anne Grinde; 54—Augusta Beiswenger, 166; 73, Ruth Satre, 194; 94—Effie Fredrickson; 108J—Vera Converse; 125—Wildhvena Denhart; 148—Bernice G. Orr; 149—Eric E. Anderson, 127; 180—Lillian Normah, 7, 69, 99 and 100; 219J—Inga Hjelle.

No information has been received at the county superintendent's office from joint districts No. 1, 17, 48, 124, 133, 227, 16 and 83. It is supposed, therefore, that these districts are taken care of from Red Lake Falls.

The examinations will also be given at the court house in Thief River Falls so that any pupils who do not find accommodations elsewhere may take the examinations here.

On account of the nature of the requests received from Districts 5, 14, 65, and 56 it has not as yet been possible to make arrangements to accommodate pupils from these districts, but as soon as the necessary information is received plans will be made and communicated to the clerks of those districts. Anyone interested, therefore, should communicate with the clerk of his district.

The program for the examinations is as follows:

Friday, May 23

2 p. m.—General science.
2 p. m.—Physics.

Monday, May 26

8 a. m.—Arithmetic.
2 p. m.—Geography.

Tuesday, May 27

8 a. m.—Grammar and composition.
10:15 a. m.—Physiography.
2 p. m.—Elementary citizenship.
2 p. m.—Commercial geography and civics.

Wednesday, May 28

8 a. m.—American history.
High school physiology.
2 p. m.—Spelling.

Three Physicians Hospital Nurses Will Enter General In Minneapolis June 1st

Misses Esther Moen of Middle River, Marie Bahn of Red Lake Falls and Millie Mattson of Roseau, who have been taking training in nursing at the Physicians hospital the past two years, will enter the Minneapolis General hospital June 1 to complete their course. They will remain at the General for one year. The Misses Bahn and Mattson left Friday for their parental homes while Miss Moen will remain at the hospital here until next week. At the present time seven affiliates from the Physicians hospital, which is an accredited training hospital, are completing their course at the Minneapolis General.

As will be noted in an announcement elsewhere in this issue there is opportunity for five young ladies to start training at the Physicians hospital, classes starting June 1. Applicants must have at least two years of high school and preferably a graduate. It is pointed out that the possibilities in nursing today are greater than ever before and that the supply of graduate nurses is far below the demand. Besides private duty there are also openings for graduate nurses to hold positions as superintendents of general and special hospitals, supervisors of departments and public health nurses. A hospital journal states that the legislatures of individual states have passed measures creating positions for 50,000 public health nurses, and that only 9,000 registered nurses are available.

So far not one of the affiliates from the Physicians hospital has failed to pass the state board examinations, according to those in charge. Drs. H. W. Froehlich, O. F. Mellby and J. T. Bowers are connected yith the institution, and Miss Esther Stebbins is superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. DeParcq and Son Leave For Minneapolis To Make Their Future Home

Mrs. H. W. DeParcq and son, William, left Friday evening and Mr. DeParcq Saturday, for Minneapolis to make their future home, having completed the transfer of proprietorship of the Brumund Hotel to Stanley A. Bateman, of Crookston. Mr. and Mrs. DeParcq have made no definite plans for the future, and are making the change to give their son, who suffered injuries to his spine in an automobile accident last summer, proper treatment. It is now certain that the paralysis which resulted from the accident, will leave William entirely with the care of specialized physicians.

Mr. and Mrs. DeParcq came to this city in September of 1921 from Mankato, where Mr. DeParcq was engaged with the Standard Oil company. During his stay in this city he has conducted the affairs of the Brumund hotel very successfully and states that he regrets to find it necessary to sever his connections in Thief River Falls. He believes in Thief River Falls and would have liked to continue his activities here, but in the interest of his son finds that impossible.

"We have enjoyed our stay in this city and are especially appreciative of the kindness and sympathy shown us by citizens during William's period convalescency since his injury last fall," Mr. DeParcq said on leaving.

Crookston Bankers Plead Guilty

Charles E. Gildersleeve and Henry O. Anderson, formerly employed in the Merchants' National bank at Crookston, pleaded guilty to embezzlement charges in federal court at Fergus Falls last Friday, and will be sentenced next Friday. The charges against the men followed a check-up of the bank after it had been closed by the National Comptroller's office. A shortage of several thousand dollars was disclosed.

Red Crown
The High-Grade Gasoline
on Highways and Byways

Motor where you will—anywhere in the Middle West—there you will find Red Crown—and uniform always.

You can buy Red Crown at a cross-road pump in the Dakotas with the same assurance of uniformity as you would have in buying it at a Standard Oil Service Station in Chicago or St. Louis.

Perhaps you don't appreciate what an advantage uniformity is. But a paper company writes us: "Our carburetors do not have to be adjusted because Red Crown is always uniform in quality, everywhere." A motor delivery company says:

"In our out-of-town hauling our drivers can obtain supplies of Red Crown no matter how far they are from the garage."

Red Crown will end your carburetor troubles—cut carbon deposit to a minimum—give perfect combustion—and tremendous power—not to mention greatly increased mileage.

Use Red Crown regularly and get all the joy that is to be had out of motoring.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT

The prosperity of the people of this community and the success of the enterprises in which they are engaged depends in a large measure on public sentiment.

It comes from the public mind—the way in which the people of the community view any project or any activity that transpires.

public sentiment is the greatest asset we have because it is the aggregate thought of all of the people.

How do you, as an individual, help make up the public sentiment? Do you take a pessimistic view of everything that is proposed for the welfare and commongood of all the people living here, or do you take an optimistic view and try to foster things that are beneficial?

You belong in one class or the other. Submit yourself to a careful and see if you have been fair when proposals for the betterment of the community have been made.

It is purely a personal and individual proposition. Although public sentiment is the combined view of all the people, it may be swayed in either direction by an overabundance of pessimism or optimism.

The basis of commercial success of a community is good feeling among the business men of the village or city.

It is easy enough to appeal for friendship among merchants who are not direct competitors. However, the need of any community is for complete friendship and complete co-operation. When competitors work together the town takes business from the places where competitors are fighting.—Grand Rapids Herald-Review.

Thief River Falls business men are showing the proper spirit in their get-together noon luncheons of the Commercial club every Thursday and it is to be hoped that the spirit of fellowship may grow and embrace the entire community, including the farmer, professional man, laborer and anyone interested in the welfare of the community. It has been pointed out from time to time that the Commercial club of this city is not merely an organization for the business and professional men, but for farmers and laborers as well, this fact being emphasized at every meeting of the club.

With the many candidates for the various state offices in the primaries June 16 the matter of selecting a candidate to represent the respective parties in the fall election will be quite a problem. Not a great deal is known about many of the aspirants for office by the voters in general. Publicity matter is now being broadcasted by a number of candidates and some have already started a speaking campaign, while others are less active and depend more on committee work by friends and the general good will of the public without solicitation.

Voters should at this time acquaint themselves with the candidates and become familiar with their qualifications, character and past affiliations in order to make a wise and desirable choice when marking the June ballot. The result of the fall election will to a great extent depend upon the selection of candidates in the June primaries.

The combination of "chicken coop" and "co-op. marketing" will undoubtedly mean a great deal to the poultry producers of this section. The organization of a co-operative marketing association in this district is now well under way and with the support of producers and business men and proper management the project promises success. The Thief River Valley and the territory adjacent to Thief River Falls is already among the leading poultry producing regions of the state and is yet in the stage of development. With maximum returns the poultry industry here should make big strides ahead in the next few years.

While the people at home are fighting to reduce local taxes congress has wasted three months without doing a thing towards a tax reduction. Oratory and investigations are rampant in Washington while business waits for some real legislation.—Little Falls Daily Transcript.

The fact that the right-of-way was yours won't help you if you are killed in an automobile collision, altho it may help in collecting damages if you survive.

One death in every nine is the result of an accident which means that one-ninth of the lives lost could be saved if people were a little more careful.

With all the office seekers in the state out to save the country there is no reason why it should go to the dogs.

The trouble seems to be that the man who raises the wheat makes a smaller profit than the man who raises the flour.

The old-fashioned rolling stone that gathered no moss has a counterpart in the rolling dollar that gathers no interest.

There is a bright side to everything, but so many people fail to look at both sides.

One thing that may be said in favor of the radio—It has converted a lot of talkative people into good listeners.

It used to be that the early bird got the worm, but now he gets the first round on the golf course.

This is the time of year when property values make a drop—occasioned by the annual visit of the assessor.

Another sure sign that spring is really here is the number of automobile accidents reported every day.

The fake stock salesmen know that man is the only animal that can be skinned alive more than once.

CO-OPERATIVE SELLING

That the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association is doing a great work in helping the producer of cream in this state get the highest possible return for his product, is strongly evidenced by some of the recent accomplishments of the organization. Since the sales agency was established sweet cream butter from the co-operative creameries thruout the state has been introduced among the twin city stores, which formerly did not handle butter from these institutions. A market has been opened in about 30 large cities thruout the country, whereas previous to the establishment of a central sales agency practically the entire output was shipped to New York where it was distributed and sometimes shipped to western points again. Getting the product direct to the point of consumation cuts down the cost of transportation and handling, thus giving a maximum return to the producer, the farmer.

Announcement has been made that the Minnesota association will supply the entire United States navy with butter for at least one year, the contract calling for nearly half a million pounds of butter for the gobs this year. This is the first time the entire contract has gone to a single concern. The contract calls for butter of very high quality and the price is approximately ten cents above the current New York market, according to the announcement.

The state association controls 560 creameries, one of which is the Thief River Falls Co-operative, and is one of the largest combines in the country. It pays for the farmer to stick by his home co-operative institution.

ADVERTISES EACH WEEK FOR NINETEEN YEARS

The Red Lake Falls Gazette recently gave an account of a business place in that city whose advertising had appeared in The Gazette every week for a period of nineteen years, without missing a single issue. A few weeks ago for the first time in all these 19 years an advertisement from the Spillane Grocery and Confectionery store did not appear in The Gazette columns, the proprietor, Leo Spillane having sold out the business.

The store was started by his father nineteen years ago and since the first insertion at the opening of business, the advertisement has been changed practically every week. Sometimes it would be only three inches single column, then again it would be a half page. But it was always there. When the younger Spillane bought the business he continued the splendid advertising record his father had started.

"Father and son were thoroly convinced that a liberal supply of printer's ink was a profitable investment and their business prospered," says The Gazette.

Thief River Falls merchants who are consistent advertisers have also found that advertising pays. Newspaper space is the most inexpensive and effective means of getting your message to thousands of homes and readers, and getting in touch with the ultimate buyer and consumer.

Everyone reads the local paper—you never see it thrown into the wastebasket at the post office, but it is regularly brought into the home and read by every member of the family.

FOR WHAT KIND OF EDUCATION IS THE FARMER PAYING?

A high school in a community in a western state supported almost entirely by agriculture is giving only eight-tenths of one per cent of its teaching effort to agriculture. It is giving 14 times as much of its teaching effort to foreign languages as to agriculture. Yet this community will rise or fall according to the degree of intelligence brought to bear upon agricultural problems.

The country has been stirred from center to circumference since 1920 because of acute problems growing out of the agricultural situation. The best minds of the country have found the problems so complex that little agreement as to proper solution exists. Ought not the school especially in such communities as are primarily dependent upon agriculture give a large part of their effort to training that will help directly in the solution of farm problems? Ought not farmers themselves solve their own problems? Can farmers ever be certain that proper measures are proposed when they originate with other than farm groups? Is your school so organized that a reasonable amount of effort is concerned with the solution of farm problems? If not, why not?

"This community boasts of splendid dairy herds, record-breaking yields of sugar beets, alfalfa and other crops, but what greater crop is there than the boys and girls of the community in the public schools?", declared Principal Morris Bye of the high school in a talk before the Commercial club last Thursday. "If you know some student who would benefit by a little boost or kind advice, help him along. It may mean the success or failure of a life. You older men, do your part to make the youth of this community an asset and worthy of the highest pride."

With the large number of filing fees contributed by the numerous candidates for state offices it seems as tho the tax levy for the year could be cut down a bit.

Too many people believe only that which they want to believe.

Mrs. Storholm's Sister Dies

Mrs. Sarah Starvig, wife of Martin Starvig of McIntosh and sister of Mrs. O. G. Storholm of this city, passed away last Saturday at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. L. Svisdal at Crookston. Mrs. Starvig had been receiving medical attention in Crookston since March 25. Cancer was the immediate cause of her death. Mrs. Stardig leaves to mourn her passing, four children: Mrs. Art Dille, Miss Mildred, Maynard and Lester, and her aged mother, Mrs. Onetta Olson, of McIntosh; three sisters, Mrs. Storholm of this city, Mrs. Svisdal of Crookston and Mrs. Oscar Oppegaard of McIntosh; and three brothers, Hans Olson of Grand Rapids, Fred and Henry Olson of western Canada.

The funeral was held at McIntosh yesterday and was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Storholm, the latter leaving for McIntosh Monday while Mr. Storholm went yesterday morning.

Mrs. Stardig was known to a number of Thief River Falls residents having visited here a number of times.

Formaldehyde Solution For Potatoes Explained

This is the time when potato growers are treating their seed for various diseases and in the furtherance of agricultural extension work County Agent J. J. McCann has submitted the following article explaining the hot formaldehyde solution, for which there is a great demand. The directions are prepared by R. C. Rose, extension specialist, University Farm, St. Paul:

The hot formaldehyde method for treating potatoes is equal to the corrosive sublimate method in effectiveness. It controls both scab and rhizoctonia diseases. Furthermore, this method saves considerable time as the potatoes are soaked only two minutes instead of 1½ hours. Formaldehyde does not attack metals like corrosive sublimate, and therefore metal containers can be used for it.

The solution is made by adding 2 pints of formaldehyde to 30 gallons of water. The water should be heated to 118 degrees or 122 degrees before adding the formaldehyde, and the temperature maintained between these points while treating the seed. A good way to keep up the temperature is to use a metal stock tank with a tank heater, or dig a trench and build a fire under the tank. Some growers use both the tank heater and fire below the tank.

A good floating dairy thermometer will help check and regulate the temperatures. When the temperature is at the required point, the potatoes should be allowed to soak in the solution 2 minutes, then removed, put in a pile or bin and covered with canvas or sacks for one hour. At the end of that time, the potatoes are ready for the cutter.

In dipping the potatoes in the solution, it will be found beneficial to use either crates or wire baskets, as sacks interfere with the circulation and temperature of the solution around the potatoes. The solution does not weaken with use as corrosive sublimate does and therefore can be used continuously. However, a great deal of the solution is carried off with the potatoes and lost, and this must be replaced from time to time from a reserve supply of the diluted solution.

FARMER-LABOR CLUB IS ORGANIZED HERE

Chas. Hellquist Named Chairman at Meeting Friday. Another Gathering Tomorrow

Members of the Farmer-Labor Federation in this city met at the municipal court rooms Friday evening to form the Farmer-Labor Federation Club of Thief River Falls, a sort of booster unit to work in the interest of the party during the current campaign. An effort will be made to enter into the ranks of the club as many progressives as possible, according to those who are promoting the movement. The Club is affiliated with the state Farmer-Labor federation.

The meeting was called to order by J. E. Nelson, local railroad man, and O. A. Naplin, former senator from this district, was chosen chairman and Mr. Nelson secretary. Chas. Hellquist, Soo Line engineer, was selected permanent chairman of the club, O. A. Naplin, vice chairman, and J. E. Nelson, secretary-treasurer. O. F. Halldin, Carsten Christensen and Andrew Trovaton were named on the board of trustees.

Articles of organization will be prepared and presented at the next meeting of the club which is scheduled to be held tomorrow, Friday, evening at the municipal court rooms.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, it is of paramount importance that the judges of the State Supreme Court be men whose sympathy is with the people, and whose judgment is fair and impartial as between all classes of citizens, and

Whereas, at the coming primary election the candidates for this court will go on ballots without party designation,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Farmer-Labor Federation Club of Thief River Falls hereby endorses the following candidates: For chief justice, F. A. Pike; for associate justices, Oscar A. Naplin and W. A. Anderson.

A resolution was also passed thanking Calderwood for withdrawing his name as candidate for governor in order to clarify the matter of selecting a candidate out of so many.

Beltrami Board Votes To Keep Up Co. Agent Work

Terminating, at least temporarily, a bitter fight by those opposed to the farm bureau and county agent, Beltrami county commissioners at their meeting last week voted an appropriation of $2,500 to continue agricultural extension work in the county.

Opponents of the farm bureau have for several weeks waged a bitter fight again making an appropriation to support agricultural extension work. Reduction of taxes has been the reason advanced and many have claimed that the benefits received from the farm bureau do not warrant the amount of money spent by the county in supporting it.

Petitions from places thruout the county were presented at the meeting and it was found that there were 59 in favor of the retention of the farm bureau and 356 against it. Several of the commissioners, however, believed that many who favor the appropriation did not sign petitions, while those opposed did, and for that reason voted in favor of making the appropriation.

Farm Bulletins

A large number of bulletins and pamphlets concerning various phases of dairying, stock raising, poultry raising, crops and other farm subjects have been received from the agricultural department in Washington by the county agent's office and may be had upon request at the office in the auditorium, according to Agent J. J. McCann. Many farmers in the community are now availing themselves of the splendid opportunities to secure expert advise and information regarding farm problems from bulletins issued from the various agricultural departments, experiment stations and university farms. A large quantity is distributed from time to time from the local county agent's office.

MINNESOTA TAXES RISE MILLIONS IN PERIOD OF 50 YRS.

Increase of $12,000,000 in 1923, According to Auditor Chase's Abstract

From the pioneer days of Minnesota, when the total population of the state was no more than that of its largest city today, from the days of new towns, new railroads and new clearings, to the day of purebred livestock, diversified agriculture, highly developed mines and factories, is a span of 50 years.

What that period has meant to the development of values and wealth in the state is shown in a compilation of land values and tax levies by State Auditor Ray P. Chase.

Taxes collected by state, county, township, city and school district jumped from $4,000,000 to more than $126,000,000 in that period. Taxable land values show a tremendous increase in the same period, from $67,000,000 to $1,976,549,257 in 1923. And at the same time personal property values climbed from $20,000,000 to $255,000,000. The average rate increased from 30 to 59.47 mills.

Minnesota tax collections for 1923 will jump $12,000,000 as a result of the 5 mill increase authorized by the last legislature, the total levies for the year being recorded at $126,517,992. State revenue and school funds will share in the increase, the revenue funds increasing from less than $6,000,000 to more than $13,000,000 in one year.

That Minnesota is not alone in the business of increased levies, however, was shown in reports made public by the census bureau in Washington recently. Levies for 1922 in all states of the union were $3,502,941,000. In 1912 the total was $1,349,841,000. Assessed valuation went up with the levies, jumping from $69,000,000,000 to $124,000,000,000 in the 10 year period.

WINSLOW CHAPTER MEMBERS HONORED

T. R. F. Eastern Stars Put On Closing Ceremony at Grand Chapter Meet in Minneapolis

Winslow Chapter of the Eastern Star in Thief River Falls has been honored by the grand chapter in being asked to put on the closing ceremony of a subordinate chapter at the grand chapter meeting which is being held at the Masonic Temple in Minneapolis this week. Five members from Winslow chapter including Mrs. J. E. Robinson, Mrs. E. O. Mogensen, past worthy matron; Mrs. L. W. Manther, associate matron; Mrs. Mauritz Brink, associate conductress, and Mrs. Carl Carlson, warden. H. C. Durrin, a member of the Winslow chapter and now grand worthy patron, will also attend. Only three other chapters will take active part in the program.

More than 1,500 members of the Order of Eastern Stars from all parts of Minnesota will take part in the activities. The annual election of grand chapter officers takes place today.

Principal M. Bye Speaks To Commercial Club Gathering

An appeal to members of the Commercial club and other men of the city to lend a helping hand by encouraging and boosting failing students in high school was made by Morris Bye, principal of the high school in a talk before the club at the luncheon last Thursday. Schoolmen of the city were special guests at this gathering, those present besides Mr. Bye being Supt. I. T. Simley, Lester Guss, L. A. Thune, Lawrence Mickelson, H. C. Hand and Clarence Pope.

Mr. Bye emphasized the fact that scholarship in high school is encouraged by various character forming habits such as habits of study, dependability, punctuality, regularity of hours and other health habits which help the student get the right start. He also mentioned outside activities such as athletics, declamation, oratory, plays, the school paper and annual, which gives them a chance to develop along certain special lines in which they may be talented.

"In spite of all that the teachers and schools can do for the student to encourage scholarship," continued Mr. Bye, "there is still a number who are not doing as well as they should. Many of these students who fail or are merely getting along would do better if some older person, as a friend, would take interest in them, talk to them about their work and encourage them to greater accomplishments."

The speaker urged that the club members and others play the part of "big brother" to high school students in promoting the best interests of the community.

Out of town people staying at the hotels in the city over Sunday will be shown around in the country near Thief River Falls, according to sentiment expressed by many at the club meeting, several voicing their willingness to take visitors out riding whenever convenient, and in this way extend a welcome to strangers and showing them the splendid city and farming community.

Co-op. Telephone Company Taken Up by Garden Valley

A decision was reached last Thursday by the Garden Valley Telephone company, with headquarters at Erskine, to take over the Red Lake Eastern Marshall Farmers Co-operative Telephone company, which operates in the eastern part of this county, according to information received from Thomas Vollom, manager of the Garden Valley company. If the railroad and warehouse commission approves of the deal, the matter will be settled in a week or so.

The Garden Valley company is maintaining 15 exchanges in this section of the state, with 3300 subscribers, the value of plant and equipment being placed at $175,000. The Grygla Co-operative Telephone company is also considering consolidating with the Garden Valley.

Petition for Alley Pavement

The improvement to the post office alley by paving it last year with concrete was so pronounced that the idea has gained favor with property owners abutting on the alley between Third and Fourth streets and Main and Knight avenues to the extent that they petitioned the council Tuesday night to improve that alley in the same manner.

The petition is signed by the Larson Furniture Co., Jung Bros., Empire Farms Co., Ed. Lee, the trustees for the Masonic temple, F. J. Stebbins, H. M. Hicks and Ole Sandness, these petitioners representing 16 out of the 24 lots of the entire block.

A hearing thereon was set for the next regular meeting of the council which will be Tuesday night, May 27, and undoubtedly this improvement will be ordered in at that time.

Industrial Department is Important School Factor

Following is an article explaining the various phases of industrial training as taught in high schools and its value to the student, prepared by Clarence Pope, instructor in the industrial training department of Lincoln high school in this city. It contains a great deal of valuable information regarding this very important part of the youth's training and should be read through by every parent and prospective student. Mr. Pope has worked up a splendid department and the display of finished articles exhibited the past week is evidence of what has been accomplished during the past term.

The article follows:

The advent of manual or hand training into school curriculums is comparatively recent, although it found some application back in the middle of the seventeenth century. Since that time this subject has received the careful and earnest attention of scores of educators and industrialists everywhere.

It was at this early time when John Locke, a far-thinking English educator, made the statement that "We are educating men's brains only——" and set people to thinking of the fallacy of supposing that there was no cultural value in the training of the hand. Since the inception of manual training into school rooms, many schemes and ideas have been tried with varying degrees of success. Upon the experiences which proved themselves to be of value to European schools, America has endeavored to build a practical, efficient, cultural system of vocational and industrial training for her own youth. There have been many errors committed in perfecting the system but when broadly surveyed, great strides have been made in the paths which have proven themselves to be correct by the test of time. Since the state and national governments have manifested a greater interest in education in general, more and better progress has been made possible. The State of Minnesota, for example, is making in reality a uniform course of study for each industrial subject, and otherwise obtaining standardization in credits, hours, equipment, arrangement, etc., so that a student receiving a credit slip in a subject taken at Thief River Falls will mean the same as one given for the same subject in any other school.

In the field of manual training, a great array of terms and names have come about to designate various kinds and types of schools and training. There are two general types of training which must be differentiated between, as they are quite dissimilar.

Vocational or life work training is a definite, intensive course of study which trains the individual to do a specific job in the industrial or commercial field for his personal profit. In other words he is trained to compete in industry as a means of livelihood. This type of training, by its nature, is usually narrowed down to include only that information and manipulative skill which is actually necessary to make him a skilled worker in his chosen work.

Industrial training is a broad form of education which gives all boys and girls a series of experiences and a fund of facts which are intended to assure a wide understanding of how the world's work is done. It does not assume that the individual has decided upon a life work nor does it aim to develop great skill in any of the experiences thru which he may pass. It seeks, rather, to develop a fair degree of skill in the use of common tools, to give information and experiences that will make for a broad view of the industrial world and social adaptiveness, to point the way to numerous occupations, to foster appreciation of good workmanship, tools and materials and to develop such personal traits as the habit of industry, responsibility for the execution of a task, accuracy, orderliness, proper attitude toward others and effective group participation. General industrial training is for all and rightly so.

It follows, therefore, that general industrial training shall find its application in all high schools, while vocational training shall, because of its specialization, be found in special departments of high schools of larger systems and in all special trade schools and colleges.

The industrial training offered in our local high school consists of auto mechanics, wood work, wood finishing, sheet metal, concrete, mechanical drawing and general repair. Shop projects and exercises are carried out in each of the above subjects. Useful projects for the home, school, and community, which yield the required processes, are made.

The subject of repair is especially stressed because of its worth in the upkeep of the home.

The school year is so divided that the pupil who enrolls for shopwork passes thru the various trade experiences successively, with a definite time allowance for the study and work of each unit.

This year the industrial department of the high school has served one hundred and sixty grade and high school boys and has endeavored to give them somewhat of a glimpse and appreciation of the great industrial world about them and to help them realize something of the condition of work, limitations and opportunities in several of its various phases.

Who can better realize the beauty of the color harmony in a well executed home, appreciate the obstacles overcome by the builder or see the close coordination of mind and muscle as shown by the skilled artesian than he who has been taught to realize and appreciate and see?

Industrial training has its obligations to fulfill in the evolvement of the future citizen. Young life must find expression and youth must be served.

Interesting Reports Are Submitted to City Dads

Reports of the various city departments were presented to the city council at its meeting Tuesday night and were duly ordered received and filed.

The report of the dairy inspector showed that he had covered 40 miles in making his various inspections during the past month looking after the protection of milk consumers of this city. Of 46 samples tested all but two were found to be legal due to minor causes. Of the 54 tests for sediment 38 were clean, 10 were fair and 6 poor. One cow had been condemned on account of tuberculosis and ordered killed. The tests for butterfat showed percentages running from 4.80 down to 3.50 the requirement being 3.25 so that all milk being supplied the citizens here is above standard. The standings shown are as follows: Conklin, 4.80; Creamery, 3.84; Copp, 3.80; Jensen, 3.70; Myrom, 3.70; Barzen & Kreamer, 3.62; Johnson, 3.56; Noper, 3.50.

The report of the city clerk indicated a cash balance May 1 of $44,501.99 as compared to $32,894.81 the previous month, with receipts having been $20,870.38 and disbursements of $9,263.20; while the light department for the month of April showed earnings of $4,551.48 and the water department for the past three months of $2,383.38.

The report of the chief of police indicated four arrests in April, three having been for speeding and one for being drunk; the report of the municipal court showed fees and fines collected amounting to $79 during the month.

The report of the city scales was again very disappointing, there having been only 58 loads weighed, the city being enriched to the extent of $5.80 while the cost of operation amounted to $40. The aldermen were surprised that the supposedly popular clamor for city scales did not materialize the way it had been pictured to them, inasmuch as they are trying to hold down expenses as much as possible.

When the city clerk, P. G. Pederson, read the list of city bills to the council at the regular meeting Tuesday night the council gave close attention thereto, noting the fact that of the toal amount, $3,257.90, nearly $500 was for the street department for the last half of April.

Some excellent work in getting the streets ready for spring has been done, yet the street committee would like to permanently improve some of the main streets where heavy traffic is almost impossible after severe storms, but the council was elected on a plea for entrenchment and they are fearful of spending too much money in this manner.

This policy of holding tight to the purse strings of the city is also being carried out still further in connection with the poor department. When the new poor farm is ready for occupancy this month all those who are now getting aid from the city will be called on and given an opportunity of going to this poor farm or having their aid from the city cut off. The number of poor receiving aid has been gradually cut down but further retrenchment is in sight.

The bid of the Union Plumbing and Heating Co., for $287 for plumbing at the poor farm was duly accepted, they being the lower of the two submitting bids, Ed Lee being only $5 higher. The work will probably be completed this week.

Horse and Car Collide

An odd accident occurred near the bridge on the graveled highway east of this city at Squaw Point Saturday morning. A Mr. Jorde was driving out of town with a horse and buggy and met Ole T. Ose, on the road just at the east end of the bridge, in a car. In trying to slow down the horse, Mr. Jorde broke one of the reins and pulled the horse onto the car with the other. The horse's head hit the windshield and the animal received many severe gashes. Mr. Ose dodged and protected his face from the flying glass and on account of the fact that he was driving slow, he stopped his car almost immediately and prevented further mishap. Neither driver was hurt and the horse is recovering.

Highway Men Inspect Roads

A. L. Flygare, divisional highway engineer of Fergus Falls, E. C. Slocum of the highway department, St. Paul, and B. W. Sewell of Crookston, maintenance superintendent of the First district, were in this city Wednesday of last week on an inspection tour of the highway lines in this vicinity. They are favorably impressed with the progress made in Pennington county. While in the city they called on County Engineer Bert F. Umland.

Road Construction Begun

Albert Crown, who has the contract for the construction of the road between this city and St Hilaire, has established temporary camp about half a mile north of the latter place on the Martin McAndress farm. Ten teams will be employed at that point, with Lloyd Crown as foreman, and operations were begun this week. This road improvement is one that is looked forward to by all autoists in this section. The contract calls for completion by this fall.

State Auditors Here

Auditors Groat and Johnson of Minneapolis and St. Paul respectively, arrived in this city the fore part of the week to make the annual audit of the books of the Minnesota Wheat Growers as required by state law. They represent the public accounting department. Mr. Johnson returned Tuesday evening and Mr. Groat will be engaged for a few more days. The state law requires examination of the records of all co-operative organizations by public accountants once a year.

COST OF RUNNING COUNTY IS $27,439

Tax Abstract for 1923 Shows Pennington Costs Lower Than State Average

Very few counties in Minnesota are run at a lower cost than Pennington, according to the tax abstract recently compiled by State Auditor Ray P. Chase, which gives figures covering the 1923 levy for county purposes. Only one county, Mahnomen, in the northern part of the state is operated at a lower cost than Pennington, which is a remarkable record.

According to the abstract, the following figures show the levy for the general fund in the northern Minnesota counties, this being the fund from which money to pay the running expenses of the counties is taken:

Mahnomen	$ 19,964
Pennington	27,430
Lake of the Woods	29,236
Clearwater	30,486
Roseau	31,943
Red Lake	35,019
Kittson	55,065
Marshall	65,867
Koochiching	65,675
Beltrami	67,951
Polk	111,684

The highest average tax rate in the state, not including special assessments, according to the report, is paid in Beltrami county where the average rate is 133.77 mills, Koochiching county being second in the list. The lowest rate is paid in Rock county, where it is only 32.61 mills. Teh average for the state is 59.47. The average rate for Pennington is given at 71.63 mills; Red Lake, 69.09; Roseau, 70.89; Polk, 52.67; Marshall, 59.03; Lake of the Woods, 113.94; Kittson, 55, and Clearwater, 68.30.

Pennington county's tax levy for 1923 totals $495,515; Red Lake, $269,445; Roseau, $591,441; Polk, $1,427,665; Marshall, $931,106; Lake of the Woods, $394,022; Kittson, $471,840; Clearwater, $272,621, and Beltrami, $1,116,348.

Green of Stephen Opposed For Legislative Position

F. A. Green of Stephen, representative from the 67th district, will be opposed at the primaries, June 16, by P. B. Malberg, a former Marshall county official, now a farmer in Excel township.

P. H. Kulle of Alvarado, chairman of the Marshall county board of commissioners, and A. S. Rokke of Newfolden, have both filed for reelection from their respective districts. Filings for these offices can be made until May 26. Malberg, who was formerly clerk of court and county auditor, is well known thruout the county.

He was endorsed by the Farmer-Labor party in Marshall county at the county convention held in Thief River Falls this spring.

Farmers Are Advised To Dock Their Lambs

Farmers, especially those owning small flocks are losing thousands of dollars annually because of their failure to dock and castrate market lambs, according to a statement issued by J. S. Montgomery, general manager of the Central Co-operative Commission Association.

"Packers have advised us," the statement says, "that they will discriminate more than ever against buck lambs. Inasmuch as those are salable only to packers, it becomes increasingly important that this class of animals be reduced to the minimum. Whether and ewe lambs, on the other hand, find a ready outlet to shippers.

"We strongly urge all shippers to dock and castrate as early in the season as possible. If this advice is followed, shippers will obtain more satisfactory returns when the animals are sold."

School Board Meets

A regular monthly meeting of the school board of Independent District No. 18 was held last Monday night. No matters of special interest were taken up, the session being given over to routine matters.

Ajudged Insane

Albert Johnson, about 30 years of age and single, of St. Hilaire was adjudged insane in probate court recently and taken to Fergus Falls for treatment. It was said that at times he spoke irrationally, wandered of by himself and otherwise manifested mental incapacities.

Made in Five Grades

You reduce carbon to a minimum—you lengthen the life of your engine and bearings—you minimize repair bills—road annoyance—laid-up car—and lost time.

All this you get when you purchase a gallon of Polarine—well worth-while, isn't it?

Hundreds of thousands of motorists in the Middle West have proved that using Polarine is sound business. They are following the chart at the left. Your car, also, is there.

Stop at the next Standard Oil Service Station or at any Garage or Authorized Filling Station showing the Polarine sign; tell the attendant to fill up your crankcase with the right grade of Polarine.

Then, drain your crankcase every five hundred miles and refill with the right grade of Polarine.

SENIOR ISSUE

This is the fourth time that the work of issuing a "Progress" has been assigned to the Senior Class. Each time we have worked hard to make our paper a success, and this time, because it is the last "Progress" we can issue we want it to be the best "Progress" ever published in Lincoln High.

Many "Progresses" have been printed since we entered high school, but we have taken the best and most active interest in the ones that we have issued. It is true, that a member of our class is the regular editor and many others are members, but they belong to the staff. It is only when we begin our own work for the "Progress" that we commence to appreciate the staff.

Our paper represents our school, and it is the only means that other schools have of judging us. Our social activities, our basketball, and football games and all the contests that we take part in, are printed in the "Progress." Likewise our class affairs, therefore, the reason we wish to make our class paper a success is because we want other schools to know that the Senior class in Thief River Falls is the peppiest class in Lincoln High.

Many times during the school year we have worked hard to accomplish some task and now that we have only a few days left to work for Lincoln High, we wish the rest of the students to know that it has always proved a pleasure.

—H. K. '24.

We have come to that place in our journey which is called "the parting of the ways." Our High School career has given us knowledge so that we may live a life of usefulness, has created friendships undying and loyal, and has instilled in us an ambition to succeed. Our separate paths lie before us and gazing ahead we see a long winding road stretching far into the years. At the outset we must be well supplied, for how far can a traveler go on without proper equipment? We must pack in our bag enough faith, hope, cheerfulness, and ambition to carry us over miles and miles of rugged, desolate, and dreary roads. When the way seems endlessly long and weary, faith in ourselves will carry us on. Hope and cheerfulness will lighten the load and ambition to do and to accomplish will hasten our progress to success.

—H. P.

"The Senior Farewell"

Dear teachers, we'll miss you
When school days are past;
We'll miss the hard lessons
We've mastered at last.
Harsh words we have spoken,
Cruel deeds we have done,
Blue cards you have given,
Forget every one
We beg you and hope there'll
Between us exist
The friendliest feeling
That nature can list.
We know you have labored
Nine, long, weary months
To help us gain knowledge,
Forget foolish stunts.
Become the young women,
Become the young men
A nation would proudly
Have rule it again.

Dear students, we'll miss you
When school days are o'er.
The class quarrels, we ask you,
Remember no more,
But lend us a smile, for
'Tis nearing the day
That we must depart, and
We'll gladly repay.
We'll miss all the parties,
The games and the noise,
And everything done by
Our girls and our boys.
When we have departed
We wonder if you'll
Miss US, hoping that we
Will come back to school.
You're working, we know, to Become what are we
Work on, fellow-students,
And Seniors you'll be.

Dear Lincoln, we'll miss you
When school days are past;
The years spent in thee have
Been flitting so fast!
In thee have we learned to
Be honest and good;
In thee have we learned how
To earn our own food.
Dear Lincoln, we love thee,
Thy contents as well—
Thy class-rooms, assembly,
And loud tardy-bell,
Thy blue cards, thy permits,
O. K. or N. G.
Room 204 and
The cooking-room key,
The library rules—
They were all for the best;
Adieu, Alma Mater,
Likewise, help the rest.

—T. S. '24.

Miss Keyes: Do you think a river is a good boundary and why, Harvey?

Harvey: Yes, it is because it can easily be seen.

Teacher: What things must we do in order to prevent forest fires?

Bright Student: Kill off the fire-flies.

Miss Keyes: When did immigration start?

Maurice H.: When Columbus came over here.

"Why did your pop say I reminded him of a telescope?"

"Because you're so easy to see thru' and you magnify everything so."

Frosh—Why do trains whistle at night?

Senior—To keep up their courage, I suppose.

"Why is your face so red, little girl?"

"'Cause, Ma'am."

"'Cause why?"

"Cosmetics."

SENIOR CLASS PLAY "MARY'S MILLIONS" MAKES DECIDED HIT

Capacity House is delighted with Sparkling Comedy Presented By Class of '24

"Who is that crazy-looking sheriff? Give me that programme so I can see. Doesn't he make an ideal one though?"

"Isn't she a scream? Oh isn't her hair funny? I've never seen anyone with that color hair. Look at the way she watches the Count."

"Wouldn't that French Count make you sick, though? He sure can put on airs. Wasn't that good when Boggs turned his pockets inside out and there wasn't a penny—and he a Count!"

"Say, you wouldn't have known Liv on a bet! Didn't she look and talk like a perfect French woman?"

"And wasn't Mary simply charming?"

"Didn't Pete come to the play? He'll be sorry when you tell him how good it was."

These are just a few of the remarks which were heard during and after the Senior class play, "Mary's Millions," last Friday evening.

Indeed, it was the event of the season and no one could have wished for a better one. Under the careful supervision of Mr. Lawrence Mickelson and with hard work on the part of the cast, little time was needed to bring it to perfection. The cast was as follows:

Mary Stanners, a rich girl, who hasn't lost any of her simplicity of character, played by Margaret Melgaard.

Count Victor De Selles, a French Count, played by Melvin Engelstad.

Countess Lola De Selles, Victor's sister, played by Liv Vistaunet.

Mrs. Stoneham, an aunt of Mary's and her guardian, who tried to make her niece marry the Count so she could have someone with a title as a relation, portrayed by Hazel Krause.

Mr. Stoneham, Mary's uncle, storekeeper and Postmaster at Rockyhollow, played by Lawrence Bjorkman.

Abija Boggs, Rockyhollow sheriff, justice of the peace, and in fact, Jack-of-all-trades was characterized by Orrin Storholm.

Mrs. Mudge, an old woman who was devotedly attached to her oulja board having had wonderful, simply wonderful results from it, acted by Elsie Blair.

Hylda Peterson, as a young school teacher and fortune teller, was fascinating in the way she developed the engagement between herself and Math Barzen, a representative of the Consolidated Air Line, and a childhood friend of Mary's.

John Sether, a thorough business man, saves Mary's money for her when everybody else thinks it is lost by the failure of the Company. He finally wins the school teacher.

Hurriet Morgan, as a hired girl, brought many "eclats de rire" from the crowd by her maneuvors and her "gowky" ways.

Math Barzen, as an engineer, and intimate friend of Mary's held the interest of the audience by the many trying experiences which he passed through, not the least of these being to tell Mary of his engagement to the school teacher.

The girls that took part in the chorus afforded a great deal of amusement the few minutes they entertained the audience, not only by their ability as singers but also by their festive garments.

The high school orchestra, under the direction of Miss Maude L. Johnson, entertained the audience with several musical numbers between changes of scenery.

The play was a decided success from a financial point of view and the funds received through this source will put the Senior class treasury in fine shape.

"You can't laugh that off," said the warden as he put on the straight jacket.

Junior—"I wish to ask you a question concerning a tragedy."

Mr. Mickelson—"Well?"

Junior—"What is my grade?"

She—It's only six o'clock and I told you to come after supper.

He—Well, that's what I came after.

So beautiful she seemed to me
I wished that we might wed,
Her neck a pillar of ivory—
But alas! so was her head.

Mother: "Son, where have you been?"

Son: "Out on a date."

Mother: "With that dirty shirt?"

Son: "No, with a girl."

Black: How much you gettin' working here?

White: Ten per.

Black: Ten per day?

White: Naw; perhaps.

Our little Henry, aged thirteen
Dropped his gum in the sewing machine,
Now nobody knows where Henry lurks;
He's frightened to death since he gummed the works.

'Neath California skies,

With her Massachusetts eyes.

Senior Advisor: Always love your teachers.

Stude: I tried that once, but she got mad.

1st Stew: I'll drive, you're drunk.

2nd Stew: Aw right.

(They hit a telephone pole)

2nd Stew: Fooled yuh—didn't unlock the steering wheel.

As I was going to bed one night I looked upon the wall,
The roaches and the bed bugs were having a game of ball.
The scores were 2 to 0 and the roaches were ahead,
The bedbugs scored a home run, and kicked me out of bed.

SCRIMMAGE GAME

There will be no spring football games this year with Warren as has been planned but a second scrimmage game will take place next Saturday afternoon at the fair grounds. The two teams taking part are the "Unconscious" and the "Dizzies," composed of the members of the high school squad. The game will commence at four o'clock in order that the townspeople who are interested in seeing the material that is being developed for next year's team may attend.

Senior B. B. Team Is Presented With Banner

The Seniors, being victorious in the inter-class basketball tournament, were awarded the 1924 class championship banner last Friday at chapel. Principal Morris Bye gave a short talk on basketball and why competition was necessary. He then presented the banner to Wendell Lundell, captain of the Senior class team, who delivered a speech of thanks.

The banner is of red and blue and is the first one to be presented to the team winning the class tournament. As it hangs on the wall in the upper hall, it is hoped that it may spur on future contests and thus do its share in promoting among the student body a deeper interest in athletics.

Miss Keyes in Civics: "Helen and Joe are appointed to make the platform for our covention."

Orrin: "You better appoint a chaperone too."

Ancient History Teacher: How many former Presidents are now living?

Bright Pupil: Two, William Taft and W. J. Bryan.

Heard at operetta practice: "You have a very bird-like voice; reminds me of an ostrich."

"Well, Jimmy, did yer win?" demanded a loyal supporter of the Backstreet Rovers, who had been unable to attend the match.

"O' course we won!" replied Jimmy, who, to tell the truth, looked rather the worse for wear.

"Wot sort of form was yer in yerself?"

"Fust class."

"Kick a goal?"

"Well," admitted Jimmy reluctantly, "I can't say as I 'xactly kicked a goal, but—" brightening perceptibly—"I kicked three forwards, a 'arf-back, the goalkeeper, and the referee! So I reckon I done my bit."

Mr. Matheson: "Either Spanish, Italian or French."

Margaret Roark (in Ancient history): "When was powder first used in Europe?"

Lawrence Best is nursing a swollen cheek as a result of cranking an engine. It seems that the crank flew off and "fetched him a lick in the jaw" as Lawrence puts it.

Curious bystander, listening to broadcast concert—"What makes all those pauses in the music?"

Weary Bert—"Sparrows on the aerial picking off the currants."

A magazine writer tells us that a dog fills an empty space in a man's life.

This is especially true of the hot dog.

Miss Johnson: You have a remarkably powerful voice.

John: Yes? Do you think I shall be able to fill the concert hall?

Miss Johnson: Not only fill it, my friend, but also empty it.

Miss Keyes, having been absent from sociology class was asked the next day, "Miss Keyes, did you get your permit?"

SENIOR CLASS DAY PROGRAM HELD MON.

Parade Through Town, Program at School, and Picnic at Aubol's Grove Fill Senior Day

The class of '24 held their Senior day on Monday, May 12. They assembled at the Central school at 8:30 in costumes that were almost pre-historic. A group of the Seniors represented in actions and dress different faculty members.

After a parade through town, they marched up to the high school to the music of the Senior band. The lower classes were waiting on the school grounds because the school doors remained locked until 9 o'clock due to a decree issued by the Seniors.

The assembly and the halls were decorated in gold and white, the Senior colors and the class rooms were decorated with cartoons.

The Seniors put on the following program which was well received as shown by the hilarious outbursts of laughter.

Selection by Senior Band.

Presentation of Class '24 by Bert Umland.

Telephone conversation by Melvin Engelstad and Edith Novak, representing Lester Guss and Miss Richter, respectively.

Class prophecy by Melvin Engelstad.

Presentation of appropriate presents to the teachers.

Class Will by Bert Umland.

Mock Teachers' meeting.

Class Yell.

The Seniors again assembled at the high school at 12, and were taken by cars out to Aubol's grove where they had a picnic. The picnic was chaperoned by Mr. Mickelson and Miss Thompson and in spite of the cold weather everyone enjoyed the outing.

Today in our Solid Geometry class,
When Mrs. Korstad called upon a boy
Who to hear recite is our greatest joy,
Something very sad came to pass.

When he got out of his seat
And walked until he reached the board
To prove a theorem about a chord,
He slipped on the floor and landed beside his feet.

Geometry, we know, is very bad
But we had never known before
That it was hard, so very hard
That it would overcome our most courageous lad.

But nothing could stop this case
He gets right up, and goes to the board.
Carrying the pointer as if it were a sword
And laughs the proposition in the face.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD GIVEN LOCAL YOUTHS

Pennington County Boys Make Splendid Showing at Northwest Ag. School

Oliver Howard of Highlanding among the Pennington youths who graduated from the Northwest school of Agriculture, Crookston, March 27, was given the point system award which embraced general excellence in conduct, scholarship and creditable participation in school activities. Elmer Miller of Erie, junior at the college, was awarded the scholarship for having made the greatest progress in his class in school work during the term just closed. Each of these scholarship awards is $45 in gold, derived from the Caleb Dorr bequest to the university schools of agriculture.

Arnie Solem of Thief River Falls, who has been active in school affairs of the Crookston college, during his course there and was president of the graduating class, gave the class oration in which he urged that forming an ideal and the striving for its realization should be the constant endeavor of the class. The highest ideal, he concluded, should be the usefulness in the home community expressed in lives of service.

Those from Pennington county who graduated from the Northwest school this spring, besides Messrs. Solem and Howard, are: Theresa Aakre, Goodridge; Orlie R. Hofdal, Hazel; Bert K. Johnson, Kratka; Jesse O. and Selmer Anderson, Erie. Fifty were graduated from the school this year, which was the eighteenth school year.

Seventy-eight students were reported on the honor scholastic call, having a grade of A in at least three subjects and above grade in their other subjects. This county was well represented on the list, as the names of the following students will indicate: Oliver Howard, Highlanding, Arnie Solem, Helen and Anna Flekke, Thief River Falls, and Elmer Miller, Erie.

HIGH SCHOOL DANCE

An all high school dance will be given at the Sons of Norway hall on Saturday evening at eight o'clock. Dancing will commence promptly at eight and will cease at eleven-thirty. All high school students and faculty members are cordially invited and as this is the last social gathering during the school year, it is hoped that everyone will attend. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged to cover the cost of music.

Dere Jack

Well hows the old hoss today? I am fine and hop yer ar the same. Listen, youngster, they had what you call Senior day yestiday. That is when the Seniors dress up like a bunch of hicks and come up here and fool around. We got quite a lay off on accounta them guys. Talk about your crazy costumes they win the nickel plated tooth brush bristles. And their band. Say, it was a howl or any way that is the kind of noise they made. Some of them dizzy Seniors were supposed to represent teachers. This here Melvin Engelstad was Mr. Guss and he was purty good two. Edith Novak was Miss Richter (who is Mr. Guss' girrul, doncha know?) and them two had a telephone conservation which was a complete K. O. I'll bet that is the way them two talk anyway, because they sure have got it bad. They augturget married like Mr. Lars Thune says. Bertha Holthusen was Miss Dreamy Finnigan or better known as "Irish," and by gee, I thot it wuz that Finnigan gal at first myself. She was right there with the line I'll tell the red-nosed world. Even Dreamy's favorite expression, "Oh, so Dumb." Hazel Krause was Mr. Mickelson and let me tell you she was there with the goods. Even to the purty, green immitation nose-blower that he carries as an ornament in his coat. You've heard about this guy Bert Umland haven't ya? Well, he was Miss Nelson and——enough said.

Then they had a teachers meeting which was the lightning bugs dynamo. They was goin' to make us quit chewin' gum, kin ya tie that? They sang a few songs then and cleared out. We enjoyed their program and hope they will came again, but the best part of it was we got out of half a day of school. Hoot Mon!

Waal, Jack, yu old hay shaker, I think I'll have to sign off now as I run out of ink a while back.

Yours till roosters wear socks,
—Jimmie.

Large Percent of Each Class is Non-Resident

Did you ever stop to wonder how many non-resident students Lincoln High accommodates? About 37.5% of the entire student body are non-residents. Of the Freshman class of 105 pupils, 40 are non-residents; of the Sophomore class of 130 pupils, 43 are non-residents; of the Junior class of 105 pupils, 34 are non-residents; of the Senior class, of only 61 pupils, 35 are non-residents. In the order of percentage, the Seniors rank first, having a percentage of more than 53%; Freshmen second, having a percentage of about 38%; Sophomores third, having about 33%; and the Juniors the lowest percentage, having only a little over 32%.

Miss Thompson—What other country did they take?

Cleon B.—Didn't they get Hungary?

Miss T.—Yes.

Cleon—Well, why didn't they take Turkey then?
